

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Nova ed., cui accessere Mabillonii vita et aliquot opuscula (cura L. Fr. Jos. de la Barre). Par., Montalant, 1723. fol. Also on large paper.

It is usually added to the new edition of Achery (see above). The Iter German. was edited separately by J. Alb. Fabricius, Hmb. 1717. 8°.

12584 — annales ordinis S. Benedicti (ad ann. 1157). Edmundus Martene absolvit et variis additamentis exornavit. Par., Robustel, 1703–39. fol. 6 voll.

The edition, Lucæ, 1736. fol. 6 vols. (also on large paper), contains some augmentations.

12585 — acta sanctorum ordinis S. Benedicti, seculum I–VI (500–1100). Collegit Luc. d'Achery, ediderunt J. Mabillon et Theodoric. Ruinart. Par., Billaine, 1668–1701. fol. 9 voll.

Ven., Coleti, 1733–40. fol. 9 vols. is in less estimation. His Præfat. in acta SS. ord. Ben. are separately printed, Tridenti, 1724. 4°. Rothomagi, 1732. 4°. Ven. 1740. 4°. The 10th vol. remains in MS. in the abbey of St. Germain: see Millin Mag. encycl. 1795, V. 366.

12587 — museum italicum s. collectio vett. scriptor. ex bibliothecis italicis eruta a J. Mabillon et Mch. Germain. Par., Montalant, 1724. 4°. 2 vols. with plates.

A new unaltered impression of the earlier edition, Par., Martin, 1687–89. 4°. 2 vols.

12588 — les œuvres posthumes de J. Mabillon et de Thierry Ruinart, recueillies et publ. par Vincent Thuillier. Par., Babuty, 1724. 4°. 3 voll.

12589 — de re diplomatica libri VI. Par., Billaine, 1681, or ib., Robustel, 1709. fol. with plates. Also on large paper.

12590 — supplementum libror. de re diplom. Par., Robustel, 1704. fol. with plates. Also on large paper.

The edition of 1709 is a new unaltered impression of the first edition, and almost agreeing page for page (not merely a new title, as Debure would have it); whose addenda are not once inserted in their proper places in this edition. Only the typographical errors are corrected, and a preface by Thierry Ruinart is added, and a new appendix (p. 635–648). This appendix is quite different from the supplement, and gives an especial worth to the second edition. On the other hand, the first edition maintains a preference on account of the first impressions of the plates, of which, in the 2nd edition, Tab. 27. p. 397. and Tab. 45. p. 434. more particularly, are poor impressions (consult Uffenbach's Reisen, II. 573). Whoever uses the work for a strict inquiry of his own, will therefore do well to procure both editions. The supplement, which was by no means received into the 2nd edition (Schönemann's Diplom. I. 81), should necessarily be had with both editions.

In both editions the plates 1–16 are printed in the text (p. 345–376); Tab. 17 is by itself, p. 376; and Tab. 18–58 are again printed in the text, p. 377 etc. Tab. 47 is wanting, but Tab. 48 is numbered twice instead. After p. 460 follow once more p. 457*–460*. The 2nd edition has besides a plate printed in the text in p. 637.

The supplement has 8 plates, with the pagination 69-76. Of the errata of the 1st edition there ought to have been repeated in the 2nd edition, p. 347, in the 2nd table, line 13, fecto (instead of flecto); and p. 415, in the 35th table, and in the last line, Suvetchusa, as neither fault was corrected in the plates.

- 12591 — de re diplom. libri VI. cum supplemento. Tertia atque nova editio dissertationibus varior. locupletata, notisque nunc primum illustrata a marchione Bumbæ, J. Adimari. Neap., Vinc. Ursini, 1789. fol. 2 vols. with plates (110 fr.).

Whatever has been amended or farther investigated since Mabillon's time, especially by the authors of the Nouveau traité, is added in the annotations in different places. The second vol. contains, besides the supplement, only new impressions of treatises already well known.

The history of the controversy occasioned by Mabillon's work, see in Schönemann's Diplom. I. 101-103. See above, GERMON.

- 12592 — traité des études monastiques. Ed. II. revue et corr. Par., Robustel, 1692. 12°. 2 voll. Réponse au traité des étud. mon., par l'abbé de la Trappe. Par., Muguet, 1692. 4°. Réflexions sur la réponse de l'abbé de la Trappe, par Mabilon. Ed. II. revue et corr. Par., Robustel, 1693. 12°. 2 voll. Quatre lettres à l'abbé de la Trappe, où l'on examine sa réponse etc., par Den. de Sainte-Marthe. Amst. (Par.), Desbordes, 1692. 12°. Thiers) Apologie de l'abbé de la Trappe (ou réponse aux lettres de Sainte-Marthe). Without place or date. 12°.

Catalogue des livres (rétirés), provenant de la vente de M'Carthy. Par. 1817. 8°. (14 fr., on large paper 55 fr.)

This collection was particularly remarkable for the number of impressions on vellum which it contained (602 in 826 vols.). The offer of 20,000l. for them entire, by the duke of Devonshire, did not come to a conclusion, and the auction only produced 404,746 fr. 50 c., exclusive of those books which were bought in, and offered for sale again at another time. The Ordre des vacat. is important, on account of the additions and corrections which it contains.

Macer adest disce: quo duce doctus eris. Underneath is given the same woodcut as in the title. In another copy of precisely the same impression, in the Royal library at Dresden, the title is thus set down: Macer floridus de viribus herbarū, and the woodcut is underneath. The edition was printed in France, between 1500–10.

12615 — Macri philosophi de virtutibus herbarum noviter inventus ac impressus. Ven., Bernardin. de Vitalibus, 1506. 4°. 48 leaves.

12617 — Hrebarum (sic) vires Macer tibi carmine licet (cum iisd. commentariis). Without place or date. 8°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

159 unnumbered leaves. A contemporaneous hand has in the Dresden copy annexed the year 1517. Another edition with this commentary, without place or date, 8°. It is known that this poem is wrongly attributed to Macer. A MS. of it on vellum of the 14th century, in the Royal library at Dresden, names Odo Magdunensis as the author.

12626 MACRI, Dm. Hierolexicon s. sacrum dictionarium. Romæ, 1677. fol. Ven. 1735. 4°. Bon. 1765 or 67. 4°. 2 voll.

Previously in Italian, under the title, Notitia de' vocaboli ecclesiastici. Roma, 1650 or 1669. 4°.

12627 MACFARLANE, P. New and copious vocabulary, English and Gaelic, and Gaelic and English. Edinb. 1818. 8°. (12s. 6d.)

The 3rd vol. is said to be the scarcest, as the author, from vexation at its indifferent sale, disposed of it for waste paper: see Murr's Journ. IV. 271. A more recent Sumario da bibliotheca Lusitana is only a meagre abridgment of this work.

12629 — Fastos Lusitanos. T. I. Lisb. 1741. fol.

No more has appeared.

12630 — memorias para a historia de Portugal, que comprehende o governo del rey D. Sebastião. Lisb., Silva, 1736-51. large 4°. 4 vols.

12632 MACHARRONEA contra macharroneam Bassani, ad spectabilem D. Balthasarem Lupum Asten. studentem Papie etc. Without place or date (about 1496). 8°. Gothic letter.

This very scarce collection consists of 17 pieces printed together; the first, the title of which we have given, is Latin macaronic verse; the 2nd to the 15th are farces in Lombard and Piedmont verse; and the 16th and 17th are in the French language. First are two single leaves with the table of contents and prologue. The collection, the author of which was G. Aglione d' Asti, properly appeared under the title Capricci, and the above is the first edition: consult Vallière's Catal. II. 146 etc. and Suppl. p. 9. and Catalogo di Borromeo (1805), p. 33. A more recent edition, with the title, Opera piacevole di G. Alione. Asti, 1601. 8°. contains only the first 11 pieces of this collection.

MACHAZOR, see MACHSOR.

12633 MACHIAVELLI, N. Tutte le opere di N. Machiavelli cittadino et segretario Fiorentino, divise in V parti, et di nuovo con somma accuratezza ristampate. Without place, 1550. 4°.

This edition, greatly prized in Italy, and cited by the academy della Crusca (called edizione della testina, on account of a half-length figure of Machiavelli in the title-page cut in wood), is reckoned as the first of the 5 editions which appeared under this title and with this date. Gamba, Serie, I. 295, quotes a copy, in the title of which there was subsequently printed, In Ginevra, per Pi. Aubert; and in the title of the Dresden, as also of the Pinelli copy, there is subsequently printed by the hand, in a similar manner, In Geneva, presso Pt. Chouet. The paper also and printing appear to confirm the conjecture, that this edition really was printed at Geneva; at least it is certain that the date 1550 is fictitious, and that all the 5 editions appeared at least 10 years later; and Brunet has decided incorrectly in thinking that this first edition was printed at Rome by Ant. Blado.

First 2 unnumbered leaves of preliminary matter, leaf 1 of which contains the principal title, and leaf 2, on the folio recto, the tavola dell' opere di N. Machiav., and on the reverse the Privilegium of Clemens VII. Then 4 leaves with the pagination 1-8 (half-title to the Historie, and the dedication and Proemio to the same). Next the Historie with the pagination 1-351. Then 2 unnumbered leaves (half-title to the Principe, and on the reverse tavola de i capitoli and the dedication) and the Principe etc. with the pagination 1-116. Next 8 leaves with the pagination 1-14 (half-title, dedication, and table of the Discorsi; the 8th leaf is blank), and the Discorsi with the pagination 1-304. Then the Arte della guerra with the pagination 1-168; the 1st and 2nd of which are the half-title; 3-5, the Proemio; and 6th, a notice to the reader. At the end is L' asino d' oro with the pagination 1-170, the 1st and 2nd pages of which are a half title. Last of all is a blank leaf.

12634 — — (the same title). Without place, 1550. 4°.

The 2nd edition, also used by the academy della Crusca; it resembles the first in type and pagination, but differs in the division of the lines. It is thus to be distinguished, that each of the first 4 works has a separate title-leaf (not merely a half-title) with Machiavelli's head and the year 1550, that in the Arte della guerra, p. 129. libro sexto stands in the column-title instead of libro sesto, and the last page of this piece is wrongly numbered 158 instead of 168, and that in the Asino d' oro, the pagination 78, 79, and 86, by a typographical error, is altered into 68, 69, and 76.

12635 — — (as in No. 12633, yet with the addition), al santissimo et beatissimo padre signore nostro Clemente VII. Pont. Mass. Without place, 1550. 4°.

The 3rd edition. First 4 leaves with the pagination 1-8 (title, dedication, Proemio, and Tavola) which are followed by the Historie, with the pagination 1-320, without any farther title. Then the Principe, with 2 unnumbered leaves of preliminary matter (title, with the author's head and date, and Tavola together with the dedication), and the pagination 1-106, which is followed by 1 blank leaf. Next the Discorsi, with 8 unnumbered leaves of preliminary matter (title with head and date, and dedication together with the tavola), and the pagination 1-280. The Arte della guerra (likewise with a separate title) has 152 pages, and the Asino d' oro 158. This edition is furnished with vignettes in wood-engraving and arabesques.

12636 — — (the same title). Without place, 1550. 4°.

The 4th edition, copied from the preceding line for line. The differences are: in the Historie p. 62, the word Tanto printed in full in the preceding edition, is abbreviated into Tāto; in the Principe the last line of p. 106 begins with suggivano le occasioni, in the preceding with occasioni; in the Discorsi, in the last line of p. 280, there is merely the word Massimo, in the preceding —to Massimo; in the Arte della guerra, the column title in p. 29 is libro secondo instead of primo, and in p. 111 libro sesto instead of quinto. As to the rest, this edition was printed in 1560, which date most of the copies really have; as also the Dresden copy.

12637 — — (the same title). Without place, 1550. 4°.

The fifth and in truth best and most correct edition, likewise used by the academy della Crusca. 2 unnumbered leaves of preliminary matter; Historie 441 pages (of which p. 1-9 are the title, dedication, and Proemio); Principe 4 leaves of preliminary matter (the 4th blank) and 140 pages; Discorsi 14 pages of preliminary matter, 1 blank leaf, 364 pages, and 1 blank leaf; Arte della guerra 185 pages and 9 unnumbered leaves of figures; Asino d' oro 2 leaves of preliminary matter, 189 pages, and 1 blank leaf. This edition has this peculiarity, that the figures to the Arte della guerra are not inserted in the text, but are placed together at the end of it. It was probably printed at Basle, by Pt. Perna, about 1580.

The following collections of Machiavelli's works have been put together from the editions of his separate writings: Roma, Ant. Blado, 1531, 32. 4°. 3 parts in 1 vol. Ven., figliv. di Aldo, 1540. 8°. 4 parts in 2 vols. and ib., iid., 1546. 8°. 4 parts in 2 vols. Complete copies of the year 1546 are particularly scarce. Opere, without place, 1680. 12°. 3 vols. Haya, 1726. 8°. 4 vols. are not sought after.

Fine and correct, but the 7 inedited pieces here added, are in part not by Machiavelli. Superintended by Gaetano Poggiali.

Also, Bindoni e Pasini, 1537. 8°. Fir. (without the printer's name) 1553. 8°.

12704 MACROBIUS, Aurel. Theodosius. Expositio in somnium Scipionis M. T. Ciceronis et saturnaliorum libri VII. Ven., N. Jenson, 1472. fol.

166 leaves (the 1st and last 2 blank) with 40 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition, very scarce, and fine. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is SOMNIVM SCIPIONIS EX CICERO. NIS. The colophon is in leaf 166<sup>b</sup> in 4 lines. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris, a second in Lord Pembroke's library (Dibdin Decam. III. 290), a third in Bibl. Imperialis (Romæ, 1711. fol.), p. 303.

Mention has been made of an edition at Rome, superintended by bishop Andreas de Aleria before 1468, because he says in his preface to the Gellius of 1469, that he has corrected the Greek passages in Macrobius. But no copy of it is known, and besides Schweynheim and Pannarz do not mention it in their letter of 1472, to Sixtus IV. Mahul, in the Classical journal, XXII. 52, conjectures that Andreas had employed himself upon Macrobius, but that the edition itself had not appeared. At the same time he nevertheless considers it doubtful whether the rest of the editions by Andreas, mentioned in that place, namely, Gellius, Apulejus, and Hieronymus, really appeared. I consider this doubt to be unnecessary, and the nonexistence of an earlier Roman edition as decided.

12705 — — Brixia, Boninus de Boninis, 6 Jun. 1483. fol.

190 leaves, with 37 lines, and signatures. Tolerably fine.

12706 — — Brixia, Boninus de Boninis, 15 Maji 1485. fol.

176 leaves, with 37 lines, and signatures. A reprint of the preceding. The edition, Lips. 1485. fol. (only in Ernesti's Catal. p. 174) has probably arisen from a typographical error (instead of Brixia).

12707 — — Ven. (without the printer's name), 29 Jun. 1492. fol.

89 numbered leaves, with 57 lines, and the signatures a-p. The edition, Mediol., Scinzenseler, 1498. fol. is greatly suspected.

12708 — — Ven., Ph. Pincius, 29 Oct. 1500. fol.

36 and 86 numbered leaves, with the signatures a-f and A-O. It appears to be a reprint of the preceding. A Bolognese edition of this year seems suspicious.

12709 — de somno Scipionis nec non de Saturnalibus libri, summa diligentia suo nitori restituti. Brixia, Ang. Britannicus, 18 Jan. 1501. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter (title and index) and 158 numbered leaves.

The first new revision of the text, yet without MSS. Reprinted, Par., Ascens., cal. Febr. 1515. fol.

12711 — interpretatio in somnium Scipionis. Saturnaliorum libri VII. Hæc omnia N. Angelius correxit imprimique curavit. Flor., Ph. Junta, m. Jul. 1515. 8°.

- 12712 — Macrobius integer, nitidus suoque decori ab J. Rivio superioribus annis et nunc cura Ascensianorum multo diligentius restitutus. Addito libello Censorini de die natali. Par., Badius, 1519. fol.

5 leaves of preliminary matter and 100 numbered leaves. Repeated, ib., id., 1524. fol. The editions Bas. 1519. fol. Arg. 1519. fol. Nrb. 1519. fol. are suspected; the last two in the Upsal catalogue.

- 12713 — in somnium Scip. ll. II. et VII ejusdem libri Saturnalior. (recens. Arnoldus Vesaliensis). Col., Cervicornus, m. Aug. 1521. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter (the 6th errata) and 146 numbered leaves. A new and careful recension, but without MSS. Divided into chapters for the first time.

- 12714 — in somn. Scip. ll. II et VII ejusdem Saturnaliorum. Nunc denuo recogniti et multis in locis aucti (per Arnoldum Vesaliensem). Col., Cervicornus, prid. nonas Januar. 1526. fol.

10 leaves of preliminary matter and 140 numbered leaves. A new edition of the preceding recension, but likewise without MSS., chiefly from Athenæus. Reprinted, Col., Soter, 1527. 8°. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1532, or 38, or 42. 8°.

- 12715 — in somnium Scip. ex Ciceronis VI. libro de rep. explanatio. Ejusd. Saturnalior. libri VII. Censorinus de die natali, additis ex vetusto exemplari nonnullis, quæ desiderabantur. Ven., Aldus et And. Asulanus, m. Apr. 1528. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 322 numbered and 2 blank leaves (the anchor on the last). Superintended by Donatus Veronensis, whose labour scarcely extends beyond the correction of the typographical errors: he had no MSS. An Aldine of 1517 is a nonentity.

- 12716 — In somn. Scip. ll. II. Ejusd. Saturnalior. ll. VII ex vetustiss. MSS. codd. recogniti et aucti (per Jo. Camerarium). Bas., Hervagius, 1535. fol.

20 leaves of preliminary matter, 334 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf, errata and printer's symbol. A new and valuable recension from 2 MSS. Reprinted, Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1550, or 56, or 60. 8°. Lugd., Theob. Paganus, 1560. 8°. Ven., Hi. Scotus, 1570. 8°. Ven., J. Gryphius, 1574. 8°.

- 12717 — in somn. Scip. ll. II. Ejusd. convivior. Saturnalior. ll. VII. (ed. H. Stephanus). Par. 1585. 8°.

7 leaves of preliminary matter, 578 pages, and 40 unnumbered leaves. Camerarius's text forms the groundwork, corrected from MSS. (by L. Carrio.)

- 12718 — opera. J. Isaacius Pontanus recensuit et Saturnalior. libros MS. ope auxit, ordinavit et castigatt. sive notas adjecit. (Acc. J. Meursii notæ). LB., Fr. Raphelengius, 1597. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 697 pages, and 27 unnumbered leaves (index and Meursius's notes). Pontanus made use of an English MS. The notes are valuable; the book De differentiis gr. et lat. verbi is also included.

- 12719 — opera. J. Isaacius Pontanus secundo recensuit: adjectis ad libros singulos notis. Quibus acced. J. Meursii breviores notæ. LB., Maire, 1628. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 763 pages, and 23 unnumbered leaves (index and errata). A new revision of the preceding edition, but without any fresh materials.

- 12720 — opera. Acc. notæ integræ Isacii Pontani, J. Meursii, Jac. Gronovii. LB., Doude, 1670. 8°.

A new recension in the Somn. Scip. from 2 MSS., and in the Saturn. from 1 MS. Not very correctly printed.

- 12721 — opera. Acc. integræ Is. Pontani, J. Meursii, Jac. Gronovii animadvv. Ed. noviss. cum ind. locupletiss. Lond., Dring, 1694. 8°.

A literal reprint of the preceding, and very incorrect.

- 12722 — quæ extant omnia, diligentissime emendata et cum optimis edd. collata (a Hi. Vulpio). Pata-vii, Cominus, 1736. 8°.

Also copies on large paper and on blue paper. A correct impression of the text from Gronovius's edition of 1670, the pagination of which is also given in the margin. Some readings are admitted into the text from the Aldine, and from the Paris edition of 1585. Without notes (excepting only the notes of Pontanus and Opsopæus to the book De diff. verbi gr. et lat.), with the index of Gronovius's edition.

12723 — opera cum notis integris Pontani, Meursii, Gronovii. Quibus adjunxit et suas J. C. Zeunius. Lps., Georgi, 1774. 8°. (2 d.)

An incorrect reprint of the edition of 1670, with good notes of its own by Zeunius.

12724 — opera ad opt. edd. collata. Biponti, 1788. 8°. 2 voll. (1 d. 4 gr.)

12725 — de differentiis et societatibus græci latinique verbi libellus nunc prim. in lucem editus (a J. Opsopæo). Par., Dion. Duvallius, 1588. 8°.

- 12779 MAGNI, Jac. Sophilogium, libri III. Without place or date (about 1470). small fol. Distinguished by the peculiar form of the R, which printing Panzer perhaps erroneously ascribes to Mentelin in Strasburg. I would rather, on account of its papermark (a p with a cross on it), take it to be a Cologne or Netherland production, as that sign never appears in any of Mentelin's productions. 217 leaves with 35 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. In the first 5 pages is a list of chapters. Leaf 3<sup>b</sup> begins the work itself, leaf 41<sup>a</sup> the 2nd book (leaf 97<sup>a</sup> is blank), and leaf 144<sup>a</sup> in the last line, the third book. Leaf 217<sup>b</sup> line 34 and 35 is the colophon. Zophilogium editum a fratre Jacobo magni de Parisius: ordinis heremitarum sancti Augu. finit feliciter.

From the same press, and likewise 217 leaves with 35 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, and altogether agreeing with the preceding, except that it deviates throughout in the abbreviations. Thus the first two words of leaf 1<sup>a</sup> are Capitula tractatus (instead of Capitula tractat9 in the preceding), and in leaf 217<sup>b</sup> in the colophon, Zophilogium (instead of Zophilogium), see Panzer, IV. 484. The work is a sort of encyclopedia or collection of sentences, and is useful in a critical point of view on account of the passages quoted from the classics.

12781 — Sophilogium, libri III. Without place or date (Col., about 1470). fol. Gothic letter.

167 leaves in 2 columns with 38 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. 12817 — lettres (recueillies par de la Beaumelle). Amst. 1756. 12°. 9 voll.

The best edition of both articles, which ought not to be separated. Very scarce on Dutch paper (sold in Paris for 301 fr.). The other editions in 12 or 15 vols. with smaller type are of little value. The new edition of the Lettres, Par., Collin, 1807. 12°. 6 vols., contains some inedited letters, and gives some others in a more complete form from the originals, but the more uninteresting of Beaumelle's collection are omitted. Par., Tardieu, 1815. 8°. 3 vols., or in 12°. 4 vols., is after this edition of 1807.

12832 MAITLAND, W. History and survey of London. Lond. 1775. fol. 2 vols. with plates.

The best edition. Previously, Lond. 1739. fol. ib. 1756 or 72. fol. 2 vols.

12833 — history of Edinburgh. Edinb. 1753. fol.

12834 — history and antiquities of Scotland. Lond. 1757. fol. 2 vols.

12835 MAITTAIRE, Mch. Græcæ linguæ dialecti. Post J. F. Reitzium totum opus recensuit, emendav., auxit F. Gu. Sturz. Lps., Weigel, 1807. 8°. (3 d., 8 gr., on writing paper 4 d. 8 gr.)

Scarce on vellum paper. Previously, Lond. 1706, or 38, or 42. 8°. Hagæ Com. 1738. large 8°.

12836 — opera et fragmenta vett. poetar. latinor., profanorum et ecclesiasticor. (curante Mch. Maittaire). Lond., Nicholson, 1713. fol. 2 voll.

Prized on account of its typographical beauty. Very scarce on large paper (710 fr. M'Carthy.) Corpus omnium vett. poetar. etc. Lond., or Hagæ Com., 1721. fol. 2 vols. is only a new title.

12837 — annales typographici ab artis inventæ origine ad a. 1500. Hagæ Com. 1719. 4°. Annalium typ. ab a. 1500–1536. Tomus II in 2 partib. ib. 1722. 4°. Annal. typ. ab a. 1536–1557. Tomus III in 2 partib. cum appendice. ib. 1725. 4°. Annal. typ. ab artis inventæ orig. ad a. 1664 (1500). Tomus I (potius IV). in 2 partib. Ed. II. Amst. 1733. 4°. Annal. typ. Tomus V. in 2 partib., indicem complectens. Lond. 1741. 4°. All together 5 vols., or 9 when the parts are bound up separately.

Scarce on large paper. In addition, Mch. Denis annalium typ. Mch. Maittaire supplementum. Vindob. 1789. 4°. 2 vols. (6 d.) Both impressions of the first part must necessarily be had. The 4th part indeed was meant to be a supplement, and in some degree a new working up of the 1st; but the publisher gave to it, without the author's consent (consult Bibl. Britanniq. XVI. 201 etc.) the title, T. I. Edit. II., as if the 1st part might be dispensed with by it, which is not the case. For instance, in this 2nd edition as it is called, the copious descriptions of the editiones principes of Suidas, Etymolog. Magn., Claudianus De raptu Proserp. etc. are wanting, and much else that is in the 1st edition. Instead thereof, on the other hand, the 2nd edition has much valuable matter peculiar to itself.

The work itself is deficient in order, method, and easy inspection (the index in particular is troublesome to use), but it contains excellent notices, and cannot be dispensed with on account of Panzer's work, which is done on quite another plan. On the one hand it is evident that it extends further than Panzer's work, which closes with 1536; on the other it does not confine itself, like that work, to mere nomenclature, but also at the same time gives information on the lives of printers, publishers, correctors of the press, and literary men, and the author institutes inquiries of his own respecting the history of the art of printing, touching upon (in part only, by way of digression) other topics therewith connected. Only the strictly bibliographical part of Maittaire down to 1536 may be dispensed with in consequence of Panzer's work.

12838 — Stephanorum historia, vitas ipsorum ac libros complectens. Lond., Motte, 1709. 8°. with plates. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Also on large paper. Sought after although capable of much correction. The appendix of 4 leaves to the 2nd part is often wanting.

Not frequently to be met with, as is the case with the preceding work, to which it belongs. Scarce on large Dutch paper.

12886 — Felsina pittrice. Vite de' pittori Bolognesi. Bol., Barbieri, 1678. 4°. 2 vols. with plates.

There are castrated copies of this important work. In the unaltered copies there is, T. I. p. 471, the following sally against Raphael; "Ardire così estatico et elevato crederò io fosse mai per essersi arrischiato entrare nella savia, per non dire umile idea d'un Boccacajo Urbinate?" Instead thereof in the copies of the 2nd vol. it stands, "Ardire—nella tanto dotta per altro e ferace sempre idea del gran Raffaello." The second leaf of the dedication of the first vol. also presents (unimportant) differences, and the 2nd vol. in the genuine copies has a separate title and index, which are wanting in the castrated copies. (Copies of both sorts are in the Royal library at Dresden.) Consult Gi. Pt. Cavazzoni Zanotti Lettere familiari in difesa del conte Malvasia. Bol. 1705. 4°. p. 55. (on the other side, Vinc. 12889 MAMMETRACTUS (s. expositio in singulos libros bibliorum, auctore J. Marchesino). Mog., Pt. Schoiffer, 1470. fol. Gothic letter.

The first edition, 129 (not 127) leaves in 2 columns with 28 lines. A copy on vellum 510 fr. Vallière; probably the same that is now in the Imperial library at Vienna.

12890 — — Ergoviæ, Helias Heliae, alias de Louffen, 1470. fol. Gothic letter.

299 leaves in 2 columns with 32 lines, and with the signatures 1-23 and 1-20 expressed in German ciphers. So this would be the first dated typographical production with signatures: but Magné de Marolles, in his Recherches sur l'origine des signatures. Par. 1783. 8°. p. 39, and Serna Santander, in the Mémoire sur l'origine et le premier usage des signatures et des chiffres (in the Supplément to his catalogue, Brux. 1803. 8°.), p. 15-19, prove very conclusively that this Ergovian edition is only a reprint of the Mentz edition, that Helias has even strictly printed the colophon and the date of that edition, and that his production must first have appeared after 1473, since in his editions of Roderici speculum vite hum. of 1472 and 1473 he still does not use signatures. Dibdin in Bibl. Spenc. I. 155, seeks very feebly to invalidate Santander's proof, and thinks, but without proving it, that Schöffer was rather the copyist of the Ergovian edition. 62 leaves (one blank), with 33 lines running all across the page, and the signatures A-H 3, with catchwords and pagination. The first 3 leaves contain a tabula presentis libri. The work itself begins with leaf 4<sup>a</sup>, Commendacio brevis etc. Leaf 62<sup>b</sup> is the following colophon: *Explicit jtinerarius a terra anglie i ptes ierosolimitanas et in ulteriores transmarinas editus pmo in lingua gallicana a domino iohanne de mandeville milite suo auctore. Anno incarnationis dñi Mccclv. in ciuitate leodiensi et paulo post in eadē ciuitate trāslatus in dictā formā latinā. 12927 MANGANELLO. (XIII capitoli, intitolati) il Manganello. Without place or date (about 1530). 8°.

28 leaves, with the signatures A-D, and printed with Cicero Antiqua. There is also an old edition of the Puttana errante in the same type.

18928 — — without place or date. 16°.

28 leaves, with the signatures A-D, and with tolerably large cursive characters.

A smutty satire on women, of which Pt. Aretino was falsely considered to be the author. It had been already mentioned in Grappa's Cicalamenti (Mantova, 1545). An old MS. notice in a copy states: Il Manganello fa Melanese, e perchè amo meno discretamente una giovane in Ferrara, ne rilevo ferite, e un' altra volta tre tratti di corda, il che riconoscendo avere per commissione della duchessa, scrisse contra lei questa sua satira. As to the rest neither editions have any title, but the text commences immediately on the first page with the superscription Il Manganello.

12932 MANICA, Mch. Ang. La fisica Appula. Napoli, 1806. 8°. 5 parts in 2 vols.

12933 MANILIUS, Marcus. Astronomicon libri V. At the end, Ex officina Ioannis de Regiomonte habitantis in Nuremberga oppido Germanie celebratissimo. Without date. 4°.

72 leaves, with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Extraordinarily scarce, and probably the first edition, although Mattaire, Fossi, and Dibdin (Bibl. Sp. II. 164 sq.) acknowledge the following as the first edition. I think it was printed in the year 1473, and have given my reasons in the Hall. Litt. Zeit. 1817, B. III. p. 642 sq. Consult also G. Cp. Schwarzii Comm. de prima Manilii astronomicor. editione a J. Regiomontano Norimbergæ publicata. Altorf, 1764. 4°. (reprinted in G. E. Waldau Thesaurus bio-et bibliographico. Chemn. 1792. 8°. p. 102-121.)—In leaf 72<sup>b</sup> 6 Latin verses stand before the colophon: Ridetur merito sciolorum etc.

12934 — astronomicon libri V et Arati phænomena ex versione Cæsaris Germanici. Bon., Ugo Rugerius et Doninus Bertochus, 20 Martii 1474. fol.

88 leaves (the 1st and 30th blank), with 35 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 64<sup>b</sup> concludes the poem with the subscription; ? FINIS ? Leaf 65 is a notice respecting Manilius and a table of the contents of the 5 books of his poem. Leaf 66, a table of the contents of Aratus, which begins leaf 67, with the superscription, Arathus Germanici ad Augustum. Leaf 88<sup>b</sup> is the colophon. J. Fr. Poggius is said to have superintended this edition.

12935 — astronomicon. Neapuli (sic), per Jodocum hoensteyn, without date (about 1475). 4°.

80 leaves, with 28 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Very scarce. At the end are the same 6 verses as in the Nuremberg edition. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, M. MANILII ASTRONOMI (sic).

12936 — astronomicon. Without place or date (about 1474 or 75). 4°.

Likewise 80 leaves, with 28 lines, and the signatures a-k. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Marci Manilii Astronomicon liber primus incipit.

printer's name), 26 Oct. 1484. fol. Gothic letter.

102 leaves (the 1st blank), with 46 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The commentary is of little value. He pretended to make use of a MS., but his corrections are rather his own fabrication.

12938 — astronomicon, St. Dulcinus emendavit. Mediol., Ant. Zarotus, 5 id. Nov. 1489. fol.

First 4 leaves of preliminary matter (a letter of Dulcinus and a table of contents) with the signature A. Then the text with the signatures a-I and 40 lines. A new recension from a MS.—Also in the Astronom. vet. Ven., Ald., 1499. fol. and in the Firmicus, Bas. 1531 or 51. fol.

12939 — astronomicon ad Cæsarem Aug. noviter ac diligentissime castigatum. Romæ, Jac. Mazochius, 1510. 4°.

84 leaves with the signatures A-X. Without notes, and tolerably scarce.

12940 — astronomicon. Lugd., Tornæsius, 1566. 12°.

The editor, Ant. Molinus, asserts that he has corrected this edition from MSS. Previously, ib. 1551 and 61. 12°.

12941 — astronomicon libri V. Jos. Scaliger recensuit ac pristino ordini suo restituit. Ejusd. Jos. Scaligeri commentarius in eisdem libros et castigationum explicationes. Lutet., ap. Mamertum Patissonium in off. Rb. Stephani, 1579. 8°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 136 pages of text, 4 leaves of index, 292 pages of commentary, and 6 leaves of index. A new but very bold recension, and only from conjecture.

12942 — astronomicon libri V..... explicationes (as in the preceding edition). Lectiones variæ e MS. bibl. Palatinæ et aliis cum notis Fr. Junii. (Hdlb.), in offic. Sanctandreana, 1590. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 136 pages of text, 3 leaves of index, 1 blank leaf, 415 pages of commentary, 7 leaves of index, 1 blank leaf, 131 pages of varr. lectt., and 2 leaves of index. An unaltered impression of the preceding edition, the new apparatus being added separately at the end. Junius's various readings are not to be depended upon, and his own notes are inconsiderable. Instead of Ex Offic. Sanctandr. other copies have in the title Heidelbergæ, 1590.

12943 — astronomicon a Jos. Scaligero ex vetusto codice Gemblacensi infinitis mendis repurgatum. Ejusd. Jos. Scaligeri notæ. (LB.). ex off. Plantiniana ap. Cp. Raphelengium, 1600. 4°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 131 pages, and 2 leaves. Then the notes with a separate title, 10 leaves of preliminary matter, 510 pages, and 1 leaf, Privilegium. A new recension after a very old MS. Renouard possesses a copy with numerous MS. annotations by Cl. Salmasius.

12944 — astronomicon . . . . Scaligeri notæ. (as in the preceding edition). Nunc primum ex codice Scaligeri, quem sua manu ad tertiam edit. præparaverat, in lucem publ. restitutæ. Acced. Th. Reinesii et Ism. Bullialdi animadvv. (Cura J. H. Boecleri). Arg., Bockenhoffer, 1655. 4°.

1 title-plate, 13 leaves of preliminary matter, 131 pages, and 2 leaves. Then the notes with a separate title, 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 462 and 24 pages. A new performance, re-edited after 2 MSS.

12945 — astronomicon. Interpretatione et notis ac figuris illustravit Mch. Fayus, in us. Delphini. Par., Leonard, 1679. 4°.

Scaliger's text forms the groundwork with some good corrections of the editor's own. The commentary is flat and often darker than the text. After the index 88 pages of notes by Huetius follow, which are of value.

12946 — astronomicon, ex rec. et cum notis Rch. Bentleyj. Lond., Vaillant, 1739. 4°. Also on large paper.

A new and very clever recension, but often too bold, from 7 MSS. and old editions. Bentley's portrait ought to be included, and a large map of the heavens. Reprinted, Bas. 1740. 8°. (16 gr.)

12947 — astronomicon, ex optimis editt. repræsentatum. Acc. Cp. Cellarii rudimenta astronomica, D. Gregorius de stellarum ortu et casu poetico et Jul. Pontedera de Manilii astronomia et anno coelesti (curantibus Vulpius fratribus). Patavii, Cominus, 1743. 8°.

The text is blended from the editions of 1579 and 1679. Prized and correct. Copies also on blue paper.

12948 — astronomicon ex rec. Rich. Bentleji, cum selectis varior. ac propriis notis. Cura et stud. Eliæ Stœberi. Arg., König, 1767. 8°. (1 d. 4 gr.)

Bentley's text, which Stœber very unhappily tried to correct in the notes from MSS. and old editions. The edition is entirely worthless.—J. Jer. Brackenhofer Observ. ad Manil. ex edit. Stœberi. Arg. 1767. 8°.

12949 — astronomicon libri V cum commentariis et castigatt. Jos. Scaligeri, Fr. Junii et Mch. Fayi; acc. Bentleji quædam animadvv. reprehensione dignæ, quibus omnibus editor sua scholia interposuit. Op. et stud. Edm. Burton. Lond., Nichols, 1783. 8°. (58.)

The editor made use of only the first, and not both of Scaliger's editions, and consequently the work turned out very deficient.

12981 — (the same title). Madr., Carrera, 1642. 4°. 8 leaves of preliminary matter and 132 leaves.

This edition is less correct. I also find, Madr. 1649. 4°.

12982 MANUNG. Eyn manung der cristenheit widder die durken. Without place or date. 4°.

6 leaves, 9 pages of which are printed. P. 1, 6, and 9 contain 21 lines, the rest 20. The piece is a calendar for the year 1455, divided into months, and dressed up with an exhortation to the war against the Turks. The whole is written in rhyming verses of unequal length, which are printed running into each other, and without punctuation from beginning to end. Their distinction is only marked by a larger letter at the beginning of each verse. The paper is strong, and the paper-mark a Moor's head. As at Munich, where the only copy is to be found, they would have it to be decidedly a production of the year 1454, so for a long time the type was looked upon as Guttenberg's; a facsimile of it is in Arstin über die frühesten universalhistor. Folgen der Buchdruckerkunst. Münch., 1809. 4°. It was however at last discovered to be a production of Pfister's press, and its true date 1472. Consult Neuer lit. Anzeiger 1806, p. 330 sq. 360 sq. (where the piece is printed entire), 377 sq. and 429. Dibdin's Tour, III. 282.

136 leaves (the last, which is unnumbered, contains the colophon and anchor), and after the title 2 more leaves of preface by Musurus. This work, only printed once, and tolerably scarce, is written entirely in Greek, and must not be confounded with the Latin grammar.

12984 — rudimenta grammatices lat. linguæ. De literis græcis et diphthongis, et quemadmodum ad nos veniant. Abbreviationes, quibus frequenter Græci utuntur. Oratio dominica et duplex salutatio ad virg. gloriosiss. Symbolum apostolor. D. Joannis Ev. evangelium. Aurea carmina Pythagoræ. Phocylidis poema ad bene beateque vivendum. Omnia hæc cum interpretatione latina. Introductio perbrevis ad hebr. linguam. Ven., Aldus, m. Febr. 1501. 4°.

The first edition of this grammar, and extremely scarce. The colophon stands at the end of the grammar, before the appendage. This appendage is the same as what is already to be found in the Lascaris of 1495; the Introd. in Hebr. Ling. is however here given for the first time, and is repeated in the undated edition of Lascaris and in that of 1512.

12985 — institutionum grammaticar. libri IV (cum ead. appendice). Ven., Aldus, m. Apr. 1508. 4°.

The 2nd edition, likewise very scarce.

192 unnumbered leaves, and 20 leaves, appendage. Ven., Ald., 1514. 4°. 210 leaves, and Ven., Aldus et And. socer, 1523. 4°. are also scarce. The following editions are quite at the usual price: Ven., P. Manut., 1558, or 59, or 61. 8°. ib., Aldus Manut., 1564, or 68, or 75, or 76. 8°.

12986 — musarum panagyris (sic). Without place or date (Ven., Ant. Moretus, before 1489). 4°. 7 leaves.

Of the greatest rarity. Reprinted in Scripta tria longe rarissima denuo edita et illustrata (a Jac. Morelli). Bassani, 1806. 8°.—See also DICTIONARIUM græcum.

12987 MANUTIUS, P. (filius). Epistolæ et præfationes quæ dicuntur. In acad. Veneta, 1558. 8°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, and 143 numbered with the ciphers 6–148. This first edition contains only the letters, which form the first 3 books in the subsequent editions. Ven., Aldus, 1560. 8°. contains 4 books. Ib., id., 1561. 8°. 5 books. Ib., id., 1569. 8°. 8 books. Ib., id., 1571. 8°. 10 books. Ib., in ædd. Manut., 1573. 8°. 11 books.

12991 — antiquitatum Romanar. liber de senatu. Ven. (Aldus), 1581. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 116 pages, 2 blank leaves, 11 leaves (Calendar.), 1 blank leaf, and 8 leaves, index.

800 and 167 pages and 20 unnumbered leaves. The best edition. The complete reprint, Ven., Aldus, 1591. 8°. is less fine. At first, Ven., P. Manut., 1561. 8°. Ven., Aldus, 1575 or 90. 8°. is an abridgment.

12997 — eleganze della lingua lat. e toscana. Ven., Aldo, 1580. 8°.

The most complete edition. Ven., Aldo, 1586. 12°. and ib., id., 1594. 8°. are only reprints. The first edition, ib., id., 1556. 8°. is tolerably scarce; and Renouard has a copy of ib., id., 1573. 8°. on large blue paper.

Yet the Saint Graal is erroneously attributed to him: see Büsching's Erzählungen des Mittelalters, I. 368. As to the rest, the cheerful and joyous songster well deserves that accurate inquiries should be made respecting his life and writings (consult Lyseri Hist. poetar. medii ævi, p. 776 etc.). Might not, for instance, the original text of the Gaudeamus igitur and of the Mihi est propositum, both of which are attributed to him, be found in some old MSS.?

Concerning the unprinted Italian translation of Zucchero Bencivenni, about 1300, see Bandini Catal. codd. lat. bibl. Laurent. V. 283. There are 3 French translations besides. The one which is said to have been prepared by Brunetto Latini, about 1300, is in verse, and in Hildeberti Opp. Par. 1708. fol., and printed in Beckmann's edition. The two others are in prose, of the 13th and 15th centuries, one of which only contains the description of the 12 precious stones in Aaron's breastplate; they were in MS. in Vallière's library: see his Catalogue, I. 446. and II. 245. As to the rest, it is very uncertain whether the work really is by Marbodius: see Hist. litt. de la France, X. 383 sq. Lessing's Collectaneen, II. 137.

large 4°. (36 fr.) Also on vellum paper.

Printed on Pius VII.'s visit to the imperial printing establishment, as a piece for the occasion, and much too hastily done. With respect to languages it is utterly without worth, and does not even contain all the foreign types of this press. A later reprint, with the same date, is distinguished by worse paper, by the title-vignette, which represents religion with the cross and chalice (instead of which the first edition has the French arms), and by having Nos. 56, 78, 88 etc. not printed with movable types, but with tin and wooden plates: consult Bibliographie de la France, 1819, p. 15.

In Velasquez de Dies, p. 55, it is thus given: Obres en vers, dividides en cantichs de amor, morals, spirituals è de mort. An extremely scarce edition. Dies quotes beside, Barcelona, 1545. 4°. and in M. Böhl's collection at Hamburg is, por J. de Resa. Valladolid. 1555. 4°.

13032 — las obras poeticas di Ausias de March, en lingua Limosina, escritas en el an 1460. Barcelona, 1560. 8°.

13033 — las obras del famosissimo filosofo y poeta Mossen Osias Marco, traduzidas por Don Baltasar de Romani, y divididas en quatro canticas: es a saber: Cantica de amor, Cantica moral, Cantica de muerte, y Cantica spiritual. Valencia, J. Navarro, 10 Março, 1539. fol. Gothic letter.

There is another edition in Roman characters by the same printer and of the same date. The Limosin original is annexed in both. Romani has allowed himself many liberties in the translation, which does not contain the collected works, and often causes the poet to say something quite different from what is in the original.

13034 — obras, traduzidas de lengua Lemosina, en Castellana, por Jorge de Montemayor. Zaragoza, 1562. Also, Madr. 1579. 8°.

This translation, entirely deviating from the original, contains only the Canticos de amor, and not even these complete. The Limosin original is not added.

The supplement, now scarce, is better than the work itself. The first edition, Par. 1773. 4°. 55 pages, is still interesting on account of some differences. Mercier gave some corrections in a letter of 16 pages in the Journ. des Sav. 1776, and continued to make collections for a new edition of the entire work. His MS. collections are now in the possession of that respectable bibliographer M. Barbier in Paris.

13045 MARCHI, Fr. de. Della architettura militare libri tre, nelli quali si descrivono li veri modi del fortificare, che si usa a tempi moderni, con un breve et utile trattato, nel quale si dimostrano li modi del fabricar l'artiglieria et la pratica di adoperarla da quelli che hanno carico di essa. Brescia, Comino Presegni, 1599. fol. with plates.

A very scarce and interesting work. 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 279 pages (books 1-3), and 22 pages for the 4th book not mentioned in the title. The plates are printed in the text. A copy, in which at the end of the 3rd book were 9 plates, and at the end of the 4th book a double plate, wanting in other copies, sold for 1350 fr. at Santander's sale at Paris in 1809.

Although there is only one edition, yet there are differences in the copies. Some have a dedication al serenissimo principe e illustrissima signoria di Venexia (dated, Venexia, Novemb. 1599); in others the dedication is addressed to Vincenzo Gonzaga, duke of Mantua, and dated from Brescia, 12 Mai 1600; a third sort have a new title, Brescia, Gi. Bt. e Ant. Bossoli fratelli, 1603, and no dedication at all. The Dresden copy, although with the title of 1599, has also no dedication. The work appears to have been commenced from 1546, and the 161 plates, which are contained in the 3 books, to have been prepared long before the printing of the text, and consequently impressions of the plates are sometimes found without the text. (The Dresden copy of this impression contains 170 plates, and therefore 9 plates more than the Santander copy.) Consult Fontanini dal Zeno, II. 396 sq. Fantussi Scrittori Bologn. V. 227.

A splendid edition, and far preferable to the preceding one. The 1st vol. contains Prolegomena and a Biblioteca storico-crit. di fortificazione permanente; the 2nd vol. Nuova lezione e coment; the 3rd vol. the text of the earlier edition; and the 4th and 5th the plates. At the same time an edition appeared of 6 parts in 3 vols. in large 4°. with 2 vols. of plates in fol. (70 scudi).

13051 MARCOLINI, Fr. Le ingeniose sorti, intitulate giardino de pensieri. Ven., Marcolini, 1540. fol. with woodcuts.

The first and very scarce edition of this instruction for the drawing of cards, greatly sought after on account of the woodcuts by Jos. Ponta Grafagninus (300 fr. M'Carthy). Consult Berliner Monatsschr. 1808, Febr. p. 80 (Benoni Friedländer at Berlin now possesses the copy there mentioned).

13052 — — Ven., Marcolini, 1550. fol. 158 pages, with the same woodcuts.

Somewhat less scarce, but preferred by some persons on account of its being better arranged. An accurate reprint of the edition of 1550, with the same date, and the title Giardino de pensiero composto da Fr. Marcolini, which appeared in Italy in 1784, is in large fol., and the representations are engraved.

10 leaves with the signatures a-c. It is in prose, and must not be confounded with his unprinted Mecklenberg chronicle in rhyme (Hamburg. bibl. hist. II. 273). All three works, which are very scarce, were printed at the author's private press.

A copy on vellum 100 fr. Vallière, and 99 fr. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy. Also, without place or date. 8°. 37 leaves. Under the title, L'art et usage du souverain miroir du Chrestien. Par., le Noir, 1556. 12°.; and under the following title: Le miroir de l'ame pécheresse. Lyon, le Prince, 1538. 8°. Genève, Girard, 1539. 12°. Under the last title it is also inserted in the following number.

13075 — Marguerites de la marguerite des princesses, très illustre royne de Navarre (publiées par Simon Sylvius dit de la Haye). Lyon, J. de Tournes, 1547. 8°. 2 vols. with woodcuts.

541 pages and 1 leaf, and 342 pages and 1 leaf. The scarcest edition of this poetry, and the most sought after. Besides the Miroir, the most interesting pieces therein are, Les 4 dames et les 4 gentilshommes, a comedy, a farce, and La Coche. But the Débat d'amour, of which there is a MS. in Vallière's Catal. T. II. p. 337, is not to be found therein.—To this edition may be joined, Le tombeau de Marguerite de Valois. Par., Fexandat, 1551. 8°.

13076 — — Lyon, Pt. de Tours, 1549. 16°. 1 part in 2 vols.

Equally scarce and sought after.

13077 — — Par., Ruelle (other copies, veuve Fr. Regnaud or Prevost), 1554. 16°. 1 part in 2 vols.

Neat, and equally scarce and sought after.

13078 — l'heptameron des nouvelles. Remis en son vray ordre, confus au paravant en sa première impression. Par., Cl. Gruget. Par., Sertenas (at the end, impr. par Benoist Prevost), 1559. 4°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 212 numbered and 2 unnumbered leaves. In other copies Caveillier is mentioned as the publisher. The 2nd edition of the Heptameron, scarce and sought after, which for the first time contains 72 novels. All the subsequent editions repeat its text. Pt. Boaisneau surnommé Launay gave the first edition, without mention of the author, under the following title: Histoire des amans fortunex dediée à l'illustre princesse Madame Marguerite de Bourbon, duchesse de Nivernois. Par., Gilles, 1558. 4°. XIX and 184 leaves. This by far the most scarce edition, which offers numerous various readings in the text, contains only 67 novels, which are not divided into days, and are quite differently arranged from what they are in the other editions.

13079 — — Par., Gilles (at the end, impr. par Benoist Prevost), 1560. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 212 numbered and 2 unnumbered leaves. In other copies sometimes Sertenas, sometimes Robinot, is mentioned as the publisher. Likewise tolerably sought after. Also, without place, imprimé 1560. 16°. 16 leaves and 726 pages (hitherto unknown). Par. 1561. 12°. Lyon, 1561. 12°. Par., Normant et Bruneau, 1567. 16°. Lyon, Cloquemin, 1572. 16°. 812 pages and 6 leaves. Par., de Roigny, 1574. 16°. Par. 1578 or 81. 16°. Par., Chappellain, 1607. 12°. (badly printed).

13080 — — Sur l'imprimé à Paris, chez Jac. Bessin, 1698. 12°. 2 voll.

Printed in Holland. The editions hitherto cited all contain the work in its original ancient style.

13081 — contes et nouvelles mis en beau langage accommodé au goût de ce temps. Amst., Gallet, 1698. 8°. 2 vols. with plates.

The plates of this esteemed edition are attributed to Romain de Hooghe, although he has not mentioned himself. The reprint, Amst., Gallet, 1700. 8°. 2 vols. with the same plates, is somewhat less sought after. The editions, Amst., Gallet, 1708. 8°. 2 vols. and Par. 1740. 8°. 2 vols. have plates by Harreweyn.

13082 — les nouvelles de Marguerite de Valois. Berne, 1780–81. 8°. 3 vols. with plates.

A neat edition, with very fine plates by Freudenberger, and vignettes by Dunker. The work is here given again in its ancient style. There are also copies with new engraved titles and the date 1792. In some copies the 3rd vol. is on inferior paper. There are also impressions of the plates without any numbers. The plates of the edition of 1784. 18°. 8 vols. (also in 8°.) are very indifferent re-engravings of the plates in the Berne edition.

13083 — the Queene of Nauarres tales, now newly translated out of French into English. Lond., Oxenbridge, 1597. 4°.

Containing only 15 novels.

13084 — Margaret de Valoys Heptameron, or the history of the fortunate lovers. Lond. 1654. 8°.

Sold at the duke of Marlborough's sale for 2l. 8s.

13085 MARGUERITE de Valois, reine de France et de Navarre (épouse de Henri IV.) Mémoires (publiés par Auger de Mauléon, Seign. de Granier). Par., Chappellain, 1628. 8°.

The first edition, of which Renouard has a copy on large paper. There are 2 editions with this date, page for page alike, which may be distinguished by the first having after the preface 1 leaf, errata, and 1 leaf, Privilegium, which are wanting in the other. (Both are at Dresden.) The following is a worse print (probably Genevèse): Jouste la copie impr. à Paris par Chappellain, 1629. 8°. Also, Par., Sercy, 1642. 4°. ib. 1648. 8°. Goude, Gu. de Hoeve, 1649. 12°. (very neat).

13086 — — Jouste la copie à Paris, 1658. 12°. 197 pages.

This is a real Elzevir production; but the edition, Bruz., Fr. Foppens, 1658. 12°. 197 pages (of which there are two distinct impressions of the same year, according to Renouard's Catal. IV. 140), is no Elzevir, but a Paris, production. But the edition, Bruz., Fr. Foppens, 1659. 12°. 197 pages, has certainly the appearance of an Elzevir impression. Par., Mauger, 1665. 12°. ib., Ribou, 1666. 12°. are common editions.

13087 — mémoires, auxquels on a ajouté son éloge, celui de Mr. de Bussy et la fortune de la cour (par de Dampmartin. Edit. donnée par J. Godefroy). Liège, Broncart, 1713. 8°. Also, Haye (Trévoux), Moetjens, 1715. 8°. 2 voll.

Both editions are prized alike. The memoirs are printed after the edition of 1715 in the Collection des mém. relatifs à l'hist. de France, T. LII. p. 93–372.

13088 — memorias, traduc. de Frances en Español por Jacinto de Herrera. Madr. 1646. 8°. Geschichte der Marg. von Valois von ihr selbst beschrieben. Nebst Zusätzen und Ergänzungen aus den franz. Quellen von F. Schlegel. Lpz. 1803. 8°. (1 d. 8 gr.) Memoirs of Margaret de Valois, transl. from the French. Lond. 1813. 12°. 2 vols. (12s.)

Two of her letters first printed in Artigny Mémoires, II. 358 etc.

13091 MARIANA, J. Historiæ de rebus Hispaniæ libri XX. Toleti, typis Pt. Roderici, 1592. fol.

The first edition of the Latin original, and scarce. The copies are of three kinds. The more common have 4 leaves of preliminary matter and 959 pages, the last of which has the catchword HISTO-, although the reverse of the leaf is blank. Then 6 leaves of index. Other copies, with the date, Toleti, Th. Gusmanius, 1595, contain 25 books, and go as far as p. 1168, when 14 leaves of indices follow. As far as p. 959 they are of one and the same printing as the preceding. A third kind, likewise of 1168 pages and 25 books, has the date, Toleti, Rodericus, 1592, like the copies of the first kind.—To this may be joined, Historiæ Hisp. appendix, libri scilicet 21–30 cum ind. Ff. 1606. fol. (also in Schotti Scriptt. hist. Hisp.) All the 30 books for the first time, Mog. 1605. 4°.

- 13092 — historiæ de reb. Hisp. libri XXX. Acced. Jos. Emman. Minianæ continuationis novæ libri X. Hag. Com., Hondt, 1733. fol. 4 parts in 2 vols. with plates printed in the text.

Little sought after, notwithstanding the augmentations.

- 13093 — historia general de España, compuesta primero en latin, despues vuelta en castellano. Toledo, Rodriguez, 1601. fol. 2 voll.

The first edition of the Spanish translation, prepared by the author himself, which has a preference over the Latin original on account of its additions. The editions, Madr. 1608, or 17, or 23. fol. 2 vols. are also from the hands of the author; that of 1623 is especially prized as his last. Amberes (Leon de Francia), Bousquet, 1737–39. 8°. 16 vols. is convenient, and for the first time provided with the continuation by Miniana, but it is very incorrect.

- 13094 — historia general de España, con el sumario y tablas. Madr., Ibarra, 1780. fol. 2 voll. (130 rs.) Also on fine paper.

A critical and very fine edition; that of Madrid, 1623, forms the basis. The continuation of Miniana also appeared at Madrid about 1806, in fol. for the completion of this edition.

- 13095 — historia general de España. Ilustrada en esta nueva impresion de tablas cronologicas, notas y observaciones criticas con la vida del autor. Valencia, Montfort, 1783–96. small fol. 9 vols.

A critical and also a fine edition. The edition of 1608 forms the basis, with the various readings and augmentations of those of 1617 and 23, and with very valuable notes. Mariana's portrait is prefixed to his life. The edition which appeared at Madrid in 1819 in 8 vols. with a continuation and annotations by Jos. Saban y Blanco, is celebrated as being still more excellent. Madr. 1794. 8°. 10 vols. (with Miniana's continuations) is also good.—

Pedro Mantuano advertencias a la historia de Mariana. Milan, 1611. 4°. or Madr. 1613. 4°. In opposition, Historia gen. de Esp. del Mariana defendida por Th. Tamayo de Vargas. Toledo, 1616. 4°. Gasp. Ibañez, marq. de Mondejur, advertencias sobre la historia del P. J. de Mariana. Valencia, 1746. fol. or Madr. 1795. 8°.

246 numbered and 18 unnumbered leaves, index and errata. The translation is by J. Fischart (under the name of Jesuwalt Pickhart), and still sometimes sought after on account of its burlesque style. The first edition appeared, Christlingen, 1579. 8°. The original edition, scarce and sought after on account of the 60 plates by Bloemart. Also copies on large paper. In most copies Bloemart's too free representation of Salmacis and Hermaphroditus is replaced by another representation of the same subject by Poilly. Copies with both plates are greatly sought after. The edition, Amst., Wolfgangk, 1676. 4°. has 58 neat plates, which are copies of Bloemart's.—See also TEMPLE des muses.

Both catalogues are hard to be met with; but the second, which contains a representation of 163 monograms of ancient masters, is the rarest.

13173 — les histoires des anciens comtes d'Anjou et de la construction d'Amboise. Par. 1681. 4°.

Scarce. It is a translation of two Latin works, one of which is of the 12th century.

13174 — mémoires, avec des notes histor. et crit. (par Goujet). Amst. 1755. 12°. 3 voll.

Previously, Par. 1656. fol. They embrace the years 1600-56, and are very interesting for the history of the literary and social life of that period in France.

13175 MAROT, Clém. L'adolescence Clémentine, autrement les œuvres de Clem. Marot. Par., Janot, 1538. 16°. with woodcuts.

Lyon, Dolet, 1538. 8°. Gothic letter, and Lyon, Gryphius (1538). 8°. are still sought after.

13176 — adolescence Clémentine. Anvers, J. Steels, 1539. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A tolerably scarce edition, in which the two journeys of J. Marot's are to be found.

13177 — œuvres, augmentées d'un grand nombre de ses compositions nouvelles. Lyon, Dolet, 1543. 8°.

This and the edition, Lyon, à l'enseigne du rocher, 1545. 8°. are very scarce and sought after. The other old editions (for example, Lyon, Rouillé, 1546 or 54. 16°. Lyon, de Tournes, 1549 or 53. 16°.) are only of value when they are in excellent condition.

13178 — œuvres, revues, augmentées et disposées en beaucoup meilleur ordre, que ci-devant; plus, quelques œuvres de Mch. Marot (publ. par Fr. Mizière). Niort, Porteau, 1596. 16°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A very scarce and good edition, printed in cursive letters. The 1st part has 8 leaves of preliminary matter and 548 pages, the 2nd has 248 pages and 16 leaves.

13179 — œuvres. Haye, Moetjens, 1700. 12°. 2 voll.

A neat edition, and the most sought after, although not the best. Copies with margins in good condition and without rusty spots are seldom to be met with. A less fine reprint with the same date and of a somewhat taller size may be distinguished by the title of each book having a different border; in the genuine edition both vols. have the same border.

13180 — œuvres, revues sur plusieurs MSS., augmentées, avec les ouvrages de J. et de Mch. Marot, et les pièces du différend de Clément avec Fr. Sagon, accomp. d'une préface histor. et d'observat. critiques, par Lenglet du Fresnoy. Haye, Gosse, 1731. large 4°. 4 vols. Also on very large paper.

The best and most complete edition, but not sought after in France. At the same time appeared an impression, ib. 1731. 12°. 6 vols.

13181 — œuvres choisies de Clém. Marot. Par., Didot, 1801. 18°.

The only copy on vellum was sold at Paris in 1815 for 129 fr.

There are copies on vellum. Previously, Par., Tory, without date. 8°. Par., Roffet, 1532. 8°. etc. Also above in No. 13180.

13183 MAROT, J. et MAROT fils.

L'architecture françoise, ou recueil des plans etc. des églises, hôtels et maisons particulières de Paris etc. Par. 1727 or 51. fol.

A collection of architectural plates, in part engraved by Mariette, with the same title, and the date 1727, in three folios, is probably one and the same with the above, and perhaps only augmented by Mariette with several plates of his own stock for sale.

13184 — le petit Marot ou recueil de divers morceaux d'architecture, gravés par J. Marot. Par. 1764. large 4°. with 220 plates.

A second edition, Amst. 1729. fol. 4 vols. It is worked up afresh and continued in Desessart's Dictionnaire de Police. Par. 1786-91. 4°. 8 vols. (unfinished.)

13188 MARRIER, Mt. Monasterii regalis S. Martini de Campis Paris. ordinis Cluniacensis historia, libris sex partita. Par., Cramoisy, 1636. 4°.

This work is important for the history of the place on account of the many original documents printed in it. In p. 552-62 is also to be found copious information respecting Gu. Postel from sources partly unprinted, together with a fine portrait of him in p. 556.

The glossary, p. 625-645, is not in all the copies. The poem L'amant rendu cordelier others attribute to duke Charles of Orleans. According to Duverdier a separate edition of this poem had already appeared in 1473; but its existence is still doubtful. The following is to be found in the Royal library at Paris, S'en suynt l'amant rendu cordelier à l'observance d'amours. Par., Germ. Vineaut, 4 Oct. 1490. 4°. Rom.* p. 415, makes out the types to be like those of (Lauer's) Silius Italicus of 1471. in 4°. and considers this to be the editio princeps. According to Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. IV. 532. it was printed at Rome by U. Han.

13225 — epigrammata. Ferrariae (Andr. Gallus), 2 Jul. 1471. 4°.

The only copy hitherto known is in the Catal. bibl. Harlej. III. 59, and Pt. Sriver also speaks with praise of this edition. But no one except Maittaire has seen it, not even Audiffredi, and even the Harleian copy is not now forthcoming. Did it really exist?

13228 — epigrammata. Without place or date. 4°.

187 leaves (according to Dibdin, 178 according to Brunet) with 32 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is a registrum, and leaf 16 Pliny's letter to Priscus. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the text and the 1st verse is thus set down:

sileat miracula memphis.

According to Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. II. 176, it was printed before 1474; but then it cannot be a reprint of the Cologne edition of 1475, which he at the same time maintains.

169 leaves with the signatures a-r. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank, 1<sup>b</sup> has Pliny's letter, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the text. In the last 2 leaves is the letter of G. (Merula) Alexandrinus. Merely a reprint of the edition of Vindelinius.

With the signatures a-s, and 32 lines without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank, 1<sup>b</sup> is Pliny's letter, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, M. Ualerij Martialis Epigramatō Liber pmq. Morelli, Bibl. Pinell. II. 348, finds its types to be similar to those with which Vindelinius de Spira printed Dante in 1477; but Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. II. 177, would rather attribute it to J. de Wesphalia in Louvain.

13231 — epigrammata. Mediol., Ph. Lavagnia, 1478. fol.

Also a reprint of the edition of Vindelinius.

13232 — Martialis opus (cum comm. Domit. Calderini). Ven. (without the printer's name), 1480. fol.

224 leaves (the last blank) with the signatures a-g and A-E. 3 leaves of preliminary matter; leaf 4<sup>a</sup> begins the text, leaf 220<sup>b</sup> is the colophon, and Calderini defensio and a register follow in leaves 221-223. The first edition with this commentary (the commentary previously alone without the text, see above CALDERINUS), and often repeated; *Ven., Th. Alexandrin., prid. id. 13244 — epigrammata, paucis admodum vel rejectis vel immutatis, ab omni rerum obscenitate verborumque turpitudine vindicata (per And. Frusium). Romæ, in ædd. soc. Jesu, 1558. 8°.

Scarce, but of no value. Also, Lugd. 1580. 16°.

13245 — epigrammaton ll. XIV. Ex fide vetustissimor. exemplarium nunc recens emendati. Lugd., her. Sb. Gryphii, 1559. 12°.

It appears to have no new materials notwithstanding that the title promises so much.

13246 — epigrammaton libri etc. Omnia ad vetustior. codicum fidem diligenter emendata cum scholiis et varr. lectt. ac demum X epigrammatis ex vetusto cod. suis locis adjectis (cura Hadr. Junii). Bas., Pt. Perna, 1559. 8°.

The first edition by Junius, and the first, properly so called, recension of Martial, very scarce, but incorrect. He made use of an English MS. The new epigrams, which he admitted from this MS., and which Scriver so impetuously ejected again, are considered by Lessing, in his works, I. 230, as genuine remains of the lost early poems of Martial.

13247 — epigrammaton libri XIV. Ex fide vetustissimor. exemplarium nunc recens emendati una cum annotatt. aliquot viror. doctor. Lugd., Ant. Gryph., 1567. 12°.

Cum multis collatus exemplaribus, according to the printer's preface.

13248 — epigrammaton ll. XII, xenior. lib. I, apophoretor. lib. I. Omnia emendata et scholiis illustrata ab Hadr. Junio. Antw., Plantinus, 1568. 12°.

Copies in good condition are sought after. Junius gave herein a new edition of his earlier recension after a MS. of Pulmannus. Previously, Antw., Plant., 1566. 8°. Also, ib., id., 1579. 12°. Lugd., Ant. Gryph., 1584 or 88. 12°.

13249 — epigrammaton libri XV. Post Hadr. Junii emendationem recogniti et lectionis varietate doctissimorumque viror. observatt. illustrati. Adjecto novo indice absolutissimo stud. et op. Jos. Langii. Arg., Zetzner, 1595. 12°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The first edition of this index.

13250 — epigr. ll. XV ex Jani Gru-teri jam accuratiori ad MSS. Palatina et edd. vett. recensione. Ff. 1602. 12°.

A new recension. Previously, Ff. 1596. 12.

13251 — epigr. ll. XIV cum comm. Calderini et obss. G. Merulæ. Ejusd. Martialis epigrammata selecta græce expressa a F. Morello. Item Thdr. Marcilii commentar. auctus ad amphitheatrum. Desid. Heraldii adnotatt. Jos. Langii index. Par., Macæus, 1601. 4°.

This edition seems to be very scarce. In Dresden there is only the 2nd vol. which contains the Greek translation of Morellus, the commentary of Marcilius, the notes of Heraldus, and the index of Langius with separate titles and pagination.

13252 — epigrammatum ll. XV. Lr.

Ramiresii de Prado novis commentariis illustrati. Cum ind. Jos. Langii. Par., Mch. Sonnius (other copies, Cl. Morellius), 1607. 4°.

4 leaves, 388 pages, 6 leaves, 373 pages, 15 leaves, and 243 pages. (Langius's index has a separate title.)

13253 — epigrammaton libri. Animadversi, emendati et commentariolis luculenter explicati (a Th. Farnabio). Lond., Kingston, 1615. 8°.

Farnaby is said to have made use of MSS. Lord Spencer possesses a copy on vellum of the edition, Lond., Rb. Junius, 1633. 8°. (Dibdin Decam. II. 351). Also, Amst., Blaeu, 1644. 12°. ib., Wetstein, 1678. 12°. Lugd., (Vratisl.) 1744. 12°.

13254 — epigrammatum ll. XV cum varior. doctor. commentariis, notis, observatt., emendatt. et paraphrasib. unum in corpus coniectis. Cum ind. Jos. Langii. Lut. Par., Sonnius (other copies, Cl. Morellius), 1617. fol.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 647 pages, text, 14 leaves, index, 44 pages, Musamberti commonitoria, 2 leaves, 107 pages and 5 leaves, notæ Heraldii, 123 pages, index Langii. This edition contains the entire materials of the Paris editions of 1601 and 1607.

13255 — Martialis nova editio. Ex museo Pt. Scriverii; acced. ejusd. et varior. animadvv. et notæ. LB., Maire, 1619. 16°. 3 parts in 1 vol.

A new recension, and tolerably scarce. Renouard has a copy on strong paper. Scriver must already have superintended an edition of Martial previously to 1619, which appeared at his expense, since in his letter of 1605 he writes, Ego in Martiale meo (typographo in singula folia) sex florenos dedi, et charta mihi seorsim persolvenda fuit: see And. Alciati Ep. contra vitam monast. LB. 1695. 8°. p. 225. By which he must have meant the following work: Anthologia epigrammaton Martialis. Jos. Scaliger vertit gr. Pt. Scriverius publicavit. (LB.), Guyotius, 1603. 12°.

13256 — Mth. RADERI ad Martialis epigrammaton libros omnes plenius commentariis explicatos curæ tertie (cum textu). Mog., Kinck, 1627. fol. 16 leaves, 940 pages, and 30 leaves. Analecta. ib. 1628. fol. 23 pages.

A new revision of the text, with a valuable commentary. The Analecta are often wanting. The offensive passages are omitted. Previously, Ingolstadt. 1607 or 11. fol. He had before superintended a small edition, likewise castrated, without notes, Ingolst. 1599. 8°. Col. 1613. 12°. and often.

13257 — Martialis. Ex museo Pt. Scriverii. Amst., L. Elzevir, 1650. 24°.

Also, ib., Dn. Elsevir, 1664. 24°. Neither edition is particularly fine. The same text also in Amst., Janson, 1628. 16°. Antw., Verdussen, 1696. 16°.

13258 — epigrammata cum notis Farnabii et varior. geminoque indice. Accurante Corn. Schrevelio. LB., ex off. Hackiana, 1670. 8°.

According to Lessing, this is still the best small edition, and far better than that of Collesso. It belongs to the series cum not. varior. Previously, LB., Fr. Hack, 1656 or 61. 8°.

13259 — epigrammatum libros XV interpretat. et notis illustrav. Vinc. Collesso ad us. Delphini. Par., Celler, 1680. 4°.

Not common, but also of no great value. 15 leaves of preliminary matter, 793 pages, 59 pages, obsæna, 168 pages, Index. Reprinted, Lond. 1701 or 20. 8°. Ven., Coleti, 1739. 4°.

13260 — epigrr. demptis obscenis, cum interpretatione ac notis (Jac. Juvencii). Par., Benard, 1693. 12°. 2 voll.

The commentary is a selection from the earlier commentaries. After the index there ought to be found 29 pages more, Appendix de diis et heroibus.

13261 — epigrr. paraphrasi et notis varior. selectissimis ad us. Delphini interpretatus est Vinc. Collesso. Numismatibus exornav. L. Smids. Amst., Gallet, 1701. 8°. with coins.

This edition is also sought after for the series cum notis variorum. There is a copy in which the obsæna, which usually form an appendix of 56 pages, are inserted in their places in the text itself. There are also copies in which the coins are neither mentioned in the title nor to be found in the book itself.

13262 — epigrr. (stud. Mch. Maittaire). Lond., Tonson, 1716. 12°. Also on large paper.

With various readings and an index.

13263 — epigr. cum notis Th. Fitzgerald. Lond. 1721, or 40, or 55. 8°.

13264 — epigrammatum libri (ed. Abr. le Mascrier). Par., Robustel (other copies, Barbou), 1754. 12°. 2 voll. Also on Dutch paper.

With various readings. A neat edition. Glasg. 1759. 8°. Birmingh., Baskerville, 1773. 12°. are not sought after. Manhem. 1782. 8°. gives the text of the edition of 1754, but unmutated.

13265 — epigr. in XII libros digesta, ut uni sic omnibus poetis facem præferente Jac. Elphinstonio. Lond. 1783. 8°. (5s.)

13266 — epigr. ad opt. edd. collata. Bip. 1784. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol. (1 d.)

13267 — epigr. ex optimar. edit. collatione concinnata. Lond. 1816. 12°. (6s. 6d.)

Also, Vindob., Degen, 1804. 8°. 2 vols. (1 fl. 40 kr., on vellum paper 11 fl. 30 kr.)

13268 — xenia et apophoreta. Lipczgk, Mr. Brandiss, 28 Nov. 1488. 4°. Gothic letter.

38 leaves with the signatures a-c. Superintended by J. Honor. Cubitensis. Also, Lps., Thanner, 1498. 4°. Gothic letter, 36 leaves. Ff., N. Lamperter et Bhs. Murrer, 1508. 4°. Erf., J. Knapp, 1508. 4°.

13269 — selector. ab Hm. Buschio epigrammatum liber primus. Col., Cr. Cæsareus, 1519. 4°. 24 leaves.

13270 — epigrammata in Cæsaris amphitheatrum et venatt., multis in locis emendata illustrataque adnotatt. Auctore Thdr. Marcilio. Lutet., Beysius, 1584. 8°. Also, Lugd., le Preux, 1593. 8°.

13271 — florilegium epigrammatum Martialis. Jos. Scaliger vertit græce. Lut., Rb. Stephanus, 1607. 8°. 12 and 70 leaves.

In Dresden there is a copy with Mth. Slade's MS. corrections. Previously, (LB.) 1603. 8°. (see above, No. 13255 n.) This translation contains the book De spectac. entire, the 13th and 14th books almost entire, and a good number out of the other 12 books. Its errors are animadverted upon by Monnoye in the Menagiana, I. 325-36. A still earlier Greek translation of several epigrams by F. Morellus, is in the Paris edition of 1601, where it fills two quarto sheets. In the later Paris editions the translation is mixed up with that of the epigrams translated by Scaliger, and is attributed to the latter: but Lessing in his works, I. 280, has again distinguished both.

13272 — Marziale, fedelmente tradutto in italiano da Giuspanio Graglia. Lond. 1782-91. 8°. 2 voll.

Hitherto the most important and the best got up work on this part of natural history. The first 10 vols. contain 367 plates, the 11th is an index (by J. Sm. Schröter) to the first 10 vols., and the 12th is a supplement with 39 plates.

- 13295 MARTINIÈRE, Ant. Agst. Bruzen de la. Le grand dictionnaire géographique, historique et critique. Par. 1768. fol. 6 voll.

The last edition of a work faulty indeed, but not yet entirely superseded. Haye, 1726. fol. 9 parts in 10 vols. (also on large paper), and Par. 1739. fol. 6 vols. are in still lower estimation.

6 leaves of preliminary matter (the 6th blank), 440 and 466 pages, and 10 leaves, index. Scarce and dear in England. This edition is materially corrected from a MS. The first edition, Lond. 1567. fol. was printed from a very faulty and interpolated MS.

13404 — flores historiarum, præcipue de rebus britannicis, ab exordio mundi usque ad a. D. 1307. Et chronicon ex chronicis ab initio mundi usque ad a. D. 1118 deductum, auct. Florentio Wigorniensis. Cui acc. continuatio usque ad a.

The finest edition, and the most sought after, of which there is a copy on blue paper in the Royal library at Dresden, in which the woodcuts are heightened with silver. Ven., Valgris., 1554. 58 or 60. fol. with smaller woodcuts, are not prized. Id., 1569 or 83. fol., and the edition superintended by Csp. Bauhinus, Bas. 1598 or 1674. fol. are still of some value.—Csp. a Sternberg Catalogus plantar. ad VII varias edd. commentarior. Matthioli in Dioscor. Pragæ, 1821. fol.

13411 — discorsi nelli sei libri di Dioscoride della materia medicinale. Ven., Valgrisi, 1568. fol. with woodcuts.

The finest edition, of which, Ven., Valgris., 1585. fol., and Ven., Alberti, 1604. fol. are only reprints. The first edition of this often printed work was, Ven. 1544. fol.; the last, ib. 1645. fol. Consult Paitoni, I. 307 etc.

13412 — commentaire sur les VI livres de Dioscorides, mis en franç. par J. des Moulins. Lyon, 1579. fol. with woodcuts.

- 13445 MAXIMILIAN. Ehrenpforte Kaiser Maximilian I. large fol.

92 leaves of different sizes, after Durer's designs, and engraved on wood under his direction. On 2 leaves there is the year 1515, on the leaf with the statue of Rudolphus bellicosus 1559, and in the copy of the Imperial library at Vienna there is at the end, gedruckt zu Wien M. D. LIX. In some copies the leaf with Milanese war is blank, and the leaf with Rudolph's statue is a copy different from the older leaves, which has not a date. Complete copies are very scarce. A new edition, superintended by Bartsch, Wien, 1799. fol. contains 43 leaves of the same size, 21 of which are etched, the plates having become useless. Maximilian's Triumphwagen engraved on wood in 1522 in 8 leaves suited to each other must not be confounded with this.—See also TREITZSAURWEIN.

Little better than the earlier corrupt impression in Fabricii Bibl. gr. Harl. IX. 322 etc. (ed. vet. VIII. 415-448.)

13448 MAXIMUS Taurin. Opera aucta atque adnotatt. illustrata (a Brunone Bruni). Romæ, 1784. large fol.

A fine and successful edition. Previously in several editions of Leonis M. Opp.

13449 MAXIMUS Tyrius. Sermones s. disputatt. XLI græce nunc prim. editæ. (Par.), H. Stephanus, 1557. 8°. Eadem ex Cosmi Paccii interpretatione (lat.) ab H. Stephano emendata. ib., id., 1557. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The first edition after 2 MSS. Some corrections are appended at the end. In the Royal library at Dresden there is a copy with MS. notes by Hi. Wolf.

13450 — dissertationes (gr. lat.) cum interpretatione, notis et emendatt. Dn. Heinsii. Acc. Alcinoi in doctrinam Platonis introductio ab eod. emendata et alia ejusdem generis. LB., Patius, 1607. 8°. 3 parts in 1 vol.

12 leaves, 408 pages (Greek text), 6 leaves, 412 pages, and 2 leaves (Latin translation), and 82 unnumbered leaves (notes). Stephens's text with corrections from MSS., and with a Latin translation. Besides Alcinoi there is also to be found therein, Pythagoreor. Fragmenta, and Apulejus De deo Socratis.

13451 — dissertatt. philosophicæ (gr. lat.) cum interpretatione et notis Dn. Heinsii hac secunda edit. emendatioribus. Acc. Alcinoi in Platonem introductio. LB., Patius, 1614. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

10 leaves and 534 pages (text), 157 pages, and 1 leaf (notes), and 16 leaves (two indices). A new edition. The Latin translation is printed immediately by the side of the Greek text, but the fragment of the Pythagoreans and of Apuleius are omitted.

13452 — dissertationes (gr. lat.), ex nova interpretatione recens ad græcum contextum aptata, et collocata

e regione: additis numeris, et erroribus anteriorum editionum quam diligenter deterisis. Lugd., Lurjot, 1631 (other copies, 1630). 8°.

A reprint of the text and translation of Heinsius without notes. The numbers placed in the margin are the pagination of Stephens's edition. Brunet by mistake considers this to be a Leyden edition, and a complete repetition of the second edition of Heinsius.

13453 — dissertationes (gr. lat.) Ox., th. Sheld., 1677. 12.

A neat reprint of Heinsius's text and translation, without notes; yet his and Stephens's conjectures are sometimes introduced into the text. Demophilii similitudines et sententiæ are appended.

13454 — dissertationes (gr. lat.). Ex interpretatione Dn. Heinsii. Recens. et notulis illustrav. J. Davisius. Cbr., Hayes, 1703. 8°.

Heinsius's text, here and there corrected, but only a selection of his notes. The annotations are partly critical and partly concerning the history of philosophy. It is becoming scarce.

13455 — dissertatt., ex rec. J. Davisii (gr. lat.) Ed. altera, ad duos codd. MSS. locis quam plurimis emendata notisque locupletioribus aucta. Cui access. Jerem. Marklandi annotatt. (Curav. J. Ward.) Ox., Bowyer, 1740. 4°.

A new recension after 2 MSS., in which Davis arranged the separate dissertations after their order in the Paris MS., and considerably augmented his notes. It first appeared after his death. There are no copies on large paper.

13456 — dissertatt. ex rec. J. Davisii (gr. lat.)... cui acc. Jerem. Marklandi annotatt. (as in the preceding edition.) Recudi curav. et annotatiunculas de suo addid. J. Jac. Reiske. Lps., Georgi, 1774. 8°. 2 voll. (3 d. 12 gr.)

13457 — commentatio, quod sermonum optimi sint, qui operibus consonent. Græce cum interpr. Dn. Heinsii. Hlmst. 1665. 4°. 8 leaves.

Only an impression of the text and translation for the use of prelections.

13458 — λόγος τισι χερειστον τον καλακα του φιλου. Gr. et lat. ex rec. J. Davisii, cum castigatt., emendatt.

et notis H. Stephani, Dn. Heinsii, J. Davisii et Jer. Marklandi. Curav. notasque suas adjec. J. Ad. Schier. Athenis ad Elmum (Hlmst.), Weygand, 1760. 8°.

13459 — sermones, lat., interprete Cosmo Paccio. Romæ, Jac. Mazochius, 1517. fol.

A copy on vellum was in the Bibl. exquisitissima (1732), p. 205. Corrected by Bent. Rhenanus, Bas., Froben, 1519. fol.

13460 — discorsi trad. da Pierio de' Bardi. Ven., Giunti, 1642. 4°.

Only after the Latin translation of Pacci. Paitoni also mentions, Dialoghi di Massimo Tirio in italiano e spagnuolo. Ven., Zaltieri, 1569. 4°.

—Discours philosophiques trad. du grec. par J. H. Sm. Formey. Leide, Luchtmans, 1764. large 12°.—Dissertations trad. sur le texte grec, avec des notes crit., hist. et philos. par J. Jac. Combe-Dounous. Par., Bossange, 1802. 8°. 2 voll. (10 fr., on vellum paper 20 fr.)

De Thon's Catal. has a translation by F. Morel, without place, 1607. 12°.

13462 — philosoph. Reden, aus dem Griech. übs. durch Ch. Tob. Damm. Berl., Wever, 1764. 8°. (1 d.)

13463 — dissertations, transl. from the Greek by Th. Taylor. Lond. 1804. 12°. 2 vols.

That Maximus Tyrius revised his work is doubted in F. A. Bornemann's Progr. I. de gemina Cyropædiæ recensione. Schneeb. 1814. 8°.

13464 MAXIMUS, Pacificus. Hecatelegium (s. carminum libri X). Flor., Ant. Mischominus, id. Nov. 1489. 4°.

With the signatures a-n, and 26 lines. A very scarce original edition of poems in part very offensive. Amongst other things he mentions the venereal disease therein (consequently before the discovery of America). This passage is omitted in the edition at Parma, 1691, but printed in the Anecdotes de médecine, T. I. Lille, 1766. 8°. p. 121-126. Consult also Murr's Jour- nal, XIV. 70. There are also poems by him in the Lusus V. postar. in Venerem. See above, LUSUS.

13465 — hecatelegium. Camerini, J. Jac. de Benedictis, 1523. 4°.

With the signatures a-n. Likewise a scarce edition.

13466 — opera. Lucretiæ ll. II. Virginiae ll. II. Elegiar. ll. XX. De bello Spartaco ll. VI. De bello Cyri ll. VII. De bello Syllæ et Marii ll. II. De componendis carminibus. Grammatica. De declinatione verbor. græcor. Poema ad J. Salvalium. Invectiva in Ang. Politianum. Fani, Hi. Soncinus, 1506. 8°.

In all the copies hitherto known, the Lucretia and Virginia alone are found of all the works mentioned in the title, and yet they appear to be really complete, because there is a colophon and register on the folio recto of the last leaf. Mercier de St. Leger thinks that the printer Soncinus had already printed the other poems not to be found here at Fano in 1500, and only gave this vol. the above general title, in order that both the vols. might be joined together under it.

13467 — carmina recusa ad autographum Ant. Magliabechi. Parmæ, Rosatus, 1691. 4°.

This edition is not complete, as is observed above.

13468 MAYA, Man. Rodrig. Dictionario das ellipses, que mais frequentemente se achão nos authores classicos, interpretados conforme o sentimento dos mais celebres grammaticos. Lisb. 1790. 8°. (400 rs.)

Well got up. The 1st vol. contains 35 plates with the title-plate and plan of the garden, the 2nd 77, and the 3rd 155. The first 2 vols. obtained a new title in 1801.
- 13482 MAYER, L. Views in Egypt, from drawings in the possession of Rb. Ainslie, taken during his embassy to Constantinople by L. Mayer, with an history of the country (in Engl. and French). Lond., Bensley, 1802. large fol. with 48 illuminated plates.
Of distinguished beauty.
- 13483 — views in Palestine, from the original drawings of L. Mayer, with an historical and descriptive account of the country and its remarkable places (in Engl. and Fr.). Lond., Bensley, 1804. (P. II. or) views in the Ottoman empire, chiefly in Caramania. ib., id., 1803. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with 48 illuminated plates.

A deficiency in fidelity is objected against this work, and the colouring is also considered too fiery. In German under the following titles, Ansichten von Palästina od. dem heil. Lande mit Erläutt. von E. F. C. Rosenmüller. Lps. 1810-14. oblong fol. 3 parts in 1 vol. with plates (12 d.). Ansichten von der Türkei, hauptsächlich von Caramanien, mit Erläutt. von J. Ad. Bergk. Lps. 1820. oblong fol. with 20 plates (6 d.).

- 13484 — views of the Ottoman dominions in Europe, in Asia, and some of the Mediterranean islands. From the original drawings taken for Rb. Ainslie by L. Mayer, with descriptions historical and illustrative. Lond., Bensley, 1810. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with 71 illuminated plates.

Of still greater beauty than both the preceding works.

Leopoldo ad Tzarum Alexium Mihalowicz anno 1661 ablegatorum, descriptum ab ipso bar. de Mayerberg, cum statutis Moscoviticis ex russo in lat. idioma ab eodem translatis. Without place or date. fol. 236 pages.

Of especial rarity, and a companion to Korb's travels, see KORB. The following is a French performance, Voyage en Moscovie d'un ambassadeur (baron de Mayerberg) envoyé par l'empereur au Czar Alexis Mihalowicz. Leide, 1688. 8°. The Royal library at Dresden also possesses the original designs for these travels, which were never engraved. They form a vol. of 131 leaves in fol., which is called in the MS. title, Unicum in orbe exemplar, and were prepared by the imperial court-painter Rdf. Störng.

13488 MAZARINADES. Recueil de pièces en vers et en prose, qui ont paru pendant les troubles de la Fronde. In 4°. and in 8°.

This numerous collection of pieces, a list of which is almost impossible, was formerly greatly sought after, but is now only of value when the following pieces are to be found therein; La pure vérité cachée.—La custode de la reine qui dit tout.—La famine ou les putains à cul.—Le tableau du gouvernement présent ou éloge de son éminence.—Le tempérament amphibologique des testicules de Mazarin, par maître J. Chapot. Col. 1651.—La bouteille cassée attachée avec une fronde au cul de Mazarin. Par. 1652, and so forth. The largest collection is that which Renouard possesses (formerly Vallière, 393 fr., consult his Catal. III. 251 sq.). There is also a large collection to be found in the Royal library at Dresden.

Most of these pieces, of which those that are composed in burlesque verse are for the most part the work of Sandricourt and Scarron, breathe the wildest party spirit, and contain the most venomous and licentious satires and pasquils. Respecting their importance in the history of French bibliophily, see Hermes, V. 137 sq. A collection of the better pieces projected by three Paris booksellers in 1649 (Patin Lettres, I. 41.) did not appear.

- 13512 MÉDAILLES sur les principaux événemens du règne de Louis le Grand avec des explications historiques (par Fr. Charpentier, P. Tallemant, J. Racine, Boileau Despréaux etc.). Par., impr. roy., 1702. large fol. with coins.

The preface written for this fine work was suppressed shortly after it was printed, consequently copies which contain it are scarce and sought after. It is printed again in Camusat's Hist. des journaux. Copies without the preface should have 1 title-plate, 1 title-leaf, and 289 leaves numbered on the under margin. The more complete and finer edition, Par. 1723. large fol. is not dearer, and the preface is more rarely wanting in it. It contains besides the preliminary matter, 318 leaves, also numbered underneath, and 6 leaves of index. The edition, Par. 1702. large 4°. contains only re-engravings on a reduced scale.

- 13513 MEDICEA hospes s. descriptio publicæ gratulationis, qua Mariam de Medicis excepit senatus populusque Amstelodamensis. Amst. 1638. fol. with plates.

Care must be taken that Snyderhoef's fine plate, of the 4 burgomasters of Amsterdam, be not wanting. This plate, very costly among the first impressions, has been taken out of most copies.

13514 (MEDICI veteres.) De re medica huic volumini insunt: Sorani in artem medendi isagoge. Oribasii fragmentum de victus ratione. Plinii Sec. de re medica libri V. Apulejus de herbar. virtutibus. Acc. (Ant. Musæ) libellus de betonica (edid. Alban. Torinus). Bas., And. Cratander, 1528. fol.

The first collection, 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 125 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf at the end.

13515 — medici antiqui omnes, qui latinis literis diversor. morbor. genera et remedia persecuti sunt, undique conquisiti et uno volumine comprehensi. Ven., Aldi filii, 1547. fol.

Scarce and sought after. 12 leaves of preliminary matter and 320 pages. After leaf 8 two ought to be found unnumbered with the signature*, and the last two have 316 and 317 after 316, instead of 317 and 318.

13516 — medicæ artis principes post Hippocratem et Galenum. Exc. H. Stephanus, 1567. fol. 2 voll.

Prized, and scarce in good condition. Commonly bound in 2 vols. although the 2nd has no separate title-leaf. Vol. I. has 4 leaves of preliminary matter; 768 pages, Aretæus etc.; 697 pages, Oribasius etc.; 434 pages, Celsus etc. Vol. II. (without preliminary matter) has 846 pages, Actuarius etc.; 866 pages, Ætius etc.; and 54 leaves, index and notes. This division makes the vols. equal. Properly this is the order: Aretæus, Oribasius, Ætius, Actuarius, Celsus, and thus several copies are bound. The Greek physicians are here only to be found in a Latin translation.

13517 — medici antiqui græci Aretæus, Palladius, Ruffus, Theophilus: physici et chirurgi (lat.) Partim nunquam, partim antea, sed nunc auctiores editi. Omnes a Junio P. Crasso Latio donati. Quib. access. Stephanus Athen. et ipsius Crassi quæstt. medicæ et naturales. Bas., Pt. Perna, 1581. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 297 pages, 17 leaves, index, 212 pages, and 23 leaves, scholia and index.

13518 — veterum quorundam bonor. scriptor. libri et reliquæ singulares de materia et re medica, videlicet Serenus Sammon., Marcellus s. Vindicianus, Priscianus, S. Placitus, Constant. Africanus, Theodorus. Quos collatis MS. et exemplarib. conjunctim edid. And. Rivinus. Lps., Ellinger, 1654. 8°.

This small valuable collection is very scarce.—See also HALLER, No. 9204.

13519 — parabilium medicamentor. scriptores antiqui. Sexti Placiti de medicamentis ex animalibus liber. Luc. Apuleji de medicaminibus herbar. liber. Ex rec. et cum not. J. Ch. Gli. Ackermanni. Nrb. et Altorfi, Monath, 1788. 8°. (1 d.)

13520 — XXI veterum et claror. medicor. græcor. varia opuscula. Primo nunc ex Oribasii cod. Mosq. græce edidit, interpretat. lat. J. Bt. Rasarii, item suas animadvv. et ind. vocabulor. adjecit Ch. F. de Matthæi. Mosq. 1808. 4°.

His edition of Rufus Ephesius should be bound up with this collection, which is tolerably scarce in Germany, see RUFUS.

13521 — medicor. græcor. opera quæ exstant (gr. lat.). Editionem curav. C. Glo. Kühn. Lps., Cnobloch, 1821 etc. 8°.

Of this very meritorious new critical edition only vols. I-III. (or Galeni, T. 1-3.) has as yet appeared.

13522 — opus aureum de febribus, in quo trium sectar. clarissimi medici, græci, arabes et latini, habentur, qui de hac re egerunt. Ven. 1576. fol.

Also, Ed. J. Fernelius. Ven. 1594. fol. Both editions are scarce.

13523 — veterinariæ medicinæ libri II, a J. Ruellio olim latinitate donati, nunc vero iidem sua, h. e. græca, lingua prim. in lucem editi (a Sim. Grynæo). Bas., J. Valderus, 1537. 4°.

Very scarce. 6 leaves of preliminary matter and 307 pages. Ruellius's translation previously, Par., Colinaeus, 1530. fol. Medicina de' cavalli composta da diversi in greco e trad. in italiano. Ven., Tramezzino, 1543. 8°. See also CHIRURGIA.

MEDICI, Gi. de', see LEO X, No. 11860.

13524 MEDICI, Lorenzino de'. L' Aridosio, commedia (in prosa). Fir., Fil. Giunti, 1593. 8°.

Scarce, and cited by the academy della Crusca, which erroneously mentions 1595 as the year of its being printed. The first edition probably is, Ven., Matteo Pagano, all' insegna della fede, without date. 8°. because the prologue is wanting in it. An edition, about the middle of the 16 century, without place or date. 8°. 51 numbered leaves, the printer's symbol of which bears the motto, Nequicquam sapit, qui sibi non sapit, and which also has no prologue, has the addition Novellamente posta in luce. Also, Lucca, Busdrago, 1548. 8°. (so Gamba, but Vallière, Catal. VIII. 243, has 1549). The pretended edition, Fir., Giunti, 1605. 12°. is a correct reprint prepared at Naples in 1720. According to Crescimbeni, this piece was also put into verse and printed in that form, Bologna, 1548.

13525 MEDICI, Lr. de'. Poesie vulgari, nuovamente stampate: col commento del medesimo sopra alcuni de' suoi sonetti. Ven., figliuoli di Aldo, 1554. 8°.

205 leaves, and 3 leaves at the end for errata, colophon, and anchor. The copies are of two sorts. In the complete copies sheet O has 8 leaves, which are numbered 105-112, in others only 4 leaves, with the pagination 105-108, so that 109-112 are altogether wanting. P. Manutius for instance, during the actual printing, suppressed that sheet and reprinted it, whereby he omitted 5 songs, two of which were somewhat free. The following are the suppressed songs; leaf 105<sup>b</sup>, O dio o sommo bene; leaf 108<sup>a</sup>, O maligno e duro core; leaf 109<sup>b</sup>, Ben ch'io rida; leaf 110<sup>a</sup>, E convien ti dica; leaf 110<sup>b</sup>, Una donna avea desire. That this alteration took place during the actual printing is clear from this, that sheet O is (also in the complete copies) stated in the register as a duerno, and complete copies are consequently very scarce.

This edition, very valuable of itself, and cited by the academy della Crusca, obtains a peculiar worth owing to the commentary written by the author himself, which as characteristic of his life is very important, and is to be found in no other edition. This edition is so scarce, that the superin-tendant of the following edition was not even acquainted with it.

13526 — rime sacre, unitamente a quelle di Madona Lugrezia sua madre e d'altri di sua famiglia, raccolte e d'osservazioni corredate per Fr. Cionacci. Fir., Donati, 1680. 4°. 20 or 80 pages.

Scarce, and cited by the academy della Crusca. It contains the spiritual songs (Orazioni e laudi) of the Medici, namely, of Lr. Lucrezia, Pt. Fr. and Bn. d'Allemanni de' Medici.

13527 — rime sacre etc. Bergamo, Lancellotti, 1760. 8°. Also on large paper.

A verbal and unaltered reprint of the preceding collection.

13528 — poesie del magnif. Lr. de' Medici, in questa ediz. nei luoghi mancanti e scorretti compiute e alla vera lezione ridotte. S'aggiungono le stanze in lode della nencia, i beoni, le rime spirituali, e altre poesie inedite, con alcune memorie attenenti alla sua vita, testimonianze etc. Bergamo, Lancellotti, 1763. 8°. Also on large paper.

An edition of the Aldine impression of 1554, augmented and corrected from MSS. But only two of the songs then suppressed are here admitted, and the commentary is altogether omitted. Serassi has only added various readings, a list of Lorenzo's works, and testimonianze, but he was not properly an editor. The Rime Sacre of 1760 are usually added to this edition.

13529 — poesie inedite. Pisa, without date. 8°.

Only a reprint of the poems which Roscoe, in his life of Lorenzo, has edited for the first time from the Laurentiana.

13530 — poesie del magnif. Lr. de' Medici e di altri amici e contemporanei suoi, divise in due parti. Lond., Nardini e Dulau, 1801. large 4°. On vellum paper.

A splendid edition, in which are to be found besides most of the poems first edited by Roscoe, the Selve di amore also, and in the 2nd vol. poems by Poliziano and Bn., Luca and L. Pulci.

13531 — stanze bellissime e ornatissime, intitolate le selve d'a- more. Pesaro, Girol. Soncino, 1513. 8°.

A very scarce edition, but which might be amended from the not less scarce edition, Ven., Rusconi, 1515 and 22. 8°. The impression in the foregoing book is only after the edition of 1513.

13532 — stanze alla contadinesca in lode della nencia, insieme con la Beca di L. Pulci. Fir., mese di Maggio (without the printer's name), 1553. 4°. 4 leaves.

A very scarce and valuable edition. The same is also the case with Fir., appresso alle scale di Badia, without date. 4°. 6 leaves, the last of which is blank.

13533 — la piacevole e bella historia della nencia da Barberino, e della Beca. Fir., rincontro a S. Apollinari, 1622. 4°.

An extremely scarce edition of the preceding poem, and cited by the academy della Crusca. Also (with other poems), Italia (Parma), 1802. 8°. and in the Parnasso Ital. XXXIII. 9 etc.

13534 — ballatette del magnif. Lr. de' Medici, di messere Agnolo Politiani et di Bn. Giamburlari (sic) et di molti altri. Without place (Fir.), a petitione di Ser Piero Pacini da Pescia, without date. 4°. 30 leaves, with the signatures a-d.

The first edition of the Canzoni di ballo and extremely scarce. It is less complete than the following, but contains some poems not printed again.—Canzoni a ballo da Lr. Medici e Agn. Poliziano, without place, 1533. 4°. (In the Catal. Imperial. p. 562.)

13535 — canzoni a ballo, insieme con quello di Ang. Poliziano e di altri autori. Fir., Sermartelli, 1562. 4°. 38 leaves.

This also very scarce edition is augmented. A smaller collection, Canzone a ballo composte da diversi. Fir. 1564. 4°. 4 leaves, contains poems by Lr. Medici, Poliziano, and Pulci.

13536 — canzone a ballo composte del magnif. Lr. de' Medici, e da M. Agnolo Poliziano ed altri autori, insieme con la nencia da Barberino e la beca di Dicomano, composte dal medesimo Lorenzo. Fir.

(without the printer's name), 1568. 4°. 42 leaves.

The most correct edition, and augmented, in which nevertheless some pieces are wanting which are in the earlier editions. Likewise very scarce. Bm. Gamba prepared an entirely accurate reprint, with all the faults of the original, and under the same date, at Milan, in 1812, in 4°. (only 100 copies). In some copies 2 leaves are added at the end, containing the poems to be found in the earlier editions, but which were omitted in that of 1568.

13537 — rappresentazione de SS. Giovanni e Paolo, e di S. Costanza. Fir., Fr. Bonaccorsi, without date. 4°.

Very scarce. Also, without place (Fir.) or date. small 4°. 28 lines, with the signatures a and b. Fir., Benvenuto, 1538. 4°. 10 leaves. ib., da Prato, 1547. 4°. Fir. 1555. 4°. Fir., Ghiti, 1571. 4°. Without place, Baleni, 1582 or 88. 4°. Siena, without date. 4°. Also in the Rime sacre of 1680 and 1760.

13538 — altercazione ovvero dialogo, nel quale si disputa tra il cittadino e il pastore, quale sia più felice vita, o la civile, o la rusticana. Without place or date (sec. 16). 8°.

No other edition of this didactic poem on happiness is known.—A splendid edition of all Lorenzo's poems, corrected and augmented from MSS., will shortly appear at Florence.

Scarce. Previously, Alcala, Pt. de Robles, 1566. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

13542 — regimiento de navegacion. Sevilla, 1552. 4°.

The first work on naval affairs. L'arte del navigare, trad. in ital. Ven. 1555. 4°. ib. 1609. 8°. L'art de naviguer, trad. du Castillon en fr. par N. de Nicolai. Lyon, 1554. fol. with woodcuts. Rouen, 1573. 4°.

This collection is prepared without much care and selection.

13548 — origines typographicæ. Hagæ Com., 1765. 4°. 2 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

Full of learned and acute inquiries, but still more of preconceived opinions, which are carried even to wilfulness. It is known that the author wrote in favour of Coster and the town of Haarlem, and that he made no hesitation to explain evident productions of Ketelaer's and de Leempt's in favour of his hypothesis for Coster. In his steps trod Jac. Visser Uitvinding der Boekdrukkunst, getrokken uit het latynsch Werk van Ger. Meermann, met aantekeningen van H. Gockinga, en eene lyst 13552 MEFFRETH. Sermonum, alias ortulus reginæ, pars hyemalis et de sanctis. Ven., Cp. Arnoldus, 1479. fol.

The first edition of an often printed work. The author is unknown as to the circumstances of his life; but as he himself says in the prologue to the 1st part, that he had composed his work Ob honorem Misnensis diocesis, it therefore appears that he lived in Saxony. May not the Peter Meffert, with which the lower classes in Leipzig jestingly denote the Latin quidam, probably refer to him?

65 leaves, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The number of lines is unequal. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> is a large woodcut. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the work with the above title. An edition, Augsp. 1474 I consider only a typographical error for 1473.

13574 — (the same title). Augsp., Sorg, 1478. fol.

13575 — (the same title). Augsp., Sorg, 1487. small fol. (not 4°) with woodcuts.

Also, Erfurt, Hertsin, 1664. 8°. with woodcuts, and often since then (undated), as a book for the people. Concerning MSS. of this prose edition, see Hagen's Grundriss, p. 310 sq.; and concerning two MSS. German works in rhyme, written in 1471 and 1476, see ibid. p. 303 sq. Koch Compend. der deutsch. Literaturgesch. II. 231. Care must be taken not to confound either the Buch der Weisheit der alten Weisen (see above, No. 3095), or the Gesta Romanor. (see No. 8455), or the translation of Burley (see No. 3182), with this work.

13581 — 2. In Latin. Historia calumniæ novercalis, quæ septem sapientum inscribitur (auct. Joanne, monacho abbatiæ de Hauteselves). Antw., Ger. Leeu, 6 Nov. 1490. 4°. with woodcuts.

55 leaves with the signatures a-i. Neither in this nor in the following editions does this Latin edition appear in its original form; as the editor confesses he has changed both the names of the persons and the style.

13582 — historia septem sapientum. Romæ. Col., J. Koelhof, 1490. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

13583 — sapientum septem Romæ historia. Delfis, Ch. Snellaert, 1495. 4°. with woodcuts.

With the signatures A-N. This 2nd Latin edition is made after the German romance. Renouard in his Catal. III. 194. sets it down too late, only about 1570.

13586 — 3. In French. Les sept sages de Rome. Genève, 23 Mai, 1492. small fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

This edition, as well as Lyon, 1649. 8°. seems altered in style. Le roman des sept sages de Rome. Troyes, Oudot, 1662. 8°. Concerning a fine MS. of the 13th century, see Catal. Vallière, II. 634. At the end of the 12th century Hebert, called le Clerc, put this romance into French verse, from which it was shortly after translated into French prose.

13590 — 4. In English. Treatyse of the seven points of true love and everlasting wisdom, drawn out of the book which is . . . cleped Orologium Sapientie. Here begynneth a lytill shorte treatyse that tellyth how there were seven maysters assembled togydre everych one assked Concerning this romance, see Notices et extraits, T. IX. P. I. p. 416 not. Koch Compend. der deutsch. Literaturgesch. II. 230-33. Görres über deutsche Volksbücher, p. 154-173. Perhaps it is rather derived from the Indian romance, Dolopatos, of a certain Sendabad or Sendebad. Thus much is certain, that it has some similarity with the Greek romance which Dacier described in the Mém. de l'acad. des inserr. XLI. 546 etc. Consult also my history of the Royal library at Dresden in the appended list of MSS. D, 33. p. 247 etc. The Italians do not appear to have transferred it into their literature; they possess however an imitation of it of their own in the often printed Compassionevoli avvenimenti di Erasto. Ven. 1542. 8°. In French, Par. 1565. 8°. and often. In Spanish, Anvers, 1573. 8°.

The Greek word, L. I. C. 1, is faultily printed πορθμῶς. This fine printed edition, which only seldom deviates from the preceding, and is probably only a reprint of it, is considered by Ernesti and Tzschucke as the editio princeps, which it could not be on account of the signatures alone. Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. II. 285, sets it down about 1474. Panzer, IV. 160, and Harles erroneously confound it with No. 13606.

13603 — Pomp. Melle Cosmographi de situ orbis libri tres. Ven., Bn. Pictor et Erh. Ratdolt una cum Pt. Loslein, 1478. 4°. 48 leaves with signatures.

Fine and scarce. Reinoldius asserts that it was corrected from MSS. only. But the most important part, the collection of various readings, has not appeared. Also, Lond. 1719 and 39. 4°. with the same maps.

- 13632 — de situ orbis ll. III. Cum notis integris varior. Acc. Julii Honorii oratoris excerpta cosmographiæ. Cosmographia falso Æthicum auctorem præferens cum variis lectt. ex MS. Ravennatis Anonymi geographia ex MS. Leidensi suppleta. Cur. Abr. Gronovio. LB., Luchtmans, 1722. 8°.

The text of the edition of 1696. J. Gronovius's notes are here considerably augmented, and those of other annotators are added. This edition maintains its value, as the other 3 geographers are omitted in the edition of 1748.

13633 — de situ orbis ll. III ad vett. exemplarium fid. castigati (ab Abr. Gronovio). LB., Luchtmans, 1743. 12°.

Without notes. The text is chiefly altered according to Reinold's edition. Also, Glasg., Foulis, 1752. 8°.

A new recension from MSS. and with Abr. Gronovius's own notes. The reprint, LB. 1782. 8°. is less fine. Its text is followed in the small editions, (by A. W. Ernesti) Lps. 1773. 8°. (4 gr.) and by J. Kapp, Curæ, 1781. 8°. (6 gr.)

13635 — (the title as in No. 13631). Ed. II. Etonæ, 1761, or 75, or 1814. 4°. with 27 maps.

An unaltered impression of the edition of 1711.

Previously, ib., id., 1585. 4°.

13645 MELANCHTHON, Philip. Opera. Bas., Hervag., 1541. fol. 5 voll.

This edition, superintended by J. Milich and G. Sabinus, contains his collected theological, philosophical, and philological writings up to 1541, with the exception of his speeches.

13646 — opera (ed. Csp. Peucer). Witt., Crato, 1562-64. fol. 4 voll.

Also, Witt. 1601, or Hmb. 1617. fol. 4 voll. This collection contains only his theological writings, and not even all of them. The Latin and German meditations, the Postilla Melanchthonia, and all his small German pieces are wanting in it. D. Chytræus in consequence wished to have published 6 vols. in addition, which however did not take place: see Strobel's Neue Beitr. I. 140 sq.

- 13647 — loci communes rerum theologicar. s. hypotypeses theologicæ. Witt. 1521. 4°.

The first edition, extremely scarce. Ib. 1521. 8°. is only the 2nd. The most recent edition is by J. Ch. W. Augusti, Lps. 1821. 8°. (1 d. 6 gr.) Concerning the history of this often printed book, see G. Thdr. Strobel's Versuch einer Literargeschichte von M's locis theol. Altd. u. Nrb. 1776. 8°.

- 13648 — i principii della theologia, di Ippofilo da Terra negra. Without place or date. 8°. 87 leaves.

Only 2 copies are known (one at Wolfenbüttel) of this translation of the preceding book, executed by L. Castelvetro (see Clemmii Novæ amæn. litt. Fasc. III. p. 390 sq.). It appeared between 1529 and 1554. Whether it was printed at Venice, Morelli, in Bibl. Pinell. IV. 30, does not venture to declare positively; but that it did not proceed from the press of P. Manutius is certain. Consult Strobel, p. 184–191. He however, p. 191, wrongly doubts the existence of a French translation: La somme de théologie ou lieux communs. Genève, 1551. 8°.

- 13649 — selectæ declamationes. T. I–IV. Arg. 1566–69. T. V. VI. Witt. 1572, 71. T. VII. Servestæ, 1586. 8°. 7 voll.

There are different editions of the first 6 vols. The 7th was only printed once, and is consequently the scarcest. T. 1 and 2 were superintended by N. Gerbelius; T. 3 and 4 by Csp. Peucer; T. 5 and 6 by Mch. Majus; and T. 7 by Mt. Mylius.

- 13650 — epistolar. farrago, a J. Manlio collecta. Bas. 1565. 8°. Epistolæ selectiores s. lib. I. edit. a Csp. Peucero. Witt. 1565 or 70. 8°. Lib. II. (ed. idem). Witt. 1570 or 74. 8°. Libellus III. op. et stud. Cp. Pezelii. Bremæ, 1590. 8°. Epp. ad Alb. Hardenbergium, op. et st. Cp. Pezelii. ib. 1589. 8°. Lib. IV. stud. et cura J. Sauberti. Nrb. 1640. 8°. Appendix libri IV, ed. J. Saubertus. Nrb. 1645. 8°. Lib. V. accurante J. Sauberto. Nrb. 1646. 8°. Epistolar. liber. LB., Elzevier, 1647. 8°. Epp. ad Jo. Camerarium. Lps. 1569. 8°. LXI epp. ad F. Myconium, ed. a Cyriaco Snegassio. Jen. 1596. 4°. XVI. epp. Lutheri, IV Melanchthonis etc. ad F. Myconium, evulgatæ a Cyr. Snegassio. Smalcaldia (1593). 4°. J. Arn. Ballenstadii epistolar. Melanchth. decas I. et II. Hlmst. 1755–61. 4°. Mt. Lutheri, Ph. Melanch. u. Justi Jonæ Briefe an Markgr. Joachim II. zu Brandenburg (herausg. von Sm. Lenz). Halle, 1748. 8°. J. Ant. Niemeier pentas epistolar. Melanchthonis. Hal. 1761. 4°. Epp. quædam ex autographis editæ a J. F. Köhlero. Lps. 1802. 8°.

A complete copy of this collection is of the greatest rarity; consult the account of Melancthon's collected letters in Strobel's Beitr. zur Lit. B. I. St. 1. p. 1–176, and in Nützlichen Beitr. zu den nöthig. u. angenehm. Wissensch. Freyb. u. Lps. 1772. 8°. I. 248 etc. II. 232 etc. 370 etc. 440 etc. There are two impressions of Peucer's edition of the first book, of the year 1565; the first of 575, and the second of 559 pages. There are different copies of the Epp. ad Hardenberg.: see Neuer lit. Anzeig. 1806, p. 184. To which may be added, J. Stigelii Poematum vol. III. Jenæ, 1601. 8°. which contains 103 of Melancthon's letters. The edition in Erasmii Epp. Lond. 1642. fol. contains only books 1–3 by Peucer and Pezel, and the letters to Camerarius.

13655 MÉLANGES tirés d'une grande bibliothèque (par le Marq. de Paulmy et And. Gu. Contant d'Orville). Par. 1779–88. 8°. 70 parts in 69 vols.

A catalogue raisonnée of the most superior works written in French in all sciences from the remotest period, with long extracts from most of them. The earlier volumes are very interesting, the latter ones less so, and consequently the work is not particularly sought after in France. The 1st and 2nd vols. were published anew in 1785, and the 3rd in 1783. The Grande Bibl. was the property of the marquis de Paulmy (the purchaser of the 2nd part of Vallière's library), and is now to be found in the library of the Arsenal at Paris.

13656 MELDOLA, Abr. Neue portugies. Grammatik. Neue Aufl. Lpz., Schwickert, 1789. 8°. (2 d. 18 gr.)

As yet the first edition that is known. The translation is said to be made from a Latin original.

Concerning this romance, which must not be confounded with the following romance belonging to the Round Table, see Mélanges tir. d'une grande bibl. XIV. 14 etc.

13676 MELIADUS de Leonnois. Les nobles faits d'armes du vaillant roi Meliadus de Leonnoys (transl. du latin par Rusticien de Pise, et retouché par un anonyme). Par., Galliot du Pré, 1528. fol. Gothic letter.

6 leaves of preliminary matter and 232 numbered leaves. The column-title has, Le premier volume du roy Meliadus etc., although the work only consists of one volume. — 16l. 5s. 6d. Roxburgh, 8l. 10s. Marlborough.

13678 — gli egregj fatti del gran re Meliadus con altre rare prodezze del re Artu, di Palamides, Amoraldo d'Irlanda etc. Ven., Guglielmo, 1558-59. 8°. 2 voll.

13679 MELIBEE. Lystoire de melibee et de prudence sa femme. Without place or date (about 1481). fol. Gothic letter.

16 leaves with 34 lines running all across the page, and the signatures A and B. It begins, Prologue. Il est vray que apres que boece de cōsolacion eut fait et compose son etc. This piece, hitherto entirely unknown, is bound up, in the Royal library at Dresden, with a translation of Boethius in old French, which is also printed in the same type with it: see above, No. 2636. — Chaucer, as is known, has also given a Tale of Mellebe and Prudence his wife.

13680 — hienach volget ein nützlich büchlein Melibeus genant darauss ein iung mēsch im selber, wol rätlich sein mag, wie er sich weisslich in erberkeyt vn̄ gutē sytē haltē sol etc. Ein Epistel. Augsp., Hans Bömler, 1473. 4°.

In this extremely rare book Melissus sought to introduce a new orthography. It is probably one and the same work with his German Geistl. Gedichten of 1572, which Bonterwek, X. 49, seems only to have known by report.

MELLIN, see SAINT-GELAIS.

13685 MELLING. Voyage pittoresque de Constantinople et des rives du Bosphore, d'après les dessins de Melling, publié par Mm. Treuttel et Würtz. Par., impr. de P. Didot aîné, 1819. very large fol.

This splendid work, with 48 plates and a text of 73 leaves (without signatures and pagination), appeared in 13 Nos. (at 100 fr., and avant la lettre 150 fr.). Some etchings were also made of the plates; and there is also a single copy on vellum, for which Melling's original designs were destined. As to the rest, the text is not very instructive.

MELLO, see FONSECA.

13686 MELLO, Pascas. Jos. Historia juris civ. Lusitani. Ed. III. Olyssip. 1800. 4°.—Institutionum juris civ. Lusitani II. IV. ib. 1799–1800. 4°. 4 voll.—*Institutionum juris crim. 13688 MÉLUSINE (roman tiré du latin de Jean d'Arras). Lyon, Mathis Husz, without date. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

This edition, probably the first, occurs in the catalogue of du Fay, No. 2414, and in the catalogue of the Paris library, Y 2, No. 654. The latter copy is defective, wanting for instance the last leaf with the colophon; so that it is not known from whence the author of the catalogue derived the date. According to Brunet's conjecture, this copy might consequently belong indeed to the following edition. According to him also it was printed before 1480, and contains 193 leaves with 32 and 33 lines running all across the page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, and with many woodcuts of the size of the entire page.

13689 — — Lyon, Maistre le roi, without date. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

13690 — l'histoire de Mélusine nouvellement corrigée. Par., Pt. le Caron et J. Petit, without date. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

Caron's name is not found in any typographical productions after 1500, consequently the age of this edition may at least be negatively determined. 2ol. 10s. Roxburgh, and 24l. 3s. Marlborough.

13691 — Mélusine nouvellemēt imprimé à Paris. Par., Th. du Guernier pour J. Petit, without date. small fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

In 2 columns, with the signatures a–sijj. Very indifferently printed. Brunet seems to conjecture that this edition may be one and the same with the preceding. Guernier's name appeared as a printer for the first time after 1500. La Croix du Maine quotes an edition, Lyon, Ortuin et Schenck, about 1500, without specifying the size.

13692 — l'histoire de Mélusine. (Par., Ph. le Noir), without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

13693 — l'histoire de Mélusine, nouvellement imprimée. Par., Alain Lotrian et Denys Janot, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

13694 — — Lyon, Arnoullet, 1544. 4°. Gothic letter.

13695 — — Rouen, J. Crevel, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

13696 — — Par., N. Bonfons, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

13697 — — Par., veufve J. Bonfons, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

13698 — l'histoire de Mélusine fille du roy d'Albanie et de dame Presine, reveue et mise en meilleur langage que parcy deuant. Lyon, Benoist Rigaud (1597). 4°. with woodcuts.

Modernized in the language. The editions, Troyes, N. Oudot, 1649 or 60. 4°. with woodcuts, are mutilated, and very badly printed. The following are more recent performances: Le roman de Mélusine par M. L. M. D. M. Par., Rocolet, 1637. 8°. and Histoire de Mélusine, princesse de Lusignan, avec l'histoire de Geoffroy, surnommé à la grant dent, par Fr. Nodot. Par. 1700. 12°. (previously, ib. 1698. 12°.)

van Cleblat, 14 Jul. 1489. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

Extremely scarce. With the signatures a-V, and 37 and 38 lines running all across the page. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank, 1<sup>b</sup> a woodcut, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> (with the signature aij) begins the text.

13700 — Histoire der Melusine. Augsp., J. Bämmler, 1474. fol. with woodcuts.

Beginning, Das abenteuerlich beweyset uns von einer frawen genandt Melusina etc. This translation of the French original was made by Thüring von Ringoltingen in the year 1456, and a MS. of it is described in Bragur, B. IV. Abth. 2. p. 176 etc.

13701 — Dis ouentürlich buch bewiset wie von einer frauwen genant Melusina die ein merfeye etc. Without place or date (Strb., about 1477). fol. with 67 woodcuts.

79 leaves with 34 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1 is blank. In leaf 2<sup>a</sup> is a table of contents, printed in red, the beginning of which I have here mentioned as a title. After it is the preface of the translator. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself, and leaf 79<sup>a</sup> ends it, where the last or 31st line is, gott uns allen sinen heiligen sehen send. Amen. The printing belongs to an unknown press at Strasburg, which occurs in 1476 and 1477, and is distinguished by the peculiar form of its S.

13702 — Dis ouentürlich buch bewiset wye von einer frouwen genant Melusina die ein merfeye etc. Without place or date. fol. with 66 woodcuts.

90 leaves, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Also to be distinguished from the preceding by its different orthography in the specified words wye, frouwen, and genant. Consult nevertheless Panzer's deutsche Ann. I. 53. Suppl. 23. Concerning an edition, without place, 1478. fol. see also his Suppl. p. 41.

13703 — Melosine Geschicht Mit den figuren. Heidelb., H. Knobloch, 1491. small fol. with woodcuts.

In 2 columns, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Consult Heidelb. Jahrb. d. Lit. 1 Jahrg. 5 Abth. p. 421 sq.

13704 — Die Historia von Melusina. Strb., Mathis Hupfuff, 1506. fol. with woodcuts.

Nagler in Berlin possesses it.

13705 — die Histori oder geschicht von der edlen vnnnd schönen Melusina. Augsp., H. Steyner, 1547. fol. with woodcuts.

Also in the Buch der Liebe, Bl. 262 b etc. And Strb., Ch. Müller, 1577. 8°. with woodcuts; and Strb., M. von der Heiden, 1624. 8°. A new performance in F. W. Zachariä Hinterlass. Schr. Brschw. 1781. 8°. p. 40–59.

The original was written in Latin in 1387 by Jean d'Arras, and is properly a fabulous history of the house of Lusignan: consult Bibl. des romans, vol. II. p. 278 etc. Matthison's Erinnerungen, II. 388 etc.

13706 MEMNON. Ex Memnone excerptæ historiæ de tyrannis Heracleæ Ponticæ. Ex Ctesia et Agatharchide excerptæ historiæ. Omnia non solum græce sed et latine, partim ex H. Stephani, partim ex Lr. Rhodomanni interpretatione. Exc. H. Stephanus, 1594. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Then it was again suspended, and commenced again in 1800 in 4 vols. annually in 4°.; in 1807 it was once more suspended, and has not since then been recontinued (at least not up to 1817).

13750 MENA, J. de. Las CCC (trecentas) de Juan de Mena. Sevilla, J. Th. Fauario de Lumelo, 12 Enero 1496. 4°. Gothic letter.

44 leaves with signatures; leaf 1 is a large woodcut, and underneath the above title. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the book with the superscription; Comiença el labirintho de Juan de mena poeta castellano etc. The first known edition and very scarce of this poem, consisting of 300 coplas divided into 7 stages (therefore called trecentas), and containing an allegorical picture of human life. The edition, Sevilla, Pegnitser, 1499. fol., which Panzer, IV. 339, only quotes as an edition of the gloss of Nuñez, contains without doubt at the same time the text of Mena. He also mentions, J. de Mena Sobre la coronacion de Yñigo Lopes de Mendoça. Without place, 5 Nov. 1499. 4°. (Annal. IV. 70 and 339, compare 161). There is also an edition of the Trecentas, Granada, J. Varela, 1505 mentioned.

13751 — las CCC con otras XXIV coplas y su glosa y la coronacion del mismo poeta y otras cartas y coplas y canciones agora nuevamente añadidas. Zaragoza, G. Coci, 23 Sept. 1509. fol. 130 leaves.

Here the unfinished continuations of the poem (24 coplas), the Coronacion del Marq. de Santillana (50 coplas), and the commentary of Fernan Nuñez are added.

13752 — las CCC con otras XXIV coplas y su glosa y la coronacion. Sev., Jac. Cronberger, 1512. fol.

Also, Zaragoza, 1515. fol.

13753 — las CCC cō otras XXIV. coplas y su glosa y la coronacion: y otras cartas: y coplas y cãciões. Agora nuevamente aña lidas. Sev., Jac. Cronberger, 8 Marco 1520. fol. Gothic letter.

104 numbered leaves (trecientas, with the date, Sev., Cronberger, 24 Sett. 1517), and 22 unnumbered (Coronacion, with the above date of 1520).

13754 — copilacion de todas las obras de . . J. de Mena: couiene saber las CCC con otras XXIV coplas y su glosa y la corōaciō y las coplas de los siete pecados mortales cō otras cartas y coplas y canciones suyas. Agora nuevamente añadidas. Sevilla, por Varela, 1528. fol. 130 leaves.

A fine typographical production on strong paper. Panzer, VII. 123, also mentions an edition, Sev., Cronberger, 1528. fol.

13755 — copilacion de todas las obras con su glosa. Sevilla, J. V. (Varela), 1534. fol.

13756 — compilacion de todas las obras. Valladolid, J. de Villaquiran, 1 Jun. 1536. fol.

The Coronacion has a separate title and colophon.

13757 — copilacion de todas las obras (as in No. 13754). Vallad., J. de Villaquiran, 1540. fol.

Leaf for leaf a literal impression of No. 13754, but with blunted types and on inferior paper. The date 1640 in Brunet is perhaps a typographical error in place of this edition. Also, Toledo, 1540 and 48. fol.

13758 — las trecientas, glosadas por Fernan Nuñez. Otras 24 coplas suyas con su glosa, la coronacion, con el tratado de vicios y virtudes, y otras cartas, coplas y canciones. Anvers, J. Steelsio, 1552. 8°. 830 pages.

A neat and elegant typographical production. Other copies have the printer's name Nucio, although they are not really two different printings. Also, Anvers, 1554 and 82. 8°. The last is entirely verified.

13759 — las trecientas coplas con su glosa y otras obras. Alcala, J. de Villanueva y Pt. Robles, 1566. 8°.

A mean looking edition, but containing an addition of valuable old poems by different authors.

13760 — las obras, nuevamente corregidas y declaradas por Fr. Sanchez. Salamanca, Luc. de Junta, 1582. 8°.

13761 — obras. Madr. 1804 or 18. 8°. (12 rees.)

With annotations. A MS. in 4°, Treinta y seis capitulos de Homero, traducidos en Castellano por J. de Mena, y dedicados al rey Juan II. is to be found in the Museo del Marq. de Monte-Alegre, Madr. 1677. fol. leaf 113a.

The copies are of 4 sorts. 1. With only a cancel to page 129. 2. With the following cancels: T. I. p. 30, 110–12, 260, 307, 335, 365, 370. T. II. p. 3, 15, 113–15, 159, 324, and 325. T. III. p. 106, 253–60, 407. T. IV. p. 21, 105, 121 and 123, 320 and 321. These cancels are inserted in the place of suppressed or too free passages. 3. With the cancels, but at the same time with the suppressed leaves, sometimes at the end of each vol., sometimes at the end of the entire work. 4. Without alterations, but with the cancels printed together on 48 pages at the end of the 4th vol. under the title, Indice expurgatoire du Ménagiana. The copies of the 3rd and 4th sort are most sought after.

The editions, Amst. 1713-16. 12°. 4 vols. (vols. 3 and 4 contain the additions by Monnoye, which are inserted in the edition of 1715 in their proper places), and Amst. 1762. 12°. 4 vols. have no cancels. In the edition, Par. 1729. 12°. 4 vols., printed from the edition of 1715, the offensive passages are omitted (Brunet however saw a copy in which they were appended in the form of cancels at the end of each vol.), and so also in the impression in the collection of the Ana (Par. 1789-91. 8°. 10 vols.) T. 2-4, where additions of the editor are annexed instead. As to the rest, the Ménagiana, the first edition of which appeared, Par. 1693. 12°. by Galland and Goullay, belong to the most interesting writings of the kind, in so far as they contain the most interesting notices for the history of the literary and social life of Paris at that period. Ménage, although at the same time he was a boasting pedant, a fulsome coxcomb, and a sneaking parasite, yet knew both better than perhaps any of his contemporaries.

A mutilated edition.

13783 — guerra de Granada, que hize Felipe II contro los Moriscos. Nueva impresion completa de lo que faltava en las anteriores, y escribio el autor, y añadida con su vida, y lo que se avia suplido por el conde de Portalegre. Valencia. 1776. 4°.

In this edition the text is again restored from genuine MSS. The earlier editions were mutilated by order of the government. It first appeared among his Obras in 1610, then by itself, Lisb. 1627. 4°. Madr. 1674. 4°. Valencia (1730), and 1766. 8°. It must not be confounded with Hita's works; see above GUERRAS.

13784 — la vida de Lazarillo de Tormes, y de sus fortunas y adversidades. Milan, Antoni, 1587. 8°. 75 leaves.

An earlier edition, Anvers. 1553. 16°. and an edition, Tarragona, 1586. 12°. are elsewhere cited by Brunet. These editions, as well as that En la offic. Plantiniana, 1595 or 1602. 8°. and Zaragoza, Perex, 1599. 8°. contain the romance in its original form, and only the first part. Roma, Facchetto, 1600. 12°. appears to be mutilated.

13785 — la vida de Lazarillo de Tormes, corregida y emendada por J. de Luna. Zaragoza, Destar, 1652. 12°.

Also, Par., Tiffaine, 1623. 12°. and ib., Boutonné, 1620. 12°. 2 vols. (In Spanish and French.) The book is now read almost only according to this edition, and continuation of Luna. Vida de Las. de Tormes, cotejada con los mejores exemplares y corregida por J. Jorge Keil. Gotha, 1810. 8°. (also in his Bibl. Españ.) Also Madr. 1813. 12°.

13786 — Lazariglio, il picariglio Castigliano, o sia la di lui vita, trad. da Barezzo Barezzi. Ven. 1622, or 26, or 35. 8°. 2 voll.

13787 — aventures et espiégleries de Lazarille de Tormes, écrites par lui-même. Par., Didot, 1801. large 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol. with 40 bad plates (12 fr., on fine paper 15 fr.).

This translation is the same as had already appeared, Par., Barbin, 1678. 16°. Lyon, 1697. 12°. and Bruxelles, 1698. 12°. with plates. This last edition of 1698 is scarce, neat, and has good plates. Ib. 1699, or 1701, or 13. 12°. have inferior impressions of the plates. The translator is unknown. Another earlier translation by van der Meereu, Par. 1561. 8°. (which however Barbier attributes either to J. Garnier de Laval or J. Sangrain), contains only the 1st part, the 2nd (translated by Pt. d'Audiguier) was first added in the edition, Anvers, 1598. 12°. Also, Par. 1623. 12°. Lyon, 1649. 12°. The translation made from Luna's edition, par L. S. D. Par. 1660. 12°. is different from it. There is another beside La vie de Lazarille de Torm. trad. en vers fr. par le sieur de B. Par. 1653. 4°. Also the edition, Brussell. (Rouen), 1721. 12°. 2 vols. with plates, appears to be a distinct translation. — T' leeven van Lazarus van Tormus. Amst. 1669. 12°. In English, Lond. 1708. 8°.

13788 — leben des Lazarillo von Tormes, übs. von J. G. Keil. Gotha, Steudel, 1810. 8°. (1 d. 16 gr.)

This edition is almost entirely unknown in Germany. I consider N. Heinsius's assertion, In Sicilia olim Menelaus mathematicus est editus, quem semel tantum vidi (Cl. Belgar. ad Magliab. Epp. I. 227), to be an incorrect reminiscence, as I am unable to find any thing about it.

13813 MENINSKI, Fr. a Mesgnien. Thesaurus linguar. orientalium, Turcicæ, Arab., Pers., cum interpretat. lat., germ., ital., gall, et polon. Viennæ Austr. 1680. 3 voll. Linguar. orientalium Turcicæ, Arab., Persicæ institutiones s. grammatica Turcica. ib. 1680. Complementum thesauri linguar. oriental. s. onomasticum Latino-Turcico-Arabico-Persicum. ib. 1680. fol. Altogether 5 vols.

A scarce edition of this important work, and the most sought after. It is indispensable on account of the Latin index, which is not to be found in the following edition, and is sometimes even wanting in the copies of the first edition, because the first half of it (not the whole work), already printed, was entirely burnt at the siege of Vienna in 1683, after which Meninski had a smaller number of them printed again; the division of the vols. is thus: vol. I. 10 leaves of preliminary matter and col. 1-2248; vol. II. (without any title) col. 2249-4420; vol. III. (without any title) col. 4421-6080 (including the appendix, which begins col. 5649); vol. IV. (Institutt. ling. or.) 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 216 pages, and 1 leaf of corrections; vol. V. (Complementum) 3 leaves of preliminary matter, and 1998 columns (including the appendix, which begins col. 1807).

13814 — lexicon Arabico-Persico-Turcicum, nunc secundis curis recognitum et auctum (a Bn. de Jennisch et Fr. de Klezl). Viennæ, Kurzboeck, 1780-1802. fol. 4 voll. (220 fr., on large paper 330 fr.)

Notwithstanding its corrections this edition does not entirely replace the preceding, inasmuch as it contains neither the Grammat. Turo. nor the Onomasticon. F. Freih. von Binder was the cause of this edition, who also induced the empress Maria Theresa to aid it, and she paid 8000 florins as a subscription for 100 copies. The king of Poland was the only other subscriber. The impression was 502 copies in all, 2 of which were on Dutch paper. What remained of the impression was bought by Renouard of Paris, to whom alone it now belongs.

13815 — institutt. linguæ Turc. cum rudimentis parallelis linguar. arab. et pers., ed. Ad. Fr. Kollar. Viennæ, de Ghelen, 1756. 4°. 2 parts in 1 vol. (2 d.)

This edition is not noticed by Panzer. Concerning the often printed book itself, which has been sometimes attributed to Mch. Scotus, sometimes to Theobald. Anguilbertus, but which must not be confounded with a similar work of Conrad von Halberstadt, see Freytag Appar. lit. II. 814 etc. Wellers Altes, III. 366. Denis Garell. Bibl. 59.

- 13828 — rime. Fir.. Nestenus e Moucke, 1730-34. large 8°. 4 parts in 2 vols.

This edition, superintended by Ant. Mar. Biscioni, which contains only the poetical works, is properly the one cited by the academy della Crusca. The first 3 vols. contain the poetical writings mentioned in the preceding article, and the 4th Etopedia, Canzone, Capitolo, Gius. Paolucci vita di Menzini, and Varie lezioni. The Satire are wanting, but are sometimes bound up with this edition, being taken from the first undated edition (see No. 13832).

What a pity that this distinguished bibliographer had not undertaken larger works. His life is in Chardon Mélanges, II. 241 sq. See also DEBURE and MARCHAND.

A new impression of the preceding work augmented with 12 plates, but the impressions of the plates are inferior. The above is the engraved title. Then follows a printed title, *Bybel Printen...afgebeelt door Mth. Merian, en nu...vermeerdert, geteekent en in Koper gemaect door Pt. Hendricks Schut. Amst., Visscher. T. I. has 3 leaves of preliminary matter, and 62 leaves of plates from the books of Moses. T. The copy that was formerly M'Carthy's, and is now Hibbert's, is quite erroneously stated in Dibdin's Decam. III. 175 as being on vellum, whereas it is only on paper.

13886 — les prophéties de Merlin. Par., Vérard, 1498. small fol. Gothic letter.

13904 MERSENNE, Marin. Quæstiones celeberrimæ in genesin. Par., Cramoisy, 1623. fol.

The two leaves (col. 669-76.) where Mersenne speaks of the atheism of his time were obliged to be suppressed and supplied by cancels. Although this happened only after the completion of the entire printing (as in the index Athei is referred to in those pages), yet copies without these cancels are of the greatest rarity. The uncastrated copies begin col. 669, Quis ut cum Jeremia clamem (in the castrated copies the commencement is, Hactenus paralogismos Atheor. discussos habet), and end, col. 674, quod non deleatur (in the castrated copies, in lucem preferat et expendat). The suppressed and historically remarkable passages are printed entire in the Bibliothèque Britannique, XVIII. 408-421. Consult Marchand Dictionn. I. 321. The book is also interesting both for other musical and physical digressions, and also on account of an attempt at a new French metre, and a specimen of French hexameters which are therein set forth. The author also appears to have indulged himself in an inquiry almost bordering upon lasciviousness: Quando se nudare liceat (p. 1243 sq.), where he quite casuistically treats of the different kinds of religious flagellation.

18905 — harmonie universelle, contenant la théorie et la pratique de la musique. Par., Rch. Charlemagne (other copies Pt. Ballard), 1636-37. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with plates and woodcuts.

This scarce and interesting work, which is a magazine of almost all the musical knowledge of that period, is seldom found complete, and is not always bound up in the same order. The following collation is according to the Dresden copy and that which is described in Forkel's Litt. der Musik, p. 408, both which are marked in the author's own hand, and consequently were probably bound according to his direction. (There is another collation in Debure, II. 542 sq.)

Tome I. 1. 28 numbered leaves of preliminary matter, viz. a chief title (in Forkel's copy in black and red with the name of Ballard as the publisher, in the Dresden copy only in black and with Charlemagne's name), a second title with a larger vignette, a half-title (Traitez de la nature des sons), 2 leaves of dedication to L. de Valois (in other copies to the count d'Alais), 1 leaf préface au lecteur; 6 leaves, première préf. génér. au lecteur; and 16 leaves, table des propositions des 19 livres de l'harmonie univ. 2. 228 pages, De la nature et des propriétés des sons. 3. 36 pages, Traité de mécanique. 4. 4 leaves of preliminary matter (a half-title, dedication, and preface), and 282 pages, Traitez des consonances etc.

Tome II. 1. 1 title (Seconde partie de l'harmon. univ. Par., Ballard, 1637), 1 leaf, preface, and p. 283-442 of the Tr. des consonances broken off in the preceding vol. 2. 4 leaves of preliminary matter (half-title, dedication, and preface), and 412 pages, Traité des instrum. de percussion. 3. 79 pages, Livre VII. des instrum. de percuss. 4. 68 pages, Livre VIII. de l'utilité de l'harmonie. 5. 28 pages, Nouv. obs. phys. et mathém. 6. 6 leaves, index.

13906 — Harmonicor. libri XII. Ed. aucta. Lut. Par., Gu. Baudry, 1648

(new title ib., id., 1652). fol. with plates and woodcuts.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 184, 4, and 168 pages. Previously, Par., Baudry, 1636. fol. Mersenne had at first published a Traité de l'harmonie univ. Par. 1627. 8°. he then wrote his Harmonica in 1636, of which he gave an enlarged translation in the Harmonie univ. A new edition of the latter was his Harmonica of 1648.

13907 MERULA, G. In librum de homine Galeoti Narniensis opus. In Sapphus epistolam interpretatio. Emendatt. in Plinium. Emendatt. in Virgilium. Without place or date (Ven., Vindel. de Spira, about 1474). 4°.

85 leaves (the first blank), with the signatures a-m, 28 and 29 lines, without catchwords and pagination. Panzer's statement of 80 leaves (Ann. typ. III. 483) is wrong, as even the imperfect Dresden copy, commencing only with b 2, contains 80 leaves. Denis, in the Supplement, assumes only 1481 to be the date of its being printed on account of the Greek types it contains, but Vindelinius has the same even in his Lactantius of 1472, and besides Galeottus answered this piece as early as 1476, see above GALEOTTUS. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy (again offered for sale at 250 fr.). An edition, ib. 1488 is only a confusion with that of 1493.

Also, Par., Pigouchet, 1499. 8°. Gothic letter. The following are less sought after: Par., Mch. le Noir, without date, or 1501, or 1505. 4°. Also, Lyon, Oliv. Arnoullet, without date. 8°. Gothic letter. Par., J. du Pré, without date. 4°. Gothic letter. Rouen, Ausout, without date. 4°. Gothic letter. Par., Higman, 1522. 4°. Gothic letter. Par., N. Vostre, 1527. 4°. Gothic letter (enlarged).

13912 — les lunettes des princes, ensemble plusieurs additions et balades. Par., Galiot du Pré, 1528. 8°.

This and the neat edition, Par., Bignon (other copies, Sergent), 1539. 16°. are printed with Roman characters, and are sought after.

Sth., Enæus, 1700–4. Epitome Scandiæ illustr. (s. Tom. XV). ib., id., 1705. fol. In 2 vols.

The 2nd vol. properly begins with the 11th part, as Messenius himself states, XIII. 86, that he had prepared 20 parts, of which however Peringskiöld has only edited the above 14. That the 14th part, which is wanting, was lost in MS. is made known in the reverse of the title to the 11th vol. Complete copies are scarce.

13950 MEURSIUS, J. Opera selecta, quæ ad antiquitatem et historiam græcam spectant, in tres tomos distincta. Opus rarissimum et quantivis pretii, cujus duo tantum exemplaria in terrar. orbe dantur. LB., Pt. van der Aa, 1724. fol. 3 voll.

The publisher took out of 2 copies of the Thesaur. Antiq. Gr. all the treatises of Meursius printed therein, and put them together in this production under a separate title; consequently the pagination and signatures do not run regularly on. By this means he formed 2 single copies, as the title states. Count Büнау bought the Dresden copy at Sellius's 2nd sale at Leipzig in 1738 for 28 d. 4 gr.

13951 — opera omnia, quorum quædam in hac ed. primum parent. Ex recens. et cum scholiis J. Lamii. Flor., regiis typis, 1741-63. large fol. 12 vols. with plates.

A very valuable collection, and not often to be met with in Germany. It is enlarged with many pieces not before printed, and particularly the impressions of the classics edited by Meursius, contained in vols. 6-8, have new and valuable apparatus from Florentine MSS. But Lami was not acquainted with his MS. of Cyprus and Rhodus in his own handwriting, and revised, which is in the library of St. Mark (Morelli Bibl. MS. I. 439 sq. 444 sq.). On the other hand, the collection of letters to Meursius (in the Leipzig University library), described in the Allg. litt. Anzeig. 1799, p. 1461, was already printed here in the 11th vol. The 9th vol., or the Hist. Danica, was also sold by itself with a separate title (Flor. 1746. fol.)—Before this collection, the collections of single pieces were greatly sought after: such a one there is in Bibl. Bigot. IV. 23.

Also in Scapula. LB. 1652. fol.

13953 — Athenæ Batavæ s. de urbe Leidensi et academia virisque claris, qui utramque illustrarunt, libri II. LB., Cloucq et Elsevirii, 1625. 4°. with 50 portraits.

Also, ib. 1675. 4°. with portraits. Previously without the author's name, under the title, Illustris academia Lugd-Batava. LB. 1613. 4°. with 33 portraits; and Illustrium Hollandiæ et Westfrisiæ ordinum alma acad. Leidensis. LB. 1614. 4°. with the same portraits.

13954 MEURSIUS, J. (rather N. CHORIER). Aloisii Sigæ Tolentanæ Satyra Sotadica, de arcanis amoris, et Veneris. Aloisia Hispanice scripsit. Latinitate donavit J. Meursius. V.C. Without place or date. 12°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter with the signatures a iiij and a iij (sic, the last 2 leaves blank); then the first 5 dialogues on 165 pages with the signatures A-G 5; after them, Pars altera. Veneres, or the 6th dialogue, with a half-title and 78 pages, and the signatures H-L 3. At the end a leaf, on the folio recto of which is an epigram (Dicite grammatici etc.).

That neither Sigæ nor Meursius, Is. Vossius nor J. Westrenen, had the least part in this work, but that the parliament-advocate N. Chorier of Grenoble (see above, No. 4120) was the real author, and that there never was a Spanish original, is generally known: see Artigny Mémoires, T. II. p. 18 etc. T. III. p. XXI sq. Mil-lin Annal. Encycl. 1817, VI. 274. Gordon De Perceol Bibl. des romans, II. 319 etc. Barbier Dict. des anon. II. 490 etc. III. 421. Nova miscell. Lips. IX. 324 etc. The first edition appeared, without mention of the place of printing or the date (1650-60), at Nicolas's of Grenoble, and contains only 6 dialogues. The edition above described might perhaps be this first edition, unless it be that specified in the catalogue of the Paris library, under V 2, No. 1442, the title of which somewhat deviates, Aloisia ... Veneris, ex hispan. sermone in lat. conversa a J. Meursio. Without place or date. 12°. The 2nd edition, also undated, which appeared at Geneva, is enlarged with a 7th dialogue, and is very incorrect.

13955 — J. Meursii elegantiae latini sermonis. Without place or date (Holland, about 1670). 12°.

A neat edition. First the above half-title and 2 leaves, Monitum lectori (Vivebat ante annos etc.). These 3 unpaginated leaves reckon as p. 1-6. Then p. 7-166, the first 5 dialogues, with the signatures

A4-G6; next Pars altera, or the 6th dialogue, with a half-title, an advertisement (de Aloys. Sig. J. Vasæi testimonium), and 73 pages. Then p. 74-86: Remedium medendi ardorem libidinis mulierum. P. 87-206: Colloquium VII. Fescennini. P. 207-209: De laudibus Aloisia poemation. P. 210-232: Summo viro Aloisia ex Elysiis hortis. P. 233-238: Tuberonis genethliacon versibus senariis. This 2nd part from p. 1 onwards has the signatures H-R 6.—Gordon de Perce in the Bibl. des romans, II. 319, mentions another undated edition, printed in Holland, in which the Puttana errante of Aretino is to be found.

13956 — Aloisiae Sigææ Toletanæ satyra sotadica de arcanis amoris et Veneris. Editio nova, emendatio et auctior. Accessit colloquium ante hac non editum, Fescennini ex M. S. recens reperto. Amstelodami, 1678. 12°.

Printed in Germany. First 19 unnumbered leaves (title, Summo viro Aloisia ex Elysiis hortis, and Tuberonis Genethliacon): then p. 1-224, the first 5 dialogues (the 2nd and 3rd are united into one, and there are some alterations in the style), with the signatures A-K 4, p. 225-324: Part II. or the 6th dialogue, with the signatures A-E 6. Then Part III. or the 7th dialogue (1 half-title, and p. 1-161, with the signatures A-G 5); and on the reverse of the 161st and on the following unnumbered leaf, De laudibus Aloisia poemation.

13957 — J. Meursii elegantiae latini sermonis. Pt. Aretini Pornodidasculus etc. Without place or date (about 1750). small 8°. 430 pages.

This edition, augmented with the Pornodidasculus, contains in other respects the same as No. 13955, only in a different order. According to Freytag's account, p. 239, it appeared at Hamburgh or Göttingen by Ahr. Vandenboeck.

13958 — J. Meursii elegantiae sermonis latini seu Aloisia Sigæa Toletana de arcanis amoris et Veneris; adjectis fragmentis quibusd. eroticis (edid. Moet). LB., typis Elzev. (Par., Grangé), 1757. 12°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

On Dutch paper, scarce and sought after. Also, Birminghamis, 1770. 12°. 2 voll. Without place, 1774. 8°. or 2 vols. 12°.

13959 — Aloisia ou entretiens aca-démiques des dames. Without place (Holland), 1680. 12°.

This translation is by the advocate Nicolas of Grenoble, son to the bookseller of that place. Also with the title, Les sept entretiens satyriques d'Aloisia. Col. 1681. 12°. Aloisia ou l'académie des dames en sept entretiens satyriques, augmentée de nouveau. Col. 1693. 12°. ib. 1700. 12°.

13960 — l'académie des dames ou les sept entretiens galans d'Aloisia. Ven., Pt. Aretin, without date. 12°.

The same translation. The scarcest and finest edition. Over the columns, instead of pagination, are small roses. There are also copies with 36 indecent plates. A less scarce edition, with the same place of printing, in 12°. has 372 pages. Both were printed in Holland.—The following is a translation of only a part: A dialogue between a married lady and a maid. Lond. 1662. 12°. 47 pages.

The original edition, greatly prized, complete copies of which are very scarce. The following leaves are usually wanting: T. I. the title-plate, the portrait of Louis XIV. on horseback; a leaf, on the folio recto of which are to be found verses en style lapidaire, and on the reverse the portrait of the queen sitting with her two children; a dedication to the queen, with a copy of the Privilegium of the work; the preface with the signature a iij; p. 161 the signature P (on the reverse a portrait of Charlemagne), and immediately after it another leaf without a signature, also with a portrait of the same; underneath and on the reverse is text (printed in italics) and the catchword Charlemagne. Between p. 322 and 23 (or 326 and 327) an unnumbered leaf with a portrait of queen Bertha or Emine, on the reverse her life. The leaf Nn iij should be twice over. The signature Oo has 7 leaves, so that p. 425 and 426 are only numbered on the folio recto.—T. II. a title-plate before the printed title; p. 1. the signature a iij, with a leaf following it; p. 3. the signature A ij.—T. III. after the title a dedication of July 1, 1651, to George William duke of Brunswick. Between the table of contents of the history of Henry III. and p. 685 (where the history of Henry IV. begins) are 4 leaves, which contain a title to the first part of the history of Henry IV. printed in red and black, and a dedication of July 29, 1651, to the same duke of Brunswick. Moreover, p. 683 medals of the queen Louise, with a medallion of Henry IV. on the reverse; and lastly the signatures RR rr ij. These last 4 leaves are very frequently wanting, which greatly diminishes the price. Copies without any of the cancels are of no value. In the very scarce copies on large paper (810 fr. Vallière, 410 fr. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy), which commonly have spots of mildew, all the above-mentioned cancels are almost always wanting. The edition, Par. 1685. fol. 3 vols. (also on large paper) is very little esteemed, as the bolder passages are omitted.—In English, Lond. 1683. fol. In Dutch, by G. van Broekhuizen, Amst. 1685. 4°. with plates.

13973 — abrégé chronologique de l'histoire de France. Amst., Wolfgang, 1673-74. small 8°. 6 vols. with plates.

The editions of 4 vols. in 4°. or 14 vols. in 12°. (Amst. 1740), with a continuation by Linniers, are cheap. The above edition of 1673 may be completed by adding a separate edition of this continuation, Amst. 1720. 12°.

A very interesting journal in many respects particularly on account of the essays inserted in it. After Millin's death, since Jan. 1819, the Revue encyclopédique (12

The first edition of the first part of a work important in the history of English poetry. It is an imitation of Lydgate's English modification of Boccaccio De casibus virorum illustrium, and Th. Sackville, lord Buckhurst, projected the plan for it, by whom however there are only two pieces in this collection. The other 17 are by W. Baldwin, G. Ferrers, Churchyard, Phayer, and Skelton. The most complete edition, which contains all the 3 parts by Baldwin, Higgins, and Blener-Hasset, and new pieces besides by Niccols (90 legends in all), instead of which however some legends of the earlier editions have been omitted. The part by Higgins is printed afresh according to the edition of 1587 (compared with those of 1575 and 1610) in Brydges's Bibliographer, T. IV.

Beckenhuf, 1479. fol. of which there is a copy on vellum in the Imperial library at Vienna. After the preface of this breviary there is an heraldic copperplate engraving, concerning which, see Bartsch Peintre Graveur, X. 57.

14150 MISSALE mixtum secundum regulam b. Isidori, dictum Mozarabes. Toleti, Pt. Hagembach, 9 Jan. 1500. fol. Gothic letter, 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 469 numbered leaves, and 3 leaves, list of festivals and colophon.—Breviarium secundum regulam b. Hysidori. ib., id., 25 Oct. 1502. small fol. Gothic letter, 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 432 numbered leaves, and 2 leaves, list of festivals.

Both works are seldom found together, as the impression was small. A copy on vellum in the college of St. Ildephonsus. Some copies of the breviary end at leaf 432<sup>a</sup>, and the list of festivals on leaf 432<sup>b</sup> and the two following leaves, is wanting. Consult concerning this work the passages cited in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. I. 135 sq. and the learned investigations in Santander's Dictionn. III. 178 sq. More recent editions are, Missale mixtum etc., præfatione, notis et append. ab Alex. Lesleo ornatum. Romæ, 1755. 4°. 2 voll. . . op. et impensa Fr. Ant. Lorenzana. Romæ, 1804. fol. (4 scudi 50 baj.) Breviarium gothicum secund. regulam b. Isidori . . . op. Fr. Ant. Lorenzana recognitum. Madr., Ibarra, 1775 also 88. fol. See also LITURGIA.

14151 MISSALE secundum consuetud. Romanæ curiæ. Romæ, Udalr. Gallus, 11 cal. Maji 1475. fol. Gothic letter.

The first edition of the Roman missal. A copy on vellum, lord Spencer (previously cardinal Casali and then the duke of Cassano-Serra), a second in the Megliabeccian library at Florence. The edition, Romæ, U. Gallus, 12 Oct. 1476. fol. contains, for the first time, musical notes for singing.

Of the following editions of the Roman missal I know copies on vellum: Neap., Mithi. Moravus, 1477. fol. (with miniatures, formerly the duke of Cassano-Serra's, now lord Spencer's, a 2nd in the Royal library at Paris, a third in the Royal library at Munich). Ven., Pt. de Piasis de Cremona et Bm. de Blavis, 1479. 18°. 2 vols. (G. Hibbert, of Clapham, near London, see Dibdin's Decam. III. 413). Nrb., G. Stuchs, 1484. 4°. (2 copies in the Royal library at Munich). Ven., J. Hamman de Landoja, id. Oct. 1488. fol. Gothic letter (M'Carthy 145 fr., offered again for sale at 200 fr., a 2nd in the private Imperial library at Vienna). Without place, 22 Dec. 1488. 4°. (60 fr. M'Carthy). Nrb., without the printer's name, 1491. fol. (Royal library at Dresden). Par., Sim. Vostre, without date. 4°. (with miniatures, 5l. 15s. 6d. Marlborough). Par. 1509. 8°. (with miniatures, 8l. 18s. 6d. Longman). Par., Gu. Eustace, 1511. 8°. (15 fr. M'Carthy). Nrb., G. Stuchs, 1517. fol. (Royal library at Dresden). Par., Kerver, 1517. fol. 2 vols. (115 fr. M'Carthy).

The last ecclesiastical revision is by Urban VIII, and the most recent original edition is, Missale Romanum cum missis sanctis. pro ecclesia universali novissime concessis a Pio VII. Romæ, 1809. fol. (3 scudi 50 baj., on large paper 4 scudi 80 baj.) The edition, Ven., Junta, 1629. fol. is castrated. In the missals Secundum consuetudinem curiæ Romanæ et Antiochenæ the word animas is wanting in the 18 Jan. and 22 Febr., or 25 Jan. and 30 June.

14152 MISSALE Romanum sinice redditum a L. Buglio. Pekini, in collegio societatis, 1670. fol.

14153 MISSALE ad usum Sarum. Lond., Pynson, 1500. fol. Gothic letter. Breviarium secund. usum Sarum. ib., id., 1500. 4°. Gothic letter.

A copy of both vols. on vellum, 602 fr. M'Carthy. St. John's college at Oxford has only the missal on vellum, and lord Spencer only the breviary.—Missale ad usum Sarum. Par., N. Prevost, 1527. fol. Gothic letter (122 fr. M'Carthy).

14154 MISSALE ecclesiæ Upsalensis. Bas., Jac. de Pfortzheim, 1513. fol.

In all the known copies p. 87–92 are cut out. In the same year this typographer printed the very scarce breviary, to be found in the Ducal library at Coburg, Breviarium secund. ritum alme ecclesiæ Arosiensis in 4°. where leaf 1 is rather an indecent woodcut (Bathsheba bathing).

14155 MISSARUM. De celebratione missar. secundum frequentiorum cursum diocesis Moguntinensis tractatus. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

30 leaves with 28 lines running all across the page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A very old, but greatly suspected MS. note, in the copy of the Mayence University library, ascribes the printing to J. Nummeister, and places it in the year 1463.

14156 MISSIESSY-QUIES. de Arrimage des vaisseaux. Par. 1789. 4°. with plates (21 fr.). Installation des vaisseaux, par Burgues de Missiessy. Par., an 6 (1799). 4°. with plates (21 fr.).

Both works are greatly prized, and the first is scarce.

Satisfactory neither in a diplomatic nor in a literary point of view; and the Inedita that are inserted are of little importance.

The first dated edition of Modestus, and very scarce. 46 leaves with 26 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A collector at Milan lately possessed a copy on vellum. In lord Spencer's copy there is, Fenestella de Romanor. magistratibus, without place or date. 4°. 42 leaves, bound at the same time. In Vallière's copy likewise dated May 27. 1474, before the colophon there are 6 Latin verses, Quem legis impressus etc., which are wanting in the copies of the first kind, and neither place nor printer are mentioned in the colophon.

- 14167 — In hoc uolumine continentur. (Modestus) de Re Militari. (Pomp. Lætus) de Magistratibus Urbis et Sacerdotiis. et de Legibus. Without place or date. 4°.

30 leaves with 26 and 27 lines running all across the page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 30a ends, Finis. Laus Deo. Audiffredi, Fossi, Santander, and Dibdin attribute it to J. Schurener de Bopardia, and consider it contemporaneous with the preceding; but Brunet ascribes it to G. Sachscl and Bm. Golsch about 1474. According to Vallière's catalogue, it was printed by G. Lauer, about 1475. As to the rest, concerning the book De re milit., it is proved that Pomp. Læstus (not Modestus) was the real author by Amad. Peyron in his Notitia libror. a Valperga bibl. Taurin. donator. Lps. 1820. 4°. p. 85 sq. See also SCRIPTORES rei milit.

The first edition of this singular book, and very scarce. 3 leaves of preliminary matter (the above title and a metrical prologue in 2 columns), and 99 leaves of text, with the signatures a-n, and 31 and 32 lines. Leaf k 4 begins a poem on hounds and birds, which is quite different from one on a similar subject by Crétin. It commences, Or je vous diray comment, and fills 16 pages, and a great part of a 17th page.

The first edition of this poem of knight-errantry composed in 1450. 52 numbered leaves. J. Adelphus was the editor.

14178 — (the same title). Wormbs, Sb. Wagner, 1539. fol. with woodcuts.

4 leaves of preliminary matter (one blank), 46 numbered leaves, and 1 unnumbered leaf, the colophon. With the same preface. A really different impression from the preceding edition. Thus on leaf 2<sup>a</sup>, col. 2, line 14 this edition has Pfarsifant (the preceding Parsifant), in leaf 15<sup>a</sup>, col. 2, line 1 this has het (the preceding hett). 14190 MOLIERE, J. Bt. Poquelin de. Œuvres. Amst., Jac. le Jeune (Dn. Elzevier), 1675. 12°. 5 voll.

In this edition, scarce and sought after, which was repeated, ib., id., 1679. 12°. in 5 vols. there is to be found, instead of the Festin de Pierre, written by Molière in prose and first printed in 1682, a piece composed in verse with the same title, the author of which, according to Brunet, was Corneille, but according to the Bibliogr. de France 1819, p. 175, Dorimon (not Villiers or Rosimond). The 5th vol. ends with a little comedy, L'ombre de Molière. Each piece has a separate title and pagination.

14191 — — Par., chez Thierry, Barbin et Trabouillet, 1682. 12°. 8 vols. with plates.

The last 2 vols. have the title, Œuvres posthumes. Of the 7th vol. in which the genuine Festin de S. Pierre by Molière is printed for the first time, only one uncastrated copy is known (sold at Paris in 1819 for 62 fr.). Shortly after the completion of the printing, several passages, particularly in the 1st and 2nd scenes of the 2nd act, were obliged to be replaced by cancels. These castrations relate to p. 146, 176, 177, 214-217, and 223. Consult Bibliographie de France 1817, p. 362 etc. 1819, p. 175 etc.

14192 — — Amst., Jac. le Jeune, 1684. 12°. 6 voll.

The 6th vol. contains the Œuvres posth., and the Festin de Pierre is here uncastrated.

14193 — — Amst., Wetstein, 1691. 12°. 6 voll.

A neat edition. In the Festin de Pierre, p. 38 (in the 3rd vol.) the notorious scene is to be found between Don Juan and the poor man (Act 3. scene 2), which in this edition has even bolder passages than the Paris edition itself; for example, in the latter, Juan says to the poor man, Je veux te donner un louis d'or pour l'amour de l'humanité, instead of which in the Amsterdam edition it is, Je vais te donner un louis d'or tout à l'heure pourvu que tu veuilles jurer. All these passages are looked for in vain in the later French editions up to 1817; these scenes were first printed entire in Didot's and Auger's editions of 1817 and 19.

14194 — — Amst., H. Desbordes, 1704. 12°. 4 vols. with plates.

Neat and not common.

14195 — — Haye, 1735. 12°. 4 voll.

Tolerably sought after in France, without being fine.

14196 — œuvres. Par. 1734. large 4°. 6 vols. with plates.

Tolerably fine and the first better edition. Marc. Ant. Joly corrected the text by the original editions of the single pieces. Molière's life is by de Serre. The plates, designed by Fr. Boucher and engraved by Lr. Cars, evince neither truth of composition nor correctness of design, nor is the engraving particularly good. The original edition is distinguished from a less esteemed reprint of the same date by the typographical error, T. VI. p. 360. l. 12, Comtesse instead of Comtesse.

14197 — — Par., David (other copies Bauche), 1739. 12°. 8 vols. with plates. Also on strong paper.

This edition, formerly greatly sought after, although distinguished by nothing peculiar, has not at present any particular value, except when the plates engraved by Punt after Boucher for the following edition are contained therein.

14198 — œuvres. Amst. 1741, or 44, or 49. 12°. 4 vols. with plates by Punt.

Prized on account of the plates.

14199 — œuvres, avec le commentaire de Voltaire. Amst. et Lps. 1765. 12°. 6 voll. (7 fl.)

With the same plates by Punt.

14200 — œuvres avec des remarques grammaticales, des avertissemens et des observations sur chaque pièce, par Bret. Par. 1773. 8°. 6 vols. with 34 plates by Moreau the younger.

The finest of the editions with Bret's notes. In the 1st part p. 66 and 67, 80 and 81 (Supplém. à la vie de Molière) ought to be double, but they are often wanting. The text is that of 1734. Molière's life is by Voltaire, with a supplement by Bret. The grammatical notes to the 14 best pieces are by an unknown person, and the edition was very hastily superintended. The plates by Moreau are repeated in the reprint of this edition, Par. 1788. 8°. 6 vols. enlarged with some new notes, and in ib. 1805 and 1808 (also with the year 1805). 8°. 6 vols. But in the last two they are quite worn out. The edition, Par. 1778. 12°. 8 vols. with the same notes, is neat.

14201 — œuvres. Par., Didot aîné, 1792. large 4°. 6 vols. On vellum paper.

Only 250 copies were struck off, and one on vellum, which prince Mch. Galitzin possesses.—Par., stéréot. d'Herhan, 1805. 12°. 6 vols., also on vellum paper, is neat.

14202 — œuvres, précédées d'un discours préliminaire, de la vie de l'auteur, avec des réflexions sur chacune de ses pièces, par Petitot. Par. 1813. 8°. 6 vols. (36 fr., on vellum paper 60 fr.)

Stereotyped. New impressions of the plates in 1817 and 20.

14203 — œuvres. Par., P. Didot, 1817. 8°. 7 voll. (31 fr. 50 c., on fine paper 52 fr. 50 c., on vellum paper 105 fr.)

To this and the earlier editions may be added, Deux pièces inédites de Molière (La Jalousie du Barbouille et le Médecin Volant). Par., Desoer, 1819. 8°. (15 fr. 50 c.)

14204 — œuvres, avec un commentaire, un discours préliminaire et une vie de Molière, par Auger. Par., Desoer, de l'impr. de F. Didot, 1819 etc. 8°. 9 vols. with Molière's portrait and 16 plates after Horace Vernet.

This edition is distinguished by a correct text, a good commentary, and the beauty of its printing and plates, and also contains the above two hitherto inedited pieces. Subscription price 90 fr., on vellum paper 162 fr., on large vellum paper with plates avant la lettre 225 fr.

To this and every other edition in 8°. may be added a series of 31 plates, after new designs, by Moreau the younger (at Renouard's 40 fr., avant la lettre 75 fr.). They are finer than those by the same artist in the edition of 1773.

14253 MONITEUR. Gazette nationale ou le Moniteur universel, depuis le 24 Nov. 1789 jusqu'à la fin de 1821. Par. 1789-1821. large fol. 64 vols. (2 vols. annually). As an introduction thereto, Gazette nationale ou le Moniteur universel, commencé le 5 Mai 1789, précédé d'une introduction historique, contenant un abrégé des anciens états-généraux, des assemblées des notables et des principaux événemens qui ont amené la révolution (redigé par Thuau-Grandville). Par. an 4. large fol. To which may be joined, Révolution-française, ou analyse complète et impartiale du Moniteur, suivie d'une table alphabét. des personnes et des choses (jusqu'à la fin de l'an 7, mise en ordre par Girod). Par. 1801-2. fol. 4 vols. 2 vols. of which are index. (Also 7 vols. in 4°.)

A complete copy is sold at the sales in Paris for 1200 to 1500 fr. according to the binding. The years 4 and 5 (of the republic) are printed on very bad paper, but there are 3 or 4 copies on better paper. Single annual sets have very little value, with the exception of the years 7 and 8 (1798-1800), which are scarce, as a much smaller impression was made of them. The introduction, although republished, is not frequently to be met with; and as it was sold as high as 250 fr. before the new impression, many collectors sought to replace it in their copies by the Avant-Moniteur in fol., which however is only a reprint of the Mémoires d'un témoin de la révolution, by Bailly (Par. 1804. 8°. 3 vols.), and consequently can by no means replace that introduction.

Separate indices have also appeared to the period 1815-20; a new index likewise appeared to the earlier period from the 1st Vendémiaire of the republican year 8 up to 31 Dec. 1814. Brunet (3rd edition), T. III. p. 631, gives an accurate list of those numbers to which there ought to be supplements, which are often wanting. At Leriche's, libraire, quai des Augustins, num. 41, complete copies may always be got, as also single parts of the Moniteur.

14262 MONSTRELET, Enguerrand de. Les chroniques de France, d'Angleterre, de Bourgogne, et autres pays circonvoisins. Par., Ant. Vérard, without date. fol. Gothic letter, 3 vols.

There are two undated editions of Monstrelet by Vérard, both of which reach only to 1467 (not to 1498). One has 47 lines, and in the colophon Vérard's residence au petit pont is mentioned; the other, of 45 lines, gives the rue neuve Nôtre-Dame as Vérard's address. The first has somewhat larger characters, but both agree, page for page. Both have in the 1st vol. 9 leaves of preliminary matter and 301 numbered leaves; in the 2nd 8 leaves of preliminary matter and 202 numbered leaves (the last is wrongly numbered cci); in the 3rd 7 leaves of preliminary matter and leaves 133–260. There is a copy on vellum, with 285 miniatures, of the edition of 45 lines, 640 fr. Vallière, 1800 fr. M'Carthy (now in the Royal library at Paris). An edition of 1498 by Vérard is a nonentity: consult Vallière's Catal. T. I. Suppl. p. 73.

Monstrelet begins at 1400, where Froissart ceases, but ends as soon as 1444. From that period to 1467 it was continued by some unknown person, probably J. du Clercq, author of a chronicle of Flanders from 1448 to 67. (Mém. de l'ac. des inscr. XLIII. 560.) Concerning a beautiful MS. of Monstrelet, written in 1510, see Vallière's Catal. III. 194 sq.

14263 — — Par., J. Petit et Mch. le Noir, 1512. small fol. Gothic letter, 3 vols.

This edition is enlarged with Pt. Desray's continuation up to Charles VIII's death in 1498.

14264 — — Par., Fr. Regnault, 1518. small fol. Gothic letter, 3 vols.

Augmented with a new continuation up to 1516.

16265 — chroniques, contenant les cruelles guerres civiles entre les maisons d'Orléans et de Bourgogne etc., avec les continuations jusqu'en 1516 (édit. revue par Denis Sauvage). Par., Chaudière, 1572. fol. 3 vols. Also on large paper.

The finest edition, and greatly sought after in France, notwithstanding that the text is modernized and altered. The editions, Par. 1595 or 1603. fol. 3 vols. are far inferior.

14266 — the chronicles of Monstrelet, being a continuation of Froissart's chronicles, transl. from the most approved originals, with notes, by Th. Johnes. At the Hafod press, by Jam. Henderson, 1809. large 4°. 4 vols. with 50 plates.

Very finely printed at the private press of the translator in his estate at Hafod, and forming a sequel to his translation of Froissart. There are 25 copies in folio. A smaller edition, Lond. 1810. 8°. 12 vols. with an atlas in 4°. (7l. 4s.)

14267 MONTAGU, Mary Wortley. Works, including her correspondence, poems, and essays. Published from her genuine papers. Lond., Murray, 1803 or 1817. 8°. 5 vols. (2l. 5s.)

Previously, Lond. (Par.) 1803. 12°. 5 vols. (15 fr.) A pocket edition, Lond. 1811. 24°. 2 vols. (8s.) In French, Par., Valade, 1804. 12°. 4 vols.—Letters written during her travels. Lond. 1784. 8°. 2 vols. The best French translation by Anson, Par. 1805. 12°. 2 vols. In German, Lps. 1763. 8°. 2 vols. (10 gr.)

14268 MONTAGU, J. Testacea Britannica: natural history of marine and terrestrial shells of Great Britain. Lond., White, 1804. 4°. with plates (2l. 2s., with illuminated plates 4l. 4s.). Supplement. ib. 1810. 4°. with plates (18s., with illuminated plates 1l. 16s.).

14269 MONTAIGNE, Mch. Essais. Bourdeaux, Millanges, 1580. 8°.

The first edition, and sought after in France, although it only contains the first 2 books.

- 14270 — essais. Ed. V. augm. d'un troisième livre et de six cents additions aux deux premiers. Par., Abel l'Angelier, 1588. 4°.

The last edition which appeared in the author's lifetime. He left behind him at his death two copies furnished in his own hand with quite different corrections and additions. The following edition was prepared according to one, and the other forms the basis of the edition of 1802.

- 14271 — essais. Edit. nouv. trouvée après le décès de l'auteur, et augm. par luy d'un tiers plus qu'aux précédentes impressions. Par., Abel Angelier, 1595. fol.

Superintended by Mademoiselle de Gournay, and containing, besides the important and numerous additions and corrections from the author's MS., a long preface of the editor, which is wanting in the editions, Par. 1598 and 1602, but is replaced in that of Par. 1625. 4°. At the same time these editions have the defect, that there is neither a translation given of the passages quoted from foreign languages, nor are the authors themselves mentioned. An index is also wanting.

- 14272 — essais. Edit. corrigée, enrichie du nom des auteurs cités, et de la version de leur passages, avec la vie de l'auteur. Par., J. Camusat, 1635. fol.

This edition, furnished by mademoiselle de Gournay with a new preface (praised by Bayle), and greatly corrected, is dedicated to cardinal Richelieu, and forms the basis of all the subsequent ones until that by Coste in 1724. The appended specification of the authors cited, and the translations of the passages from them, are however very insufficient, as also in the editions, Par. 1640 and 52. fol.; and all 3 editions are at a low price.

- 14273 — essais. Nouv. édit. exactement purgée des défauts précédentes etc. Bruxell., Foppens (other copies, Amst., Michiels). 1659. 12°. 3 voll.

Neat, and greatly sought after as an appendage to the Elzevir series; but notwithstanding its boasting title, it is nothing more than an incorrect reprint of the preceding. Par., Journelle, 1659. 12°. 3 vols. and Par., Rondet, 1669. 12°. 3 vols. are almost as neat, and less incorrect.

- 14274 — essais. Avec des remarques par Pt. Coste. Lond., Tonson, 1724. large 4°. 3 vols. Supplém. ib. 1740. large 4°.

For a long time the finest edition. Less accurate than those of 1595 and 1635, and modernized in the orthography. It is valuable on account of the very careful specification of the authors cited, and on account of the faithful translations of the passages from them. Coste's notes are also in part of value, and ought not to have been entirely excluded from the more recent editions. The edition, Par. 1725. large 4°. 3 vols. contains some corrections, and Haye, Gosse, 1727. 12°. 5 vols. has new corrections. Also, Lond. 1739. 12°. 6 vols. The best edition by Coste is the 5th and last, Lond., Nourse, 1745. 12°. 7 vols. In it and in the preceding 9 letters of Montaigne, Et. de Boetie Discours sur la servitude and the preface of de Gournay of 1635, are added. The reprint of the same, Lond. (Par.) 1754. 12°. 10 vols. is neat, and scarce on Dutch paper; but the later reprints (likewise 10 vols. in 12°) are very incorrect.—The neat edition, Amst. (Lyon), 1781. 8°. 3 vols. contains the text of de Gournay.

- 14275 — essais. Par., Bastien, 1783. 8°. 3 voll.

Also copies on Dutch paper, and on large paper in 4°. Correct, on fine paper, with a good index, and the old orthography; but the translations of the cited passages and the other augmentations of Coste's edition are wanting. Par., Bastien, 1793. 8°. 3 vols. is less fine.

- 14276 — essais, revus et collationés sur un exemplaire corrigé de la main de l'auteur (par Jac. And. Naigeon). Par., Didot aîné, an 10 (1802). 8°. 4 voll. (16 fr., on velum paper 32 fr.)

A stereotype edition, of which there are at least 5 copies on vellum (one at Didot's sale 600 fr.) very correct, but little pleasing, and without an index. The text is regulated after the 2nd copy left behind by Montaigne, and the readings of de Gournay's text are noticed as various readings. It is however decided that the copy followed by de Gournay was by far the best. The 9 letters of Montaigne, Boetie's Discours, and a selection of Coste's notes, are added. Naigeon did not insert a glossary prepared for this edition by Fr. Ambr. Didot. According to the avis au lecteur of 12 pages there ought to be an addition of 63 pages concerning Montaigne's religion, which however was obliged to be suppressed on account of the two free passages which it contained, and it is only to be found in a very few copies. In such complete copies, p. 177-182 of the 1st part are also double.

- 14277 — essais. Nouv. édit. (donnée par Eloi Johanneau). Par., Lefèvre, 1818. 8°. 5 voll. with Montaigne's portrait.

The most complete, the best, and the finest edition. 100 copies on large vellum paper. Par., Lefèvre, 1818. 18°. 6 voll. (15 fr.) is a very neat impression of this text.

- 14278 — essais (donnés par de l'Aulnay). Par., Desoer, 1818. large 8°. (24 fr. on fine paper 36 fr., on vellum paper 48 fr.)

Amongst other things, enlarged with a glossary. In very small character, in 2 columns, and very neat. In the same characters also, ib., id., 1818. 18°. 4 voll. (20 fr.) also 9 voll. in 36°. for the Biblioth. portative du voyageur (11 fr. 25 c., on vellum paper 22 fr. 50 c.). An edition, with a commentary by Amaury Duval in the Collection des moralistes franç. Par. 1820. 8°. 14 voll.

- 14279 — saggi, ovvero discorsi naturali, polit. e morali, trad. da M. Ginammi. Ven. 1633. 4°. I saggi, trad. nuovamente in lingua Tosc. da un accadem. Fiorentino et public. da Filandro. Amst. (Fir.) 1785. 8°. Of little importance. — Gedanken u. Meinungen über allerlei Gegenstände (übs. von J. Jo. Cp. Bode) nebst einem Register von Imm. Fritze. Berl., Lagarde, 1793-99. 8°. 7 voll. (9 d. 4 gr.)—Essays transl. by J. Florio. Lond. 1603. fol. A new translation. Lond. 1776. 8°. 3 voll. ib. 1811. 8°. 3 voll. (2l. 10s.)

- 14280 — Journal du voyage de Mch. de Montaigne en Italie, par la Suisse et l'Allemagne en 1580 et 81, avec des notes, par de Querlon. Rome (Par.), 1774. 4°. Also on large paper.

Also ib. 1774. 12°. 2 vols. or 3 vols. in small 12°. Uninteresting.

Previously, Madr. 1624. It is, according to N. Antonio, properly by Lope de Vega. (Probably a translation of the Orfeo by Poliziano?)

- 14287 MONTALVO, Alphons. Diaz. de. Manuale s. repertorium super abbatem Panormitanum. Hispali, Ant. Martinez, Bm. Segura et Alph. del Puerto, 1477. fol.

An extremely scarce edition, and probably the first dated typographical production of Seville. With signatures, without catchwords and pagination. The first edition of the same, Ordenanzas reales de Castilla. Zamora, Ant. de Centenera, 15 Jun. 1485. fol. is very scarce.

It has become very scarce. Honest Reiske, in the simplicity of his heart, says in the dedication to his beautiful wife gallant things before all the world, which might well make her blush a little.

14297 MONTECUCULI, Raimundo. Opere, illustrate da Ugo Foscolo. Mil., L. Mussi, 1807. large fol. 2 voll. with plates (120 fr.).

The impression is said to have been only 170 copies, 13 of which were on vellum paper. After the original MSS. hitherto unused, the breaks in which Foscolo himself supplied. But he is said at the same time to have frequently disfigured the text by arbitrary alterations. *Opere, corrette, accresc. et illust. da Gius. Grassi. Torino, 1821. 8°. 2 voll. There are two continuations of this pastoral romance; one, not a successful one, by Alonso Perez, in 8 books (at first Alcala, 1564. 8°. and afterwards in several editions of Montemayor), and the other by Gasp. Gil. Polo, highly prized (see the following article). The Catalogue of the Paris library, Bell. lettr. II. 52, has also, *La Diana de Montemayor, compuesta por Hier. Texeda. Tercera parte. Also with plates avant la lettre, and 7 copies in folio. The only edition with plates, but not fine enough to be a show-edition. Previously, Amst. (Par.) 1758. 4°. 3 voll. *Lond. 14320 — Palæographia græca s. de ortu et progressu literar. græcar. Par., Guerin, 1708. fol. with plates. Also on large paper.

An indispensable work, and a pattern not surpassed to the present day. A copy enriched with many additions by Villoison, was sold at his sale for 361 fr. Villoison had himself laboured for many years at a Greek Palæographia, and it was almost completely finished in MS. but not discovered after his death: see Chardon Mélanges II. 18.

14321 — collectio nova patrum et scriptorum græcor., Eusebii Cæsar., Athanasii et Cosmæ. Par., Rigaud, 1706. fol. 2 voll.

Scarce, on large paper.

14322 — bibliotheca Coisliniana, olim Segueriana, s. manuscriptor. omnium græcor., quæ in ea continentur, accurata descriptio. Par.,

Guerin et Robustel, 1715. fol. with plates.

These MSS. came into the library of the abbey of St. Germain, and in 1794 into the Royal library at Paris; see Millin Magas. Encycl. 1795. V. 368. An earlier but very poor catalogue (by Melchised. Thevenot) is, Catalogue des MSS. de la bibl. du chancel. Segurier. Par. 1686. 8°. Consult Notices et extraits, T. VII. P. II. p. 13 not.

14323 — l'antiquité expliquée et représentée en figures (en franç. et en lat.) Par., Delaulne, 1719. fol. 5 parts in 10 voll. Supplém. ib. 1724. fol. 5 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

The idea of this catalogue figuré is good, but the representations are often very unfaithful. This 1st edition, good copies of which are not common, is sought after; but the 2nd edition, Par. Delaulne, 1722. fol. 5 parts in 10 vols. and Supplém. Par. 1757. fol. 5 vols. is one-third cheaper, on account of the inferior impressions. Copies also, in which the principal work is of the 1st edition, and the supplement of the 2nd, or the reverse, are in less estimation than those which are entirely of the 1st; copies which contain only the first 10 vols. of 1719, are of little value, as the Supplement of 1724 is seldom to be met with alone, and is dearer by itself than the principal work.

Number of the plates: T. I. P. 1. 2. A title-plate (which is not usually in the 1st edition), a portrait of Gr. d'Estrées, 224 numbered plates (of which Nos. 5, 72, 122, and 145, are twice over), and a large plate (Antiope) at the end of P. II.—T. II. P. 1. 2. 194 plates, and 1 unnumbered plate (Nehalennia) at the end of P. II.—T. III. P. 1. 2. 197 plates (of which Nos. 26 and 97 are twice over).—T. IV. P. 1. 2. 144 plates (the last is wrongly numbered 145), of which No. 7 is twice over, and 108 four times over, and at the end 2 unnumbered plates (table iliague and épées).—T. V. Made from a copy of the edition, Par. 1669. 12°. 15 vols. corrected and augmented by Fr. le Vayer de Boutigny. The two following articles are not in it.

- 14464 — (anon.) hexameron rustique ou les six journées passées à la campagne entre des personnes studieuses. Amst., Jac. le Jeune, 1671. 12°.

The best edition, and attributed to the Elzevirs. The contents of the 4th and 5th days are tolerably indecent. The real names of the persons introduced as speakers see in Niceron XIX. 132.

- 14465 — (pseudon.) quatre (neuf) dialogues faits à l'imitation des anciens, par Orasius Tubero. Francfort, J. Sarius, 1506. 4°.

A scarce edition, and sought after. The date is false, but cannot certainly be corrected to 1606, when the author was only 18 years old. Before the 5th dialogue a letter of Mothe le Vayer in 6 leaves ought to be found. The following edition is neat, and probably printed by Dn. Elzevir; Mons, de la Flèche, 1671, 12°. Also, Ff. (Trévoux), 1716. 12°. 2 voll. By L. Mt. Kahl, Berl. 1744. 8°.

- 14466 MOTIS, J. Invectiva coetus foeminei contra mares.—Remedium contra concubinas et conjuges per modum abbreviationis libri Matheoli a Pt. de Corbolio et ejus sociis compilatum. Without place or date. Gothic letter.

The 2nd piece of this scarce work is very indecent; consult Vallière's Catal. II. 129. Quite different therefrom is J. Motis Apologia mulierum in viros probrosos. Arg., Ren. Beck, 1511. 4°. 17 leaves.

- 14475 MOURADJA d'Ohsson. Tableau général de l'empire othoman. Par. 1787–1821. large fol. 3 vols. with plates (500 fr.).

This very finely got up work was designed for 7 or 8 vols. There are said to be 2 copies on vellum paper. The 1st part contains besides a title-plate and 4 plates marked A, AA, B and C, the plates, 1–40, (of which 13, 19, and 36, delivered later than the rest, are sometimes wanting, but may be obtained by themselves); the 2nd part, the plates, 41–137; and the 3rd, the plates, 138–233. - 14477 MOYEN de parvenir, œuvre contenant la raison de tout ce qui a esté, est et sera (par Fr. Beroalde de Verville). Imprimé cette année, 16°. 439 pages.

This tolerably neat edition, printed in Holland between 1670-80, is generally attributed to the Elzevir press. It by no means however belongs to this press. Good copies are scarce.

Concerning this rather indecent book, see Monnoye's treatises in the Menagiana (Par. 1715). IV. 313 etc.; and in Monnoye Œuvres. T. III. Haye, 1770. 8°. p. 398 etc. Niceron, T. 34. p. 232 etc. Ducatiana, II. 289. Freytag's Nachrichten, p. 295 etc. Mélanges tir. d'une gr. bibl. XXII. 114 etc.

14478 — — Imprimé cette année, 12°. 347 pages.

Also assigned to the Elzevir collection, although it is more recent than that press. The following is only a new title to it: Le Salmigondis ou le manège du genre humain. Liège, 1698. 12°. 347 pages. (Consult Freytag's Nachrr. p. 299.) There is also an edition with the title, Le coupe-cul de la mélancolie, ou Vénus en belle humeur. Parme, 1698. 12°.

14479 — — Imprimé cette année, 12°. 438 pages.

This edition is also added to the Elzevir collection, and was printed about 1690.

14480 — — Chinon, de l'impr. de Fr. Rabelais, without date. 12°. 544 pages.

Neat, and printed in Holland about the beginning of the 18th century.

A neat edition, and the best; and scarce on large Dutch paper. Par. 1773. 12°. 2 vols. is a reprint, not so good.

Besides its prolixity, tiresome in part and quite unnecessary, this catalogue is deficient in accuracy. The determination of the age of MSS. is often very doubtful, and the learning and knowledge of documents possessed by the author is very moderate; hence the tediousness and unproductiveness of his excursus. The appended anecdota are for the most part quite insignificant.

14500 MÜNSTER, Sb. Cosmographie oder Beschreibung aller Länder, Herrschaften, fürnemsten Stetten, Geschichten, Gebreuchen, Handtirungen etc. Zum drittem mal trefflich sere gemeret u. gebessert. Bas. H. Petri, 1550. fol. 1233 pages. with woodcuts.

This edition is the best for the admirers of ancient good woodcuts, on account of the views of towns being added to it for the first time. It contains 14 leaves in maps. The 1st edition of this German original appeared, Bas. H. Petri, 1544. fol. That of 1541 mentioned in Arétin's Litt. Handb. für die baier. Gesch. I. 142, is perhaps only a typographical error instead of 1544, as the author says in his dedication of 1544, that he had been for two years before occupied with this work. The editions, Bas. 1569, 74, and 78. fol. have 26 maps, but bad impressions of the woodcuts. The editions, Bas. 1592, 98, and 1614. fol. contain 26 newly drawn maps and several new woodcuts. In Latin by the author himself, Bas. 1550. fol. (which in the goodness of the woodcuts resembles the German edition of this year). In the edition, Bas. 1572. fol. several passages, displeasing to the Roman catholics, are omitted (Crenii Animadv. VIII. 94. sq.). In French by Fr. de Belleforest, Par., Sonnius, 1575. fol. 2 parts in 3 vols.

with fine (but fewer) woodcuts.—In Italian, Col. 1575. fol.

14501 MÜNZCABINET. Vollständiges Braunschweigisch-Lüneburgisches Münz -u. Medaillencabinet, od. vollständ. Beschreibung aller goldenen u. silbernen Münzen, welche dieses Haus seit 2 Jahrhunderten ausprägen lassen. Helmst. 1747. 4°. 6 parts.

Of this work only 100 copies came into circulation, according to F. O. Mencken's Katal. III. 115; and only 50, according to Allgem. lit. Anzeiger, 1801, p. 126.

A copper-plate work of the same contents is still scarcer; in some copies it has this title added afterwards, Numophylacium Brunsvico-Lüneburgense s. thesaurus numismatum mnemonicor., iconicor. et uncialium, quas principes ac duces Brunsvico-Lüneburg. ab initio sec. 16. ad a. 1737 cudi jusserunt, æri impressa per N. Seeländer (who mentions himself only on table VI), in fol. 151 leaves, without title and text (commonly numbered up to 147, but tables 1 and 3 are thrice over). The engravings, which represent 1383 coins and medals, are not striking to the eye, but are very faithful. Abbé Gerh. Molanus, at Loccum, caused indeed (somewhat after 1692) the Brunswick Lüneberg part of his cabinet of coins to be engraved, and a single copy to be struck off. His collection, together with this single copy and the plates, was afterwards bought for the Royal library at Hanover; and later still 20 copies were struck off, so that 21 copies exist in all. Consult Allg. litt. Anz. Jahrg. 1800. p. 1702 etc., and 1807 sq.; Jahrg. 1801. p. 125 sq. and 282 etc.; Spilcker Beschreib. von Hannover, p. 305–7.

14547 MUSÆI opusculum de Herone et Leandro, quod et in latinam linguam ad uerbum tralatum est. Ven., Aldus, without date (1494). 4°.

The first edition and extremely scarce: 22 leaves, with the signatures a and b (in some copies a and c), with 20 lines. The Greek text begins in leaf 2<sup>a</sup>, and ends in leaf 11<sup>b</sup>, with a Greek colophon. Leaf 12<sup>a</sup> begins the Latin translation by M. Musurus, which ends on leaf 22<sup>a</sup> with the word FINIS. Strictly speaking, only the second production of the Aldine press (see LASCARIS above, No. 11735), but from a not very good MS.

14548 — de Leandri et Herus amoribus, gr. (Par.), Æg. Gourmont, without date. (1507). 4°. 8 leaves.

Very scarce, and one of the first Greek books printed at Paris; see GNOMÆ above, No. 8616.

14549 — opusculum de Herone et

Leandro (gr. lat.). Orphei argonautica. Ejusd. hymni. Orpheus de lapidibus (gr.). Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Nov. 1517. 8°. 80 leaves.

The text of Musæus sometimes deviates from the 1st Aldine. The Orpheus is a reprint of the Juntine of 1500, with the exception of the poem De lapidibus, now printed herein for the first time.—Musæus is also in several editions of Æsop, Bas., Froben, 1518. 8°. and often.

14550 — de Leandri et Herus amoribus, gr. Col., Cervicornus, 17 Jul. 1517. 4°.

14551 — opusculum de Herone et Leandro (gr. et lat.). Orphei argonautica. Ejusd. hymni. Orpheus de lapidibus. Sententiæ ex variis poetis. Homeri batrachomyomachia (gr.). Flor., hered. Ph. Juntæ, 1519. 8°. 104 leaves.

The Musæus is a reprint of the Aldine of 1517 even with its typographical errors. The edition is more scarce than the Aldine.

14552 — de insano Herus et Leandri amore poemation. Idem latine paraphraste Gu. de Mara. Luciani dearum judicium, gr. Col., J. Soter, 1526. 8°.

Aldus's text, sometimes altered according to the Florence edition of 1494.

14553 — opusculum de Herone et Leandro. Sententiæ monostichi ex variis poetis (gr.). Par., Ch. Wechel, 1538. 8°. 24 leaves. Musæi opusculum de Herone et Leandro (lat.). ib., id., 1538. 8°. 8 leaves. Musæi opusculum de amoribus Leandri et Herus, Gu. de Mara paraphraste, J. Vatelli commentariis enarratum. ib., id., 1538. 8°. 36 leaves.

Neat, and all 3 pieces are seldom found together. The commentary of Vatellus is of no value. Also with Hesiod, Flor., Junta, 1540. 8°. Ven. 1543. 8°. A new recension after the Florence edition of 1494 in Stephani Poet. gr. 1566. Also with Æsop, Antw., Plant., 1567 or 72. 12°. With a metrical version, and with alterations of the text (probably from a MS.), but most of them unhappy, by And. Papius, in Dionys. De situ orbis. Antw. 1575. 8°.

14554 — de Ero et Leandro poema lepidissimum (gr.). Latino carmine ita, ut versus versui et verbum verbo pæne respondeat, redditum ab Eilhardo Lubino. Rost., Myliander, 1595. 4°. 16 leaves.

14555 — de Herone et Leandro (gr. lat.): a Csp. Barthio interpretatus et inlustratus. Ambergæ, Schönfeld, 1608. 8°. 69 pages and 4 leaves.

A youthful work of Barth, then 21 years old, with a metrical version by him. S. Weitsii Nota in Musæum una cum indice (without the text), Ambergæ, 1613. 12°. is scarce, but of little value.

14556 — erotopægnion Herus et Leandri. Cum versione lat. prorsavorsa: cui access. alia ejusd. argumenti poematia: quæ singula collegit et commentario libro illustrav. Dn. Pareus. Ff., Fitzer, 1627. large 4°.

3 leaves of preliminary matter, 240 pages, and 4 leaves, index. Tolerably scarce. The editor's criticism is unhappy, and his commentary of no value. Therein are also de Mara's and Barth's Latin, and Marot's French translations, Barth's Leandridos II. III, Ovidii Epp. Leandri et Heronis etc.

14557 — Hero et Leander, cum notis P. Voetii. Ultraj., a Zyl, 1645. 8°.

Very scarce in Germany. The text of And. Papius of 1575.

14558 — Musæi, Moschi et Bionis, quæ extant omnia: quib. accessere quædam selectiora Theocriti eidyllia. Impressa majore caractere, sculptura adornata, latinoque carmine reddita, græcis e regione appositis. Autore D. Whitfordo. Lond., Roycroft, 1659. 4°. with 2 plates.

3 leaves and 143 pages. Ib. 1655. 4°. is only an older title. Neat and scarce, printed in capitals, and prized on account of Whitford's metrical version.

14559 — de Herone et Leandro carmen (gr. lat.), cum notis Jac. Rondelli. Par., Cramoisy, 1678. 8°. 16 and 44 pages.

Containing various readings of a Paris codex.

14560 — de Hero et Leandro poema (gr. lat.). Recens., notis varior. et suis indicibusque instruxit ac de Musæo dissertationem præmisit J. H. Kromayer. Halæ, 1721. 8°.

Stephens's text with a few alterations. Kromayer's own notes are valuable.

14561 — de Hero et Leandro carmen (gr. lat.). Illustris historia antiqua civilis seculo IV. et V., ancipitibus veteris Romæ et imperii Romani fati, Arcadio et Honorio cæsaribus, occidentali et orientali imperio diviso, Stilichone belli duce vivo et defuncto. Helmst. 1725. 8°. with woodcuts.

The paradoxical von der Hardt sought to prove in this edition, that the poem was only allegorical, and referred to the overthrow of the Roman and Byzantine empire after Stilicho's death. A new edition (equally scarce with the first, but without the Latin translation) has the title, Musæus in historiam imperii Rom. seculo IV. et V. Gothæ, 1731. 8°. He gave an enlarged edition in his suppressed Comm. in Jobum. Helmst. 1728. fol. All 3 editions have Kromayer's text.

14562 — de Herone et Leandro carmen (gr. lat.). Cum scholiis græcis nunc prim. e cod. MS. bibl. Bodlej. editis. Ex rec. Mthi. Röver, qui variantes lectt. et notas adjecit. LB., Haak, 1737. 8°. with 1 title-plate.

Also on strong Dutch paper, and 2 copies on vellum in 4°. (one was purchased at Röver's sale at 200 Dutch florins for the Royal library at Paris). Kromayer's text, with a few alterations, together with various readings from 7 MSS. and 17 editions. The Scholias, here first printed, is of little value. The Latin translations of And. Papius, Sept. Florens Christianus, and Whitford are added. This edition, the editor of which was then only 18 years of age, should be had along with Schrader's. F. Bd. Carpzovius superintended a mere impression of the text, Helmst. 1749. 4°.

14563 — de Hero et Leandro carmen (gr. lat.); cum conjecturis ineditis Pt. Francii, ex rec. J. Schraderi, qui variantes lectt., notas et animadversionum librum adjec. Leovard., van Dessel, 1742. 8°.

This editor, then 20 years old, used the collation of 2 MSS., and sought to correct Röver's text, particularly by a comparison of Musæus with Nonnus. His annotations contain much that is unnecessary and that might be dispensed with.

14564 — avvenimenti tra Erone e Leandro, poema greco di Museo recato in versi italiani sciolti (col testo greco) da G. B. C. (Gi. Bt. Casaregi). Fir. 1750. 4°.

14565 — de Herone et Leandro carmen (gr. lat.) ab Ant. Mar. Salvini italicis versibus nunc prim. editis redditum. Accedunt præter lat. interpret. variantes codicum lectt., selectæ adnotationes et index græcus verbor. Recensuit et illustrav. Ang. Mar. Bandini. Flor. 1765. large 8°. 108 pages.

An entirely worthless edition, without the least new materials.

14566 — de Herone et Leandro carmen gr. Ad optimas edd. et cum lectt. variantibus selectisque emendatt. ac metaphrasi D. Whitfordi accurate recusum (cura F. Bd. Carpzovii). Magdeb., Zapff, 1775. large 8°. (5 gr.)

Containing the various readings of the earlier editions, the best of which he has received into the text. His earlier notes to Musæus in his Observatt. in Palæphatum. Lps. 1743. 8°. p. 107-128 are a youthful production.

14567 — les amours de Léandre et de Héro, en grec et en franç., par de la Porte du Theil. Par., (Didot), 1784. 12°. with 1 plate. Also on fine paper.

The edition by L. H. Teucher, Lps. 1789 or 1795. 8°. or Halle, 1801. 8°. (5 gr.) is only for schools.

14568 — de Herone et Leandro carmen. Recognov. et adnotationib. instrux. C. F. Heinrich. Hannov. Ritscher, 1793. 8°. (12 gr.)

A new revision of the text, with the help of a MS., not hitherto made use of.

14569 — les amours de Léandre et de Héro, trad. en franç. avec le texte grec., la version lat., des notes crit. et un index par J. Bt. Gail. Par., an 4 (1796). 4°. with 1 plate. Also on vellum paper.

The French translation is by de la Porte du Theil. Gail's notes are of no importance. It is also added to Gail's edition of Theocritus.

14578 MUSÉE français ou collection complète des tableaux, statues et basreliefs, qui composent la collection nationale, avec l'explication des sujets et des discours sur la peinture, la sculpture et la gravure, par

S. C. Croze Magnan, Visconti et Eméric David. Publié par Robillard-Péronville et Pt. Laurent. Par. 1803-11. large fol. 4 vols.

This splendid work appeared in 80 Nos. of 4 plates each (at 48 fr., avant la lettre 96 fr.). The 4 vols., which form the first series of the work, contain altogether 344 plates, including the portraits given in the different Nos. as supplements. In some copies the title is printed in gold.

Since then Henry Laurent (the son) has commenced a second series of this work, under the title, Musée royal, which is likewise to consist of 80 Nos. (at 48 and 96 fr. each); but as yet it has only reached the half of that number. All the 8 vols. will consequently cost 7680 fr., or 13,360 fr. on very large paper.

The 1st vol. 90 plates, the 2nd 83 and a title-plate (Giove), the 3rd 91, and the 4th 69. The 4th vol. is often wanting. The first edition with Italian text, Rom. 1741-48. fol. 2 vols. with plates, should be completed by means of the 3rd and 4th vols. of this Latin edition. See also GUASCO.

14582 MUSEUM Cortonense, in quo vetera monumenta complectuntur anaglypha, thoremata, gemmæ insculptæque, a Fr. Valesio, Ant. Fr. Gorio et Rdf. Venuti notis illustratum. Romæ, 1750. fol. with 85 plates. Also on large paper.

bridge classical researches. Vol. I. (Nos. 1-4). Cbr. 1814. Vol. II. (Nos. 5, 6). ib. 1815. 8°.

Each part 5s. More important than the Classical Journal, but it appears not to have been continued.

Pazzi, con breve notizie compilate da Oraz. Marrini. Fir. 1765-66. All together 12 vols. in large fol. with plates.

A complete set of this important and well got up work, which loses much in price when the last vols. are not included.

T. I. II. Gemmæ (1731-32), each 100 plates. T. III. Statuæ (1734), 100 plates. T. IV.-VI. Numismata (1740-42), 121 plates. The Serie di ritratti (50 portraits of which had been already published in 1748 without any text, which are greatly sought after as first impressions) contains 55 portraits in each vol.

To the above vols. may also be joined, Serie di ritratti d' uomini illustri Toscani, con gli elogi istorici dei medesimi. Fir. 1766-73. large fol. 4 vols.; the first 3 of which contain each 50 fine portraits, and the 4th 52.

The editions, Rom. 1747 or 50. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with the plates 1-54 and 55-103, are not prized, because they contain no text. 43 plates had been already published in 1702, with a fine title-plate.

Complete copies are very scarce.

14588 MUSEUM Tessinianum, opera C. Gst. Tessin (lat. et suec., ed. C. Linnæus). Holmiæ, 1753. fol. with 12 plates.

14589 MUSEUM Worsleyanum, or a collection of antique basso-relievos, bustos, statues, and gems, with views of places in the Levant, taken on the spot in the years 1785, 86, and 87 (by Rich. Worsley). Lond. (printed by Bulmer), 1794-1803. large fol. 2 vols. on vellum paper, with plates.

This work, printed with the greatest splendour, and containing about 150 masterly plates, is a companion to the Marlborough gems (see DELECTUS above), which it far surpasses in beauty. The author had it printed at his own cost (amounting to 27,000l., more than 180,000 dollars), and made presents of it only to his friends and to the libraries of the English and Scotch universities. It never came into the market. The actual number of copies struck off is greatly disputed. Brunet states them at 50, according to a letter of Worsley's in his own handwriting; according to Savage's Librarian, I. 97 sq., there were 250 copies; and according to Dibdin's Bibliomania, p. 712 (compare his Decameron, II. 387), 200 copies of the 1st vol. were printed, and only 100 copies of the 2nd vol. Dibdin had his information from the printer, Bulmer himself. The plates to the 2nd vol. were published at the same time as the 1st vol., and the text to the 2nd vol. was delivered afterwards, and incomplete copies are in consequence often to be met with. A complete copy was bought in England for 400l. (Dibdin's Decam. II. 387) at Townley's sale (London, 1815); but by the bookseller Arch for only 96l. 12s., and he offered it again for sale in his Catalogue of 1815 for 130l. The 1st part was bought at a Paris sale in 1811 at 735 fr. for the Royal library at Paris.

The introduction (according to Millin Annal. encycl. 1818, II. 149, the entire description also) is by Visconti, and the greatest part of the Italian translation (for the work is in English and Italian) by Bodini, at that time poet to the London opera. The appendix mentioned in the introduction, which was to have contained a descriptive catalogue of the pieces of the collection not mentioned in the work itself, did not appear.

With woodcuts and plates printed in the text, a title-plate, and the portrait of the author. No longer sought after.

14592 MUSSLER, J. (anon.) En tandem libellus, ex captivitatis tenebris, quasi ab Orco, in lucem, a Venetis principibus reuocatus privilegioque auctus (Opuscula varia). Ven., J. Ant. de Nicolinis Sabien-sis, 1539. 8°.

The author, previously rector of the Nicolai school at Leipzig, had during his abode at Padua and Venice, whither he had gone as tutor to some young Germans of consideration, brought violent animosities upon himself, partly perhaps by his own imprudence, which also had an influence on the printing of this book. It remained long with the censor, and when at length the printing was permitted, much was obliged to be omitted, and other passages were covered over with printers' ink. Consult (Weller's) Alles aus allen Theilen der Geschichte Th. I. Chemn. 1762. 8°. p. 266–276. Neuer allgem. literar. Anzeiger 1808, p. 151 etc.

The book is extraordinarily scarce, but only interesting with a view to Leipzig literary history. Complete copies are seldom to be met with, as the book was printed very much by piecemeal and with interruptions. The lists of contents given in different passages of the work cannot be used for collating it. The Dresden copy, made up out of two incomplete copies, I have had bound up in the following order, with regard in part to Mussler's assertions:

The above title (on the reverse the Venetian Privilegium), 39 unnumbered leaves with the signatures a–ππ (which contain a second title, Oratio de liberalib. discipl., a table of contents, and Victoriæ dedicatio; and have in leaf 39<sup>b</sup> the catchword Disputationum, but no signature oo), 31 pages with the signatures AA and B (a new title, Oratio in prima institutt. imp. lectione, a table of contents, some letters, Musleri Protestatio and Querela libelli; N. B. Musler had the 2nd sheet, or p. 15–30, afterwards reprinted, which reprint contains things entirely different, and is likewise in the Dresden copy), 179 pages with the signatures A–M (In explicatt. institutt. imp. oratio and Ph. a Maugis Scholia), 46 pages with the signatures Aa–Cc (Ratio de D. Paungartnero), 8 and 173 pages with the signatures a and aa–ll (Apologia rustica cum authoris protestatione), 1 leaf, the register, and 1 blank leaf, p. 177–200 (Disputationum themata), p. 201–236 (Sacrum deo furfuraceo), p. 237–354 (Consilium scholast.), p. 355–412 (Consil. scholast. secundum; then p. 413–448 are wanting in the Dresden copy), p. 449–480 (In Priotti Ciceronisatum; the last page is wrongly numbered 749), 87 pages with the signatures a–f (Epistolæ scholast.; p. 87 contains the printer's colophon).

14601 MYLÆUS, Cp. De scribenda universitatis rerum historia libri V. Bas., Oporinus, 1551. fol.

The best edition of a tolerable scarce and very remarkable book, which contains fundamental draughts of the history of nature, culture, manners and art, of the world and its people, and of literature, which might be enlarged upon in a greater work. The idea was (especially for that time) bold and excellent; and if the worthy Meusel could not find more in the book than observationes maximam partem ex trivio petitas (Bibl. hist. vol. I. P. I. p. 4), his judgment was, at least, very trivial. As if such a project were not in itself of some value. But the actual performance also presents much that is interesting: thus, for instance, a short sketch of literary history is already given in this book (consequently long before Bacon's time). The author was a Swiss (Leu's Schweizerlexikon, XIII. 504). It is remarkable that it was also a Swiss and a Müller who first formed the idea of a general history of mankind in the largest sense of the word.

The book is also to be found in the Penu artis histor. (Bas. 1574, or 76, or 79. 8°.) The edition, Flor., Torrentinus, 1548. 4°. 197 pages, in other respects fine, and still more scarce, is much more incomplete. The edition under the title, Hermes academicus, nunc in lucem revocatus per J. G. Mullerum. Jenæ, 1624. 8°. is by no means neat.

This translation is so different from the following one, that it scarcely seems to be one and the same book.

14605 MYSTÈRE. Sensuit ung mystere de l'institution des frères prescheurs, et comēce saint Dominique, lui estant à Rome, vestu en l'habit de chanoyne regulier; à 36 personnaiges. Par., J. Trepperel, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

38 leaves with the signatures a-g. Vallière's copy was originally bound up with the Legende de Megr. S. Dominique (Par., J. Trepperel, without date. 4°. Gothic letter), translated into French by J. Martin; and in that case he was also the author of this mystery, as the superscriptions of the chapters of the legend are composed in the same metre and taste as those in the mystery.

14606 MYSTÈRE. Sensuit le mystere de monseigneur saint Pierre et saint Paul, contenant plusieurs aultres vies, martires et conversions de saintes etc. Par., veuve J. Trepperel et J. Jehannot, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

130 leaves with the signatures A-Z.

14607 MYSTÈRE. Sensuyt ung beau mystere de Nostre-Dame, à la louenge de sa très-digne nativité, d'une jeune fille, laquelle se voulut habandonner à péché pour nourrir son père et sa mère en leur extrême pouvreté, et est à 18 personnaiges. Lyon, Oliv. Arnoullet, 1543. small 8°. Gothic letter.

48 leaves with the signatures a-f. Very scarce.

14608 MYSTÈRE. Le premier (et second) volume du triumpant mystere des actes des apostres translate fidelement a la verite Historiale, escripte par saint Luc a Theophile. Et illustre des legendes autenticques et vies de saintz Receues par leglise, tout ordonné par personnaiges (par Arnould et Sim. Greban, avec quelques corrections de Pt. Cueuvret ou Curet). Par., pour Gu. Alabat de Bourges, par N. Couteau, 15 Mars 1537. fol. Gothic letter, 2 parts in 1 vol. with woodcuts.

This edition is less sought after than that of 1541. The 1st vol. contains 10 unnumbered leaves of preliminary matter, then leaves 2-169 (92 and 93 are skipped over in the numbering) and 2 unnumbered leaves (the last blank). The 2nd vol. contains 7 leaves of preliminary matter, 218 numbered leaves, and at the end an unnumbered leaf, on the folio recto of which is a rondeau.

The duke de Vallière formerly (now M. de Solenne at Paris) possessed a copy, in the first part of which 4 leaves were to be found which are wanting in other copies, and are printed in a smaller Gothic character; [namely, one between p. 167 and 168, and three after p. 169.

14609 — le même triomphant mystère des actes des apôtres. Par., Arnoul et Charles les Angeliers, 1540. 4°. 2 vols. Gothic letter.

The 1st vol. contains 10 leaves of preliminary matter, 197 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf, printer's symbol. The 2nd, 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 251 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf, printer's symbol.

14610 — le premier (et second) volume des catholiques œuvres et actes des apostres, rédigez en escript par saint Luc Evangeliste et Hystorographe depute par le saint Esprit. Par., Arn. et Charl. les Angeliers, 1541.—L'apocalipse saint Jean Zébedée, où sont comprises les visions et révélation qu'icelui saint Jehan eut en l'isle de Pathmos etc. Par. 1541. fol. Gothic letter, 3 parts in 1 vol. with woodcuts.

The edition the most sought after, which is augmented with the Apocalypse, but is in consequence destitute of the table of contents and of the prologue of the first two editions. It is therefore well to possess all 3 editions. The 1st part contains 5 leaves of preliminary matter and 210 numbered leaves; the 2nd part, 1 title-leaf, 180 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf, printer's symbol; lastly, the Apocalypse, 46 leaves (including the title). — Cry et proclamation publique, pour jouer le mistère des actes des apôtres. Par., Denis Janot, 1541. 4°. 4 leaves. Consult Mélanges tirés d'une gr. bibl. IV. 360 etc. Hist. univ. des théâtres, XI. 94 etc. 212 etc.

14611 MYSTÈRE. Le mystère du chevalier qui donna sa femme au diable, à dix personnages (représenté en 1505). Without place or date. small 8°. Gothic letter.

Very scarce. 28 leaves with the signatures A-D. In the copy in the Royal library at Paris, the 1st sheet belongs to another undated edition in Gothic characters. A later reprint, without place or date (Par., Caron, about 1800). 8°. 40 leaves. See concerning this mystery Hist. des théâtres, XI. 185.

14612 MYSTÈRE. Sensuit le mistère du très glorieux saint Christofle par personnages; nouvellement imprimé à Paris. Il est à 34 personnages. Par., par la veufue feu J. Trepperel, J. Jehannot, etc., without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

20 leaves with the signatures a-d. Extremely scarce, and quite different from the mystery by Chevalet (see CHEVALET).

14613 MYSTÈRE. Sen suit le mistère du tres glorieux martir monsieur saint Christofle par personnages nouvellement imprimé à Paris et est à 33 personnages. Par., J. Jehonnot (sic), without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

20 leaves with the signatures A-D. The same as the preceding.

14614 — — Par., en la rue neufve nostre Dame à l'enseigne S. Nicolas, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, 20 leave.

In Méon's Catal. (Par. 1803. 8°.) this edition is wrongly stated to have 38 characters, and the date 1500.

14615 MYSTÈRE et beau miracle de S. Nicolas à 24 personnages. Par., Pt. Sergent, without date. 4°.

14616 MYSTÈRE. Mistère du vieil testament par personnages, joué à Paris, historié et imprimé nouvellement audit lieu. Par., Pt. le Dru pour Gf. de Marnef, without date. fol. Gothic letter. with woodcuts.

The first edition. 336 leaves, including the title. The edition, Par., pour J. Petit, without date, fol. appears to be of the same printing, though with the name of another publisher.

14617 — s'ensuit le mystère du vieil testament par personnages. (Par.), la veufve feue J. Trepperel et J. Jehannot, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, 2 parts in 1 vol.

14618 — le très-excellent et saint mystère du vieil testament, par personnages. Par., J. Real, 1542. fol. Gothic letter, 424 numbered leaves.

This edition is the most sought after, and is almost as scarce as the preceding. There are also copies with the name of the publisher, Vinc. Sertenas or Gu. le Bret. Concerning this mystery, consult Hist. univ. des théâtres, XI. 51 sq.

14619 MYSTÈRE. S'ensuit le mistere de la sainte Larme comme elle fut apportée de Constantinople

This catalogue, very carefully executed, and bibliographically accurate, is for modern Dutch literature what the Bibliographie de la France is for modern French literature. A number appeared monthly (at 2½ stüber, the whole annual set cost 1 fl. 5 st.), and 5 annual sets form a vol. with complete indices. In each number the books are scientifically arranged, and the journals and almanacs are placed by themselves at the end of the year. In November, 1811, the continuation was forbidden by the proper French authorities, and the Naamlyst first appeared again in 1814, and the parts wanting were afterwards delivered. The work carried on the earlier Naamregister van de bekendste en meest in gebruik zynde Nederduitsche Boeken, welke sedert het Jaar 1600 tot het Jaar 1761 syn uitgekomen; voorheen uitgegeven door J. van Abcoude, verbeterd en tot aan het Jaar 1787 vermeerderd door R. Arrenberg.

Would that Weidmann's fair-catalogue, now completely unfit for use, might at last become what those French and Dutch patterns are. An edition in parts would be the best.

There are two title-plates therein; the one (Evangel. hist. imagines) is of 1593, the other (Adnotatt.) of 1594. At the end of the work is the year 1595. Sometimes the 153 plates of this work are found with the title-plate of 1593 alone, and these impressions in that case are still earlier than the edition itself, if the plates have only a single series of numbers. A second number was afterwards added to each plate, to point out their places in the text.

The copy on vellum in the Public library at Nuremberg, which is mentioned in Solger's Catal. I. 219, as a Basle edition of 1516, but of which there is no such edition, is probably a copy of this first edition. Of the other editions, the best is that by Lr. Surius, furnished with a continuation up to 1564, Col. 1564. fol. 2 voll. The later editions, for instance, Col. 1614 or 75. fol. have not the continuation.

It is asserted in the short preface that only 12 copies of this first edition were printed. This is at least not applicable to the above Paris production, of which more than 100 copies exist. If it be really the case, an edition must be understood to have appeared at Rome (where Naudæus was at that time living). However this be, the Paris impression still brings in France from 20 to 30 fr. The last time, avec des reflex. par L. D. M. (L. de May.) without place, 1752. 12°. 3 voll.

In this collection, which was reprinted, Ven. 1754. 8°. there is also to be found his Viaggio fatto in Spagna et in Francia (previously, Ven. 1563. 8°.); but three poems, which are wanting here, and only one of which had been already printed, are in Viti Juvenatii carmina, Neap. 1786. 8°. The earlier edition, Oratt. II. carminaque nonnulla. Ven., Tacuinus, 1530. fol.; and in Hi. Fracastorii opp. Ven. 1555. 4°. is less complete.

91 numbered leaves [on the first 25 Nicander with the date m. Nov. 1522, next a blank leaf (reckoned as 26), and then the scholia with the date m. Apr. 1523.] and 1 leaf, the anchor. The 25th leaf is wrongly numbered 19, and the 91st is also 92. A scarce edition, and sought after, containing a good text. At first with Dioscorides. Ven., Ald., 1499.

- 14742 — Theriaca. Ejusd. Alexipharmaca. Interpretatio innominati autoris in Theriaca. Commentarii diversor. autor. in Alexipharmaca. (gr.). Col., J. This edition is the first that differs from the Aldine, and deteriorates the text. In the part, which contains the Latin translation, some copies have on the reverse of the last leaf a list of typographical errors, which is wanting in others, and the page blank. (Both sorts at Dresden.)

Gorræi Opp. Par. 1622. fol.*—The Greek text (without the scholia), corrected from the scholia and from conjecture, in Stephani Poeta principes Par. 1566. fol. p. 318 sq. This text is repeated with J. This edition is insignificant as far as the text of Nicander is concerned, but it contains Eutecnius from 2 MSS. for the first time, to which Bandini gave additions from another MS. in his Catal. bibl. Laurent. III. 330.

14747 — Alexipharmaca (gr.) cum scholiis græcis et Eutecni Sophistæ paraphrasi græca. Ex libris scriptis emendavit, animadversionibusque et paraphrasi lat. illustrav. J. Glo. Schneider. Hal., orphanotropheum, 1792. 8°. (1 d. 4 gr.)

Oudin, J. Bt. Michault, and Goujet took part in this work, which is as useful as it is readable. The 10th part has a seconde partie of 316 and XX pages, which are wanting in very many copies, and also contains additions and corrections to part 1–10. The 43rd part is also often wanting. Incomplete copies however are of little value, as it is very difficult to complete them.

This work is very scarce even in England, and Longman offered a copy of all the 11 vols. for 94l. 10s. Mr. Gough took part in it, but the note in the article GOUGH, No. 8734, is to be erased.

14762 — history and antiquities of the town and county of Leicester. Lond. 1795-1812. fol. 7 vols. with plates.

This is Brunet's statement. But I find otherwise 8 parts or vols. in fol. The 7th and 10th vols. contain tables of contents, which are well done, and which remedy the defect in the arrangement. The printing and plates are even below mediocrity.—See also Hogarth, No. 9909 and 10. He was also the conductor of the Gentleman's magazine.

14772 NICOLAUS I. Pont. Max. Epistolæ. Romæ, Fr. Priscianensis, 1542. fol.

Very scarce.

14773 NICOLAUS V. Pont. Max. Literæ indulgentiarum Nicolai V. Pont. Max. pro regno Cypri 1455.

This letter of indulgence, printed on a small leaf of vellum, is the first known typographical specimen with a date. The date had formerly only been referred to its composition, but it is evident from the two copies described and printed entire in the Bibl. Spenc. T. I. p. XLIV. sq. that the year 1455 is really to be understood of the printing.

The indulgence is in a patent form, 9 English inches broad and 6½ long, containing 31 lines in all, and consisting of 3 paragraphs. The first commences, Vniuersis Christifidelibus pntes litteras inspec-turis PAULINUS Chappe, and finishes with the date, certainly printed (not written, as Fischer thought in the Leips. Litt. Zeit. 1803. Intell. 131. No. 3. p. 33).

Datum . . . . Anno dñi Mcccolo die uero . . . . Mensis . . . .

(The empty spaces, marked with dots, were intended for the addition of the place and day on which the letter was obtained for any body). The second paragraph begins, Forma plenissime absolutionis et remissionis in vita. The third, Forma plenarie remissionis in mortis articulo. It ends, In noie pris et filii et spūs sancti Amen. The beginning of each paragraph is printed with that sub-kind of missal type which Fischer (Beschreib. typogr. Seltenh. III. 62.) calls the Donatus-type; the rest with the Catholicon-type, a sub-kind of the Rota-type (ib. III. 67). But that the statement of the year applies to the printing seems to be evident for the following reasons: 1. The indulgence was only of force, as is expressly stated in it, for three years, reckoning from the 1st of May, 1452 (Nicolaus . . concessit omnibus . . qui infra triennium a prima die Maji anni domini 1452 incipiendum pro defensione cathol. fidei et regni prædicti de facultatibus suis erogauerint). 2. Pope Nicholas V. was already dead on the 25th of March, 1455. But for what purpose could an indulgence have been printed still later, the validity of which had already expired in the year 1455, as well by the death of the pope, who had granted it, as by its own restriction to three years? 3. One of lord Spencer's copies, according to the interstice filled up in handwriting, was issued at Würzburg on the 7th of March, 1455, to Heinrich Deupprecht and his wife Anna, and is furnished with the pope's seal in very good preservation, and very neatly copied in the Bibl. Spenc.; and this last circumstance places the year of printing, 1455, beyond all doubt.

The work itself commences on the following leaf; Incipit liber qui dicitur cōpendium morale utilis pro ser | monibus & collacionibus faciendis. Prologus. This contains 170 leaves. At the end; Explicit cōpendium morale. It is not noticed by Panzer, and is probably the same work of which Dibdin (Tour, T. III. Append. p. XXXIV.) saw a copy in a private library at Nuremberg.

The first edition of a work less esteemed for its contents (see Beckmann Litt. der Reis. I. 654 sq.) than for its plates. The remaining books have not appeared. These plates (by L. Danet) are important on account of the oriental costume, and appear to be faithful.

- 14781 — les navigations, pérégrinations et voyages faits en Turquie.

Anvers, Silvius, 1576 (other copies 1577). 4°. with woodcuts.

The 60 fine woodcuts are said by several bibliographers to be after designs by Titian. This however is not true, as the designs originated with Nicolay himself. A part of the woodcuts is by Ahasuerus de Landfeld or Londerzel.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 209 pages, and 7 leaves of index. The woodcuts are the same as in the preceding, but the edition is less fine than the two former.

3 leaves of preliminary matter, including the title-plate, and 108 numbered leaves. The plates are very faithful engravings, and are generally illuminated. The translation is faulty and incomplete.

Probably the first edition; in which the work, which is properly a free translation of Cassiani Collat. patrum, is attributed to a preaching monk, Henry of Nuremberg. He was also the editor of a journal, Caxon de Sastre, ó coleccion de muchas piezas exquisitas de autores españoles en prosa y verso, which first appeared in 1760 in 7 vols., and was reprinted at Madrid in 1781 in 6 vols. 8°.

- 14812 NIGELLUS Wireker. Speculum stultorum. Without place or date. fol. 72 leaves.

This edition, probably printed in Holland, contains 72 leaves with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with a prose prologue ad Guilhelmu, which fills 5 pages; and in leaf 4<sup>a</sup> follows a second and metrical prologue, Suscipe pauca tibi. Here the author is called Vigellus.

In this satirical poem, concerning which see Flögel Gesch. der kom. Lit. II. 321 sq., under the image of an ass, which instead of its short tail wishes for a long one, a monk is represented, discontented with his condition, and striving after an abbey. The author is also called, but incorrectly, Vigellus and Nigaldus. The Cologne editions of 1471 and 1478 are very uncertain.

- 14813 — Brunellus in speculo stulto. (Underneath is a woodcut.) Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

60 leaves with the signatures a ij-h iij and 32 lines, without catchwords and pagination. Judging by the paper-marks and the types, it was most probably printed at Cologne by J. Koelhoff, between 1480 and 85. It has not the prose prologue, but leaf a ij commences at once with the metrical prologue (Suscipe pauca tibi), in the first verse of which the author is rightly called Nigellus. The last 2 lines (or the 15th and 16th) of leaf 60b are,

*Brunelli in speculo stultorum
Finis adest feliciter Amen.*

- 1814 — veteris Vigellii speculum stultorum. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

61 leaves with the signatures a i-h iij. It ends in the 9th line of leaf 61<sup>b</sup>. Panzer, IV. 168-871. A very defective edition (without place or date, 4°. which also has the prosaic prologue) described in Hamberger's Zuverläss. Nachrr. IV. 306. appears to be different from this.

- 14815 — liber qui intitulatur Brunellus in speculo stultorum. Narratio Galieni de bruneta et bicorni. Narratio de gallo et querimoniis galline. Brunellus conuertit se ad singulos status hominum. Col. (without the printer's name), die ult. Febr. 1499. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

69 leaves with signatures. It likewise has the prose prologue. See also Murr's Journal, XIV. 362.

- 14816 — speculum stultorum. Par., J. Petit, 1506. small 4°. Gothic letter.

Not noticed in Panzer.

- 14817 — Nigaldi Wiroker, Angli bardi, speculum stultorum. Par. 1601. 4°.

A very scarce edition. Also in the Praxis jocandi. Ff. 1602. 8°. p. 352 etc. under the title, De asinino asininos mores atque ingenium contra naturam exuere conante narratio.

- 14818 — Brunellus Vigelli et vetula Ovidii. Seu: Opuscula duo autor. incertor.: prius quidem Vigelli, qui fertur, speculum stultorum; posterius vero libri tres de vetula Ovidii, falso sic dicti (curav. Sm. Closius). Wolferbyti, typis Sterniis, 1662. 8°. with 1 plate.

- 14819 NIGER, Pt. Tractatus ad Judæor. perfidiam exstirpandam. Eslingen, Cr. Fyner, 6 Jun. 1475. 4°. Gothic letter.

43 leaves, and 6 leaves after the colophon. Remarkable as the first book, in which Hebrew characters are to be found. But as there is a great difference between merely two words and an entire book (for only the first two words of Genesis and the Hebrew alphabet are printed in Hebrew, and all the other Hebrew words which occur are printed in Latin characters), the honour of the first Hebrew typographical production belongs not to Germany, but to Italy. See JARCHI.

14848 NONIUS Marcellus. De proprietate sermonis. Without place or date (Roma, G. Lauer, about 1470). fol.

The first edition. 141 leaves (according to Dibdin, 137 according to Fossi) with 40 lines running all across the page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> is a letter of Pomp. Lætus, which begins, Pomponio Gaspari blondo Salutem. Nonius itself commences in leaf 2<sup>a</sup>, and the first line is, (S) ENIVM EST TEDIVM ET ODIVM. In leaf 140<sup>b</sup> there are 8 verses in praise of the author: Ex scriptis rerum. ut fertur. cognoscitur omnis etc.; and leaf 141<sup>a</sup> is a register. Lætus superintended this edition, with the help of Volscus and some friends, after several MSS.

14849 — — Without place and printer's name, 1471. fol.

163 leaves with 36 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First 12 leaves of preliminary matter in 3 columns. Leaf 13<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself, and line 1 is, (S) ENIVM EST TEDIVM ET ODIVM. Leaf 163<sup>a</sup> is the colophon: Finito libro laus et gloria Christo. M. CCCC. LXXI. The printer is unknown, but certainly neither U. Han nor N. Jenson. Dibdin, in Bibl. Spenc. III. 95, takes it for a production of Milan or Treviso.

14850 — compendiosa doctrina ad filium de proprietate sermonum. Ven., N. Jenson, 1476. fol.

14851 — — Ven., without the printer's name, 1478. fol.

12 leaves of index, and 132 numbered leaves with signatures.

The editions from 1480 to 1519 are to be found with those of Festus and Varro: see above, GRAMMATICI, No. 8780-83.

14852 — de proprietate sermonum, jam demum innumeris locis restitutus, multis locupletatus, ope vetustissimor. codicum et industria Hadr. Junii. Additus est Fulgentii Placiadæ libellus de prisco sermone, ab eod. repurgatus. Antw., Cp. Plantinus, 1565. 8°.

The first proper recension of the text.

14853 — de proprietate sermonis, et Fulgentius Placiades de prisco sermone, cum duobus locupletibus indicibus et notis viror. doctissimor. Par., Ægid. Beys, 1583. 8°.

Chiefly the text of Junius.

14854 — de proprietate sermonum, et Fulgentius Planciades de prisco sermone, innumeris locis restituti et locupletati: adjectis in eosdem notis Dion. Gothofredi. Par., Chevillot, 1586. 8°.

Also in Gothofredi Auctor. lat. ling.

14855 — Nonii Marcelli nova editio. Additus est libellus Fulgentii de prisco sermone, et notæ in Nonium et Fulgentium (cura Josæ Merceri). Par. (other copies, Sedani), Perier, 1614. 8°.

A new recension after MSS. and old editions, and hitherto the best edition.

14856 — Cp. WASE stricturæ et emendatt. Nonianæ. Ox. 1685. 4°.

Very scarce.

- 14857 NONNIUS, L. Diæteticon s. de re cibaria libri IV. Antw., Bellerus, 1645 (other copies, 1646). 4°.

The 1st edition, ib. 1627. small 8°. is far more incomplete. By him there is also, Ichthyophagia s. de piscium esu. Antw. 1616. 8°.

- 14858 NONNUS Panopolitanus. Paraphrasis evangelii secundum Joannem, gr. Without place or date (Ven., Aldus, 1501). 4°.

51 unnumbered leaves, with the signatures aaaa to kkkk; one blank leaf at the end. The 1st edition, very scarce, which has neither title nor preface. As the Latin translation, which Aldus meant to have appended, did not appear, the incomplete copies seem to have been inconsiderately destroyed in his warehouses. Sometimes it is found bound up with Gregorii Naz. carmina. Ven., Ald., 1504. 4°. It has incorrectly been set down in the year 1508, and some persons have entirely doubted its existence.

- 14859 — paraphr. evang. secund. Joannem, græco carmine, studio Demetrii Ducæ Cretensis edita. Romæ, 1526. 4°.

This edition must also be very scarce. It is in the catalogue of the Royal library at Paris; but is not noticed by Panzer.

- 14860 — Tralatio sancti evangelii secundum Joannem (gr., cura Ph. Melanchthonis). Haganosæ, J. Seckerius, 1527. 8°.—Nonni in evang. S. Joannis paraphr. græca et concio Chrysostomi de magistratibus (lat., interpr. Cp. Hegendorphino). ib., id., 1528. 8°.

Melancthon corrected the text. The translation of Hegendorphinus is very inaccurate.

- 14861 — in evang. S. Joannis paraphr. græca, a Cp. Hegendorphino latina facta (gr. lat.) Par., Jac. Bogardus, 1541–42. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Probably only a reprint of the preceding. Also with Homerocentra. Ff., Brubach, 1541. 8°.

- 14862 — μεταβολη του κατα 'Ιωαννην άγιου ευαγγελιου (gr.) Par., Mt. Juvenis, 1556. 8°. 168 pages.

- 14863 — conversio evangelii secund. Joannem græcis versibus conscripta, nunc prim. ad verbum latina facta multisque in locis emendata per J. Bordatum. Par., C. Perier, 1561. 4°.
VOL. III.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 196 pages and 2 leaves. Bordatus has restored about 80 verses from a MS., but their genuineness is suspected.

- 14864 — translatio vel paraphrasis S. evang. secundum Joann. Cum vers. lat. Erh. Hedenecio interprete. Bas., Pt. Perna, 1571 or 77. 8°. Also often.

Also with Homerici centones. Exo. H. Stephan. 1578. 12°.

- 14865 — græca paraphr. S. evang. secundum Joannem (gr. lat.), nunc prim. emendatissima et perfecta atque integra, op. Fr. Nansii, cum interpretat. lat. et ejusd. notis. LB., Fr. Raphelengius, 1589. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Nansius has made use of the earlier editions, corrected the translation, and added 369 verses of his own composing. Thereto belongs Fr. Nansii ad Nonni paraphr. cura secunda. LB., Raphelengius, 1593. 8°.

- 14866 — metaphrasis evangelii secundum Joannem, versib. heroicis (gr. lat.) cum MS. cod. Palat. collata, verbor. indice aucta, brevib. notis illustrata, rectius aliquot in locis versa op. F. Sylburgii. (Hdlb.) Hi. Commelinus, 1596. 8°.

A good edition. But the numerous reprints of it are of no value.

- 14867 — græca paraphrasis S. evangelii secund. Joann. cum interpr. lat. Fr. Nansius emendavit, polivit et auxit. LB., Raphelengius, 1599. 8°.

A new modification of an earlier edition.

- 14868 — paraphrasis sancti secund. Joann. evangelii (gr. lat.). Acc. notæ P. N. A. (N. Abrami), Soc. J. Par., Cramoisy, 1623. 8°.

A new revision of the text.—A new recension, with a severe commentary, is, Dn. Heinsii Aristarchus sacer. LB. 1627. 8°. (see above HEINSIUS, No. 9374). Against this commentary appeared Csp. Ursini Nonnus redivivus. Hmb. 1667. 8°.

14869 — dionysiaca (gr.) nunc prim. in lucem edita ex bibl. J. Sambuci. Cum lectt. et conjecturis Ger. Falkenburgii et ind. copioso. Antw., Plantin. 1569. large 8°. (not 4°.)

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 899 pages, and ten unnumbered leaves. The first edition very scarce. At the end are some corrections by W. Canter.

14870 — dionysiaca (gr.) nunc denuo in lucem edita et lat. reddita per Eilhard. Lubinum, cum lectt. et conjecturis Ger. Falkenburgii et indice copioso. Hanov., typis Wechel., 1605. 8°.

The only new matter in this very incorrectly printed edition is the Latin translation.

14871 — dionysiaca (gr. lat.). Pt. Cunæi animadversionum liber. Dn. Heinsii dissertatio de Nonni dionysiatis et ejusd. paraphrasi. Jos. Scaligeri conjectanea. Cum vulgata versione et Ger. Falkenburgii lectt. Hanov., typis Wechel., 1610. 8°.

Only a new title to the preceding, to which Pt. Cunæi animadvv. etc. LB., L. Elzevier, 1610. 8°. is here added. Both parts together are scarce, and greatly sought after, because as yet this is the only complete edition.

14872 — dionysiacor. libri VI. ab octavo ad decimum tertium, res Bacchicas ante expeditionem Indicam complectentes (gr.) Emendav., omnium Nonni libror. argumenta et notas mytholog. adjec. G. H. Moser. Hdlb., Mohr, 1809. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.) Also on vellum paper.

14895 NOSTRADAMUS, César de. L'histoire et chronique de Provence. Lyon, Sim. Rigaud, 1614. fol. 1092 and 63 pages.

A work interesting on account of its genuine chronicle-style.

14896 NOSTRADAMUS, Mch. Les prophéties. Lyon, Macé Bonhomme, 1555. 8°.

The first edition, very scarce, but only containing 4 centuries. The first complete edition (10 centuries) is, Lyon, Rigaud, 1568. 8°. Also, ib., id., 1568. 16°. reprints of which are, Lyon, 1568. 8°. (printed about 100 years later, and very slovenly,) and Troyes, Ruau, without date. 8°.

14897 — les vraies centuries et prophéties, avec la vie de l'auteur. Amst., Waesberge, 1668. 12°. with 1 title-plate.

A very neat edition, and the most sought after, and joined to the Elzevir productions. An édit. contrefaite, which has been spoken of by some bibliographers, seems, according to Brunet, not to exist, and to be only a confusion with the slovenly edition, Amst. 1667. 12°. Equally incomplete, but not fine, are, Col., Volcker, 1689. 8°. Rouen, Besongne, 1691. 12°. — True prophecies and prognostications of Nostrad., transl. by Garencieres. Lond. 1672. fol. Prophetien van Nostrad (Dutch). Amst. 1715. 8°.

14898 — déclaration des abus, ignorances et séditions de Nostradamus, de Salon de Craux, nouvellem. trad. de lat. en franç. Avignon, 1558. 4°. Les contredits du Sgr. du Pavillon lès Lorriz (Ant. Couillard) aux fausses et abusives prophéties de Nostrad. et autres astrologues. Par. 1560. 8°. J. Aymé de Chavigny commentaires sur les centuries et prognostications de Mch. de Nostradamus. Par. 1596. 8°. also Lyon, 1603. 8°. Eclaircissement des véritables quatrains de Mch. Nostrad. without place, 1656. 12°. De Jant prédictions tirées des centuries de Nostrad. qui se peuvent appliquer au temps présent. Par. 1673. 12°. Bths. Guynaud la concordance des prophéties de Nostrad. avec l'hist. Par. 1693, or 1709, or 1710, or 1712. 12°. (Leroux) la clef de Nostradamus. Par. 1710. 12°.

14899 NOSTREDAME, J. de. Les vies des plus célèbres et anciens poètes provençaux, qui ont floury du temps des comtes de Prouence. Lyon, Alex. Marsilij, 1575. 8°.

258 pages, 1 blank leaf, 6 leaves of index and 1 leaf, colophon. The original source of information, and very scarce, for a most interesting period. The notices are not indeed always entirely free from faults, or to be depended upon throughout (Hist. de Languedoc, II. 519.); at the same time they are derived from authors almost contemporaneous, and since lost; and several of his accounts, which were formerly doubted, have been confirmed from MSS. afterwards discovered (Raynouard cours d'amours, p. XCII). He may be the most securely used in this dition. His notices are certainly also to be found almost verbally in Cés. Nostradamus Hist. et chronique de Provence (see No. 14895); yet they are not given entire, and are scattered separately throughout the whole work.

14900 — le vite delli più celebri et antichi primi poeti provenzali, da Gi. Giudici in Italiana (lingua) tradotte. Lione, Aless. Marsilij, 1575. 8°.

254 pages, 1 blank leaf, and 7 leaves index. This translation (not successful in itself) is also worthy of consideration. Although the translator asserts, p. 19, Ho io osservato di tradurre il testo puntalmente, per non far torto all' autore; yet notwithstanding occasionally some not unimportant differences in the names are to be found, also in Lanfranco Cigala, p. 135, his plaintive poem on his beloved Berlenda is inserted, which is wanting in the French original, p. 134. Crescimbeni gave a corrected and enlarged translation of Nostradamus in the 2nd part of his Istoria della volgar poesia; also with a separate title, Roma, 1722. 4°.

14901 NOTA, Alb. Commedie. Ed. II. accresc. e corretta dall' autore. Torino, Pane, 1818. 8°. 4 vols. with Nota's portrait.

The best edition. Also, Mil. 1819. 12°. 4 voll. His plays are greatly prized in Italy.

14902 NOTARA, Chrysantus. Introductio in geograph. et sphæram, neogræce (ed. J. N. Alex. Maurocordatus). Par. 1716. fol. with plates.

14903 NOTICES et extraits des manuscrits de la bibliothèque du roi. Par. 1787–1818. 4°. 10 voll. with plates.

This work is also joined to the Mémoires de l'acad. des inserr.

NOTIS variorum, editiones cum, see at the end of this work.

14904 NOTITIA utraque cum orientis tum occidentis ultra Arca-dii Honoriique Cæsarum tempora. Præcedit And. Alciati libellus de magistratibus, civilibusque ac militari. officiis. Cui succedit descriptio urbis Romæ, quæ sub titulo Pub. Victorii circumfertur, et altera urbis Cplitanæ incerto autore. Subjungitur vetustus liber de rebus bellicis ad Theodosium Aug. et filios ejus scriptus, incerto auctore. Item disputatio Adriani Aug. et Epicteti philosophi. (Edidit Sgm. Gelenius). Bas., Froben, 1552. fol. with woodcuts.

107 unnumbered leaves. The woodcuts in the Dresden copy are neatly illuminated. The first complete edition of this important work, concerning which however Pancirollus erroneously maintains, that it was printed after a MS. of Marianus Scotus. Its text is not very correct, and the representations are modernised.

Complete MSS., and furnished with representations, are very scarce, and collectively appear to be copies of an old and long lost MS. of the library at Spire (Burmanni sylloge epp. IV. 149.) Consult concerning the work, Fabricii bibl. lat. Ed. vet. I. 752. III. 573. Ejusd. bibl. gr. Harl. VII. 526. Tiraboschi bibl. Mod. IV. 13 (who, however erroneously, supposes it to be printed in Banduri imperium orient.) Morelli bibl. MS. I. 387-90. Saxii onomast. II. 492. And. Alciatus is said to have first published it in his book De magistratibus civilibus et militaribus officiis, 1528; yet neither Labbé nor Morelli could find this edition, after which I also have every where sought in vain. There is indeed an edition, And. Alciati de quinque pedum præscriptione: de magistratib. civil. et militarib. officiis. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1530. 8°. It was afterwards often printed with this book in the works of Alciatus. What however Alciatus gave (under the title, Index dignitatum civilium militariumque in oriente et occidente), is only an abridgment; he omitted also the representations.

Marani tribus indicibus auctius factum. Item huic editioni adjunximus tract. de rebus bellicis. Cum duplici indice. Ultima editio auctior et correctior. Lugd., Hugo a Porta, 1608. fol. with woodcuts.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 222 and 35 numbered and 13 unnumbered leaves. The edition of Pancirolus, which previously appeared, Ven. 1593. fol. and ib. 1602. fol. is corrected from 2 MSS. and provided with a learned commentary; but the representations are still less faithful, and at the same time less fine, than those in the edition of 1552. This edition ought to be had along with the following.

14906 — notitia dignitatum utriusque imperii, orientis scilicet et occidentis, ultra Arcadii Honoriique tempora. Et in eam Guidi Panciroli commentarium. Ejusdemque de magistratibus municipalibus rebusque bellicis et tam novæ quam veteris Romæ libellus. Acc. huic edit. totius imperii Rom. typus et index. Ed. postrema auctior et emendatior. Genevæ, St. Gamonet, 1623. fol. with the same woodcuts.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 271 pages, 6 leaves of index, 196 and 39 pages, and 2 leaves of index. This edition, in part differently arranged, is enlarged with the typus imp. Rom. and with a tabula de V diocesis orientis; on the other hand, the commentary of Rhuardesius and Alciatus de magistratibus are wanting in it; the dedication to Pancirollus de magistratibus municip. is also omitted. The typographical errors of the preceding edition are only in part corrected. Cp. Cellarius's MS. annotations to a copy of the edition of 1623 are printed in J. F. A. Kinderling De bibloth. cænobii Bergensis. Magdeb. 1771. 4°. p. 103-112.

14907 — notitia dignitatum imperii Romani, ex nova recens. Ph. Labbé. Par. typ. regia, 1651. 12°.

A new recension with the various readings of the earlier editions, but without the commentary and representations. Labbé's death prevented a larger edition for the Corpus hist. Byz. Reprinted, Ven. 1729. fol. in the Venetian edition of the Byzantine historians; (commonly bound up with G. Codinus).—The Notitia, the last time, with Panciroli Comm. in Gravii Thes. ant. Rom. VII. 1309 etc. where however the representations are quite disfigured, and are merely invented by the engraver.

Fil. de Spannagel), without place (Mil.), 1724-26. fol. 3 parts in 2 vols.

Of this book only 50 copies are said to have been privately printed by order of the emperor Charles VI., for the court of Vienna; besides which the printer struck off by stealth some copies for himself. At the same time the book is not so very scarce, and is very little sought after.

From May 1689 to Dec. 1698 nothing appeared. A 3rd edition, Amst. 1715-20. 12°. 56 voll.

14911 NOUVELLES littéraires. Hays, 1715-19. 8°. 11 voll.

Reaching to 17 May 1719. Nouvelles littéraires. Par., Menier, 1723-24. large 8°. are different therefrom. Consult Charodon Mélanges, II. 189 not.

14912 NOUVELLES. Les cent nouvelles nouvelles, composées et récitées par nouvelles gens depuis naguères. Par., Ant. Vérard, 23 Dec. 1486. small fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

The first edition, and very scarce, in which each nouvelle has a woodcut. 153 leaves, with the signatures A-T, of which A has 9 leaves, F 6, T 10, but each of the other layers has 8.

14913 — les cent nouvelles nouvelles. Par., Ant. Vérard, without date, fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

An edition not less scarce. 10 leaves of preliminary matter (title and table of contents), and 158 leaves of text, with the signatures B-Hh. The last leaf only contains Vérard's symbol.

14914 — les cent nouvelles nouvelles. Par., N. Desprez pour Durand Gerlier, 3 Fevr. 1505. small fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

Less fine and less dear than Vérard's editions. The woodcuts are rude. Yet it sold for 10l. at the Roscoe sale. Monnoye, in his notes to Croix du Maine, mentions an edition, Par., N. Desprez pour J. Petit, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, in 2 columns.

14915 — les cent nouvelles. SENsuyuët les cēt nouvelles cōtenant cent hystoires, ou nouveaulx cōptes plaisans a deviser en toutes bonnes compaignies par maniere de ioyeuseté. Lyon, Oliv. Arnoullet, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

With the signatures a-r, and 40 lines. The first 7 leaves contain the title and table of contents. This edition also is still sought after.

14916 — — Lyon, Oliv. Arnoullet, 1532. 4°. Gothic letter.

With lines running all across the page.

14917 — — Par., veuve de J. Trep-perel et J. Janot, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

14918 — les cent nouvelles nouvelles, contenant cent histoires nouveaux, qui sont moult plaisans à raconter en toutes bonnes compaignies. Col. (Amst.), Pt. Gaillard, 1701. 8°. 2 vols. with plates.

An edition greatly prized, the plates of which are after Romain van Hooghe. The plates are sometimes printed in the text, and are sometimes to be found on separate leaves. These last, according to Renouard and Brunet, are later impressions. The edition, Amst. 1732. 12°. 2 voll. with the same plates, is little sought after. Hays, 1733. 12°. 2 voll. is well printed. See also MOTTE-ROULLANT.

14919 NOUVELLISTE (le) du Parnasse, ou réflexions sur les ouvrages nouveaux (par Pt. Fr. Guyot des Par. 1735—43. 12°. 34 voll.—Jugemens sur quelques ouvrages nouveaux (par des Fontaines, de Mairault, Fréron et d'Estrées). Avignon (Par.), 1744—46. 12°. 11 voll.

These 3 journals, the first two of which were suppressed by command of the higher powers, may serve as an introduction to Fréron Année litt. (from 1754).

14921 NOVATIANUS. Opera quæ supersunt omnia, post Jac. Pamelii recensionem ad antiquiores editt. castigata et a multis mendis expurgata: illustrata etiam copiosissimis observatt. et notis. Stud. J. Jackson. Lond., Darwy et Browne, 1728. 8°.

The best edition. Jackson rejected several emendations which had been made in Lucii Mellierii Artemonii (Sm. Crellii) Initium evang. Joannis. T. I. Lond. 1726. 8°. On the other hand appeared, Artemonii Defensio emendationum in Novatiano factar. contra J. Jackson. Without place (Lond.) 1729. 8°.: wherewith compare Biblioth. raisonnée, IV. 285 etc.

The earlier edition by Ed. Welchman, Ox., th. Sheld., 1724. 8°. is carelessly done. Opera in Gallandi Bibl. PP. III. 287 etc.

14922 NOVELAS amorosas de los mejores ingenios de España. Zarag. 1649. 8°. Also, Barcelona, 1650. 8°.

Both editions are very incorrect. Best in Lope de Vega Obras, T. VIII. p. 1 sq. The first 4 only are by Lope, the remaining 4 are by unknown authors.

14923 NOVELAS escolhidas de diversos autores. Par. 1820. 18°. 2 voll. (5 fr.)

14924 NOVELLA di Ipolito (Buondelmonti) e Lionora (di Bardi).

Triviso, (Ger. di Flandria), 8 Nov. 1471. small 4°.

This very scarce edition is probably the first.

14925 — — without place or date. 4°. 12 leaves.

This edition appears to be more modern than the preceding, by its correct orthography. It begins without farther title, Nella magnifica e bellissima citta di Firenze etc.; and ends with the single word Finis. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy possessed a copy on vellum, which is quoted in his Catal. T. I. p. 543. No. 3595. under the title, Historiela amorosa fra Lionora di Bardi e Hipolito Bondalmonte di Firensa. The date 1471, added therein, was not to be found in the copy itself, according to Brunet. This copy (as well as another which Marolles saw) was bound up with Leo Bl. de Albertis De amore and In amoris remedio, both of 1471 (see above, No. 345); and in consequence Marolles also took these novels for a work of Albertis and for a typographical production of 1471.

14926 — historia Hipoliti. Mutinæ, Mch. Volmar, without date. 4°.

An edition hitherto wholly unknown. Panzer himself was quite unacquainted with the printer. 15 leaves with 24 lines and the signatures a and b. The first 2 lines of leaf 1<sup>a</sup> are, (n)ELA. MAGNIFICA | e bellissima Cita de Fiorenza. Leaf 15<sup>b</sup> line 23 and 24 has the colophon:

14927 — Hippolito e Lionora. Turino, Fr. de Silva, without date. 4°.

Probably printed between 1500 and 1516.

14928 — — Lond. 1813. 8°.

Only 50 copies printed. This edition forms the commencement of a collection of the rarest Italian novels, designed to be in several volumes. The articles HIPOLITO, No. 9770<sup>a</sup>, and HISTORIETTA, No. 9852, are to be erased.

14929 NOVELLA cioè copia d' un caso notabile intervenuto a un gran gentiluomo Genovese; cosa molto utile ad intender e di gran piacere etc. alli illustr. gentiluomo di Venezia M. Vincenzo Cancelliere da Pistoja astrologo. Ven., without date (16th century). 4°.

This novel is one and the same with the first in the Notti of Straparola. An impression lately made at Loudon is of the same size and mentions the same place of printing as the original edition. Also, Ven. 1558. 8°.

NOVELLA, see GRASSO.

NOVELLÆ, see JUSTINIANUS, No. 11089-95.

14930 NOVELLE. Le ciento novelle antike. Without place or date. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter (title, dedication, and table of contents), 31 numbered leaves, and 1 blank leaf, with the signatures A-I. At the end is simply FINIS. This very scarce edition (sold at Stanley's sale, London, in 1813, for 59l. 17s.) agrees both in type and text (even to trifling differences) with the following, but appears to be somewhat earlier. No copy of the 1st edition, which, according to testimony scarcely to be doubted, appeared, Fir., apud S. Jacobum de Ripotis, 1482 or 83 (Fossi Bibl. Magliab. T. III. præf. p. XXI.), is as yet known. On the other hand, another edition, Le ciento novelle antike, without place or date, 4°. 8 sheets with the signatures a-h, and printed in Italica, is only a later reprint of the edition of 1525, and is to be found in Sansovino's collection of novels, Ven. 1571. 4°. The author of these novels is unknown. Consult concerning them Novelliero Ital. T. I. Ven. 1754. 8°. pref. p. IX. sq. Manni in his edition (see below, No. 14934), T. I. p. 1-23.

14931 — le ciento novelle antike. Bol., nella casa di Girol. Benedetti, nel mese di Agosto, 1525. 4°.

A very scarce edition, superintended by C. Gualteruzzi, and cited by the academy della Crusca. 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 40 numbered leaves, 1 leaf, errori, and 1 blank leaf. It is somewhat incorrect, but stands at a high price (23l. 10s., Roxburgh, 14l. 14s. Marlborough).

14932 — libro di novelle, et di bel Parlar Gentile. Nel qual si contengono Cento Novelle altravolta mandate fuori da C. Gualteruzzi. Di Nuovo Ricorrette. Con aggiunta di quattro altre nel fine. Et con una dichiarazione d'alcune delle voci più antiche. Fir., i Giunti, 1572. 4°.

14 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank), 165 pages, and 1 leaf, colophon. This edition, superintended by Vinc. Borghini, and also cited by the academy della Crusca, deviates greatly from the preceding. 18 genuine novels of the earlier edition are here omitted, and in their place are put 19 spurious and later ones. The orthography also is modernized.

14933 — libro di novelle e di bel parlar gentile, nel qual si contengono . . . quattro altre nel fine (as in the preceding title). Fir. (Napoli), 1724. large 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter and 166 pages. A reprint of the preceding edition, with a partial use of that of 1525. The pseudonymous editor calls himself Fidalgo Partenio. Gamba praises this edition.—The 15 oldest novels are in the Novelliero Ital. T. I. Ven. 1754. 8°.

14934 — libro di novelle e di bel parlar gentile, contenente cento novelle antiche, servite di norma e di materia al decamerone di Gi. Boccaccio, mandate fuori già da C. Gualteruzzi, ora di nuovo con annotazioni di D. M. M. (Dm. Mar. Manni). Fir., Gius. Vanni, 1778-82. 8°. 2 voll.

In the text a reprint of 1572. Manni's preface and notes are valuable.

14935 — — Torino, Davico e Pico, 1802. 8°.

Superintended by Gi. Bt. Ghio with great care, and furnished with a very important preface concerning the authors and merit of these novels.

NOVELLE cento, see SANSOVINO. —galanti, see CASTI.—Concerning Italian novels in general, see BORROMEO.

14936 NOVELLE tre dell' ingratitude, dell' avarizia de' principi moderni, e dell' eloquenza. Without place or date (16th century). 8°.

Very scarce. The third of these novels is printed again in Novelliero Ital. T. IV. (Ven. 1754. 8°.) with the conjecture that Sperone Speroni might be the author of it. But Morelli (Cat. Pinelli, V. 17.) saw a copy in which there was written in the margin of the 2nd and 3rd novels by a contemporary hand, Dello eccellentissimo M. Marco da Mantova.

14937 NOVELLE, facetie, motti e burle di diversi autori, riformate e corrette. Siena, 1604. 8°. 160 pages.

14938 NOVELLE. Cento novelle amoroze de i signori accademici Incogniti, divise in tre parti. Ven., Guerigli, 1651. 4°. 3 parts in 1 vol.

14939 NOVELLE otto, stampate a spese de i signori Giac. conte di Clanbrassill, Tomm. Stanley e Wogan Browne. Lond., Giac. Edwards, 1790. 4°.

Only 25 copies were printed, 4 of which (not 2 only) were on bad vellum. One of these vellum copies 598 fr. M'Carthy.

14940 NOVELLE di alcuni autori Fiorentini. Londra (Livorno), Bancker, 1795. 8°.

4 copies on blue paper. This collection, very carefully superintended by Gaet. Poggiali, contains 26 novels.

14941 NOVELLE di autori Sanesi. Londra (Livorno), Bancker, 1796-98. 8°. 2 voll.

Also 4 copies on blue paper. Gaetano Poggiali was the editor.

14942 NOVELLE scelte rarissime stampate a spese di XL. amatori. Lond., Bensley, 1814. 8°. with woodcuts.

Of this collection, which contains 7 novels, only 50 copies were struck off (Renouard, III. 173). According to Brunet 2 vols. appeared.

14943 NOVELLE della repubbl. delle lettere. Ven. 1729-64. 4°. 36 voll.

14944 NOVELLE letterarie, public. in Firenze (da Gi. Lami). Fir. 1740-69. 4°. 30 voll. Novelle lett. continuate da Gius. Pelli etc. ib. 1770-95. 4°. 26 voll.

Probably more of both journals has appeared.

14945 NOVELLIERO italiano. Ven., Pasqualigo, 1754. 8°. 4 voll. Also on large paper.

This collection, superintended by Girol. Zannetti, contains 78 novels selected from the best authors.

14946 NOVELLIERO italiano. Londra (Livorno), Bancker, 1791-98. 8°. 26 voll.

Under this fictitious title, the edition of old Italian novelists superintended by Gaetano Poggiali at Livorno is set down in catalogues: it consists of the following works: Bandello, 9 voll.; Boccaccio, 4 voll.; Erixa, 1 vol.; Grassini detto Lasca, 2 voll.; Giovanni Fiorentino, 2 voll.; Mori, 1 vol.; Novelle di alcuni autori Fiorentini, 1 vol.; Novelli di autori Sanesi, 2 voll.;

Parabosco, 1 vol.; Sacchetti, 3 voll. See each of these articles.

Of this collection there are several copies on blue paper, and one on vellum.

14947 (NOVELLIERO). Raccolta de' novellieri italiani. Mil., Silvestri, 1817. large 16°. 26 voll. (75 livres de Milan).

Of this reprint of the preceding collection, enlarged with 2 inedited novels by Lasca, there are 4 copies on blue paper.

14948 NOVELLO, Triffon. Su i progressi della storia naturale considerata in tutte le sue disramazioni. Ven. 1809-11. 8°. 7 voll.

14953 NUMORUM antiquor. scriniis Bodlejanis reconditor. catalogus cum commentario (Fr. Wise). Ox., th. Sheld., 1750. fol. with 23 plates.

- 14954 NUMISMATA ærea maximi moduli primique XII. Augusti ex auro, dudum Romæ in cœnobio Carthusiæ, nunc Viennæ Austriæ in gaza Cæsarea. (Romæ), 1727. fol. with plates.

Father de Rochefort, procurator-general of the Carthusians, had collected this cabinet, and caused these plates to be engraved, in order to their being published. After his death, the brethren of his order sold both the cabinet and the plates to the emperor Charles VI. Bartoli, who was entrusted with the removal of both, without having farther permission, had some impressions made privately in Rome, which afterwards were most carefully suppressed by the proper Austrian authorities, as not only the plates, especially in the circumscriptions, were full of the grossest faults, but also among the very coins themselves more than 200 false ones were discovered. The work is consequently extremely scarce, although at the same time destitute of all value. Dehure, Bibliogr. No. 5828, mentions an edition, Viennæ, 1750. fol.

- 14955 NUMISMATA cimelii Cæsarei Regii Austriaci Vindobonensis, quorum rariora iconismis, cetera catalogis exhibita (op. et stud. Jos. de France, Valent. du Val, Erasmi Frœlich et Jos. Khell). Vindob. 1754-55. large fol. 2 vols. with 25 and 112 plates.

See also CATALOGUE, No. 3700, and ECKHEL.

- 14956 NUMISMATA selectiora in ære maximi moduli e museo Fr. de Camps. Concisis interpretationib. per (J. Foy) Vaillant illustrata. Par., Dezallier, 1694. 4°.

With 1 title-plate and 59 leaves of coins, well engraved by Ertinger (not Eslinger), whose name, together with the number of the page, is placed on each leaf in the right corner below. This edition is greatly to be distinguished from another with the same title, and the date, Par., Dezallier, 1695. 4°. which is a reprint prepared in Holland, and agreeing line for line. The latter is distinguished by a title printed in red and black (that of the edition of 1694 is black only), by the omission of some marginal notes of the preceding edition, but particularly by the plates, which are inferior, and not quite faithful copies. The number of the page is here on each leaf on the right corner above, and on the first plate (on no other) is P. Schoonebeck sc. The number of plates is the same. Brunet knew only the latter edition, and assigned very little value to it; but that of 1694 may well make pretensions to greater consideration, on account of the fine original plates.

- 14957 — selectiora numismata ærea maximi moduli (e museo Fr. de Camps, delineata et sculpta a Fr. Eslinger [Ertinger]. Par. 1696). 4°. Also on large paper.

Under this title Brunet specifies copies of those plates without any text, which probably contain more plates than the preceding edition. They afterwards appeared, likewise without any text, under the title, Antiqua Romanor. inperator. numismata ex ære maximo, olim ab abbate de Camps collecta, et quorum nonnulla J. Foy Vaillant explicationibus illustravit, nunc in cimelio ducis d'Estrées servata. Without place, 1737. very large 4°. Thereto may be joined, Dm. Sestini descriptio selectior. numismatum e museo olim abbatis de Camps, postea d'Estrées, tabulas æneas 226 continens. Berol. 1808. 4°.

- 14958 NUMISMATA antiqua in tres partes divisa. Collegit olim et æri incidi vivens curavit Thomas Pembrochiæ et Montis Gomerici Comes. Prelo demum mandabantur. (Lond.) 1746. 4°. 2 vols. Also on large paper in fol.

This work, scarce and greatly sought after, is very finely engraved, but has no text. Although the title only specifies 3 parts, yet it really contains 4. The 1st contains 1 title-plate and 38 plates, the 2nd a mint-knife and 98 plates, the 3rd 129 plates. Then follows, with a separate title, Numi anglici et scotici cum aliquot numismatibus recentioribus. Collegit Thomas Pembrochiæ et Montis Gomerici Comes, with 1 title and 31 plates. Before the 1st part there is in some copies an index prepared by Jos. Ames in English, which was only given as a present, and is therefore wanting in most copies.

14974 OCAMPO, Florian d'. Las quatro partes enteras de la cronica de España, que mando componer el Serenissimo rey don Alonso llamado el sabio. Uista y emendada mucha parte de su impression por Florian Docâpo. Zamora, Agst. de Paz y J. Picardo, 9 Dec. 1541. fol. Gothic letter.

427 numbered leaves in 2 columns. Of this extremely scarce chronicle, which must not be confounded with the following work, Ocampo was only the editor. Concerning it, consult Gasp. Ibañez Memorias histor. del rei D. Alonso el Sabio. Madr. 1777. small fol. p. 462 sq., where it is proved that Alphonsus himself was the author of it, and that Ocampo's edition is very faulty. Not less incorrect is the edition (with the chronicle of kings Sancho and Fernando), Valladol., Mig. de Herrera, 1554. fol. Concerning the historical worthlessness of the chronicle itself, see Ibañez l. c. p. 565 sq.

14975 — los quatro libros primeros de la cronica general de España. Zamora, J. Picardo a costa de Pedro Museti, 15 Dec. 1543. fol. Gothic letter.

The first edition, very scarce, but containing only 4 books. Corrected and enlarged, but still only 4 books, Zamora, without date (1545). 4°.

14976 — los cinco libros primeros de la coronica general de España. Medina del Campo, de Millis, 1553. fol.

This 3rd edition contains the 5th book for the first time.

14977 — — Alcala, Iñigues de Lequerica, 1578. fol.

222 numbered leaves and 8 unnumbered (Tabla). It does not contain more than the preceding edition, but is prized in Spain as the most correct. In the preface to the edition of 1792 there is another edition mentioned, Valladol., Sb. de Camas, 1604. fol.; but Brunet says that this is another chronicle. If it really bears the title given by him, Las quatro partes de la coron. de Esp., then it is an edition of No. 14974. As to the rest, Ocampo's chronicle only reaches to the 2nd Punic war, and the following article is a continuation of it.

14978 — Ambr. de MORALES coronica general de España (lib. I.—X.). Alcala, Lequerica, 1574. fol. Libro XI. y XII. ib., id., 1577. fol. Las antiguedades de las ciudades de España. ib., id., 1575. fol. Los cinco libros postremos (XIII.—XVII.). Cordova, Gbr. Ramos Bajarano, 1586. fol. All together 3 vols.

In vol. III. p. 332–350. there ought to be a Discurso de la verdadera descendencia del S. Domingo. Morale's work is concluded by Prudencio de Sandoval Historia de los reyes de Castilla y de Leon. Pamplona, 1615 (new title, 1634). fol. To which may also be joined, Salazar de Mendoza Origen de las dignidades seglares de Castilla y Leon. Madr. 1657. fol.

14979 — coronica general de España que recopilaba Florian d' Ocampo. T. I. II. (lib. 1–5). Madr., Cano, 1791. Coronica general de Esp. que continuaba Ambr. de Morales. T. III.—VIII. To which may be joined, Prud. de Sandoval Historia de los reyes de Castilla y de Leon. (T. XI. XII.) ib., id., 1792. 4°. 2 voll. Ambr. de Morales Opusculos. (T. XIII.—XV.) ib., id., 1793. 4°. 3 vols. Salazar de Mendoza Origen de las dignidades seglares. (T. XVI.) ib., id., 1794. 4°. Each vol. of this fine and very carefully superintended edition costs at Madrid 20 rs. in sheets.

14982 OCCO, Adf. Imperator. Romanor. numismata a Pompejo M. ad Heraclium ab Adf. Occone olim congesta. Augustor. iconibus, notis et additamentis jam illustrata a Fr. With 1 portrait, 1 title-plate, and coins printed in the text. At first, Antw., Plant., 1572. 4°. without any representations. The earlier edition of Mediobarbus, Mediol. 1683. fol. with plates, is not prized.

14983 OCELLUS Lucanus de universi natura, brevis et absoluta qua-litatum elementarium enarratio (gr.) Par., Cr. Neobarius, 1539. 4°.

The first edition, very scarce, and not made use of by the last editor. A Latin translation by Gu. Ch. Aurelius with Aristoteles De mundo, interpr. Gu. Budæo. Par. 1541. 12°.

14984 — de universi orbis natura (gr. lat.), J. Boscio Lonæo interprete atque commentatore. Lovan., Pt. de Colonia, 1554. 8°.

The text appears to be printed after the preceding.

14985 — de universi natura (gr. lat.) interprete L. Nogarola. Ven. 1559. 4°.

14986 — de universi natura (gr. lat.) interprete L. Nogarola. Ejusd. Nogarolæ annotatt. in Ocellum et epistola de viris illustribus Italis qui græce scripserunt. Ed. III. collatione exemplarium melior facta. (Hdlb.), Hi. Commelinus, 1596. 8°.

59 pages, 2 leaves, and 48 pages. The editor, Hi. Commelinus, made use of the Venetian and Lovanian editions, and added various readings. There appear to be copies with Geneva as the place of printing.

14987 — de universi natura (gr. lat.). Textum e græco in lat. transtulit collatisque multis exemplaribus, etiam MSS., emendavit, paraphrasi et commentario illustravit C. Emm. Vizzanius. Pars physica (et polit.) Bon., ex typ. Ferroniana, 1646. 4°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 348 pages, and 8 leaves. Between leaf 224 and 225 is a second title. A new recension from 3 MSS., but incorrectly printed, and the various readings are not to be depended upon. The translation and paraphrase are obscure and in bad Latin; but the commentary contains much that is good.

14988 — (the same title). Amst., Blæu, 1661. 4°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 319 pages, and 6 leaves. Better printed, but the printer has introduced confusion in the pointing out of the MSS. made use of.—Then in Th. Gale Opuscul. mythol. Cbr. 1671. 8°. and Amst. 1688. 8°.

14989 — Ocellus Lucanus en grec et en franç. avec des dissertations par le Marq. d'Argens. Berl., Haude, 1762. 8°. (1 d. 4 gr.)

His translation is extremely indifferent. — Ocellus Luc. Sur l'univers et Timée de Loeres, trad. par d'Argens. Par., Bastien, an 3 (1794). small 8°. is without the Greek text. A copy on vellum, 12 fr. 1amy.

14990 — Betrachtungen des Ocellus von Lucanien über die Welt (Greek and German). Aus dem Griech. in das Franz. übs. u. mit verschiedenen Abhandll. begleitet vom Marq. d'Argens. Aus dem Franz. ins Deutsche übs. Bresl., Horn, 1763. 8°. (16 gr.)

This translation at second hand is quite a failure. The animosities of the French original are omitted in the annotations.

14991 — de la nature de l'univers (en gr. et en fr.) avec la traduct. franç. et des remarques par Batteux. Par., Saillant, 1768. 8°.

Commelinus's edition forms the basis, with a hasty use of 2 Paris MSS. The school-edition, by H. W. Rotermund, Lps. 1795. 8°. (4 gr.) is of no value.

14992 — de rerum natura, gr. Ad fidem libror. MSS. et editor. recensuit, commentario perpetuo auxit et vindicare studuit A. F. Gu. Rudolphi. Lps., Schwickert, 1801. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.) Also on writing paper.

14993 — In German by Cp. Gf. Bardili in Fülleborn's Beitr. zur Gesch. der Philos. St. 10. S. 1-77. by J. G. Schulthess in Biblioth. der griech. Philos. Th. 3. Zür. 1781. 8°. On the nature of the universe, from Ocellus Lucanus, European magazine, 1782. p. 181, 262, 350, 429.

14994 OCHINO, Bernardino. Apologi, nelli quali si scuoprano li abusi, sciocheze, superstitioni, errori, idolatrie et impieta della sinagoga del Papa: et spetialmente de suoi preti, monaci et frati. Without place (Geneva), 1544. 8°.

60 very incorrectly paged leaves, with the signatures A 2-H 4, and with the printer's symbol, Pressa valentior. This very scarce piece contains only the 1st book of the apologies. There are copies which mention the place and printer (Geneva, Gerardo) in the title.

The places where Ochino's writings, which are chiefly undated, were printed, I have tried to determine after an accurate examination of the types and paper-marks. The earlier ones were printed at Geneva, by J. Girard, in the years 1542-44. The printer's symbol has the inscription Pressa valentior, the paper-mark is generally a wine-glass, and the types are sometimes Italics and sometimes Roman characters. The Dial. del purgatorio only, with its translations, 1555 and 56, was printed at Zurich by And. and J. Gesner. All his other writings issued from a Basle press, without any printer's symbol, and mostly without any paper-marks, sometimes in Italics (which are distinguished by the curved top of the l and by the g), and sometimes in Roman characters. According to Gesneri Bibl. ed. Fris. p. 115, it was Isingrin who printed the first 2 vols. of the Prediche, but in the Liber de corporis Christi praesentia (printed with the same Italics) and in the Dialogi XXX. (printed in Roman characters) Pt. Perna mentions himself as the printer. According also to Wundt's Magazin für die Gesch. der Pfalz, I. 118, Pt. Perna was involved in troubles on account of his printing Ochino's works at Basle, and for that reason took refuge at Heidelberg (although Schelhorn in his Ergötlichkeiten, III. 1189, doubts this). As to the rest, Perna himself was an Italian who had fled on account of religion, and this circumstance is in favour of his being the real printer.

14995 — des hochgelehrten vnd Gott-säligen mans Bn. Ochini von Senis, fünff Bücher siner Apologen. Durch Cp. Wirsung verdeutscht. Without place, 1559. large 4°. 5 parts in 1 vol.

Each book has its separate title. Whence he has taken the translation of the 4 remaining books, which are not in the original, he does not say. The dedication is dated 1556, and the place of printing was probably Augsburg. The 5th book is frequently wanting in the copies.

14996 — vier Boecken der Apologen: Beschreven int Italiaensch door Bn. Ochinum. Eertyts overgeset wt de Italiaensche inde Hoochduytsche sprake door Cp. Wirsingh, ende nu wt den Hoochduytsche in onse gemeyne nederduytsche tale door Ger. Suetonum. Dordr., Canin, 1607. 8°. 9 leaves and 366 pages.

14997 — il catechismo, ovvero institutione christiana, in forma di dialogo. Bas. 1561. 8°.

2 leaves of preliminary matter, and 313 pages. Probably printed by Perna, and with the same Italics as the Prediche.

14998 — dialogi VII. sacri, dove si contiene; nel I. Dell' innamorarsi di Dio. Nel II. Il modo di diventar felice etc. Ven., N. d'Aristotile detto il Zoppino, 1542. 8°. 55 leaves.

14999 — dialogi XXX. in duos libros divisi, quorum primus est de Messia, continetque dialogos XVIII. Secundus est cum de rebus variis, tum potissimum de trinitate. Bas., Pt. Perna, 1563. 8°. 2 vols. of 440 and 478 pages.

This Latin translation is by Sb. Castellio. They never appeared in Italian. The printer mentions himself in the last page. The 21st dialogue, on polygamy, was the occasion of Ochino's being deprived of his official employment at Zurich, and of his being banished the town. The Dialogo, which he in consequence wrote in his defence, was printed for the first time in Schelhorn's Ergötzlichkeiten, III. 2007-35, and the answer of the Zurich ministers thereto, ib. III. 2157-94.

15000 — a dialogue of polygamy, written originally in Italian: Rendered into English. Lond., Garfeild, 1657. 12°. 61 pages.

The translation is from the Latin, not from the Italian.—The cases of polygamy, concubinage, and divorce (transl. from Ochino). Lond., Payne, 1732. 12°.

15001 — dialogo del purgatorio. Without place, 1556. 8°.

3 leaves of preliminary matter, 130 pages, and 4 leaves, index and errata. Evidently printed by And. and J. Gesner at Zurich.

15002 — de purgatorio dialogus (lat. vertit Thadæus Dunus). Tig., ap. Gesneros, without date. 8°.

3 leaves, 115 pages, and 6 leaves. The postscript of the translation, p. 115, is dated 4 id. Dec. 1555, although the original first appeared in 1556.

15003 — dialogue touchant le purgatoire, trad. en français. Imprimé par Ant. Cercia, 1559. 8°. 128 pages.

15004 — Dialogus d. i. ein Gespräch von dem Fägfheur. . . . verteutsch. Zür., And. u. Jac. Gesner, 1555. 8°. 171 pages and 1 leaf.

15005 — disputa intorno alla presenza da corpo di Giesu Christo, nel sacramento della cena. Bas. 1561. 8°. 287 pages.—Prediche nominate laberinti del libero o uer (sic) seruo arbitrio. ib. without date. 8°. 3 leaves and 260 pages.

Both books belong together. The types are the same Italics as those used in the Prediche, and the printer was probably Perna. There are also copies of the second book with the following new title: Prediche del R. Padre Don Serafino da Piagensa, ditte laberinti etc. Pavia, without date. 8°. 3 leaves and 260 pages.

15006 — liber de corporis Christi præsentia in cœnæ sacramento. Cui adjunximus ejusd. authoris Labyrinthos de divina prænotione et libero s. servo hominis arbitrio. Omnia nunc prim. ex italico in lat. serm. translata. Bas., Perna, without date. 8°.

4 leaves, 301 pages, and 1 leaf, and then the Labyrinthi with a separate title (and consequently often found by itself). 2 leaves, 261 pages, and 1 leaf. Perna mentions himself in the title of the Labyrinthi. The types are the same Italics as in the preceding work.

15007 — epistola alli molto Magnifici Signori, li Signori di Balia della Citta di Siena. Geneva, 1 Nov. 1543. 8°. 12 leaves.

With the symbol Pressa valentior. The printer was probably J. Girard. This letter, together with that to Mutio, are also in the Prediche, T. II.

15008 — epistre aux magnifiques Seigneurs de Seine etc. Avec vne autre epistre à Mutio Justinopolitano. Translatées de la langue Italienne. Without place, 1544. 8°. 25 leaves.

In somewhat different characters, certainly, but with the same paper-mark (a wine-glass) as the preceding, and probably likewise printed at Geneva by J. Girard.

15009 — epistola Hieronymi Lucensis ad Bn. Ochinum, cum responsione ejusdem. Genev., J. Girardus, 1543. 8°.

15010 — expositione sopra la epistola di S. Paulo alli Romani. Without place, 1545. 8°.

282 pages, with the signatures A 2-R 5 and the printer's symbol, Pressa valentior. Probably printed at Geneva by J. Girard (so also Gesneri Bibl. ed. Fris. p. 115).—The Bodleian catalogue has Expositio epist. ad Rom., de ital. in lat. translata. AV., . . ., 8°. Gesner also, l. c., mentions a Latin translation by Sb. Castello.

15011 — Ausslegüg der Epistel Sant Pauls zun Römern. Augsp., Ph. Vlhart, 1546. 8°. 3 and 149 leaves.

15012 — expositione sopra la epistola di S. Paolo a i Galati. Without place, 1546. 8°.

15013 — Predigen vber die Epistel Pauli zu den Galatern, vorteutsch. Augsp., Val. Othmar, 1546. 4°. 98 leaves.

— labyrinthi, see DISPUTA.—Liber, see DISPUTA.

15014 — responsio ad Marcum Brixensem, abbatem ord. S. Bened. Without place, 1543. 8°.

24 leaves (the last 2 blank). With the printer's symbol, Pressa valentior (therefore printed at Geneva) and the same paper-mark, as the Sermones (No. 15019 and 20).

15015 — responsio ad Mutium Justinopolitanum. Without place, 1543. 8°.

Probably also printed at Geneva.

It is a 2nd edition of part 1, in the same type (but much neater), and with the same signatures. The first 4 lines in the title are in larger character than in the preceding. This 2nd edition of the Prediche is indeed less scarce than the Geneva edition, but it is far more complete. 15045 ODORICO. Elogio storico delle gesta del b. Odorico con la storia da lui dettata de' suoi viaggi Asiatici illustrata (da Gius. Venni). Ven., Zatta, 1761. 4°. with 2 plates.

The best information respecting Odorico's travels is in the Nuova raccolta d'opusc. scientif. e filol. T. 25. No. 9. p. 128 sq. and T. 29. No. 9. p. 27 sq. The first sketch Odorico wrote in Italian in 1318, which is in the Riccardi library at Florence. In the year 1330 Gugl. de Solagna composed a detailed Latin description of this journey, as it was imparted to him by Odorico by word of mouth. This was soon disseminated in numerous copies, which bore different titles, and had various differences one with another. Only those passages which relate to any religious point are printed (very incorrectly) in the Acta SS. Jan. T. I. p. 986-92. The Latin original appeared complete for the first time in the above work. This edition is from 2 MSS. and very carefully superintended.

There are also 3 Italian translations. Pontico Virunio published one at Pesaro in 1513 (Morelli Cod. volg. Naniani, p. 90), a second, in which however much is omitted, is given by Ramusio in his collection (Ven. 1558. fol.), T. II. p. 245-54, and a MS. of the third is described in Morelli Codici volg. Naniani, p. 90. A French translation of the year 1531, by J. le Long, is in MS. in the Royal library at Paris.—Consult also *Vita e viaggi del b. Odorico da Udine descritti da Basilio Asquini. Of this extremely rare book, insufficiently described by Debure, No. 2969; M. de Solenne at Paris possesses the only known copy (reclaimed from Vallière's library by the library of St. Geneviève, and sold at a Brussels sale in 1819 for 350 fr.). It consists of 3 sections: the 1st of 96 leaves with the signatures A-P, the 2nd of 108 leaves with the signatures aa-tt (at the end of the same 21 leaves, errata), and the 3rd (Sermon de Maillard) of 12 leaves with the signatures aaa and bbb. At the end of the 1st section (leaf P 5) is a concluding verse, which gives the year 1503 (not 1513 as Goujet Bibl. fr. XI. 28, would have it).

15109 OLIZAROVIVS, Aaron Alex. De politica hominum societate libri III. Dantisci, Förster, 1651. 4°.

The first Polish treatise on the law of nature, written in Latin, which, according to the Hall. Lit. Zeit. 1813, B. I. p. 832, stands between Grotius and Puffendorf; but according to the judgment of the Wiener Lit. Zeit. 1813, p. 1411, is nothing more than the most confused mixture of moral-political and legal inquiries (but the latter only occasional and chiefly positive), about Domus, Civitas, and Respublica; the author of which was not at all acquainted with Grotius.

The first edition of the Greek text. 19 and 160 pages; then the notes (with a separate title), 4 leaves of preliminary matter and 96 pages.

15116 — strategicus . . . illustravit (as in the preceding title). Acc. seorsim in eundem Onosandrum Jani Gruteri uberior commentarius. Item Æmilii Porti breves observatt. Ex offic. Commeliniana, 1600. 4°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter and 95 pages. Then Rigaltius's notes (with a separate title), 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 67 pages, and 4 leaves of index. Next Gruteri Discursus (with a separate title of 1604), 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 182 pages, and 1 leaf. Gruter's notes are wanting in most copies, because they were delivered afterwards. The text of this edition is only a reprint of that given by Rigaltius.

15117 — strategicus s. de imperatoris institutione. Acc. Urbici inventum, gr. ac lat. Interprete N. Rigaltio, cujus item adjiciuntur notæ; ut item Jani Gruteri discursus varii. In bibliopolio Commeliniano, 1604. 4°.

The text is that of Rigaltius, and the various readings are only those already given by him. Copies are often met with in which Onosander is found by itself, and which then are without a principal title and date.

15119 — strategicus s. de imperatoris institutione liber (gr.), ad codd. MSS. fidem expressus et ex antiquor. tacticor. collatione notis perpetuis criticis emendatus, nec non figuris æri incis. illustratus. Acc. duo indices una cum versione gall. baronis de Zurlauben. Cura et stud. N. Schwebelii. Nrb., Raspe (1761). fol. with plates (3 d.). Also on writing paper.

Schwebelius made use of 3 MSS. and of Joa. Scaliger's and Is. Vossius's unprinted corrections, but he did not have the notes of Rigaltius printed entire.

15120 — de optimo interprete atque adeo de re militari (lat.), Nicolao Saguntino interprete. Bas. 1541, or 58, or 70. 8°.

Previously with Vegetius etc. Romæ, Silber, 1494. 4°. The translation is from a good MS., but is not successful.

15121 — de re militari commentarius, in lat. serm. conversus a Jo. Camerario, et nunc prim. a filiis editus. Præterea Fr. Petrarchæ (epistola) de officio et virtutibus imperatoris. Nrb., Kaufmann, 1595. 8°.

20 leaves of preliminary matter, 150 pages, and 1 leaf. Translated from a very defective MS., but very happily.

12 leaves of preliminary matter and 203 numbered leaves.

15124 — Onosandro Platonico dell' ottimo capitano generale, et del suo ufficio. Trad. di greco in lingua volg. italiana per Fabio Cotta. Ven., Giolito, 1546. 4°. Also, ib., id., 1548. 8°.

If this translation were really from the Greek, it must have been from a MS.

15125 — l'art militaire d'Onosander (sic), mis en langue franç. et illustré d'annotations par Blaise de Vigenère. Par., Abel Langellier, 1605. 4°. — Le général d'armée par Onosander. Ouvrage trad. du grec par le baron de Zurlauben. Par. 1757. fol.

15126 — Unterricht eines Feldherrn (deutsch) mit Anmm. von Alb. H. Baumgärtner. Mannheim, Schwan, 1786. 4°. (1 d.)

tion with Frontinus von den guten Rätthen u. ritterlichen anschlegen der Hauptleut. Meynts, 1532. fol.

15127 — Onosandro Platónico of the generall captaine and of his office: transl. out of Greke into Italian by Fabio Cotta, and out of Italian into Englysh by Pt. Whytehorne. Lond., W. Seres, 1563. 8°.

84 unnumbered leaves in 2 columns, and with the signatures A–X. This very scarce book, worthy of a closer investigation, is mentioned neither in Panzer nor in Vogelii Biblioth. Austriaca. Vorsterman printed subsequently to 1511.

15129 OPERA nova contemplativa per ogni fedel Cristiano, la quale tratta delle figure del testamento vecchio: le quali figure sono verificate nel testamento nuovo: con le sue expositioni etc. Nuovamente stampata. Ven., Gi. And. Vavasore, without date (1510–12). 4°.

This Italian Biblia pauperum contains 120 representations engraved in wood, and complete copies are of the greatest rarity. A full description of it is in Cicognara's Catal. I. 339.

15130 OPERA nova di laude, facta e composta da più persone spirituali. Ven., G. Rusconi, 1512. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter and 240 pages (a plate before p. 1). The first collection of his poems, and very scarce, but without any arrangement. The editor, who subscribes himself D. Z. G. J., was J. W. Zinkgref. The poems of Opitz end p. 104. Then follow, p. 105–117, Aristarchus de contemptu linguae teuton.; p. 118–142, Heinsii Lobgesang auf J. C.; p. 143–160, his Hymnus Bacchi; p. 161–224, poems of other German poets (Zinkgref, Melissus, Weckherlin, Csp. Kirchner, etc.); and p. 225 etc. Opitz's Zlatna.

15132 — acht Bücher Deutscher Poematum durch Ihn selber herausgegeben, auch also vermehret vnd vbersehen, das die vorigen darmitte nicht zu uergleichen sindt. Bresl., D. Müller, 1625. 4°.

53 leaves of preliminary matter and 244 pages. The first edition, superintended by Opitz himself, and consequently important in a critical point of view. But instead of the 8 books mentioned in the title, the Dresden copy, at least, only contains 5. (post. Wälder.).

15133 — deutscher Poematum 1. u. 2. Theil: zum andernmal vermehrt vnd vbersehen herauss gegeben. Bresl., D. Müller, 1629. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Properly the 4th edition.

14134 — deutsche Poemata, auff's new übersehen vnd vermehret. Dantzic, Hünefeldt, 1641. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter and 952 pages. The 6th edition, which seems to have something peculiar to itself, and to contain pieces which are even wanting in later editions.

15135 — weltliche Poemata zum 4tenmal vermehret vnd vbersehen herhaus (sic) geben. Th. I. II. Ff. a., M., Götze (1644). 8°. Florilegium varior. epigrammatum. ib., id., 1644. 8°. 2 voll.

The 7th edition, and praised by Breit-ger as particularly good. It may be completed by the addition of Geistl. Poemata. (Bresl.), D. Müller's Erben. 1638. 8°. 408 pages.

- 15136 — opera poetica. Das ist Geistliche vnd Weltliche Poemata. Vom Autore selbst zum letzten vbersehen vnd verbessert. Amst., J. Jansson, 1646. 12°. 3 voll.

This 8th edition is scarce and neat, but faulty. T. I. 12 leaves of preliminary matter and 394 pages. T. II. 336 pages. T. III. 323 pages. The 2nd and 3rd vols. have the date of 1645.

- 15137 — opera geist - u. weltlicher Gedichte, nebst beygefügtten vielen andern Tractaten sowohl deutsch als lateinisch. Bresl., Fellgiebel, without date (1690). 8°. 2 voll.

This 10th edition is the most complete, but at the same time the most faulty. Ff. u. Lpz. 1724. 8°. is only a new title. It contains the following divisions, with separate titles and pagination: Gedichte T. 1-3, Psalmen Davids, Prosodia germanica.

- 15138 — Gedichte. Von J. J(ac.) B(odmer) u. J. J(ac.) B(reitinger) besorget. 1. Th. Zür., Orell, 1745. large 8°.

The preceding edition forms the basis of this excellent critical edition, unhappily unfinished, with the various readings of all the others. The Aristarchus as well as the Lobgesang auf den heil. Anno, which are to be found therein, are wanting in the following edition.

- 15139 — deutsche Gedichte, von neuem übersehen, ausgebessert, mit Anmerk. erläutert von Dn. W. Triller. Ff. a. M., Varrentrapp, 1746. large 8°. 4 vols. with plates.

Incomplete, uncritical, with arbitrary alterations in the text, and with insipid annotations. Opitz's book on German poetry is prefixed.

The original edition of Opitz's single poems cannot be noticed here, save only on account of its rarity: Mt. Opitz dansktalende Judith, udsat af Mogens Skoel. Kbhvn. 1666. 4°.

- 15140 OPPENORD, Gilles Marie. Son œuvre contenant différens fragmens d'architecture etc. Without place or date (about 1750). very large fol.

An indifferent collection of 120 plates.

- 15141 OPPIANUS. De natura seu venatione piscium libri V. (gr.) Flor., Ph. Junta, 1515. 8°.

64 leaves with the signatures a-h. The first edition of this poem, very scarce and very correct. The editor was M. Musurus.

- 15142 — de piscibus libri V. Ejusd. de venatione libri IV. Oppiani de piscibus Lr. Lippio interprete libri V. Ven., Aldus et And. Socer, m. Dec. 1517. 8°.

166 numbered leaves (of which 103 and 104 are blank) and 2 unnumbered leaves, the colophon an danchor. The book De piscibus is a very faulty reprint of the Juntine edition, but De venatione is here printed for the first time from a MS. (although likewise very faulty). Superintended by Fr. Asulanus.

- 15143 — de venatione libri IV. (gr., cura J. Bodini). Par., Vascosanus, 1549. 4°. 38 leaves.—De venatione libri IV. (lat.) J. Bodino interprete. His accessit commentarius varius et multiplex ejusd. interpretis. Lutet., Vascosanus, 1555. 4°. 4 leaves of preliminary matter and 110 numbered leaves.

This finely printed text (of which there is a copy at Dresden with numerous MS. annotations by Cr. Ritterhusius) is only a reprint of the Aldine; but Bodinus has often corrected the text in the commentary, which contains much that is good. Turnebus accuses him of having stolen many of his corrections from him. Bodinus's translation was reprinted, Lutet., F. Morellus, 1598. 4°.

- 15144 — de piscatu libri V. De venatione libri IV. (gr.) Par., Adr. Turnebus, 1555. 4°. 2 leaves of preliminary matter, 207 pages, and 4 leaves.—De piscatu libri V. (lat.) Lr. Lippio interprete. De venatione libri IV. (lat.) ita conversi (ab Adr. Turnebo), ut singula verba singulis respondeant. Par., Gu. Morelius, 1555. 4°. 3 leaves of preliminary matter and 202 pages.

Neatly printed, and a new recension, partly from a good MS. and partly from conjecture, with the various readings of the Juntine and Aldine editions. But Turnebus has depended too much upon his MS., and in the book De piscatu he has followed the Aldine more than the Juntine.—Oppiani de piscib. tractatus, scholiis G. Pictorii illustratus is in G. Pictorii

Medicinae tam simplices quam compositae ad omnes ferme corporis hum. affectus. Bas., H. Petri, 1560. 8°.

15145 — de venatione lib. IV. De piscatu lib. V. (gr.) cum interpret. lat., commentariis et indice rer., confectis stud. et op. Cr. Rittershusii, qui et recensuit hos libros denuo et Adr. Turnebi edit. Paris. cum tribus MSS. Palatinis contulit: inde et var. lect. et scholia græca excerpsit. LB., Fr. Rappheleugius, 1597. 8°.

44 leaves of preliminary matter; 376 pages, text; 20 leaves and 344 pages, commentary; 164 pages, scholia; 2 leaves, postscript and errata. (The scholia are also sometimes bound up immediately after the text.) A new recension after 3 MSS., sometimes too hasty, with a new translation, and a good commentary, but too little explanatory of the subject matter. A copy of this edition, considerably enlarged by him for the purpose of a new edition, which in 1610 he still designed to publish, was found in E. Sal. Cyprian's Bibl. (Lps. 1733. 8°.) p. 881. It is his text in Lectii Corpus poet. gr.

15146 — de venatione libri IV. De piscatione libri V. cum paraphrasi græca libror. de aucupio, gr. lat. Curav. J. Glo. Schneider. Arg., König, 1776. large 8°.

6 copies on Dutch paper, and 3 on large Dutch paper in 4°. A copy of the Greek text of this edition on vellum in 4°. 200 fr. at d'Ourches's sale (Paris, 1811). A new recension from MSS. and conjecture. Additions in Schneideri Analect. crit. Fasc. I. Ff. a. O. 1777. 8°. p. 31 etc.

15147 — poemata de venatione et piscatione (gr.) cum interpr. lat. et scholiis. Acc. Eutechnii paraphrasis ἱεστρικῶν et Marcelli Sidetæ fragmentum de piscibus. T. I. Cynegetica, ad 4 MSS. codd. fid. recensuit et suis auxit animadvv. Jac. N. Belin de Ballu. Arg., bibliopol. acad., 1786. 8°. (7 fr., on large Dutch paper in 4°. 25 fr.)

Of the 2nd part, or the poem De piscatu, only 40 pages of the Greek text were printed, and which are only to be found in a very few copies. Belin here reinstates the old readings in opposition to Schneider, and often receives back into the text evident errors of the transcriber, and conjectures supported by no MS.

15148 — cynegetica et halieutica (gr.) ad fid. libror. scriptor. emendav. J. Glo. Schneider. Acc. versiones latinæ metrica (D. Peiferi) et prosaica, plurima anecdota et index græcitatis. (T. I.) Lps., Weigel, 1813. 8°. (2 d., on writing paper 2 d. 16 gr., on vellum paper 4 d.)

A new revision of his earlier recension. This 1st part contains the Greek text, Peifer's metrical version, critical annotations, and various readings. Observations on this edition in Amad. Peyron Notitia libror. a Valperga bibl. Taurin. donator. Lps. 1820. 4°. p. 78 sq.

15149 — de piscatu libri V. (lat.) Lr. Lippio interprete. In Colle, Gallus Bonus, 12 Sept. 1478. 4°. Gothic letter.

64 leaves, with the signatures a 3-h 3, and 32 lines. The first edition of this translation, and very scarce, since an earlier edition, ib., id., 1471, is extremely suspected. Leaf 1a line 1 is, Uita Oppiani Laurentii Lippi Collēsis ad ma. Oppian ends h 2 a, and on the reverse follow, Distica (sic) Lr. Lippii ad... Lr. Medicem. The colophon is leaf 64<sup>a</sup>.

15150 — alieuticon s. de piscibus libri V. e græco traducti (a Lr. Lippio). Post Oppianum sequuntur disticha ultra centum authore Lr. Lippio. Plinii natur. historię libri duo (IX. et XXXII.). P. Jovii de piscibus liber unus. Hos authores J. Cæsarius recognov., castigav. et scholiis explanav. Arg., Jac. Cammerlander, 1534. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 152 numbered leaves.

15151 — libri de venatione IV. Lat. carmine redditi a Mch. Piccarto. Ambergæ, Schönfeld, 1604. 8°.

15152 — della pesca e della caccia, trad. (in versi sciolti) dal greco e illustrato con varie annotazioni da Ant. Mar. Salvini. Fir., Tartini e Franchi, 1728. 8°.

15155 — halieuticks of the nature of fishes and fishing of the ancients. Translat. from the Greek (into Engl. verse, by Diaper and J. Jones). Oxf., th. Sheld., 1722. 8°. —The first book of Oppian's cynegeticks, or poem of hunting, transl. into Engl. verse by J. Mawer. Lond., Osborne, 1736. 8°.

15156 — Jani Rutgersii glossarium græcum (vetus in Oppianum), nunc penitus restitutum, vindicat. atque illustr. a F. Strunzio. Witt., Zimmermann, 1719. 8°. P. Jac. Förtsch de Oppiano. Lps. 1749. 4°. Dn. Peuceri progr. Oppianus SS. literas illustrans. Isenaci, 1745. fol.

15158 — Fortunii Liceti encyclopædia ad aram Pythiam Publilii Optatiani Porphyrii. Patav., Crivellarius, 1630. 4°.

Best in Wernsdorffi Poet. lat. min. II. 363.

15159 OPTATUS Milevitanus. Delibatio Africanæ historiæ ecclesiasticæ s. Optati libri VII. de schismate Donatistar. Victoris Utiensis libri III. de persecutione Vandolica in Africa. Cum annotatt. ex Fr. Balduini commentariis rerum ecclesiasticar. Par., Fremy (other copies Sonnus), 1569. 8°.

Balduinus here worked up afresh his very scarce earlier edition, Par. 1563. 8°. (of which there is a reprint, Ex bibliopol. Commelin. 1592. 8°.) J. Cochlaeus first edited Optatus in Cr. Brunus De hæreticis in genere. Mog. 1549. fol.

15160 — de schismate Donatistar. libri VII. multo quam antehac emendatiores ac emendationum ac notar. libello illustriores. LB., Patius, 1613. 8°.

The text of the edition of 1599, the 1st recension of Balduinus, with the various readings of his 2nd recension, and some corrections by Csp. Barth.

15161 — opera cum notis et obs. Gbr. Albaspinæi. Acc. ejusd. de veteribus ccelesiæ ritibus observationum libri II. etc. Par., Sonnius, 1631. fol.

The text of the 2nd recension of Balduinus. Very incorrectly printed, and as clumsily furnished.

15162 — de schismate Donatistar. libri VII. In eosd. notæ et emendatt. Merici Casauboni. Lond., Legat, 1631. 8°.

The same text, with short but excellent notes. His corrections are only from conjecture.

15163 — opera cum obs. et notis integris Gbr. Albaspinæi, Fr. Balduini, Csp. Barthii, Mer. Casauboni etc. Ph. Priorius annotatt. et præfatt. adjecit. Acc. Facundi pro tribus capitulis concilii Calched. libri XII. cum annotatt. Jac. Sirmondi et ejus Facundi opuscula. Adjectæ sunt Gbr. Albaspinæi obs. ecclesiast. cum aliis ejusd. opp. Par., Dezallier, 1679. fol.

The text is printed from the edition of 1613, and the intrinsic value of the edition is small. Previously, Par., Dupuis, 1676. fol. (also on large paper).

15164 — libri VII. de schismate Donatistar. ad MSS. codd. et vett. editt. collati et emendati, quib. ac-cessere historia Donatistar. una cum monumentis ad eam spectantibus, nec non geographia episcopalis Africae; op. et stud. L. Ellies du Pin. Lut. Par., Pralard, 1700. fol.

A new and good recension after 5 MSS., with the notes of all the earlier editors, which follow after the text in this edition, but are placed immediately underneath the text in the reprint, Antw. 1702. fol. His text, with some new critical notes, is in Gallandi Bibl. PP. V. 461-675. A small edition by Fr. Oberthür, Wirceburgi, 1790 91. 8°. 2 voll.—L'histoire du schisme, blasphemes, erreurs etc. des Donations, écrite en lat. par Optat, mise en langue franç. par Pt. Viel. Par., Morel, 1564. 8°.

15165 OPUS eximium de vera differentia regiae potestatis et ecclesiasticae, et quæ sit ipsa veritas ac virtus utriusque. Lond., Berthelet, 1534. small 4°.

Lord Spencer possesses a copy on vellum (previously in the Harleian library, and sold at Towneley's sale in 1814 for 21l. 10s.). Brunet saw a second copy at a Paris sale. The work is attributed to Henry VIII. king of England.

15166 OPUSCOLI di autori Siciliani. T. I. Catania, 1758. T. II—XX. Palermo, 1759-78. 4°. 20 voll.

An interesting collection of essays and small pieces on all scientific subjects. Salvad. Mar. di Blasi's bibliographical treatises therein are very useful for bibliographers. The list of modern books that have appeared in Sicily, which is appended to that work, is very serviceable. In the dedications of each part there are good general notices respecting celebrated Italian families. A continuation of less importance is, Nuova raccolta di opusc. di autori Sicil. in 9 vols.

15167 OPUSCOLI scientifici e letterari, ed estratti d'opere interessanti. Fir., Daddi, 1807-18. 8°. 22 voll.

Going on in the Nuova collezione di opuscoli e notizie di scienze, lettere ed arti. Badia Fiesolana, 1820 etc. 8°. with plates (1 vol. annually in 5 numbers, 20 paoli), conducted by Fr. Inghirami.

15170 ORATIO dominica πολυγλωττος, plus centum linguis, versionibus aut characteribus reddita et expressa. Editio novissima specimenibus variis quam priores comitator (ed. B. Mottus). Lond. 1700. small 4°. 76 pages.

A reprint of the collection by LÜDEKEN (see above). Some of the worse formule are exchanged for better, and 11 new ones are added. But CHAMBERLAYNE's collection (see above) is better.—See also MARCEL.

15171 ORATIO dominica in CLV. linguas versa et exoticis characteribus plerumque expressa. Parmæ, Bodoni, 1806. fol. 248 pages.

The entire impression of this splendid work was purchased by the duke de Leuchtenburg (viceroy of Italy) and never came into the market. There are copies on vellum paper, and only 2 on French vellum paper.

ORATIO, see ANONYMI.

15172 ORATIONES claror. hominum, vel honoris officique causa ad principes, vel in funere de virtutibus eor. habitæ. In acad. Veneta, 1559. 4°.

This edition alone is of any value. Col. 1560. 8°. Par. 1577. 8°. are not sought after.

15173 (ORATORES Græci). Orationes horum rhetorum. Æschinis. Lysiae. Alcidasantis. Antisthenis. Demadis. Andocidis. Isæi. Dinarchi. Antiphontis. Lycurgi. Gorgiæ. Lebonactis. Herodis. Item Æschinis uita. Lysiae uita (gr.) Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Apr. 1513. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

2 leaves of preliminary matter, p. 3-197

(between p. 14 and 15 in some copies there is a blank leaf with the notice, Hoc folium conglutinato libro abscindendum, ne sit tibi inter legendum impedimento, nihil enim deest), 1 blank leaf, and 162 pages (the latter with a separate title, Orationes infrascriptor. rhetorum etc.). The Isocrates of 1513 (see above, No. 10580) forms the 3rd part, being indeed an entire whole of itself, without which however the above collection is incomplete, as Alcidas is only to be found with it. As to the rest, this edition is very incorrect according to Stephens's judgment, although it stands at a high price.

- 15174 — oratorum veterum orationes, Æschinis, Lysiae, Andocidis, Isæi, Dinarchi, Antiphontis, Lycurgi, Herodis et aliorum (gr.). Cum interpretatione lat. quarundam. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1575. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 213, 191, and 178 pages. A new recension (in the Æschines and Lysias from MSS.), and finely printed. To which may be joined CONCIONES (see above, No. 5097).

- 15175 — oratorum Græciæ præstantissimorum, Antiphontis, Andocidis et Isæi, orationes XXX., interprete Alph. Miniato. Nunc primum gr. et lat. editæ. Both parts are usually bound up in 1 vol. To which may also be joined, Lysias Oratt. ib., id., 1615. 8°. (see LYSIAS above).

- 15176 — oratorum græcorum quæ supersunt monumenta ingenii, e bonis libris a se emendata, notis criticis, commentariis integris Hi. Wolfii, J. Tayloris, Marklandi, aliorum et suis, indicibus denique instruxit J. Jac. Reiske. Lps., Sommer, 1770–75. 8°. 12 voll. Also on writing paper.

This greatly prized edition, in which nevertheless Isocrates does not occur, is already tolerably scarce, and is daily rising in price (30 d. at first). Copies on writing-paper are still more scarce. Probably the oldest edition of this dietetic treatise, written for Rdf. count of Hohenberg, which in this edition consists only of 3 books, and must not be confounded with another German Regimen sanitatis, which contains a translation of the Schola Salern.

15184 — hie nach volgt ein nūczlich regimēt, wer sich darnach haltet, der mag sein leben lang in gesuntheit behalten.—At the end: Das nuczlich buch vō ordnūg d' gesuntheit hatt getruckt vñ volēdet. Hanns Bāmler zu Augspurg, 1472. fol. 50 leaves.

A copy on vellum (without any statement of the size) is mentioned in Zaccaria Excursus literarii, I. 109. This production, not noticed in Panzer, may be also the first book known to be printed by Scotus, who was hitherto thought to have only been printing since 1480.

This important collection reaches only to March 1473. Copies without the 14th vol., which is very hard to be procured by itself, lose more than a third of their value. T. I. was superintended by Eus. de Laurière, T. II–VIII. by Denis Fr. Secousse, T. IX. by Villevault, T. X–XIII. by Brequigny and Villevault, T. XIV. by Brequigny alone, T. XV–XVII. by Pastoret.

Only 3 copies are known; 2 complete, in the British Museum and in the Bodleian, and 1 defective copy in the possession of Lord Spencer. The types are those of Caxton's Chronicle of 1480. The piece is a translation of the Ordene de chevalerie (see BARBAZAN, above) and not of the preceding.

130 leaves (the first 7 of which are a Registrum pro capitulis totius libri inquirendis) with 35 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition, faithfully printed from a very good MS., and in Havercamp's judgment the best of the ancient editions of Orosius.

15242—historiæ castigatæ per Æneam Vulpem. (Vicentiæ), Hm. (Levilapis s. Lichtenstein) de Colonia, without date (about 1475). fol.

100 leaves with 39 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1a is blank; in leaf 1b is a notice, printed in small capitals (Scias velim etc.), of 16 lines; leaf 2a begins the text, and leaf 100a has a colophon in 12 Latin verses (Ut ipse titulus etc.), in the 6th-8th of which the name of the printer is mentioned. This edition contains a text very carelessly and arbitrarily superintended.

Other copies of the same press with the same colophon mention in the verses 6-8 Leonardus (Achates) de Basilea instead of the above Hermann as printer. They probably printed the book at their joint expense, and each placed his own name in his portion of the copies. The copies with Leonard's name are the more scarce.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 346 numbered, and 5 unnumbered leaves. A new, but often too bold, recension from MSS., and from comparison with other authors. The annotations are both critical and exegetical.

There are no copies on large paper (see Renouard Catal. IV. 31), although sometimes such are mentioned (Cat. Solger. II. 222). The most recent impression of the works of Orosius in Gallandi Bibl. PP. IX. 23 sq.

15257 — P. Orosio tradotto di lat. in volgare per Gi. Guerini da Lanciza novamente stampato.—At the end, P. Alex. Pag. Benacenses. F. Bena. V. V. (Toscolano, Aless. Paganino), without date. 8°.

The translator was not Lr. du Premier-fait, but probably Cl. Seyssel.—Also, Par., Vêrard, 1509. fol. Gothic letter. Par., Mch. le Noir, 1515. fol. Gothic letter. Par., Ph. le Noir, 1526. fol. Gothic letter.

Scarce. An edition, ib., id., 1529. 4°. is only a typographical error. Merely a reprint of the editio princeps in the text. Cribellus's translation, made from a very good MS. is also with Valerius Flaccus Aldi 1523, and Burmanni 1724.—A new recension, but without MSS. in H. Stephani Poet. gr. 1566.

4 leaves, table of contents, and 80 leaves with 39 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition. The date is in leaf 4<sup>b</sup> of the table of contents, and as these 4 leaves are sometimes wanting, it consequently appears as if there were an undated edition, whereas such an edition is nothing else than an imperfect copy of that of 1477. Also, Augsp., Sorg, 1479 or 82. fol. ib., id., 1488. 4°. Also under the title, Ein Artzneybuch von allen geprästen der menschen. Augsp., Schobsser, 1490. 4°.

A copy on vellum in the King's private library at Stuttgart.

15289 — ortulus anime cum orationibus aliquibus superadditis, que in prioribus libris non habentur. Arg., J. Grüninger, pridie kal. Febr. 1500. 8°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

This edition contains very unseemly representations, the most offensive of which, leaf 119, represents St. Ursula, together with some of the 11,000 virgins, quite naked, and the lustful glance of a man fixed upon them.

15290 — ortulus anime. Par. 1538. 12°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

A copy on vellum with illuminated woodcuts (but without a title) in the Royal library at Munich. The Latin editions, which appeared at Nrb., Peypus, 1518, 19, and 20. 8°. have woodcuts by Springinskee and Erh. Schön; consult Dibdin Decam. I. 57 etc.

Concerning the Latin and German editions of this book of prayers, which are all more or less interesting on account of their woodcuts, see Heller's Leben Cranach's, p. 357-364, where however the Latin edition, Arg., Weltinger, 1503. small 8°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts, is not noticed. A book with a similar title, see above, JARDIN de dévotion.

15291 — hortulus anime, zu Tewtsch Selēwurtzgertlein genāt. mit vil schönen gebeten vñ figuren. Nrb., F. Peypus, 8 Mai 1518. 8°. with woodcuts.

A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Copenhagen (probably the same that formerly occurred in Bibl. Schönberg. Amst. 1745. 8°. T. II. p. 14. No. 189). The first known edition of this translation is Strb., Grüniger, 1503. 8°. Nrb., Peypus, 1519. 8°. is furnished with 57 woodcuts by Springinskee and Schön. A new modification, according to the protestant doctrines, is Hortulus Animæ. Lustgarten der Seelen. Witt., Rhaw, 1547. 4°. with 53 woodcuts after Cranach's designs. ib., Rhaw Erben, 1550. 4°. Ff. a. M., Gülfferich, 1548. 8°. with other woodcuts. In low German, Ortulus Anime to dude. Lypsick, Cr. Kacheloffen, 1516. 12°.

A book quite different from this, and treating of the truth of the Christian religion, is Der Seelen Würtzgart. Ulm, Dinckmut, 1483. 4°. with woodcuts. Augsp., Schönsperger, 1484, 88, or 96. fol. with woodcuts. Augsp., Othmar, 1504. fol. Strb., Hupfuff, 1511 or 15. fol. with woodcuts. At first under another title, Nrb., Creussner, 1473. fol.; consult Panzer's Deutsche Ann. I. 71 and 376.

15315 OTTLEY, W. Young. An inquiry into the origin and early history of engraving upon copper and in wood, with an account of engravers and their works, from the invention of chalcography by Maso Finiguerra to the time of Marc-Ant. Raimondi. Lond., Arch, 1816. large 4°. 2 vols. with many plates (8l. 8s.)

50 copies on large paper with first impressions of the plates (a copy of which Lackington offered for sale at 18 guineas). This too dear book is nothing more than an uncritical compilation of what was already known, blended with some unproved paradoxes and preconceived opinions, by which the history of the art has not been advanced a single step. It incidentally determines in favour of the Haarlem origin of printing without producing any tenable ground for so doing.—See also GALLERY, No. 8105.

These canzoni first appeared in the Triomfi of 1559. p. 298-397 (see TRIOMFI), but the author caused them to be taken out of the copies again, corrected and enlarged them with 4 canzoni, and then published them by themselves. Consequently, this edition can only serve to complete those copies of the Triomfi which have this deficiency. The marquis Trivulzio has a copy on large paper.

Prized on account of its accuracy and the dependence to be placed in the designs. This Latin edition is less frequently to be met with than the French. The copies should be collated according to the specification at the end of each part.

15338 OVIDIUS Naso, Publ. 1) Opera. Opera. Bon., Bths. Azoguidus, 1471. fol.

The first edition of the works of Ovid, and at the same time the first typographical production of Bologna, and of the most extreme rarity. With 39 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

First 3 leaves, which contain the dedication of the editor, Fr. Puteolanus, to Fr. Gonzaga, and Ovid's life. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Rāciscus Puteolanus parmensis Frācisco gō, and leaf 3<sup>b</sup> ends with the following colophon: Huius opera omnia... Balthesar (sic) Azoguidus Civis Bononiensis honestissimo loco natus primus in sua civitate artis impressoris iuvenior & summa necessitudine mihi cōiunctissimus ad utilitatē humani generis impressit; MCCCCLXXI. Leaf 4<sup>a</sup> contains a Tabula eaq̄ reā que sūt ī hoc volumine, and leaf 4<sup>b</sup> is blank. According to this table, from leaf 5<sup>a</sup> the separate pieces follow in this order:

Epistola (leaf 5<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, ANC TVA PENELOPE). Amorum libri III. (how many leaves these two works occupy, I do not find stated). De arte amandi et de remedio amoris, 41 leaves (with the colophon, P. Ovidii... de arte amādi & de remedio amoris libri feliciter expliciunt Deo laus). Metamorphoseos libri XV. 155 leaves. (Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with the 6 verses, Orba parente suo, the first line of the poem itself is, N NOVA FERT ANIMVS, and leaf 155<sup>b</sup> is blank.) Invectiva in Ibin, 9 leaves (ends in leaf 9<sup>a</sup>). Fasti, 64 leaves (leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, EMPORA CVM causis. At the end, LAVS DEO.) Tristia, de Ponto, de pulice, philomela, de medicam. faciei, de nuce, 94 leaves. (At the end, P. ovidii nasonis de nuce libellus explicit).

Of this edition, the separate pieces of which are sometimes bound up in a different order, only five copies are known, generally incomplete; in the Royal library at Paris (wanting 2 leaves), in the library of the king of England, in the libraries of Lord Spencer (some leaves completed in MS.) and of the earl of Pembroke, and Audiffredi saw the 5th in the possession of the canon Devoti. The Imperial library at Vienna possesses besides the Fasti of the same. A facsimile of the types is in Dibdin Bibl. Spenc. II. 193. The existence of a copy on vellum, which, according to Dibdin's Bibliomania, p. 425, was formerly in the chapter-house at Padua, is altogether doubted by Brunet.

The preliminary observation may be here made, that hitherto, both with respect to accurate bibliographical description, as also to critical estimation of the editions of Ovid, surprisingly little has been done. I thought myself bound on this account to write these articles more copiously, but from want of personal inspection, much must still be left undetermined.

15339 — opera. Without place or date (Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannartz, 1471-72). fol. 2 voll.

Complete copies of this second edition, the impression of which was 275 copies, are also extremely scarce. With 38 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

In the 2nd vol. of 308 leaves, leaves 1-35 are Amorum libb. III. (which begin leaf 1<sup>a</sup> with the superscription, P. Ovidii Nasonis de sine titulo Libellus ad Cupidinem Elegia), leaves 36–67 De arte amandi et pulex, leaves 68–78 De remedio amoris; leaves 79–132 Consol. ad Liviam and Epp. heroides, leaves 133–145 Nux, medicata facies, Ibis, leaves 146–241 Tristia, de Ponto, Sappho, leaves 242–308 Fasti, which sometimes are bound up differently, and leaf 308<sup>b</sup> has the following colophon:

Finis. vi. librorum Fastorum Ovidii Ad. Ti. Cesarem Germanicum Aug.

15340 — opera. Ven., Jac. Rubeus, 1474. fol. 2 voll.

Finer than either of the preceding, and complete copies very scarce, yet probably only a reprint of the Bologna edition. 410 (according to Fossi 411) leaves with 43 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, and sometimes bound in 2 vols. (from leaf 214).

Collation; leaves 1–141 Metamorphoses (141 leaves, leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with a superscription in small capitals, and leaf 141<sup>b</sup> ends with the 6 verses, Orba parentis suo, and with a colophon of 4 lines in small capitals, the 4th of which is FINIS). Leaves 142–213<sup>b</sup> Epistola heroides et de arte amandi (72 leaves. The Ars amandi begins leaf 186<sup>a</sup> [or 45<sup>a</sup>] and ends leaf 213<sup>b</sup> with a colophon of 2 lines in small capitals). Leaves 214–255 Amores, Remed. amor., De medicam. faciei and Nux (42 leaves, the Amores begin leaf 214<sup>a</sup> with a superscription of 2 lines in small capitals). Leaves 256–313 Fasti (58 leaves, they begin leaf 256<sup>a</sup> with a superscription of 2 lines in small capitals). Leaves 314–319 Epistola consolatoria (6 leaves). Leaves 320–359 Tristia (40 leaves). Leaves 360–397 De Ponto (38 leaves). Leaves 398, 399 Pulex (2 leaves). Leaves 400–407 In Ibin (81 leaves). Leaves 408, 409 Ovidii vita (3 pages, and at the end of the same the general colophon together with the date). Leaf 410 Tabula (as in the Bologna edition) and Calphurnii carmen ad lectorem.

The pretended undated Jenson editions in Vallière's Catal. (T. II. p. 93.) and Pinelli's (T. II. p. 354. No. 4804, consult Santander Dictionn. T. III. p. 224. No. 1032.) were only defective copies of this edition by Rubeus.

15341 — opera. Parmæ, St. Corallus, 1 Jul. 1477. fol. 3 voll.

Complete copies of this edition, which appears to be a reprint of the Roman and Venetian editions of 1471 and 74, are also scarce. With 39 lines, without catchwords and pagination, but with signatures. Commonly bound in 3 vols.

The 1st vol. has 187 leaves, with the signatures A–Y. Leaves 1–5 contain a tabula and a life of Ovid by Calderinus, leaf 6<sup>a</sup> begins the text of the Metamorphoses, but the signature A i commences only in leaf 9. Leaf Y 7<sup>a</sup> ends the Metamorphoses with FINIS, on the reverse is a list of all Ovid's writings contained in these 3 vols., and underneath the colophon and date.

The 2nd vol. (Heroides, libri amor., de arte amandi, de remed. amor., in Ibin, Sabini epp.) has 140 leaves with the signatures aa–rr (of which the signature gg is twice over, first with 8, and then with 6 leaves), it begins with Heroides, and ends with Sabini epp.

The 3rd vol. has 166 leaves (the last blank) with the signatures Ai–Vv, and begins A 1<sup>a</sup> with the Fasti. The 1st line is P. OVIDII NASONIS FASTO. Leaf H 6<sup>a</sup> line 1 is .P. Ovididii (sic) Nasonis De Tristib9 Liber Prim9. The Tristia end leaf O 4<sup>a</sup>. Then leaf O 4<sup>b</sup> line 1 is .P. Ovididii (sic) Nasonis De Ponto Liber Primus, which work ends leaf T 6<sup>a</sup>. Next follow leaf T 6<sup>b</sup>, De pulice; T 7<sup>a</sup>, De philomela; T 8<sup>a</sup>, De medicam. faciei; V 1<sup>a</sup>, De nuce; and V 4<sup>a</sup>, Consolatio ad Liviam, which ends leaf V 9<sup>b</sup> with the word FINIS. Leaf V 10 is blank.

Only the 3rd vol. is at Dresden. The undated impression of the Heroides and Fasti, which Dibdin (Tour, III. 498.) found in the Imperial library at Vienna and could not determine about, belongs to this edition.

15342 — opera. Mediol., Ant. Zarotus, 3 id. Sept. 1477. fol. 2 voll.

A very scarce and fine edition. The 1st vol. contains the Metamorphoses, the 2nd the other writings.—See below, No. 15382.

15343 — opera. Bon., per me Baldaserem (sic) de Azzoguidis ciuē Bononiensem, 1480. fol. 2 or 3 vols.

This extraordinarily scarce edition is printed with different types from those of the editio princeps. With 39 lines (59 in Fossi, II. 264, is a typographical error) and with signatures, but without catchwords and pagination.

There is yet no description of a complete copy. The 1st vol. contains in the signatures a–e, probably the Heroides; then follow, leaf f 1<sup>a</sup> the Amores (line 1 is VI MODO nasonis fuera), which fill 32 leaves, and end leaf h 12<sup>b</sup>, LAUS DEO. Next on 41 leaves with the signatures i–m, the books De arte amandi (leaf i 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is QVIS in hoc artem) and (leaf m 1<sup>a</sup>) De remed. am. At the end of the last, on leaf m 11 b, is the following colophon:

*Publii Ovidii nasonis sulmonensis poeta clari ssimi de arte amandi & de remedio amoris libri
feliciter (sic) expliciunt. Deo laus.*

Then follow, according to Fossi, on the signatures n-q, Tristia, De Ponto, De pulice, De philomena (sic), De medic. faciei, and De nuce.

The Fasti, Liber in Ibin, and Consolatio ad Liviam fill the signatures rr-ss, & &, and (again) ss. Whether there be a signature aa-qq I do not know.

The 2nd vol. of 156 leaves with the signatures Ai-Q 3 contains the Metamorphoses. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Orba parente suo quicūq; volumina cernis, and in leaf 156<sup>a</sup> is the colophon and date. (In Dresden there is only this vol. and the signatures, f-m, of the 1st vol.)

15344 — opera (emendata a Barnaba Celsano). Vicentiæ, Hm. Levilapis (Lichtenstein), 1480. fol. 2 voll.

A fine but not very scarce edition, and only a reprint of an earlier impression. Celsanus only superintended the correction of the press. With 48 lines and signatures, without catchwords and pagination.

The 1st vol. or the Metamorph. (dated pridie id. Aug. 1480.) has 166 leaves with the signatures A-V, the first 5 of which contain a preface of Bonus Accursius and Ovid's life, and the 6th-8th a tabula. The text begins leaf 9<sup>a</sup>.—The 2nd vol. (dated 6 id. Maji 1480.) has 246 leaves with the signatures a-hh, and contains the other works.

Maittaire and Panzer also quote an edition of the 2nd vol., ib., id., XI. Cal. Oct. 1484. fol.

15345 — opera. Ven., Bernardin. de Novaria, 1486. 2 voll.

With 53 (sometimes 52) lines and signatures, without catchwords and pagination.

The 1st vol. or the Metamorph. (dated 13 Jan. 1486.) has 146 leaves (the last blank) with the signatures A-S. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with a letter of Bon. Accursius, leaves 2-8 contain Ovid's life and a table of the contents of the Metamorphoses. Leaf 9<sup>a</sup> begins the text, and line 1 is, P. OVIDII NASONIS METAMORPHOSEOS. The 2nd vol. or the rest of his writings (dated 27 Nov. 1486.) has 228 leaves (of which a 1 and i 1 are blank) with the signatures a-x, &, and aa-ee. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, P. OVI. NASONIS SVLMONENSIS POETÆ. The last leaf is a register.

15346 — opera per Bonum Accursium et Valer. Superchium emendata et correcta. Ven., Mth. Capcasa impensa L. A. (Giunta), pridie cal. Jan. 1489. fol.
VOL. III.

15347 — heroidum epistolæ. Auli Sabini. Epistolæ tres. P. O. N. Elegiarum. Libri tres. De arte amandi. Libri tres. De remedio amoris. Libri duo. In Ibin. Liber unus. Ad Liviam epistola de morte Drusi. De nuce. De medicamine faciei. Ven., Aldus, m. Dec. 1502. 8°. — Metamorphoseon libri quindecim. Ad Marinum Sannutum epistola etc. Ven., Aldus, m. Oct. 1502. 8°. — Fastorum. Libri. VI. De Tristibus. Libri. V. De Ponto. Libri. IIII. Ven., Aldus, m. Febr. 1503. 8°. 3 voll.

A new recension from MSS. which Aldus himself seems to have superintended. Naugerius only superintended the edition of 1515. The most sought after of the 3 Aldine editions, and copies in good condition, not made up from different editions, are equally scarce and costly.

The 1st vol. or the Heroides has 202 unnumbered leaves (the 120th or the last of the signature qq is blank), the 2nd vol. or the Metamorphoses (according to Aldus's arrangement properly the 1st vol.) 64 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank) and 204 leaves of text; the 3rd vol. 86 leaves (the last blank) for the Fasti (with a separate colophon, m. Jan. 1502.), and 118 leaves for the Tristia and De Ponto.

Lord Spencer has a copy of all 3 vols. on vellum (bought at Paris's sale, 1790, for 63l.), and a second copy is in the Bodleian (Dibdin Decam. II. 368). The 1st vol. (Heroid.) on vellum in the library of the king of England, and the 3rd vol. (Tristia) on vellum by itself also in the Bodleian (probably the same copy which was formerly in the Harleian library).

15348 — opera. Without place or date (Lugd. about 1503). 8°. 3 voll.

The first Lyons reprint of the first Aldine (with which it agrees, page for page, even to the typographical errors), nearly as scarce as the original, and to be distinguished from the following reprint by the leaves being unnumbered. The titles of the 1st and 3rd vols. are like the Aldine, but the 2nd vol. has only the simple title, Ovidii Metamorphoseon libri XV.

The 1st vol. has 202 unnumbered leaves (leaf 120 or qq 8 is blank). Aldus's letter to Sannutus on the reverse of the title is wanting, and in leaf ii 5<sup>a</sup> the Greek text is omitted in the passage from Suidas. The 2nd vol. has 204 unnumbered leaves of text, 1 blank leaf, and 20 leaves (corrections, Ovid's life, and Index fabular.), and the first 44 leaves of the preliminary matter of the Aldine are omitted (Aldus's letter to Sannutus, the Privilegium, and the Index gr. lat.). The 3rd vol. has 88 leaves for the Fasti, the last 3 of which are blank (for the sheet III is here a quaternio, not a ternio), and 118 leaves for the Tristia and De Ponto, and is distinguished from the Aldine only by the omission of the two colophons, but it has Aldus's letter to Sannutus.

15349 — opera. Without place or date (Lugd. about 1512). 8°. 3 voll.

The second Lyons reprint of the first Aldine, equally scarce, and with numbered leaves.

15350 — P. Ovidii Nasonis uita ex ipsius libris excerpta. Heroidum epistolæ. Amorum libri III. De arte amandi libri III. De remedio amoris libri II. De medicamine faciei. Nux. Somnium. Romanorum menses in ueteribus monimentis Romæ reperti. Sex priorum mensium digestio ex sex Ovidij Fastorum libris excerpta. P. Ovidii Nasonis Fastorum lib. VI. Tristium libri V. De Ponto libri III. In Ibin ad Liviam. ib., iid., m. Jan. 1516. 8°. 3 voll.

The second Aldine, superintended by Naugerius. A new recension from MSS. and still more from conjecture. Complete copies are nearly as scarce as those of the first Aldine.

The 1st vol. (Heroid.) has 16 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank), 172 numbered, and 10 unnumbered leaves. The 2nd vol. (Metam.) 48 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank) and 204 numbered leaves. The 3rd vol. (Fasti) 21 leaves of preliminary matter, numbered underneath, 1 blank leaf, 227 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf, colophon and anchor. — There are copies on vellum.

Of the 1st vol. there is an édit. contrefaite with Aldus's name and anchor, and the same colophon and date, prepared by the Florentine Giunti. It may be distinguished by the anchor being inverted, and by its having only 8 leaves of preliminary matter (without the preface of Asulanus) and 176 numbered leaves. This impression is on the whole nothing more than copies of the 1st vol. of the Juntine of 1519, with the addition of a new title and a new colophon, and with the omission of the preface by Ant. Francinus. Probably the Giunti published copies of the other 2 vols. under Aldus's name.

15351 — Ovidii vita. Heroidum epistolæ. Amorum libri III. De arte amandi libri III. De remedio amoris libri II. De medicamine faciei. Nux. somnium. Pulex et Philomela (cum præf. Ant. Francini). Flor., her. Ph. Juntæ, 1519. 8°. 8 and 176 leaves.—Metamorphoseos libri XV. nunc primum in lucem dati castigatissimi. Index... locupletissimus (cum præf. C. Viviani). Flor., her. Ph. Juntæ, cal. Sept. 1522. 8°. 40 leaves of preliminary matter and 208 numbered leaves.—Cl. Ptolemæi inerrantium stellar. significatt. per N. Leonicum e Græco translatae. XII. Romanorum menses in veteribus monimentis Romæ reperti. Sex prior. mensium digestio ex VI. Ovidii fastor. libris excerpta. Ovidii fastor. libri VI. Tristium libri V. De Ponto libri IV. In Ibin. Ad Liviam. Flor., her. Ph. Juntæ, m. Apr. 1525. 8°. 3 voll.

Copies of all 3 vols. are very scarce. According to Renouard's assertion (Catal. II. 270.) there is an earlier edition of 1519 of the 3rd vol. which I do not find either in Bandini or elsewhere.

15352 — opera, quibus in omnes metamorphoseos fabulas Lactantii argumenta accesserunt. Atque H. Glareani et Longolii annotatt. Item fragmenta quædam Ovidii ex libris, quæ magna ex parte periire, epigrammaton. Et carmen ad Pisonem. Bas., H. Petri, 1523. 8°.

15353 — epistolæ heroidum cum commentariis varior. Tusculani, Alex. Paganinus, 1533. 4°. Libri de arte amandi et de remedio amoris, una cum commentariis Bm. Merulæ et aliis additionib. ib., id., 1526. 4°. Metamorphoseon liber cum Rph. Regii enarratt. ib., id., 1526. 4°. Fastor. libri VI. cum commentariis Ant. Constantini et P. Marsi. ib., id., 1526. 4°. Tristium libri V. de Ponto libri IV. et opuscula, cum comm. Bm. Merulæ. ib., id., 1526. 4°.

All 5 vols. of this edition, printed with a very peculiar type, are extremely difficult to be met with.

15354 — opera. Castigata ad fid. vett. exemplarium a J. Sichardo. Access. omnium aeditionibus, quæ in hunc diem extant, fragmenta quædam Ovidii hactenus non visa, ex libris qui periere epigrammaton, et carmen eruditissimum ad Pisonem. Bas., Ad. Petri, m. Mart. 1527. 8°.

This edition must be of especial rarity.

15355 — Amatoria. Heroidum epistolæ. In Ibin. Ad Liuiam. De nuce. De medicamine faciei. Fragmenta. Carmen ad Pisonem incerti authoris. Par., Sim. Colinæus, 1529 or 36. 8°. — Metamorphoseon libri XV. ib., id., 1529 or 37. 8°. — Fastor. libri VI. Tristium libri V. et de Ponto libri IV. ib., id., 1529 or 36. 8°.

A neat and uncommonly scarce edition, in which the Amatoria of 1529 is extremely difficult to be met with. In one of these two editions Aldus's text is sometimes altered from Paris MSS., consult Stephani Pseudo-Cicero, p. 71, and Ejusdem ep. de typogr. sua, p. 22. To which may be joined, Erasmii Rot. Comm. in nucem Ovidii et duos hymnos Prudentii. Par., Sim. Colin., 1526 or 33. 8°. — Opp. ib., id., 1541. 12°. 3 vols. are equally neat and scarce.

15356 — opera. Ven., hered. Aldi et And. soceri. 1533-34. 8°. 3 voll.

The third Aldine, less fine and less scarce than the first two, but yet scarce enough in good and complete condition. A reprint of the 2nd Aldine in the first 2 vols., but in the 3rd vol. (Fasti) a new recension by Honorat. Fasitalius.

The titles of the separate vols. are the same as in the 2nd Aldine. The 1st vol. (Heroid.) 12 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank) and 180 leaves of text, the last 8 of which are unnumbered. The 2nd vol. (Metam.) 32 leaves of preliminary matter, numbered underneath (the last blank), 204 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf with the anchor. The 3rd vol. (Fasti) 21 leaves of preliminary matter, numbered underneath, 3 blank leaves, 227 numbered leaves (3 blank after the Fasti and as many after the Tristia), 1 blank leaf, and 4 leaves, various readings and colophon.—A copy on large paper, 134 fr. Crévénna.

15357 — opera. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1536-39, or 40, or 54. 8°. 3 voll.

This edition appears to be a reprint of that by Colinæus. Also, ib., id., 1546. 12°. 3 voll.

15358 — opera quæ vocantur amatoria, cum doctor. viror. commentariis. His access. Jac. Micylli annotatt. Ejusd. Micylli locor. aliquot ex Ovidiana metamorphosi retractatio. Bas., J. Hervag., 1549. fol. 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 528 pages, and 16 leaves, Metamorphoseos libri XV. cum commentariis Rph. Regii. Adjectis etiam annotatt. Jac. Micylli nunc prim. in lucem editis, cum locupletiss. indice. ib., id., 1543. fol. 14 leaves of preliminary matter, 355 pages, and 2 leaves. Fastor. libri VI. Tristium libri V. De Ponto libri IV. In Ibin. Cum commentariis Ant. Constantii, P. Marsi, Bm. Merulæ, Domitii Calderini, Zarotti, multo quam hactenus usquam et elegantius et emendatius excusis. His access. enarratt. Viti Amerpachii, Jac. Micylli et Ph. Melanchthonis annotatt. cum locuplete ind. ib., id., 1550. fol. 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 793 pages, and 5 leaves.—3 vols.

In an exegetical point of view not wholly uninteresting, and there is also somewhat critical in the Amatoria.

15359 — opera cum argumentis et notulis Guid. Morillonii. Antw., Plantinus, 1561. 12°. 3 voll.

Neat copies and in good condition are scarce. Also, ib., id., 1566, or 75. or 78-82. 16°. 3 vols. Naugerius's text, yet the later of these editions at least appear to have something peculiar by Vict. Giselinus. Moreover in a bibliographical point of view they are not sufficiently known.

15360 — opera cum argumentis et annotatt. Th. Freigii, additis Guid. Morilloni in heroides et A. Sabini epistolas tres ac in Ibin argumentis et annotatt.; acc. Erasmi comm. in nucem Ovidii. Bas., Henricpetri, 1568. 8°. 3 voll.

Previously, ib., id., 1560. 8°. 3 vols.— There is no edition of Ovid by Ciofani of 1575 or 82. He published in these years only his critical observations without the text, see below.

15361 — heroidum epp., amores, de arte amandi. de remedio amoris. Omnia castigatiora ex postrema Jac. Micylli recognitione et recensione nova Gr. Bersmanni, cum indicatione diversæ scripturæ et locor. quorund. explanatione. Lps., Steinmann, 1582. 8°. Metamorphoseon libri XV. Ex postrema Jac. Micylli recognitione et recensione nova Gr. Bersmanni, cum ejusd. notatt. ib., id., 1582. 8°. with woodcuts. Fasti, tristia, de Ponto, diræ in Ibin, halieuticon. Ex postrema etc. (as above). ib., id., 1582. 8°. 3 voll.

A new and good recension from MSS. and old editions. Ed. II. Auctior. Lps., hered. Steinmanni, 1590. 8°. 3 voll. Ed. III. Lps. 1596. 8°. 3 voll. Ed. IV. auctior. Without place, typis Vægelin., 1607. 8°. 3 voll. Ed. V. Typis Vægelin, without date. 8°. 3 voll. Ed. VI. Lps., Gross, 1620-21. 8°. 3 voll.

15362 — heroidum epp. Amorum libri III. De arte amandi libri III. De remedio amoris libri II. etc. Lond., Th. Vautrollerius, 1583. 16°. Metamorphoseon libri XV. ab And. Naugerio castigati et Vict. Gisellini scholiis illustrati. ib., id., 1582. 16°. Fastor. libri VI. Tristium libri V. De Ponto libri IV. In Ibin. Ad Liviam. (Cum notis And. Naugerii). ib., id., 1583. 16°. 3 voll.

This small edition, extremely scarce on the continent, appears to be a reprint of the Plantine edition.

15363 — operum T. I. ea continens quæ vocantur amatoria, cum varior. doctor. viror. commentariis, notis, obss. et emendatt., unum in corpus congestis. Ff., typis Wecheliani, 1601. fol. T. II. in quo libri fastor., tristium, de Ponto, cum varior. doctor. viror. etc. (as above). ib. 1601. fol. T. III. in quo metamorphoseos libri XV. cum commentariis Rph. Regii et annotatt. Jac. Micylli: et carmen in Ibin, cum comm. Domitii, Zarotti et Jac. Micylli. Quibus access. observatt. Herc. Ciofani et Gr. Bersmanni notæ perpetuæ. ib. 1601. fol. 3 parts in 1 vol.

This edition has nothing peculiar. The 1st part 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 500 pages, and 8 leaves of index. The 2nd part 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 388, 175, and 244 pages, and 6 leaves of index. The 3rd part 2 leaves of preliminary matter, 340 and 199 pages, and 8 leaves of index. (LB.), ex off. Rapheleng., 1602, or 1611, 12. 24°. 3 parts in 1 vol. Amst., Jansson, 1619. 24°. 3 parts in 1 vol. are insignificant small editions.

15364 — opera. Dn. Heinsius textum recensuit: acc. breves notæ ex Jos. Scaligeri potissimum codice et Palatinis Jani Gruteri. LB., ex off. Elzevir., 1629. 12°. 3 voll.

None of the finest of the Elzevir editions, but greatly sought after when in good condition. The 1st vol. 12 leaves of preliminary matter (including the title-plate) and 344 pages. The 2nd vol. 8 leaves of preliminary matter and 444 pages. The 3rd vol. 6 leaves of preliminary matter and 410 pages (the last is wrongly numbered 420). A new recension from MSS. Its text is repeated in Amst., Jansson, 1634 or 63. 24°. 3 voll. ib., Blaeu, 1638 or 49. 12°. 3 voll.

15365 — operum editio nova, accurate N. Heinsio. Amst., L. Elzevier, 1652. 24°. 3 voll.

This first edition of a new recension by N. Heinsius is very indifferently printed, but tolerably scarce. The recension is from excellent materials, and executed with great acuteness, but is sometimes too bold.

15365 — operum editio nova. N. Heinsius recens. ac notas addidit.

Amst., ex off. Elzevir., 1658-61 (or 1662). 12°. 3 voll.

A new working up throughout of his recension of 1652, from new materials. Less sought after by the collectors of the Elzevir impressions than that of 1629, but far to be preferred in a scientific point of view. The very numerous notes are either to be found at the end of each vol. or else form 3 separate vols. by themselves. The title-plate, at the commencement of part I, bears the date 1662, but the printed title of this vol. is 1658, that of the 2nd 1659, and that of the 3rd 1661.—Amst., Elsev., 1664. 24°. 3 vols. ib., id., 1676. 12°. 3 vols. are repetitions of this text, but an edition of 1668 is a non-entity.

Burmman, in his large edition, 1727, gave the apparatus for a new edition which Heinsius had left behind him.

15367 — opera omnia ex rec. N. Heinsii, cum notis varior. accurante Corn. Schrevelio. LB., Pt. Leffen, 1662. 8°. 3 vols. with plates.

The selection of notes is rather bad, yet is this edition sought after on account of the good plates to the Metamorphoses.

15368 — opera omnia cum integris N. Heinsii lectissimisque varior. notis. Studio Borchardi Cnippingii. LB., Hack, 1670. 8°. 3 vols. with plates.

The notes are here enlarged, and the selection is somewhat better, but the plates are bad copies of the preceding. The repetitions, Amst., Blaeu, 1683. 8°. 3 vols. with plates, and Amst., Waesberg, 1702. 8°. 3 vols. have still inferior impressions of the plates. There is a later reprint of 2 vols. of the last edition with the same date.

15369 — opera. Interpretatione et notis illustrav. Dn. Crispinus ad usum Delphini. Lugd., Anisson, 1689. 4°. 4 voll.

One of the rarer editions in Usus Delphini, and the only one of this series which appeared out of Paris. Its index is corrected in the reprint, Ven. 1731 or 79. 4°. 4 vols.

15370 — opera. Pt. Burmannus ad fid. vett. exemplarium castigavit. Traj. Batav., van de Water, 1713. 12°. 3 voll.

A second title has the year 1714. A new recension and very correct. A reprint of it, Amst., Waesberge, 1725. 12°. 3 voll., prepared without Burmann's permission, has in the title the false statement, accu- rante N. Heinsio, without mention of Burmann.

15371 — opera, cura Mch. Maittaire. Lond., Tonson et Watts, 1715. 12°. 3 voll. Also on large paper.

The various readings are added to the 3rd vol. Also, Lond. 1772. 12°. 3 vols.

15372 — opera omnia, cum integris Jac. Micylli, Herc. Ciofani et Dn. Heinsii notis et N. Heinsii curis secundis et alior. in singulas partes partim integris partim excerptis adnotatt., cura et stud. Pt. Burmanni, qui et suas notas adjecit. Amst., Janssonio-Waesbergii, 1727. 4°. 4 vols. Also on large paper.

Once more a new recension from MSS. and old editions, and enlarged with the apparatus left behind by Heinsius for a new edition. A fine edition, and as yet the most complete, but very incorrectly printed. It has become scarce. Thereto may be joined, Pt. Burmanni Præfatio ad Ovidii edit. majorem, nunc prim. edita. (Amst. 1756). 4°. It was at first laid aside, because in it he had severely attacked the publishers.

15373 — opera. Lond., Brindley, 1745. 12°. 5 voll.

15374 — opera. Amst., Wetstein, 1751. 12°. 3 voll.

15375 — opera omnia, acc. chrestomathia (et Massonii vita Ovidii), curante J. Pt. Millero. Berol., Haude et Spener, 1757. 8°. 4 voll. (2 d. 16 gr.)

15376 — opera omnia ex rec. N. Heinsii, cum ejusd. notis integris. Curav. indicemque verbor. adjec. J. F. Fischerus. Lps. 1758 (a new title 1773). 8°. 2 voll. (3 d. 8 gr.)

Heinsius's notes are here given entire, also those which Burmann at first edited: Masson's life of Ovid is added.

15377 — opera, quæ supersunt. Par., Barbou, 1762. 12°. 3 voll. Also on fine paper.

Burmman's text, with use of the corrections which Politianus had written on the margin of his Ovid, to be found in the Laurentian library. Repeated less finely, ib., id., 1793. 12°. 3 voll. (15 fr.)—Opera. Matriti, 1785. 8°, I merely mention as a rarity.

15378 — opera ad opt. editt. collata. Præmittitur vita ab Aldo Pio Manutio collecta cum notitia literaria. Bip. 1783. 8°. 3 voll.—Ed. auctior et emendatior. Arg. 1811. 8°. 3 voll. (6 d.)

- 15379 — opera omnia e rec. Pt. Burmanni. Curav., indd. rer. et verbor. adjec. Ch. G. Mitscherlich. Gött. Dieterich, 1796–98. 8°. 2 voll. (2 d. 16 gr.)

Burmann's text, with a restoration of some old readings, and a better punctuation. The 3rd vol. or the index did not appear, and the paper and printing are bad.

- 15380 — opera. Parmæ et Mediol., Aloys. Mussi, 1806–8. fol. 6 voll.

Only 103 numbered copies of this splendid edition were struck off. At the end of the 6th vol. is Masson's life of Ovid (130 d. at Göschen's in Leipsic).

- 15381 — opera ad fid. edit. Burmanni expressa. Lond. 1815. 12°. 3 voll. (18s.)

Neat. Lps., Tauchnitz, 1820. 12°. 3 voll. (1 d. 20 gr.) is a stereotyped small edition.

- 15382 — 2. Heroides. Heroides, de pulice, de philomela, in Ibin, de rustico. Without place or date. fol.

This edition, printed in Italy before 1480, is probably a piece of the collected works, Mediol., Zarotus, 1477 (see above, No. 15342). 66 leaves with 35 lines running all across the page, and in Roman characters, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 2 lines of leaf 1<sup>a</sup> are,

PVBLII. OVIDII. NASONIS. EPISTOLA

RVM. HEROIDVM. LIBER. PRIMVS

- 15383 — liber Ovidii epistolarum. In Montereali, per Ant. Mathiæ et Baldisalem Corderium, 18 Febr. 1473. 4°.

64 leaves with 27 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It is properly only a piece of the Juvenal of this year, see above, No. 11196.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, and 194 numbered leaves. The date in the colophon, Anno gratia M. ccccc. iij. Nonas Aprilis, is sometimes erroneously understood for the year 1503. The following are reprints of this edition: Lugd., N. Wolff, 1505. 4°. *ib., Cl. *Ouidij Nasonis Solmonēsis poete

Then follows on 3 leaves a poem with the superscription, Dictamē ordinatū p̄ frēm Arnoldū Buerick.—Described for the first time by Brunet in the Catal. des livres du cabinet de M. (d'Ourches). Par. 1811. 8°. p. 121. No. 647, where this edition was bought for 205 fr.

15405 — de arte amandi libri III. De remedio amoris libri II. Without place or date (Col., U. Zell, 1471-72). 4°. Gothic letter.

67 leaves with 24 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first poem also here fills 49 leaves, and the second 18. This edition, described in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. II. 202, so accurately agrees even to the minutest circumstance with Brunet's description of the preceding edition, that it might be taken as one and the same with that, did not Dibdin expressly assert, that in Lord Spencer's copy the commencement of the Remed.

amor. deviated from Brunet's description. (At the same time he does not specify the deviation.) There is also a slight difference in the colophon of the Remed. amor., which in Lord Spencer's copy, leaf 67<sup>a</sup>, runs thus:

*Ouideij (sic) Nasonis solmonēsis poete

The Dictamen Arn. Buerick is also not to be found in this copy, and instead thereof the Liber trium puellarum, from the same press, is bound up with it. (See below, No. 15490.)

15406 — de arte amandi libri III. De remedio amoris libri II. Augustæ, Gth. Zainer, 15 cal. Febr. 1471. fol. Gothic letter.

57 leaves with 28 (not 29) lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first dated distinct edition of these poems, but later than both the above editions of his entire works of 1471, as February was then the last month in the year. It seldom deviates from the common text, and is not so very scarce in Germany. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Publij ouidij nasonis sulmonensis. de. The Ars amandi terminates leaf 42<sup>b</sup>. Leaf 43<sup>a</sup> begins the Remed. amor., and line 1 is, Publij ouidij nasonis sulmonen. The colophon is in leaf 57<sup>b</sup>.

15407 — de arte amādi 1 De remedio amoris cum comento (Bm. Merulæ). Ven., J. de Tridino, 3 non. Julias (in other copies Majas) 1494. fol.

56 leaves with the signatures a-g and A-C. Also, ib., id., 28 Jun. 1506. fol. 51 leaves. Mediol., Ln. Vegius, 3 Sept. 1510. fol. 51 leaves. Ven., J. de Tridino, 19 Sept. 1509. fol. 51 leaves, is enlarged with an index and woodcuts. ib., id., 20 Febr. 1518. fol. 47 leaves. Ven. (without the printer's name) 4 Jan. 1516. fol.

15408 — ars amandi ad Juuentutem romanam. (Lps.), Jac. Abiegnus (Thanner), 1498. 4°. Gothic letter.

72 leaves with 17 lines, and the signatures A-M. Also, ib., id., 1503. 4°.

15409 — duo libri continentes amoris remedia (industria Arn. Wostefeldes emendati). Lps., (Jac. Thanner), 7 id. Jun. 1501. 4°. Gothic letter.

26 leaves with 17 lines, and the signatures A-D. Also, ib., id., 15 Sept. 1503. 4°. ib., id., 1507. 4°. ib., id., 1511. 4°. 18 leaves with the signatures A-C, and in Roman characters. The earlier edition, ib., id., 1498. 4°. Gothic letter, 30 leaves, is incorrect.

15410 — artis amandi libri III. remedii amoris II. castigate impressi (cum præf. Jo. Vadiani). Viennæ, Vietor et Singrenius, 1512. 4°.

15411 — de remedio amoris libri II. De philomela elegia. Arg., ex ædd. Schurer., m. Mart. 1514. 4°. 34 leaves with the signatures A-F.

15412 — amorum libri III. De medicamine faciei et nux. Infinitis pene erroribus e MSS. exemplaribus emaculati. Una cum Dm. Marii Nigri enarratt. Acc. pulex et philomela. Ven., J. Tacuinus de Tridino, m. Jan. 1518. fol.

15413 — de remedio amoris libri II. In Ibin. (De nuce, pulex, philomela). (Arg.), ex off. Schurer., m. Majo 1520. 4°. 34 leaves.

15414 — amatoria, e rec. Pt. Burmanni cum varietate lect. præcipua (curav. Ch. Gli. Wernsdorf). Helmst., Kühnlin, 1788 or 1802. 8°. 2 voll. (1 d. 8 gr.)

15415 — 4. Metamorphoses. Metamorphoseos libri XV. Without place or date. fol.

Publii Nasonis Ovidii Peligni poetæ clarissimi liber ultimus metamorphoseos feliciter explicit.

This edition, printed at the latest in 1473 according to Dibdin, Bibl. Spenc. II. 204, has the same types which occur in the Propertius and Tibullus, without place, 1472. fol. and it appears to be a Roman typographical production.

15416 — metamorphoseos libri XV. Without place or date. fol.

Also very scarce. With 39 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with the 6 Latin verses, Orba parente suo, the first 5 of which on account of the spaces left vacant for the initials fill 10 lines. It ends on the folio recto of the last leaf in the 28th line with finis. The types resemble those of Plautus, Ven. 1472.

15417 — metamorphoses. Mediol., Ph. de Lavagnia, 5 Jun. 1475. fol. Very scarce. 180 leaves in Roman chaacters, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with Bonus Accursius's letter and Ovid's life, and ends with 6 Latin verses, Orba parente suo, and with the colophon.—An edition, Ven., per Jac. (Rubeum) natione gallicum, 1472. fol. quoted by Panzer, III. 92. from Denis, I cannot find confirmed by any other testimony.

15418 — metamorphoses. Ferrar., Agst. Carnerius, 1476. fol.

One of the rarest editions of the Metamorphoses. It begins, like the Bolognese edition of the Opera of 1471, with 3 leaves, which contain a dedication of Fr. Puteolanus to the cardinal Gonzaga and Ovid's life (underneath which is the year 1476). Leaf 4<sup>a</sup> begins the text with the 6 verses, Orba parente suo. On the folio recto of the last leaf is a colophon in 8 Latin verses: Finibus ausonie motus etc. Only every 10th leaf has a catchword.

15419 — metamorphoses. Without place or date (Lovan., J. de Westphalia, not before 1475). fol. Gothic letter.

With 36 lines, and the signatures a-aa. This verbal reprint of the Roman edition of the Opera of 1471 begins, leaf 1<sup>a</sup> (signature a 2) with the dedication of the bishop of Aleria, and ends on the folio recto of the last leaf with Finis. The types are the same as those with which J. de Westphalia printed J. Milis repertorium in 1475.

15420 — metamorphoseos liber. Parmæ (without the printer's name), 1479. fol.

191 leaves with 36 lines, and signatures. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> (signature a 1) line 1 is, PV. OVIDII NASONIS METAMORPHO. According to Denis and Affò the printer was And. Portilia, which is doubted in Bibl. Spenc. II. 211. Brunet, who attributes this edition to the printer, St. Cerallus, and refers to No. 3941 of the 2nd Crevenna catalogue, has confounded it with the edition of the Opera, Parmæ, 1477.

15421 — metamorphoseon libri XV. Parmæ, And. Portilia. id. Majis 1480. fol.

188 leaves (the first and last blank) with 40 lines, and the signatures a 2- & 3, without catchwords and pagination. Leaf 1 is blank, leaves 2-5 are Tabula fabularum Ovidii metamorphoseos, of which leaf 2<sup>a</sup> l. 1 is, TABVLAE FVBVLARVM (sic). Leaf 6 contains Ovid's life by Domit. Calderinus. Leaf 7<sup>a</sup> begins the text, and line 1 is, P. OVIDII NASONIS SVLMO-NENSIS ME. Leaf 188<sup>b</sup> contains the colophon in 5 lines.

15422 — metamorphoseon libri XV. Pinerolii, Jac. de Rubeis, cal. Febr. 1480. fol.

170 leaves with the signatures A-X. This scarce edition, without further preliminary matter, commences with the text itself.

These 9 vols., in which the Fasti are wanting, belong to the new Milan Corpus poetarum Latinorum, which was to have formed 50 vols., but which has not been completed to my knowledge.

15500 — il libro delle pistole che fecie Ovidio Nasone traslate di grammaticain volgare fiorentino. (Neap.) S. R. D. A. (Sixtus Riessinger de Argentina), without date. small 4°. with 20 woodcuts.

An extremely scarce but incorrect edition of this translation in prose, cited by the academy della Crusca from a MS. 82 leaves with 31 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1 is blank, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins, Incomincia il prologo sopra le pistole dovidio nasone di compagna il quale fu sottilissimo et octimo poeta. The defective copy in Pinelli's Bibl. IV. 371. was probably of this edition.

15501 — el libro dele Epistole di Ovidio in rima vulgarizate po messere Dominico da monnticielli toschano. Bressa (Brescia), Bt. de Farfengo, 5 Nov. 1491. 4°. Gothic letter.

In 2 columns (each of 8 stanzas) with the signatures a–f, without catchwords and pagination. The translator died in 1367. A MS. of 1474, wherein he is called Domenicho da Monte Uchiello, was in Valières catalogue, No. 2504, and in the Crévénna, No. 3946.

Panzer, IV. 258, mentions an earlier edition, Brescia, 1489. 4°. Repeated, Ven., Sessa, 14 Zenaro 1502. 4°. ib., id., 16 Nov. 1508. 4°. Mediol., Zanotto da Castelliono. 20 Nov. M. V. XV. (1515). 4°.

15502 — epistole d'Ovidio trad. di lat. in lingua toscana per C. Figiovanni. Ven., Bn. de Nitali, 1532 or 48. 8°.

15504 — incomincia il libro nomato Ovidio de arte amandi poeta clarissimo. Without place or date. 4°.

With 23 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A very scarce edition, and probably the first of this not very faithful translation, and which only embraces the first 2 books. The types are the same as those with which Florentius de Argentina printed (probably at Venice) in 1472, Jacobi Romani congratulatio ad N. Tronum. Another undated edition in 4°. of 69 leaves with 23 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, begins leaf 1<sup>a</sup> with Opera. Del Clarissimo. Poeta Ovidio De Arte Amandi, and has at the end FINIS.

Later editions are, Mil., Pachel et Scinsenzeler, 1481. 4°. Flor., Ant. Venetus, 5 id. Aug. 1488. 4°. with the signatures a-g. Mil., Fil. de Mantegazi, 1494. 4°. Brescia, de Misintis, 13 Zugno MCCCC.C.LIX. (probably MCCCCXCIX, 1499). 4°. Ven., Sessa, 1516. 8°. *Ven., Fr. 15506 — Ovidio methamorphoseos nulgare (in prosa vulgare traduto da Gi. de' Bonsignori, con le allegorie). Ven., Zoane Rosso ad instantia di Lucant. Zonta, 10 Apr. 1497. fol. with woodcuts.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 141 numbered leaves in 2 columns with the signatures a-s. The first edition of this translation, made in 1375-77, and cited by the academy della Crusca from a MS. Repeated, Ven., Cp. de Pensa ad instantia di L. A. Zonta, 7 Marzo 1501. fol. with woodcuts. Ven., Bindoni, 1508. fol. Ven., G. de' Rusconi, 1517 or 22. fol. *Mil., in offic. 15508 — tutti gli libri de Ovidio metamorphoseos tradutti dal litteral in verso vulgar con le sue allegorie in prosa (per N. Agustini). Ven., Jac. da Leco, 1522. 4°.

Far inferior to Anguillara's translation. Repeated, Ven., Zoppino, 1533 or 37. 4°. (Ven.), Bindoni, 1538. 4°. (there are 2 editions of this year, of March and of June). Ven., F. Torresano, 1547. 4°. with woodcuts.

15509 — de le metamorfosi di Ovidio libri III. da Gi. And. dell' Anguillara. Par., And. Wechelo, 1555. 4°. 48 leaves.

This very scarce edition, unknown to Paitoni, I consider to be the first, that of 1553 or 54 (Pait. III. 67.) not being sufficiently accredited. The translation itself is esteemed a classic work in Italy.

15510 — le metamorfosi ridotte da Gi. And. dell' Anguillara in ottava rima. Con le annotationi di Gius. Horologi et gli argomenti et postille di Fr. Turchi. Ven., Bn. Giunti, 1584. 4°. with plates by Giac. Francho.

A scarce edition, and greatly prized in Italy, particularly on account of the plates, which are considered fine. Of the older editions, Ed. V. Ven., Franceschi, 1575. 4°. with woodcuts, is still prized, as is that enlarged with new notes, Ven., Bn. Giunti, 1592. 4°. Concerning the many editions of this translation or rather modification of the Metamorphoses, see Paitoni, III. 54 sq. where however the following editions are not noticed: Ed. III. Ven., Franceschi, 1569. 4°. with woodcuts. Ven., Zaltieri, 1598. 4°. ib., id., 1601. 8°. with woodcuts. Ven., Pessana, 1792. 12°. 3 voll. Mil. 1805. 8°. 3 voll. (Classici It.)

Modena, 1821. 8°.

15514 — recueil de diverses pièces d'Ovide et d'autres poètes anciens, en lat. et en franç., de la traduct. de M. D. M. (Mch. de Marolles). Par., Billaine, 1661. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol. Les epistres heroides, de la traduct. de Mch. de Marolles, avec (le texte lat. et) des remarques. Par., Lamy, 1661. 8°. Les amours. ib., id., 1661. 8°. Les livres de l'art d'aimer et des remèdes d'amour. ib., id., 1660. 8°. Les fastes. ib., id., 1660. 8°. Les quatre livres des epistres écrites du lieu de son exil. ib., Billaine, 1661. 8°. Le livre contre Ibis. ib., id., 1661. 8°. Altogether 7 vols.

The translation itself is of no value, but the annotations have some good matter in them. The Latin text is added. Marolles did not translate the Metamorphoses.

15515 — œuvres, traduct. nouv. par (Et. Algai) de Martignac (en lat. et en fr.) avec des remarq. Lyon, Molin, 1697. large 12°. 9 vols.

128 leaves with 36 lines, and the signatures a-g. Probably the first edition, and printed between 1494 and 1498. Charles VIII, king of France, to whom the translation is dedicated, died in this last year. Under each epistle is a woodcut, which nearly occupies half a page, and is made up of several pieces. Other editions of this translation (concerning which see my description of the Royal library at Dresden, p. 321.) are, Par., J. Trepperel, 6 Mars 1505. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts. Par., veuve de J. Trepperel et J. Jehannot, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts. Lyon, Arnoullet, 1522. 4°. Par. 20 Febr. 1525. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts, 114 leaves. Another edition without the text was also struck off, consisting of very few copies. The translator has followed his original so faithfully, that he has given 3972 verses in 3976 French verses.

15532 — le grand Olympe des histoires poétiques du prince de poésie, Ovide Naso, en sa métamorphose, trad. de lat. en franç. Lyon, Harsy, 1532. 8°. 3 parts in 1 vol. with woodcuts.

Also, Par., Sergeant, 1537. 8°. with woodcuts. Par., Angelier, 1538. 8°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts. Niort, Portau, 1595. 4°.

15533 — le premier livre de la métamorphose d'Ovide, translaté de lat. en franç. par Clém. Marot. Lyon, Gryphius, without date. 8°.—Trois premiers livres de la metamorphose d'Ouide. Traduictz en vers François. Le I. et II. par Clém. Marot, le III. par Bm. Aneau. Lyon, Rouillé, 1556. 8°. with woodcuts.—Les XV. livres de la métamorphosé trad. de lat. en franç. Par., Billaine, 1637. fol. with plates, or Par., Courbé, 1651. fol. with plates (also on large paper). At first, Par. 1617. 8°.—L'Ovide bouffon ou les métamorph. travesties en vers burlesques (par L. Richer. Livre 1-5). Par., Loyson, 1662 or 65. 12°. Previously (livre I.), Par., Quinet, 1650. 4°.

15536 — l'Ovide en belle humeur de (Charl. Copeyau) Dassoucy. Suivant la copie impr. à Paris (El- zevier), 1651. 12°. 92 pages and 1 leaf.

A very scarce, neat, and prized edition of a miserable travestie of the 1st book of the Metamorphoses. The following editions are of no value: Par., Luynes, 1653. 4°. ib., Loyson, 1659 or 64. 12°.

15537 — métamorphoses en rondeaux (par Is. Benserade). Par., impr. roy., 1676. large 4°. with plates.

Sought after only on account of the plates by Sb. le Clerc, Chauveau, and le Pautre. The uncommonly neat edition, and inferior to no Elzevir production, Amst., Abr. Wolfgang, 1679. large 12°, has excellent copies of these plates. The book in itself is an extremely unhappy idea. Every thing is forced into rondeaux, even the royal privilege, which is prefixed, and the errata, in which last the author allows with equal truth and naïveté,

... parmi des fautes innombrables

Je n'en connois que deux considérables :

C'est l'entreprise et l'exécution,

A mon avis fautes irréparables.

Les métamorphoses en quatrains, par Mch. de Marolles. Par., Langlois, 1677. 4°. was a not less unhappy idea.

15538 — les métamorphoses en lat. et en franç. avec de nouv. explications, de la traduct. de Pt. du Ryer. Ed. nouv. Brux., Foppens, 1677. large fol. with plates printed in the text.

The edition, Amst., Blaeu, 1702. fol. has not so good impressions of these fine plates. Previously, Par., Sommaville, 1660. fol. with plates. The last time, Haye, Gosse, 1728. 12°. 4 vols. with plates.

15539 — les métamorphoses mises en vers franç. par Th. Corneille. Par., Coignard, 1697. 12°. 3 voll. Liège, Broncart, 1698. 8°. 3 vols. with plates. ib., David, 1700. 12°. 3 vols. with plates.—Les métam. avec des explications. Traduct. nouv. (en prose) par l'abbé de Bellegarde. Par., Brunet, 1701. 8°. 2 vols. with plates. Liège, Broncart, 1712. 8°. 2 vols. with plates. Amst., Roger, 1716. 12°. 2 vols. with plates.

15540 — les métamorphoses en latin, trad. en franç. avec des remarques et des explications histor. par (Ant.) Banier. Amst., Wetstein, 1732.

large fol. 2 vols. with plates by Picart and others.

Greatly sought after on account of the plates, and a costly work on very large paper (with the first impressions.) The plates are extremely neat, without being really fine. In p. 264 there ought to be 3 separate large plates, which are sometimes wanting. The rest are printed in the text.—The same plates also appeared under the same date with a Dutch and with an English text. The edition with the Dutch text has the title, De Gedaantwisselingen van Ovidius, in het Latyn en Nederduitsch vertaald door Is. Verburg, nevens aantekeningen door Ant. Banier (also on very large paper), and it contains the first impressions of the plates. The edition with the English text has the title, Metamorphoses in Lat. and Engl. translated by the most eminent hands, with histor. explications of the fables, written in French by Banier. (Also on very large paper.)

Of the other editions of Banier's translation, Par. 1738. 4°. 2 vols. with plates, and Amst., Wetstein, 1732. 12°. 3 vols. with good copies of Picart's plates, are also prized.

15541 — les métamorphoses en lat. et en franç. de la traduct. de Banier, avec des explications histor. Par., Leclerc, 1767–71. 4°. 4 vols. with plates.

With 140 numbered plates and 1 unnumbered concluding plate, T. IV. p. 337. Also copies with plates avant la lettre, and 12 copies on Dutch paper, in which latter however the vignettes and borders are of the last impressions of all, owing to some caprice of the publisher (Renouard Catal. II 275).—The work is frequently to be met with, because two editions were prepared under the same date. The later edition, with worn plates and on inferior paper, is distinguishable by p. 215 of the 3rd part being numbered 209, and by the title of the 4th part being dated 1770 (instead of 1771).

The same 140 plates (yet without the enclosing border) are also added to the Métamorphoses trad. par Banier. Par. 1807. 8°. 2 vols. (48 fr., on vellum paper 72 fr.), and to Desaintange's translation of 1808.

15542 — métamorphoses d'Ovide, traduct. nouv. avec le latin à côté. Nouv. édit. retouchée avec soin. Par., Barbou, 1777. 12°. 2 voll.

15543 — les métamorphoses, trad. (en prose) d'après le texte de Jou- vency avec des notes par (Jac. Charl. L.) Malfilâtre. Par. 1799 or 1803. 8°. with plates (24 fr.)

This translation has been erroneously attributed to Malfilâtre.

15544 — traduction en vers des métamorphoses, avec des commentaires. Par (Férian) Desaintange. Par., Deterville, an 9 (1800). 8°. 2 vols. with 16 plates. Also on vellum paper.—Par., Desray, 1808. large 8°. 4 vols. with 140 plates (72 fr., on vellum paper 150 fr., without plates 36 fr.)

This translation is preferred in France to all the rest.

15545 — les métamorph. trad. par J. Gasp. Dubois Fontanelle. Nouv. éd. augm. de notes, avec le texte lat., un dictionn. mythol. et des notes par Pt. Fr. Guyot Desfontaines. Par. 1802. 8°. 4 vols. with plates (20 fr., on vellum paper 40 fr.)

At first, Par. 1767. large 8°. 2 vols. with plates.—Les trois premiers livres des métamorph. trad. en vers franç. par Richerolle. Par., Delaunay, 1819. 12°.

15546 — les métamorphoses, traduct. nouv. avec le texte lat., suivie de l'explication des fables et de notes par Mathieu Gu. Thérèse Villenave. Par., Didot, 1822. 8°. 4 vols. with 144 plates (32 fr.). Also on vellum paper and on large paper in 4°.

The printing of this translation which appeared in 24 numbers, began in 1807, but was interrupted after the 19th number, and was only continued again in 1821. There are 2 copies on vellum (at 200 fr. for each number), and a 3rd copy on vellum with the original designs (at 1000 fr. for each number).

en vers avec des remarques d'érudition, de critique et de littérature fleurie, par Férian Desaintange (av. le texte lat.) Par., Levrault, an 13 (1804). 8°. 2 voll. (12 fr.) Also on large paper. Also, Par., Dufour, 1809. 12°.

15548 — les élégies d'Ovide pendant son exil, trad. en (prose) franç. avec des remarq. crit. et hist. Le latin à côté. (Par J. M. de Kervillars.) Par., Houry, 1723–26. 12°. 2 voll.

This translation, not very excellent in itself, which was reprinted in 1738, contains also some critical conjectures upon the Latin text, peculiar to it. The same person's translation of the Fasti (see the preceding article) is often added thereto. The following is an earlier translation of the Tristia, Les regrets d'Ovide trad. en prose franç. par J. Binard. Par., Sara, 1625. 8°.

There are also copies of the 1st vol. of 1774. An uncommonly industrious and accurate work, by which the similar work of Argelati (see above) may be altogether dispensed with. The Germans have the works by Degen and Brüggemann (for English literature) to set in opposition to this, and the Spaniards the attempt of Pellicer; but the French are still in want of such a general work, which Barbier probably could best perform. Similar collections with respect to Dutch and Scandinavian translations are also greatly to be desired. For, in fact, works of this description possess a higher value than that arising from the mere partiality of collectors, inasmuch as they offer valuable documents for an enquiry as to the extent in which each individual nation has appropriated foreign literature. On this ground it were to be wished, that the work were extended to translations of the more recent classics of foreign nations.

Enquiries of this sort afford an especial interest, among other causes, for this also, that they enable us to have a deeper insight into the history of the peculiar kind of reading pursued by any people. Thus, for example, with respect to the Germans. During the 16th century there were translations of the historians in succession, which must have been very greatly read, as they were in part (I allude to Livy) incredibly often published. This ceased in the seventeenth century, the commencement of which was poor in translations of the classics. About 1630 more attention was paid to translating the poets, until, after the middle of the century, translators again applied themselves to the prose writers. A new interest was then produced by the plan being extended to free copies and imitations. Nothing can be more entertaining, and at the same time more instructive, than the comparison, for instance, how the lively and bold Regnier, in his 8th satire, has nationally and locally imitated the 9th satire of the 1st book of Horace (Ibam forte via sacra), or in his 5th satire the account of the generation of Horace's time (art. post. 158 sq.)

A good and neat edition, copies of which on large paper are scarce. The first edition, Ven., Bernardin. Vitalis, without date (not before 1531). 8°. is extremely scarce. A new small edition, Bas. 1789. 8°. In French by de la Monnerie, Haye, 1731 (new title, Lond. 1733). 12°. In German by J. Spreng, Ff. 1564. 8°. or Laugingen, 1599. 8°.; by Fr. With every deficiency in true poetic spirit, and notwithstanding the view (clouded even to injustice), which the author entertained of the times in which he lived, the poem is nevertheless very interesting and attractive.

PALLADIENNE, see COLET.

15664 PALLADIO, And. I quattro libri dell' architettura. Ven., Dm. de' Franceschi, 1570. fol. with woodcuts.

The original edition, very scarce, and greatly prized on account of the best impressions of the woodcuts. Each book has a separate title and pagination. Book I. has 67 pages, book II. 67 pages and 1 blank leaf, book III. 46 pages and 1 leaf, book IV. 128 pages and 3 unnumbered leaves. The earliest copies of this edition were published in 2 vols. and under the following title: I due primi libri dell' antichità. (Ven.), Dm. de' Franceschi, 1570. fol. and I due libri di architettura. ib., id., 1570. fol. Both vols. are uncommonly scarce under this first title, especially the 2nd, of which the only copy yet known is in the possession of count Cicognara.

A reprint in fol. was made at Venice between 1770 and 1780, under the title and date of the original edition, which however may be recognised at the first glance as a modern typographical production.

15665 — I quattro libri dell' architettura. Ven., Bn. Carampello, 1581. fol. with woodcuts.

The woodcuts are the same as in the preceding edition, but the impressions are considerably weaker. The 1st book has 67 pages, the 2nd 78 and 1 blank leaf, the 3rd 46 and 1 leaf, the 4th 133 pages.—The editions, ib., id., 1616. fol. with woodcuts, ib. Brogioli, 1642. fol. with woodcuts, Ven., Dm. Lovisa a Rialto, 1711. fol. with plates printed in the text, are not sought after.

15666 — architecture, in English, Italian, and French, with notes and observations by Inigo Jones, revised, designed, and published, by J. Leoni. Lond. 1715. fol. 5 parts in 2 vols. with plates.

The impression was only 250 copies (at 5 guineas each). The French and English translation is by N. du Bois.

15667 — architecture avec des notes de Inigo Jones. Le tout revu, dessiné et mis au jour par J. Leoni, trad. de l'ital. (par N. du Bois). Haye, 1726. large fol. 2 vols. with plates.

Also on very large paper. The plates are, 1 title-plate, 1 portrait of Palladio, 43 plates to the 1st book, 61 to the 2nd, 22 to the 3rd, 104 to the 4th. The price of this fine edition has fallen on account of the Vicenza edition.

15668 — architettura di nuovo ristampata ed arricchita di figure in rame e di moltissime fabbriche inedite con le osservazioni dell' architetto N. N. e con la traduz. franc. Ven., Pasinelli, 1740-48. fol. 5 parts in 8 vols. with plates.

15669 — le fabbriche ed i disegni, raccolti ed illustrati da Ottavio Bertotti Scamozzi (ital. e franc.). Vicenza, 1776-83. large fol. 4 vols. with plates. In addition, Le terme degli antichi Romani. ib. 1785. large fol. with plates.

The finest and best edition, yet the plates might have been somewhat neater. Vol. I. has 52, vol. II. 51, vol. III. 52, and vol. IV. 54 plates. Vicenza, 1786. large fol. 4 vols. has not so good impressions of the plates; there are copies of this edition with an Italian, and others with a French text, and to which the Terme of 1785 must be joined. The smaller edition, ib. 1796-97. 4°. 5 vols. with plates (66 fr.), contains the Terme in it.

15670 — fabbriche antiche disegnate da And. Palladio, e date in luce da Riccardo conte de Burlington. Lond. 1730. fol. with plates.

Fine and scarce, as there was only a small impression. 1 title-plate, and 24 plates, 17 of which are on whole sheets, and 7 on half sheets.

15671 — fabbriche inedite con le osservazioni dell' architetto N. N. e con la traduz. franc. Ven. 1760. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with 33 and 28 plates.

VOL. III.

15672 — los quatro libros de arquitectura civil, traduc. del italiano e ilustrados por José Ortiz y Sanz. T. I. Madr. 1797. large fol. with 96 plates.

Containing only the 1st and 2nd books. I know nothing of a 2nd vol.—In English by Is. Ware, Lond. 1738. fol. with plates. The French translation by Roland Freart de Chambray, Par. 1651. fol. with plates, is very scarce even in France. In German by G. And. Böckler, Nrb. 1698. fol. with plates. Architecture de Palladio (rédigée par Jombert). Par. 1764. large 8°. with plates (7 fr.). *And. 15691 PALLAVICINI, Bt. Marchio. Historia flendæ crucis et funeris J.C., cum aliis carminibus. Parmæ, fratres Carthusiæ, m. Dec. 1477. 4°.

A very scarce edition of an often printed book.

15692 PALLAVICINI, Sforza. Istoria del concilio di Trento. Roma, 1664. 4°. 3 voll.

The most complete edition of this work, which is cited by the academy della Crusca. Roma, 1656-57. fol. 2 vols. is finer, but less complete; and the merely polemical part is omitted in the edition, Roma, 1666. fol. In Latin by J. Bt. Giattini, Antw. 1670. 4°. 3 voll. or, ib. 1673. fol.—Of his other writings the following are still prized in Italy on account of the language: Del bene libri IV. Roma, 1644. 4°. Trattato dello stile e del dialogo. ib. 1662. 12°. Arte della perfezione cristiana. ib. 1665. 8°.

This collection contains his allowed works.

15695 — opere scelte, cioè, la pudicitia schernita; la rettorica delle puttane; il divortio celeste; il corriero sualigngiato; la baccinata; dialogo tra due soldati del duca di Parma; la disgrazia del conte d'Olivarez; la rete di Vulcano; l'anima, vigilia 1 e 2. (Con la vita dell' autore). Villafranca (Amst., Dn. Elzevir), 1673. 12°.

The best edition of the collection of his forbidden works, which ought to contain, 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 76 pages, (Pudicitia), 124 pages (Rettorica delle puttane, which is often wanting, and is also frequently to be met with by itself), 6 leaves, 70 pages, and 1 leaf (Divorsio, with a separate title of 1671), 588 pages, Corriero and the rest.) Villafranca (Amst., Dn. Elzevier), 1666. 12°. is finer, but wants the Pudicitia schernita and the Rettorica delle puttane. Villafranca (Geneva), 1660. 12°. and Villafranca (Geneva), 1671. 12°. are also incomplete, and badly printed.

15696 — L'anima, divisa in sei vigilie. Col., L. Feiraldo, 1675. 12°.

The only complete edition of this his most bitter production, complete copies of which are scarce. It ought to contain 116, 82, 159, 160, 171 and 117 pages, and seems to have been printed at Geneva.

15697 — il divorzio celeste cagionato dalle dissolutezze della sposa Romana, et consacrato alla simplicità de scrupulosi Christiani. Regunea (Genevra), 1679. 12°.

There are two different editions under this date. Previously, Villafranca, 1643. 12°. Ingolstadt, 1643. 12°. Also in the Opere Scelte. In French, Villafranche, 1644 or 49. 12°. Without place or date. 12°. Col. 1696. 12°. In German, Freystadt, 1643. 12°. Halle, 1722. 8°. Berl. 1787. 8°. In Swedish, Sth. 1643. 12°. Concerning the piece consult Bouterwek's Gesch. der Poesie u. Bereds. II. 512. It appears to have been unknown to literary men, that this production was attributed to a certain Fd. Caponi, who went over to the protestant faith in 1645 at Leipsic. I extract the passage relating thereto from (Dn. Heinrichi) programmæ invitatorium ad orationem, qua Fd. Caponius religionem pontificiam detestabitur (Lps. 1645. 4°. 1 sheet), where leaf 4a states: Cum pronuper pontifex Romanus Urbanus IIX. bellum in Italia injustissimum suscitaret . . . , de autoritate ipsius omnipotentissima caput dubitare (Caponius). Quo facto gratia divina in eo per verbum scripturæ . . . tam fuit efficax, ut in papam ejusque fraudes versutissimas calamo invehere non dubitaret. Quod vel me silente testatur scriptum, cujus in sermone italico iste titulus: Il divortio celeste etc. Communicavit id primum cum nonnullis suis intimis, qui postea illud tam late sparserunt, ut Parisiis typis exouderetur publicis . . . Cumque fama de scripto illo anti- papistico in Italia increbesceret, ei valedicere Fd. ille Caponius coactus est. I have only room to add, that I consider this whole statement as a proselyting lie, by which Caponi sought to recommend himself. For why, only to touch upon one doubt, did not Caponi, who afterwards still remained in Germany, himself publish under his own name this book, which was often printed again after 1645; and why moreover did he conceal that it continued to appear under Pallavicino's name?

15698 PALLET, Félix. Nouv. histoire du Berry. Bourges et Par. 1783. 8°. 5 voll.

15699 PALLETTA, J. Bt. Exercitatt. pathologicæ. Mediol. 1820. 4°. with 12 plates.

PAMELA, see RICHARDSON.

15733 PAMPHILUS. Panphylus (sic) de amore. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

16 leaves with 32 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1a line 1 is the above title. Leaf 16b, the last or 9th line is, Explicit amorem per tractus Panphylus codex. The paper-mark in leaves 3, 10, and 15, is that which occurs in Santander tab. V. No. 123, and therefore the book is by N. Jenson at Venice. It seems to be the same edition which is specified in Panzer, II. 541, 791, and is there attributed to St. Plank at Rome. There are also 2 undated editions with Roman characters in 4°; one without signatures, catchwords, and pagination; the other (of 12 leaves) with signatures, and a woodcut in the title. Also with Ovidii liber de tribus puellis, without place or date, 4°. (from which edition Leyser gives various readings in his Hist. poetarum medii ævi, p. 2071 sq.) and with the same book of Ovid, without place, 1513. 4°. Also by itself, Romæ, Euchar. Silber, 3 non. Sept. 1487. 4°. 12 leaves. The same cum commento familiari (J. Proti). Par., Pt. le Dru, 1499. 4°; or, Rothom., Gu. Gaullemier, without date. 4°. Gothic letter. 30 leaves. The last time in Ovidii erotic. Ff. 1610. 8°. p. 75 sq. As to the rest Panzer attributes the poem altogether erroneously to Pamphilus Saxus. The true author is Pamphilus Maurilianus, and the poem is quoted in the Compendium moralium notabilium of Hieremias, who was already dead in 1300 (Bandini Bibl. Leopold. II. 48). Concerning a French modification, see LIVRE d'amour.

There are copies of this good edition on blue paper, with red impressions of the plates (37 fr. 50 c. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy). It is also in the Parnasso ital. T. 50. p. 209 sq. It is a satire upon Ulisce il giovane, tragedia di Dm. Lazzarini. Padova, 1720. 8°. and the author was Zaccaria Valarezzo. Consult Flögel's Gesch. des Burlesken, p. 106.

The first piece was edited with notes by Ant. Mar. Biscioni. The second piece contains two Cicalate, the first of which had already been printed for the first time in the Prose Fior. T. I. p. 3.; but the second appeared here for the first time.

15741 PANDOLFINI, Agnolo. Trattato del governo della famiglia, colla vita del medesimo scritta da Vespas. da Bisticci. Fir., Tartini e Franchi, 1734. 4°.

An edition cited by the academy della Crusca. These conversations with his sons and grandsons, written about 1430, are full of powerful wisdom, composed in a fine style, and also important for the history of manners. Also, Mil. 1802. 8°. (Classici Ital.) 15742 — Trattato del governo della famiglia. Mil., stamp. reale, 1811. 18°.

Superintended by Ant. Fortunat. Stella, who however specified the antiquated words under the text, and introduced in their places more recent and intelligible words into the text itself. There are copies on large paper in 8°. and one on vellum.

15743 (PANEGYRICI veteres). Epistola Fr. Puteolani ad Jac. Antiquarium. Plinii secundi panegyricus. Panægyricus Maximiniano et Constantino dictus. Latini Pacati Drepani panægyricus. Panægyricus Constantino dictus. Gratiarum actio Mamertini. Panægyricus Nazarii. Alter Panægyricus. Panægyricus Constantino dictus. Alter Panægyricus. Oratio pro restaurandis scholis. Panægyricus Maximiniano Diocletianoque dictus. Ejusdem Mamertini genethliacus Maximiani. Julii A-gricolæ vita per Corn. Tacitum composita. Petronii arbitri satyrici fragmenta: quæ extant. Without place or date. 4°.

170 leaves, with the signatures a–y, and 30 lines, without catchwords and pagination. The first edition. Leaf 1a begins with this superscription:

FRANCISCVS PVTEOLANVS REVERENDO D. JACOBO ANTIQVARIO DUCALI SECRETA RIO SALVTEM.

In leaf 2b follows Tabula eorum: quæ in hoc volumine continetur, and underneath is what I have given above (but abbreviated) as the title. Leaf 3a, or signature a 3a, begins Plinii panegyri. Signature s 4b, Tacitus; and signature u 2a, Petronius (of which this edition is likewise the editio princeps). Signature y 4b terminates the book with τελος. From the preface of Puteolanus it is proved that it was printed in the same year in which J. Galeacius, duke of Milan, who was born in 1469, became of age, therefore probably in 1482. It is also probable that it appeared at Milan, although Dibdin in his Bibl. Spenc. II. 267. does not find Reviczky's conjecture, that Ph. de Lavagnia was the printer, confirmed, at least, not by the types of his Horace of 1476. There was a copy on vellum in Sassi's time in the Ambrosian library at Milan. Descriptions relating to this edition are to be found in Sarii hist. literario-typogr. Mediol. (in Argelati bibl. script. Mediol. T. I.) p. 238, 577, and 611. Fossi II. 371. Panzer II. 98, 608.

In Ernesti's copy (see his Catalogue, No. 2732, where it was sold for 22 d. 14 gr.), afterwards Reviczky's, and now lord Spencer's, there is added under the word τελος the date MCCCCLXXVI, which however, according to Dibdin's bibl. Spenc. II. 228 and 268, is evidently printed by a later hand, as it is proved with certainty from a description of the entire copy to be nothing more than the above edition. Consequently the edition in Panzer IV. 15, 94, is not to be considered as a separate edition.

Maître I. 374, cites besides, Panegyrici latini veteres, Petronii Arbitri satyricon, Ephemeris Dictys Cretensis. Mediol. 19 Maji 1477. 4°. But this is decidedly nothing more than a copy of the above undated editio princeps in which the Dictys of 1477 was bound up (in the Bibl. Harlej. IV. 542), see Panzer, I. 30, 102.

15744 — Tabula eorum: quæ in hoc uolumine continentur. C. Plinii secundi Panægyricus. Panægyricus Maximiano et Constantino dictus. Latini pacati drepani Panægyricus. Panægyricus Constantino dictus. Gratia<sup>4</sup> actio Mamertini. Panægyricus Nazarii. Alter Panægyricus. Panægyricus Constantino dictus. Alter Panægyricus. Oratio pro restaurandis scholis. Panægyricus Maximiano Diocletianoq; dictus. Eiusdem Mamertini Genethliacus Maximiani augusti. Franciscus puteolanus diligentissime recognovit. Without place or date (Ven., Bernardin. Venetus, about 1499). 4°.

112 numbered leaves (and 1 blank leaf) with 31 lines, catchwords, and the signatures A-EEii. The paper-mark is a pair of scales. See below PAUSANIAS, No. 16055. A reprint of the preceding edition with the omission of Tacitus, Petronius, and the preface of Puteolanus. This printer published Petronius separately in 1499 (see PETRONIUS). Leaf 1a is the above title (which I was here obliged somewhat to abbreviate). Leaf 1b begins Plinii Panegyri. and leaf 112a ends the book with the following colophon: Panegyrici. XII. Finiunt: a uariis auctoribus editi. Cum gratia et priuilegio. According to Dibdin's Decam. II. 374, there is a copy of this edition on vellum in the Royal library at Paris.

15745 — panegyrici variorum auctorum et declamationes nonnullæ perquam eruditæ, hactenus non impressæ (cura J. Cuspiniani). Viennæ Pannon., Hi. Philouallis et J. Singrenius. 4°. id. Mart. 1513. 4°.

168 unnumbered leaves, with the signatures aa-E. A new and important recension from ancient MSS.

15746 — panegyrici quotquot ex uetustate cōseruatos nancisci potuimus (ed. Beatus Rhenanus). Bas., Froben, m. Dec. 1520. 4°.

2 leaves of preliminary matter, 568 pages, and 1 leaf. The recension of Puteolanus forms the basis, altered here and there by Rhenanus from conjecture. Incorrect, and of no great value.

15747 — panegyrici diversorum nunc demum recogniti et in lucem editi. Per P. Navium. Quibus addita sunt argumenta. Ven., ap. Gryphios, 1576. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 175

leaves. Navius has added argumenta; in other respects he has contributed nothing of his own.—The editions with Plinii Epp. Ap. H. Steph. 1581, or 91, or 1604. 12°. and (Genev.), Pt. Chouet, 1632. 12°. contain only the text of the Basle edition of 1520.

15748 — latino-attici oratores, seu panegyrici cum veterum tum recentium scriptor. Duaci, Bellerus, 1595. 8°.

15749 — XII. panegyrici vett., ad antiquam, qua editionem, qua scripturam, infinitis locis emendati, aucti. J. Livinejus recensebat ac notis illustrabat. Antw., ex offic. Plantin., 1599. 8°.

397 pages and 1 leaf. A new recension from MSS. with good explanations, and a new arrangement of the panegyrici. The text of Rhenanus forms the basis—Livinejus's text is also in the impression along with Plinii epp. Ap. P. Steph. 1600. 4°. Ff. a. O. 1665. 8°. Genev. 1671. 4°. etc. Cr. Rittershusii reliquiae conjecturar. in panegyricos vett. in Goldasti parænetic. Insula, 1604. 4°.

15750 — XII. panegyrici veteres ad antiquam, qua editionem, qua scripturam, emendati, aucti, nuper quidem opera J. Livineji, nunc vero opera Jani Gruteri, præter quorum notas accedunt etiam conjecturæ Val. Acidalii et Cr. Rittershusii. Ff., Hoffmann, 1607. 12°.

A new and good revision of the text from the materials afforded by Livinejus. Panegyrici vett. cum notis. Matriti, 1647. 8°.

15751 — XIV. panegyrici vett. ad antiquam, qua editionem, qua scripturam, infinitis locis emendati, aucti. Antea quidem ope Catanæi, Balduini, Rayani, Livineji, Lipsii. Nunc vero opera Jani Gruteri. Præter quorum commentarios et notas accedunt etiam conjecturæ Val. Acidalii et Cr. Rittershusii ad XII. panegyricos priores; ad duos autem posteriores El. Vineti, And. Schotti, Jos. Scaligeri et Jac. Sirmondi notæ et emendatt. Postremo acc. notæ, antea non editæ, Pt. Fabri, Fr. Jureti, Cl. Puteani, Thdr. Pulmanni et Ant. Schoon-hovii. Par., Piget, 1655. 12°. 2 voll.

The text of the preceding with new exegetical and critical apparatus. Par., le Beau, 1643. 12°. is only a new title. The two added Panegyrici are those of Ausonius and Ennodius. Cl. Puteanus was the editor.

15752 — interpretatione et notis illustrav. Jac. de la Baune, ad us. Delphini. Par., Benard, 1676. 4°.

The text of the preceding edition with a few alterations from MSS. or merely from conjecture. The exegetical apparatus is more important. Only the panegyric of Pliny (not all the panegyrics) was reprinted from this edition, Lond. 1716. 8°.

De la Baune's text forms the basis. Notwithstanding good materials (also from MSS.) Patarolius has done little in the critical department, nor has he afforded much to the exegetical. Reprinted with some augmentations in Patarolii Opera. T. I. Ven. 1743. 4°. p. 153 sq.

15757 — panegyrici vett. interpretatione et notis illustrav. Jac. de la Baune, ad us. Delphini. Ed. altera Italica, cui acc. obss. crit. in Lat. Pacatum Ch. Gli. Schwarzii. Ven., Javarina, 1728. 4°.

15767 PANTHEUS, J. Ant. Annotationes ex trium dierum confabulationibus de thermis Galdarianis, quæ in agro sunt Veronensi. Without place or date. fol.

According to Bibl. Tellier. it was printed at Verona in 1484, according to Vossius at Vicenza in 1488. Maittaire makes two distinct editions out of them. Zeno, Maffei, and Panzer set it down to Verona in 1500. Morelli has proved that it was printed in 1505, see Chardon Mélanges, III. 139 (compare 122).

15775 PANZER, G. Wfg. Annales typographici ab artis inventæ origine ad annum MDXXXVI. Post Maittairii, Denisii, aliorumque doctissimor. viror. curas in ordinem reducti, emendati et aucti. Nrb., Zeh, 1793-1803. 4°. 11 voll. (55 d., on writing paper 66 d.)

There are also 3 or 4 copies on strong paper. This immortal work is as intelligently designed as it is successfully executed. If the worthy author is not always equally full in the execution of every article, if he has not sufficiently exhausted some sources of information (as for instance, the Catal. de la bibl. du roi), if he has sometimes left a considerable hiatus (as in the years 1501-36, or in the Dutch and Spanish literature), and lastly, if in the indices, in other respects so industriously compiled, he has often inserted anonymous writings very inconveniently (under Loci communes, for example; the Pelerinage de l'ame under Anima), yet are these only trifling spots in a work of such large compass and of such merit in other respects, that every one will readily overlook them, who has only a perception of the difficulties which must have attended the composition of this indescribably laborious work. In what relation it stands to Maittaire's has been mentioned under Maittaire. That Panzer has surpassed all his predecessors in bibliographical accuracy, as well as in arrangement and method, is undeniable.

That the work embraces all the typographical productions up to 1536 inclusive, with the exception of those which appeared in the German language, to which the following article is dedicated, is well known. Vols. 1-3 contain the dated productions which appeared up to 1500 in the alphabetical order of their places of printing. The 4th vol. contains the productions which appeared without any statement of the place of printing, but with the date, which are arranged in chronological order; the productions, without place or date, arranged in alphabetical order according to the authors' names, and a triple supplement to the former vols. The 5th vol. contains an index of the productions specified herein, of the places of printing, and of the printers (the last is double, both according to the Christian-names and the surnames). Vols. 6-9 embrace the dated and undated productions from 1501 to 1536 together with supplements to this period. The 10th and 11th vols. contain the indices to vols. 6-10, after which follows a new supplement to the entire work together with a separate index to this supplement. It is well to be well versed in the internal arrangement, so as to be able to refer to it at once, as the numbers in the indices are often incorrect.

- 15776 — annalen der ältern deutschen Literatur oder Anzeige u. Beschreibung derjenigen Bücher, welche von Erfindung der Buchdruckerk. bis 1520 in deutscher Sprache gedruckt worden sind. Nrb., Grattenauer, 1788. 4°. (2 d. 16 gr.) Zusätze. Lpz., Hempel, 1802. 4°. (2 d. 8 gr.) Zweiter Band. Nrb., Lechner, 1805. 4°. (2 d. 16 gr.)

This work, which differs from the preceding in a more detailed description of the typographical productions, would admit of many additions and corrections, and should have better indices. It is only to be desired that there were similar distinct typographical annals for the more ancient literature of foreign countries also, and that especially some one might soon be found who would undertake the Dutch literature, which even to the natives themselves appears in part to be still a terra incognita.

15792 PAPA, Guido. Decisiones parlamenti Delphinatus. Gracianopoli, 29 Apr. 1490. fol.

As the author was already dead about 1476, this date can only apply to the printing, and this edition of an often printed work is also the oldest known typographical production of Grenoble. Here appeared also, Statuta Delphinalia. Gratianopoli, Fr. Pichatus et Bm. At the end of the 3rd vol. after the Preuves there ought to be found a supplement of 14 pages (Tournois célébré à Tarascon en 1449), printed after the vol. was finished. Had the inquiries been better substantiated, this work would have had a peculiar value on account of the numerous original documents, hitherto unprinted, which are added. There is also by the same author, Voyage de Provence, avec cinq lettres sur les troubadours. Par. 1787 (previously 1780). 12°. 2 voll.

15867 PARNASSO italiano ovvero raccolta de' poeti classici italiani. Ven., Zatta, 1784–91. small 8°. 56 vols. with vignettes.

Of this well-printed collection, which the abate And. Rubbi superintended, M'Carthy possessed vols. 34–36 and 38–40 on vellum. Whether there is a copy on vellum of the entire collection is unknown. There is also a second edition, which is cheaper. An earlier collection is Livorno, 1781 etc. 8°. 50 vols. with plates. Also, Ven. 1816. 16°. 32 vols.

Scarce on vellum paper. The first edition, Par. an 7. 12°. of the Guerre des dieux anciens et modernes, which forms the 5th vol. of this collection, is still sought after, because in the later editions important mutilations have taken place.

PARTIDAS, las siete, see ALPHONSUS IX.

15888 PARTINUPLES. Historia del conde Partenoples. Tarracone, 1488. 4°.

Panzer, III. 30, 31. and the Notices et extraits quote this edition in the Catalanian dialect. This old French romance in verse (according to Brunet that in the Catalanian dialect might even be the original) was written in the beginning of the 13th century, and a MS. of the French text is described in the Notices et extraits, T. IX. P. II. p. 4 sq. The French text was never printed; Couchu gave only a poor abridgment in the Bibl. des romans 1779 Dec., and Le Grand d'Aussi gave a very free translation or rather a new work in the Fabliaux, T. IV. p. 261-400. Of a German translation in verse (under the title, Partinopier und Meliure), which appears to have been made in the middle of the 13th century, only 2 fragments exist, which are printed in Müller's Sammlung alld deutscher Gedichte, B. III. p. XII-XIV, and in Bodmer's Sammlung krit. Schriften, St. VII. p. 36-48.

15889 — libro del esforçado cavallero conde Partinuples que fue emperador de Constantinopla. Alcala de Henares, Arneo Guillen de Brocar. 16 Nov. 1513. small 4°. Gothic letter.

Also, Sevilla, 1643. 4°.

Concerning this Danish translation in rhyme, prepared in the 15th century, and which had already been printed previous to 1560, see the journal Iris og Hebe 1796 Octob. p. 31-34, where Nyerup gives some extracts from it.

15893 PARUTA, Fil. Sicilia descritta con medaglie, ristampata con aggiunta da Ln. Agostini. Roma, Grignani, 1649. fol. with coins.

This edition contains the same plates as the very scarce first edition, Palermo, Maringo, 1612. fol., but is enlarged by Agostini with about 400 coins. Neither edition has any text. The edition, Lione, Maier, 1697. fol. with plates (Serassi vita del Tasso, p. 351. n. 1), is not so good. But all three editions are supplanted by the Latin work superintended by Havercamp in Grævii Thesaurus antiqq. Ital. T. X. vol. 6-8. To the latter belong, Gbr. Lancilloto Castello di Torremuzza Correzioni ed aggiunte alla Sicilia numismat., in Opuscoli di autori Sicil. XI. 201 sq. XII. 215 sq. XIII. 1 sq. XIV. 1 sq. XV. 1 sq.

15895 PAS des armes de Sandricourt. Without place or date. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

11 leaves with the signatures A and B. On the reverse of the title is as follows: Ce sont les armes qui ont été faictes au chasteau de Sandricourt près Pontoise le 16 Sept. 1493, lesquels ont été par moi Orléans herault de monseigneur le duc d'Orléans veues... et rédigées et mises par escript. The printing appears to be of the same period. A copy on vellum with 10 miniatures, 100 fr. Vallière, and 81 fr. M'Carthy (offered for sale again at 150 fr.).

15896 PAS, Crispin de. Della luce del dipingere et disegnare. Van 't licht der teken en schilderkonst. De la lumière de la peinture et de la designation. Vom liecht

5 parts in 1 vol. with many excellent plates and woodcuts, which may be collated by the specification on the last leaf.

- 15897 — hortus floridus, in quo rarior. florum icones delineatae et secundum quatuor anni tempora divisae exhibentur. Arnhemii, Janssonius, 1614. oblong 4°. with plates.

This work consists of 2 parts. The 1st part contains, Spring 41 plates, Summer 19 plates, Autumn 27 plates, and Winter 12 plates. The text is printed at the back of the plates. The 2nd part contains 120 representations in 61 plates, without any text. In the edition, Utr. 1615. oblong fol. with English text, plates 42-54 are added to the Spring.

- 15898 — liber genesis aereis formis a Crisp. Passæo expressis versibusque tam latinis quam germanicis ornatus etc. per Gu. Salsmannum. Arnhemii, Janssonius, 1616. 4°.

Title and 59 plates.

His plates to Homer, Ovid, and Virgil, see under HILLAIRE, OVIDIUS (No. 15596), and VIRGILIUS. See also ABUS du mariage.

- 15899 PASCAL, Blaise. Œuvres complètes (publ. par Charl. Bossut). Haye (Par., Nyon aîné), 1779. 8°. 5 vols. with plates.

- 15900 — œuvres. Par., Lefèvre, 1819. 8°. 5 voll. (32 fr.). Also on vellum paper.

The Lettres provinc. and the Pensées may also be had separately.

- 15901 — les provinciales ou lettres écrites par L. de Montalte à un provincial de ses amis, au sujet du relâchement de la morale des Jésuites. Col., de la Vallée, 1657. 12°.

There are two editions of this date, both printed by the Elzevirs. The first and finest edition has 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 367 pages, and then p. 369-398, an 18th letter (added afterwards, as it appears), and last of all Advis de messieurs les curex de Paris etc. in 111 pages. In the 2nd edition the text has only 396 pages, and the Advis only 108. Collectors prefer the 1st edition, because in the 2nd, which in other respects is almost equally fine, and far more correct, some expressions are softened, for example, p. 3, moine mendiant instead of religieux mendiant (in the 1st), and p. 13, moins considérable instead of méprisable (in the 1st). These letters, not so interesting on account of their contents as on account of their masterly style (consult Herder's Adrastea, II. 51), at first appeared in single sheets in 4°. Col., Schouten, 1666 or 69. 12°. are also neat.

- 15902 — les provinciales etc. en quatre langues; trad. en lat. par Gu. Wendrock (Pt. Nicole), en espagnol par Gratien Cordéro, et en italien par Cosimo Brunetti. Col., Winfelt, 1684. 8°.

- 15903 — les provinciales avec les notes de Gu. Wendrock (Pt. Nicole), traduites en franç. Amst. 1735. 8°. 3 voll.

Nicole's long notes have no longer any interest. Also, Col., de la Vallée, 1739. 8°. 4 voll.

- 15904 — les provinciales. Par., Renouard, 1803. 18°. 2 voll.

There is a single copy on vellum in 12°. The stereotyped and more correct edition, ib., id., 1815. 18°. 2 vols. is enlarged with the prohibitions of the piece. The edition, Par., Didot, 1816. 8°. 2 voll. (9 fr., on fine paper 15 fr., on vellum paper 30 fr.) is also fine. Nicole's Latin translation by itself, Col., Schouten, 1658 or 65. 8°. Hlmst. 1664. 4°. Col., Schouten, 1700. 12°. 2 voll. In Italian, Ven. 1761. 8°. 6 voll. In German, Lemgo, 1774. 8°. Provincial letters, translated from the French. Lond. 1816. 8°. (12s.)

- 15905 — pensées sur la religion et sur quelques autres sujets. Amst., Wolfgang, 1672 or 77. 12°.

Both editions, which are altogether erroneously ascribed to the Elzevirs, are the finest of the older editions.

- 15906 — — Par., Renouard, 1803. 18°. 2 voll.

Amended from the author's original MS. A single copy on vellum. Ib., id., 1812. 18°. 2 vols. is stereotyped, and more correct. Par., Didot, 1817. 8°. 2 vols. (9 fr., on fine paper 15 fr., on vellum paper 30 fr.) is also fine.—In German, Augsp. 1710. 8°. By J. F. K(leuker), Bremen, 1777. 8°. Faultily by C. H. Heydenreich, Lps. 1793. 8°. (16 gr.) Thoughts on religion, translated by Kennet. Lond. 1749. 8°.

- 15907 PASCHALIUS, C. De coronis libri X. Par., Perier, 1610. 4°.—LB., Gelder, 1671 (new title 1681). 8°.

15911 PASINI, Gius. Vocabolario italiano-lat. e latino-ital. Ed. IV. Ven. 1817. 4°. 2 voll. (15 paoli).

15912 PASINUS, Jos. Codices MSS. bibliothecæ regii Taurinensis Athenæi. Recensuerunt et animadversionib. illustrarunt Jos. Pasinus, Ant. Rivautella et Fr. Berta. Taurini, typ. regia, 1749. large fol. 2 voll.

15913 PASOR, G. Grammatica græca sacra novi testam., in tres libros distributa. Groningæ, 1655. 8°.

This book, edited by Mth. Pasor after his father's death, is tolerably scarce, and still indispensable.

15914 PASQUALINO, Mch. Vocabulario Siciliano etimologico italiano e latino. Palermo, 1785-95. 4°. 5 voll.

The search after etymologies has often led the author too far, yet has he afforded a great deal of information in this work.

PASQUIER le moine, see COURONNEMENT.

15915 PASQUIER, Et. Œuvres. Amst. 1723. fol. 2 voll.

The Catéchisme des Jésuites and the Ordonnances générales d'amour (Vallexergues, 1564. 8°.) are not included.

15916 PASQUILLORUM tomi duo. Quorum primo versibus ac rhythmis, altero soluta oratione conscripta quamplurima continentur, ad exhilarandum confirmandumque hoc perturbatissimo rerum statu pii lectoris, animum apprime conducentia (collectore Cœlio Secundo Curione). Eleutheropoli (Bas., Oporinus), 1544. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 537 pages (but after p. 199, the pagination, by a typographical error, recommences at 100, so that in reality there are 637 pages). Scarce, but not nearly so much so as is said. There is only one edition, yet one Dresden copy has in leaf 6<sup>a</sup> of the preliminary matter in the last line, De Carole V., instead of which there is in the other copy, De Carolo V. The collection contains very many extremely remarkable documents for the history of the first half of the 16th century, and L. Schubert has translated single pieces therefrom in Die neue Literatur und Völkerkunde 1788, März, p. 235 sq. April, p. 337 sq.—The chief works of reference are Sallengre Mémoires de litt. T. II. Part II. p. 205-232. Unschuld. Nachrichten 1717. p. 945 sq. Baumgarten Nachrr. von einer hall. Bibl. II. 392 sq. Clément Bibl. cur. VII. 369 sq. Debure Bibliogr. Belles lettres, I. 394 sq. Schellhorn's Ergötzlichkeit. III. 1005. Beloe Anecdotes of literature, I. 143 sq. Renouard Catal. III. 249.

15917 PASQUILLUS ecstaticus, una cum aliis etiam aliquot sanctis pariter et lepidis dialogis, quibus præcipua religionis nostræ capita elegantissime explicantur. Omnia, quam unquam antea, cum auctiora tum emendatiora. Adjectæ quoque sunt quæstiones Pasquilli, in futuro concilio a Paulo III. indicto disputandæ. Without place or date (Bas., Oporinus, about 1544). 8°. 19 leaves and 304 pages.

The 2nd edition enlarged. The first and scarcest edition, without place or date (ib., id., 1544). 8°. 200 pages, is printed with the same types as the preceding work, to which it should be joined. Genève, J. Girardus, 1544. 8°. is enlarged and altered, and Genève, Columesius, 1667. 12°. is enlarged with the Pasquillus theologaster. In Italian, Pasquino in ecstasi etc. Roma, without date. 8°. In French, Les visions de Pasquille. Without place, 1547. 8°. 344 pages. In German, Der versucket Pasquinus, Aus Welscher Sprach inn das Teutsch gebracht. Rom, 1543. 8°. In English, Pasquin in a Traunce, a Christian and learned dialogue, wherein besydes Christo's truth playnely set forth, ye shall also finde a nombre of pleasaunt hystories.

Lond. without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

PASSÆUS, see PAS.

15918 PASSAGES, les, de oultre mer du noble Godefroy de Bouillon qui fut roy de Hierusalem, du bon roy saint Loys et plusieurs vertueux princes qui se sont croisés pour augmenter et soutenir la foy chrestiene; avec autres nobles faits des roys d'Espagne et de Hongrie, contre les ennemis de notre sainte foy catholique. (Par.), en la rue S. Jacques à l'enseigne de l'éléphant (Fr. Regnault), without date. small 4°. Gothic letter.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and the signatures a-v 5. The text begins, Entendez roys et princes, and ends, et fut ce fait en lan mil cccc. iiii. xx et xij (1492). This date does not refer to the printing, but to a victorious action of the king of Spain, mentioned therein. As to the rest Brunet thinks that this is a different work from the following.

15919 — passages d'oultremer faitz par les François (par Sb. Mamerot). Par., Mch. le Noir, 27 Nov. 1518. small fol. Gothic letter.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 237 numbered leaves, and 1 unnumbered leaf with the printer's symbol. The author says in the advertisement that he composed this work in 1472.

15920 — la gran conquista de ultramar (en 4 libros). Salamanca, Hans Gieser, 21 Junio 1503. fol. Gothic letter.

This work, written by Alphonso the Wise, was without doubt the source of both the above French works. Concerning this Spanish original consult Gasp. Ibañez Memorias histor. de Alonso el Sabio. Madr. 1777. small fol. p. 471.

15921 PASSAMONTE. Libro di bataglia chiamato Passamonte; nuovamente tradutto di prosa in rima historiato. Ven., Mch. Sessa, 20 Mazo 1514. 4°.

This very scarce romantic poem is written in the Venetian dialect. The author calls himself, in the last stanza, Zandandra Narciso.

15922 PASSAVANTI, Jac. Specchio di vera penitenza. Fir., Tartini e Franchi. 1725. 4°. with Passavanti's portrait.

This edition, superintended by Ant. Mar. Biscioni, is the best, and is cited by the academy della Crusca. Verona, Ramanzini, 1798. 4°. is a good reprint of it. Fir., Sermartelli, 1585. 12°. and Fir., Vangelisti, (1681). 12°. are also cited by the academy della Crusca. The other editions are, Fir. (without the printer's name), 12 Marzo 1495. 4°. (the first edition). Fir., Sermartelli, 1580. 12°. Ven. 1586. 8°. Fir. (Napoli), 1723. 8°. Ven. 1741. 8°. Mil. 1808. 8°. 2 voll. (Classici It.)

15923 PASSERATIUS, Janus. Kalendæ Januariæ et varia quædam poemata. Lut., Angelerius, 1606. 8°.—Recueil des œuvres poetiques. ib., id., 1606. 8°.—Oratt. et præfatt. Par., Douceur, 1606. 8°.

15924 — de literar. inter se cognitione ac permutatione liber. Par., Douceur, 1606. 8°.

A new edition of this equally scarce and useful book, enriched with the later advances of palæography, were greatly to be wished.

15925 PASSERI, J. Bt. Lucernæ fictiles musei Passerii. Pisauri, 1739–51. fol. 3 vols. with plates.

The 1st vol. has 105 plates, the 2nd 104, and the 3rd 110. Copies which have not the 3rd vol. are scarcely of any value at all.—(Annib. Olivieri) Glossæ marginales ad musei Passerii lucernas, collectæ a. 1739, colle riflessioni di Pt. Tombi. Pesaro, Gavelli, 1740. 4°.

15926 — picturæ Etruscorum in vasisculis, nunc primum in unum collectæ, explicationib. et dissertatt. illustratæ. Romæ, Zempel, 1767–75. large fol. 3 vols. with 300 illuminated plates.

Copies with uncoloured plates are cheaper by half. The work is valuable in a literary point of view, but altogether worthless for artists, being supplanted by more recent and better works.

15927 — (anon.) novus thesaurus gemmarum veterum, ex insignioribus dactyliotheccis selectarum, cum explicatione. Romæ, Monaldini, 1781–83. fol. 3 vols. each with 100 plates.

The designs and engravings are as unfaithful as they are clumsy, and the explanations are much too short and insufficient. Brunet mentions a new edition, Romæ, 1797. fol. 4 vols. each with 100 plates. Probably the 4th vol. only is new, and the first 3 vols. have merely a new title.

15942 PASTISSIER françois, (le), où est enseigné la manière de faire toute sorte de pâtisserie, très-utile à toute sorte de personnes. Amst., L. et Dn. Elsevier, 1655. 12°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, and 252 pages. Badly printed. Brunet remarks on this article, "I had not hitherto thought this insignificant book worthy of being received into my manual, but at last I gave way to the suggestions of the lovers of Elzevir impressions, who consider this piece as the scarcest of the whole Elzevir collection. Besides, why should I not admit a book, which was sold in October 1819 for 101 fr. ! Even the English, who, as is known, trouble themselves very little about this kind of books, pay their tribute to the Pastissier françois. The copy of the duke of Marlborough's was sold at London in 1819 for 11. 4s., consequently only about a shilling cheaper than a fine copy of Bond's Horace of 1676, which was disposed of at the same sale."

The most complete and the finest edition, although on the whole it is nothing more than an impression of the Paris edition of 1685, enlarged with 4 new poems and explanations, already given in Muratorii Anecdota, T. I. p. 1. sq. Muratori's secundæ curæ are of little importance. Compare therewith Cuper's learned observations on these new poems in Claror. Belgar. epistolæ ad Magliabech. I. 339-350, of which Muratori has made no use (ib. I. 45 and 56). Mingarelli gave a new recension of three of these new poems in the Anecdotorum fasciculus. Romæ, 1756. 4°. which were reprinted in Gallandi Bibl. PP. VIII. 211-227.—Paulini ep. ad Alathium, quam maxima ex parte anecdotam edid. Ph. Angelic. Becchetti, in Anecd. litt. T. II. PAUS, see LOWBOG, No. 12413.

16048 PAUSANIAS (gr.). Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Jul. 1516. fol.

2 leaves of preliminary matter, 282 pages, and 1 leaf, colophon and anchor. The first edition, and scarce; superintended by M. Musurus. It is however a hasty and incorrect impression from a bad MS., the faults of which are often very uncritically corrected by Musurus. There are also copies on large paper (240 fr. M'Carthy).

16049 — Accurata Græciæ descriptio (gr. lat.), a Gu. Xylandro diligenter recognita et ab innumeris mendis repurgata. Acc. annotationes, quæ a Gu. Xylandro inchoatæ, nunc vero a F. Sylburgio continuatæ magnaue accessione locupletatæ &c. Addita etiam Romuli Amasæi versio. Ff., hered. And. Wecheli, 1583. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 508 pages of Greek text, then the Latin translation and notes (with a separate title), 6 leaves and 352 pages, and last of all 38 leaves of index. Well printed, and very correct. Sylburgius corrected both the text and the translation very happily.

16050 — (the same title). Hanov., typis Wecheliani, 1613. fol.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 899 pages, and 38 leaves of index. An unaltered impression of the preceding. The Latin translation is here placed by the side of the Greek.

16051 — descriptio Græciæ (gr.) cum lat. Romuli Amasæi interpretatione. Acc. Gu. Xylandri et F. Sylburgii annotationes ac novæ notæ Jo. Kuhnii. Lps., Fritsch, 1696. fol.

A new revision of the text, a copy of the Aldine, corrected by Casaubon, having been made use of. There are copies on a larger and somewhat stronger paper, which are very scarce.

16052 — Græciæ descriptio, gr. Recensuit, ex codd. et aliunde emendavit, explanavit J. F. Facius. Lps., Schäfer, 1794–96. 8°. (7 d., on writing paper 10 d.)

A new, but too hasty recension from 2 MSS. The 4th vol. contains the Latin translation of Amasæus.

16053 — Græciæ descriptio (gr.). Ed. stereotypa. Lps., Tauchnitz, 1818. 12°. 3 voll. (1 d. 12 gr.)

16054<sup>a</sup> — Ἑλλάδος περιηγησις. Description de la Grèce. Traduction nouvelle, avec le texte grec collationné sur les MSS. de la bibl. du roi, par Et. Clavier. Par., Eberhart, 1814–20. 8°. 6 voll. (90 fr., on vellum paper 180 fr.)

A new recension after 5 MSS. hitherto uncollated. Of great critical and exegetical value. The translation is more faithful than that of Gedoyn. Clavier died during the printing of the 2nd vol. and Coray and Courier superintended the remaining vol.

16054<sup>b</sup> — Græciæ descriptio. Edidit, græca emendavit, latinam Amasæi interpretationem castigatam adjunxit et adnotatt. atque indices adjecit C. Gf. Siebelis. Vol. I. Lps., Weidmann, 1822. 8°. (2 d. 12 gr.)

mitius Calderinus E Græco traduxit. Atticæ descriptio. Without place or date. (Ven., Bernardin. Venetus, about 1498). 4°.

48 numbered leaves, with 31 lines, and the signatures A-M. Leaf 48a, the last or 23rd line is, CVM GRATIA ET PRIVILEGIO. The types, paper-mark, and internal arrangement, are entirely the same as in the edition of the Panegyrici vet. described in No. 15744. Myrsilus Lesbios de origine Italiae et Turrenorum. etc. Ven. Bernardin. Venetus, 1498. 4°. has completely the same resemblance, with which work Pausanias is also sometimes bound up (Crévenna's first Catal. V. 99); so that it is extremely probable that the Panegyrici, Pausanias, and Myrsilus, were printed at one press, and about the same time. The editions of Pausanias which Panzer quotes, III. 441, and IX. 189, 254, are consequently one and the same with that, which he, in the passage last referred to, erroneously ascribes to Scinzenzeler's press at Milan.

16056 — de florentiss. veteris Græciæ regionibus commentarii (lat.) a Romulo Amasæo conuersi. Cum indice et rer. et verbor. locupletiss. Bas., Mch. Isingrin, 1557. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 802 pages, and 70 leaves, index and printer's symbol. Amasæus's translation, which is more elegant but less faithful than the subsequent one of Löcher, previously appeared, Romæ, 1547. 4°. Flor., Torrentinus, 1551. fol.

16057 — de veteris Græciæ regionibus commentarii (lat.). Interprete Romulo Amasæo. Nunc denuo cum textu græco collati, a mendis quamplurimis emendati et notis illustrati a F. Sylburgio. Cum rer. et verbor. indd. Ff., typis Wecheliani, 1624. 8°.

Also, Ff. 1670. 8°.

16058 — de tota Græcia libri X. hactenus a nemine in linguam lat. conuersi, nuncque primum in lucem editi Abr. Loescheri interprete. Acc. rerum et verbor. index. Bas., Oporinus, m. Aug. 1550. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 438 pages, and 25 leaves of index. Then (with a separate title), N. Gerbelii pro declaratione picturæ s. descriptionis Græciæ Sophiani libri VII. ib., id., (1550). fol. 6 leaves, 297 pages, and 7 leaves of index. Löcher VOL. III.

made use of a MS. in his very faithful translation.

16059 — descrizione della Grecia di Pausania. Tradotta dal greco in volgare da Alfonso Bonacciuoli. Mantova, Fr. Osanna, 1593. 4°.

Nibby has shewn that Bonacciuoli not only did not understand Greek, but has also translated very negligently and unfaithfully. There are also copies with the date, 1594.

16060 — viaggio istorico della Grecia, trad. dal gr. in ital. Roma, 1792-93. 4°. 5 parts.

16061 — descrizione della Grezia di Pausania, nuovamente dal testo greco tradotta da Ant. Nibby. Roma, Poggioli, 1817. 8°. 4 vols. with a map.

A new translation from the Greek. In the corrupted passages Nibby has made use of the conjectures of Kuhn, Facius, and Clavier, and occasionally attempted some of his own. He has moreover promised to publish explanatory notes.—Professor Ciampi at Pisa has also been for some time employed upon an Italian translation.

16062 — Pausanias ou voyage historique de la Grèce, trad. en franç. avec des remarques, par N. Gedoyn. Par., Didot, 1731. 4°. 2 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

This translation is in a flowing style, but only made after Amasæus's Latin translation, and so faulty and unfaithful as to be useless, yet it is still greatly prized in France. The 1st vol. has 1 title-plate, 1 map, and 2 plates; the 2nd, 2 maps and 2 plates. At the end of the 2nd vol. there should be VI. pages, Observations de Follart sur la bataille de Mantinée. The edition, Amst. 1733. 12°. 4 vols. with plates, is scarce, and greatly sought after. Par. 1797. 8°. 4 vols. with plates, is badly printed. Clavier's translation (see above) is faithful and elegant.

16063 — ausführliche Reisebeschreibung von Griechenland, aus dem Griech. mit Anmerk. von J. Eustach. Goldhagen. 2e Ausg. Berl., Schöne, 1798-99. 8°. 4 parts in 2 vols. (4 d.)

Previously, ib. 1765-66. 8°. 2 vols. The translation is very unfaithful, and the 2nd edition is very incorrectly printed.

16064 — the description of Greece. Transl. from the Greek, with notes

(by Th. Taylor). Lond., Jeffrey, 1793. 8°. 3 vols. with plates and maps.

Not very faithful, and in no great estimation even in England.

16065 — Ant. Nibby saggio di osservazioni critiche, geografiche, antiquarie sopra Pausania. Roma, de' Romanis, 1817. 8°. 45 pages.

16066 PAUTRE, J. le. Œuvre d'architecture. Par. 1751. small fol. 3 vols. Also on large paper.

A collection of 780 plates, the impressions of which however are very bad. The earlier edition, Par. without date. large fol. 2 vols. is better, and dearer.

16067 PAUTRE, Ant. Œuvres d'architecture. Par., Jombert, without date. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

16068 PAUW, Corn. de. (anon.) Recherches philos. sur les Américains. Ed. nouv. Berl. 1772. 8°. 3 voll. (3 d.) In German (by C. Ghelf Lessing). Berl. 1769. 8°. 2 voll. (1 d. 8 gr.) — Recherches philos. sur les Egyptiens et les Chinois. Berl. 1773. 8°. 2 voll. In German by J. G. Krünitz. Berl. 1774. 8°. 2 voll. (1 d. 8 gr.) — Recherches philos. sur les Grecs. The Œuvres are only a collection of the preceding works. His work on the Greeks is called by Vilhoison, in Wolf's Litt. Analecta, I. 416, Ouvrage intéressant et amusant, plein d'esprit, d'anecdotes et de mauvaise foi.

16178 PEREFIXE, Hardouin de. Histoire du roy Henry le Grand. Amst., L. et Dn. Elzevier, 1661. 12°. 522 pages.

A neat and scarce edition. A bad reprint, with the same date, but of a larger size, may be distinguished by its having only 514 pages. Amst., Dn. Elzevier, 1664. 12°. is less fine, but enlarged, and Amst., Dn. Elzevier, 1678 (1679 on the title-plate). 12°. is equally good. Amst., Michiels, 1662 (1661 on the title-plate). 12°. is also neat. But all these editions are very incorrect. Par., Renouard, 1816. 8°. (8 fr., on vellum paper 16 fr.) is very correct.—In German, Lps. 1669. 12°. and best, Tüb. 1793. 8°. (1 d. 4 gr.) In English by le Moine, Par., Didot, 1785. 8°. In Dutch, Harlem, 1680. 8°.

Therewith is usually bound, Objectiones Mch. a Palacios adversus nonnulla ex multiplicibus paradoxis Antonianæ margaritæ et apologia eorundem. Methymnæ Campi, 1555. fol. 18 leaves.—Nova veraque medicina, experimentis et evidentibus rationibus comprobata. Methymnæ Duelli, Fr. a Canto, 1558. fol.

Both these very scarce works were formerly greatly sought after, as it was maintained that Descartes had taken the principles of his philosophy from them. A reprint, Madr. 1749. fol. deprived them of their rarity, and an altered disposition, of their interest. The following small piece, belonging thereto, is still more scarce, Endecálogo contra Antoniana margarita. Medinæ Campi, 1556. 8°.

16201 PEROTTUS, N. Rudimenta grammatices. Romæ, Cr. Sweynheym et Arn. Pannartz, 19 Mart. 1473. small fol.

The first dated edition, and very scarce. There is also an old impression, without place or date, 4°. without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, with 32 lines; and two other editions, very like each other, without place or date, 4°. without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, both with 30 lines, which are distinguished from each other by the letter of Perottus being dated in one of them, Viterbii 4 cal. Dec. 1481 (instead of 4 cal. Nov. 1468).

16202 — — Romæ, Arn. Pannartz, 2 Dec. 1474. large 4°.

111 leaves with the register at the end. The first typographical production of Pannartz after his separation from Sweynheym, and likewise very scarce.

16203 — — Romæ, J. Ph. de Lignamine, 29 Maji 1475. small fol.

16204 — — Neap.. Mthi. Moravus without date (about 1475). 4°.

Very scarce.

16206 — — In studio Patavino, Alb. de Stendalia, 17 Jun. 1475. fol.

111 leaves with 37 lines. In the Bibl. Spenc. III. 100. it is without any ground called a Neapolitan typographical production.

16207 — — Romæ, Arn. Pannartz, 25 Febr. 1476. fol.

Very scarce.

16208 — — Neap., Sixt. Riessinger, 1476. 4°.

16209 — — Par., (Cesaris), 1477. fol.

The later editions are of little value.

16210 — cornucopiæ sive linguæ latinæ commentarii. Ven., Aldus, m. Jul. 1499. fol.

A scarce edition, and the most sought after. 26 leaves of preliminary matter, and 642 pages. The first edition was, Ven., Paganinus de Paganinis, pridie id. Maji 1489. fol. It is well known that this work is properly a commentary on the 1st book of Martial. The text of Martial is nevertheless omitted in most editions, and is only to be found in the following, Lugd., Maillet, 1501. fol. Arg., Prüss, 1506. fol. Bas., Curio, 1532. fol. ib., Walder, 1536. fol.

16211 — (anon.) cornucopiæ s. linguæ lat. commentarii etc. M. Terentii Varronis de lingua lat. libri III. Ejusd. de analogia libri III. S. Pompeji Festi XIX. libror. fragmenta. Nonii Marcelli compendia. Additus præterea est longus tractatus de generibus. Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Nov. 1513. fol.

79 leaves of preliminary matter numbered underneath, 1 blank leaf, 1436 columns, and 1 leaf with the anchor. There are 2 distinct Aldine impressions, both of which have the year 1513 at the end, one of which however is an incorrect and less scarce reprint of the edition of 1517. They may be distinguished by the earlier one being dated at the end of Perrot's work, col. 1054, m. Sept. 1513, whereas in the later one this column is by a typographical error numbered 1064, and there the date is m. Majo 1517.

16212 — cornu copiae s. commentarii lat. linguæ. Tusculani apud Benacum, Alex. Paganinus, 1522. 4°.

Sought after on account of the peculiar types, which are Italic approaching to Roman. Concerning the edition, ib., id., 1432 (1532). fol. in which the printer defends abbreviations, and would again introduce them into printing, see (Kohl's Briefwechsel der Gelehrten auf das Jahr 1750. p. 217 sq. Lessing's Leben, III. 355.

- 16213 — cornucopiæ (as in No. 16211). Huc accedunt castigaciones in hunc ipsum Nonium obiterque in Varronem et Festum ex vett. codd. fide Mch. Bentini opera. Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Martio 1527. fol.

81 leaves of preliminary matter, numbered underneath, 1436 columns, 1 leaf with the anchor, and 14 unnumbered leaves (Bentini castigat.) The book has 3 colophons, namely, col. 1054, m. Majo 1526, col. 1436, m. Sept. 1526, and at the end of the last leaf of the Castigat., m. Martio 1527.

- 16214 PÉROUSE, J. Fr. Galaup de la. Voyage autour du monde (pendant les a. 1785–88), rédigé et publié par L. A. Millet-Mureau. Par., impr. de la républ., an 5 (1797). 4°. 4 vols. and atlas in large fol. of 70 plates (120 fr.)

Id. an 6 (1798). 8°. 4 vols with an atlas in fol., which is often wanting, is a cheaper edition. In English, Lond. 1799. 4°. 2 vols. with an atlas in fol. ib. 1807. 8°. 3 vols. with an atlas in fol. (2l. 2s.) In German in the Magazin der Reisebeschr. B. 16 and 17.—See also LABILIARDIÈRE and D'ENTRECASTEAUX.

- 16215 PERPINIANUS, Pt. J. Opera (cura Pt. Lazeri). Romæ, Palearingi, 1749. 8°. 4 vols. with Perpinianus's portrait.

The 4th vol. has the title, Pt. Lazeri De vita et scrip. Perp. diatriba. Five letters, which are wanting in this collection, were first printed in Zacharia Excursus litt. I. 283 sq.

- 16216 PERRAULT, Charl. Les hommes illustres qui ont paru en France pendant ce siècle, avec leurs portraits au naturel. Par., Dezallier, 1696–1700. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with portraits.

The 1st part contains 1 title-plate, Perrault's portrait, and 50 other portraits; the 2nd 50 portraits. The work is greatly sought after on account of the costly portraits by Edelinck; copies however with the first impressions should, if possible, be obtained.

When the work was about to appear, the biographies and portraits of the Jansenists, Arnauld and Pascal, were obliged to be withdrawn from vol. I. p. 15, 16, and 65, 66. by command of the higher powers; and in order to fill up the lacunæ, those of Thomassin and du Cange were inserted in their stead. Some collectors however contrived to obtain the two suppressed portraits, and appended them to their copies. Afterwards, as this order had lost its power (according to the Tableau histor. des littérateurs françois, T. II. Versaill. 1785. 8°. p. 173, the government was obliged to recall it, in consequence of the loud clamour of the public, in order that the sale of the work might not be injured), the publisher again removed the portraits and biographies of Thomassin and du Cange, and restored those of Arnauld and Pascal in their places.

The copies with the first impressions are consequently to be considered to be those in which Arnauld's and Pascal's portraits (without their biographies) are to be found appended at the end of the volume. A still more valuable copy, says Brunet, would be that which has the first impressions, and contains the biographies and portraits both of Thomassin and du Cange and those of Arnauld and Pascal, in such a manner, that p. 15, 16, and 65, 66. of the 1st vol., and plates 8 and 33 be double. Such a copy the Royal library at Dresden actually possesses.

The edition, Par. 1805. fol. with impressions of the same plates, is of very little value.

- 16217 — contes de ma mère l'Oye. Par., Lamy, 1781. 12°. with plates.

A good edition of these often printed contes. Also on Dutch paper, and on large Dutch paper. A copy on vellum in 4 vols. with the original designs 27l. at Paris's sale. In German in the Blaue Bibliothek.

- 16218 — parallèle des anciens et des modernes, avec le siècle de Louis le Grand, poëme. Par. 1688–92 or 1692–97. 12°. 4 voll.

The chief production in that celebrated controversy. His Siècle de Louis le Grand. Par., Coignard, 1687. 4°. had given the first rise to it. The literature of this controversy may be found in Artigny Mémoires, II. 256. Catal. Bunav. T. I. vol. I. p. 453. vol. II. p. 1330. Catal. Vallière, VI. 346.

- 16219 PERRAULT, Cl. (anon.) Mémoires pour servir à l'histoire naturelle des animaux (avec la suite). Par., impr. roy., 1671-76. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with 15 and 14 plates.

This work forms an appendage to the Cabinet du roi, but is at a very low price in France notwithstanding its plates. Copies without the continuation are of no value at all. The edition, Par., impr. roy., 1676. large fol. with the same plates, contains also the continuation, and has the author's name in the title. The new edition, Par. 1688 fol. is enlarged with 4 new plates, but only 124 pages of the text appeared. It was to have been continued, and 7 new plates had already been engraved for the purpose, which were not published. This unfinished edition was found in great numbers at Anisson's sale (Paris 1795), from whence the bookseller Lamy acquired it, and brought it into circulation with a new title of 1702 (with only 12 plates, and 118 pages of text). The same work also forms T. III. P. 1-3 of the Mémoires de l'acad. des sciences in 4°. (in the Paris or Amsterdam edition), and was published at the same time with a title of its own, and under different dates. In the latter form Dodart's Mémoires sur les plantes is added to it, which work is printed in the same way.

16220 PERRET, Et. XXV. fables des animaux, vray miroir exemplaire, par lequel toute personne raisonnable pourra voir la conformité et vraye similitude de la personne ignorante aux animaux bestes brutes. Anvers, Plantin, 1578. fol. 26 leaves, with fine plates.

Also, Dordr. (not Delf), 1618. fol. with not such good impressions.

16221 PERRIER, Fr. Segmenta nobilium signorum et statuarum, quæ Romæ exstant, a Fr. Perrier delineata atque in ære incisa, Romæ, de Rubeis, (1653). fol. 1 title-plate, 100 plates, and 2 leaves, index.

There are also copies, Romæ, 1637 or 38. fol. Par., veuve Perrier, without date (other copies 1645). fol. Both also of 100 plates. *Signor. et statuar. symbola Perrieriana, eleganti cælo denuo exsculpta a Pt. Schenckio. Greatly prized, and well got up. The supplement may be had by itself for 36 fr. The edition, Par. 1788. 4°. with an atlas in fol. (90 fr.) contains additions, out of which the supplement for the large edition was formed.

16225 PERROT, A. Collection historique des ordres de chevalerie civils et militaires, existant chez les différens peuples du monde, suivi d'un tableau chronologique de tous les ordres éteints. Par., André, 1819. 4°. with 30 illuminated plates (36 fr., on vellum paper 72 fr.).

16228 PERSEPOLIS illustrata or the ancient and Royal palace of Persepolis in Persia, destroyed by Alexander the Great, with particular remarks concerning that palace, and an account of the ancient authors who have wrote thereupon. Lond., Harding, 1739. fol.

16229 PERSIANO, figliuolo di Altobello, poema. Ven., Cp. da Mandello, 1493. 4°. Ven., Rusconi, 1506. 4°. Ven. 1570. 8°.

According to Quadrio the author was Luca Molini.

16230 PERSIUS Flaccus, Aulus. Satyræ. Without place or date (Romæ, U. Gallus, about 1470). 4°.

A very scarce edition, and probably the first printed with the same types as the Juvenal of U. Gallus (see JUVENALIS, No. 11189), with which it is sometimes bound up. 14 leaves with 25 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, FLACCI PERSII VOLTERANI SA, and at the end of the last satire is FINIS. As the prologue is numbered as the 1st satire, the number of satires consequently reaches to seven.

16231 — Persii Lucillii Auli Flacci Poete Satirarū: Liber Feliciter Incipit. Without place or date (Arg., Mt. Flach, about 1472). fol. Gothic letter.

12 leaves with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The last line of leaf 12<sup>b</sup> is, Explicit ignotus per totum Persius orbem, which verse however by no means proves that this is the first edition, as the same verse not only occurs in the edition which appeared at Cracow about 1510 (see below), but also in MSS. (Bandini catal. codd. lat. bibl. Laur. II. 125 and 255, where it nevertheless is to this purport, Explicit intortus per totum Persius Orcus).

16232 — satyræ. Without place or date (Andegavi). fol. Gothic letter.

17 leaves, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, with a somewhat singular Gothic letter type. There is more space than usual between the lines. The edition, which is old and rather unknown, begins with the superscription, Auli persii flacci in satyrarum librum prologus constans metroiam bico trimetro. At the end is, A. P. F. Satyrarū p̄cipis liber feliciter finit, and underneath the 4 following verses:

*Excepit claros andegauense poetas
Ut studium! Persi, ut cito sculptus ades
Gallorum egregias sic sculptus perge per urbes
Ut possit spacium cernere glosa suum.*

Still lower beneath is:

Philippinus italicus poeta Lauro insignitus.

These verses prove, that this edition appeared at Angers, where printing had been carried on since 1476 (see above, CICERO, No. 4300).

16233 — satyræ. Without place or date. fol.

9 leaves with 36 lines in Roman characters, and 2 Gothic letter initials. (Gothic letter initials to a work in Roman characters are also to be found in the undated Justin with 36 lines, No. 7670, above). According to Audiffredi, Catal. edd. Rom. p. 414, it was probably printed at Rome.—The undated edition in the Dresden library, of which Passow makes mention, I. 143, is only a piece of the Juvenal, No. 11203, and no typographical production of Lauer's.

16234 — satyræ cum commentario Bm. Fontii. Ven., (without the printer's name), 1480. fol.

28 leaves with signatures. The first edition with this commentary, which had previously appeared in 1477 by itself, and without the text (see FONTIUS). The pretended edition, Mediol., Scinsenseler, 1480. fol. in Crévénna's second Catal. III. 164, is only a typographical error for 1490.

16235 — satyræ. Impressus Salutiis, arte et impensis Martini de la Valle, correctusq; ac emendat' diligēti op̄a egregii Mri Johannis Gauderii rectoris scholarium saluciēsium, 10 Febr. 1481. fol. Gothic letter.

The only known typographical production of Saluzzo in the 15th century, and set down at 6 guineas in the catalogue of the London bookseller, Edwards, for 1796. There are 35 lines in a full page, and after the satires follows a letter of St. Bernard in 2 leaves.

16236 — satirarum opus cum interpretatione Bm. Fontii. Without place or printer's name (Vicentiae, Henr. Librarius), 1481. fol. 28 leaves.

- 16237 — satyræ cum commentariis J. Britannici. Brix., Gbr. Tarvisinus et Paulus fil., 13 Nov. 1481. fol.

- 16238 — satyrarum opus. Daven-triæ, 1482. fol.

Panzer, I. 354, took this edition from Maittaire.

- 16239 — satyræ cum Bm. Fontii commentario. Ven., Renaldus de Nouiomagio, 24 Dec. 1482. fol.

22 (not 20) leaves, the first of which is blank, with the signatures a-d.

- 16240 — (the same title). Ven., Bt. de Tortis, 6 Dec. 1482. fol.

26 leaves with the signatures a-e. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with Fontii proœmium.

- 16241 — (the same title). Ven., Dion. de Bertochis et Pelegr. de Paschalibus, 10 Sept. 1484. fol.

28 leaves with the signatures a-e. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with Fontii proœmium.

- 16242 — (the same title). Mediol., Ant. Zarotus, 1484. fol.

- 16243 — (the same title). Ven., Ant. de Bactibobus, 14 Sept. 1485. fol.

Also, ib., id., 1493. fol.

- 16244 — (the same title). Mediol., Scinzenzeler, 1490. fol.

- 16245 — satyræ cum J. Britannici et Bm. Fontii commentariis. Ven., Bernardin. Benalius et Mth. Capcasa, 3 Aug. 1491. fol.

48 leaves with the signatures a-h. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with a letter of Britannicus. The first edition in which these two commentaries appear united.

- 16246 — satyræ cum J. Britannici et Bm. Fontii commentariis. Ven., Bm. Venetus de Ragazonibus, 17 Jan. 1492. fol. 48 leaves.

- 16247 — satyre. Wienne (J. Winterburg), 1492. 4°. Gothic letter.

- 16248 — satyrarum opus. J. Britannici commentarii in Persium. Bm. Foncii (sic) in Persio commentarii. Ven., J. de Tridino, 13 Febr. 1494. fol.

49 leaves with the signatures a-i. At the end this work is stated to be Recognitum ac castigatum a Bm. Merula.

63 leaves with the signatures a-l. In this edition the prolix and insignificant commentary of Pseudocornutus appeared for the first time, which however the editor, J. Bonardus, has frequently interpolated, on account of defects in the MS.

- 16254 — P. Auli Persii familiaris explanatio (Jod. Badii Ascensii). Cum J. Britannici eruditissima interpretatione. (Acc. Ph. Beroaldi or. habita in enarratione Persii, et Ang. Politiani in eundem prælectio.) Lugd., J. de Vingle, 7 Aug. 1500. 4°. Gothic letter.

92 leaves with the signatures a-m. Also, ib., id., 1506 or 11. 4°. Par., (Ascensius), 1507 or 20. 4°. 100 leaves. Lut., N. le Sauetier, 2 Oct. 1525. 4°. 100 leaves.

16 leaves with the signatures A-C, superintended by Hm. Busch. Passow more than once erroneously calls it a production of Thanner's press. Repeated, Lps., Mch. Lotter, 1507. fol. ib., id., 1512, or 14, or 16, or 20. 4°. 16 leaves. ib., Jac. Thanner, 1512 or 17. 4°.

16259 — Aulus Flaccus Persius Cum glosis Scipionis ferrarii Georgii filii de monte ferrato. Without place or date (Ven., Bernardinus Venetus, about 1500). 4°.

A very scarce edition. 102 numbered leaves without signatures. The paper-mark is a pair of scales, and the printer is the same as he who produced the Panegyrici vet. (No. 15744) and the Pausanias (No. 16055). In leaf 102<sup>b</sup> is the following colophon in Gothic letter: Cum Gratia et Privilegio Ob Inuentionem. Ordinem. Modum. Industriam. Tabulā. Postillas. et Quotationes Auctoritati. The commentator, Ferrarius, displays, according to Passow, an uncommonly correct view, and a genius more formed by classical antiquity than do Fontius and Britannicus.

16260 — satyræ cum J. Bt. Plautii interpretatione. Bon. 1502. fol.

16261 — Persii familiaris explanatio (Jod. Badii Ascensii) cum J. Britannici eruditissima interpretatione. Lugd., J. de Platea et Jac. Myt, 20 Nov. 1510. 4°.

84 numbered leaves in small Italic characters with the signatures a-l. A reprint of No. 16254 above. The same is contained in the edition, Mediol., ex libraria Minutiana (N. Gorgonzola), without date (about 1510). fol. 54 leaves.

16262 — Auli Perscii (sic) Flacci Poete Satyrici opusculum elegantissimum: magna cura et diligentia recognitum: atque ex archetypo probo: ac sincero excussum. Without place or date (Cracoviae, about 1510). 4°. Gothic letter.

16 leaves with the signatures a and b.

This very scarce edition has hitherto remained unknown to bibliographers. On the reverse of the title is, Ad pubem Cracoviensem magistri pauli Croenēsis Ruteni Carmen phalecum endecasyllabum, then follows the bare text without any notes, and a poem of the same Paulus, leaf 15<sup>a</sup>, Exhortatio ad virtutem amplectendam, forms the termination.

16263 — satyrarum opus. Viennæ Pannoniæ (Hi. Vietor), 1511. 4°.

16264 — satyrarum opus. Eiusdem vita. Vuittenburgi, J. Gronenbergk, 1512. 4°.

16265 — castigatissimum Persii poematum J. Bt. Plautii frugifera interpretatione, nec non cum Cornuti, J. Britannici ac Bm. Fontii aureis commentariis. Ven., J. Rubeus, 25 Apr. 1516. fol.

129 leaves with the signatures a-x. Repeated, Ven., Bn. de Vianis, 15 Dec. 1520. fol.

16266 — satyræ complusculis quibus scatebant mendis repurgatæ, cum ecphrasi et scholiis J. Murmellii. Daventriæ, 1516. 4°.

Also, Col., Quentel, m. Sept. 1517. 4°. Arg., Knoblauch, 1517. 4°.

16267 — satyræ, luculentissima ecphrasi et scholiis J. Murmellii illustratæ. Hm. Buschii epistola, qua Persiani prologi et primæ satyræ argumentum explicatur. Col., Cervicornus, m. Aug. 1522. 4°.

Also, Col., Cervicornus, 1525 or 28. 8°. Magdeb., Mch. Lotther, (1537). 8°. Cyprian. Vomelius superintended the last reprint.

16268 — satyræ cum quinque commentariis, et eorum indice: ac satyrarum argumentis. Jod. Badii Ascensii, J. Britannici, J. Bt. Plautii, Ælii Ant. Nebrissensis, J. Murmellii. Additis ad calcem L. J. Scoppæ in eundem adnotationibus. Par., Ascensius, 1523. fol.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, and 164 numbered leaves. Ascensius gave in this edition his trivial commentary revised.—An edition, ib., id., 1525. fol. is a non-entity, and what was formerly Engel's copy (Panzer, VIII. 90.) was of 1523.

16269 — satyræ cum comm. Ælii

Ant. Nebrissensis Compluti, 1526. 4°.

Also, Lucronii, Eguia, 1529. 8°.

16270 — commentarii Ælii Ant. Nebrissensis in sex Persii satyras (cum textu). Par., Rb. Stephanus, 1527. 8°.

For the Colinaean editions of 1528, 35, and 42, see JUVENALIS.

16271 — satyræ sex, J. Murmellio scholiaste, cum indice copiosiore et annotatione varietatis, quæ est in carmine Persiano. Item Hm. Buschii prologi ac primæ satyræ explicatrix epistola, autoris vita ex Crinito, ac pauculis quibusdam de satyra et satyrographis annexis. Par., Ch. Wechel, 1531. 4°. 135 pages.

The various readings of the Aldine are added. Repeated, ib., id., 1538. 4°. 135 pages. ib., id., 1546. 8°.

16272 — satyræ, luculentissima ephrasi simul et scholiis J. Murmellii illustratæ. Quibus acc. Erasmi Rot. in eisdem annotationes. Item Hm. Buschii epistola ad intelligentiam Persii multum conducens. Col., J. Gymnicus, 1538. 8°.

8 leaves and 127 pages.

16273 — satyræ, luculentissima ephrasi simul et scholiis J. Murmellii illustratæ. Adjecta est epistola Hm. Buschii ad intelligentiam Persii multum conducens. Antw., Ægid. Diest, 1546. 8°. 60 leaves.

16274 — Ant. Foquelinii in Persii satyras commentarius ad Pt. Ratum (cum textu). Par., And. Wechel, 1555. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 187 pages, and 4 leaves of index. The commentary is after the plan of Pt. Ramus. According to Passow, Foquelinus is distinguished by making the whole business of a commentator to consist in hunting after parallels, devoid both of plan and object.

16275 — satyrarum liber emendatus ab Elia Vineto, qui et annot. adjecit. Additus quoque est A. Cornuti commentarius. Pictavii, Enguilb. Marnef, 1560. 4°.

16276 — A. Persius Flaccus, brevis-

VOL. III.

sinis annotationibus illustratus. Le mesme Perse est en l'une des pages traduit en vers franç. par forme de paraphrase, par Gu. Durand. Par., a Prato, 1575. 8°. Ed. II. augm. ib., id., 1586. 8°.

16277 — in Persii satyras sex quatuor præstantium virorum commentarii, (Ph.) Valentini, (Ant.) Volsci, (Ph. Engelbrecht) Engentini, (Ant.) Foquelinii. Labore et stud. J. Th. Freigii nunc prim. conjuncte editi (cum textu). Bas., Pt. Perna, (1578). 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 198 pages, 4 leaves, 232 pages, and 7 leaves of index.

16278 — satyræ sex a Nicod. Frischlino ex vetustiss. codicis fide paraphrasi luculenta illustratæ: Valentini insuper, Volsci, Eugentini et Foquelinii commentariis explicatæ. Bas., ad Pernæam lecythum, 1582. 4°.

95 and 198 pages, 6 leaves (1 blank), 232 pages, and 5 leaves of index. The first 95 leaves only are new, the rest is the preceding number appended thereto. — Pt. Pithæus gave a new and in reality the first recension of Persius from a MS. of Mth. Corvinus with an ancient gloss, never before printed, in his Juvenal of 1585 and 90.

16279 — Nicod. Frischlini in Persii satyras paraphrases (cum textu). Ff. a. M., Spies, 1587. 8°.

16280<sup>a</sup> — satyrar. liber. paraphrasi illustratus a Fed. Ceruto. Veronæ, Discipulus, 1597. 8°.

16280<sup>b</sup> — Fr. Sanctii in A. Persii Fl. opera notæ. Salmant. 1591 or 1613. 8°.

16281 — satyrar. liber. Ad hunc emendatt. et commentarius Thdr. Marcilii. Lut. Par., Cl. Morellus, 1601. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 62 and 155 pages, and 4 leaves.

16282 — satirarum liber. Is. Casaubonus recensuit et commentario libro illustravit. Par., Drouart, 1605. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 43 pages, and 2 leaves. Then the commentary with a separate title, 16 leaves of preliminary matter, 558 pages, and 16 leaves of index (the first blank). The text of Pithæus forms the basis, although the editor sometimes deviates from it. He has made very negligent and cursory use of the MSS. of Bongarsius. More attention has been paid to explanation, and his commentary is very rich in matter; consult Passow's Persius, I. 147. Par., Drouart, is really a fresh impression, but altogether unaltered; the above collation applies also to it.

16283 — satyrarum sex liber singularis a St. Claverio redditus et explanatus. Par., Fouet, 1607. 8°.

16284 — satyræ et in eas commentationes, observatt. et paralipomena Bn. Autumni. Par., Fouet, 1607. 8°.

16285 — satyrarum liber. Ad hunc emendationes et commentarius, plures et auctior, quam priore editione, Thdr. Marcilii. Par., Orry, 1613. 4°. 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 188 pages, and 4 leaves. L. A. Cornuti commentum in Persii satyras, cum vet. cod MS. collatum, auctum et emendatum. ib., id., 1613. 4°. 4 leaves and 95 pages. Persii satyræ cum antiquissimis commentariis, qui Cornuto tribuuntur. Eliæ Vineti præfat. et annotatt. J. Britannici interpretatio. Ph. Beroaldi oratio habita in enarratione Persii. Ang. Politiani prælectio in eundem. Pt. Pithœi variæ lectt. et notæ ad vett. glossas, Thdr. Marcilii emendatt. et commentarius. ib., id., 1613. 4°. 5° and 142 pages.

A prized edition, which contains good collections, yet but little of its own. It forms the 2nd vol. of the Paris edition of Juvenal of 1613. The above collation is after the Dresden copy. The latter title however is properly perhaps the chief title.

16286 — satyræ. Par., Rb. Stephanus, 1614. 12°.

16287 — satyræ, cum notis postumis J. Bond. Lond. 1614. 8°.

The editor was Roger Prowse. Enlarged with an index of words, (Cura J. Holungi), Nrb., Halbmayr, (1625). 8°. Par., Vitray, 1641. 8°. Par., Cramoisy, 1644. 8°. Amst., Jansson, 1645 or 59. 12°. Consult Classical journal, X. 316.

16288 — satirarum liber. Is. Casaubonus recensuit et commentario libro illustravit. Tertia editio, auctior et emendatior ex ipsius auctoris codice, cura et op. Merici Casauboni. Acc. et Græcorum interpretatio. Lond., Flesher, 1647. 8°.

16289 — Persius enucleatus s. commentarius in Persium, studio D. Wedderburnii. Amst., Dn. Elzevir, 1664. 12°.

16290 — satyræ cum comm. H. Scalesii. Neap., Porcile, 1690. 8°. 3 voll.

Scarce, but a worthless chaos of the most irrelevant and trivial information.

16291 — satirarum liber, cum ejus vita, vetere scholiaste, et Is. Casauboni notis, qui eum recensuit et commentario libro illustravit, una cum ejusd. Persiana Horatii imitatione. Ed. novissima auctior et emendatior ex ipsius auctoris codice cura et op. Merici Casauboni, LB., van der Aa, 1695. 4°.

Merely an impression of the London edition of 1647. This edition is both to be met with by itself and also added to the Juvenal of Henninius, with a new title of 1695.

16292 — satyræ or the satires with improvements for the use of schools, in a method entirely new, by J. Stirling. Lond., Astley, 1736. 8°.

The pretended new method consists in a grammatical construction of the words of Persius.

16293 — satyræ (lat. et gall., cum commentario J. Rdf. Sinneri). Bernæ, Wagner, 1765. 8°. with vignettes (20 gr.). Also on writing paper.

The external appearance is very pleasing, but the printing not quite correct. The prose translation is faithful, but often flat and prolix. The commentary contains many new and ingenious views.

16294 — satyras sex ad fidem optimar. editt. una cum variis lectt. codicis Ebneriani edid. G. F. Sebalus, tabulisque æneis incidit J. Mch. Schmidius. Nrb., Schmid, 1765. small 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and

64 pages. Not finely engraved, and very uncritically superintended. The various readings are particularly insignificant, nor is there given a facsimile of the codex, which however might here so easily have been done.

- 16295 — satirar. liber cum glossis veteribus (cura F. Wfg. Reiz). Lps., Schwickert, 1789. 8°. (2 gr.) Also on writing paper.

The text is frequently corrected from conjecture, and is without notes, but the poet's meaning is rendered much more obvious by a careful and often clever punctuation.

- 16296 — satiræ, with Brewster's translation. Lond., Bulmer, 1790. 4°.

This very fine edition, prepared by R. Heber Esq. at his own cost, was one of the first productions of Bulmer's press, and never came into the market, see Dibdin Decam. II. 384. Renouard Catal. II. 294.

- 16297 — satiren. Text u. Uebersetzung. Mit Einleitt. u. Erläutt. versehen von G. Gst. Fülleborn. Züllichau u. Freystadt, Frommann, 1794. 8°. (14 gr.)

- 16298 — satiræ VI. Ad optimor. exemplarium fidem recensitæ atque proemio et indice rerum instructæ a G. L. König. Gött., Dieterich, 1803. 8°. (3 gr., on writing paper 5 gr., on vellum paper 8 gr.) Ejusd. commentarius perpetuus in Persii satiras VI. ib., id., 1803. 8°. (12 gr., on writing paper 20 gr., on vellum paper 1 d. 6 gr.)

In a critical point of view a complete failure, and very unsatisfactory in its exegetical matter.

- 16299 — satiræ VI. uno libro comprehensæ, ad optimas editiones collatæ, cum selecta lectionum varietate et perpetua annotatione. Acc. index uberrimus cum interpretatione. Nrb., Lechner, 1803. 8°. (20 gr., on writing paper 1 d. 8 gr.)

Of no value whatever. Merely the text and various readings of Sebald's edition. But the commentary, according to the witty remark of a reviewer, can only so far be called a running commentary, that it runs away whenever any one comes to consult it. But the following edition is poor below all criticism, Satyræ, edit.

Benno Ortmann, cum paraphrasi leutonica et notis illustrantibus. Monach., Lentner, 1807. 8°. (12 gr.)

- 16300 — Aulus Persius Flaccus. Von Fr. Passow, 1 Theil. Text u. Uebs. Ueber das Leben u. die Schrr. des Persius. Anmerkungen zur ersten Satire. Lpz., Fleischer, 1809. 8°. (2 d.)

A new recension from MSS. and old editions. A continuation however has not yet appeared.

- 16301 — satiræ, ad codd. Parisinos recensitæ, lectionum varietate et commentario perpetuo illustratæ a N. L. Achaintre. Acc. C. Lucilii satirar. fragmenta, nec non Sulpiciæ satira. Par., Didot, 1812. 8°. (8 fr., on vellum paper 16 fr.) Also on large vellum paper.

The editor made use of 26 MSS., but only occasionally. The commentary contains much useful matter, but much also that is trivial.

- 16302 — opera omnia ex edit. G. L. König cum notis et interpretatione in usum Delphini, variis lectt., notis varior. et vet. scholiastæ, recensu editionum et codicum, et indicibus locupletissimis accurate recensita. Lond., Valpy, 1820. 8°.

- 16303 — interpretação literal as satyras de Persio, com suas annotações, por João Mendes da Fonseca. Lisb. 1785. 4°. (480 rees).

- 16304 — Aulo Persio Flaco traducido en lengua castellana, por Diego Lopez, con declaration magistral. Burgos, Varesio, 1609. 8°.

See JUVENALIS, No. 11238.

- 16305 — le oscurissime satire di Persio con la chiarissima spositione di Gi. Ant. Vallone di Castelmorardo con diversi capitoli interposti, e con la vera origine di due case Colonna e Pignatello. Nap., Caccchio, 1576. 8°.—Persio trad. in verso sciolto e dichiarato da Fr. Stelluti (col. testo lat.). Roma, Mascardi, 1630. 4°.—Satire trad. in verso toscano da Ant. Mar. Salvini (col. testo lat.). This edition, which I do not find elsewhere, has at the end Ven., Comin da Trino, 1548, and probably only differs in the title from the edition, Ven., Comin da Trino, 1548. 4°. Also, ib., id., 1549, or 50, or 51. 4°. with woodcuts. All these editions are of equal rarity and of equal value, and contain 40 cantos. Previously, Ven. 1546. 8°.

Alethini (i. e. J. Clerici). Amst., Gallet, 1700. fol. 6 parts in 3 vols.

The best edition of an esteemed work. The earlier edition, Par., Cramoisy, 1644-50. fol. 4 parts in 5 vols. (also on large paper) is in little estimation.

The best edition. The 3rd vol. contains beside the Uranologion several other pieces of Petavius (De lege et gratia, Epp. etc.) which were first added in this edition. The reprints, Verona, 1734-36. fol. 3 vols. and Ven. 1757. fol. 3 vols. are cheaper, and the original edition, Par., Cramoisy, 1627. fol. 2 vols., to which the Uranologion of 1630 should be added, is at a still lower price.

16338 PETITOT. Répertoire du théâtre français, ou recueil des tra-gédies et comédies restées au théâtre depuis Rotrou, avec des notices sur chaque auteur, et l'examen de chaque pièce, par Petitot (et Fiévé). Par., Didot, 1803-5. 8°. 23 vols. with plates (120 fr., on vellum paper 140 fr.). Supplément, Par., Foucault, 1817. 8°. 4 vols. with 11 plates (40 fr., on vellum paper 80 fr.).

A well superintended and well printed collection, which met with such approbation, that in 1817 the entire impression of 2300 copies was sold off. When the supplement has been added, the following new, but less fine edition, may be dispensed with.

- 16339 — — Nouv. édit. augmentée des chefs-d'œuvre de Beaumarchais, Colin d'Harleville, Ducis et Lefevre. Par., Foucault, 1817-19. 8°. 25 vols. with 85 plates (150 fr., on vellum paper 300 fr.).

For this edition, which contains 123 dramatic pieces, the very indifferent and almost entirely worn out plates of the preceding edition have been adopted, consequently the first edition deserves the preference, when the supplement is included.

- 16340 — Répertoire du théâtre français du troisième ordre, faisant suite aux deux éditions du répertoire publiées en 1803 et en 1817, avec un discours préliminaire, par Petitot. Par., Foucault, 1819-20. 8°. 8 vols. (48 fr., on vellum paper 96 fr.)

This collection is not sold without the preceding. The following is a similar collection, Répertoire général du Théâtre Français. Par. 1813. 12°. 51 vols. (also on vellum paper), and another is, Répertoire général du Théâtre Franç. Edit. stéréot. Par., Nicolle, 1818-19. 12°. 67 vols. (216 fr., on vellum paper 360 fr.) See also REPERTOIRE.

- 16341 PETITRADEL, L. (anon.) Fasti Neapolitanei. Les fastes de Napoleon. Par., Didot, anno 13 (1804). 4°.

There are 3 editions with the same date. One in large 4°. and one in 8°. (both contain only 25 inscriptions), and a third in large 4°. with 50 inscriptions. Of this last edition there were only 48 copies on paper, 1 copy on vellum, and one copy printed on blue vellum paper with golden letters; see Peignot Répertoire des bibliographies spéciales, p. 105 and 171.

- 16342 — les monumens antiques du musée Napoléon, gravés par Th. Piroli, avec une explication par J. G. Schweighaeuser et L. Petit-Radel. Par., Piranesi, an 12 (1804-6). 4°. 4 vols. with plates.

The first 3 vols. have each 80 plates, the fourth 78. The work appeared in 32 Nos. at 6 fr., and on vellum paper at 12 fr.

- 16343 PETITRADEL, Ph. De amoribus Pancharitis et Zoroæ, poema eroticon, Idalio stylo exaratum. Par., Molini, 1798. 8°. with plates.

A copy on vellum 150 fr. M'Carthy.

- 16344 PETIVER, Jac. Gazophylacii naturæ et artis decades X. (Lond. 1702-11). fol.

Complete copies of this work, although not a fine production, are uncommonly scarce and dear. To complete copies belong, 1. 100 plates, without a separate title. 2. Catalogus classicus et topicus omnium rerum figuratar. in V. decadibus s. primo volumine gazophylacii. Lond., Bateman, 1709. 4 pages. 3. Catalogus classicus . . . in V. decadibus s. secundo volumine gazoph. ib., id., 1711. 4 pages. 4. Gazophylacii decas VI-X. (an explanatory text to these last 5 decades), ib., id., without date, 12 pages. These pieces are commonly bound up together in one volume. Yet must there also be added to it, the text to the first 5 decades, which appeared separately, Gazophylacium naturæ et artis, dec. I-V. Lond., Bateman, 1702-6. 8°. 96 (not 94) pages.

To which may be added (although it does not necessarily belong thereto), Musei Petiveriani centuria I-X., rariora naturæ continens. Lond., Smith, 1695-1703. 8°. with plates.

- 16345 — catalogue of Ray's English herbal illustrated with figures, on which are engraved their names to each etc. Lond. without date. fol.

4 engraved leaves of text and 50 plates.

- 16346 — aquatilium animalium Amboinæ etc. icones et nomina. Lond., Bateman, 1713. fol.

4 printed leaves of text and 20 plates.

- 16347 — pterigraphia Americana, icones continens plus quam 400

filicum variar. specierum. Without place or date. fol.

3 engraved leaves of text and 20 plates.

16348 — hortus Peruvianus medicinalis, or the south-sea herbal. Lond. 1715. fol.

2 printed leaves of text and 5 plates.

16349 — plantarum Italiae marinarum et graminum icones et nomina. Lond. 1715. fol.

1 leaf of text and 5 plates.

16350 — Petiveriana s. naturæ collectanea, domi forisque auctori communicata. Lond. 1716-17. fol. 12 pages.

16351 — opera, historiam naturalem spectantia. Lond., J. Millar, 1764 or 67. fol. 2 vols. with plates.

See a collation of this collection, which consists entirely of single pieces, in Cobres Catal. I. 170-2. The 1st vol., according to Cobres, has 156 plates (according to Brunet, 180); and the 2nd has 135 according to Cobres (126 according to Brunet). There are also copies with illuminated plates.—See anecdotes concerning Petiver in Uffenbach's Reisen, II. 583, 594.

16356 PETRARCA, Fr. 1. Canzoniere. Sonetti e trionfi. (Ven.), Vindelinus (de Spira), 1470. large 4°.

The first edition, very scarce, and greatly sought after, notwithstanding its incorrectness. 180 leaves, with 30 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 7 leaves contain an alphabetical list of the beginnings of each separate sonnet, and leaf 1<sup>a</sup>, line 1, is, (a) Pie decollis labella uesta. The Sonetti begin in leaf 8<sup>a</sup>, and line 1 is (v) OI CHASCOLTATE INRI. The Trionfi follow in leaf 137<sup>a</sup>, and line 1 is (n) EL TEMPO CHE RINNOVA. They end on the folio recto of the last leaf, with the following colophon: FINIS. MCCCCCLXX. Underneath are 6 Latin verses; Que fuerāt multis quōdam confusa tenebris. A copy on vellum was discovered in 1810 in the library of prince Santo Pio at Naples, another is said to be in the library of the duke of Marlborough at Blenheim, according to Dibdin's Bibliomania, p. 424 (yet in the Bibl. Spenc. IV. 133. he does not make any further mention of it, although he speaks of a vellum copy in the library of St. Mark, which likewise seems to be doubtful).

A pretended undated edition in the Ambrosian library at Milan, which Volpi was inclined to consider as the first, was only a defective copy of the edition of Leonardus Achates of 1474, as Marsand has proved in his edition of Petrarch, T. II. p. 317. (Padova, 1820. 4°.) Sweynheym and Pannartz also probably intended to print Petrarch in 1470, as may be concluded from Fr. Philolphi Epp. Ven. 1502. fol. lib. 33. ep. 5. fol. 229<sup>b</sup>.

16357 — triumphi, canzone et sonetti. Roma (G. Lauer), 10 Luglio, 1471. small fol.

The 2nd edition, extremely scarce, of which only 3 copies are known; two complete, in the Royal libraries at Naples and Paris; and one incomplete, formerly the duke of Cassano-Serra's, now lord Spencer's. 197 leaves, with 27 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First come the Trionfi on 40 leaves; and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, NEL TEMPO ch rinova imie sospiri. Then follows the life of Petrarch on 5 leaves with the colophon, expliciunt triumphi & vite Petrarce. Next a blank leaf, and then the Sonetti and Canzoni on 152 leaves, which end with an account of the life of Laura, and with the well known verses, Valle locus clausa etc. After these verses follows the colophon:

Qui finisce le canzone et sonetti del petrarcha poeta excellentissimo facto i Roma Nel tēpo del Sanctissimo in Xpo patre et Signor nro. S. Paulo. p la divina poidētia papa ii. et del suo pōtificato año septimo Nelli anni del nro Signor Yho. Xpo. M. CCCC. LXXI. adi X di luglio.

The types are entirely the same as those with which the undated Curtius of Lauer, and his Eutropius of 1471, are printed.

- 16358 — rerum vulgarium fragmenta (sonetti, canzoni e trionfi). In urbe Patavina, Mt. de septem arboribûs Prutenus, 6 Nov. 1472. small fol.

The 3rd edition, greatly prized, and fine; and although rather incorrect, yet printed directly from an autograph (ex originali libro, as the colophon expresses it). 188 (not 196) leaves, with 30 lines in a full page. The first 8 leaves contain a tabula, and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, A piedi colli dela bella uesta a Ca iii. The Sonetti begin in leaf 9<sup>a</sup>, and line 1 is, OI CHASCOLTA. This first sonnet is entirely printed in small capitals, and occupies the whole page, although in other copies only 3½ lines are printed in capitals, and the rest in Roman characters. The sonnets, which fill 138 leaves, end in leaf 146<sup>a</sup> with the following colophon in small capitals: Francisci Petrarcae poetæ excellentissimi rerum vulgarium fragmenta expliciunt. The Trionfi (37 leaves) begin in leaf 147<sup>a</sup>, the first page of which (of 26 lines) is likewise entirely printed in small capitals. They end in leaf 183<sup>b</sup>, with the colophon in small capitals, Francisci Petrarcae poetæ excellentissimi triumphus sextus et ultimus de eternitate expliciunt M. CCCC. LXXIII. Nicolao Marcello principe regnante impressum fuit hoc opus feliciter in Venetiis. :Finis. In leaf 183<sup>a</sup> follows, MEMORABILIA quædã de laura manu ppria Francisci petrarcae scripta in quodã codice Virgilii in papiensi biblyotheca reperta, together with other notices respecting Laura. The life of Petrarch begins in leaf 184<sup>a</sup>, and ends in leaf 187<sup>b</sup> with the following colophon, EXPLICIVNT TRIUMPHI ET VITA PETRARCE. A copy on vellum (formerly 1800 fr. Brienne-Laire, and 3000 fr. M'Carthy), is now in the possession of Mr. Hibbert, of Clapham, near London. There are slight differences in the paper copies; for example, in the 4th canzone, leaf 6<sup>b</sup> line 1, tẽpo; in others, Tempo. Line 2, i; in others, in. Line 3, p; in others, per. Line 4, cãtando; in others, cantando (consult Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. II. 139. Marsand's Petrarca, II. 319). As to the rest, Gamba, in the Serie, I. 339, erroneously considers Bm. di Cremona to be the printer, although the types are entirely the same as those in Jenson's Cicero de oratore of 1470.

- 16359 — sonetti e trionfi. Romæ, J. Ph. de Lignamine, 20 Maji 1473. small fol.

The 4th edition, and tolerably scarce. 197 leaves, the first 151 of which contain the Sonetti, the following 40 the Trionfi, and the last 6 the life of Petrarch and other appendages. Without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

- 16360 — carmina amorum, triumphus et vita Petrarce. Ven., (N. Jenson), 1473. small fol.

The 5th edition, fine and correct, 187 leaves, with 28 lines (and 30 in a full page), without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First 7 leaves, Tavola (leaf

1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, A pie di colli dela bella uesta a Ca. ii), leaf 8 is blank, and the sonnets begin in leaf 9<sup>a</sup>, where the first line is, (v) OI CHASCOLTATE IN. The Sonetti, which fill 137 leaves, end in leaf 145<sup>b</sup>, with the colophon in small capitals, Francisci Petrarcae poetæ excellentissimi carminum amorum finis. The Trionfi (on 37 leaves) follow in leaf 146<sup>a</sup>, and the first line is, (n) EL TEMPO CHE RI. In leaf 182<sup>b</sup> is the principal colophon, together with the date in small capitals, Deo gratias. Francisci Petrarcae poetæ excellentissimi triumphus sextus et ultimus de eternitate expliciunt M. CCCC. LXXIII. Nicolao Marcello principe regnante impressum fuit hoc opus feliciter in Venetiis. :Finis. In leaf 183<sup>a</sup> follows, MEMORABILIA quædã de laura manu ppria Francisci petrarcae scripta in quodã codice Virgilii in papiensi biblyotheca reperta, together with other notices respecting Laura. The life of Petrarch begins in leaf 184<sup>a</sup>, and ends in leaf 187<sup>b</sup> with the following colophon, EXPLICIVNT TRIUMPHI ET VITA PETRARCE. A copy on vellum (formerly 1800 fr. Brienne-Laire, and 3000 fr. M'Carthy), is now in the possession of Mr. Hibbert, of Clapham, near London. There are slight differences in the paper copies; for example, in the 4th canzone, leaf 6<sup>b</sup> line 1, tẽpo; in others, Tempo. Line 2, i; in others, in. Line 3, p; in others, per. Line 4, cãtando; in others, cantando (consult Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. II. 139. Marsand's Petrarca, II. 319). As to the rest, Gamba, in the Serie, I. 339, erroneously considers Bm. di Cremona to be the printer, although the types are entirely the same as those in Jenson's Cicero de oratore of 1470.

- 16361 — Sonetti e trionfi. (Mediol.), Ant. Zarotus, 1473. small fol.

The 6th edition, fine, and far scarcer than the preceding. 130 leaves, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. This edition contains neither the Tavola nor the life of Petrarch, and commences at once with the first sonnet. The first line of the Trionfi is, EL TEMPO CHE RINNOVA.

- 16362 — incomincia el libro chiamato trionphi d'amore facto: e composto per lo excellentissimo: e summo poeta miser Francesco Petrarca da Fiorenza; per amor di madona Laura. Parmæ, And. Portilia, pridie nonas Martii 1473. 4°.

A very scarce and fine edition, which only contains the Trionfi, with the commentary of Fr. Philelfus on the Canzoniere, now printed for the first time. 122 leaves

(so many has the royal copy at Paris, according to the assertion of Brunet, who declares Panzer's statement of 240 leaves, II. 350, to be wrong, but Marsand specifies only 120 leaves), with 28 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The book begins, without any farther preliminary matter, with the above title, the first 6 lines of which are printed in small capitals. In the folio recto of the last leaf is this colophon in 8 Latin verses: Quæ condam totū lector quesita p orbem etc.; and underneath the date, pridie Nonas Martii. M. cccclxxiii.

16363 — rerum vulgariū fragmenta (sonetti e trionfi), without place. Ln. Achates, 1474. fol.

One of the rarest editions of Petrarch, yet only an incorrect and not a fine reprint of the edition which appeared at Padua in 1472. 174 leaves, with 32 lines, without signatures (according to Brunet, according to Marsand it certainly has signatures), catchwords, and pagination. First 7 leaves, tavola, and in leaf 7<sup>b</sup> is Petrarch's account of Laura. The Sonetti, which fill 128 leaves, begin in leaf 8<sup>a</sup>, and the first sonnet is entirely printed in small capitals, with the exception of the last two words of the 10th line, chi sono, which are in Roman characters. The Sonetti end in leaf 135<sup>b</sup>, with the same colophon in small capitals as that in the edition of 1472. The Trionfi begin in leaf 136<sup>a</sup>, the first page of which is entirely printed in small capitals, and they end in leaf 170<sup>b</sup>, with the same colophon in small capitals as in the edition of 1472. The life of Petrarch begins in leaf 171, and line 1 is, (f)RANCESCO PE: it is followed by two sonnets to his praise, and in leaf 174<sup>b</sup> is the following principal colophon in 10 lines, Francisci petrarche laureati poete necnon secretarii apostolici benemeriti. Rerum uulgariū fragmenta ex originali libro extracta. Vrbs Basilea mihi nomē ē Leōardus achates: Anno christi humanati. M. cccc. lxxiii. Venet. Duce. Nicol. Marcel.

This colophon has misled some bibliographers (in the last instance even Dibdin), to consider Basle as the place of printing, which is altogether wrong. Maittaire, and after him Debure, decide for Venice, where Achates is said to have printed in 1472-74. The latter opinion rests solely on the colophons of his Virgil of 1472 (Venet. Duce. Nicol. Trono) of his Virgil of 1473 and of his Petrarch of 1474 (Venet. Duce. Nicol. Marcel.), in all which the place of printing is not separately and expressly stated. But the same statement (Duce de Venesia Nicol. Marcello) is also in the colophon of his Vite de sancti padri, which, according to the express notification of the colophon, he printed in 1474 at Santo Urso, a town in the Venetian dominions, near Vicenza; and in the same year he printed at Vicenza itself the Dittamundi of Fazio (see FAZIO). It consequently does not necessarily follow from this notification of the reigning doge of Venice, that those works themselves must have been printed at Venice; might they not then have appeared from presses which were known to exist in other places of the Venetian dominions (and Santo Urso and Vicenza really belonged to Venice)? In fact, according to Santander's Dictionn. III. 250, and Brunet, III. 51, it is most probable, that the Petrarch was printed either at Santo Urso or at Vicenza, as it is extremely doubtful, whether Achates ever printed at Venice, as the name of that city does not really appear in any of his typographical productions.

As to the rest, this edition contains neither the commentary of Bernardo Illicinio, nor the Trionfi alone, as some bibliographers have maintained, but the Sonetti, Canzoni, and Trionfi, entire; yet only the text without any commentary.

16364 — sonetti e trionfi. Without place or date. very small fol.

The 9th edition, which Dibdin and Brunet make to follow immediately after that of Achates. The only copy hitherto known, in lord Spencer's library (Dibdin's bibl. Spenc. IV. 141), is without the tavola, and contains 176 leaves, with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The types are half Gothic letter and half Roman character. In the internal arrangement it agrees so nearly with Jenson's edition of 1473, as to be evidently a reprint of it. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, (v)OI. CHASCOLTATE. IN. The Sonetti end in leaf 137<sup>b</sup>, with the same colophon in small capitals, as Jenson's edition does. The Trionfi begin in leaf 138<sup>a</sup>, and the first line is, (n)EL TEMPO. CHE. RINO. They end in leaf 172<sup>a</sup> with the colophon, DEO GRATIAS. Then 4 leaves, Memorabilia quædam de Laura etc. as in Jenson's edition, and leaf 176<sup>b</sup> is the colophon:

EXPLICIVNT TRIUMPHI ET VITA. PETRARCE.

16365 — sonetti e trionfi. Without place or date. fol.

In fine Roman characters, with signatures, but without catchwords and pagination. Giustiniani in the Saggio sulla tipografia del regno di Napoli, p. 58 (and after him, Panzer, IV. 384), considers it to be a Neapolitan typographical production, which however the duke of Cassano-Serra, who possessed it, doubted (see Petrarca ed. Marsand, II. 336). The types are at least quite different from those of Moravus.

- 16366 — gli trionfi del Petrarca con la expositione di Bn. Glicino. Bon., without the printer's name, (Blhs. Azzoguidi), 27 Apr. 1475. fol.

The first edition with this commentary. 244 leaves (the last blank), with 47 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with a prologue (a) D Illustrissimum Mutinæ Ducem Divum Borsium estensem. After the colophon there follows a tavola on 5 pages. The real name of Bn. Glicinio, or Illicinio, was Bn. Lapini.

- 16367 — sonetti e canzoni col commento di Fr. Filelfo. Bononiæ, ad instantiam et petitionem Sigismundi de Libris, 1476. fol.

In Roman characters, and 41 lines in a full page. One of the rarest editions, a copy of which is in the Royal library at Stuttgart. The printer has not mentioned his name.

- 16368 — li Soneti Cāzone et Triūphi del auctore p̄dicto Messer Frācesco petrarca. (Ven.), impensa Gasparis de Siliprandis de Mantua ductu Dominici ejus filii, 1477. 4°. 187 (not 179) leaves with signatures. Incomincia la vita et il commento sopra li Sonetti, Canzone et triumphi, composto et compilato per Ant. da Tempo. Venetiis, (8 Maji 1477. 4°.) 68 leaves, with signatures, 2 parts in 1 vol.

A very scarce edition, and important on account of its peculiar readings, concerning which consult Ang. Pessana Notizie bibliografiche a due rarissime edizioni del sec. XV. Parma, Bodoni, 1808. 8°. The first part, or the text of Petrarch, begins with 7 leaves, tavola. Leaf 8<sup>b</sup> (8<sup>a</sup> is blank) is a register. Leaf 9<sup>a</sup> begins the Sonetti; and the first line is, Sonetto Primo d. F. P. At the end of them is a colophon. Then follow the Trionfi, at the end of which is, Qui finisseno li triumphi del Petrarca. Next follows Petrarch's account of Laura, his life, &c. and at the end, Qui finisseno li Soneti. Cāzone. et Triūphi del auctore p̄dicto Messer Frācesco petrarca. The second part, or the commentary, begins with the above title, and ends with a Latin letter of Siliprandus to Fil. di Gonzaga, at the end of which is, Venetiis VIII. Maii.

MCCCC. LXXVII. The description in Dibdin's Ædes Althorp. II. 315. differs somewhat from this.

- 16369 — Liber Fr. Petrarchæ, quem composuit in amorem Lauræ (Sonetti e Canzoni). Neap., Arn. de Bruxella, 20 Martii 1477. fol. Trionfi. ib., id., 3 Apr. 1477. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A very scarce edition, which has a text in the Trionfi greatly deviating from that of the editio princeps of 1470, and which seems to be taken from a MS.

- 16370 — Fr. Petrarchæ poetæ clarissimi triumphorum sex. At the end, Impressus Lucæ liber est hic: primus ubi artem de Civitali Bartolomæus init. Anno MCCCCLXXVII (1477) die XII. Maji. Fol.

Of this edition, which would be the first typographical production of Lucca, no copy is as yet known.

- 16371 — il commento deli Sonetti e Cançone del Petrarca composto per Fr. Philelpho. Venexia, Thdr. de Reynsburch et Reynald. de Novimagio, 30 Marzo 1478. Il commento de li triumphi del Petrarca composto per Bn. da Siena. ib., iid., 6 Febr. 1478. fol. Gothic letter, 2 parts in 1 vol.

The 1st part contains 89 leaves, the 2nd 196. Not scarce, yet the 2 parts are not easily met with together. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris.

- 16372 — triumphorum sex liber. Flor., without the printer's name, 18 Nov. 1480. 4°.

34 leaves, with 33 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with the superscription, Domini Francisci Petrarce Florentini poetæ clarissimi Triūphus amoris incipit.

- 16373 — il commento deli Sonetti e Cançone del Petrarca: composto per Fr. Philelpho. Venexia, Ln. Wild de Ratisbona, 1481. Il commento deli triumphi del Petrarca composto per Bn. Ilicino da Siena. ib., id., 1481. fol. Gothic letter. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The 1st part contains 76 leaves, with the signatures A-K. The 2nd part is often wanting. The edition is not fine, has bad readings, and is incorrectly printed.

16374 — rerum vulgarium liber (sonetti e trionfi). Ven., Ph. Vetus, 14 Aug. 1482. fol.

The types greatly resemble those of Jenson or Bm. da Cremona; and when the leaf with the colophon is wanting, and the signatures are not considered, the edition may easily be taken to be of an older date than it really is. Yet it has bad readings, and is very incorrect.—The rest of the editions of the 16th century are for the most part of no extrinsic or intrinsic value.

16375 — el triumpho della fama con el comento di Jac. di messer Poggio. Fir., Fr. Bonaccorsi, 24 Genajo 1485. small 4°.

25 lines, with the signatures a-q.—Il comento delli triumphi del petrarcha composto per Bn. da monte illicinio. Ven., Pasquali e Bertolcho, 8 Apr. 1488. fol. 152 leaves.

16376 — sonetti (e trionfi) corretti e castigati per me Jeronimo Centone Paduano. Ven., Piero Veroneso, 22 (not 20) Apr. 1490. fol.

With Filelfo's commentary on the Sonetti, and Illicinio's on the Trionfi. Although it is incorrectly printed, yet it is distinguished by good readings: but the reprint, ib., id., 1 Apr. 1492. fol., is of no value.

16377 — gli sonetti di misser Fr. Petrarca. Mil., U. Scinzenzeler, 27 Marzo 1494. Petrarca nuper summa diligentia ac maximo studio emendatus (Trionfi). ib., (id.) 10 Febr. 1494. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The Sonetti contain 102 leaves, besides the tavola and the proemio; and the Trionfi 128, besides the tavola and the prologo. Neither fine nor correct, though corrected by Gasp. Visconti from several MSS. (occasionally somewhat boldly). Mil. Scinzenzeler, 20 Aug. 1507. fol. (of which, ib., id., 8 Maso, 1512. fol. is only an incorrect reprint), deviates often from it, and frequently erroneously. But one of the worst editions of all is, Ven., Piero de Zohane di Quarenghi, 17 Zugno, 1494. fol.

With 24 lines, without signatures, catch-words, and pagination. It begins with the following superscription in small capitals:

Domini Francisci Petrarce Florentini: Poetae Clarissimi mi Triumphus Amoris Incipit.

The colophon above is on the reverse of the last leaf. In Crévénna's 2nd catalogue, No. 4711, this edition is set down about the year 1474, which is probably too early, as Petri first began to print since 1490 at Florence, and his Philocolo di Boccaccio of 1472 (see No. 2571 above) is suspected of a typographical error in the date.

16379 — trionfi. Without place or date. 4°.

42 leaves (the last blank), with 27 lines running all across the page, and the signatures a-ciiij. This edition, printed at Florence at the end of the 15th or beginning of the 16th century, commences with the superscription, Triumpho dello amore di messer Francesco Petrarca eccellentissimo poeta fiorentino comincia cap. primo, and ends, Fine de triumphi del clarissimo Poeta Francesco Petrarca. A copy on vellum 48 fr. Vallière, and 350 fr. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy; Melzi of Milan possessed a 2nd copy, the duke of Devonshire has a 3rd (Dibdin's Dec. II. 365), a 4th is in the Magliabechian library at Florence, and a 5th in the library at Upsal.

16380 — le cose volgari di Messer Francesco Petrarca. Ven., Aldo, Luglio 1501. 8°.

177 unnumbered leaves (the last blank), with the signatures a-s; then 8 leaves of index (the last blank), with the signature A; and lastly (in some copies), 4 leaves, with the signature B. These last 4 leaves, which contain a vindication against unfavourable opinions of this edition and errata, might naturally enough have been originally added afterwards, and consequently might be wanting in most copies. The first Aldine edition, scarce, and greatly prized; it is said to have been made from a MS. in Petrarch's own handwriting (in the possession of cardinal Bembo), and is very correct. It should be observed, whether the 64th leaf be included, which contains the sonnets against the Roman court, as this leaf is often cut out both of the Aldine editions, and the Giuntine and Lyons reprints of the Aldine. Copies on vellum in the Royal libraries at London and Paris, in the British Museum (bought by Cracherode at Paris's sale for 511. 9s.), and in lord Spencer's and Mr. Grenville's collections (Dibdin's Decam. II. 347, 369, 371). Marsand saw a copy on vellum in the library of count Méjan at Paris, Poggiali of Livorno has another, and a damaged one with 4 miniatures 155 fr. M'Carthy. A copy on large strong paper is in the library of the seminary at Padua.

16381 — le cose vulgari del messer Francesco Petrarca. Without place or date. (Lyon, about 1501). 8°.

The first reprint of the first Aldine, distinguishable from the following one by its leaves being unnumbered. Copies of this and of the following edition on vellum in the Imperial library at Vienna, and in lord Spencer's collection.

16382 — le cose vulgari del messer Francesco Petrarca. Without place or date. (Lyon, after 1501). 8°.

The 2nd reprint, with numbered leaves. Melzi of Milan possessed a copy on vellum.

16383 — le opere volgari di messer Fr. Petrarca. In Fano Cæsaris, Hi. Soncino, 7 Luglio 1503. 8°.

This uncommonly scarce edition has some things peculiar to itself, particularly at the commencement of the Trionfi. It is printed with the same Italic characters that Aldus made use of. The printer claims these types for Francesco de Bologna in the prefixed letter to Cæsar Borgia, and makes an unintelligible attack on Aldus, as if he wished to appropriate this discovery to himself, whereas Aldus had already by name made honourable mention of Francesco in his Virgil of 1501. As by an oversight the 15th canzone was numbered as the 49th sonetto, all the subsequent numbers are consequently false.

16384 — le cose volgari. Fir., Ph. di Giunta, 10 Marzo 1504. 8°. 185 leaves.

Almost as scarce as the Aldine of 1501, of which it is a reprint. Only moderately correct.

16385 — le cose volgari. Fir., Ph. di Giunta, 17 Agosto 1510. 8°. 181 leaves.

Fine, and scarce; but likewise only a reprint of the 1st Aldine, and not quite correct.

16386 — le opere volgari di messer Fr. Petrarca, cioe, Sonetti et Canzoni in laude di Madonna Laura. Ven., Lazaro Soardo, m. Novemb. 1511. 12°.

This very scarce edition, which also contains the Trionfi, is distinguished by the singularity of its types, which are neither Italic nor Gothic letter, nor cut, and yet appear to be all these. The pages are encircled with a border. The printer asserts in the advertisement, that he has made use of these types for this edition only. He gives the 48th and 49th canzoni, and some verses of the trionfo della morte and della fama, as unprinted; whereas, nevertheless, they had been printed a long time in the earlier editions.

16387 — li sonetti, canzone (sic) et triumphi del Petrarca con li soi commenti (di Filelfo et Illicinio). Ven., Bernardino Stagnino, m. Maggio 1513. 4°.

In the text a faithful impression of a MS. of Petrarch in his own hand-writing, or at least a reprint of the edition, Padua, 1472.

16388 — il Petrarca. Ven., Aldo, m. Agosto 1514. 8°.

The 2nd Aldine. 184 numbered leaves (the last blank), and 24 unnumbered leaves. The colophon is in leaf 183. Greatly prized. The text of 1501 is sometimes corrected in this edition. Copies on vellum in the Royal library at London, in the Riccardi library at Florence, in Renouard's collection, and in the advocate Reina's at Milan. (But not in the British Museum, as Renouard states, Annales des Alde, I. 114. The vellum copy there is of the edition of 1501.)

16389 — opere di Fr. Petrarca, without place, 1514. 8°.

As yet the only known copy of this edition, is that mentioned in the Bibl. Parisina (Lond. 1790. 8°.), No. 328, with the following note of the possessor: Exempl. sans prix, avec grand nombre de miniatures charmantes. Il passait pour constant à Florence, où je l'ai acheté, qu'il y avait imprimé à part, probablement pour quelqu'un des Médicis, et sur les corrections de l'édit. de 1514; car les fautes ne s'y trouvent pas, et il ne m'a pas été possible d'en découvrir une seule. Lord Spencer bought it at Paris's sale for 116l. 11s. and made it a present to his sister, the duchess of Devonshire, now deceased. It is now in the library of the duke of Devonshire. The 174 excellent miniatures were attributed in the same catalogue to Giulio Clovio; they are, however, not by him, as Dibdin, Decam. II. 366, asserts. He is of opinion that the types resemble the Aldine; others have attributed it to the Giunti.

16390 — canzoniere et triumphi di messer Fr. Petrarca. Flor., Ph. di Giunta, m. Apr. 1515. 8°.

193 numbered leaves, and 7 leaves of index. The 3rd Giuntine edition, and more correct than the preceding two. Mr. Heber, of London, possesses a defective copy on vellum (previously 2l. 16s. Pinelli, and 67 fr. M'Carthy). A complete copy on vellum is in the Royal library at Paris.

16391 — il Petrarca. Ven., Alessandro Paganino, m. Apr. 1515. 32°.

Very scarce, and the first pocket edition of Petrarch; yet by no means the first book printed in a very small form; consult Neuer literar. Anzeiger 1807. p. 149 and 189. Volpi asserts, that he saw a copy on vellum in the possession of Apostolo Zeno.

16392 — li triumphhi di messer Fr. Petrarca con la sua vita etc. Fir., Bn. Zucchetto, 28 Aug. 1515. 8°. with woodcuts.

Very scarce even in Italy, but not quite correct. The woodcuts are not badly designed.

16393 — il Petrarca. At the end; P. Alex. Pag. (aninus) Benacenses F. Bena. V. V. (1515 or 16). small 8°.

178 numbered leaves, with the usual appendages and a tavola at the end on unnumbered leaves. Printed in fine Italics, which greatly resemble the Aldine types. There is also a Dante with the same colophon: see above, No. 5697.

16394 — il Petrarca. Mil., in cassa de Alexandro Minutiano, m. Febr. 1516. 8°.

In Italica. A reprint of the Aldine of 1514, but somewhat incorrect. This edition is attributed to the celebrated bibliophile, J. Grolier, and is very scarce.

16395 — il Petrarca. Ven., Aldo ed And. Asolano, m. Giulio, 1521. 8°.

The 3rd Aldine, and likewise greatly prized. 184 numbered and 24 unnumbered leaves. Trivulzio of Milan possesses a copy on blue paper (formerly Gradenigo's of Venice).

16396 — il Petrarca. Without place or date. (Ven., Gr. de Gregori, about 1521). 8°.

With numbered leaves. A reprint of the 3rd Aldine with the same preface, which begins, Tralle molte humane passioni.

16397 — il Petrarca. In Tusculano appresso il laco Benacense, Aless. Paganino di Paganini Brixiano, 1 Giugno, 1521. 32°.

2 unnumbered leaves, and 161 numbered below. Very scarce, and very correct; but printed in a very singular and not fine type, which is a mixture of Roman, Gothic and Italic letter.

16398<sup>a</sup> — il Petrarca. Fior., heredi di Ph. di Giunta, m. Luglio, 1522. 8°.

180 numbered leaves, and 24 pages. The 3rd and last Juntine edition, and greatly prized.

16398<sup>b</sup> — Petrarca con doi commenti (di Fr. Philelpho ed Ant. da Tempo) sopra li sonetti et canzone. Ac etiam com lo commento di N. Peranzone sopra li triumphhi. Ven., Bn. Stagninus, 28 Mart. 1522. 4°.

In all the known copies sheet I or p. 65, &c. in the Sonetti is on smaller paper. In the colophon of the Sonetti, leaf 119<sup>a</sup>, two copies (in the library at Turin, and in the Royal library at Dresden) have stampadi in Tridino instead of the usual stampadi in Venetia. Consult Marsand's Petrarca, II. 350, who considers the Turin copy to be the only one.

16399 — le rime di Fr. Petrarca. Ven., Gr. de Gregoriis, m. Marzo, 1523. 12°.

A copy on vellum 4l. 4s. Pinelli, and one with a written title 81 fr. M'Carthy.

16400 — le volgari opere del Petrarca con la espositione di Aless. Vellutello. Ven., fratelli da Sabbio, m. Agosto, 1525. 4°.

The first edition with this commentary, and scarce. Reprinted, Ven., Vidali, 1528. 4°.

16401 — il Petrarca col comento di Sb. Fausto da Longiano, con rimario et epiteti in ordine d'alfabeto, novamente stampato. Ven., Bindoni e Pasini, 1532. 8°.

The first and only edition of this commentary. The text is printed directly from an ancient MS. and contains good readings of its own.

16402 — il Petrarca colla spositione di misser Gi. And. Gesualdo. Ven., fratelli da Sabbio, m. Luglio, 1533. 4°.

The first edition with this commentary. Repeated, ib., id., 1541. 4°. a copy of which on blue paper 9 fr. M'Carthy.

16403 — il Petrarca con commento di Sylvano da Venafro. Napole, Ant. Jovino et Matthio Canzer, m. Marzo, 1533. 4°.

The only edition of this worthless commentary: but the text is tolerably correct, and the editor has made use either of old editions or probably even of a MS.

16404 — Il Petrarca. Ven., eredi d'Aldo e d'And. Asolano, m. Giugno, 1533. 8°.

183 numbered leaves, 1 blank leaf, and 44 unnumbered leaves (2 of which are blank). The 4th and best Aldine. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at London; lord Spencer has a second.

16405 — il Petrarca con la sua vita nuovamente aggiunta. Ven., Nicolini da Sabbio, m. Febr. 1537. 24°.

The Juntine text, and correct. Marsand, II. 358, mentions a copy on blue paper.

16406 — sonetti, canzoni e triumph di messer Fr. Petrarca con la expositione di Bernardino Daniello da Lucca. Ven., Nicolini da Sabbio, m. Marzo, 1541. 4°.

The first edition of a commentary, celebrated beyond its desert. Also, ib., id., 1549. 4°.

16407 — il Petrarcha con l'espositione d'Aless. Vellutello. Ven., fratelli da Sabbio, 1541. 8°.

Trivulzio of Milan has a copy on blue paper.

16408 — il Petrarcha. Con l'espositione d'Aless. Vellutello. Ven., Gbr. Giolito, 1545 (at the end 1543). 4°. with woodcuts.

This neat edition is really different from ib., id., 1544. 4°. There is also a second impression, ib., id., 1545. 4°. of which Trivulzio of Milan has a copy on blue paper.

16409 — il Petrarca. Ven., figliuoli di Aldo, 1546. 8°.

176 numbered leaves and 18 unnumbered. The 5th and last Aldine, well printed, very correct, and prepared from a copy corrected by Honorato Fastitello.—Ven., Ravano, 1546. 8°. has explanations by Fr. Sansovino.

16410 — il Petrarcha. Con l'espositione d'Aless. Vellutello. Ven., Giolito, 1547. 4°.

According to Marsand's testimony, one of the most careful of Giolito's editions. Ib., id., 1550 or 52. 4°. is a very fine but unaltered reprint. But, ib., id., 1558. 4°. is incorrect.

16411 — il Petrarca corretto da L. Dolce, et alla sua integrità ridotto. Ven., Giolito, 1547. 12°.

Tolerably scarce even in Italy; fine, and very correct. Trivulzio has a copy on blue paper. Repeated, ib., id., 1548, or 50, or 51, or 53. 12°. A copy of the edition of 1553 on blue paper 15 fr. M'Carthy.

16412 — il Petrarca con nuove et brevi dichiarazioni (da Ant. Bruccioli). Lione, Roviglio, 1550, or 51, or 58, or 64. 16°.

Neat, but not very correct.—With notes by Fr. Alunno, Ven., Gherardo, 1550. 8°.

16413 — il Petrarca coll' espositione di Gi. And. Gesualdo. Ven., Giolito, 1553. 4°. with woodcuts.

Fine and very correct, and one of the best editions with this commentary. There is a copy on large paper. Marsand mentions a copy on blue paper of the edition, Ven., Giglio, 1553. 4°. with the same commentary.

16414 — il Petrarca novissimamente revisto e corretto da L. Dolce, con alcuni dottissimi avvertimenti di Giulio Cammillo. Ven., Giolito, 1554. 8°.

Uncommonly correct, and quite an exemplar in printing. A copy on blue paper in the library of the arsenal at Paris (previously, Vallière, VII. 388); a second, 15 fr. M'Carthy. Repeated, ib., id., 1557. 12°: ib., id., 1559. 8°. and often.

16415 — il Petrarca con l'espositione d'Aless. Vellutello. Ven., Giolito, 1560 (at the end 1558). 4°.

This edition is both correct and greatly prized. The edition, Ven., Valgrisi, 1560. 4°. with the same commentary, is fine, and carefully done.

16416 — il Petrarca non nuove expositioni, insieme alcune annotationi d'intorno alle regole della lingua toscana, e una conserva di tutte le sue rime ridotte co' versi interi sotto le lettere vocali. Lione, Rovillio, 1574. 16°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

This edition, superintended by Alfonso Cambi Importuni, is cited by the academy della Crusca, but probably only by accident; since of all the Lyons editions it is without reserve one of the most incorrect, and the least neat; and even its text was superintended with little fidelity. But not only in this edition, also previously in the Lyons editions of 1551 and 1564, the error in the numbers is to be met with; that after the 53rd sonnet, the number 54 is skipped over, and the sonnet following the 20th canzone is numbered 55, on which account the numbering of the sonnets extends to 318 (not 317). Care must be taken, that p. 207-210, which contain the sonetti against the court of Rome, are not wanting.

16417 — il Petrarcha con l'espositione di Gi. And. Gesualdo. Ven., Griffio, 1581 (at the end 1582). 4°.

The last (9th) edition of this commentary, but incorrect and mutilated. Not only the 3 sonetti against Rome are wanting, but also the 4th L'avara Babilonia, which is nevertheless generally to be met with in those editions where the other 3 are wanting.

The series of mutilated editions begins with Ven., Griphio, 1573. 12°. where only the 1st verse of these 3 sonnets is printed. All 3 sonnets are wanting in the following editions: Ven., Pt. Dehuchino, 1580. 32°. Ven., Angelieri, 1585. 12°. Ven., heredi di Dehuchino, 1586. 32°. Ven., Angelieri, 1586. 16°. Ven., Zaltieri, 1592. 24°. Ven., Porro, 1600. 24°. Ven., Bissuccio, 1606. 12°. and probably in several others of the 17th century. Among the most recent editions in that of Nizza, Cognet, 1816. 12°. 2 voll.

16418 — le rime del Petrarca brevemente sposte per L. Castelvetro. Bas., ad istanza di Pt. de Seda-bonis, 1582. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 447 and 378 pages and 1 leaf. The text is incorrectly printed from the Aldine of 1514, and the otherwise valuable commentary of Castelvetro, which appeared in this edition for the first time, is equally incorrect.

16419 — il Petrarca con l'espositione di Aless. Vellutello. Ven., Bertano, 1584. 4°.

The last (28th) edition with this commentary, but very incorrect.

VOL. III.

16420 — il Petrarca, di nuovo ristampato con le figure di Girol. Porro. Ven., Girol. Porro, 1600. 24°.

Scarce, and neat; and prized on account of the plates; but without the 3 sonnets. At the end is, Ven., Zaltieri, 1592. Ven., Misserino, 1610. 24°. has also pretty plates. Ib., id., 1624. 24°. is without plates, but in an uncommonly small and neat character. But, ib., id., 1638. 24°. is very incorrect, and with bad plates.

16421 — le rime di Fr. Petrarca estratte da un suo originale. Il trattato delle virtù morali di Roberto, re di Gerusalemme. Il tesoretto di Ser Brunetto Latini. Con quattro canzoni di Bindo Bonichi da Siena. Roma, Grignani, 1642. fol.

This very scarce collection, which does not contain the canzoniere, but only fragments of Petrarch's other poems, was superintended by F. Ubaldini. Repeated, Torino, 1750. 8°.

16422 — le rime di Fr. Petrarca riscontrate co i testi a penna della libreria Estense, e co i fragmenti dell' originale di esso poeta. S'aggiungono le considerazioni rivedute e ampliate d'Aless. Tassoni, le annotazioni di Girol. Muzio, e le osservazioni di L. Ant. Muratori. Modena, Soliani, 1711. 4°.

Strictly speaking, the first critical edition of Petrarch, and greatly prized. The sonnets against Rome are wanting. The principal merit of Tassoni's commentary, which first appeared, Modena, 1609. 8°. is that it points out those passages which Petrarch borrowed from Provençal poets. Enlarged, but incorrectly reprinted, Ven., Coletti, 1727. 4°. (with the sonnets against Rome), and Ven. 1741. 4°.

16423 — le rime, riscontrate con ottimi esemplari stampati e con uno antichissimo testo a penna. Padova, Comino, 1722. 8°.

Superintended by the brothers Volpi. Fine, very correct, and cited by the academy della Crusca. A list of the editions of Petrarch by Gaetano Volpi is prefixed.

16424 — — (the same title.) Padova, Comino, 1732. 8°. with Petrarch's portrait.

The second edition, corrected and enlarged with some sonnets not printed before. A copy on large paper il. 11s. Pinelli, and one on blue paper il. 6s. Pinelli, and 12 fr. M'Carthy.

- 16425 — le rime, coi migliori esemplari diligentemente riscontrate e corrette (da Pt. Ant. Serassi). Bergamo, Lancellotti, 1746. 12°.

Greatly prized on account of its correctness. The text is that of 1732, in which one single passage only is altered. Reprinted, ib., id., 1752. 12°. without alterations.

- 16426 — rime riscontrate e corrette sopra ottimi testi a penna. Coll' aggiunta delle varie lezioni e d'una nuova vita dell' autore. Fir., stamperia all' insegna d'Apollo, 1748. 8°. with Petrarch's portrait.

Cited by the academy della Crusca, and even now indispensable on account of its fine collection of various readings. But the correction of the text after these various readings by the editor L. Bandini is not successful.

- 16427 — le rime con note (da Sb. Pagello). Without place, (Feltre, Foglietta), 1754. 4°.

Not fine, but very valuable on account of its good text and compact notes. Previously, Feltre, Foglietta, 1753. 16°. 2 voll.

- 16428 — le rime brevemente esposte per L. Castelvetro. Edizione corretta, illustrata ed accresciuta. Ven., Zatta, 1756. 4°. 2 vols. with plates.

One of the best and finest editions of Petrarch in the 18th century. Also on large paper, and very scarce on very large paper in small fol. (Zatta's sale-catalogue has, Carta grande, 50 lire. Carta migliore, 55 lire. Carta stragrande con ampli margini, 70 lire.)

- 16429 — le rime. Par., Prault, 1768. 12°. 2 vols. with Petrarch's portrait.

A neat and correct impression of the text of the Comino's edition of 1732. Par. 1789. 12°. 2 vols. is a repetition of it, but not so good.

- 16430 — le rime. Parma, Bodoni, 1799. large fol. 2 vols. (210 fr.).

This edition is indeed splendidly printed, but it is not quite correct, and its text might have been better. Bodoni's preface, in which he vindicates his text in point of selection and correctness, is not printed in the following edition.

- 16431 — le rime. Parma, Bodoni, 1799. 8°. 2 voll. (9 fr.).

A neater and still more correct impression of the text of the preceding edition, of which there are two copies on vellum and one on strong paper. A Bodoni edition of 1799 in 4°. is a nonentity.

- 16432 — le rime, tratte da' migliori esemplari con illustrazioni inedite di L. Beccadelli. Verona, Giuliani, 1799. 8°. 2 voll.

With a learned preface by J. Morelli, enlarged with some various readings from MSS. and 2 old editions (that of Padua, 1472, and the Aldine of 1501), also with two inedited sonnets; but neither finely nor correctly printed, even entire verses are wanting.

- 16433 — le rime, illustrate con note da Fr. Soave. Mil. 1805. 8°. 2 voll.

Very hastily done. It belongs to the collection of the Classici Ital.

- 16434 — rime. Pisa, tipografia della società letteraria, 1805. fol. 2 vols. with Petrarch's portrait by Morgen. (8 zechins.)

Of this splendid edition, which is only a reprint of Bandini's text of 1748, and was superintended by G. Rosini, only 250 copies were printed (100 fr. 10 copies of which are on vellum paper at 240 fr.), and one copy on vellum.

- 16435 — rime, riscontrate e corrette sopra i migliori esemplari. S'aggiungono le varie lezioni, le dichiarazioni necessarie ed una nuova vita dell' autore, da C. L. Fernow. Jena, Frommann, 1806. 8°. 2 voll. (2 d. 12 gr.)

A critical and very correct small edition, prepared from 12 of the best editions. The editions by G. B. Boschini, Lond. 1809. 24°. 2 vols.; and Roma, de' Romanis, 1813. 16°. 2 vols. are neat.

- 16436 — le rime illustrate di note da varj commentatori scelte ed abbreviate da Romualdo Zotti. Lond., Bulmer, 1811. 12°. 2 voll. On vellum paper.

The same editor produced in the same manner Dante, 1808. 4 voll. Tasso, 2 voll. Metastasio, 6 voll. in small 8°. and other Italian poets. This collection is very moderately got up notwithstanding its high price.

16437 — le rime, disposte secondo l'ordine de' tempi in cui vennero scritte. Ven., Vitarelli, 1814. 8°. 2 voll.

Superintended by Ant. Maneghelli. The text of the Veronese edition of 1799.

16438 — le rime. Padova, tipografia del seminario, 1819-20. large 4°. 2 vols. with plates, on vellum paper.

Of this fine edition, superintended by Ant. Marsand, but which notwithstanding cannot be called a splendid edition, only 450 copies were struck off (150 lire, or 30 scudi, and 150 fr. in Paris). It contains a text critically amended after ancient editions (but without the use of MSS.), although it does not afford all that might have been expected, as I probably may show in another place. It is said to be so correct, as not to contain a single typographical error. The 1st vol. contains 2 fine portraits of Laura (by Morghen) and of Petrarch, 1 facsimile, and 1 plate in aqua-tinta; the 2nd, 5 plates in aqua-tinta. The bookseller, Giegler, of Milan possesses the only copy on vellum with miniatures and the original designs; consult Bibliot. Ital. XXIII. 271.

16439 — rime. Livorno, Masi, 1820. 8°. 2 voll.

The text of Comino's edition of 1732 compared with some others, and with the principal readings of Marsand's edition.

16440 — rime, col commento di Giosafat Biagioli. Par. 1821. 8°. 2 voll.

Particularly distinguished by Alfieri's notes, which were not printed before.

An excellent and very complete bibliographical and critical list of all the editions and translations of Petrarch's Italian poems is to be found in Marsand's edition, T. II. p. 291, &c. on account of which all earlier lists may be dispensed with. There-with should be connected (Dm. de Rosetti) Raccolta di ediz. di tutte le opere del Petr. e di Enea Silvio. Ven., Picotti, 1822. 12°. and my list of the editions of Petrarch's remaining Italian and Latin works in, Fr. Petrarca dargestellt von C. L. Fernow (nach Merian). Allenb. u. Lpz. 1818. 8°. p. 337-352.

16441 — Fr. Petrarca con los seys triunfos, de Toscana sacados en Castellano (por Ant. de Obregon), con el comento (de Bn. Illicinio), que sobre ellos se hizo. Logroño, 16442 — Les triumphes messire Francoys Petrarque, translatez de langaige tuscan en françois. Par., pour Bm. Vêrard, 24 May, 1514. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

66 and 94 numbered leaves. G. de la Forge is said to have been the translator.

16443 — les triumphes messire Fr. Petrarque, translatés de langaige tuscan en françois, auquel ont été ajoutées plusieurs collections jouste les premières imprimées, pour plus facilement entendre la matière des dits triumphes. Par., Hemon le Febure, 9 Juin, 1519. fol. Gothic letter.

The 2nd edition of the same translation. A copy on vellum, with 17 miniatures, 153 fr. Gaignat, 160 fr. Vallière, 319 fr. M'Carthy. A second copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris mentions Jehan de la Garde as the printer instead of Hemon le Febure. — Lyon, Morin, 1531 (1532 at the end). 8°. with woodcuts, is neat and sought after. Also, Par., Denis Janot, 1539. 8°. with woodcuts. Par., Groulleau, 1554. 8°.

16444 — les triomphes de Petrarque traduits de langue tuscan en rhyme francoyse par le baron d'Opede (J. Meynier). Par., les Angeliers, 1538. small 8°. with woodcuts. Also, Par., Janot, without date. 8°. with woodcuts. — Toutes les œuvres vulgaires de Fr. Pétrarque, contenans quatre livres de

(7s. 6d.)—Petrarch translated: in a selection of his sonnets and odes, accompanied with notes and the original Italian. By the translator of Catullus (Nott). Lond., Miller, 1808. 8°. (10s. 6d.)

16447 — il Petrarca spirituale (da Girol. Malipiero). Ven., Marcolini, 1536. 4°.

Also, ib., 1538, 45, 67, 75, 81, 87, and 1681. 8°. An insipid work, known in France under the title of Pétrarque retourné. In one of these editions the author is called Hieron. Maripetro.

16448 — 2. Italian writings in prose. Le vite de pontefici et imperadori Romani. Flor., ap. S. Jacobum de Ripoli, 1478. fol.

The first edition of this probably supposititious work. With 34 lines, and the signatures a-r, without catchwords and pagination: at the beginning are 2 leaves, tavola. An edition, Verona, 1476, is a non-entity. Also, Ven, Pinci da Lecco, 3 Dec. 1507. 4°. 91 leaves. Ven. 1526. 8°. ib., Bindoni, 1534. 8°. (Geneva), 1625. 4°. The distinction which has been made between the castrated editions of this work appears to be unfounded; at least the story of pope Joanna, which would be the first thing to be omitted, is to be found in the editions of 1478, 1507, and 1625.

16449 — — incomincia il libro degli homini famosi compillato per lo inclyto poeta miser Francisco Petrarca. Rure Polliano, Felix Antiquarius et Innocens Ziletus, cal. Oct. 1476. fol.

The first edition of this work, written in Latin by Petrarch, and translated into Italian by Donatus de Albansanis (Bandini Cat. codd. Ital. bibl. Laur. p. 414), 240 leaves, with 40 lines, and the signatures c-s. Leaf 1 is a Repertorio, and on the reverse is the date in 7 Latin verses, Illustres opere hoc viros perire etc. Leaf 2-3 is an Italian poem (brieve recoglimento etc.). The text begins in leaf 4<sup>a</sup> with the title, specified above, in small capitals; and at the end is only, SOLI: DEO: HONOR: ET: GLORIA. The first 4 leaves have no signatures. The place of printing was the estate Pogliano in the dominion of Verona. Consult also Opuscoli di autori Sicil. XX. 317 sq.—The following edition is very correct, Le vite degli huomini illustri di M. Fr. Petrarca. Ven., Gr. de Gregorii, m. Genaja, 1527. 8°.

16450 — 3. Latin Works. Librorum Fr. Petrarchæ Basileæ impressorum annotatio (opera). Bas., J. de Amerbach, 1496. fol.

In the beginning 22 leaves, with the signatures A-C. (Eclogæ.) Then follow the remaining works, each with a separate signature; and at the end of the same the colophon with the date. 21 leaves of index (the last blank) finish the book, with the title, Principalium sententiarum collectarum summaria annotatio Sb. Brandt was the editor. The Latin works only are here contained. An earlier edition, Daventrie, 1494. fol. (Panzer, I. 362) is not yet accurately known; but Bas. 1494 or 95. fol., and, Ven. 1496. fol. are very suspicious.

16451 — libror. Fr. Petrarche impressor. annotatio. Ven., Sim. de Luere, 27 Mart. 1501.—Annotatio nonnullor. libror. seu epistolar. Fr. Petrarche. ib., id., 17 Jun. 1501. fol. Gothic letter. 2 parts in 1 vol.

After the colophon of the 1st part there ought to be an index of 15 leaves, with the title, Annotatio principalium sententiarum.

16452 — libror. Fr. Petrarchæ impressor. annotatio. Ven., Sim. Papiensis dictus Bivilaqua, 15 Jul. 1503. fol.

There ought to be included a piece, essentially belonging to this work, with the following title: Bucolicum carmen in duodecim eclogas distinctum cum commento Benvenuti Imolensis. Ven., M. Horrigono, 7 Jul. MCCCC XVI (sic), fol. 30 leaves. This faulty date is not to be corrected to 1516 (Bibl. Pinelli, III. 325. Panzer, VIII. 436), but to 1496 (MCCCCXCVI). As this appendage, the only known production of Horrigono's press, is mentioned in the principal title, it is evident that it must have been already printed in 1503.

16453 — opera quæ extant omnia. Adjecimus ejusd. authoris, quæ he-trusco sermone scripsit carmina sive rhythmos. Hæc quidem omnia nunc iterum a mendis repurgata atque genuinæ integritati restituta et in tomos quatuor distincta. Bas., H. Petri, m. Mart. 1554. fol.

Superintended by J. Herold, who critically amended the text of the earlier faulty impressions. 14 leaves of preliminary matter, 1375 pages (Latin works), and 43 unnumbered leaves (Italian poems and colophon). The Italian poems are very incorrectly printed.

16454 — — opera quæ extant omnia. Adjecimus ejusd. authoris, quæ he-trusco sermone scripsit carmina sive rhythmos. Hæc quidem omnia nunc iterum a mendis repurgata atque genuinæ integritati restituta et in tomos quatuor distincta. Bas., Sb. Henricpetri, m. Mart. 1581. fol.

An unaltered repetition of the preceding edition, but still more incorrect in the Italian poems. 14 leaves of preliminary matter, 1131 and 117 pages (Latin works) and 205 pages (Italian works). It would be well if the Latin works met with the consideration, which they so greatly need, and of which they are so deserving. For this what excellent materials would not the Laurentian library afford of itself!

16455 — l'Africa del Petrarca, in ottava rima, trad. da Fabio Maretta, col testo lat. Ven., Farri, 1570. 4°.

Concerning the fate of this poem, see Bandini Cat. codd. Lat. bibl. Laur. T. IV. præf. p. 43.

16456 — secretum Francisci Petrarche de Florēcia Poete laureati de Cōtemptu mundi Incipit Fœliciter. Without place or date (about 1472). fol.

53 leaves with 34 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. From the press, which is distinguished by the peculiar form of its R. Fr. Petrarchæ de vita solitaria libri II. without place or date, fol. is printed with exactly the same type. 89 leaves, with 34 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins, Capitula in librum Francisci petrarche de vita solitaria Incipiunt. The copy in the Imperial library at Vienna, in which both works are bound together, has a contemporaneous MS. notice of 1473.—The book De contemptu mundi, in Italian by Fr. Orlandini, Siena, 1517. 4°. or Ven. 1520. 8°. In German in J. G. Müller Bekenntnisse merkwürd. Männer, I. 25 sq.

16457 — bucolicum carmen. Col., Arn. ter Hoeruen, 1473. fol. Gothic letter, 30 leaves.

Also, Daventr., 8 Jan. 1499. 4°. 37 leaves, and best in Eclogæ Virgiliti etc. Flor., Giunta, 1504. 8°. and Bucolicor. auctores. Bas. 1546. 8°. p. 71 sq. See also above, No. 16452.

16458 — epistolarum familiarium libri XIV. Variarum lib. I. Sine titulo lib. I. Ad quosdam ex veteribus illustriores lib. I. Opus non paucis mendis repurgatum et multis epistolis auctum ex vetusto codice bibliothecæ J. Chalasii. Without place (other copies Genevæ), Sm. Crispinus, 1601. 8°.

16 leaves, and 638 pages. As yet the most complete edition of his letters. Those newly added are 65. An edition of all Petrarch's letters, which W. Gli. Becker of Dresden had in view, has not appeared. An earlier edition is, Epistolæ familiares (ed. Sb. Manilius). Ven., J. et Gr. de Gregoriis, id. Sept. 1492. 4°. 6 leaves of preliminary matter, 117 numbered leaves, and 1 unnumbered leaf.

16459 — epistola dñi. Francisci Petrarche. Laureati poete. Ad dñm Johēm. Florentinū poetam. De Historia. Griseldis. mulieris maxime cōstantie et patiētie. Without place or date (Coll., U. Zell, about 1470). 4°. Gothic letter.

11 leaves with 27 lines running all across the page, without signatures, catch-words, and pagination.

16460 — incipit epistola Francisci Petrarche de insigni obedientia et fide uxoria Griseldis in Waltherum. Ulmæ, J. Zeiner, 1473. fol.

10 leaves with 30 lines, and Roman characters. Also printed in Manni Illustratione del Boccaccio, p. 607 sq.

16461 — la patience de Griseldis. Brehan Lodeac (en Bretagne), Robin Foucquet et Jehan Cres, 18 Janv. 1484. 4°.

14 leaves with the signatures A-B iii. Leaf 1 is blank, and leaf 2 begins with a verse, A lexeplaire des femmes mariées et de toutes autres etc.

16462 — cy commence le histoire et pacience de Griseldis. At the end, Cy finit Griseldis. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts, 20 leaves.

A fine edition, printed with the types of Pierre Schenck, printer at Vienne in Dauphiné.

16463 — — la patience de Griseldis, marquise de Saluces. Par., J. Trepperel, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

16464 — la grande et merveilleuse patience de Griseldis, fille d'un pauvre homme appelé Janicolle, du pays de Saluces. Lyon, Cl. Nourry, 1525. 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

Le mystère de Griseldis, marquise de Saluces (à 35 personnages). Par., J. Bonfons, without date. 4°. Gothic letter, 20 leaves (concerning which consult Hist. univ. des théâtres, XI. 48 sq.), is quite different from this translation of Petrarch's romance. There is also an English piece, The pleasaunt comodie of patient Grissil. Lond., Racket, 1603. 4°.

16465 — ain epistel francisi (sic) Petrarche von grosser stätikeyt einer fruwen Gysel gehaissen. Without place or date (Ulm, Zainer, about 1473). fol. with woodcuts.

12 leaves. It begins, So ich aber von stättigkeit vnd getruwer gemahelschafft so manger frowen geschriben habe. This edition appears to be an appendage to the translation of Boccaccio (see above, No. 2600), with which it is often found.

16466 — — Without place or date (Augsp., Ant. Sorg, about 1480). fol. with woodcuts.

10 leaves. The commencement runs thus, So ich aber von der stetikeit, vnd getruwer gemahelschafft, so manger frowen geschriben habe. Leaf 10b line 10 ends with the words lebt in seligkeit.

16467 — hie endet sich die Epistel Franzisci Petrarche us latin ze teuscht gemacht von einer tugentreichen frowen geheissen Griseldis etc. Augsp., Gth. Zainer, 1471. fol.

16469 — — Without place (Strb.), 1478. fol. with woodcuts.

12 leaves. Leaf 1a begins without farther title, So ich aber von stetikeit, vnd getruwer gemahelschafft, so manger frowen geschriben habe. The name Griselis is here changed into Grigel. Leaf 12a, the last or 30th line is, in selikeit. Amen. Anno dñm. MCCCCxxviij. jor. The types are distinguished by the peculiar form of the S.

16470 — de historie van der duldi-

19 leaves with 20 lines. Lord Spencer has a copy on vellum of this hitherto unknown Neapolitan edition, which formerly belonged to the advocate Reina of Milan, see Dibdin Decam. III. 212. and *Ædes Al-

187 leaves with 39 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition of this work, which is sometimes erroneously attributed to Cr. Fyner's press at Esslingen. First 2 leaves of index.
Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the prologue, leaf 5<sup>b</sup> the 1st book, and leaf 59<sup>a</sup> the 2nd book. Leaf 187<sup>a</sup> ends the work with the fine colophon, Laus deo pars uiuis: Requies eterna defunctis. A later edition, without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter, has 36 lines, and at the end, Laus deo.

tabula. Of the later editions, Ven., Alex.

of some value. The work must not be confounded with that of Adrian, which bears the same title (see LIBER, No. 11945).

16478 PETRONIUS Arbitr, Titus. Petronii Arbitris satyrici fragmenta quæ exstant. Ven., Bernardinus Venetus, 23 Jul. 1499. 4°.

20 leaves (the last blank) with 30 lines, and the signatures a-e. The first separate edition, which, although very defective and incomplete, yet affords some good readings of its own. As it has separate signatures and colophon, it forms a complete work by itself. At the same time it is properly only a piece of another book, which bears the following title: Dion Chrysostomus Prusensis philosophus ad Ilienses: Ilii captiuitatem non fuisse aperte demonstrat. Franciscus Filelfus e græco traduxit. Petronius Arbitr Satyricus. Dion has a separate colophon, Ven., Bernardin. Venetus de Vitalibus, 18 Jul. 1499, and contains 25 leaves with 30 lines, and the signatures A-F. Both pieces therefore together contain 45 leaves with the signatures a-F and a-e.

The proper editio princeps of Petronius is to be found in the Panegyrici veti. Without place or date (Mediol. about 1482). 4°. (see PANEGRICI, No. 15743), and is the same which some bibliographers erroneously place under the year 1476. As moreover Bernardinus Venetus literally reprinted these Panegyrici, it is very possible that his Petronius may be only an impression of that earlier text.

16479 — Petronius Arbitr Poeta Satyricus. Liptzgk, Jac. Thanner, 1500. 4°. Gothic letter.

10 leaves (the last blank) with 19 lines, and the signatures a and b. It only contains the poem De bello civili, and appears not to be a mere reprint of the Venetian. Repeated, ib., id., 1508. 8°.

16480 — Petronii Arbitri poetæ insignis atq; præclari Satyra non minus festiua et elegans, q studiosæ inuentuti frugifera ac utilis, nuper exactissime in lucem edita. (Viennæ Austr.), J. Singrenius, nonis Aug. 1517. 4°.

8 leaves with the signatures A and B. According to the printer's preface it is corrected from an ancient MS., and with variations in the margin. Not yet made use of.

16481 — Petronii Arbitri, quatenus extare comperitur, satyræ fragmentum. Par., Reginaldus Claderius, pridie cal. Majas, 1520. 4°.

Scarce and prized. It is printed from a MS., but is very faulty notwithstanding.

16482 — fragmenta, restituta et aucta, e biblioth. J. Sambuci. Antw., Plantinus, 1565. 8°. 63 pages. Corrected from a good MS.

16483 — satyricon. Lugd., J. Tornæsius, 1575. 8°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 109 pages, and 1 leaf. Tornæsius, who superintended it himself, made use of 2 MSS. besides the earlier editions, and has added various readings.

16484 — satyricon, ex veteribus libris emendatius et amplius. Lut., Patisson, 1577. 12°.

Neat and scarce, with new augmentations from a MS. Pithœus is said to have superintended the edition.

16485 — C. Petronii Arbitri, itemque alior. quorundam veterum epigrammata hactenus non edita. Cl. Binetus conquisiuit et nunc primum publicavit. Pictavii, Bocheti fratres, 1579. 4°.

16486 — satyricon. Sulpiciæ satyra de edicto Domitiani. Omnia et ampliora et emendatiora, ex recognitione Jani Douzæ, additis ejusdem præcidaneis cum auctario. LB., J. Pætsius, 1585. 8°. 8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 144 pages. Jani Douzæ pro satyrico Petronii præcidaneor. libri III. ib., id., 1583. 8°. 230 pages.

A new revision of the text.

16487 — satyricon cum notis Jani Douzæ et J. Richardi: acc. Sulpiciæ satyra. Par., Linocerius, 1585. 8°.

16488 — satyricon. Adjecta sunt veterum quorundam poetar. carmina non dissimilis argumenti. Cum notis doctor. viror. Lut., Patisson, 1587. 12°.

Dousa's text forms the basis. J. Passeratius is said to have been the editor.

16489 — satyricon. Longe quam antea tersius et emendatius. Acc. Jani Douzæ præcidanea et J. Richardi notæ. Quibus nove spicilegia Gu. Dupeyratii annexa sunt. Sulpitiæ satyra de edicto Domitiani et in eam schediasma Jani Douzæ. Cum indice duplici rer. et verbor.

Secunda editio. Lut. Par., Gu. Linocerus, 1587. 8°.

25 leaves of preliminary matter, 144 pages, and 8 leaves of index. Then with a separate title, Jani Doussæ pro satyrico Petronii Arbitri præcidaneorum libri tres. ib., id., c10. 10. xxxv. (a typographical error instead of 1585; as an L is wanting), 183 pages, and 4 leaves of index and printer's symbol. Probably only a new title to No. 16487?

16490 — satyricon, cum notis et observatt. variorum. Ed. nova. LB., ex off. Plant. Raphelengii, 1596. 16°.

A new recension by J. a Wouweren. Repeated, Par., Beys, 1601. 12°.

16491 — satyricon: cum uberioribus, commentarii instar, notis; concinnius multo et commodius quam ante dispositis (ed. J. a Wouweren). (LB.), ex off. Plant. Raphelengii, 1604. 12°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, and 384 pages. Repeated, LB., J. Maire, 1623. 12°. Amst., Cæsius, 1626 or 34. 24°.

16492 — satyricon, multis virorum illustrium notis et observationibus illustratum. Editio postrema, omnium fere, quæ hactenus prodierunt, tersissima. Lugd., P. Frellon, 1608. 24°.

16493 — satyricon, cum Petroniorum fragmentis, noviter recensitum, interpolatum et auctum. Accesserunt seorsim notæ et observatt. varior. Helenopoli (that is Ff.), Schönewetter, 1610. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter (leaves 7–16 are a Dissertatiuncula sciagraphica de Nerone Antichristi typo), 238 pages, and 1 leaf errata. Then with a separate title, Sylloge annotationum et observatt. . . . collecta ac digesta a G. Erhardo, 4 leaves (the 4th blank), and 784 pages. A new recension from MSS. and earlier editions, together with a rich exegetical apparatus, partly taken from other editions, partly peculiar to itself. That the pseudonymus editor, G. Erhard, was no other than Mch. Goldast (by no means Mch. Csp. Lundorp, consult Lessing's Collectanea, II. 257.) is beyond doubt. His MS. collections for Petronius are still in the library at Bremen, see Uffenbach's Reisen, II. 191.

16494 — satyricon cum Petroniorum fragmentis, noviter recensitum, interpolatum et auctum. Accesserunt seorsim notæ et observationes varior. Lugd., Frellon, 1615 (a new title 1618). 12°.

A reprint of the preceding edition. Also, Par. 1650. 12°.

16495 — satyricon. J. Bourdelotius emendavit, supplevit, commentarium perpetuum adjecit. Par., Mesnier, 1618. 12°.

This first edition by Bourdelot is scarce. He often altered unnecessarily and too boldly, and it is uncertain whether he really made use of MSS.

16496 — satyricon cum Petroniorum fragmentis. Nunc iterum limatum et auctum. Accesserunt seorsim doctor. annotatt., scholia, observatt., conjecturæ, emendatt., notæ, variæ lectt. etc. Cum V. indicibus. Ff., in offic. Wecheliana, 1621. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 238 pages, and 1 leaf errata. Then Sylloge annotatt. et obs. . . . collecta ac digesta a G. Erhardo, 3 leaves of preliminary matter, 784 pages, and 40 leaves of index. A repetition of the edition of 1610, agreeing throughout page for page, but really a new impression, and enlarged with indices. It should be observed whether all the 16 leaves of preliminary matter are included. Goldast, for instance, caused the Diss. de Nerone Antichristi typo, which occupied leaves 7–14, to be again taken out of the copies, and there remained only the last two leaves (14 and 15), because other things were on the last pages: consult (Weller's) Alles aus allen Theilen der Geschichte, VIII. 226.

16497 — satyricon, super profligatis Neronianæ tempestatis moribus: commentariis s. excursibus medico-philosophicis: itemque notis universalibus et perpetuis recens adornatum. Accessit ad mantissam sylloge clariss. aliquot interpretum, quorum in Petronium castigationes hucusque nondum editæ. Noviter recensente J. Pt. Lotichio. Ff. a. M., Wfg. Hofmannus, 1629. 4°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, and 99 pages. Then with a separate title, Petronii Satyricon cum fragmentis: commentariis . . . recens adornatum op. J. Pt. Lotichii, 4 leaves and 422 pages, then Petr. Satyricon notis universalibus et perpetuis enodatum, 2 leaves, 439 pages, and 28 leaves of index, and lastly In Petronii Satyr. notæ, castigatt., emendatt. et variæ lectt. clariss. viror., 40 leaves of preliminary matter (one blank), and 350 pages. Lotichius's own notes are wretchedly compiled, and of no value at all, but his edition contains valuable notes of others. In 1648 he wished to have prepared a new impression, and sought after a publisher in Paris (see Patin Lettres à Spon, I. 106), but in vain, and his MS., increased to 44 thick vols., remained unpublished. It was in 1730 in Uffenbach's library, and an account of it may be seen in Schelhornii Commenc. epistol. Uffenb. I. 26.

16498 — satyricon. Extrema editio ex musæo Jos. Ant. Gonsali de Salas. Ff., Wfg. Hofmann, 1629. small 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 36, 96, and 462 pages, and 112 unnumbered leaves of index. The editor's notes are not without value, but he has mixed up in them much needless matter. He has sometimes altered the text from conjecture. Csp. Scioppii Symbolæ criticæ are appended. Incomplete copies of this edition are often met with. Ff., Zunner, 1643. 4°. is perhaps only a new title.

16499 — satyricon. In capita dissectum, cum omnibus omnium interpretum observatt., notis et commentariis: hactenus sigillatim, nunc tandem sub unum conspectum, ad calcem cujusque capitis, collocatis. Cum novo rer. et verbor. indice. Acc. et alia nonnulla Petroniorum fragmenta veterumque poetar. catalecta. Sulpiciæque vita et satyra. Without place (other copies Genevæ), excud. J. Mercerus, 1629. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter (the 2nd is blank, and the 3rd and 4th are numbered 8–10), 43, 430, and 69 pages, and 7 leaves of index. The editor, Thdr. de Juges, divided Petronius into chapters, and placed the notes of Goldast's edition at the end of each, but gave nothing of his own.

16500 — satyricon, ejusdemque fragmenta, illustrata hac nova editione J. Bourdelotii notis criticis, et glossario Petroniano. Edente D. S. S. LB., Justus Livius, 1645. 12°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, and 251 pages. This edition, on account of the neatness of its type (particularly the Roman character), is worthy of being added to the Elzevir series, which without this would want Petronius.

16501 — satyricon; et diversor. poetar. lusus in Priapum, cum selectis varior. commentariis. Acc. pervigilium Veneris, Ausonii cento nuptialis, Cupido cruci affixus, atque alia nonnulla, notis doctor. viror. inlustrata, accurante Sim. Abbes Gabbema. Traj. ad Rh., Zyll, 1654. 8°.

1 title-plate, and 7 leaves of preliminary matter; 56 pages, Preludia; 8 leaves, index; 252 pages, Petronius; 6 leaves, index; 130 pages, Priapeja; and 3 leaves, authorum index. It contains nothing new which is of any value.

16502 — satyricon, ejusdemque fragmenta, illustrata hac nova editione J. Bourdelotii notis criticis et glossario Petroniano. Repurgante singula et accurante Rutgero Hermannide. Amst., Valckenier, 1663. small 12°.

The editor has interpolated Bourdelot's notes, and omitted much.

16503 — Petronii Arbitri fragmentum nuper Tragurii repertum. Patavii, Frambotti, 1664. 8°.

4 leaves, and 62 pages. The original edition of these fragments. Concerning the controversy that arose respecting them, see (Weller's) Alles aus allen Theilen der Gesch. 755. XI. 661 sq. and Burmann's preface to his edition.

16504 — ἀνέκδοτον ex Petronii Arbitri Satirico fragmentum. Præfixo judicio de styli ratione ipsius. Lut. Par., Edm. Martin, 1664. 8°. — Hadr. Valesii et J. Cp. Wagenseilii de cena Trimalcionis nuper sub Petronii nomine vulgata dissertationes. ib., id., 1666. 8°. 36 and 30 pages. — Marinei Statilei responsio ad Wagenseilii et Valesii dissertatt. de Traguriensi Petronii fragmento. ib., id., 1666. 8°.

Pt. Petit was the editor of the first book, and the author of the last.

16505 — fragmentum nuper Tragurii Dalmatiæ repertum, cum annotatt. J. Schefferi. Acc. dissertatio ejusd. de fragmenti hujus vero auctore. Ups. 1665. 8°.

The editor added a spicilegium thereto in his Lectio. acad. Hamb. 1675. 8°. p. 227 sq. He was in favour of the genuineness.

16506 — Petronii Arbitri in Dalmatia nuper repertum fragmentum cum epicrisi et scholiis Th. Reinesii. Acc. ex edit. Upsal. J. Schefferi notæ. Lpz., Cörner, 1666. 8°.

Reinesius disputes its genuineness.

16507 — fragmentum Traguriense, una cum J. Caji Tilebomeni (i. e. Jac. Mentelii) conjecturis, Hadr. Valesii et J. Cp. Wagenseilii dissertatt. epistolicis, aliorumque clarissimor. viror. judiciis. Acc. J. Schefferi diss. de fragmenti hujus vero auctore, et index. Nrb., Endter, 1667. 8°.

Cp. Arnold was the editor. All that is to be found here is against the genuineness.

16508 — satyricon, cum fragmento nuper Tragurii reperto. Acc. diversor. poetar. lusus in Priapum, pervigilium Veneris, Ausonii cento nuptialis, Cupido Crucifixus, epistolæ de Cleopatra et alia nonnulla. Omnia commentariis et notis doctor. viror. illustrata. Concinnante Mch. Hadrianide. Amst., Blaeu, 1669. 8°.—Integrum Titi Petronii Arbitri fragmentum, ex antiquo cod. Traguriensi Romæ exscriptum, cum apologia Marini Statilii (i. e. St. Gradii). Amst., Blaeu, 1670 (other copies 1671). 8°.

An uncommonly neat and correct edition, both parts of which are seldom met with. The first part contains 1 title-plate, 17 leaves of preliminary matter, 558 pages, Petronius; 21 leaves, index; 168 pages, Priapeja; and 4 leaves, index. The 2nd contains 70 and 31 pages. The fragment is here printed afresh, with the greatest care, under the inspection of J. Lucius, from the codex itself, which in the meantime had been sent to Rome. But a Roman edition of 1668 or 69, of which Burmann speaks, is a nonentity.

16509 — satyricon ejusdemque fragmentum integrum; acc. diversor. poetar. lusus in Priapum, errone Venerei, pervigilium Veneris, Floridi de qualitate vitæ, epigrammata Valerii æditui, Ausonii cento nuptialis, Cupido cruci affixus, ejusdem rosæ, Priapismus, epistolæ de Cleopatra, et ecloga Tob. Gutberleth, cum notis Bourdelotii et glossario Petroniano. Par., Audinet, 1677. 12°.

This reprint of Bourdelot's notes is not after the Paris original edition, but after the interpolated edition of 1663. It appears to have been superintended by Hadrian Valesius.

16510 — satyricon. J. Boschius ad scriptor. exemplarium fidem castigav. et notas adjecit. Amst., Gaesbequius, 1677. 32°.

A neat edition, and sought after. A new recension from MSS. and earlier editions, with short but important notes. 1 title-plate, 11 leaves of preliminary matter, and 384 pages. Then the Priapeja with a separate title of 1676, 1 title-plate, 62 and 68 pages, and 2 leaves.

16511 — satyricon: cum fragmentis Albæ Græcæ recuperatis anno 1688. Col. Agr. (Par.), Gooth, 1691. large 12°.

A scarce and almost unknown edition, and the first with the fragments, pretended to have been discovered by Fr. Nodot. At the end there ought to be 4 unnumbered leaves of corrections. Concerning the controversy that arose respecting them, see Goujet Biblioth. franç. VI. 201 sq. Basnage first directed attention to their spuriousness in the Hist. des ouvrages des sav. 1692. Nov. p. 117 sq. Leibnitz expressed himself on the same side in his letter in Tenzel's Monatl. Unterred. 1693. p. 170. The following appeared separately against Nodot: Le tombeau du faux Pétrone de Belgrad. Par. 1694. 12°. *Lettres de Mr. de * * ** sur un livre qui a pour titre: Traduction entière de Pétrone. Col., Groth, 1694. 12°. (Cl. Ign. Brugière, Sieur de Barante) Observations sur le Pétrone trouvé à Belgrade en 1688 et impr. à Paris en 1693, avec une lettre sur l'ouvrage et la personne de Pétrone. Par., Hortemels, 1694. 12°. Critique des prétendus fragmens de Pétrone, publiés par Nodot, in Artigny Mémoires, T. I. Par. 1749. 8°. p. 346 sq. The genuineness was defended in La contrecritique de Pétrone, ou réponse aux obs. sur les fragmens trouvez à Belgrade en 1688. avec la réponse à la lettre sur les ouvrages et la personne de Pétrone (par Nodot). Par., Cusson, 1700. 8°. (also printed in the later editions).—As Nodot's different editions have not hitherto been specified with sufficient accuracy (consult Beckmann's Vorrath kleiner Anmerk. II. 263), I mention those here which I know with certainty.

16512 — satyricon, cum fragmentis

Albæ Græcæ recuperatis anno 1688. Par., Langlois, 1693. 12°.

This edition is usually but erroneously considered to be the first of Nodot's.

16513 — satyricon, cum fragmentis Albæ Græcæ recuperatis anno 1688. Nunc demum integrum. Rott., Leers, 1693. large 12°.

A reprint of the preceding, as is Lond. 1707 or 11. 12°. with plates.

16514 — la satyre de Pétrone trad. en franç. avec le texte latin, suivant le nouveau MS. trouvé à Bellegrade en 1688. avec des remarques curieuses (par Fr. Nodot). Col., Groth, 1694. 12°. 2 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

Some think this edition was printed at Paris, Beckmann erroneously sets it down to Grenoble: the plates at least testify for Holland.

16515 — — (the same title). Col., Marteau, 1694. 12°. 2 vols. with plates.

An impression different from the preceding, and less fine. The plates (by J. V. Aveele) are bad re-engravings of the preceding. The same plates are to be found in the following edition of the French translation (without the Latin text), which appeared in the same year: Les galanteries et les débauches de l'empereur Néron et de ses favoris. Par Pétrone. Avec des remarques curieuses et une table. Col., Marteau, 1694. 12°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

16516 — traduction de plusieurs pièces tirées de Pétrone, suivant le MS. trouvé à Bellegrade en 1688, avec plusieurs remarques lat. et franç. par Nodot. Par. (Grénoble), Moëte, 1694. 8°.

16517 — Pétrone latin et françois, traduction entière suivant le MS. trouvé à Belgrade en 1688, avec plusieurs remarques et additions. Without place, 1698. 12°. 2 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

16518 — satyricon cum notis Boschii, Reinesii et Schefferi. Acc. fragmentum Tragurianum, et quod Albæ Græcæ recuperatum est anno 1688. Amst., Wolters, 1700. 24°. 2 voll.

Neat, but very incorrectly printed.

16519 — satyricon puritate donatum, ejectis obscœnis, commentisque Gonsalii, Lotichii, Pithœi etc. cum fragmentis Tragur. et Albæ Græcæ recuperatis, usibus juventutis restitutum. Acc. annotatt. e MS. J. And. Bosii. Jenæ, Bielke, 1701. 12°.

This edition is tolerably scarce, but is of no value at all. The editor, who styles himself at the bottom of the preface Georgius Phædrus, was Adam Gschwend, rector of the Lyceum at Eisenberg.

16520 — Pétrone latin et françois, traduction entière suivant le MS. trouvé à Belgrade en 1688, avec plusieurs remarques et additions, qui manquent dans la première édit. Nouv. édit., augm. de la contrecritique de Pétrone. Without place, 1709. small 8°. 2 vols. with plates.

Printed in Holland. The plates are neat, and this edition is to be considered the best of Nodot's.

16521 — satyricon, quæ supersunt, cum integris doctor. viror. commentariis et notis N. Heinsii et Gu. Goesii nunc prim. editis. Acced. Jani Dousæ præcidanea, Jos. Ant. Gonsali de Salas commenta, variæ dissertatt. et præfatt. Curante Pt. Burmanno. Traj. ad Rh., Gu. van de Water, 1709. 4°. Also on large paper.

A new recension after the earlier editions (but without MSS.) with a rich exegetical apparatus. Nodot's discovery is not inserted. This edition should be possessed together with the later ones. Against it is directed, Chrestomathia Petronio-Burmanniana. Flor. (Amst.) 1734. 8°. a bitter satire, the author of which was S. Verburg, and in which Tib. Hemsterhuis also took part.

16522 — — (title as in No. 16520). Without place, 1713. small 8°. 2 vols. with plates.

From the same press as the edition of 1709; but the engravings are fainter impressions of the same plates. Repeated, Amst. 1756. 12°. 2 vols. with plates. I also find an edition of Nodot. Rouen, 1713. 12°.

16523 — satyricon cum fragmentis Albæ Græcæ recuperatis a. 1688. Lps., Fritsch, 1731. Priapeja s. diversor. poetar. in Priapum lusus.

Patav. 1664 (Lps., Fritsch, 1731). 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A reprint of the text of the Rotterdam edition of 1693, with few exceptions. The edition is said to have been superintended by the Leipsic professor, F. Menz.

16524 — satyricon quæ supersunt cum integris doctor. viror. commentariis; et notis N. Heinsii et Gu. Goesii antea ineditis; quibus additæ Dupeyratii et auctiores Bourdelotii ac Reinesii notæ. Adjiciuntur Jani Dousæ præcidanea, Jos. Ant. Gonsali de Salas commenta, variæ dissertatt. et præfatt., curante Pt. Burmanno, cujus accedunt curæ secundæ. Ed. altera. Amst., Waesberg, 1743. 4°. 2 voll. Also on large paper.

This greatly enlarged new impression was superintended by Csp. Burmann, Peter's son. That it frustrated Reiske's entire prospects in Holland, who corrected it, is known from his life. Consult J. Jac. Reiskii Libellus animadversionum ad alteram edit. Burmannianam Petronii in the Nova miscellanea Lips. VI. 93 sq. 272 sq. 488 sq. 650 sq.

16525 — satyricon ex rec. Pt. Burmanni passim reficta, cum supplementis Nodotianis et fragmentis Petronianis. Notas criticas aliasque et indicem uberrimum addidit Cr. Glo. Anton. Lps., Fritsch, 1782. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.) Also on writing paper.

The Priapeja are also to be found in this edition.

A neat impression of the text after Burmann's and Anton's editions, without Nodot's supplements.

16527 — satiricon cum supplementis Nodotianis. Acc. veterum poetar. catalecta. Bip. 1790. 8°. (10 gr.)

16528 — satyricon ex optimis exemplaribus emendatum, cum Petronianis fragmentis et glossario. Par., Renouard, 1797. 18°. 2 vols. on vellum paper (6 fr., on Dutch paper 12 fr., on large vellum paper 15 fr.)

3 copies printed on vellum.

16529 — Pétrone latin et franç., traduction entière suivant le MS. entière trouvé à Belgarde en 1688, avec plusieurs remarques et additions, qui manquent dans les premières éditions. Par., Gide, an 7 (1799). 8°. 2 vols. with plates.

Merely a reprint of Nodot's edition, without the Contrecritique. The plates are very bad. The 1st part, and 81 pages of the 2nd, of a new edition of the Latin text, with a new translation by la Porte du Theil, were printed in 1798.

16530 — matrona Ephesia s. lusus serius in Petronii matronam Ephesiam; huic adjiciuntur dissertatiunculæ quatuor de amore etc. Hæc omnia a Gualt. Charletono anglice conscripta et nunc latinitate donata per Bm. Harrisium. Lond. 1665. 12°.

As scarce as it is tiresome.

J. Werther of Rostock had already prepared for the press in 1718 a German translation of Petronius, which was illustrated with many passages from the ancients, see Leips. Gel. Zeit. 1718. p. 546. Concerning Heinse's translation consult Matthison's Erinnerungen, III. 113.

The last piece was a designed and rather coarse fabrication. Consult Jen. Lit. Zeit. Revision and Ergänzbl. I. Jahrg. Bd. 2. p. 196 sq. 231 sq. 623 sq. Of equal consequence is the pretended fragment in the Gentleman's magazine 1785, I. 195.

The first edition, and very scarce, and not made use of by the editor of the preceding article. It contains 107 letters, several of which are nowhere else to be found, others are in other collections. In 2 columns with 40 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First are 8 leaves of table of contents, then follows the text, the 1st line of which is, Incipiūt epistolæ magistri Petri. On the folio recto of the last leaf in the 2nd column

- 16539 PETRUS Brixienſis. Repertorium utriusque juris. Bon., 8 Nov. m. cccc. lxxv. (1465). large fol. 3 parts in 1 vol.

A very scarce edition, the date of which is decidedly false. An x is probably wanting (mccccclxxv. 1475). At least an edition printed justa exemplar quondam Bononiæ impressum appeared at Lyons in 1480.

- 16540 PETRUS Cellensis. Opera omnia, collecta in unum ex libris tum editis tum MSS. Cura et studio unius e S. Mauri congr. monachi Benedictini (Ambr. Janvier, cum præf. J. Mabillon). Par., Billaine, 1671. 4°.

The latest edition of this collection of letters, important as to the history of that period, which however still leave much to be desired. The first edition under the title, Pt. de Vineis Querimonia Friderici II. imp. Hagenœ, Secerius, 1529. 8°. contains only the first 32 letters. The editions, Bas., Quecus, 1566. 8°. and Ambergæ, Schönfeld, 1609. 8°. contain all the 6 books. Some later discovered letters are in Martene Collectio ampliss. II. 1117. Concerning the editions and MSS. of these letters see Allg. litt. Anzeiger 1799. p. 1638. Archiv der Frankf. Gesellschaft (in several places). 16554 — fragmenta tabulæ antiquæ, in quâ aliquot per Rom. provincias itinera. Ex Peutingerorum bibliotheca. Edente et explicante M. Velsero. Ven., Aldus, 1591. 4°.

60 pages, and 2 maps engraved in wood, at the end 1 leaf of index. The first edition of these documents, important as to ancient geography, which however only contains some fragments of these maps. Completely engraved from copper-plates for the first time (but very inaccurately, and reduced from 21 feet to a scale of 12 feet), in the edition Abr. Ortelii Parergon. Antw. 1598 and 1624. fol. and repeated therefrom in Pt. Bertii Theatr. geogr. vet. LB. 1618. fol. G. Hornii Orbis antiqui delineatio. Amst. 1653. fol. M. Velseri Opp. Nrb. 1682. fol. p. 705 sq. N. Bergier Hist. des grands chemins de l'empire Romain. Æsii (that is Jesi) in Picenis, typis Cherubini, 1809. fol. with an atlas of 12 maps in oblong fol.

The maps are only copies of Scheyb's edition, but a new text is added instead of his. The edition has become scarce already, and was no longer to be had at Rome in 1819. — The part of the map which contains the south of Italy, is given with corrections in Dm. Romanelli Antica topografia del regno di Napoli. T. I. Nap. 1815. 4°.

16566 PEZAY, Masson de. Histoire des campagnes du maréchal de Maillebois en Italie, pendant les ann. 1745 et 46. Par., impr. roy., 1775. 4°. 3 vols. with an atlas in large fol.

Prized, and already scarce even in France.

16567 PFEFFEL, Cr. Gli. Poetische Versuche. Th. 1-6. 5e Aufl. Tüb., Cotta, 1817-20. Th. 7-10. 4e Aufl. ib., id., 1804-10. 8°. 10 voll. (5 d., on writing paper 7 d., on vellum paper 10 d.)—Prosaische Versuche. ib., id., 1810-12. 8°. 8 voll. (4 d., on writing paper 6 d.)

16568 PFEIFFER, A. F. Ueber Bücherhandschriften überhaupt. Erl., Palm, 1810. 8°. (1 d.)

A manual which cannot be too much recommended, and, in conjunction with Mannert (see above), the best we have in Germany for instruction on the knowledge of MSS. Should it extend to a 2nd edition, which is greatly to be wished, the explanations in particular of the 2nd part of the Herculanean vols. should be supplied, a separate chapter on the miniatures in MSS. should be added, and the entire book should have a still more practical direction than it has now.

16569 — beiträge zur Kenntniss alter Bücher u. Handschr. (in der Erlang. Bibl.) Hof, Vierling, 1783-86. 8°. 3 pieces (1 d. 4 gr.)

PFINZING, see THEUERDANK and FRONTINUS, No. 7972.

16570 PHÆDRUS. Fabularum Æsopiar. libri V. nunc prim. in lucem editi (a Pt. Pithæo). Augustobonæ Tricassium, J. Odotius, 1596. 12°. 67 pages and 1 leaf.

The first edition, and very scarce. The MS. from which Pithæus (not very faithfully, and with arbitrary alterations) made his edition, came at last into the possession of M. le Pelletier de Rosambo in France. A second MS. which was discovered in the library of the Benedictines of St. Remy at Rheims, was burnt with that library in 1774; but Vincent, the librarian, had written all its various readings in a printed edition, which is in the Royal library at Paris.

16571 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Nuper a Pt. Pithæo prim. editi, et jam emendati atque illustrati a Cr. Rittershusio. Acc. in easdem fabulas spicilegium Csp. Schoppii et alia quam plurima. LB., ex off. Plant. (Raphelengii), 1598. 8°.

191 and 55 pages, and 8 leaves. The 2nd edition, and likewise very scarce. The 2nd separately numbered part (Gabriæ Fabulae, Ænigmata etc.) is sometimes wanting.

16572 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. N. Rigaltius recensuit et notis illustravit. Lutet., Drouart, 1599. 12°.

This 3rd edition is also scarce. Rigaltius made use of Pithæus's codex afresh, and more carefully than he had done, restored the old readings in many passages, and appended conjectures and notes. But he did not make use of the Rheims codex in this edition. Renouard possesses a copy on vellum from de Thou's library. There also appear to be copies with the date of 1600.

16573 — apologi s. fabellæ Æsopicæ, latino carmine redditæ a Phædro. Hanov., typis Wechel., 1603. 12°.

A reprint of the preceding with addition of the fables of Aphthonius, Avianus, and Gabrias. The impression in the Mythologia Æsopica. Ff. 1610. 8°. has somewhat of its own.

- 16574 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. J. Meursius post Pithœum, Rittershusium, Schoppium, Rigaltium denuo recensuit et animadvv. addidit. (LB.), ex off. Plantin. Raphelengii, 1610. 8°.

3 leaves of preliminary matter, 213 and 55 pages. Only a new title to the edition of 1598 with the addition of notes by Meursius, in which he has indulged himself in criticism as venturous, as it is often unhappy.

- 16575 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Nova editio (cura N. Rigaltii). (Par.), oliva Rb. Stephani, 1617. 4°.

A neat edition, printed in black and red. Rigaltius here used for the first time the Rheims codex, and gave a new but very violent and arbitrary recension. He has besides seldom distinguished between what belongs to the Rheims codex, and what to his own conjectures.

- 16576 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. nunc prim. in lucem editi. Par., Cramoisy, 1629. 16°.

Merely a reprint of one of the earlier texts, notwithstanding the deceitful title.

- 16577 — fabular. libri V. Nova editio, ad Rigaltinam anni 1617 recusa, cum Rigaltii notis. Festi Avieni fabular. liber. Par., Cramoisy, 1630. 12°.

Containing a very corrupt text; by no means that of the edition of 1617. Repeated, ib., id., 1637 and 63. 12°.

- 16578 — fabular. Æsopicar. liber primus. Flexiæ, Griveau, 1638. 4°.

- 16579 — fabulæ. Additæ sunt novæ et animadvv. Tanaq. Fabri, in quibus multa etiam alior. scriptor. emendata sunt. (Acc. P. Syri selectæ sententiæ). Salmurii, Lerpinère, 1657. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 72 and 68 pages. The text is indeed the bad text of the edition of 1630, but the notes are learned and acute, although they contribute little towards the correction of the text. — The edition, Ratisb. 1657. 8°. contains good notes by J. H. Ursinus, and some corrections of the text.

- 16580 — fabulæ, a J. Freinshemio emendatione textus, historiis, notis et indice illustratæ. Depromebat ex bibl. Freinshemiana H. Holstius. Arg., Paulli, 1664. 8°.

In many copies there are also to be found in 147 pages Pt. Axenii Notæ in lib. I.

- 16581 — fabulæ cum notis et emendatt. Tanaq. Fabri. Addita est gallica versio et in eam animadvv. Salmur. 1664. 8°.

An enlarged repetition of the edition of 1657. Sacy's French translation is also added. Repeated, ib. 1673 and 89. 12°. Amst. 1689. 12°. ib. 1712 or 23. 8°. Hag. Com. 1725. 8°.

- 16582 — Phædrus cum notis J. Schefferi et Fr. Guyeti castigatt. criticis et gallica versione Albini (L. Is. le Maître de Sacy). Ed. II. Ups., Curio, 1667. 8°.

Previously, ib. 1664. 8°. Tan. le Fevre's edition forms the basis. With valuable explanations, yet but little happy criticism. Repeated, Hmb. 1673. 8°. and often.

- 16583 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. notis perpetuis illustrati et cum integris alior. observatt. in lucem editi a J. Laurentio. Amst., Waesberge, 1667. 8°. with plates.

Of no great intrinsic value, and very incorrect, but sought after on account of the plates. Sometimes (but by no means commonly) the offensive part of the plate, p. 276, is erased or inked over, which should be attended to in purchasing. — The following edition is not accurately known, Phædri Fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. ex rec. Cp. Wase. Lond. 1668 or 79. 8°.

- 16584 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum prioribus ac posterioribus notis N. Rigaltii. Pt. Axen recensuit suasque notas adjecit. Hmb., Naumann, 1671. 8°.

Axen's notes are learned, but do not extend beyond the first book.

- 16585 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Interpretatione et notis illustrav. Pt. Danetius, in usum Delphini. Par., Leonard, 1675. 4°.

Of little intrinsic value. Repeated, ib., Barbou, 1726. 4°. Ven. 1787. 4°. Lond. 1688, 1703, 7, 17, 22, 27, 35, 45, or 1814. 8°.

- 16586 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum annotatt. J. Schefferi et Fr. Guyeti notis. Ed. V. prioribus emendatior et auctior, in qua jungitur interpretatio gallica cum notis et index latinus uberrimus. In belgicum metrum convertebat J. Hilarides. Franequ., Strix, 1694. 8°.

- 16587 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Cum integris commentariis Marq. Gudii, Cr. Rittershusii, N. Rigaltii, N. Heinsii, J. Schefferi, J. L. Praschii et excerptis alior. Curante Pt. Burmanno. Amst., Wetstein, 1698. 8°.

A valuable edition, in which the notes of Gudius and Heinsius appeared for the first time. There are also copies in which the notes of Gudius, Ritterhusius, and Rigaltius, appended with a separate pagination, are wanting.

- 16588 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Notis doctor. selectionibus novisque passim et conjecturis et explanationibus illustrati, op. Th. Johnson. Lond., Harper, 1701. 8°.

Repeated, ib., 1708 and 14. 8°.

- 16589 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Notis illustravit in usum principis Nassavii D. Hoogstratanus. Acc. duo indd. Amst., Halma, 1701. 4°. with 1 title-plate, 1 portrait, and 18 plates. Also on large paper.

Inaccurate, and too arbitrary in a critical point of view. Hoogstratanus has paid particular attention to the metre, and the selection of notes is good. The plates are very neat. A smaller edition, ib., 1701, (enlarged) 1703 and 1711. 12°. — Phædri et Avieni fabulæ cum adnotatt. Hoogstratani. Neap. 1729. 8°.

- 16590 — Fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum notis perpetuis J. Fr. Gronovii et emendatt. Jac. Gronovii. Acc. N. Dispontini in Phædrum collectanea. Amst., Janssonio-Waesbergii, 1703. large 12°.

The best part of this neat edition is Dispontini collectanea. The notes of the two Gronovii are of little value.

- 16591 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. et P. Syri sententiæ locupletiores, cum notulis Sm. Hoadly. Lond., 1703, or 4, or 12. 8°.

- 16592 — fabulæ ad fidem optimar. editionum, una auctiores, recusæ cum paucis brevibusque notis. Acc. vindiciæ Gudii ab acerbioribus censuris Jac. Gronovii. Editore J. Cp. Wolfio. Flensburgi, Schumann, 1709. 8°.

Consult Millin Annal. encycl. 1817. VI. 274. The pretended newly discovered fable (Rana paludis incolæ), is not the production of any ancient author, but of the Jesuit, J. Commire.

- 16593 — fabulæ antiquæ ex Phædro fere servatis ejus verbis desumptæ et soluta oratione expositæ. Inter quas reperiuntur nonnullæ ejusdem auctoris et alior. antea ignotæ. Acc. Romuli fabulæ Æsopiæ. Omnes ex MSS. depromptæ et adjectis notis editæ a J. F. Nilant. LB., Haak, 1709. 12°.

- 16594 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. item fabulæ quædam ex vet. MS. a Marq. Gudio descriptæ, cum ind. vocum et locutionum. Appendicis loco adjiciuntur fabulæ græcæ quædam et latinæ ex variis authoribus collectæ, quas claudit Avieni Æsopiar. fabular. liber unus (cura Mch. Maittaire). Lond., Tonson, 1713. 12°. Also on large paper.

The repetitions, ib., id., 1721, 29, or 72. 12°. are not prized. That of 1729 in particular is so incorrect, as to want entire lines.

- 16595 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Cum integris commentariis Marq. Gudii, Cr. Rittershusii, N. Rigaltii, Is. Neveleti, N. Heinsii, J. Schefferi, J. L. Praschii et excerptis alior. Curante Pt. Burmanno. Hag. Com., Scheurleer, 1718. 8°.

An enlarged repetition (not merely a new title) of the edition of 1698. But, LB., Luchtman, 1728. 8°. is only a new title.

- 16596 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. et novar. fabular. appendix. Cura et stud. Pt. Burmanni. Hag. Com., Scheurleer, 1719. 12°.

Also, LB., 1766. 12°. — Bentley used the text of Burmann's edition of 1718 as the basis of his new recension of Phædrus, which appeared with Terentius Benileji, Cbr., 1726. 4°. Against the too great boldness of this English critic is directed (Fr. Hare) Epistola orit. ad eruditiss. virum H. B. S. E. I. (H. Bland, scholæ Etonensis instructorem) in qua omnes Bentleyi in Phædrum notæ atque emendatt. expenduntur. Lond., Tonson, 1726.

4°. 150 pages, which is scarce in this separate edition. Also in Hare's works, T. II.

16597 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum novo commentario Pt. Burmanni. Leidæ, Luchtmans, 1726. 4°. Also on large paper.

This greatly prized edition contains (omitting all the irrelevant materials of the edition of 1718) a commentary of Burmann's, quite new, and peculiar to it, which is chiefly directed against Bentley's innovations. The critical preface against Bentley, which is prefixed, is also of great value. At the end Hare's Epistola Critica is printed on 93 pages, which impression was also published at the same time with a separate title, LB., Luchtmans, 1727. 4°. This edition of Burmann's was reprinted (without Hare's Epist. Crit.), Mitavia, Hinse, 1773. 8°. (1 d., on writing paper 1 d. 12 gr.)

16598 — fabulæ et P. Syri sententiæ. Par., typ. regia, 1729. 18°. Also on large paper.

This neat edition, printed in a very small type, is a companion to the Horatius. Par. typ. reg. 1733. 32°. There are two impressions of this Phædrus of the same date, the latter one of which is a little less neat. There are some copies of the first impression on vellum (145 fr. Randon de Boisset, 131 fr. Gouttard, 220 fr. Crévénna, 96 fr. Méon, 162 fr. M'Carthy). According to Brunet, there are only large-paper copies of the second impression; but according to Renouard (Catal. II. 280), it appears that there were large-paper copies of the first impression also, and no small-paper copies of the second, but that the entire impression was struck off on large paper.

16599 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Nova editio emendata; notis gallicis selectissimis, appendice ad ejusdem fabulas, P. Syri aliorumque veterum sententiis aucta (a Cl. Fabro). Par., Barbou, 1731. 12°.

This is the first impression (not noticed in Schwabe's edition) of Fabre's edition, which has been repeated more than a hundred times. His notes met with particular approbation in France; consult Barbier Examen crit. des Dictionnaires hist. I. 322 sq. It was only supplanted by Brotier's edition in 1783.

16600 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V.

Recensuit et paraphrasi in usum scholar. exposuit J. N. Funccius. Rintelii, Enax, 1738. 8°.

Reprinted, ib., 1765 and 69. 8°.

16601 — fabular. Æsopicar. libri V. nunc denuo editi in us. scholar. piar. cum notis (Ln. Targionii). Flor., Viviani, 1739. 12°.

The notes are in Italian, and the offensive passages are omitted.

16602 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Ad exemplar Burmannianum recensuit suasque adnotatt. adjec. J. Mch. Heusinger. Isenaci, 1740. 8°.

With short notes, mostly critical. A very useful edition. Enlarged and repeated, ib., 1772 and 1800. 8°. (3 gr.)

16603 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. ad optimas quasque editt. emendati. Acc. Flavii Aviani fabulæ et P. Syri sententiæ. Par., Coustelier, 1742. 12°.

Superintended by J. Bt. le Mascrier. Neat, but very incorrect.

16604 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum varior. commentariis. Curante Pt. Burmanno. LB., Luchtmans, 1745. 8°.

A repetition of the edition of 1718, enlarged with the index of the edition of 1727.

16605 — fabulæ, quas ad MSS. codd. et optimam quamque editionem emendavit St. And. Philippe. Acc. notæ ad calcem (it. Aviani fabulæ et Senecæ Syrique sententiæ). Lut. Par., Grangé, 1748. 12°. Also on Dutch paper.

Neat, but rather arbitrarily and not very industriously superintended. Philippe made use of Sanadon's unpublished notes without mentioning him. Par., Barbou, 1754. 12°. is only a new title.

16606 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Lond., Brindley, 1750. 18°.

16607 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. ex rec. Pt. Burmanni (cum P. Syri sententiis). Glasg., Foulis, 1751. 8°.

Also, ib., id., 1754, or 62, or 83. 12°.

16608 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Ex rec. Alex. Cuningamii. Acced. P. Syri et alior. veterum sententiæ. Edinb., Hamilton et Balfour, 1757. 8°. Also on large paper.

Neat, and so correct, that there is said to be no typographical error throughout.

16609 — fabulæ. L. Annæi Senecæ et P. Syri sententiæ. Aureliæ, Couret de Villeneuve, 1773. 24°.

16610 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum integris commentariis Gudii, Rittershusii, Rigaltii, Heinsii, Schefferi, Praschii et excerptis aliorum. Curante Pt. Burmanno. LB., Luchtmans, 1778. large 8°. (3 fl.)

An unaltered reprint of the edition of 1745.

16611 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. ex rec. Pt. Burmanni. Cum selectis varior. notis et suis observatt. edidit J. Glo. Sm. Schwabe. Hal., Gebauer, 1779–81. 8°. 3 parts in 1 vol. (1 d. 21 gr.)

Burmann's text forms the basis, which is corrected in many places from the Codex Perottinus. The notes contain partly a good selection from others (among which are those of J. Tollius, not before printed), and partly the editor's own observations.

16612 — fabulas de Fedro en latin y castellano, é ilustradas con algunas notas para el uso de los principiantes en las escuelas de gramática. Madr. 1781. 8°. (3 rs.)

16613 — fabular. libri V. Cum notis et supplementis Gbr. Brotier. Acc. parallelæ J. de la Fontaine. Par., Barbou, 1783. 12°.

Also on fine papier d'Annonay. A very valuable edition, for which Brotier collated afresh the MS. formerly collated by Pithæus, and made use of a new collation of the Rheims MS.

16614 — fabulæ Æsopiæ, novissime recognitæ et emendatæ. Acc. P. Syri sententiæ, Aviani et Anonymi veteris fabulæ, denuo castigatæ. Bip. 1784. 8°. (12 gr.)

Superintended by Croll, and containing several good corrections. The new impression, ib. 1809. 8°. is not neat.

16615 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum notis et emendatt. Fr. Jos. Desbillons ex ejus commentario pleniore desumptis. Manhemii, 1786. 8°. (16 gr.)

A new recension, with a careful distinction of the MS. of Pithæus and that of Rheims. The critical and exegetical notes are important.

16616 — fabulæ Æsopiæ, libri V. P. Syri aliorumque veterum sententiæ cum notis Bentleji, selectis aliorum, quibus et suas addidit F.

H. Bothe. Lps., Schwikkert, 1803. 8°. (12 gr.)

16617 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. Ad codd. MSS. et optimas editt. recognovit, varietatem. lectionis et commentarium perpetuum adjec. J. Glo. Sm. Schwabe. Acced. Romuli fabular. Æsopiar. libri IV. ad codicem Divionensem et perantiquam edit. Ulmensem nunc prim. emendati et notis illustrati. Brunsv., Vieweg, 1806. 8°. 2 voll. (3 d. 8 gr.) Also on writing paper and vellum paper.

A new and very industrious reproduction of his earlier edition.

16618 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum notis et emendatt. F. Jos. Desbillons ex ejus commentario pleniore desumptis. Tertia ed., cui access. adnotatt. gallicæ J. F(elicissimi) A–Y (Adry). Par., Duprat-Duverger, 1807. 12°. (1 fr. 60 c.)

This edition is greatly celebrated by Barbier.

16619 — Jul. Phædri fabularum liber novus, e MS. cod. Perottino regiæ biblioth. (Neapol.) nunc prim. edidit J. Ant. Cassittus. Neap. 1808. 8°.

The first edition of this pretended discovery, but extremely faulty and inaccurate: only 50 copies were struck off. 32 pages without the preliminary matter and index. In 1811 a second edition of 100 copies in folio appeared, in divided columns, which Cassitto principally sent as presents to foreign philologists, with a letter, wherein he invited them to an examination of its genuineness.

16620 — Jul. Phædri fabulæ ineditæ XXXII. quas in codice Perottino bibliothecæ Neap. primus invenit, descripsit, edidit J. Ant. Cassittus. Editio III. Neap., ex officina monitoris utr. Siciliæ, 1811. 8°. 75, 92, and 107 pages.

This 3rd edition contains also a translation of the new fables in Italian verse.

16621 — codex Perottinus MS. regiæ biblioth. Neapol. XXXII Phædri fabulas jam notas, totidem novas, XXXVI. Aviani vulgatas, et ipsius Perotti carmina inedita continens, digestus et editus a Cataldo Jannellio, qui variantes etiam lectt. adposuit, tum deficientes ac corruptas tentavit. Neap., ex regia typ., 1809. 8°.

This first edition of Jannelli first appeared in 1811 notwithstanding its date. The conjectures and corrections in this edition are only placed in the notes.

- 16622 — Phædri fabulæ ex cod. Perottino MS. regię bibliothecæ Neapol., emendatæ, suppletæ et commentario novo instructæ a Cataldo Jannellio. Præfixa est de Phædri vita dissertatio. Neap., Sangiacomo, 1811. 8°.

In this 2nd edition Janelli has introduced his conjectures into the text.

- 16623 — in Perottinum codicem MS. regię biblioth., quo XXXII. Phædri fabulæ jam notæ, totidem novæ, XXXVI. Aviani vulgatæ, et ipsius Perotti carmina inedita continentur, Cataldi Jannellii dissertationes tres. Neap., ex regia typ. 1811. 8°.

This book should be added to the first edition of Jannelli.

- 16624 — Cataldi Jannellii in Cassitanam novar. fabular. editionem colloquia. Neap., Sangiacomo, 1812. 8°.

- 16625 — noviter detectæ Phædri fabulæ XXX. E MS. bibl. regię Neapol. codice nuperrime editæ (cura Jos. Hageri). Stuttg. et Tub., Cotta, 1812. 8°. (6 gr.)

A very inaccurate impression. The 32 fables are reduced to 30, and sometimes Cassitti's corrections, sometimes Jannelli's, are introduced into the text without marking them by a different character.

- 16626 — fabellæ novæ XXXII. ex cod. Perottino regię bibl. Neapol. Juxta edit. Cataldi Jannellii. Par., Renouard, 1812. 12°. 42 pages.

A neat and careful impression of the text alone. Renouard has a copy on vellum, and lord Spencer a second.

- 16627 — Julii Phædri fabulæ novæ et veteres; novæ juxta collatas Cassitti et Jannellii editiones, Neapoli nuper emissas, cum selectis ex utriusque commentario notis: veteres juxta edit. Bipontinam, cum selectis Schwabii ex commentario notis (curavit Chambry). Par., Nicolle, 1812. 8°.

The annotations are only for beginners.

In the new fables the editor has made arbitrary alterations, and in consequence the Neapolitan edition cannot be dispensed with.

- 16628 — nouvelles fables de Phèdre, trad. en vers italiens par Petroni et en prose franç. par Biagioli, avec les notes de l'édit. originale et précédées d'une préface franç. par Ginguéné. Par., Didot, 1812. 8°.

The text and notes of Jannelli.

- 16629 — Phædri quæ feruntur fabulæ XXXII. in Italia nuper repertæ, nunc prim. in Germania editæ, adjunctis Dorvillii et Burmanni emendatt. (cura H. C. Abr. Eichstädt). Jen. 1812. fol. 22 pages.

The same new fables are also printed with some notes in the Classical Journal, XIV. 381 sq. XV. 131 sq.

- 16630 — (J. Félicissime Adry) examen des nouv. fables de Phèdre. Doutes sur leur authenticité. Par., Egron, 1812. 12°. 68 pages.

Renouard possesses the only copy on vellum.—Neuentdeckte Fabeln des Phædrus aus dem Lat. übs. von C. A. von Gruber. Wien, 1815. 12°. (6 gr.) Concerning the entire controversy on account of these new fables, consult Beckii acta seminarii regii, vol. II. Lps. 1812. 8°. p. 204-231, 513 sq.

- 16631<sup>a</sup> — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. acc. fabulæ a Gudio editæ cum notis selectis. Neap. 1812. 8°.

- 16631<sup>b</sup> — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. cum appendice. Recognovit, introductionem de auctoris vita, scriptis et usu agentem, nec non Jo. Camerarii libellum de vita Æsopi præmisit, notas criticas et æstheticas ad calcem adjecit Fr. N. Titze. Pragæ, Widtmann, 1813. 8°. (1 d. 8 gr.)

- 16632 — fabular. Æsopiar. libri V. et P. Syri aliorumque veterum sententiæ ex rec. Benteji passim codd. MSS. auctoritate nec non metri et rhythmici musici ope reficta. Additum est glossarium scholar. usui accommodatum a Cr. Glo. Anton. Post mortem patris edidit C. Thph. Anton. Zittav., Schöps, 1817. 8°. (18 gr., on writing paper 20 gr.)

This very insignificant posthumous work had better have remained unprinted.

16633<sup>b</sup> — fabulas de Phedro, traduzidas em verso portuguez, por Man. de Moraes Soares. Lisb. 1785. 8°.

The remaining explanatory works, see in Schwabe; and concerning Christ's and Funk's dispute, see CHRIST above. St. Marcheselli has also proved in the Nuova raccolta di opusc. scientif. e filol. T. XXIII. No. XI. p. 10 sq. 39 sq., on new grounds, and not without acuteness, that Phædrus's fables are the work of N. Perottus, and that there never was an ancient fabulist of this name. At the same time he offers interesting, although partly hazardous, conjectures respecting other fabulists: viz. that Flavius (to which the form Glabrius answers in sound and signification) Anianus in the 4th or 5th century was the author, under the altered name of Gabrias, of the Greek fables which we possess in the abridged work of a deacon Ignatius, and that the elegiac Latin translation of Avienus (which is an error of the pen for Anianus) is really the work of J. Ant. Campanus, and that the Theodosius to whom it is attributed, might be an error of the pen for Theodorus (i. e. Gaza, Campanus's master). ib. p. 17 sq.; consult however P. Colomesii opusc. Ultraj. 1669. 12°. p. 90). In the same work, T. XXIV. No. VIII. p. 5 sq. Marcheselli gives the following conjectures in addition: that the 60 prose fables of the Pseudo-Romulus are a paraphrase of the Perotto-Phædraic fables by an unknown hand in the beginning of the 16th century: that the 214 prose fables of a second Romulus, which appeared, Ven., Tacuinus, 1519. 4°. are those of Julius Titianus, of which Ausonius makes mention: that the fables of Rimicius are the work of Alemannus Rinuccinus, or Rinucius, in the 15th century (and the name of Rinuccinus really appears in a Paris edition of Phalaris's letters of 1471, changed into Raimitius, see below, No. 16654); and lastly, that the metrical fables of the anonymous Neveletus are by a certain Salo of Parma, who lived in the time of the emperor Theodosius, or at the latest, of Justinian I., and translated them from the Greek of Æsop during his abode at Athens. (But see above, HILDEBERTUS). The latter work, therefore, contains the oldest and most genuine Æsopian fables.

Should some of these conjectures be much too slightly grounded, yet are they deserving of being followed up further and more freely than they are in Schwabe. That the Italian literati of the 15th century often allowed themselves such falsifications and forgeries, which they considered as merely sports of wit, cannot be denied; and a short time ago, on the occasion of a supposititious work by Pomp. Lætus (see MODESTUS above), it was proved afresh in Amad. Peyron Notitia librorum a Valperga bibl. Taurin. donatorum. Lps. 1820. 4°. p. 86 sq. Other instances of arbitrary dealings, which were at that time allowed with the works of ancient classics, see in Bandini Cat. cod. bibl. Laur. II. 499.

16640 PHALARIS. Phalaridis, Apollonii et M. Bruti epistolæ, gr. (Ven.), ex ædibus Bm. Justinopolitani, Gbr. Brasichellensis, J. Bisso-li et Bd. Mangii Carpensium, 14 cal. Jul. 1498. 4°.

The first edition, very scarce, and sometimes bound up with the Æsop which appeared from the same press. 58 leaves, with the signatures aa-θθ. Leaf 1a begins, without a farther title, with a letter of Bm. Justinopolitanus to Pt. Contarenus. Leaf 2a begins the letters of Phalaris, leaf 37a those of Apollonius, and leaf 49a those of Brutus. The types resemble those of Calliergus, and that Venice was really the place of printing is proved in Renouard's Catal. III. 329. In the preface Bartholomæus announces a Latin translation also, which however never appeared.—Reprinted in 1499 in the Epp. Græc. Aldi.

16641 — epistolæ doctissimæ, gr. ac lat., Th. Naorgeorgo interprete. Bas., J. Oporinus, 1558. 8°.

16642 — Epistolæ ingeniosissimæ et admirabiles. In quibus optimi et sapientissimi imperatoris idea proponitur. Jam primum in Germania editæ (græce, cura Eilh. Lubini). Rost., Myliander, 1597. 8°. 143 pages.

This first edition by Lubinus contains only the Greek text. The Latin translation of Naorgeorgus is added in the edition, ap. Commelin. 1597 or 1609. 8°. (see EPISTOLÆ, No. 6822.)

16643 — epistolæ græco-latine in usum scholar. soc. Jesu. Ingolst., ex typographeo Ederiano, 1614. 12°. 308 pages.

16644 — epistolæ (gr. lat.) Ex MSS. recensuit, versione, annotationibus et vita insuper authoris donavit C. Boyle. Ox., th. Sheld., 1695. 8°. Also on large paper.

A new revision from MSS., but without criticism or taste.

16645 — (the same title). Ox., typ. Clarend., 1718. 8°. Also on large paper.

An unaltered reprint of the preceding edition. As Boyle had maintained the genuineness of the letters of Phalaris, and Bentley had denied it, this gave occasion to a vehement controversy (Wolf's litt. Analekten, I. 8 sq. Fabricii bibl. gr. I. 665 n.), out of which Bentley came forth conqueror. The following article contains the pieces written thereon on either side.

16646 — 1. Rich. BENTLEY diss. upon the epistles of Phalaris, Themistocles, Socrates, Euripides, and others, and the fables of Æsop, in W. Wotton's reflections upon ancient and modern learning. Ed. II. Lond. 1697. 8°. (In Ed. III. Lond. 1705. 8°. that concerning Phalaris is omitted.)—In favour of Boyle appeared, 2. (Jonath. SWIFT) a full and true account of the battle fought last Friday between the ancient and the modern books in St. James's library. Lond. 1697. 8°. (also in his Works.) 3. Bentley's diss. on the epp. of Ph. and the fables of Æsop, examined by Charl. BOYLE. Lond. 1698. 8°. Ed. III. ib. 1699. 8°. Ed. IV. ib. 1745. 8°. (The real authors were Fr. Atterbury and J. Freind.) 4. (J. MILNER) a view of the diss. upon the epp. of Phal. etc. Lond. 1698. 8°. 5. An essay concerning critical and curious learning etc. by T. R. Lond. 1698. 8°. 6. A free but modest censure on the late controversial writings and debates of the bishop of Worcester and Locke, Edwards and Locke, Boyle and Bentley, by F. B. Lond. 1698. 4°. — Finally, Bentley published,

7. A diss. upon the epp. of Phal. with answer to the objections of Charl. Boyle. Lond. 1699. 8°. — On the other side appeared, 8. Ten dialogues of the dead, relating to the present controversy concerning the epp. of Phal. (by W. KING.) Lond. 1699. 8°. 9. A short account of Bentley's humanity and justice to those authors, who have written before him, with a vindication of Th. Stanley, and his notes on Callimachus. Lond. 1699. 8°. — Bentley is vindicated against the last work in, 10. (WHATELY) an answer to a late book written against Bentley, relating to some manuscript notes on Callimachus. Lond. 1699. 8°. (reprinted in the Classical Journ. IX. 173 sq. 349 sq. X. 209 sq. XI. 155 sq. XII. 128 sq. 370 sq.)—The following works take Boyle's side: 11. A short review of the controversy between Boyle and Bentley. Lond. 1701. 8°. 12. H. DODWELLI exercitatt. II. prima de ætate Phalaridis, secunda de ætate Pythagoræ. Lond. 1704. 8°.—The following is a new and enlarged edition of Bentley's work: 13. A diss. upon the epp. of Phal. with an answer to the objections of Charl. Boyle, by Rich. BENTLEY. To which are added, Bentley's diss. on the epp. of Themistocles, Socrates, Euripides, and others, and the fables of Æsop; as originally printed, with occasionally remarks on the whole. Lond. 1777. 8°.

A complete collection of these controversial writings, when it can be found, is of the utmost rarity; those pieces of the favourers on either side which were not reprinted are especially scarce. Lennep published a Latin translation of Bentley's dissertation as a 2nd vol. to his edition of Phalaris, and Rich. Bentley's opuscul. philol. Lps. 1781. 8°. is a reprint of this translation, with the addition of Bentley's ep. crit. ad Millium.

16647 — Phalaridis epistolæ (gr. lat.) Quas latinas fecit et interpositis C. Boyle notis commentario illustravit J. Dn. a Lennep. Mortuo Lennepio finem operi imposuit, præfat. et adnotatt. quasdam præfixit L. Csp. Valckenaer. Groningæ, Bolt, 1777. — (T. II.) Rch. Bentleji dissertatio de Phalaridis, Themistoclis, Socratis, Euripidis aliorumque epistolis et de fabulis Æsopi. Nec non ejusd. responsio, qua dissertationem de epistolis Phalaridis vindicat a censura Caroli Boyle. Omnia ex angl. in lat. serm. convertit J. Dn. a Lennep. ib., id., 1777. 4°. 2 voll.

The best edition, and a new recension from MSS. and earlier editions. Scarce, on large paper.

16648 — epistolæ lat. interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino, cum J. Ant. Campani epistola ad Fr. Piccolomini. Romæ, U. Han (1470). 4°.

46 leaves with 29 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Dibdin in Ædd. Althorp. II. 229 (consult Audiffredi Catal. edd. Rom. p. 42), considers this as the 2nd edition of this translation. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with the letter of Campanus (which is wanting in all the other editions): Quæris quod genus Epistolarum maxime probem. Then follows the dedication of Fr. Aretinus, the first line of which is printed in Gothic letter. Also the names of those to whom Phalaris writes, and Phalaris's own name in the first letter, and the initials of each letter, are all in Gothic type. Dibdin asserts in his Tour, III. 511, that he saw in the Imperial library an edition, without place or date, fol. of 30 leaves, which was printed in U. Han's second or common type. Consult No. 16650.

16649 — epistolæ, interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino. Without place or date (Neap., Sixt, Riessinger, about 1470). 4°.

47 leaves (according to Dibdin, 48 according to Vallière), with 27 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with the dedication of Aretinus, which has no farther superscription, and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is ELLEM Malatesta Nouel—. Phalaris's letters begin at the bottom of leaf 3<sup>a</sup>, and on the reverse of the last leaf is the following colophon: Phalaridis Tyrāni Agrigentini Epistole ad Illustrem principē Malatestā per Franciscū Aretinum Translate feliciter Expliciunt. This edition, entirely different from the preceding, is in Vallière's

Catal. II. 746, erroneously attributed to U. Han (consult Audiffredi Catal. edd. Rom. p. 403 n.). Other descriptions of it are in Debure (Bell. Lettr. II. 308), and in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. II. 234, where there is also a specimen of the type.

16650 — — Without place or date. (Romæ, U. Han). 4°.

This edition, described for the first time in Dibdin's Æd. Althorp. II. 229, was likewise printed about 1470, and has 36 leaves, with 30, 31, or 32 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is ELLEM Malatesta Nouvelle Princeps il, and this 1st page has 29 lines. Leaf 33<sup>b</sup> has the colophon, Phalaridis Tyranni Agrigentini Epistole ad illustrē principem Malatestam p Franciscum Aretinum translate feliciter Expliciunt. In leaf 34<sup>a</sup> follows a Tabula super epistolas hujus libri, which ends leaf 36<sup>a</sup>. Leaf 36<sup>b</sup> is blank. The paper, which is tolerably strong, has no mark, and the types are somewhat misshapen. Dibdin considers this to be the first edition of the Latin translation, but he erroneously states it as having 37 leaves and 3 leaves of index.

16651 — — Without place or date. 4°.

52 leaves (the last blank) with 27 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. It begins with the dedication of Aretinus, of which the 1st and 2nd lines are,

ELLEM Malatesta Nouelle Princeps illustris: tā

Phalaris's letters begin at the end of leaf 3<sup>b</sup>, the 1st line of which is, Oñclety Messenig quē prodicionis. They end in leaf 48<sup>b</sup> with this colophon in three lines: Phalaridis tyranni agrigentini epistole | ad illustrem Principem Malatestam per | Frā-oiscū aretinū inslate felicit expliciūt. Then follow 3 leaves of a tabula (the 1st line is, Incipit tabula sup Epistolas huius libri et una) and 1 blank leaf.—Different from U. Han's edition, and described in Crévénna's second Catalogue, No. 5547.

16652 — epistolæ, interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino. Tarvisii, Girardus Lisa, 1471. 4°.

62 leaves with 24 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first dated edition. Care should be taken not to consider this as the first edition on account of the colophon (qui modo notus erat nulli etc.). Two later undated editions have the same verses, and it is well known, that similar final verses were often only an empty pretence, and often even a reprint only of the colo-phons of MSS. (see above, PERSIUS, No. 16231.) M. Tom. de Luca in Italy possessed a copy on vellum with a fine painting, see Dibdin's Decam. III. 77 n.

16653 — — Without place or printer's name, 1471. 4°.

16654 — Phalaridis epistolæ, interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino. M. Bruti epistolæ a Mithridate collectæ, interprete Raimitio (Rinuccio Aretino). Cratis Cynici epistolæ, interprete Athanasio Constantinopolitano. (Par.), Mch. (Friburger), Mt. (Crantz) et Udalr. (Gering), without date (1471). small 4°.

16655 — — epistolæ, interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino. Brix., Th. Ferandus, cal. Sept. without date (1473). 4°.

Extremely scarce, and one of the first typographical productions of Brescia. 55 leaves, with 24 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, FRANCISCI Arretini ad Illustrē uirū Ma. The letters themselves begin in leaf 4<sup>a</sup>.

16656 — — Without place or date. 4°.

49 leaves with 25 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, FRANCISCI ARHETINI IN PHA. Leaf 49<sup>b</sup> ends with the 2 verses,

Qui modo notus erat nulli etc. Laire ascribes this edition to the press of Zarotus, others to Lavagna's; but Dibdin, Bibl. Speno. II. 233, considers both conjectures to be groundless, and thinks the edition not earlier than 1474.

16657 — — Without place or date (about 1474). 4°.

41 leaves with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The colophon is, Phalaridis Tirāni Agrigētini Epile ad Illustrē principē Malatestā. Per Frānciscū. Aretinū translate. Feliciter absoluta (sic) sunt. The types resemble those in Calderini comm. in Martialem. Romæ, J. Gensberg, 1474. 4°. The paper-mark is among other things a lily.

16658 — — Without place, 1475. small 4°.

54 leaves, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination; printed with the same types with which J. Reynhardi printed Aristotelis problemata at Rome in 1475. It begins with the dedication of Aretinus, the first line of which is, ELLEM MALATESTA.

16659 — — epistolæ, interprete Fr. (Accolti) Aretino. In sancto Ursio, J. de Reno, 1475. 4°.

51 leaves with 26 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 3 leaves contain the proemium of the translator.

16660 — — Nobili in urbe Messana, per Henricū Alding (1478). 4°.

16661 — — Ven. (without the printer's name), 6 idus Mart. 1481. 4°.

40 leaves, with the signatures a-e.

16662 — — Ox., Theodericus Rood et Th. Hunte, a natali Christiano ducentesima et nonagesima septima Olympiade (1485). 4°. Gothic letter.

A very scarce edition. 88 leaves with 23 lines in a full page (in most pages only 21), with the signatures a-m. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> (1<sup>a</sup> is blank), begins with, Carmeliani Brixensis Poete ad lectorem Carmen. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Francisci Aretini Oratoris p. The colophon is in leaf 88<sup>a</sup>.

16663 — — Flor., Ant. Venetus, without date (about 1487). 4°.

40 leaves, with the signatures a-eijj. A copy on vellum gl. 17s. Askew.

16664 — — Without place or date.

(Romæ, St. Planck, about 1490). small 4°. Gothic letter.

48 leaves (according to Audiffredi, 38 according to Dibdin, the first and last of which are blank), with 31 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. At the end are the two verses, Qui modo notus erat nulli, and underneath a register of 10 lines.

16665 — — Without place or date. (Romæ, Guldinbeck). small 4°.

53 leaves. The first line of the dedication is, ELLEM MALATES. — Valencia, N. Spindeler Alamannus, 1496. 4°. is also scarce. The edition, Cremonæ, Fr. Ricardus de Luere, 23 Jan. 1505, small 4°. 44 leaves, is distinguished by having the title printed in white on a black ground. Corrected anew by Th. Savius, and with the addition of the letters which were wanting. Lugd. Tornæsius, 1550. 8°.

16666 — epistole di Falaride tradotte dal latino di Fr. Accolti Aretino in volgare da Bm. Fonzio, without place, 1471. 4°.

The first edition of this translation. 64 leaves (1 blank), with 25 lines, and in fine Roman characters. The 1st leaf contains the preface, with the following superscription in small capitals: Proemio di Bartolomeo Fontio a Francesco Barocini nella traduzione de le epistole de Phalaris. — Concerning this translation consult Opuscoli di autori Sicil. X. 282.

16667 — — Fir., Fr. Bonaccorsi et Ant. di Francesco, 17 Maggio, 1488. 4°.

With the signatures a-g, and 27 lines. The duke of Cassano-Serra had a copy on vellum. — Fir. Fr. di Dino di Jacopo, 31 Jul. 1489. 4°. has the same signatures and pagination. Also, without place or date, 4°. Gothic letter, with the signatures a-e, and 35 lines. Fir., Pt. Pacini, 2 Apr. 1506. 4°.

16668 — le bellissime e sentenziose lettere di Falari, di nuovo tradotte nella favella Toscana. Ven., Curzio Trojano de i Navi, 1545. 8°.

The first letters are after the translation of Fonzio, the others deviate considerably from it. Fr. Sansovino appears to have been only the editor. The sheets A and B are of quite a different printing from the last seven.

16669 — l'epistole di Phalaride, trad. dalla lingua greca nella volgare italiana. Ven., Giolito, 1545 or 49. 8°.

The first letters are different from the translation published by Sansovino, but the remaining are one and the same with it. Also in the Lettere del gran Mahumeto. Ven., Giolito, 1563. 8°.

16670 — les epistres de Phalaris Tyrann des Agrigentins mises en françoys par Cl. Gruget. Par., Longis, 1550. 8°.

16671 — epistres de Phalaris (trad. par Cl. Gruget) et d'Isocrates (trad. par L. de Matha): avec le manuel d'Epictète (trad. par Ant. du Moulin). Le tout traduit de grec en françoys. Anvers, Cp. Plantin, 1558. 12°.

16672 — l'utilité du pouvoir monarchique. Contenant l'histoire de Phalaris avec ses lettres sur le gouvernement et les conseils d'Isocrate ou le modèle des ministres. Par M.C. de S. M. Without place, 1726. small 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

16676 PHAVORINUS, Varinus. Magnum ac perutile dictionarium. Quod quidem Varinus Phavorinus Camers Nucrinus episcopus ex multis variisque auctoribus in ordinem alphabeti collegit. (gr.) Romæ, Z. Calliergi, 1523. fol.

The first edition of this work, fine, and very scarce, but very inconvenient for use, as it is not printed in columns but in lines running all across the page. The signatures are A-YYY. Concerning the work itself and its relation to Aldus's Thesaurus cornucopiae et horti Adonidis of 1496, see Bandini Cat. codd. Gr. bibl. Laur. II. 281 sq.

16677 — dictionary magnum illud ac perutile multis variisque ex auctoribus collectum, totius linguae graecae commentarius (curav. Jo. Camerarius). Bas., Rb. Chimerinus (Winter). 1538. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 1900 pages, and 105 unnumbered leaves of indices (the last leaf contains the printer's symbol). This enlarged edition is still indispensable on account of its copious indices.

16678 — magnum dictionary s. thesaurus universae linguae graecae. Nova hac edit. per Ant. Bortoli diligentissime castigatus et copia dictionum auctus. Ven., Bortoli, αψ48 (1712). fol. with 1 portrait.

This tolerably scarce edition contains indeed augmentations, but on the other hand it only contains 8 leaves of index instead of the copious indices of the preceding edition. The first index is excessively abbreviated in this edition, and the second only is given entire.—See also SUIDAS.

PHERUS, see FOIX and ORTUNEZ.

16679 PHERECYDIS fragmenta. E variis scriptoribus collegit, emendav., illustrav., commentationem de Pherecyde utroque, et philosopho et historico, praemisit, denique fragmenta Acusilai et indices adjecit F. Gu. Sturz. Ed. II. Geræ, Haller, 1798. 8°. (18 gr.)

Previously, ib., 1789. 8°. A Matthiae progr. de Pherecydis fragmentis. Altenb. 1814. 4°. 8 pages (also in Wolf's Litt. Analekten, I. 321–331), where a new arrangement of the fragments is attempted, may be considered as a supplement to Sturz's edition.

16680 PHILASTRIUS. Hæreseon catalogus. Cui adjectus est libellus Lanfranci de sacramento eucharistiae adversus Berengarium. Nunc recens editi (a J. Sichardo). Without place or date. (Bas. 1528). 8°.

The first edition. Afterwards edited by J. a Fuchte. Helmst. 1611 or 76. 4°.

16681 — de hæresibus liber, cum emendatt. et notis J. Alb. Fabricii additisque indicibus locupletissimis. Hmb., Felgener, 1721. 8°.

A new recension, but without MSS.—This edition, with the addition of the notes left behind by Fabricius, of various readings from a MS., and of the notes of P. Galeardus, is repeated in Veterum Brixia episcoporum opp. Brix. 1738. fol. p. 1–138. Without notes, but with some corrections of the text in Gallandi bibl. PP. VII. 480–520.

16682 PHILE, Manuel. Του σοφωτατου Φιλη στιχοι λαμβικοι περι ζων ιδιοτητος (gr., edid. Arsenius, archiep. Monembasie). Ven., St. Sabius, 1533. 8°.

Very scarce first edition, which is also important on account of the disappearance of the MS. from which it was printed.

16683 — Phile sapientissimi versus jambici de animalium proprietate, cum auctario Jo. Camerarii (gr. lat.) Exposita nunc prim. eodem metro versuum latinor. a Gr. Bersmanno. Lps., And. Schneider, 1575. 4°. 189 pages and 1 leaf.

A fine impression of the preceding edition, yet with very arbitrary alterations by Camerarius. The dedication copy on large writing paper is in the Royal library at Dresden. The date of printing is sometimes erroneously stated to be 1574.

16684 — sapientissimi Phile versus jambici de animalium proprietate, cum auctario Jo. Camerarii (gr. lat.) Exposita eodem metro versuum latinor. a Gr. Bersmanno. E typographeo Hi. Commelini, 1596. 8°. 159 pages.

A less fine reprint of the preceding edition, with a new preface.

16685 — Phile de animalium proprietate, ex prima editione Arsenii et libro Oxoniensi restitutus a J. Corn de Pauw, cum ejusd. animadvv. et versione lat. Gr. Bersmanni. Acced. ex eod. libro Oxoniensi non pauca hactenus inedita. Traj. ad Rh., Stouw, 1730. 4°. Also on large paper.

Although Pauw made use of an Oxford MS. yet he performed his task very carelessly, and his notes contain only ordinary matters. There is a notice of 4 Paris MSS. of this work, together with the various readings, in the Notices et extraits, T. V. p. 623 sq. T. VII. P. II. p. 419 sq. Various readings from a Florence MS. in Bandini Cat. cod. Gr. bibl. Laur. II. 150 sq.

- 16686 — Manuelis Philæ carmina græca (gr. lat.), maximam partem e codd. Augustanis et Oxonienss. nunc prim. in lucem producta, aliqua etiam iterum publicata, omnia nunc in unum, excepto poemate de animalibus, collecta, emendata, latine interpretata et annotationibus illustrata: acc. ignoti poetæ antiquioris carmen in S. Theodorum ex Augustano cod. nunc prim. editum: præmittitur diss. de Philæ vita, ætate et scriptis, cura Gli. Wernsdorfii. Lps., Breitkopf, 1768. Also on writing paper.

Containing his other poems, with the exception of the poem De animal. propr. Concerning other MSS of these smaller poems, see Allg. litt. Anz. 1801. p. 305-309, and Bandini Cat. cod. Gr. bibl. Laur. II. 147 sq.

PHILELEUTHERUS, see MENANDER.

- 16687 PHILELPHUS, Fr. Ad. Jac. Ant. Marcellum de obitu Valerii filii consolatio. Romæ (without the printer's name), cal. Jan. 1475. 4°.

The first edition, with the signatures a-g, and 34 lines. The edition, Mediol. 1476. 4°. is still scarcer.

- 16688 — fabulæ. Ven., expensis M. C. 1480. 4°. Gothic letter.

24 leaves with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition, scarce, and the only one in the 15th century.

- 16689 — odæ et carmina. (Brix.), Ang. Britannicus, 4 Jul. 1497. 4°.

88 leaves. An edition, Brix., Misinta, 1496. 4°. is a non-entity, and the mistake arose from an incorrect description of the copy which is to be found in the Catal. de Hoym, No. 2130, and Rothelin, No. 2132.

- 16690 — orationes et nonnulla alia opuscula (consolatio ad Jac. Ant. Marcellum, rhetorica Aristotelis et Plutarchi apophthegmata in lat.

conversa, ep. de legibus, ep. consolatoria ad Pt. Justinum, instructione del ben vivere, introductorium Galeni lat. tractatum a G. Valla). Without place or date. (Mediol., Pachel et Scinzenzeler, 1481). 4°.

The first edition, very scarce. 224 leaves with 38 lines, and the signatures A-K and a-q. It begins, without further superscription, with a letter of Philolphus to duke Sforza of 1481, and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, FRANCISCVS PHILELFVS LODOVICO MARIÆ. This edition should indeed be distinguished from another and somewhat later one, which has a separate title-leaf (Orationes Fr. Philelfi cum quibusdam aliis ejusdem operibus), and 40 lines, with the signatures a-s. This latter edition is not only arranged in a different manner, but it also wants the Instructione del ben vivere and Galenii introductio. Brix. Jac. Britannicus, 1488. 4°. has still some value; but the later editions, Venetian, and others, are not sought after.

- 16691 — epistolarum libri XVI. Without place or date (Ven., Vindelini de Spira, about 1472). fol.

The first edition. 246 leaves (the 1st and 184th blank), with 37 lines and catchwords, but without signatures and pagination. The last page only contains 33 lines and the word finis. The following two later undated editions are not sought after; one of 269 leaves, with signatures and the colophon, Francisci Philelfi epistolar. liber decimussextus. Τελος; the other with the title, Epistolare Francisci Philelfi, 274 leaves with 37 lines, and the signatures a-L; and at the end, merely Τελος. One of the best undated editions of the first 16 books is, Brix. Jac. Britannicus, 1485. fol. and the edition, Par. Guile Rouge, 1513. 8°. is not noticed by Panzer.

- 16692 — epistolarum familiarium libri XXXVII. ex ejus exemplari transsumpti. Ex quibus ultimi XXI. novissime reperti fuere et impressoriæ traditi officinæ. Ven., de Gregoriis, 1502. fol.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, and 266 numbered leaves. The best and most complete edition, but not very correct, which is said to have already appeared, equally complete, ib., id., 1500. fol. To the first 16 books (from 1427 to 1461) of the earlier editions, 21 new books are here added (from 1461 to 1473). Gasp. Alemannus was the editor.

16693 — epistolæ, ceteris quæ hactenus prodierunt auctiores et emendatiores, animadversionibus, præfationibus, indicibus vitæ auctoris locupletatæ op. et. stud. N. Stanisl. Meuccii. T. I. Flor., Paperini, 1743. 8°.

It is not much to be lamented, that more of this incorrectly printed edition did not appear. The extremely trivial notes of the editor prove that he was as greatly deficient in literary knowledge as in industry. Thus in the insipid note to p. 199, the admonition to Urbanus Bellunensis is affronting enough. He has omitted the life of Philephus, although promised in the title, because he subsequently learnt for the first time, that accounts of him could be found in Nicéron, Bayle, and Moreri (!) (Preface, p. VIII.) As to the rest, this vol. only contains the first 4 books without any augmentations; nay, even on the contrary, the 31st letter of the 4th book to Albert Zancarius (Non te præterit etc.), is by an oversight entirely omitted.—Concerning the different editions of the letters, see Denis Wiener Buchdruckergesch. p. 214.

16694 — epistole vulgari e latine. Mil., Gi. di Castiglione, 1510. 4°.

16695 — satyrarum hecatonstichon (decades X). Mediol., Cp. Valdarpher, id. Nov. 1476. fol.

The first edition, and greatly sought after, although not very scarce. 149 leaves with 35 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

16696 — satyrarum decades X. Ven., Bernardin. Vercellensis jussu And. Torresani de Asula, 26 Jul. 1502. 4°.

16697 — satyræ centum distinctæ decem decadibus, catholicis passim refertæ sententiis: præmissa authoris vita ab Æg. Perrino, marginariisque annotatt. ab eodem superadditis. Par., Rb. et J. Gourmont, 18 cal. Oct. 1508. 4°.

The life of Philephus, mentioned in the title, is not to be found in the copies, and was either not printed at all, or was afterwards suppressed; at least the book commences with the signature b.

16698 — Mediolanense convivium I. et II. Without place or date (Mediol., about 1478). 4°.

Very scarce. 95 leaves with 28 lines, and the signatures a-m. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, VOL. III.

16699 — vita di S. Giov. Batista (in terza rima). Mediol., Ph. Mantegatius, 8 Mart. 1494. 4°.

Very scarce.

16700 PHILELPHUS, J. Marius. Epistolarium s. de arte conficiendi epistolas opus. Without place or date. 4°.

With the signatures a-s and A-G and 28 lines. At the beginning is a letter of the editor, L. Mondellus (dated Par., cal. Maji, 1481), and an answer of Oct. Ubalinus, which is dated from Urbino 3 non. Jul. 1481, from which many bibliographers have made out an edition at Urbino, which probably does not exist. As the editor Mondellus's letter is dated from Paris, and as the types are those of U. Gering, there can be no doubt that the edition appeared at Paris. The first edition is, Mediol. Pachel et Scinsenseler, 3 cal. Maj. 1484. 4°. Of the later editions, which are not sought after, the following is deserving of notice, Felsina magnæ (Bonon.), de Bacileris, 1489. 4°.

16701 PHILEMON, Λεξικον τεχνολογικον (gr.) Ex biblioth. Parisiensi (edid. C. Burney). Lond., Payne, 1812. 8°.

Little prized.

16740 PHILOSTRATI de vita Apollonii Tyanei libri octo (gr.). Idem libri latini interprete Alemano Rinuccino Florentino. Eusebius contra Hieroclem (gr.). Idem latinus interprete Zenobio Acciolo. Ven., Aldus, 1501-2. fol.

A scarce edition, but not much sought after. The Greek part contains besides the title 64 leaves and 1 blank leaf, and has at the end the date Mense Martio 1501. The Latin part has 4 leaves of preliminary matter (with Aldus's preface of 1504), 73 numbered leaves (on the last of which is the date, mense Febr. 1502), and 1 leaf with the anchor. Aldus says even in the preface, that he had been greatly deceived in the expectations he had entertained respecting the book, and he might from vexation in consequence thereof have prosecuted the printing, already commenced in 1501, so slowly, as not to have completed it, as the preface shews, before 1504. There are no copies of this edition on large paper (Renouard Catal. III. 278), although particularly fine copies may sometimes have been mistaken for such, as for instance, in M'Carthy's catalogue. As to the rest, this is the first of Aldus's typographical productions, in which the anchor appears. The Icones and Heroica first appeared with Aldus's Lucian of 1503, and, corrected, with his Lucian of 1522.

16741 — Philostrati icones. Philostrati junioris icones. Ejusdem heroica. Descriptiones Callistrati. Ejusdem de vita sophistarum (gr.). Flor., Ph. Junta, m. Oct. 1517. fol.

54 leaves with the signatures a-g. M'Carthy's catalogue erroneously announces a large paper copy of this edition also. Sometimes subjoined to the Lucian of 1496, see above, LUCIANUS, No. 12372.

16742 — imagines Philostrati. Ejusdem heroica. Ejusdem vitæ sophistarum. Imagines junioris Philostrati. Descriptiones Callistrati (gr.). Ven., Luc. Ant. Junta, m. Jun. 1535. 8°.

368 pages, and 6 leaves of table of contents. This edition may be considered as the 3rd vol. of the Giuntine Lucian, which appeared in this year.—About the same time there appeared an edition with the same title, Ven. without date. 8°. with a dog or wolf as the printer's symbol. It differs from the Giuntine, is very scarce, and is to be found in the Leipsic university library.

16743 — Philostrati Lemnii opera quæ exstant. Philostrati junioris imagines et Callistrati ecphrases. Item Eusebii liber contra Hiero-clem. Græca latinis e regione posita, Fed. Morellus cum MSS. contulit, recensuit et hactenus nondum latinitate donata vertit. Par., Cl. Morellus (other copies Orry), 1608. fol. Also on large paper.

14 leaves of preliminary matter, 914 pages, and 11 leaves of index. The Dresden copy, with Orry's name, is on small strong paper. The Aldine text forms the basis, which Morell corrected from MSS. The edition is now at a very low price.

16744<sup>a</sup> — Philostratorum quæ supersunt omnia. Vita Apollonii, vitæ sophistarum, heroica, imagines priores atque posteriores et epistolæ. Accessere Apollonii Tyanensis epistolæ, Eusebii liber adversus Hieroclem, Callistrati descriptt. statuarum (gr. lat.). Omnia ex MSS. codd. recensuit, notis perpetuis illustravit, versionem totam fere novam fecit Gf. Olearius. Lps., Th. Fritsch, 1709. fol.

There are also copies on fine paper, and on large strong paper, which last are tolerably scarce. A new recension, but very insufficient. Olearius's own part is of little value; the best portion he has stolen from Reinesius, whose copy of the preceding edition, enriched with much additional matter, he made use of, without mentioning him any where. Consult Ch. Gf. Mülleri Progr. de corpore inscriptionum Gruteriano notis et obs. Reinesii ornato. Lps. 1793. 4°. p. 1 sq. Reinesii Obs. in Suidam ed. Müller præf. p. XX.

16744<sup>b</sup> — heroica gr. lat. Ad fidem codd. MSS. IX. recensuit, scholia græca adnotationesque suas addidit J. Fr. Boissonade. Par., Delance, 1806. 8°. (14 fr., on vellum paper 24 fr.)

A new recension with annotations chiefly critical. The Latin translation is that of St. Nigri.

16745 — epistolæ quædam (XIII.), partim nunquam, partim auctiores editæ (gr.). J. Meursius primus vulgavit et adjunxit de Philostratis dissertatiunculam. LB., L. Elzevir, 1616. 4°. 24 pages.

Also in Meursii Opp. T. VII. p. 805 sq., where they are increased from Florentine MSS. to 74. 63 had already been printed in the Epp. Græc. Ven. 1499. 4°.

16746 — Philostratus de vita Apollonii Tyanei scriptor luculentus a Ph. Beroaldo castigatus. Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 1501. fol.

2 and 93 leaves. The first edition, already revised by Beroaldus, of this translation of Alemannus Rinuccinus, finished in 1472, but often barbarous and unfaithful. Also, Ven., Bn. Venetus de Vitalibus, m. Jan. 1502. fol. The Bolognese edition of 1505, mentioned in Panzer, IX. 413, is a nonentity, and Engel's copy, there mentioned (now at Dresden), is of the year 1501.

16747 — Phylostratus de vita Apollonii Tyanei scriptor luculentus a Ph. Beroaldo castigatus. Without place or date (Lugd. about 1504). 8°.

108 numbered leaves with the signatures a—C. This scarce, but very incorrect edition, is from the press which produced so many reprints of the Aldines. Also, Par. 1555. 12°.

16748<sup>b</sup> — heroica (lat.), St. Nigro interprete. Ejusd. St. Nigri dialogus, in quem quicquid apud Pausaniam scitu dignum legitur, quam diligentissime congegit. Mediol., ex off. Minutiana, 1517. fol.

Very scarce. The dedication-copy to Grolier, on very large paper, 49 fr. M<sup>c</sup>Carthy. There is also an edition of both works, without place or date. fol. consult Opuscoli di autori Sicil. XX. 336. Crevenna Catal. IV. 230.

16749 — St. NIGRI monimenta, nempe translationes: Iconum Philostrati: aureor. carminum Pythagoræ: Athenæi collectaneorum: orationes de optimo principe Musonii: de regiis muneribus Isocratis orationes. Bas., H. Petrus, 1532. 4°.

16750 — Flavii Philostrati de vitis sophistar. libri duo (lat.) Ant. Bomfino (sic) interprete. (Arg.), ex æd. Schurerianis, 1516. 4°.

4 and 56 leaves. N. Gerbelius, the editor, has corrected this not particularly good translation from the Greek original.

16751 — Filostrato della vita del mirabile Apollonio Tyaneo trad. in lingua Fiorentina per Gi. Bn. Gualandi. Ven., Comin da Trino, 1549. 8°.

16752 — Filostrato della vita di Apollonio Tianeus trad. per Fr. Baldelli, con una confutatione overo apologia di Eusebio contra Hierocle, trad. per il medesimo. Fir., Lr. Torrentino, 1549. 8°.

723 pages, and 10 leaves. This translation, which is prized in Italy, is not from the Greek, but from the Latin translation of Rinuccinus.

16753 — la vita del gran philosopho Apollonio Tianeus, composta da Philostrato et trad. nella lingua volgare da L. Dolce. Ven., Giolito, 1549 (at the end 1550). 8°. 247 leaves.

This translation also is only after the Latin.

16754 — les images ou tableaux de platte peinture de Philostrate mis en franç. par Blaise de Vigenere. Par., Chesneau, 1578. 4°. 2 voll. Suite de Philostrate par Blaise de Vigenere. Par., l'Angelier, 1597. 4°.

16755 — les images ou tableaux de platte peinture des deux Philostrates, et des statues de Callistrate, mis en franç. par Blaise de Vigenere. Avec des epigrammes sur chacun d'iceux par Artus Th. Sieur d'Embry. Par., Cramoisy, 1609. fol. ib., l'Angelier, 1614 or 15. fol. ib., Guillemot, 1629. fol. ib., Cramoisy, 1637. fol. with plates.

At a very low price. There are copies of the editions of 1614 and 29 on large paper.

16800 PICUS Mirandula, J. Commentationes J. Pici Mirandulæ in hoc volumine contentæ: quibus anteponitur vita per J. Franciscum illustris principis Galeotti Pici filium conscripta. Heptaplus de opere sex dierum geneseos. Apologia tredecim quæstionum. Tractatus de ente et uno cum objectionibus quibusdam et responsionibus. Oratio quædam elegantissima. Epistolæ plures. Deprecatoria ad deum elegiaco carmine. Testimonia ejus vitæ et doctrinæ. Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 20 Mart. 1496. fol.—Disputationes J. Pici Mirandulæ adversus astrologiam divinatricem, quibus penitus subnervata corrui. ib., id., 16 Jul. 1495. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The first edition of his works, and complete copies are scarce. The first part contains 12 leaves of preliminary matter with the signature a, and 166 leaves (the last blank) with 40 lines, and the signatures A-E, AA-YY, and then after the colophon 58 leaves more (apol. tredescim quæst.) with the signatures aa-kk.—The 2nd part contains 142 leaves with the signatures aa, a-m, and A-L. The last leaf (after the colophon) contains errata and a Privilegium of 1496.

There is an édition contrefaite of this edition with the date, Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 20 Mart. 1496. fol. (consult Crévénna's second catalogue, No. 5392), which may thus be distinguished; part I. leaf 1<sup>b</sup>, the letter of J. Fr. Picus contains 39 lines (in the original edition 38) and it is printed in the same type with the text (in the original edition it is in a smaller character). Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Joannis Pici Mirandulæ vita (in the original edition, Joannis Pici Mirandulæ viri omni disciplinarum). The colophon begins in the 6th line of the folio recto of the last leaf, and underneath is the register; the printer's symbol is wanting, and the reverse is entirely blank (in the original edition the colophon is quite at the end of the folio recto of the last leaf, and the register and the printer's symbol are on the reverse). Part II. leaf 2, line 1 ends in the reprint with Sabinensi (in the original edition with episcopo), the 3rd line with pere (in the original edition with pegri), and the last line plissime (in the original edition with Vale). The folio recto of the last leaf has 39 lines, then a colophon, without a date, of 3 lines, and the reverse is blank (in the original edition 28 lines precede the colophon, dated the 16th of July, and on the reverse are the register and the printer's symbol).

The following reprints are not sought after: Ven., Bernardin. Venetus, 1498. fol. Arg., J. Prüss, 1504. fol. Regii, L. de Maxalis, 1506. fol. Par., J. Petit, 1517. fol. Ven., Gu. de Fontaneto, 1519. fol. The edition, Bas., H. Petri, 1557. fol. superintended by J. Herold, is enlarged with Picus's Italian writings, and Reuchlin De arte cabbalist.

16801 — opera omnia J. Pici, item J. Fr. Pici opera omnia, nunc primum summa fide et accuratione postliminio restituta ac in corpus unum redacta. Acced. indices II. Bas., Henricpetri, 1572-73. fol. 2 voll.

This and the following edition are the best. It contains the same as that of 1557 (also Reuchlin), and is enlarged with

J. Pici Expositio in orat. domin., and with J. Fr. Picus's works.

16802 — (the same title). Bas., Sb. Henricpetri, 1601. fol. 2 voll.

This edition is somewhat differently arranged. Reuchlin is omitted, but instead thereof the works of J. Fr. Picus are enlarged with the Oratio de reformandis moribus.

16803 — elegia deprecatoria ad Deum, M. Ant. Mureti elegiacum votum ad SS. crucem, cum Fed. Morelli græca paraphrasi metrica etc. Par., Morellus, 1620. 4°.

A copy of this small piece on vellum occurs in the Biblioth. Harleiana, T. I. No. 3585.

16804 — heptaplus de septiforma sex dierum geneseos enarratione. Without place or date (Flor. about 1490). fol.

In Roman characters with the signatures a-g and 29 lines, without catchwords and pagination. A letter with the superscription, Robertus Salviatus Laurentio Medici Sal. forms the commencement in leaf 1<sup>b</sup>.

16805 PICUS Mirandula, J. F. De morte Christi et propria cogitanda libri III. Ejusd. de studio divinæ et humanæ philosophiæ libri II. Bon., Bd. Hector, 1497. 4°.

A copy on vellum, 25 fr. Gaignat, 103 fr. M'Carthy.

16806 — liber de imaginatione. Ven., Aldus, 1501. 4°.

40 leaves, the last blank. One of the rarest of the Aldines. The first 4 leaves (the title, a preface of Aldus to Albertus Pius, and a second of the author's to the emperor Maximilian) are not specified in the register, and might be wanting without its being noticed. The remaining editions are of no value. In French (by J. Ant. de Baif), Par. 1557. 8°.

16807 — examen vanitatis doctrinæ gentium et veritatis christianæ disciplinæ, distinctum in libros sex. Mirandulæ, J. Maciochius Bundenius, 1520. fol.

The only production of the press erected at Mirandola by this prince.—For the collection of his works (at first, Arg., J. Knobloch, 1507. fol.), see No. 16801 and 2.

16808 PIEDAD, Fr. de la. Teatro

Jesuitico, apologetico discurso con saludables y seguras dotrinas, necessarias a los principes y señores de la tierra. Cuimbra, Guillermo Cendrat, 1654. 4°.

This work and the Lettres Provinciales are the severest satires upon the Jesuits; it is of very great rarity, yet now much fallen in price (Préfond and Gaignat 800 fr., and only 61 fr. M'Carthy). The book begins with 4 leaves of preliminary matter, the 1st part extends from p. 1 to 176, and the 2nd from 177 to 424. In Dutch under the title, Tonneel der Jesuiten. Amst. 1683. 8°. As it was ascribed to the Dominican Ildelfonso de S. Thomas, he in consequence published Catholica querimonia. Matriti, 1686. 12°. (an original edition of 154 pages, and a German reprint of the same date in 12°. of 143 pages, and another of 115 pages in 12°. Malacæ, Mth. Hidalgo, 1686. 8°. and without place or date. 4°. are also mentioned). To this latter piece relates, Lettre de M. Arnauld à l'évêque de Malaga au sujet de sa plainte catholique. Without place, 1689. 8°.

- 16846 PINCIANO, Alonzo Lopez. Philosophia antiqua poetica. Madr. 1596. 4°.

This philosophy of poetry in the sense of the ancients, is the first work of its kind in modern literature. Pinciano was the first modern æsthetical writer who undertook to restore philosophical poetics with acuteness and learning. Bouterwek Gesch. der Poesie, III. 324.

- 16847 PINDAR, Pt. Works, to which are prefixed memoirs of the author's life. Lond. 1812. 8°. 5 vols. (31.)

Previously, Lond. 1796. 8°. 4 vols. Satirical works. Lond., Walker, 1816. 12°. 4 vols. (11. 18.) is neat. It is known that the author's real name was J. Wollcott.

- 16848 PINDARI Olympia. Pythia. Nemea. Isthmia. Callimachi hymni qui inveniuntur. Dionysius de situ orbis. Licophronis (sic) Alexandra, obscurum poema (gr.). Ven., Aldus et And. Asul., m. Jan. 1513. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 373 pages. The first edition, fine and greatly sought after, yet not very scarce; it is also at the same time the editio princeps of Dionysius and Lycophron. The pagination on the reverse of each leaf is in all cases immediately over the inner margin. Aldus printed the Olympia from a more modern MS., the readings of which are mostly altered according to the common dialect; he made use of a much better and older MS. in the Pythia and Nemea, and likewise an old but very corrupt MS. in the Isthmia. He intended to have given the scholia in a separate volume, which however did not appear. Lord Spencer possesses a copy on vellum, which Rewiczky bought at Soubise's sale for 901 fr.

240 unnumbered leaves with the signatures a-ξ and A-P, of which the 66th (or 16) and 168th (or 10) are blank. An edition equally sought, but not very scarce, and also the first edition of the scholia. Calliergus had better MSS. than Aldus (the Pythia excepted, where his MSS. are bad), and he also successfully made use of the scholia for the correction of the text. His text forms the basis of all the subsequent editions.

- 16850 — Olympia, Pythia, Nemea,

- Isthmia (gr.) Bas., And. Cratander, 1526. 8°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter (the 6th blank), 312 pages, and 4 leaves. Superintended by J. Ceporinus after the Roman edition, comparing it with the Aldine, and very correct and scarce. U. Zwinglius published it after his death with a preface and postscript. Repeated, Bas., heredes And. Cratandri, 1526. 8°.

- 16851 — Ὀλυμπια και Πυθια (gr.) Par., Ch. Wechel, 1535. 8°.

- 16852 — Πινδαρου Ὀλυμπια. Πυθια. Νεμεα. Ἴσθμια. Μετὰ ἐξηγησεως παλαιας πανυ ὠφελιμου και σχολιων ὁμοιων. Pindari Olympia. Pythia. Nemea. Isthmia (gr.). Ff., Pt. Brubacchius, 1542. 4°. (properly large 8°.)

370 numbered leaves, and 7 leaves of index. An impression of the Roman text with addition of some of the Aldine various readings, and sometimes with the alterations of an unknown scholar.

- 16853 — Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia (gr.) Par., Gu. Morellius, 1558. 4°.

A fine edition, and superintended after the Frankfort edition, by some very learned man (probably G. Morell himself). No use was made of the Basle edition.

- 16854 — Pindari Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia. Cæterorum octo lyricorum carmina, Alcæi, Sapphus, Stesichori, Ibyci, Anacreontis, Bacchylidis, Simonidis, Alemanis. Nonnulla etiam aliorum. Omnia gr. et lat. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1560. 24°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The 2nd part has also the separate title, Carminum poetarum novem lyricæ poeseos principum fragmenta, and is sometimes met with by itself. Of this 2nd part the Court library at Carlsruhe possesses a copy on vellum. In the Pindar Morell's edition forms the basis with corrections of the text from the scholia and Cratander's edition, and with its own Latin translation by Stephens.

- 16855 — Pindari . . . etiam aliorum (as in the preceding). Editio II. græco-latina H. Stephani, recognitione quorundam interpretationis locorum et accessione lyricor. carminum locupletata. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1566. 24°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The text is frequently, often too boldly, altered, the translation is corrected, and several other things are added. The 2nd part here also has a separate title. The first and better edition has been unjustly neglected in all the subsequent reprints since 1586, by entirely following this 2nd edition. As to the rest, collectors only seek after Stephens's first and second editions.

- 16856 — Pindari . . . aliorum (as in the preceding). Omnia græce et lat. Pindari interpretatio nova est, eaque ad verbum: cæteri partim ad verbum, partim carmine sunt rediti. Antw., Cp. Plantinus, 1576. 16°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A scarce, fine, and very correct edition, and a reprint of Stephens's first edition of 1560.

- 16857 — Pindari . . . aliorum (as in No. 16855). Editio III. græco-lat. H. Stephani etc. Apud H. Steph. 1586. 24°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

The 2nd part has a separate title. A literal reprint of Stephens's 2nd edition, but augmented with some notes of Is. Casaubon, which are omitted again in the later reprints.

- 16858 — Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia (gr.) LB., Fr. Raphelengius, 1590. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 246 pages. The text of Stephens's 1st edition of 1560.

- 16859 — Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia. Gr. et lat. Latinam interpretationem Æmil. Portus novissime recognovit, accurate repurgavit et passim illustravit. Apud Hi. Commelinum, 1598. 8°. 16 and 176 pages. — Λυρικοί. Carminum poetar. novem, lyricæ poeseos principum, fragmenta. Alcæi, Sapphus, Stesichori, Ibyci, Anacreontis, Bacchylidis, Simonidis, Alcmanis, Pindari. Nonnulla etiam aliorum (gr. lat.) Cum latina interpretatione partim soluta oratione, partim carmine. Apud Hi. Commelinum, 1598. 8°. 191 pages. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A reprint of Stephen's 1st edition. Portus corrected the Latin translation, and added not very important notes.

- 16860 — Ὀλυμπία, Πύθια, Νεμέα, Ἴσθμία. Μετὰ ἐξηγησεως παλαιας πανυψηλίου, καὶ σχολίων ὁμοίων. Pindari Ol. P. Nem. Isth. Adjuncta est interpretatio lat. ad verbum. Cum indd. necessariis. (Genev.), oliva P. Stephani, 1599. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 487 pages, and 2 leaves of index. The Frankfurt edition of 1542 forms the basis, the text of which is altered after Stephens's 2nd edition of 1566. A correctly printed and useful small edition, without possessing any thing peculiar. A copy on large paper is mentioned in Solger's Catalogue, II. 352.

- 16861 — Pindari . . . aliorum (as in No. 16855). Editio IV. græco-lat. Excud. P. Stephanus, 1600. 24°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Only a reprint of Stephens's 2nd edition of 1566.

- 16862 — Pindari . . . aliorum (as in the preceding). Ed. V. græco-lat. Oliva P. Stephani, 1612. 24°.

The 2nd part has only a half title. A smaller reprint of the preceding, as are also Ebroduni, 1624. 24°. and Oliva P. Stephani, 1624. 24°.

- 16863 — Πινδαρου περιόδος, h. e. Pindari, plusquam sexcentis in locis emaculati, Ὀλυμπιονικαί, Πυθιονικαί, Νεμεονικαί, Ἴσθμιονικαί, illustrati versione nova fideli, rationis metricæ indicatione certa, dispositione textus genuina, commentario sufficiente. Cum fragmentis aliquot diligenter collectis, indice locuplete, discursu duplici. Opera Erasmi Schmidii. (Witt.), Z. Schurer, 1616. 4°.

3 leaves of preliminary matter, 23 pages, preface and errata, 331 pages (Olympia and Pythia), 4 leaves and 395 pages (Nemea), 4 leaves and 267 pages (Isthmia etc.). According to Dibdin (Introduction to the classics, II. 127.), there are copies on large paper. The text of the Basle edition of 1526 forms the basis, altered from 3 MSS. and ancient editions, but principally (often too hastily) on metrical grounds. Schmidius has decided merit as to the criticism and interpretation of Pindar. The following was a precursor of this edition, Pindari plusquam sexcentis in locis emendati ab Erasmo Schmid edendi specimen. Witt., Seuberlich, 1611. 4°.

- 16864 — Πινδαρου περιόδος. Pindari Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia (gr. lat.) J. Benedictus ad metrationem, varior. exemplarium fidem, scholiastæ ad verisimiles conjecturas directionem, totum authorem innumeris mendis repurgavit. Metaphrasi recognita, latina paraphrasi addita etc. arduum ejusdem sensum explanavit. Editio purissima cum ind. locupletissimo. Salmurii, Pt. Pieded, 1620. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 756 pages, 1 leaf, errata, and 27 leaves, index. Longman offered a copy for sale in his catalogue of 1816 for 3 guineas. Only a reprint of Schmid's edition in the text, but the translation is corrected, a Latin paraphrase is added, and the commentary contains very much that is good and peculiar to it, together with much idle matter.

16865 — Olympia, Nemea, Pythia, Isthmia (gr. lat.) Una cum lat. omnium versione carmine lyrico per N. Sudorium. Ox., th. Sheld., 1697. fol.

1 portrait, 17 leaves of preliminary matter (of which one sheet has the signatures g-n together), 497 pages, Greek text, 42 leaves, index, 4 leaves and 77 pages, Latin translation, and 1 leaf errata. Copies on large paper are very scarce and dear. The editors, Rd. West and Rb. Welsted, made Schmid's text the basis, which they altered occasionally, without success in most instances. The translation is Schmid's, with Benedict's paraphrase, and Sudorius's Latin translation. Various readings from 5 Bodleian MSS. are added, which are of very little value, the earlier editions are scarcely made any use of, the index is incomplete and inaccurate, what is good in the notes is merely copied from Schmid, and the real intrinsic value of the edition is very little: yet is it greatly sought after by collectors.

16866 — omnia Pindari quæ extant (gr.) cum interpr. lat. Glasg., Rb. Foulis, 1744. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

A neat and correct impression of the text of the preceding. At the end there ought to be found X pages, Argumenta, and 1 leaf, Foulis's sale catalogue.

16867 — Ὀλυμπία, Πύθια, Νεμέα, Ἰσθμία (gr.) Ex ed. Oxoniensi. Glasg., Rb. et And. Foulis, 1754-58. 32°. 4 voll.

There are copies on vellum. Renouard possesses a copy of the Olympia on white satin (previously 48 fr. Camus de Limare, 33 fr. M'Carthy).

16868 — opera, gr. et lat. (edid. Gu. VOL. III.

Bowyer). Lond., Bowyer, 1755. 12°.

Correct. This and the preceding edition likewise contain the text of the Oxford edition.

16869 — opera, gr. et lat. Ven. 1762. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

16870 — Pindari quæ extant (gr.) cum interpr. lat. Glasg., Rb. et And. Foulis, 1770. 8°. 2 voll.

Neat, but incorrect. A repetition of the edition of 1744.

16871 — carmina (gr.), cum lectionis varietate curav. Ch. Glo. Heyne. Gött., Dieterich, 1773. small 4°. Carmina ex interpr. lat. emendatior (per J. Bj. Koppe) curav. Ch. Glo. Heyne. ib., id., 1774. small 4°. Additamenta ad lectionis varietatem in Pindari carminum edit. Gött. 1773 notatam. ib., id., 1791. small 4°.

A new, but somewhat cursory revision of the text. There are also copies on writing paper, and on Dutch paper. The latter are very fine and very scarce. It would be well to add the following number to this.

16872 — carminum Pindaricorum fragmenta. Curav. J. Glo. Schneider. Arg., Stein, 1776. 4°. Also on Dutch paper.

Afterwards enlarged and introduced into the 3rd vol. of Heyne's newer edition.

16873 — carmina selecta, cum scholiis selectis suisque notis edid. F. Gedike. Berol., Unger, 1786. 8°. (16 gr.)

16874 — carmina et fragmenta, gr. Cum scholiis integris emendatius edidit, varietatem lectionis, annotationem criticam et indices adjecit Ch. Dn. Beckius. Lps., Beer, 1792-95 (new title, Lps., Hinrichs, 1811). 8°. 2 voll. (3 d.)

A new revision of the text, and particularly of the scholia, with use of the older editions, by far more accurate and more to be depended upon than in Heyne. It is a pity that this excellently designed edition remains unfinished and contains only the Olympia (with scholia and critical annotations), and merely the text and the scholia of the Pythia and Nemea.

16875 — carmina, gr. Upsal. 1796. 12°. Without scholia. Beck's text.

16876 — carmina (gr.), scholis habendis iterum expressa curante Ch. Glo. Heyne. Gött., Dieterich, 1797 or 1813. 8°. (16 gr.)

16877 — carmina (et fragmenta, gr.) Cum lectionis varietate et adnotatt. iterum curav. Ch. Glo. Heyne. Gött., Dieterich, 1798. 8°. 3 voll. (7 d. 19 gr.) Also on writing paper.

A new revision of the earlier edition, with the addition of the scholia, a commentary of the editor's own, and a good index. Ed. nova correctæ et ex schedis Heynianis aucta. Lps., Vogel, 1817. 8°. 3 voll. (12 d., on writing paper 13 d., on vellum paper 20 d.)

16878 — carmina et fragmenta, gr. lat., cum lectionis varietate et annotatt. a Ch. Glo. Heyne. Acc. indd. copiosissimi. Ox., Bliss, 1807-9. 8°. 3 parts in 2 vols. Also on large paper.

A fine and correct reprint of Heyne's edition of 1798.

16879 — carmina, gr. Ex edit. Ch. Glo. Heyne. Ox., Bliss, 1808. 32°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Very neat.

16880 — Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia (gr.) Latinis translata carminibus et illustrata a J. Costa. Patav., typis seminarii, 1808. large 4°. 3 parts in 1 vol. (7 d.)

16881 — carmina, gr. Lps., Tauchnitz, 1810. 12°. (16 gr.) — Ed. stereot. ib., id., 1819. 12°. (12 gr.)

16882 — opera quæ supersunt. Textum in genuina metra restituit et ex fide libror. MSS. doctorumque conjecturis recensuit, annotationem criticam, scholia integra, interpretationem lat., commentarium perpetuum et indd. adjec. A. Boeckhius. T. I. Pars 1. 2. Lps., Weigel, 1811 et 14. T. II. Pars 1. 2. ib., id., 1819 et 22. large 4°. 3 vols. (26 d. 8 gr., on vellum paper 36 d.)

16883 — carmina juxta exemplar

The Lexicon Pindar. is also sold separately for 12s.

16884 — carmina, cum vers. et notis edid. Ch. Glo. Heyne. Ox., Bliss, 1815. 8°. (12s.)

16885 — carmina gr., cum lectionis varietate et notis recensuit Ch. W. Ahlwardt. Editio minor. Lps., Hahn, 1820. 8°. (18 gr.)

The larger edition has not yet appeared.

16826 — Werke. Urschrift, Uebersetzung in den Pindar. Versmaassen u. Erläuterungen von F. Thiersch. Lpz., Fleischer, 1820. large 8°. 2 vols.

16887 — Olympicor. hymnus I. et II. latinitate donati, Menrado Molthero interprete simul et paraphraste. Hagan., H. Gran, 1527. 8°.—Opera lat., J. Lonicero interprete. Bas., And. Cratander, 1528. 8°. Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia, per J. Lonicerum latinitate donata, adhibitis. enarrationibus e græcis scholiis et doctissimis utriusque linguæ auctoribus desumptis. Bas., And. Cratander, 1535. 4°. Also, Tiguri, 1543 or 60. 8°.—Olympia, Pythia, Nemea, Isthmia, per Ph. Melanthonem conversa in lat. serm. (ed. Csp. Peucer). Viteb., J. Crato, 1563. 8°. 16889 — obras di Pindaro, traducidas del griego en verso castellano por

Josef y Bernabé Canga Arguelles. Madr., Sancha, 1798. 4°. (9 rs.)

16890 — odi di Pindaro, cioè, Olimpie, Pithie, Nemeë et Istmie. Trad. da Alessandro Adimari e dichiarate dal medesimo. Con osservazioni e confronti di alcuni luoghi imitati o tocchi da Orazio. Con tavole copiosissime. Pisa, Tanagli, 1631 (at the end 1632). large 4°.

This translation or rather paraphrase is still prized in Italy.

16891 — Ὀλυμπιονικαί. I vincitori Olimpici, trad. in italiane canzoni ed illustrati con apostille da Gi. Bt. Gautier (col testo gr.) Roma, Komarek, 1762. 8°. Πυθιονικαί. The translation is not without poetical merit, but is very unfaithful, and only made after the Latin translation and Adimari.—Odi scielte di Pindaro da Gius. Mazari. Sassari, 1776. . ., is also mentioned.

16892 — odi, trad. ed illustrate da Ant. Mezzanotte, col testo greco. Pisa, Capurro, 1819–20. 8°. 4 voll.

This newest translation has met with no approbation in France.

16900 (PINDARUS Thebanus). Homerus de bello Trojano. Without place or date. 4°.

24 leaves, with the signatures a-c, and 23 (sometimes 22) lines. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, HOMERVS DE BELIO TROIANO. The last or 23rd line of leaf 24<sup>b</sup> is, Græcō hōerō erat sꝫ pīdārō iste latīus. FINIS. This edition, the oldest yet known (since the pretended Florence editio princeps, has not yet been found), appears to have been printed at Venice about 1475.

Whoever it was that erroneously prefixed to this poem Pindar's name, which is wanting in several MSS. (Bandini Cat. cod. lat. bibl. Laur. II. 263 and 850. III. 770), it is to be found in a MS. of the 14th century (Bandini, l. c. III. 745), which at the same time, as well as a Vatican MS. and other MSS. (Dibdin Bibl. Spencer. III. 460. van Kooten's edition, preface, p. XII.), and this our oldest edition, contains some final verses, evidently added in a later hand (Pindarus hunc secum trans Pontum venit Homerum etc.), which are wanting in other MSS. and editions. Wernsdorf (Poet. lat. min. III. 260 sq.) at first considered Pentadius to be the real author (so also did Ruhnken, see van Kooten's edition, preface, p. XI.), but afterwards he abandoned this opinion, and sought to prove that the poem was written by Festus Rufus Avienus (l. c. T. IV. p. II. p. 551 sq.). In the mean time both notions are as uncertain as is the real age of the poem.

16901 — Homerus de bello Trojano, traductio hexametris versibus Pindari. Parmæ, Ang. Ugoletus, cal. Jun. 1492. 4°.

22 leaves, with the signatures a-c, and 26 lines. This edition has not yet been made use of.

16902 — Homerus de bello Trojano. Traductio hexametris versibus Pindari. Par., Denidel et Gourmont, 15 cal. Mart. 1498. 4°.

Merely a reprint of the preceding edition.

16903 — Homeri: grecorum poetarum clarissimi yliadum opus per pindarum thebanū: e greco in latinum traductum. Without place or date (Lps., Mt. Herbipol., about 1500). 4°. Gothic letter, 34 leaves.

There are two different impressions of this undated edition of the same number of leaves and lines, which are distinguishable by some abbreviations and typographical errors.

16904 — — (the same title). Lps., Jac. Thanner, 1504. 4°. Gothic letter, 34 leaves.

There is also the same title to Liptsk, Mt. Herbipol. 1507 or 9. 4°. Lps., Wfg. Monacensis, 1512. 4°. Lps., Val. Schumann, 1515 or 18°. 4°. Probably all are merely reprints of one another.

16905 — Pyndari bellum Trojanum ex Homero. Maphæi Veggii Astyanax. Epigrammata quædam. Ex urbe Fanestri (Hi. Soncinus), 1505. 8°.

A very scarce edition, superintended by Lr. Absternius.

16906 — Pindari bellum Trojanum, ex Homeri longo opere decerptum et castigatissime impressum. Viennæ Austr., Hi. Vietor et J. Singrenius, 1513. 4°. 20 leaves.

Jo. Vadiani decasticon ad lectorem is prefixed.

16907 — Pyndarus de bello Trojano. Astyanax Maphæi Laudensis. Epigrammata Maphæi Laudensis. Epigrammata quædam diversor. auctorum (cum præf. Fr. Polyardi). Fani, Hi. Soncinus, 1515. 8°.

This likewise very scarce repetition of the edition of 1505 contains notes to the Pseudo-Pindar, which are in no other, and as yet do not appear to have been made use of by any editor. The elegies of Maximianus (commonly Corn. Gallus) are also appended.—Pindar is also in the collections, No. 5769 and 5791 above (under DARES); together with Homerus ed. Spondani, Bas. 1583, or 1606, or 86. fol. and in the Collectio Pisaurensis omnium poematum. T. IV. Pisauri, 1766. 4°. p. 216 sq.—A new recension from 4 MSS. and old editions in Wernsdorffii poet. lat. min. T. IV. P. II. p. 544–752.

16908 — incerti auctoris vulgo Pindari Thebani epitome Iliados Homericæ. E rec. et cum notis Thdr. van Kooten. Edid., præfatus est suasque animadvv. adjecit H. Weytingh. Amst., Hesse, 1809. 8°. (3 fl. 12 stüb.)

16921 PINELLI, Maph. Bibliotheca Maphæi Pinellii, a Jac. Morellio descripta et annotationibus illustrata. Ven., C. Palesius, 1787. 8°. 6 voll.

This catalogue is on the whole more interesting on account of the great treasures of a library consisting of 11,861 volumes, particularly in the ancient classic and Italian literature, and on account of some important notes of the learned Morelli, than on account of its internal arrangement and bibliographical accuracy in the statement of the titles. It is moreover free neither from typographical nor many other errors, and is usually (with all respect for the otherwise distinguished merit of the excellent Morelli be it said) far overvalued. What a valuable source would this have been, had he executed it with French bibliographical accuracy.—All the copies are on large paper. Besides the fine portrait of Pinelli by Bartolozzi before the 1st vol. there ought to be also at the end of the 3rd vol. a facsimile of an original document, and at the end of the 5th vol. 5 representations of antiques.

The library was bought entire by the London bookseller Robson for 13,000 sequins (about 40,000 dollars), and was sold by auction in London in 1789. The speculation was nevertheless rather unfortunate, and did not turn out to the benefit of the purchaser. A bad catalogue, Lond. 1789. large 8°. was printed for the use of the auction, in which the notes and index of the prior catalogue are omitted.

The old copies of these separate parts, although they only make up 15 or 18 vols. are to be preferred, because they contain the first impressions and a text. These old copies may easily be completed, because all the vols. are sold separately. In 1800 the brothers Piranesi prepared a new impression, which was divided into 26 vols. and the price of which is 1916 fr. But as there is no text included, and there are only inferior impressions of many plates, the copies in consequence usually sell at Paris sales for less than half this price. The order and contents of the 26 vols. of the new edition, which we here specify under their original dates, are these :

T. I–IV. Le antichità Romane. Roma, 1756. fol. max. 4 voll. together, 224 plates, without text. The 4 title leaves of this work contained at first a dedication to lord Charlemont; but as shortly afterwards private reasons induced Piranesi to remove that nobleman's name, copies containing it are scarce. Consult Bibl. Firmiana IV. 161. (240 fr.)

T. V. Monumenti degli Scipioni. 1785. large fol. 26 pages and 6 plates (12 fr.).

T. VI. Supplément aux antiquités Romaines, qui contient le recueil des anciens temples les mieux conservés, par Fr. Pira- nesi, large fol. Containing 51 plates, in 2 parts (68 fr.).

T. VII. De Romanor. magnificentia et architectura. Romæ, 1761. fol. max. Containing (212 pages of text in the old copies) 38 plates, 2 title-plates, the portrait of Clement XIII. and a supplement of 3 plates with a title-plate (84 fr.).

T. VIII. a. Différens ouvrages d'architecture étrusque, grecque et romaine, in 27 plates (32 fr.).—b. Diverses compositions de prisons, in 16 plates (18 fr.).—c. Anciens arcs de triomphe, ponts, et leurs inscriptions etc., in 32 plates (18 fr.).—d. Trophées d'Auguste et autres fragmens d'architecture épars dans Rome, in 15 plates (21 fr.) fol.

Roma, 1765. fol. max. with 20 plates (and 24 pages of text in the old copies). 21 fr. — b. Lapides Capitolini s. fasti consulares triumphalesque Romanor. Romæ, 1762. fol. with 12 plates (and 62 pages, text), 21 fr. — c. Antichità di Cora, fol. max, with 14 plates (and 15 pages, text), 21 fr. —

T. X. Campus Martius antiquæ urbis. Romæ, 1762. fol. max. 54 plates, including the small ones (with text in the old copies). The plates, 6–10, are wanting in all the old copies (66 fr.).

T. XI. Antichità d'Albano e di Castel-Gandolfo, fol. max. 55 plates (with text in the old copies), 66 fr. Containing 3 parts; the 1st of 2 title-plates and 27 plates, the 2nd of 1 title-plate and 9 plates, and the 3rd of 12 plates, some of which are on several leaves.

T. XII. XIII. Vasi, candelabri, cippi, sarcofagi, tripodi, lucerne ed ornamenti antichi. Roma, 1778, fol. max. 2 vols. with 114 (in the old) or 127 plates (in the new copies).—These two vols. are among those of the collection which are the most sought after (220 fr.).

T. XIV. a. Colonna Trajana. Roma, 1770. large fol. 21 plates (with text in the old copies), 80 fr. — b. Colonne Coclide de l'empereur Marc-Aurele Antonin, in 7 plates, with explanations. — c. Colonne de l'apothéose d'Antonin-le-Pieux (42 fr. along with the preceding).

T. XVI. XVII. Vedute di Roma, fol. max. 2 vols. with 137 plates. One of the finest works of the collection (250 fr.).

T. XXV. a. Cabinet de Jules II. par Raphael. 14 plates. — b. Les peintures de la Farnesine par Raphael. 18 plates.

T. XXVI. Peintures de la villa Altoviti par G. Vasari. 13 plates.

Not only may all these vols. be had separately, but even single leaves may also be so had, and incomplete copies may consequently easily be completed. Particulars will be found in the separate list, Œuvres de J. Bt. et de Fr. Piranesi. Par. 1800. 4°. 19 pages.

16946 PIRANESI, Fr. *Antiquités de la Grande-Grèce, aujourd'hui royaume de Naples, gravées par Fr. Piranesi, d'après les dessins et les observations de J. Bt. 16948 PIROLI. Antiquités d'Herculanum, gravées par Th. Piroli, avec une explication, publiées par Fr. et P. Piranesi. Par. (Leblanc), an 12 (1804-6). large 4°. 6 vols. (150 fr., on vellum paper 300 fr.)

It appeared in 25 Nos. Previously under the title, Antichità di Ercolano, copiate da Tomm. Piroli. Roma, 1789-1807. 4°. 6 vols. — See also PETITRADEL and ZOEGA.

There are copies of these 4 pieces on vellum, a vellum copy of the first 3, 40 fr. Vallière, and of the 2nd and 3rd 40 fr. M'Carthy; one of the 4th in the Royal library at Paris.

The most complete edition (previously,

16980 PITTURE. Le più insigni pitture Parmensi indicate agli amatori delle belle arti. Parma, Bodoni, 1809. large 4°. with 60 plates.

There are 2 editions of this date. The first, consisting of only 60 copies, contains only 52 leaves besides the plates. The second, prepared in 1810, and consisting of 150 copies, contains 9 leaves more, because the Italian preface occupies 16 pages instead of 11, and the French 14 instead of 10. The text is by Bodoni's biographer, Gius. de Lama. Bodoni's widow had the preface altered, and dedicated it under the date of May 7, 1816, to the new sovereign Marie Louise. Bodoni's sale catalogue of 1820 announces the following editions: large fol. with 60 plates (220 fr.); large 4°. with 60 plates (100 fr.); small 4°. on vellum paper 50 fr.

The two works (that by Mylius appeared at the same time in 2 vols. 8°.) ought not to be separated. That by Placcius is inconveniently arranged, is very difficult to use, and contains much erroneous and unnecessary matter. The excellent work of Barbier (see above) is far preferable on account of its wise conciseness and convenient arrangement, in which indeed the French literature is treated in a more complete manner than the foreign.

17003 PLATEA, Fr. de. Opus re-

224 leaves (the first 29 contain a tabula), with 32 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition. Padua, Ln. Basileensis, 1473. fol. 172 leaves (the first 18 a tabula), with 40 lines, and signatures introduced so low underneath, as commonly to be cut off; and Col. Koelhof, 1474. fol. Gothic letter, with the signatures a-g, are less prized: still later editions are of no value at all.

17004 PLATIÈRE, Jos. Mar. Roland de la. Galerie universelle des hommes qui se sont illustrés dans l'empire des lettres. Par. 1787 sq. 4°. 13 parts in 7 vols.

This work, little prized in France, was not finished. Only 78 parts appeared, with one portrait each.

PLATIN, Cl., see GIGLAN.

17005 PLATINA, Bm. (SACCHI). Liber de vita Christi ac pontificum omnium qui hactenus ducenti et viginti duo fuere. Ven., J. de Colonia et J. Manthen de Gherretzem, 3 id. Jun. 1479. fol.

The first edition, and sought after. 240 leaves, with 39 (not 40) lines (yet ee 4 and 5 has 41 lines), and the signatures a-ff. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank; in leaf 1<sup>b</sup> is a letter of Hi. Squarzaficus, and underneath the register, leaf 2, is the proœmium; and leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself with the above title.

Formerly an entirely groundless distinction was made between the castrated and uncastrated editions, as it is notwithstanding extremely probable that no really castrated edition exists. Three signs of an un mutilated edition were specified: 1. That in the life of Cletus, it runs, uxorem habuit in Bithynia, for which some editions certainly read, uxorem non habens in Bithynia; a very unnecessary alteration, as in this passage the discourse is not about pope Cletus, but about the evangelist Luke, whose marriage or celibacy is indifferent. 2. That the story of pope Joanna is to be found therein. 3. That the expression of Pius II. was reported, sacerdotibus magna ratione sublatis nuptias, majori restituendas videri. But these two latter passages are now wanting in no single edition, and the entire difference is that in the first 3 editions pope Joanna is not numbered separately, but is likewise named pope John VII. under which number the successor of John VI. had already been mentioned; whereas, on the contrary, in the editions since 1504, she is numbered separately, and is consequently mentioned as John VIII. The insignificant alteration, uxorem non habens, is however only to be found in the Cologne editions, from 1574 to 1626.—Consult Lenfant Hist. du concile de Pise, préf. p. XXIV. Crenii animadv. XVIII. 20. Mylii memorabil. bibl. Jen. p. 209. Merkwürdigkk. der Zapf. Bibl. I. 121. Millin Annal. encycl. 1817. VI. 276. 17006 — — liber de vita Christi ac pontificum omnium qui hactenus ducenti et viginti duo fuere. Nrb., Ant. Koburger, 3 id. Aug. 1481. fol. Gothic letter.

128 leaves in 2 columns with 55 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A reprint of the preceding, with the letter of Squarzaficus.

17007 — — Without place (Tarvisii), J. Vercellensis, 10 Febr. 1485. fol.

135 leaves with 52 lines, and the signatures a-r. Likewise a reprint of 1479.

17008 — hystoria de vitis pontificum: diligenter recognita: et nunc tantum (sic) integre impressa. (Acc. ejus varia opuscula). Ven., Ph. Pincius, 1504. fol.

In this edition pope Joanna is for the first time numbered as John VIII. and Platina's smaller pieces are added, with the exception of his book de obsoniis. After it are, Par., Fr. Regnault, 1505. 8°. Lugd., Gilb. de Villiers, 1512. 8°. Ven., Gu. de Fontaneto, 1518. fol.

17009 — de vita et moribus summorum pontificum historia. Ejusd. de falso et vero bono dialogi III. Contra amores I. De vera nobilitate I. De optimo cive II. Panegyricus in Bessarionem. Oratio ad Paulum II. (Col.), Euchar. Cervicornus, 1529. fol.

A good and correct edition, printed from the Venetian edition of 1518. The following are repetitions of it: (Col.), Euchar. Cervicornus, 1540. fol. ib., Jaspar Genepaus, 1551. fol. ib. 1562 and 68. fol. Ven., 1562. 4°. Lovan., 1572. fol.

17010 — de vitis et moribus pontificum historia, cui alior. omnium, qui post Platinam vixerunt ad hæc usque tempora, sunt additæ, ac inserti canones institut. cœnobitar. Adjecta etiam pontificum nomenclatura. Par., J. Parvus typis Pt. Vindovæi, 1530. 8°. — Bt. Platinae de falso et vero bono dialogi III. Contra amores I. De vera nobilitate I. De optimo cive II. Panegyricus in Bessarionem. Oratio ad Paulum II. ib., id., 1530. 8°. — Bt. Platinae de honesta voluptate. De ratione victus et modo vivendi. De natura rerum et arte coquendi libri X. ib., id., 1530. 8°.

This edition, neither fine nor otherwise remarkable, is convenient from its containing Platina's entire works, with the exception of his Historia urbis Mantuæ et familiæ Gonzagæ (printed for the first time, Vindob. 1675. 4°. and best in Muratorii script. rer. Ital. T. XX.). Other pieces of his, not before printed, are in Vairani Cremonensium monumenta Romæ extantia. Ven. 1778. 4°.

- 17011 — historia de vitis pontificum Romanor. a J. C. usque ad Paulum II. longe quam antea emendatior doctissimarumque annotationum Onuphrii Panvinii accessione nunc illustrior reddita. Cui ejusd. Onuphrii opera reliquor. quoque pontificum vitæ usque ad Gregor. XIII. nunc recens adjuncta (sic) sunt. Accessit eodem etiam auctore Romanor. pontificum chronicon. Aliæ quoque cum ipsius Platinae tum Onuphrii opuscula huic æditioni nunc recens addita sunt. Accessere item indd. duo. Col., Cholinus, 1574. fol.

This edition, enlarged with valuable notes, is the first that I know of which in Cletus's life has the reading uxorem non habens. Col. 1593, or 1600, or 1611, or 1626. 4°. with woodcuts, are reprints of this edition, with the omission of the good indices and Platina's smaller pieces, and with the addition of the lives of the subsequent popes by Ant. Cicarella. That of 1626 is very incorrect.

- 17012 — opus de vitis ac gestis summor. pontificum ad Sixtum IV. deductum. Fideliter a litera ad literam denuo impressum secundum duo exemplaria, quorum unum fuit vivente adhuc auctore a. 1479, alterum a. 1529. Accessit præter Platinae vitam brevis quidam Romanorum pontificum, concilior. et imperator. catalogus. Without place (in Holland), 1645 or 64. large 12°.

Neat and correct editions, but without Platina's smaller pieces. According to the Elzevir catalogue of 1674 the edition of 1645 was printed at Leyden.

This translation is different from the preceding. Ven. 1760. 4°. 4 vols. with plates, is continued down to Clement XIV.

The first edition. 94 leaves (the last blank), with 32 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First 4 leaves, tabula, in 2 columns; at the end of which, leaf 4<sup>b</sup>, is the colophon, in which in some copies the words labore-Umbri are wanting. Leaf 5<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself, and at the end is simply PLATYNÆ DE OBSONIIS LIB. FIN. The undated edition in Vallière's Catalogue, I. 496, which it was pretended appeared at Rome about 1473, was only a copy of this Venetian edition, wanting the first 4 leaves.

17027 PLATO. 1. Opera. Ἀπαντα του Πλατωνος. Omnia Platonis opera (gr.) Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Sept. 1513. fol.

16 leaves of preliminary matter (the 16th blank), 502 pages, 1 blank leaf, and 439 pages. The first edition, scarce, and sought after; superintended by M. Musurus. A fine copy on vellum in the Hunterian museum at Glasgow (previously in the Harleian library, then offered for sale in Osborne's catalogue of 1748 for 21l., and purchased by Hunter at Askew's sale for 53l. 13s.); a second (in which however Plato's life is wanting) in the library of Westminster abbey; a third was said to be in the Medici library at Florence, according to Renouard Annal. des Aldo, I. 105; it is not however to be found in Bandini's catalogue.

17028 — ἅπαντα Πλατωνος μεθ' ὑπομνηματων Προκλου εἰς τον Τιμαιον και τα Πολιτικά, θησαυρου της παλαιας φιλοσοφίας μεγιστου. Platonis omnia opera cum commentariis Procli in Timæum et Politica, thesauro veteris philosophiæ maximo (gr.) Adjectus etiam est in Platonis omnia sententiar. et verbor. memorabilium index. Bas., J. Valderus, m. Mart. 1534. fol.

38 leaves of preliminary matter, 690 pages, 1 blank leaf, and then Procli Comm. (which is sometimes wanting), with a half-title, and 433 pages. Superintended by J. Oporinus and Sim. Grynæus. The text is often happily corrected without MSS., yet sometimes unsuccessfully altered, and without necessity. This edition obtains particular value on account of the commentary of Proclus, which is given here for the first time from an Oxford MS. Good indices are also appended.

17029 — Ἀπαντα Πλατωνος προς τα παλαιωτατα ἀρχετυπα μετα πασης ἀκριβειας ἐπανορθωμενα. Platonis omnia opera, ex vetustissimor. exemplarium collatione multo nunc quam antea emendatiora (gr.) Præterea in Platonis omnia sententiar. et verbor. memorabilium index. Bas., H. Petri, m. Mart. 1556. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 690 pages, and 23 leaves of index. The text of the preceding edition forms the basis of this which was superintended by M. Hopper, and which is here and there corrected and completed after several MSS. collated by Arn. Arlenius in Italy (yet not accurately enough). Many errors of the preceding edition however still remain, and Proclus's commentary is omitted.

17030 — Πλατωνος ἅπαντα τα σωζομενα. Platonis opera quæ extant omnia (gr. l.) Ex nova J. Serrani interpretatione, perpetuis ejusd. notis illustrata, quibus et methodus et doctrinæ summa breviter et perspicue indicatur. Ejusd. annotatt. in quosdam suæ illius interpretationis locos. H. Stephani de quorundam locor. interpretatione judicium, et multorum textus græci emendatio. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1578. fol. 3 voll.

T. I. 18 leaves of preliminary matter (here ought to be 3 dedications, to queen Elizabeth, to James VI. of Scotland, and to the canton of Bern), 542 pages, and 1 blank leaf. T. II. 4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 992 pages. T. III. 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 416 pages, and 139 pages, Annotatt. and Index. The 2nd and 3rd vols. have only half titles. A new and excellent recension from earlier editions and translations, and from conjectures by the editor, yet without MSS. The Aldine text forms the basis. With a new translation by J. Serranus, which indeed is more elegant than that of Ficinus, but is unfaithful. The works are newly arranged. Copies in good condition are not frequently met with; but copies on large paper are very scarce, which however are more distinguished by the goodness of the paper than by the size, as the tallest which Brunet saw was only 1 foot, 2 inch. 10 lines high, which is about the height of a fine copy on common paper.

17031 — opera omnia quæ extant (gr. lat.), Mars. Ficino interprete. Græcus contextus quam diligentissime cum emendationibus exemplaribus collatus est: Latina interpretatio a quamplurimis superior. editionum mendis expurgata. Argumentis perpetuis et commentariis quibusdam ejusd. Mars. Ficini, iisque nunc multo emendatius quam antehac editis, totum opus explanatum est atque illustratum. Vita Platonis a Diog. Laertio descripta: item Timæi Locri opusculum aliaque plurima huic editioni accesserunt. Adjectus est index rerum omnium. Lugd., Fr. le Preux, 1590. fol.

14 leaves of preliminary matter, 849 pages, and 15 leaves of index. A good, correct, and scarce edition. Stephens's text (but the earlier arrangement of the works is restored), with Ficinus's translation corrected. Is. Casaubon appears to have taken part in it. Ruhnken has quoted from this edition both in the lexicon of Timæus and also in the Scholia in Platonem, consequently it is necessary to have this edition.

17032 — opera omnia quæ exstant (gr. lat.) . . . explanatum est atque illustratum (with the following title). Adjectus est index rerum omnium. Ff., Cl. Marnius et hered. J. Aubrii, 1602. fol.

36 pages of preliminary matter, 1355 pages, and 14 leaves of index. The text and arrangement of the works is according to Stephens, with the translation of Ficinus. Good copies are scarce, and sought after.

17033 — Platonis quæ exstant, gr. Ad edit. H. Stephani accurate expressa cum Mars. Ficini interpretatione. Præmittitur L. III. Laertii de vita et dogm. Plat. cum notitia literaria. Accedit varietas lectionis. Biponti, 1781–87. 8°. 11 vols. Dt. Tiedemann dialogor. Platonis argumenta exposita et illustrata. ib. 1786. 8°. (24 d.)

Neat and correct, greatly sought after, and already out of print. There are said to be 10 copies on large paper d'Annonay. Superintended by F. Ch. Exter and J. Val. Embser; the notitia literaria is enlarged by G. Ch. Croll, and the collection of various readings is by Ch. W. Mitscherlich.

17034 — opera (gr.) Ex rec. H. Stephani passim emendata adjectis scholiis et notis crit. ed. Ch. Dn.

Also on writing paper and on vellum paper.

Designed to be in 10 vols. without the notes and the Lexicon Platonicum.

17036 — 2. Plura scripta. Dialogi gr. et lat. (ex vers. Mars. Ficini). Ex rec. Imm. Bekkeri. Berol., Reimer, 1816–18. 8°. 3 parts in 8 vols. (20 d., on writing paper 27 d. 12 gr.)

The 1st part has 2 vols., and the 2nd and 3rd 3 each.

Stephens's text divided into sections. But the first edition at least is very incorrectly printed.

17040 — sechs auserlesene Gespräche, griech. u. deutsch, nebst Dacier Vorr. u. Anmerk. herausg. durch J. Sm. Müller. Hmb., König, 1736. 4°.

Containing Alcibiades I. and II., Laches, Protagoras, Theages, and Erastæ.

Containing Erastæ, Euthyphro, Apol. Socr., Crito, Phædon. Stephens's text with Ficinus's translation corrected, and Forster's and Z. Mudge's good critical and exegetical annotations. The Scholia of Olympiodorus, never before printed, are appended from a Bodleian MS.—The repetition, Ox. typis Clarend. 1752. 8°. (also on large paper) is very incorrect. Ib., id., 1765, 1772, or 1800. 8°. (7s.) is better.

Chiefly Stephen's text, an Oxford and Paris MS. being however made use of, with critical and exegetical notes and a new Latin translation. Olympiodorus's preface to his scholia on the Gorgias is here printed for the first time.

17124 — 4. Versiones. Platonis opera, lat. interprete Marsilio Ficino. Flor., Lr. Venetus, without date (1483 and 84). fol. Gothic letter.

The first edition of this translation, tolerably scarce, but very incorrectly printed. Altogether 460 leaves in 2 columns with 46 lines, and signatures. This book, printed in a very detached manner, consists of the following pieces; 1. 8 leaves of preliminary matter (the 8th blank) without signatures, which begin on leaf 1<sup>b</sup> with a Prohemium M. Ficini in libros Platonis. 2. 103 leaves (the last blank) with the signatures a–s, 1, 2, and 3, with column titles in Gothic letter, leaf 1<sup>a</sup>, col. 1, line 1 of which is Marsilii Argumentum in Hipparchum. 3. 28 leaves, Commentarius M. Ficini in convivium Platonis de amore, with the signatures a–d, and column-titles in Gothic letter. 4. 307 leaves, Convivium de amore, and the other pieces with the signatures d iii (properly e i)–ss, and column-titles in Roman characters. 5. 14 leaves, Emendatt. errorum librarii with the signature p.

More precise accounts respecting this first impression are in Fassi Bibl. Magliab.

T. III. pref. p. XXIII sq. The impression was 1025 copies. The layers a-s and aa-cc, mentioned above under Nos. 3 and 4, were printed in 1483 at the press in the monastery of S. Jacopo de Ripoli at Florence. But as this printing establishment came to an end just about that time, Lr. Venetus in consequence printed in the following year the rest of the book with similar or rather with the same types. The internal dissimilarities also prove that the book was printed at different times.

17125 — Platonis opera, lat. interprete Marsilio Ficino. Ven., Bernardin. de Choris et Sim. de Luero, 13 Aug. 1491. fol. Gothic letter.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 444 numbered leaves in 2 columns with 62 lines. This more correct edition is also still scarce and sought after. The reprints, Ven., Ph. Pinolius, 1517. fol. Par., ap. Ascens., 1518 and 22. fol. are at a low price.

17126 — omnia Platonis opera translatione Mars. Ficini, emendatione et ad græcum codicem collatione Sim. Grynæi repurgata. Bas., Hi. Froben et N. Episcopus, 1532. fol.

This corrected translation is repeated, Bas., Froben, 1539, 46, and 51. fol. Lugd., ap. Beringos fratres, 1548. fol. The following is neat and scarce, Lugd., J. Tornæsius, 1550. 12°. 5 vols. (in addition also, N. Liburnii Gnomologia Platonis. ib., id., 1555. 12°) Ven. 1556. fol. Lugd., Ant. Vicentius, 1557. fol. (enlarged with 6 spurious dialogues after Sb. Corradus's translation). Lugd. 1567 or 70. fol. Ven., Hi. Scotus, 1581. fol. and often.

17127 — opera per Janum Cornarium lat. lingua conscripta. Ejusd. eclogæ X. additis Ficini argumentis et commentariis. Bas., ex typ. Froben., 1561. fol.

Scarce. Cornarius corrected many things from a MS. and the earlier editions, but his translation has not supplanted that of Ficinus.

17128 — dialogi Platonis, Axiochus vel de morte. Eryxias vel de divitiis. De justo. Num virtus doceri possit. Demodocus vel de consultando. Sisyphus s. de consulendo. Clitophon s. admonitarius. Definitiones Platonis. (lat.) Bilib. Pirkheymero interprete. Nrb., F. Peypus, 1523. 4°.

17129 — Platonici dialogi sex nunc prim. e græco in lat. conversi a Sb.

Corrado. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1543. 4°.

Very scarce. The dialogues here translated are nevertheless all spurious, and the translation is introduced into the edition of Ficinus's translation, Lugd. 1557. fol.

17130 — apologia Socratis per Ln. Aretinum traducta. Without place or date. 4°.

16 leaves with 27 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination: in Roman characters. The last page or leaf 16<sup>a</sup> has 28 lines.

52 leaves with 23 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Printed with the sametypes as Fichetus's Rhetorica (No. 7519).

17132<sup>b</sup> — divini Platonis epistolæ (lat., ed. P. Niavis.) Without place or date (Lps.), 4°. Gothic letter, 30 leaves.

17133 — epistolæ a Pt. Ramo latinæ factæ et dialecticis rerum summis breviter exposita. Secunda æditio. Par., Mth. David, 1552. 4°. Previously, ib., id., 1549. 4°.

17134 — Gorgias per Ln. Aretinum e græco in latinum interpretatus. Without place or date. 4°.

49 leaves with 27 lines, in Roman characters. Aretinus also translated the Phædo, Phædrus, and Crito (see Bandini Cat. cod. Bibl. Laur. in the index), which translations appear to remain still unprinted. Concerning Chrysoloras's unpublished translation of the books De republica, see Bandini l. c. III. 313. Politian's translation of the Charmides is in Politiani Epp. lib. XII. and in his Opera. Bas. 1553. fol. p. 449 etc.

17154 PLAUTUS. Viginti comœdiæ, magna ex parte emendatæ per G. (Merulam) Alexandrinum. Ven., J. de Colonia et Vindelinius de Spira, 1472. fol.

The first edition, very scarce. 243 leaves with 41 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with Merula's letter to J. Zeno, and the first line is, Reuerendissimo in Christo patri & domino Jacobo Zeno. This letter, together with the life of Plautus, and a specification of his comedies fills the first 3 leaves. The 4th leaf is blank, and Amphitryo begins the 5th leaf. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris; probably the same as is stated to have formerly belonged to the canons of Padua.

A remarkable typographical error in it is that the entire 3rd page of the Persæ belongs to the Stichus, where it is again repeated 27 leaves farther on. The reverse of this leaf in the Stichus remains blank.

17155 — viginti comœdiæ, magna ex parte iterum emendatæ per G. (Merulam) Alexandrinum. Tarvisii, P. de Ferraria et Dion. de Bononia, 21 Jun. 1482. fol.

With the signatures b–E. A reprint of the preceding, with correction of the typographical errors, for instance the one above mentioned. This also still remains at a high price. The first 3 leaves have the same contents as those in the foregoing edition.

An edition, Dacentr. 1482. fol. is very suspicious, and a pretended one with the commentary of Valla and Saracenus, Ven. 1487. fol. (Panzer, III. 278.) is probably only a typographical error.

17156 — viginti comœdiæ olim magna ex parte emendatæ per G. Merulam, nunc recognitæ per Euseb. Scutarium. Mediol., Uld. Scinzenzeler, cal. Dec. 1490. fol.

236 leaves with 42 lines, and the signatures a–D. Leaf 1 is blank, the contents of leaves 2–4 are the same as in the preceding. Leaf 5<sup>a</sup> begins the text, and at the end is Scutarius's letter to Merula. This scarce edition was revised and corrected by Scutarius at the charge of Merula.

17157 — Plautus. Ven. (without the printer's name), 23 Nov. 1495. 4°.

17158 — Plautinæ uiginti comœdiæ emendatissimæ cum acuratissima ac luculentissima interpretatione doctissimor. uiror. (J.) Pt. Vallæ placentini ac et (sic) Bn. Saraceni Veneti. Ven., Sim. Papiensis, 15 cal. Oct. 1499. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

First the above title and Valla's commentary on 92 leaves with the signatures a–m and leaf 92<sup>a</sup> with the separate colophon: Impressum Venetiis ore et impensa eruditi viri M. Firmani (without any date). Then 6 leaves with the signature aa (Saraceni emendatt.), and last of all the text of Plautus with Saracenus's commentary on 252 leaves, with the signatures a–F. This edition accords in the text with that of 1490.—An edition, Ven. 1498. fol. with the same commentary (Panzer, III. 444.) is probably only a typographical error.

17159 — Plautus integer cum interpretatione J. Bt. Pii ac ejusd. et Ph. Beroaldi præfationibus. Without place or date. fol.

This appears to have been printed at Milan between 1490 and 1500. It was in the Bibl. Röveriana, I. 104.

17160 — Plautus cum correctione et interpretatione Hermolai, Merulæ, Politiani et Beroaldi et cum multis additionibus. Without place or date. fol.

With the signatures a–H, and likewise printed between 1490 and 1500. Not noticed in Panzer. First described in Bibl. Spenc. II. 249. Brunet quotes it under the incorrect title: Comœdia stud. et dilig. Sb. Duoi et G. Galbiati edita.

- 17161 — Plautus diligenter recognitus per Ph. Beroaldum. Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 3 cal. Dec. 1500. fol.

255 leaves. The statement of the date, Anno Salutis. M.D. tertio Cal. Dec. has occasioned the mistake, by which it has been sometimes assigned to the year 1503.

- 17162 — Plautus integer cum interpretatione J. Bt. Pii, Mediol., Uld. Scinzenzeler, 18 Jan. 1500. fol.

422 leaves with the signatures AA and a-co. On the reverse of the title is the preface of Ph. Beroaldus.

- 17163 — comœdiæ cum Pyladæ Bucardi Brixiani commentario. Brix., Jac. Britannicus, 2 cal. Dec. 1506. fol.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, and 314 numbered leaves. Pylades has rather corrupted the text by his too great boldness. His new recension, which is passed over in many subsequent editions, only extends to the first 18 pieces, and his commentary only to the first 5 owing to his death. J. Britannicus superintended the edition. Against Pylades's severe judgment of his predecessors appeared, Achill. Bocchii Apologia pro Pio in Pilatum Bucconem, qui se falso Pyladem Buccardum dicitur, sive apologia in Plauti comœdias. Vita Ciceronis auctore Plutarcho. Bonon. 1508. 4°.

- 17164 — Plautus poeta comicus (edid. Adf. Mulingius). Arg., G. Grüninger, 8 Apr. 1508. 8°. with woodcuts.

This scarce edition contains Merula's text corrected by Scutarius.

- 17165 — comœdiæ viginti nuper emendatæ, et in eas Pyladæ Brixiani lucubrationes, Thadæi Ugoleti et (Fr. Marii) Grapaldi scholia, (G.) Anselmi epiphyllides. Parmæ, Octav. Saladius et Fr. Ugoletus, 7 id. Mart. 1510. fol.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 305 numbered leaves. Chiefly the text of Pylades, yet has Ugoletus, who vies with him in critical boldness, corrected much in the last 12 pieces from a MS.

- 17166 — comœdiæ XX. recens ex collatione multor. codicum, qui tum calamo scripti tum formulis excusi habebantur, singulari diligentia recognitæ. Item eadem comœdiæ omnibus fere locis commentationibus ornantur, quas Bn. Saracenus adque (sic) J. Pt. Valla scriptas olim reliquere. Nec desunt quoque observationes quæpiam Pii Bononiensis sparsim collocatæ. Ven., Laz. Soardus, 14 Aug. 1511. fol. with woodcuts.

228 and 189 numbered leaves with the signatures aa, A-LL. Other copies, which at least are of the same impression, have the following title: Ex emendationibus, adque (sic) cōmentariis Bn. Saraceni, J. Pt. Vallæ Plauti comœdiæ XX. recens singulari diligentia formulis excusæ. Ad hæc Index etc. In the latter copies the preface on the reverse of the title with the superscription, Obvio cuique bonæ frugi salutem, which is in the copies of the former kind, is wanting, and the 10th leaf, connected with the title-leaf, is also reprinted, but without alterations.

- 17167 — comedie XX. Varroniane ex antiquis recentioribusque exemplaribus invicem collatis diligentissime emendatæ.—At the end, Finis Plautinar . . . comœdiar. emendatar. per . . . Sim. Charpentarium cum argumentis ejusdem in unamquamque comœdiam familiarissimis cumque nominum æthimologiis, demum post novam limam castigationemque adhibitam impressarum. (Lugd.) 1513, pridie nonas Apr. In 8°.

336 leaves (the last blank) with the signatures A-TT. The title of this edition, which is very scarce, particularly in good condition, is printed in red and has a lily. A new revision of the text after the earlier editions, but without MSS.; here also is to be found for the first time the completion of the Aulularia in 28 verses, which commence, Quid hic quondam pervicax addit. This edition has incorrectly been called a Paris edition, since it is printed with the same types as the Lyons counterfeits of the Aldines. Panzer, VII. 16, erroneously considers it a Juntine. The repetition of this edition, (Par.), Gu. le Rouge pro Dion. Roce, without date. . . 2 voll. (concerning which consult Quirini de lit. Bris. I. 42 sq.) is enlarged and corrected, and far more scarce.

- 17168 — comœdiæ XX. nuper cognitæ et acri judicio N. Angelii diligentissime excussæ. Flor., Ph. de Giunta, m. Aug. 1514. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 368 leaves. Corrected from MSS. and conjecture. A copy on vellum (formerly Groliër's) is in the Royal library at London.

- 17169 — comœdiæ XX, vivis pene imaginibus recens excultæ. Novissime ex collatione Florentinæ fidelioris impressionis et alior. omnium, qui inveniri potuerunt, affatim recognitæ. Una cum luculentiss. commentariis Bn. Saraceni, J. Pt. Vallæ et Pyladis Brixiani. Nec non observatt. Pii Bononien- sis, Ugoleti et Grapaldi scholia (sic), Anselmiquæ epiphyllidibus. Adjecto insuper indice etc. Ven., Mlch. Sessa et Pt. de Ravanis, 12 Aug. 1518. fol. with woodcuts.

10 leaves of preliminary matter, and 367 numbered leaves. This edition, superintended by Luc. (Panetius) Olchinensis contains for the most part the text of Pylades with some readings of its own (borrowed from the first Juntine?).

- 17170 — comœdiæ XX. nuper recognitæ et acri judicio N. Angelii diligentissime excussæ. Flor., her. Ph. Juntæ, m. Mart. 1522. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, and 388 numbered leaves.

- 17171 — ex Plauti comœdiis XX. quarum carmina magna ex parte in mensum suum restituta sunt. Index verbor., quib. paulo abstrusiorib. Plautus utitur. Argumenta singular. comœdiar. Authoris vita. Tralatio dictionum græcarum. Ven., Aldus et And. Asulanus, m. Jul. 1522. small 4°.

14 leaves of preliminary matter, and 284 numbered leaves. A reprint of the Juntine; and the corrections of Aldus and Erasmus mentioned in the preface only relate to typographical errors. Neither scarce nor prized, yet sought after by collectors.

- 17172 — comœdiæ XX. ex antiquis recentioribusque exemplaribus invicem collatis diligentissime recognitæ: quarum carmina magna ex parte in mensum suum restituta sunt. Index verbor. Argumenta singular. comœdiar. Tralatio græcar. dictionum. Authoris vita.

Bas., And. Cratander, m. Sept. 1523. 8°.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, and 376 numbered leaves. Chiefly the Aldine text.

- 17173 — comœdiæ XX. ex antiquis recentioribusque exemplaribus invicem collatis diligentissimæ recognitæ: quarum carmina magna ex parte in mensum suum restituta sunt. Authoris vita. Argumenta singularum comœdiar. Tralatio græcar. dictionum. Par., Rb. Stephanus, 6 cal. Febr. 1530. fol.

10 leaves of preliminary matter, and 256 numbered leaves.

- 17174 — comœdiæ XX. jam denuo diligentius recognitæ. Restituta in mensum suum non pauca carmina a nemine hactenus animadversa. Cum ind. verbor. Argumenta singular. comœdiar, Græcar. dictionum tralatio. Autoris vita. Additis in omnes comœdias brevissimis acholiis. Col., J. Gymnicus, 1530. 8°.

Superintended by Gibertus Longolius, who made use of a MS.

- 17175 — comœdiæ XX. diligentissime a mendis repurgatæ et in mensum suum genuinum restitutæ, cum ind. rerum ac vocum, proverbiorum, formulisque loquendi, atque græcar. et latinar. dictionum interpretatione. Bas., J. Hervagius, 1535 or 50. 8°.

- 17176 — comœdiæ XX. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1535, or 37, or 40. 8°.

This edition appears to contain Charpentier's text of 1513.

- 17177 — comœdiæ XX. post omnes omnium æditiones accuratissime recognitæ. Præter reliquas commoditates habes hic annotationes in omnes comœdias per Gisb. Longolium jam denuo ab ipso castigatas et locupletatas, quibus accessere scholia nova in quatuor posteriores comœdias, in quas hactenus nihil fuerat annotatum. Col., J. Gymnicus, 1538. 8°.

- 17178 — comœdiæ V. magna cum cura emendatæ a Jo. Camerario, modo editæ cum annotatt. ejusd.

Lps., Valent. Papa, 1545. 8°. Comœdiæ VI. magna cum cura emendatæ a Jo. Camerario. ib., id., 1549. 8°. 2 voll.

The first edition of Camerarius's new recension from MSS. Both vols. are very hard to find together; the second is particularly scarce. See also below, No. 17222.

17179 — comœdiæ XX. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1547, or 49, or 54. 12°.

17180 — comœdiæ XX. diligente cura et singulari studio Jo. Camerarii emendatius nunc quam antea unquam ab ullo editæ. Adjectis etiam ejusdem ad singulas comœdias argumentis et annotationibus. Bas., J. Hervagius. Without date (1552). large 8°.

910 pages and 1 leaf. It is often quite erroneously set down to the year 1538 on account of the Privilegium at the end. A reproduction of his earlier recension, by which he acquired to himself decided merit with respect to the text of Plautus, although he often alters the earlier readings sub silentio, and without specifying his sources. His text is contained in the edition, Comœdiæ ex Jo. Camerarii emendat. cum G. Fabricii obs. Bas. 1558. 8°.

17181 — comœdiæ omnes quæ nunc extant. Flor., her. Bn. Juntæ, 1554. 8°.

A very neat and valuable edition, the text of which is corrected from several MSS. Ff. J. Wechel, 1593, is a reprint of it.

17183 — comœdiæ, post J. Sambuci diligentiam collatæ, repurgatæ et suppletæ (a Coel. Sec. Curione). Bas., Hervag., 1568. 8°. In addition, Eruditor. aliquot viror. de comœdia et comicis versibus commentationes itemque in Plautum annotatt. ib., id., 1568. 8°.

17184 — Plautus ex fide atque auctoritate complurium libror. MSS. opera Dion. Lambini emendatus, ab eodemque commentariis explicatus. Lut., J. Macæus, 1576. fol. Also on large paper.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 1118 pages, and 39 leaves of index. Ib., id., 1577, or 79, or 87, or 88. fol. are only new titles. The editor's corrections are often too bold and arbitrary. He evinces great learning, yet but little knowledge of comedy. Copies on large paper are scarce and sought after.

17185 — Plautus . . . explicatus (as in the preceding title) Nunc denuo plurimis, quæ in priorem editionem irrepserant, mendis expurgatus, multisque in locis in gratiam antiquior. illustratus. Lugd. (other copies, Col.) Gu. Hertmann, 1577 (new title, 1578). fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 792 pages, and 28 leaves of index. A less fine but more correct reprint of the same.

17186 — comœdiæ XX. Variæ lectt. ac notæ, ex Dion. Lambini aliorumque doctissimor. viror. commentariis suo quæque loco adscriptæ. Without place, Pt. Santandreas, 1581. 8°. 813 pages.

There is the same title to, Lugd., Ant. Gryphius, 1581. 8°. Lugd., Pt. Santandreas, 1587. 8°. (Genev.), Jac. Stoer, 1587, or 1610. 12°. Also, Lugd., Ant. Tardif, 1589. 16°. appears to have Lambinus's text.

17187 — fabulæ superstites XX. Ex rec. Dousica. LB., Fr. Rapheleng., 1589. 12°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 869 pages, and 4 leaves of index. A new recension, superintended by Janus Dousa. Thereto belongs, Jani Dousæ centurionatus s. Plautinar. explanationum libri IV. ib., id., 1587. 12°. A reprint of both parts is, Ff., Hoffmann, 1610-11. 12°. 2 vols. The editions, LB., Rapheleng., 1594 or 1603. 16°. Ff., Saurius, 1598. 8°. Lubeca, Lr. Albertus, 1599. 8°. contain the text only after Dousa. But the edition, LB., Fr. Raphelengius, 1588. 12°. is said to contain the text of Sambucus.

17188 — Plautus ex fide atque auctoritate complurium libror. MSS. opera Dion. Lambini emendatus, ab eodemque commentariis explicatus. Nunc denuo plurimis mendis repurgatus multisque in locis in gratiam antiquariorum illustratus. Additi quoque sunt duo indd. (Genev.), ap. hered. Eust. Vignon, 1595. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 920 pages, and 26 leaves of index. Merely a reprint of Lambinus's edition. Aurel. Allobr. typis Vignonianis, 1605. 4°. is a repetition, agreeing line for line. Lugd., Hugo a Porta, 1606. 4°. is only a new title to the last. Also, Col. Allobr., Sm. Crispinus, 1622. 4°.

17189 — fabulæ XX. superstites, cum novo et luculento commentario doctor. viror., opera F. Taubmanni. Acc. index locupletiss. (Witt.), Z. Schurerius, 1605. 4°.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, VIII and 1306 pages, and 36 leaves of index. A new revision of the text from MSS. and old editions, with an exegetical apparatus, very carefully and judiciously collected. See Lessing's favourable judgment, in his works, XXII. 298. This first edition of Taubmann's is rather scarce, but it is very incorrectly and slovenly printed, and is far less complete than the subsequent one. A copy on very large paper in 2 vols. fol. in the Royal library at Dresden. Its 2nd vol., which begins with p. 747, has the following separate title, not occurring in the ordinary copies: M. AccI Plauti lat. comædiæ facile Principis fabulæ posteriores, cum commentario novo F. Taubmanni, Wonsesens. Anno CIO DCCV.

17190 — comædiæ XX. superstites. J. Ph. Pareus restituit et notis perpetuis illustravit. Acc. præter alia Plautus hypobolimæus h. e. Gildæ sapientis Querolus s. Aulularia. Ff., Rhodius, 1610. 8°.

24 leaves of preliminary matter, 899 pages, and 1 leaf. A new recension from MSS. and old editions. But Pareus is equally bold in his alterations, and little to be depended upon in the specification of his various readings.

17191 — comædiæ XX. superstites. Nunc denuo post omnium editt. ad fidem meliorum codd. ut et doctissimor. viror. curas accuratius exactæ et novis commentariis illustratæ. Omnia stud. et industria F. VOL. III.

Taubmanni. Additi sunt indd. rerum et verbor. (Witt.), Z. Schurer, 1612. 4°.

20 leaves of preliminary matter, 1320 pages, and 62 leaves of index (in which care should be taken to see that leaves 53 sq. containing Reliquarium, or an appendix to the notes, are not wanting). A new revision of the edition of 1605, enlarged, amended, and far more correct, and at the same time that edition which contains best and most completely Taubmann's own labour. Concerning the history of Taubmann's 3 editions, and the controversy that arose between Pareus and Gruter respecting them, see my Life of Taubmann, p. 114-127. — (Witt.), Z. Schurer, 1613 or 17. 12°. is an impression of the text only after this 2nd edition.

17192 — comædiæ XX. superstites. Ex solis MSS. codd. Palatinæ bibl. pristinae antiquitati suæ restitutæ, ac notis tam practicis quam criticis illustratæ et confirmatæ, adjectis insuper fragmentis nec non Pseudo-Plauti Querulo atque indice elegantiar. Curis secundis J. Ph. Parei. Neapoli Nemetum, Fischer, 1619. 4°.

44 leaves of preliminary matter, 752, 87, and 301 pages, and 20 leaves of index and errata. A new and enlarged revision of the edition of 1610, but suffering under the same deficiency as that. Concerning a copy furnished with MSS. notes, see Neuer allg. lit. Anzeiger, 1808. p. 393.

17193 — comædiæ, ad doctissimor. viror. editt. repræsentatæ. Amst., Gu. Jansson, 1619 or 29. 24°.

17194 — comædiæ XX. Ad didacticam recensitæ. Cum tribus indd. (sententiar., vocabulor. et phrasium). Cothenis Anhaltinor., 1619. 8°.

17195 — comædiæ, ex recognitione Jani Gruteri, qui bona fide contulit cum MSS. Palatinis. Acc. commentarii F. Taubmanni, item indd. rer. et verbor. (Witt.), Z. Schurer, 1621. 4°.

26 leaves of preliminary matter, 1557 pages, and 62 leaves of index. A new recension from MSS. and old editions. But Taubmann's earlier preface is omitted, and his commentary is interpolated with vehement attacks on Pareus. This edition is also less correctly printed than Taubmann's 2nd edition.

17196 — comœdiæ superstites XX. Ex museo J. Isaacii Pontani. Amst., Jansson, 1630. 24°.

Pontanus made use of an English MS. There is probably the same text in, Amst., J. et Corn. Blaeu, 1640. 24°.

17197 — comœdiæ superstites XX. Ex rec. A. Buchneri. Cum ind. vocum verborumque vett. Witt., 1640. 12°. Also, Ff. et Witt., hered. Mevii, 1652. 12°.

Of no critical value.

17198 — comœdiæ XX. superstites et deperditar. fragmenta. Ph. Pareus tertium recensuit ac notis perpetuis illustravit. Acc. præter Gildæ Sapiientis Querolum etiam animadversionum ablegamina. Editio absolutissima. Ff., Fischer, 1641. 8°.

The 3rd and last edition of Pareus.

17199 — comœdiæ. Acc. commentarius ex varior. notis ac observatt., quarum plurimæ nunc primum eduntur. Ex museo M. Zuerii Boxhornii. LB., Fr. Hack, 1645. 8°.

Repeated, ib. 1662. 8°.

17200 — comœdiæ superstites XX. accuratissime editæ. Amst., L. Elzevir, 1652. 24°.

Sought after by collectors. An uncut copy was sold at Didot's sale for 90 fr., and at a London sale in 1812 for 7 guineas.

17201 — comœdiæ in IV. tomos digestæ. Ex recognitione Fr. Gujetti, op. et stud. Mch. de Marolles, cum ejusd. interpretat. gall. (also with the title, Comédies de Plaute avec des remarques en lat. et en franç. par M. D. M. A. D. V.) Lut. Par., Pt. l'Amy, 1658. 8°. 4 voll.

Guyet's critical boldness exceeds all others, yet his notes are acute and valuable. Marolles's translation must indeed be taken into the account.

17202 — comœdiæ. Acc. commentarius ex varior. notis et observatt., quarum plurimæ nunc prim. eduntur. Ex rec. J. F. Gronovii. LB., Hack, 1664. 8°.

A new recension after 6 MSS. But the editor's corrections do not exhibit a just conception of the spirit of Plautus, and his own notes are of little value. Enlarged, LB. et Rot., Hack, 1669. 8°. 2 voll.

17203 — comœdiæ XX. et fragmenta. Argumentis fabular. omnium, actuum et scenar. novis, interpretatione, notis et indice vocabulor. omnium eorumque usus illustravit Jac. Operarius, in us. Delphini. Par., Leonard, 1679. 4°. 2 voll.

One of the rarer editions of this series. The text is from Gruter's edition of 1621. Operarius made use of J. Corbinellus's unprinted notes; as to the rest, it has nothing of its own beyond others but the new tables of contents.

17204 — comœdiæ XX. Acc. commentarius ex varior. notis et observatt. Ex rec. J. F. Gronovii. Amst., ex typ. Blaviana, 1684. 8°. 2 voll.

One of the rarer editions, cum notis variorum, and the most sought after of the 3 editions by Gronovius. To it may be joined, J. F. Gronovii lectt. Plautinæ. Amst., 1740. 8°.

17205 — comœdiæ (cura Mch. Maittaire). Lond., Tonson, 1711. 12°. 2 voll.

17206 — comœdiæ superstites XX. Ad ultimam edit. J. F. Gronovii accuratissime expressæ. Amst., Wetstein, 1721. 16°.

Previously, ib., id., 1718. 16°.

17207 — comœdiæ superstites XX. et fragmenta deperditar. Ex optimis quibusque editt. ac præcipue F. Taubmanni diligentissime repræsentatæ (cura Ant. et Hi. Vulpiorum). Acc. index. Patav., Jos. Cominus, 1725. 8°.

Very correct. This first Paduan edition is the rarer and more sought after edition, but it does not contain the Querulus, with which the 2nd edition is enlarged.

17208 — comœdiæ. Recensuit et chrestomathia philologica instrux. J. Pt. Miller. Berol., Haude, 1755. 8°. 3 voll.

17209 — comœdiæ quæ supersunt. Par., Barbou, 1759. 12°. 3 voll. Also on Dutch paper.

One of the neatest editions of Barbou's series. Superintended by Capparonnier and Valart.

17210 — quæ supersunt comœdiæ, cum commentario ex varior. notis et observatt. Ex rec. J. F. Gronovii. Acc. ex ejusd. lectt. Plautinis notulæ asterisco notatæ. (Cura Enoci Ch. A. Othonis). Cum præf. J. A. Ernesti. Lps., Georgi, 1760. 8°. 2 voll. (4 d. 16 gr.)

17211 — comœdiæ ex edit. J. F. Gronovii. Glasg., Rb. et And. Foulis, 1763. 8°. 3 voll.

Neat, and scarce on fine paper.

17212 — comœdiæ superstites XX. cum fragmentis deperditar. Quibus access. Querolus, comœdia antiqui auctoris, nec non index (cura fratrum Vulpiorum). Patav., Jos. Cominus, 1764. 8°. 2 voll.

17213 — comœdiæ superstites XX. ad optimas edit. collatæ. Acc. index rarioris et obsoletæ latinitatis. Biponti, 1779–80. 8°. 2 voll.

This first edition, superintended by J. Val. Emser, is in part to be preferred to the following.

17214 — comœdiæ superstites XX. novissime recognitæ et emendatæ (a Rch. Fr. Ph. Brunck). Biponti, 1788. 8°. 3 voll. (3 d. 10 gr., on writing paper 5 d. 10 gr.)

A reprint of the preceding, sometimes even with its very errors. Brunck has made few alterations, and even those unhappily and unmetrically for the most part.

17215 — comœdiæ superstites XX. novissime recognitæ ac notis et ind. verbor. illustratæ (cura Mt. Span). Viennæ, Schrâmbel, 1792–1802. 12°. 7 voll. with plates.

17216 — quæ supersunt comœdiæ ac deperditar. fragmenta. Ad optimor. exemplarium fidem recensita atque procemio, argumentis et ind. rer. instructa a Bj. F. Schmieder. Gött., Dieterich, 1804. 8°. (2 d. 4 gr., on writing paper 3 d. 12 gr., on vellum paper 5 d.) Ejusd. commentarius perpetuus in Pl. comœdias. ib., id., 1805. 8°. (1 d. 8 gr., on writing paper 2 d., on vellum paper 3 d.)

17217 — comœdiæ. In usum elegantior. hominum edid. F. H. Bothe. Berol., Kuhn, 1809–11. 8°. 4 voll. (13 d. 12 gr.)

17218 — fragmenta inedita. Item ad P. Terentium commentatt. et picturæ ineditæ, inventore Ang. Majo. Mediol., regiis typis, 1815. 8°. Also in 4°. on vellum paper, with 2 plates.

A reprint in F. Osann Analecta crit. poesis Romanor. scenicae reliquias illustrantia. Insunt Plauti fragm. ab Ang. Majo nuper reperta. Berol., Dümmler, 1816. 8°. (1 d. 6 gr.)

17222 — comœdiæ V. a mendis purgatæ, ac numeris suis, quo ad ejus fieri potuit, restitutæ, quibus addidimus Trinumnum. Capteivei. Aulularia. Miles. Menæchmei. Mostellaria. Trinummus. Magdeb., Ch. Rodingerus, 1542. 8°.

Previously, Magd., Mch. Lotther, 1536. 8°. According to G. Major's preface, it appears that Wfg. Jacobus was the real editor. At the same time however the edition is generally attributed to J. Camerarius.

17223<sup>a</sup> — comœdiæ IV. selectæ, Amphitr., Captivi, Epidicus, Rudens, cum interpr. et notis, quas in us. Delph. edid. Jac. Operarius. Selegit, recens., indiceque adjecto scholis aptavit Sm. Patrick. Lond. 1724. 8°.

17223<sup>b</sup> — comœdiæ III. Captivi,

Sydel's edition had appeared, Arg. 1537. 4°.

17226 — Aulularia plautina. comedia<sup>4</sup> lepidissima. que etsi al's incomplexa. a Codro Urceo tamē est perfecta. cū familiari explanatōne. Coloniae, opera honestor. libror. Quentell, without date (1502–17). 4°. Gothic letter.

28 leaves, with the signatures a–e. Not noticed in Panzer. Albiburgi, Viridimontanus, 1509. 4°. and Arg., Prüss, without date, 4°. have exactly the same contents as this edition, excepting that these two editions do not contain the small poem of Politian, which is mentioned in the title of Quentell's edition. The editions, Arg. Schurer, 1511 or 14. 4°. contain indeed the same text and commentary, but only the poems of Hiso and Philesius out of those which are prefixed to Quentell's edition.

17227 — Aulularia emendatius edita, commentariis illustrata stud. Ant. Benedicti. Acced. ejusd. animadvv. crit. Romae, Salomoni, 1754. 8°.

Benedictus has made use of MSS. and old editions.

17228 — Captivi et Menæchmi. E rec. Gronovii cum varietate lect. et notis perpetuis in us. scholar. accommodavit C. Adf. Menzel. Vratisl., Holäuffer, 1811. 8°. (16 gr.)

17234 — Rudens, ad editt. antiquar. fidem, tum ad criticor. emendatt. et ad metricæ legis normam passim reficta. Edid. F. Volg. Reiz. Lps., Schwickert, 1789. 8°. (7 gr.)

17235 — Trinummus. Rec. et præfatus est Gf. Hermannus. Lps., Fleischer, 1800. 8°. (12 gr., on writing paper 1 d.)

17236 — Querolus antiqua comœdia, nunquam antehac edita, quæ in vetusto cod. MS. Plauti Aulularia inscribitur, nunc prim. a Pt. Daniele luce donata et notis illustrata. Par., Rb. Stephanus, 1564. 8°.

The first edition of this piece, whose author is unknown, which is scarce, and fine. That it is not by Plautus, whose name it bears in a MS., is certain; and Pareus, with equal improbability, mentions Gildas as the author. According to Fabricius Bibl. Lat. III. 328, it was written by Vitalis Gallicus, who however perhaps only composed the elegiac paraphrase.

17237 — Querolus s. Aulularia, ad Camerarii codicem vet. denuo collata. Eadem a Vitale Blesensi elegiaco carmine reddita et nunc prim. publicata. Additæ Pt. Danielis, Cr. Rittershusii, Jani Gruteri notæ. Ex typogr. Commelini, 1595. 8°.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, and 114 leaves. This edition, corrected from a good MS., and augmented with the elegiac paraphrase and numerous notes, is also tolerably scarce, and more valuable, though less fine, than the preceding. Afterwards printed under Gildas's name in the 3 editions of Plautus by Pareus, and anonymously (but only after the text of the first edition) in Volpi's edition of Plautus in 1764.

17238 — memoratu digna Plauti dicta ex comœdiis viginti a Bono Ac-curcio collecta et in compendium redacta. Without place or date (1474-76). 4°.

Very scarce, and erroneously attributed by Panzer to Ger. de Lisa's press. 100 leaves with 20 lines, and the signatures A-E and A-H, and in Roman characters. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is a register, and a letter of Accursius to J. Meltius, from which the above title is taken, fills the 3 following pages. Leaf A i begins the extracts from the Amphitryo.

17239 — la comedia de Plauto, intitulada Menechmos, traduc. en lengua castellana. Anvers, Nucio, 1555. 12°.

17240 — commedie, volgarizzate da N. Eug. Angelio, col testo lat. Napoli, 1783-84. 8°. 10 vols.

Also, Ven., N. d' Aristotile, 1530. 8°. — Mustellaria, dal lat. al volgare tradotta per Geronimo Berardo. Ven., N. d' Aristotile, 1530. 8°. — Il Penolo, comedia antica di Plauto nella comune lingua novam. tradotta. Ven., Bindoni e Pasini, 1526. 8°. 17242 — ellibro delbirria edelgieta composto i rima da filippo brunelleschi eda ser domenicho da prato. Without place or date. 4°.

This very scarce first edition, with 24 lines running all across the page, and signatures, but without catchwords and pagination, was printed, according to Vallière and Santander, about 1476; it might however perhaps be the same which, according to Fossi, T. III. p. XXIII., appeared in 1483, from the press of the monastery of S. Jacopo di Ripoli at Florence. There is also mentioned, Geta e Birria, novella tracta dall' Amphitrione di Plauto. Without place or date (Fir. before 1500). 8°. and Ven., Sabio, 1516. 8°. (Consult Paitoni, III. 118). This very scarce expansion of Plautus's comedy of Amphitryo into a romantic poem is by some attributed to Boccaccio (for instance, Marcheselli in the Nuova raccolta d' opusc. T. XX. No. 8, p. 48, who seeks to prove it from a passage in the amorosa visione of Boccaccio); on the contrary, Mazzucchelli, Scritt. d' Ital. vol. II. part. III. p. 1368, and Bandini, Cat. codd. lat. bibl. Laur. V. 193, prove from MSS. that the real authors were Giglio Brunelleschi and Dm. da Prato.

17243 — comédies de Plaute, trad. en franç. par (Anne) Lefèvre avec des remarques et un examen selon les règles du théâtre. Dernière édit. avec l'original latin. Par., Thierry, 1691. 12°. 3 voll.

Containing only the Amphitryo, Rudens, and Epidicus. Previously, Par., Thierry, 1683. 12°. 3 voll. Lyon, Molhu, 1696. 12°. 3 voll.

17244 — les œuvres de Plaute en lat. et en franç. Traduction nouv., avec des remarques et un examen de chaque pièce selon les règles du théâtre, par H. Ph. de Limiers. Amst., compagnie, 1719. 12°. 10 vols. with plates.

The most tolerable of the French translations that have yet appeared. The above 3 pieces are introduced into it from the translation of Lefèvre, and the Captivi from Coste's translation.

17245 — les comédies de Plaute, nouvellem. traduites avec des notes et des reflexions par N. Gueudeville. Leide, van der Aa, 1719. 12°. 10 vols. with plates.

Of no value. The Latin text is not included.—Printed in a new French translation by J. B. Levee, in 8 vols. It forms a part of Théâtre complet des Latins, trad. avec le texte en regard, des notes etc. par Amaury Duval et Alex. Duval (14 vols. in 8°.)

17257 PLINIUS Secundus, Cajus. Historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Ven., J. de Spira, 1469. large fol.

The first edition, very scarce, and very fine. 355 leaves (Dibdin erroneously reckons 352), with 50 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with Suetonius's life of Pliny in 11 lines, which is followed by Pliny's preface to Domitian, ending in the next page. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the table of contents of the work (in 2 columns), which ends in leaf 18<sup>b</sup>. Leaf 19<sup>a</sup> begins the 2nd book, and the first line is, VNDVM ET HOC QVOD NOMINE. On the reverse of the last leaf is a colophon in 6 verses, Quem modo tam rarum cupiens viz lector haberet etc.; and underneath the year, M.CCCC.LXVIII. This edition, not made use of by Harduin, is faithfully printed from a very incorrect and imperfect, but yet not an unimportant codex, and is of critical importance. The Greek words are partly omitted, and partly printed in Latin letters. If the words in the colophon of the Augustinus De civitate dei, by Vindel. de Spira, 1470, qui docuit Venetos exscribi posse Joannes mense fere trino centena volumina Plini, are to be literally understood, it follows from thence that only 100 copies were printed. Probably they are not to be so understood, and in England alone there are at least 10 copies. A copy on vellum in the Imperial library at Vienna, and a second in the Royal library at Paris. One of these two was probably the copy in Classensi monasterio at Ravenna, mentioned by Rezzonico.

17258 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Romæ, Cr. Sueynheym et Arn. Panaratz (sic). 1470. large fol.

The 2nd edition, equally scarce, superintended by bishop Andreas of Aleria from another MS. 375 leaves (according to Brunet, 367 according to Dibdin), with 46 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with a letter of Andreas Alerius to Paul II. which is followed by different notices and testimonies respecting Pliny. Leaf 3<sup>b</sup> begins the 1st book (or Pliny's preface, and the table of contents; the latter in lines running all across the page), and leaf 22<sup>b</sup> the 2nd book. The colophon is on the folio recto of the last leaf. There is a copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris, and another (from the Jacobine monastery at Verona) in lord Spencer's library, by which the opinion hitherto entertained, that these printers had only printed one copy on vellum, is contradicted. The editor's carefulness is vindicated against Perottus's depreciation and Zeno's misconception in Audifredi's Catal. editt. Rom. p. 49. The Greek passages are to be found in this edition.

17259 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Ven., N. Jenson, 1472. large fol.

The third edition, very fine, but not very scarce. 356 leaves (the last blank), with 50 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 2 leaves contain notices and testimonies respecting Pliny, and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, CAIVS PLYNIVS MARCO SVO SALVTEM. Leaf 2<sup>b</sup> is blank. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the 1st book, and leaf 20<sup>a</sup> the 2nd. Leaf 355<sup>a</sup> is the colophon and Andreas Alerius's letter from the preceding edition: after which is a blank leaf. This edition is a reprint of the preceding Roman edition, the faults of which are here corrected, although several spurious passages are inserted either from a codex or by the editor himself. The division into chapters is first to be met with in this edition, although generally ascribed falsely to the next. Copies on vellum in the Angelica, and in the Casanata library at Rome, in the Imperial library at Vienna, in the Royal libraries at Paris (probably the former Lyons copy, which Vallière had for a time) and at London, in the libraries of the duke of Devonshire and of M<sup>c</sup>Carthy (this last, in which the 20th leaf, or the 1st leaf of the 2nd book was on paper, was bought in at 705 fr. and again offered for sale at 1100 fr.). Copies on vellum are also mentioned as being in the Barberini library at Rome, and in the library at Turin.

17260 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Romæ, Sweynheym et Arn. Pannartz, 7 Maji 1473. large fol.

The 4th edition, tolerably scarce, superintended by a certain Brotheus, from a copy most unhappily corrected by Perottus. 397 leaves (according to Fossi, and Baudini Cat. codd. lat. bibl. Laur. III. 190, 400 leaves according to Banks's catalogue), without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 20 leaves, as in the 1st Roman edition, contain the notices and testimonies respecting Pliny, and the 1st book. The table of contents is nevertheless here printed in 2 columns, not in lines running all across the page, as in the 1st Roman edition. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, C. PLYNII SECVNDI NATVRALIS HISTORIÆ LIBER. On the reverse are the 6 well known verses, Aspiciis illustris etc. and underneath the date, M.CCCC.LXXIII. die Veneris. VII. Maii. This edition is far less prized than the first Roman edition.

17261 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. (emendatione Ph. Beroldi, cum ejusd. epistola ad N. Ravacaldum). Parmæ, St. Coral-lus, 1476. large fol.

The 5th edition, not frequently to be met with. 356 leaves (365 in Panzer is a typographical error), with 50 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The internal arrangement of the printing is as in Jenson's edition. First, 2 leaves of notices and testimonies concerning Pliny, of which leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, CAIVS PLYNIUS MARCO SVO SALVTEM. Leaf 2<sup>b</sup> is blank. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the 1st book, and leaf 20<sup>a</sup> the 2nd. Leaf 353<sup>b</sup> is the colophon; after which, on the same page, is Beroaldus's letter, containing some justifications of his corrections, which ends in leaf 356<sup>a</sup>. Jenson's edition forms the basis, corrected by Beroaldus, according to his assertion, partim fidelioribus inspectis Plinianis codicibus, partim veterum scriptorum auctoritate.

- 17262 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Tarvisii, Mch. Manzolus, 8 cal. Sept. 1479. fol.

The 6th edition, fine, and scarce. A reprint of the preceding, enlarged with H. Bononii Apologia pro Plinio.

- 17263 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Parmæ, And. Portilia, id. Febr. 1480. large fol.

The 7th edition. 286 leaves (the 1st blank), with 58 lines, and the signatures a-N. Leaves 2 and 3 contain the notices and testimonies concerning Pliny (leaf 3<sup>b</sup> is blank). Leaf 4<sup>a</sup> begins the 1st book, and leaf 17<sup>a</sup> the 2nd. The entire internal arrangement is the same as in the first Parma edition, of which this is only a less fine reprint, but with the correction of the typographical errors. After the colophon follow Beroaldus's corrections, with the omission of his name and of the beginning of his letter.

- 17264 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Parmæ, And. Portilia, 8 id. Jul. 1481. large fol.

The 8th edition. Only a repetition indeed of the preceding, yet really a different and closer impression, with the correction of the typographical errors. 268 leaves (the first and last blank), with 59 lines, and the signatures a-ss. The notices and testimonies concerning Pliny are compressed into the 2nd leaf. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the 1st book, and leaf 14<sup>a</sup> the 2nd. Leaf 264<sup>b</sup> is the colophon. Leaves 265 and 266 Beroaldus's corrections (also without his name), and leaf 267<sup>a</sup> a register. The following are only reprints of this edition: Ven., Rainald. de Noviomagio, 6 Jun. 1483. fol. (very incorrect.) Ven., Marinus Sacerenus, 14 Maji, 1487. fol. 269 leaves with 56 lines. Ven., Th. de Blavis, 3 Nov. 1491. fol.

- 17265 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Ven. 1486. fol.

A copy on vellum is announced in Bibl. Bigotiana, T. I. p. 50, No. 1225, under this date. It is however perhaps a typographical error for 1487 or 96. Or is it to be understood, which is still more probable, as a copy of the Italian translation of 1476?

- 17266 — C. Plinius Secundus De Naturali Hystoria diligentissime Castigatus. Brixie, Ang. et Jac. Britannici, 20 Apr. 1496. fol.

At the beginning are, J. Britannicus's letter to Lucas Tertius, letters by Alex. Benedictus and Mth. Rufus etc. Ven. Bm. de Zanis, 12 Dec. 1496. fol. 242 leaves (the last blank), with 62 lines, and the signatures a-D, has exactly the same title and the same contents.

- 17267 — naturæ historiarum libri XXXVII. e castigationibus Hermol. Barbari quam emendatissime editi. Ven., Bernardin. Benalius, 1497. fol.

Superintended by J. Bt. Palmarius after Barbarus's Castigatt. Plinian. (see above, BARBARUS.) Repeated under the same title, Ven., J. Aluisius de Varisio, 18 Maji, 1499. fol. 268 leaves with 57 lines, and the signatures a-K. Brix., Ang. et Jac. Britannici, id. Febr. 1498. fol. bears also the same title; but this (whilst the above date stands in the title) has at the end the date of 20 Apr. 1496, as in the earlier Brescian edition; it may therefore possibly be that only the new preliminary matter was printed in the year 1498 for the remaining copies of the edition of 1496.

- 17268 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. ab Alex. Benedicto emendatiores redditi. (Ven.), J. Rubeus et Bernardin. fratresque Vercellenses, 16 Jan. 1507. fol.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 280 numbered leaves, and 10 leaves of corrections and index. A new and good recension after a MS., with the addition of various readings, and an index. Also, Ven., Mch. Sessa, 1513. fol. Ven., Ph. Pin-cius, 1516. fol.

- 17269 — historiæ naturalis libri, ab Alex. Benedicto emendatiores redditi. Without place or printer's name (Lugd.), 1510. 8°. 2 vols.

This tolerably scarce edition, which is only a reprint of the preceding, and which has been erroneously considered sometimes as a Verona production, and sometimes as a Juntine, came from the same Lyons press which produced reprints of several Aldines.

- 17270 — naturalis historiæ libri XXXVII. diligenti admodum labore peruigilique cura nuper nec antea in alma Parrhisiorum academia emendatiores impressi atque recogniti. Par., Fr. Regnault per N. de Pratis, 1514. fol.

20 leaves of preliminary matter, and 262 numbered leaves. Previously, Par., N. de Pratis, 1511. fol. Also, ib., id., m. Aug. 1516. fol. ib., J. Macæus typis Pt. Vido-væi, 1524. fol. All these editions have the text of the Venetian edition of 1497 corrected after Barbarus.

- 17271 — naturæ historiarum libri XXXVII. e castigatt. Hermolai Barbari quam emendatissime editi. Adjectus est index J. Camertis. Hagenœ, Th. Anshelmus, m. Nov. 1518. large fol.

286 numbered leaves, and 96 unnumbered leaves of index. A reprint of the Venetian edition of 1497, and only enlarged with the index of Camers, which had previously appeared by itself, Viennæ Austr., Vietor et Singrenius, 1514. 4°. This Hagenau edition is of no value, but the Royal library at Paris possesses a copy on vellum (formerly in Ayala's library). The same text with the same index, Ven., G. de Rusconibus, 1519. fol.; and, with some alterations after the Basle edition of 1525, Ven., Sessa, 1525. fol.

- 17272 — naturalis historiæ opus, ab innumeris mendis a J. Cæsario vindicatum: inventa primum ab eo concinna ratione quadam id opus in septem pemptadas sive quinariorum dispartiendi, adjectisque in singulos argumentis, et breviusculis simul in margine scholiis ab iisdem illustratum. Col. Agr., Euchar. Cervicornus, m. Aug. 1524. fol.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, 311 numbered leaves, 1 blank leaf, and 60 leaves of index. Cæsarius gave, as it appears, a new revision of the text of Barbarus, without MSS. At the same time also appeared an edition, ib., id., 1524. 8°. 4 vols.

- 17273 — divinum opus, cui titulus: Historia mundi, multo quam antehac unquam prodiit emaculatus: idque primum ex annotationibus eruditorum hominum præsertim Hermol. Barbari, deinde ex collationibus exemplarium, quæ hactenus sunt excusa: postremo ex fide vetustissimorum codicum. Additus est index. Bas., J. Frobenius, m. Mart. 1525. fol.

The text of the preceding is here corrected by Erasmus from a (rather faulty) MS.

- 17274 — opus divinum, cui titulus historia naturalis, multo quam antehac unquam prodiit in lucem castigatus, una cum annotatt. Hermolai Barbari. Ac sincero exemplo eruditorum hominum, ex quo nonnulla etiam marginibus adscripta sunt. Adjectus est index. Par., J. Petit, 1526. fol.

This edition, superintended by a certain Angelus, has something of its own from MSS. of the library of S. Victor, and various readings are added in the margin.

- 17275 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. ex postrema ad vetustos codd. collatione cum annotationibus et indice. Bas., ex off. Frobeniana, m. Aug. 1529. fol.

Of this edition, which I find neither in Panzer nor elsewhere, Rezzonico asserts there is a copy in the Ambrosian library.

- 17276 — historia mundi, denuo emendata . . . potissimum adjuti tribus optimæ fidei pervetustis exemplaribus, tum opera cujusdam eruditi, nonnihil etiam Beati Rhemani annotationibus. Adjunctus est index copiosissimus. Bas., Froben, m. Mart. 1530. fol.

Sgm. Gelenius superintended this edition. With respect to the tres codd. MSS. it seems that the statement must not be taken strictly.

- 17277 — historiarum naturæ libri XXXVII. post omnium omnes editiones pluribus in locis feliciter nunc tandem restituti auxilio veterum codicum et hominum doctorum diligentia. His accessit copiosiss. ac fideliss. index. Par., J. Parvus, 1532. fol.

Superintended by Pt. Bellocirius (that is, Danesius) after 2 MSS. It is tolerably scarce, critically important, and greatly prized by Rigaltius, see Claror. Belgar. ad Magliab. Epp. I. 238, 241.

17278 — historia mundi, denuo emendata, non paucis locis ex diligenti ad pervetusta et optimæ fidei exemplaria collatione nunc primum animadversis castigatisque, quemadmodum in Sgm. Gelenii annotationibus operi adnexis apparet. Adjunctus est index copiosissimus. Bas., Froben, m. Mart. 1535. large fol.

18 leaves of preliminary matter, 671 pages of text, 91 unnumbered leaves of annotations and index. This edition contains Gelenius's notes for the first time, of which a separate impression appeared, Par., Tiletanus, 1536. 8°.

17279 — naturalis historiæ prima pars. Ven., her. Aldi et And. Asul., 1536. P. II. ib., iid., 1535. P. III. ib., iid., 1536. Index. ib., Aldus, 1538. 8°. 4 voll.

The 1st vol. has 48 leaves of preliminary matter, and 314 leaves. The 2nd, 303 leaves, and 1 leaf, the anchor. The 3rd, 295 leaves, and 1 leaf, the register and colophon. The index is 251 unnumbered leaves. This edition has nothing peculiar, but fine copies of it are scarce. The index is particularly scarce, and copies without it lose half their value. A copy of the first 3 vols. on large paper in the Magliabechian library. The copies of the 3 vols. of the text with the date, ib., iid., 1540. 8°. are entirely of the same printing, and the date only is different. These are more rarely met with than those of 1536.

17280 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. ex postrema ad vetustos codd. collatione, cum annotatt. (Sgm. Gelenii) et indice. Bas., Froben, 1539. fol.

Lugd., Beringi fratres, 1548. fol. is only a reprint.

17281 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. denuo ad vetustos codd. collati et plurimis locis emendati, ut patet ex adjunctis iterumque auctis Sgm. Gelenii annotatt. In calce operis copiosus index est additus. Bas., Froben, 1549. large fol.

There is, according to Brunet, a copy on vellum of a pretended edition, Bas., Oporinus, 1553. fol. in the Royal library at Paris. This however appears to be a mistake, as this edition is mentioned nowhere else, not even in the lists of the productions of this press which appeared separately.

17282 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. majore, quam hactenus usquam, studio, fide, religione emendati. Adjectis ad marginem succinctis quibusdam castigationibus. Lugd., Frellon, 1553. fol.

Superintended by J. N. Victorius, and not without value. Repeated, Lugd., Vincentius, 1561. fol. Lugd., Frellon, 1563. fol. (very neat) 17283 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. denuo ad vetustos codd. collati et plurimis locis jam iterum post cunctor. editiones emendati, adjunctis Sgm. Gelenii annotatt. In calce operis novus index est additus. Bas., Froben et Episcop., 1554 (at the end, 1555). fol.

The Index is by J. Herold.

17284 — naturalis historiæ libri XXXVII. a P. Manutio multis in locis emendati. Castigatt. Sgm. Gelenii. Index plenissimus. Ven., P. Manutius, 1559. fol.

14 leaves of preliminary matter, 976 columns, 18 leaves of annotations, and 66 leaves of index. An incorrect reprint of the Lyons edition of 1548. Ven., Hi. Scotus, 1571. fol. is another reprint of it.

17285 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. vetustissimor. codicum collatione majore, quam antehac, studio, fide et religione a vitiis vindicati. Lugd., her. Jac. Junctæ, 1561. 12°. 4 voll.

This neat edition was superintended by And. Morguæsius, and has something of its own.

17286 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. a Sgm. Gelenio diligenter castigati majoreque studio quam hactenus unquam a vitiis vindicati. Acc. ad marginem variæ lectt. ac notæ Fer. Pintiani, Adr. Turnebi, Jos. Scaligeri, Justi Lipsii et alior. scriptis excerptæ. Una cum duplici ind. (Lugd. Bat.), Pt. Santandreanus, 1582. fol.

It has something of its own, but was rather cursorily superintended. The index is very complete, and better than that in Harduin's edition. After this edition, Dalechamp's edition having been here and there made use of, is (Genev.), Jac. Stœr, 1593, or 1601, or 1616, 12°. 3 voll.

17287 — historia mundi naturalis, variis imaginibus illustrata atque vero proprioque naturæ nitori restituta. Ff. a. M., Feyerabend, 1582. fol. with woodcuts.

17288 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. Opus . . . nunc ex vetustissimor. excusor. et complurium codicum MSS. collatione et auctoritate detersum ac emendatum. Acc. ad varias lectt. castigationes et adnotationes. Una cum indice copiosissimo. Omnia novissime laboriosis observatt. conquistata et solerti judicio pensitata Jac. Dalecampii. Lugd., Bm. Honoratus, 1587. fol.

A new recension after MSS. and old editions; but the editor's industry was greater than his acuteness. Enlarged and repeated with the annotations of an unknown person (Janus Gruter or J. Mth. Wacker?), Ff. a. M., Feyerabend, 1599. fol. Other repetitions of Dalechamp's edition are, Lugd. (other copies, Col. Allobr.), Caldoriana societas, 1606. fol. Col. Allobr., Sm. Crispinus, 1615. fol. Genev. (other copies, Col. Allobr.), Jac. Crispinus, 1631. fol.

17290 — historiæ mundi libri XXXVII. Cum castigatt. et annotatt. doctiss. et variis præterea lectt. ex MSS. compluribus. Ex noviss. et laboriosiss. edit. Jac. Dalecampii. Cum ind. duplici. Acced. P. Cigalini prælectt. II. de vera patria Plinii etc. Ff., Cl. Marnius, 1608. 8°.

A correct, but not a fine reprint of Dale-champ's edition, with the addition of Cigalinus, which had appeared for the first time, Comi, 1605. 4°.

17291 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. (cura J. de Laet.) LB., ex off. Elzevir., 1635. 12°. 3 voll.

A new and valuable revision of the text, chiefly after Salmasius. The 1st vol. has 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 654 pages, and 9 leaves of index. The 2nd, 631 pages, and 16 pages of index. The 3rd, 582 pages, and 9 leaves of index. This uncommonly neat and greatly sought after edition, the Virgil of 1636, and the Kempis without date, are considered as the masterpieces of this press.

17292 — naturalis historiæ T. I-III. Cum commentariis et adnotatt. Hermol. Barbari, Pintiani, Rhenani, Gelenii, Dalechampii, Scaligeri, Salmasii, Is. Vossii et varior. Acc. præterea variæ lectt. ex MSS. compluribus. Item J. F. Gronovii notarum liber singularis. LB. et Rott., ap. Hackios, 1669. 8°. 3 voll.

Neat and correct, and one of the rarer editions of the series cum notis variorum. It has however nothing of its own except Gronovius's good but short notes. The 2nd and 3rd vols. have the date, 1668.

17293 — naturalis historiæ libri XXXVII. Interpretatione et notis illustrav. J. Harduinus in usum Delphini. Par., Muguet, 1685. 4°. 5 voll.

A new recension after 8 MSS. and many old editions. One of the rarer and better editions of the series in usum Delphini, which is preferred by far to the subsequent editions, although enlarged.

17294 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. quos interpretatione et notis illustrav. J. Harduinus. Ed. II. emendatior et auctior. Par., Coustelier, 1723. fol. 2 parts in 3 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

The greater number of the additions, chiefly exegetical, to this new edition, owing to Harduin's ever increasing love of paradox (which was unsuitable), gain a great preference for this edition over the preceding, whose size is more convenient. There is a map and 11 leaves of coins in it. Copies on large paper are not very scarce. A copy on vellum, 1190 fr. Val-lière, and bought in at M'Carthy's sale at 900 fr., and again offered for sale at 1200 fr. Harduin's faults are censured in the Lettre 1-3 d'un professeur de l'univ. de Paris (J. Bt. L. Crevier) sur le Plin du P. Hardouin. Par. 1725-27. 4°; consult Mém. de Trévoux, 1736. Oct. p. 1904-21. Par. (Bas.) 1741. fol. 3 vols. is a less fine and very incorrect reprint of Harduin's edition.

- 17295 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Acced. chrestomathia indicibus aliquot copiosissimis exposita curante J. Pt. Millero. Berol., Haude et Spener, 1766. 8°. 5 voll.

A neat impression of Harduin's text.

- 17296 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Quos recensuit et notis illustrav. Gbr. Brotier. Par., Barbou, 1779. large 12°. 7 vols. Also on fine paper.

This valuable, neat, and greatly prized edition, which is one of the rarer of Barbou's series, was only the precursor of a larger, which Brotier intended as a companion to his Tacitus. His MS. collections for this purpose in 6 folios, which he left behind him to his family, are now (is it known where?) in other hands, see Chardon Mélanges, III. 61.

- 17297 — naturalis historia cum interpretatione et notis integris J. Harduini, itemque cum commentariis et adnotatt. Hermol. Barbari, Pintiani, Rhenani, Gelenii, Dalechampii, Scaligeri, Salmasii, Is. Vossii, J. F. Gronovii et varior. Recensuit varietatemque lectionis adjecit J. G. F. Franzius. Lps., Sommer, 1788-91. 8°. 10 voll. (18 d.)

Harduin's text forms the basis, with a specification of its deviations from Gronovius's text, and the various readings. Rather carefully compiled, but neither finely nor correctly printed. C. Ch. Wendler superintended the 10th vol. after Franz's death. Only 20-25 copies were struck off on writing paper.

- 17298 — historiæ naturalis libri XXXVII. Ex rec. J. Harduini. Præmittitur notitia literaria. Accedit index. Biponti, 1783-84. 8°. 5 voll. (3 d. 10 gr.)

- 17299 — in libros historiæ naturalis præfatio, quæ primum librum occupat, diligenter doctissimor. viror. judicio recognita, et in veram ac plane Plinianam lectionem restituta. Cracov., Mthi. Scharffenberg, 1527. 4°. Also ib., id., 1529. 4°.

- 17300 — Marini BECICHEMI elegans et docta in Plinium prælectio. Ejusd. Plinii præfatio in libros historiæ naturalis. Ejusd. collectanea in primum Plinii. N. Perotti commentariolus in eundem primum Plinii librum. Corn. Vitellii in eundem primum enarratiuncula. Lutet., Pt. Vidove, 1519. fol.

See above BECICHEMUS.

- 17301 — (Ant. FABRI) in præfationem naturalis historiæ Plinii commentationes. Romæ, Mazochius, 1510. 4°.

Concerning this piece, see Nova Miscell. Lips. VI. 318.

- 17302 — in libros historiæ naturalis præfatio ex emendat. Adr. Turnebi cum ejusd. notis. Par., Vascosanus, 1556. 4°.

- 17303 — historiæ naturalis ad Titum imp. præfatio. Ex MSS. et veteri editione recensuit et notis illustrav. D. Durandus. Lond., Gu. Innys, 1728. 8°.

Of this tolerably scarce and critically important edition copies are met with, sometimes more sometimes less complete, (sometimes of 80, sometimes of 92, sometimes of 136 pages,) because Durand had only parts printed from time to time. At first Pliny's preface only filled 12 pages in Italics, but afterwards the editor gradually joined thereto an accurate reprint of the same from the editio princeps, a French translation with notes, and observations on certain passages of Horace. These last observations are dated 19 Sept. 1734. Consult Barbier Examen Crit. des Dictionn. Histor. I. 280. Brunet saw one such complete copy of 136 pages, which is dated 1738 in the title (by the insertion of an X with a pen), and which was bound up with the same Durand's French translation of the Academica of Cicero of 1740.

- 17304 — Jac. ZIEGLERI in Plinii de naturali historia librum II. commentarius. Item G. Collimitii et Jo. Vadiani in eundem secundum Plinii scholia quædam. Bas., H. Petrus, 1531. small fol.

The text of the 2nd book is included. Critically important, and only cursorily made use of by Harduin.

17305 — liber II. de mundi historia cum commentariis Jac. Milichii, postremo ab autore recognitis et multis in locis auctis. Ff., Pt. Brubach, 1553 or 63. 4°.

At first, Haganoæ, Pt. Brubach, 1535. 4°. Concerning the editions, see (Beckmann) Vorrath Kleiner Anmerk. I. 17 sq. Melancthon had a great share in this production, see Strobel neue Beitr. I. 166. The last edition, which differs from that of 1563, only by division into more sections, has the title, Plinii liber II. de mundi historia cum commentario Jac. Milichii recognito, aucto et a mendis repurgato op. et stud. Bm. Schönbornii. Lps., Steinman, 1573. 4°.

17306 — liber VII. naturalis historiæ seorsim impressus et emendatus perquam diligenter (cura Jo. Vadiani). Viennæ, J. Singrenius, 1515. 4°.

Repeated, ib., ib., 1519. 4°.

17307 — liber VII. per Gilb. Ducherium ad Hermol. Barbari et Beati Rhenani castigationes maximeque ad collationem veteris exemplaris Victorianorum restitutus. Par., Calvarin, 1527. 8°.

Panzer, VIII. 107, has the title thus.

17308 — liber VIII. naturalis historiæ. Seorsum impressus et emendatus perquam diligenter. Viennæ, J. Singrenius, 1522. 4°.

17309 — naturalis historiæ libri duo, IX. et XXXII. De aquatiliu natura, et medicinis ex aquatilibus. Commentarii in librum priorem, ex omnibus fere tum græcis tum lat. authoribus collecti omniumque pene marium longa navigatione observati, Fr. Massario authore. (Acc. Ovidii halieutica). Par., Mch. Vascosanus, 1542. 4°.

41 leaves of text, and then 4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 136 pages of commentary. This last first appeared without the text of Pliny with the following title, Fr. Massarii in nonum Plinii de naturali historia librum castigat. et annotat. Bas., Froben, 1537. 4°. — See also OPIANUS, No. 15150.

17310 — historiæ naturalis libri IX. de aquatiliu natura. Recensuit, variis lectt., propriis castigationibus amplissimisque commentariis instruxit Lr. Thdr. Gronovius. LB., Haak et Luchtman, 1778. large 8°.

17311 — naturalis historiæ liber XXIX. medico commentario distinctus ac illustratus per Anselmum Ephorinum. Cracov., Hi. Vietor, 1530. 4°.

17312 — histoire naturelle de l'or et de l'argent, extraite de Pline, livre XXXIII. Avec le texte latin, corrigé sur les MSS. de Vossius et sur la prém. édition, et éclairci par des remarques nouvelles, outre celles de J. F. Gronovius, et un poëme sur la chute de l'homme et sur les ravages de l'or et de l'argent. Par. D. Durand. Lond., Bowyer, 1729. fol. Also on large paper.

17313 — histoire de la peinture ancienne, extraite de l'hist. nat. de Pline, liv. XXXV. Avec le texte latin, corrigé sur les MSS. de Vossius et sur la prém. édit. de Venise, et éclairci par des remarques nouvelles (par D. Durand). Lond., Bowyer, 1725. fol. Also on large paper.

Besides the title-plate, there ought to be a plate in p. 265. There is a copy corrected and enlarged in MS. by Durand himself. Both works are prized and scarce. Durand also intended in 1725 to publish a Hist. de la sculpture from Pliny, which however never appeared.

17314 — historia natural de Cayo Plinio Segundo. Traducida por Geronimo de Huerta y ampliada por el mismo, con escolios y anotaciones. T. I. Madr., L. Sanchez, 1624 (new title, ib., Gonzalez, 1629). T. II. ib., J. Gonzalez, 1629. fol. 2 vols. with woodcuts.

The only edition of this prized translation, and very scarce. There had previously appeared by itself, Libro nono de C. Plinio Sec. de la historia natural de los pescados, trad. por Geron. de Huerta. Madr. 1603. 4°.

- 17315 — historia naturale di C. Plinio Secondo tradotta di lingua latina in fiorentina per Cp. Landino. Ven., N. Janson (sic), 1476. large fol.

415 leaves (the 1st and 60th blank), with 50 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition of this translation, since a pretended Roman edition of 1473 is a nonentity. There are copies in which the superscription of the 43rd chapter of the 8th book has Asine (instead of Asini), and the end of leaf 5<sup>a</sup> of the 10th chapter in the 28th book has et el terro di (instead of et el terxo di). The following copies on vellum are known: In the Royal Library at Paris (Dibdin's Tour, II. 273); lord Spencer's (previously Gaignat 790 fr., Vallière 780 fr., bought in at M'Carthy's sale for 605 fr., and again offered for sale at 900 fr., after which it came into lord Spencer's possession, see Dibdin's Decam. III. 396); Mr. Coke's of Holkham in England (Bibl. Spenc. II. 262), in the Royal library at Madrid; a defective copy, Vallière 360 fr.

The following editions are not sought after: Ven., Ph. Venetus, 1481. fol. Ven., Bm. de Zani, 12 Sept. 1489. fol. Ven., Ubertino da Vercelli, 1501. fol. Ven., Sessa, 1511, or 16, or 34. fol. Ven., Tamm. de Ternengo, 1534. 4°. (not in 8°.) But the last edition, corretta per Ant. Brucioli. Ven., Jolito, 1543. 4°. is prized, although the pretended correction is only an empty pretext.

17326 — Pliny's historie of the world, commonly called the naturall history of C. Plinius Secundus. Translated into English by Philemon Holland. Lond. 1601 or 34. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

17327 — Fredenandi PINTIANI observatt. in loca obscura historiae naturalis Plinii. Salmanticæ, 1544. fol. Enlarged, Antw., Nutius, 1547. 8°.

In the 1st vol. before p. 126 there ought to be a portrait of Pliny, and before the dedication of the 2nd vol. another portrait. A 3rd vol. which was to have treated de interpretibus Plinii, did not appear. The work contains much that is good, but it is intolerably prolix, and written often in an ungrammatical style.—Concerning a MS., Roberti Canuti Crikeladensis defloratt. historia natur. Plinii, see Reimmanni Bibl. hist. Litt. p. 819 sq. See also Hermol. BARBARUS, GUILANDINUS, SOLINUS.

17329 PLINIUS Secundus Cæcilius, Cajus. Epistolar. libri VIII. (curav. L. Carbo). Without place or printer's name (Ven., Valdarfer). 1471. large 4°.

The first edition. 121 leaves (122 according to Dibdin), with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A letter of the editor fills the 1st leaf, which is often wanting, and the 1st line of the 1st page is, Lodouicus Carbo Sal. Phu. Dicit. Illustrissimo. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the text, and the 1st line is, Caii Plinii Secundi Novicomensis Oratoris. The colophon is on the reverse of the last leaf. Spaces are left for the Greek passages.

17330 — epistolar. libri IX. Without place or date (Romæ, J. Schurerer de Bopardia, about 1474). 4°.

With 29 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The 1st line is, C. Plinii secundi Veronensis Oratoris clarissimi. At the end is, Cai. Plinii Secundi Nepotis Epistolarum Liber explicit Finis. Laus Deo. To which was joined by a contemporaneous hand in a copy seen by Audiffredi (Cat. Rom. edit. p. 164), 1. 4. 7. IIIIo. Sedente Xysto. pon. max. eius anno Tertio: KL. Junius. ROME: IN HOSPITIO SANCTIS DE PIRETO: if: Quinterniones XIII. Cart. V. Papal. This edition, in which the Greek passages are also wanting, is the first which contains 9 books. But what in this and in the editions of 1476 and 1490 is the 9th book, in the later editions is the 8th, and the 8th is the 9th.

17331 — epistolar. libri IX. (ex recognit. Juniani Maji). Neap., Mthi. Moravus, m. Jul. 1476. small fol.

108 leaves with 30 lines and signatures. On the reverse of the 1st leaf (the folio recto is blank) is a letter of Jun. Majus to Hi. Carrafa; and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, DE PVBLICATIONE EPISTOLARVM. The colophon is on the folio recto of the last leaf.

17332 — epistolar. libri VIII. Mediol., Ph. Lavagnia, 4 cal. Mart. 1478. fol.

17333 — epistolar. libri VIII. Tarvisii, J. Vercellius, 1483. 4°.

92 leaves (the 1st blank), with 33 lines, and the signatures a-m.

17334 — epistolæ, panegyricus et liber illustrium viror. Ven. 14 Jan. 1485. 4°.

17335 — epistolar. libri IX. Romæ, Euchar. Silber, 14 cal. Apr. 1490. small 4°.

148 leaves, with the signatures a-a. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> begins with a letter of Pomp. Lætus to Vasinus Gamberia. After the colophon are 2 leaves of errata and the register. A new recension from MSS. with the Greek passages filled up.

17336 — epistolar. libri VIII. panegyricus et liber de viris illustribus. Without place or date (Ven., Ant. Moretus, about 1495). 4°.

108 leaves (2 of which are blank), with 38 lines, and the signatures a-n and A-C. On the folio recto of the last leaf is, Marcelli Philoxeni ad Antonium Moretum Epigramma. In every respect only a reprint of an earlier text.

17337 — epistolar. libri VIII. panegyricus et de viris illustribus liber. Without place or date. 4°.

With 38 lines, and the signatures a-o and A-B, without pagination. The 1st leaf is blank, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, C. PLINII SECVNDI NOVOCOMENSIS ORATO. On the reverse of 06 after the panegyric is a table of contents or title of the book, after which the liber de viris illustr. follows. It is this edition which Ernesti erroneously considered as the oldest. Rewiczky bought his copy, which wanted the liber de viris illustr. for 11 d. 16 gr. and it is now in lord Spencer's library (Bibl. Spenc. II. 268). I think it was printed at Venice about 1499 by the same Bernardinus Venetus, who about the same time published also the Panegyrici: see PANEGYRICI, No. 15744.

A pretended edition of a selection of Pliny's letters, Ox., apud F. Corsellis, 1469. 4°. Gothic letter, is only a cheat, and the date is added to it in writing. The printing belongs to R. Pafraet of Deventer, and is undated. Consult Dibdin Bibl. Spenc. II. 271. Clement Bibl. cur. IX. 380 not.

17338 — epistole per Ph. Beroaldum correcte. Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 14 cal. Nov. 1498. 4°.

140 leaves, with the signatures a-s, and 27 lines. Thereto belong, Plinii ad Trajanum et Trajani ad Plinium epistolæ. Plinii panegyricus. Bon., Bd. Hectoris, 24 Jan. 1502. 4°.

17339 — epistolæ per Ph. Beroaldum emendatæ, et unus adjectus est liber (IX.) qui in aliis supra impressis minime continebatur: etiam ejusdem auctoris panegyricus et de viris illust. libellus. Ven., Albertin. Vercellensis, 20 Apr. 1501. 4°.

17340 — epistolar. libri IX. Libellus epistolar. ad Trajanum cum re-scriptis ejusd. principis. Panegyricus Trajano dictus cum enarratt. J. Mar. Catanæi. Mediol., Alex. Minutianus, 14 cal. Febr. 1506. fol.

2 leaves of preliminary matter, 228 numbered leaves, and 6 leaves, index and errata. The first edition of this commentary, and VOL. III.

scarce, but incorrectly printed. Repeated, Ven., fratres de Lisona, 1510. fol. Ven., J. Rubens, 1519. fol. is sometimes altered after the Aldine; and, Par., J. Bad. Ascensius, 1533. fol. has some new alterations.

17341 — epistolar. libri X. Ejusd. de viris illustribus. Suetonii de claris grammaticis et rhetorib. Julii Obsequentis prodigior. liber. Ven., Aldus et And. Asul., m. Nov. 1508. 8°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter (the last blank), 525 pages, and 1 leaf with the anchor. A new recension from a MS. Arg., ex ædd. Schurer, 1514. 4°. 4 and 108 leaves is a reprint of the epistles after Aldus's text, superintended by Beat. Rhenanus.

17342 — epistolæ, omnium quæ hactenus prodire purgatissimæ. Ejusd. panegyricus Trajano dictus. Ejusd. de viris illustr. etc. Suetonii de claris grammat. et rhetorib. Junii (sic) Obsequentis prodigior. liber. Flor., Ph. Junta, m. Oct. 1515. 8°.

Superintended by J. Fr. Zeffus, and seldom deviating from the Aldine text.

17343 — epistolar. libri X. etc. (as in No. 17341). Ven., Aldus et And. Asul., m. Jun. 1518. 8°.

28 leaves of preliminary matter (the last 2 blank), 525 pages, and 1 leaf with the anchor. A reprint of the edition of 1508 with the same preface. The following are impressions of it: Bas., Ant. Cratander, 1521 or 26. 8°: Antw., Vorstermann, 1523. 8°. Lugd., Ant. Blanchard, 1527. 8°. Par., Rb. Stephanus, 1529. 8°.

17344 — epistolar. libri X. ad exemplar. MS. Rdf. Agricolæ diligentissime recogniti. Panegyricus Trajano Cæs. dictus. Et is ad vetustissimum exemplar emendatus. De viris illustribus. Suetonii liber de claris gramm. et rhet. Item Julii Obseq. prodigior. liber. Indices duo. Bas., And. Cratander, 1530. 8°.

Aldus's text corrected by J. Sichard from a good MS. Antw., Mt. Cæsar, 1532. 8°. Bas., hered. And. Cratandri, 1542. 8°. Lugd., Sb. Gryphius, 1531 and 39. 8°. have the same text. But, Lugd., Sb. Gryph., 1542. 8°. has a text frequently corrected.

17345 — epistolar. libri X. una cum ejusd. panegyrica oratione Trajano dicta: quæ omnia J. Mar. Catanæi commentariis, hucusque depravatis- sime editis, nunc autem integritati suæ restitutis, explicata sunt. E- jusd. de viris illustribus liber, Cr. Lycosthenis enarrationib. illustra- tus. Bas., Froben et Episcop., 1552. fol.

This edition is correct, and has some- thing of its own.

17346 — epistolæ. Par., Richerius, 1588. In Plinii epistolar. libros X. notæ et observatt. auctore Cl. Minoe. ib., id., 1588. 12°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

Scarce. Enlarged with addition of notes by Casaubon, Par., Micard, 1598. 12°. ib., Buon, 1608. 12°.

17347 — epistolar. libri IX. Ejusd. et Trajani epistolæ amœbææ. E- jusd. Plinii et Pacati, Mamertini, Nazarii panegyrici. Item Claudi- ani panegyrici. Adjunctæ sunt Is. Casauboni notæ in epist. Excud. H. Steph., 1591. 12°.

The text is corrected (more in the letters than in the panegyric), and the various readings of other editions are added. Also, without place (ap. eund.), 1604. 12°. of which the edition, without place (ap. eund.), 1606. 12°. is only a new title.

17348 — epistolar. libri X. Pane- gyricus Trajano dictus. Cum com- mentariis J. Mar. Catanæi. Multis epistolis cum illar. interpretatione adjectis. Adjecti sunt alii, ad alios Cæsares, Panegyrici, ad fidem ve-usti exemplaris emendati. Excud. P. Stephanus, 1600. 4°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 646 pages, 18 leaves, 151 and 168 pages. It contains little peculiar. Repeated, Genev. 1625. 4°. and, ib., Chouet, 1643 and 71. 4°.

17349 — epistolar. libri X. et pane- gyricus. Accedunt variantes lectt. LB., ex off. Elsevirior., 1640. 12.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 414 pages, and 14 leaves of index. The pagi- nation skips from 289 to 300. Correct and fine. A selection of the best various readings is added at the end. The two following editions are not so fine.

17350 — epistolæ et panegyricus. Editio nova. M. Zuer. Boxhorni- us recensuit et passim emendav. LB., J. et Dn. Elsevier, 1653. 12°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 404 pages, and 14 leaves of index. A new revision of the text, without MSS.; as to the rest, it accords page for page with the preceding. The unaltered repetition, Amst., ex off. Elsevir., 1659. 12°. to which the same collation will apply, stands at the same price.

17351 — epistolar. libri X. Notis integris Casauboni, Stephani, Bar- thii, Gruteri, Buchneri, Gronovii selectissimisque alior. illustrati et recensiti a J. Veenhusio. LB. et Rot., ex off. Hack., 1669. 8°.

Cellarius's text, 3 MSS. and other colla- tions having been made use of, with short notes.

17355 — epistolæ. Lond., Tonson, 1722. 12°.

This edition has erroneously been as- cribed to Maittaire. London, Tonson, 1741. 12°. is not so good.

17356 — epistolar. libros X. cum notis selectis varior. recensuerunt suisque animadversionib. illustrar. Gli. Cortius et P. Dn. Longolius. Amst., Janssonio-Waesbergii, 1734. 4°.

A good edition, so far as it proceeds from Cortius, who died at about the first third of the 10th book. Yet a certain superficialness in the whole book is easily discovered, and the apparatus made use of is not complete.

- 17357 — epistolæ et panegyricus. Ed. nova. Recensuit et notis illustrav. J. N. Lallemand. Par., Desaint et Saillant, 1749. 12°.

17388 a — natural history of Staffordshire. Oxf., 1686. fol. with 37 plates.

Each of these works is sold in England for about 3 guineas, and for double that price on large paper.

17388<sup>b</sup> PLOTINUS. Operum philosophicor. omnium libri LIV. in sex enneades distributi, ex antiquiss. codicum fide nunc prim. græce editi, cum lat. Marsilii Ficini interpretat. et commentatione. Bas., ad Pernæam Lecythum, 1580. fol.

18 leaves of preliminary matter, 771 pages, and 22 leaves, index and printer's symbol. The first and only edition of his entire works from 4 MSS.: the editor is unknown. It is tolerably scarce, but very incorrectly printed.

17389 — — Bas., L. Regis, 1615. fol.

The same edition as the preceding, only with a new title, and 6 leaves reprinted.

17390 — liber de pulchritudine (gr. et lat.) Ad codicum fidem emendav., annotationem perpetuam, interjectis Dn. Wytttenbachii notis epistolamque ad eundem ac præparationem cum ad hunc librum tum ad reliquos adjecit F. Creuzer. que lectiones Platonice ex codd. MSS. Heidelb., Mohr et Zimmer, 1814. 8°. (3 d. 8 gr., on vellum paper 5 d.)

17391 — opera omnia lat., interprete Marsilio Ficino. Flor., Ant. Miscominus, nonis Maji 1492. fol.

440 leaves with 45 lines, and the signatures a-uu; and 2 leaves besides at the end after the colophon, without a signature, Emendatio in Plotinum. The first edition of this translation and fine. A copy on vellum in the Magliabechian library at Florence, the duke of Cassano-Serra possessed a second, a third in the Royal library at Paris (bought at M'Carthy's sale for 1020 fr.), and a fourth in the Laurentian library (see Bandini Cat. codd. lat. bibl. Laur. III. 195). Repeated, Salingiaci, Soler, 1540. fol. and Bas., Pt. Perna, 1559. fol.

17392 — die Enneaden des Plotinus übs. mit Anmerk. von J. G. V. Engelhardt. 1. Abth. Erl., Palm, 1820. 8°. (2 d.) Plotinus von der Natur, von der Betrachtung u. von dem Einen, mit einer Einleit. u. Anmerk. von F. Creuzer, in Daub u. Creuzer's Studien B. I.

17393 — concerning the beautiful, or a paraphrased translation from the Greek of Plotinus. Ennead I. Book VI. By Th. Taylor. Lond., Payne, 1787. 8°. (1s. 6d.) Five books of Plotinus, viz. on felicity, on evil, on providence etc. translated by Th. Taylor. Lond. 1794. 8°. Select works of Plotinus, with extracts from the treatise of Synesius on providence, by Th. Taylor. Lond., Black, 1817. 8°. (18s.)

Notwithstanding the title, the following work has no relation to Plotinus; G. Ant. Heigl die Plotin. Physik. Landsh. 1815. 8°. (18 gr.)

17394 PLOUCQUET, Gu. Gf. Literatura medica digesta s. repertorium medicinæ practicæ, chirurgiæ atque artis obstetriciæ. Tubing., Cotta, 1808-9. large 4°. 4 voll. (27 d. 12 gr.) Continuatio et supplement. I. ib., Osiander, 1814. large 4°. (3 d. 8 gr.)

This second edition is more convenient for use than the first which appeared under the title Initia biblioth. medico-practicæ et chirurg. realis. Tub., Cotta, 1793-97. 4°. 8 voll. (37 d. 8 gr.) Supplem. ib. 1799-1803. 4°. 4 voll. (18 d. 22 gr.)

17395 PLUKENET, Ln. Phytographia s. stirpium illustrium et minus cognitar. icones. Lond. 1691-96. small fol. 3 vols. with 328 numbered plates.—Almagestum botanicum. Lond. 1696. small fol.—Almagesti botanici mantissa. Lond. 1700. small fol. plates 329-350.—Amaltheum botanicum. Lond. 1705. small fol. plates 351-454.

These 4 articles form a collection of Plukenet's works. In some copies of this first edition, which is prized on account of the first impression of the plates, a printed title of 1720 is prefixed to the 1st vol.

17396 — opera botanica. Lond., Davies, 1769. large 4°. 6 parts in 4 vols. with the same plates.

This edition is prized on account of the index, which is added to it. In addition also, P. Dt. Giseke Index Linnaeanus in Pluk. opp. botanica. Hamb., Bohn, 1779. large 4°.

17397 PLUMIER, Charl. Description des plantes de l'Amérique avec leurs figures. Par., impr. roy., 1693. fol. with 108 plates.

Scarce. The first 50 plates are also in his Traité des fougères. There are also copies with illuminated plates, and copies with the date of 1713.

17398 — nova plantar. Americanar. genera. Par., Boudot, 1703. 4°. with 40 plates.

17399 — plantar. Americanar. fasciculi X. continentes plantas, quas olim C. Plumierius detexit eruitque, atque in insulis Antillis ipse depinxit. Has primum in lucem edid., descriptionib. et observationib., æneisque tabulis illustrav. J. Burmannus. Amst., Schouten, 1755-60. fol. 10 parts in 1 vol. with 1 portrait, 1 woodcut, and 262 plates.

17400 — filicetum Americanum s. filicum, polypodior., adiantor. etc. in America nascentium icones. Par., typ. reg. 1703. large fol.

This work contains 222 plates without any text, with a Latin title.

17401 — traité des fougères de l'Amérique. Par., impr. roy., 1705. large fol.

Scarcer than the Plantes de l'Amérique, with which it is usually found. There are commonly only 172 plates with text in this edition, yet are there also copies which contain the 222 plates of the preceding edition.

17402 — l'art de tourner ou de faire en perfection toutes sortes d'ouvrages de tour. Par. 1749. fol. with 80 plates.

The edition, Lyon, 1701. fol. which has only 10 parts (instead of 12) and 60 plates, is less prized. Also, Par. 1706. fol. Plumier's MSS. have been in the Royal library at Paris since 1767.

17403 PLUTARCH, the British, containing the lives of the most eminent persons of Great-Britain and Ireland, from the accession of Henry VIII. to the present time. New edit. re-arranged and enriched by Fr. Wrangham. Lond. 1816. 8°. 6 vols. (3l. 12s.)

Of the earlier editions a good one is, Lond., Dilly, 1791. 8°. 8 voll. In German (by Hans E. von Teubern and P. G. Lindner), Züllich. 1764-68. 8°. 6 voll. (5 d.) A 7th vol. (translated by J. G. Ch. Fick). ib. 1794. 8°. (1 d. 14 gr.)

17404 PLUTARCHUS. Opuscula LXXXII. (moralia, gr.) Ven., Aldus et And. Asul., m. Mart. 1509. fol.

The first edition, scarce, and sought after; 8 (not 16) leaves of preliminary matter, 1050 pages, and 1 leaf with the anchor. Demetrius Ducas took part in this edition, which was prepared after Besarion's MSS., but is very incorrect. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris.

17405 — quæ vocantur parallela. Hoc est vitæ illustrium viror. græci nominis ac latini, prout quæque alteri convenire videbatur, digestæ (gr.) Ven., Aldus et And. socer, m. Aug. 1519. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter (one blank), 345 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf with the colophon. This edition, prepared from MSS., is indeed on the whole more correct and complete than the Juntine of 1517, yet some of the readings of this latter are preferable to those in the Aldine. From the reasons stated by Reiske in the preface to the first part of his edition, p. XXIV. there appear to have been either two different impressions, or copies of the Aldine in which separate sheets were reprinted, and more correct readings introduced into the corrupt passages. At the same time, notwithstanding a careful collation of all, no difference has been discovered by any one except Bryan.

As to the rest, both the above vols. belong to each other, but are seldom found together.

17406 — quæ exstant opera, cum lat. interpretatione. Ex vetustis codd. plurima nunc prim. emendata sunt, ut ex H. Stephani annotatt. intelliges: quibus et suam quorundam libellor. interpretationem adjunxit. Æmylii Probi de vita excellentium imperator. liber. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1572. 8°. 13 voll.

A fine and correct edition, and sought after when in good preservation. The division is as follows: Voll. I-III. Moralium, T. 1-3 (16 pages of preliminary matter, and 2101 pages, the pagination running throughout). Voll. IV-VI. Vitarum, T. 1-3 (1923 pages). Voll. VII-IX. Opuscula varia ex diversor. interpretatt. T. 1-3 (7th vol. 8 pages of preliminary matter and 731 pages, 8th vol. 683 pages, 9th vol. 695 and 216 pages). Voll. X-XII. Vitæ ex interpr. Cruserii, T. 1-3 (10th vol. 16 pages of preliminary matter and 506 pages, 11th vol. 552 pages, 12th vol. 621 pages and 66 unnumbered leaves of index). Vol. XIII. Vitarum comparatarum appendix (467 pages). This last vol., the most important on account of the notes, is often wanting, and then the price of a copy is much less. Only a copy of the 6 vols. of the Greek text is known on large paper. A new but somewhat hasty recension, from conjecture and the collation of others, and, as it appears, without personal use of MSS., in which as much is altered happily as unhappily. The Aldine text forms the basis.

17407 — quæ exstant omnia, cum lat. interpr. Hm. Cruserii, Gu. Xylandri, et doctor. viror. notis, et libellis variantium lectionum ex MSS. codd. collectarum et indicibus accuratis. Ff., And. Wechelii heredes, 1599. fol. 2 voll.

The 1st vol. has 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 1076 pages of text, 114 pages of notes, and 16 leaves of index with the printer's symbol. The 2nd vol. (with only a half-title), 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 1147 pages of text, 56 and 80 pages of notes, and 17 leaves of index. Stephens's text (sometimes altered) with addition of various readings from MSS. and earlier editions, which however are neither stated completely nor accurately, and are rather faultily printed. Lamprias de scriptis Plutarchi (edited at first by D. Hoeschel, AV., ad insigne pinus, 1597. 4°. 12 leaves) is prefixed. A copy on large paper, 56 fr. Soubise.

- 17408 — quæ exstant omnia, cum lat. interpr. Hm. Cruserii, Gu. Xylandri. Acced. nunc prim. libellus ejusd. de fluvior. montiumque nominibus, cum vers. Maussaci et doctor. viror. notis, et libellis variantium lectionum ex MSS. codd. collectar. et indicibus accuratis. Ff., in offic. Aubrior., 1620. fol. 2 voll.

The 1st vol. has 22 leaves of preliminary matter, 1076 pages of text, 114 pages of notes, and 16 leaves of index. The 2nd vol. 4 leaves of preliminary matter, 1164 pages of text, 72 and 80 pages of notes, and 17 leaves of index. Merely a repetition of the preceding edition (yet really a reprint) with addition of the book De fluviorum etc. nominibus.

- 17409 — omnia quæ exstant opera. Cum lat. interpr. Cruserii et Xylandri, et doctor. viror. notis, et libellis variantium lectionum ex MSS. codd. collectar., et indicibus accuratiss. Ejusd. Plutarchi liber de fluvior. montiumque nominibus antehac non editus, cum vers. et notis Maussaci. Acc. nunc prim. Plutarchi vita a J. Rualdo collecta. Ejusd. Rualdi animadvv. ad insignia Plutarchi σφαλματα. Lut. Par., typis regiis, 1624. fol. 2 voll. Scarce on large paper.

The first vol. has 42 pages of preliminary matter (a plate to the dedication), 1 half-title, 1076 pages of text, 114 pages of notes, and 22 leaves of index. Then Vita Plut. with 1 half title, 150 pages, and 4 leaves of index. The 2nd vol. 4 leaves of preliminary matter (a portrait to the dedication), 1163 pages of text, 84 pages of notes, 80 pages varr. lectt. (in which the pagination 1-12 is wanting), and 24 leaves of index. This well printed edition, tolerably sought after by collectors, but not very correct, is a repetition of the preceding, with which it accords in the pagination, but deviates from it by frequent alterations in the text and translation. There are said to be copies with a new title, LB., Elsevier, 1655.

- 17410 — quæ supersunt omnia, gr. et lat. Principibus ex editt. castigavit, virorumque doctor. suisque annotatt. instruxit J. Jac. Reiske. Lps., Georgi, 1774-82. 8°. 12 voll. (40 d.)

A partly new revision of the text (yet without MSS.). But Reiske died even before the completion of the lives, and the publisher had the rest printed after earlier editions.

- 17411 — quæ supersunt omnia (gr.), cum adnotatt. varior. adjectaque lectionis diversitate, op. J. G. Hutten. Tub., Cotta, 1791-1805. 8°. 14 voll. (19 d.)

Not very correct. To this and the preceding may be joined: A. Hm. L. Heeren De fontibus et auctoritate vitar. parallelar. Plutarchi commentatt. IV. Gött., Dieterich, 1820. 8°. (18 gr.)

- 17412 — paralellum (sic), vitæ Romanor. et Græcor. Quadraginta nouem (gr.) Flor., Ph. Junta, 27 Aug. 1517. fol.

344 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf with the printer's symbol. The first edition of the lives, printed from a MS. of Marcellus Vergilius, who also seems to have superintended the printing. Although rather faulty, yet does it contain many good readings and traces of the genuine text, and has been too much neglected owing to Aldus's and Stephens's editions. Its original price was 2 ducats, see J. Heumannii documenta litt. Altorf. 1758. 8°. p. 324.

- 17413 — quæ vocantur parallela: hoc est, vitæ illustrium, viror. græci nominis ac latini, accuratius quam antehac unquam digestæ (gr., cum præf. Sim. Grynæi). Bas., J. Bebel, 1530. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 369 numbered leaves. Aldus's text, with some alterations from conjecture, as it appears.

- 17414 — quæ vocantur parallela, h. e. vitæ illustrium viror. græci nominis ac latini, accuratius quam antehac unquam digestæ et castigatæ (gr.) Bas., Froben et Episcop., 1560. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, and 787 pages, with the same preface of Sim. Grynæus.

- 17415 — vitæ parallelæ cum singulis aliquot. Gr. et lat. Adduntur variantes lectt. ex MSS. codd. veteres et novæ, doctor. viror. notæ et emendatt. et indd. accuratissimi. Recens. Agst. Bryanus. Lond., Tonson et Watts, 1729. large 4°. 5 voll.

A fine edition. The text of the Paris edition of 1624 with its various readings, and those of 1 MS. of the library at St. Germain, and of 5 Bodleian MSS. The notes of Bryan and of Moses de Soul, who after Bryan's death superintended the 4th and 5th vols. are not without value. But nothing was done for the text itself. The 1st vol. only has the date of 1729, the rest are dated 1723 and 1724. There are no copies on large paper. The Apophthegmata after Maittaire's edition (see No. 17445) are added to this edition.

17416 — vitar. parallelar. delectus, gr. et lat. cum variantibus lectt. et doctor. viror. notis. Dublinii, 1761. 8°. 3 voll.

An uncut copy on large paper, 120 fr. M'Carthy, in other respects of little value.

17417 — βιοι παραλληλοι, οἷς προσετέθησαν σημειώσεις και των αὐτοσχεδιων στοχασμων περι της ελληνικης παιδειας και γλωσσης ἀκολουθια. (Cura Diam. Coray). Par., Eberhart, 1809-15. 8°. 6 vols. with plates (108 fr.).

The editor has used no MS., but has altered much from conjecture. The notes are mostly critical. 70 copies were struck off on large paper, more than 50 of which however were sent into Greece.

17418 — vitæ parallelæ, gr. ed. Gf. H. Schäfer. Lps., Tauchnitz, 1812. 12°. 9 voll. (4 d. 12 gr.)

17419<sup>a</sup> — Plutarchi Agesilaus et Xenophontis encomium Agesilai, in scholar. usum edid., notis et indice illustrav. Detlev. C. Gu. Baumgarten-Crusius. Lps., Fleischer, 1812. 8°. (16 gr.)

17419<sup>b</sup> — Alcibiades. Textum e codd. Paris. recognov. et perpetua annotat. instrux. J. C. F. Bähr. Heidelb., Groos, 1822. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.)

17420 — vitæ parall. Alexandri et Cæsaris. Commentarium adjec. F. Schmieder. Hal., Gebauer, 1804. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.)

17421 — Demosthenis et Ciceronis vitæ parallelæ nunc prim. separatim editæ. Græca recens., lat. reddidit, notis illustrav. Ph. Barton. Ox., typ. Clarendon., 1744. 8°. Also on large paper.

17422 — Demosthenes et Cicero. In usum juv. cum annotatt. varior., adjecta lectionis diversitate et indd. necessariis opera J. G. Hutten. Tub., Cotta, 1795. 8°. (16 gr.)

17425 — Theseus et Romulus, Lycurgus et Numa Pompilius. Recens., explicav., indd. necessariis instruxit E. H. G. Leopold. Lps., Fritsch, 1789. 8°. (1 d. 4 gr.)

17426 — vitæ Timoleontis, Gracchor. et Bruti, animadversionib. instrux. F. Gu. Fabrici. Lps., Schwickert, 1812. 8°. (16 gr.)

17428 — moralia opuscula, multis mendarum milibus expurgata (gr.) Bas., Froben et Episcop., 1542. fol.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 877 pages, and 1 leaf with the printer's symbol. A more correct impression of the Aldine text, sometimes not unhappily altered by the unknown editor from conjecture.

17429 — varia scripta, quæ moralia vulgo dicuntur. Multis mendar. millib. expurgata, indicib. locupletiss. instructa a Gu. Xylandro (gr.) Bas., Episcop., 1574. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 679 pages, and 22 leaves of index. A valuable edition, frequently and happily corrected from a MS., and from conjecture. According to Wyttenbach's assertion it is very scarce, which at least it is not in Germany.

17430 — moralia, i. e. opera, exceptis vitis, reliqua. Græca emendavit, notationem emendationum et latinam Xylandri interpretationem castigatam subjunxit, animadversiones explicandis rebus ac verbis, item indd. copiosos adjec. Dn. Wyttenbach. Ox., typ. Clarend., 1795-1800. large 4°. 5 parts in 6 vols. (14l. 3s. 6d.) Animadvv. T. I. II. ib. 1810-21. large 4°. 2 vols. (4l. 2s. 6d.)

There is a very good review of this very fine and important, but unfinished edition, in the Edinburgh Review, II. 216 sq. There are no large paper copies of this edition any more than of Bryan's edition of the lives, to which this may be joined.

17431 — (the same title). Ox., typ. Clarend., 1795-1800. 8°. 12 voll. (5l. 2s., on large paper 8l. 2s.) Animadvv. T. I. II. ib. 1810-21. 8°. 2 vols. (1l. 10s., on large paper 2l. 2s.).

Only 100 copies struck off on large paper.—A German reprint was commenced, Lps. 1796. 8°.

17432 — varia scripta, quæ moralia vulgo vocantur. Ed. stereot. Lps., Tauchnitz, 1820. 12°. 6 voll. (4 d. 12 gr.)

At first with the Cebes of 1500 (see CEBES). The edition of Fr. Fabricius, Antw. 1563. 8°. is after 3 MSS. with good notes and a new Latin translation.

17434 — de liberis educandis liber. Acced. bina ejusd. Plutarchi et Marcelli Sidetæ fragmenta (gr.) Cura J. Glo. Schneideri. Arg., Stein, 1775. 8°. (12 gr.)

- 17463 — vitæ parallelæ a variis interpretibus latinæ factæ et a J. Ant. Campano collectæ et editæ. Without place or date (Romæ, U. Gallus, 1470). large fol. 2 voll.

The first edition of this translation, very scarce, and well printed, with 45 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, and with vacant spaces for the Greek passages. The collation is differently stated. According to Dibdin the 1st vol. has 293 leaves, according to Fossi 294 (the 260th of which is blank). The 2nd vol. 294 leaves according to Dibdin, according to Fossi 303 (of which 142, 223, 263, and 283 are blank). Brunet's collation made from the copy in the Royal library at Paris is: 1st vol. 308 leaves (of which 164, 248, and 284 are blank), the first 2 contain a letter of Campanus, a table of contents, and Gallus's usual colophon, Anser Tarpeji custos Jovis etc. The vol. ends in the 21st line of leaf 308<sup>a</sup> with the words, fastigium evasisse. The 2nd vol. contains 304 leaves (of which 142, 186, 224, 264, and 284 are blank), leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 begins, CVM PER MVLTA SINT LITTERARVM, and leaf 304<sup>a</sup> ends in the 26th line with the words, ac sanctissimeq; reservavit. Of these 3 collations only those of Dibdin and Fossi can be reconciled, according to which both vols. together contain 592 printed leaves and 5 blank (these latter are not numbered by Dibdin). According to Brunet there are 604 printed, and 8 blank leaves.

That this edition was printed before 14 cal. Nov. 1471. (November and December were then the first two months of the year) is evident from Philæus's letter of this date (see also Audiffredi Catal. edd. Rom. p. 130). The farther proof cannot be given here.

- 17464 — eadem vitæ. Without place or date. large fol. 2 vols.

This edition, which is a reprint of the preceding, belongs to the unknown (Cologne?) press with the peculiar R. With 49 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, and with vacant spaces for the Greek passages. The 1st vol. has 274 leaves; leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 begins, AMPANVS Francisco Piccolominio Cardinali Senensi meo Salutem, and leaf 274<sup>b</sup> ends in the 36th line. The 2nd vol. has 238 leaves, and leaf 238<sup>a</sup> ends in the 22nd line with the words, post Caroli mortem diligentissime ac Sanctissimeq; reservavit.

- 17465 — eadem vitæ. Romæ, Sweynheym et Pannarz, 1473. fol.

- 17466 — eadem vitæ. Ven., Jenson, 2 Jan. 1478. fol. 2 voll.

With 50 lines, and signatures. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, THESEI VITA PER LAPVVM FLORENTINVM EX. In this edition the prefaces to the separate lives, prefixed by the translators, are omitted, and the translations are partly ascribed to others. (A particular inquiry respecting the real translator of each life in another place.) Of the two lives of Homer which the editio princeps contains, this edition has only that of Plutarch's. A copy on vellum was sold in Dalmann's library at the Hague 1723, p. 126. No. 1018. for 200 Dutch florins; only the 1st vol. on vellum, 360 fr. M'Carthy; the Royal library at Paris possesses a copy of both vols. on vellum.—Ven., J. Rigar., 1491. fol. is a reprint of this edition.

Bordone's translation was for the first time added in the equally scarce edition, Ven., d'Aristotile, 1522. 4°. 2 voll. Repeated, Ven., Bindoni, 1529 or 37. 8°. 2 voll.

17492 — les vies des hommes illustres grecs et romains, et les œuvres morales et meslées de Plutarque, translatées de grec en franç. par Jac. Amyot. Par., Vascosan, 1567-74. 8°. 13 voll. Decade contenant les vies des empereurs Trajanus, Adrianus etc. extraites de plusieurs auteurs et mises en franç. par Ant. Allègre. ib., id., 1567. 8°.

A very fine edition, and sought after when in good condition. All 14 vols. are seldom met with together. In the 6th vol. of the vies there ought to be a section of 150 pages (Hannibal's and Scipio's lives translated by Charl. l'Ecluse), when this is wanting the price is greatly reduced. — The fine edition, Par., Vascosan, 1565-75. fol. 4 parts in 2 vols. (also on large paper), is likewise prized, but the later editions not much. There are copies of the edition, Par., Bastien, 1784. 8°. 18 vols. on Dutch paper, and copies in 4°.

17493 — œuvres complètes, trad. du grec par Jac. Amyot, avec des notes et des observations de Gbr. Brotier et de J. Fr. Vauvilliers. Par., Cussac, 1783-87. 8°. 22 vols. with plates.

Also on large Dutch paper, on fine paper in 4°, and 12 copies on vellum paper in 4°. This very carefully prepared edition is prized. A new edition enlarged with additions and corrections by Et. Clavier, Par., Cussac, 1801-6. 8°. 25 vols. with plates (150 fr., on vellum paper 300 fr., on large paper 212 fr., on large vellum paper in 4°. 412 fr.) is not so fine. Vols. 23-25 of this last edition are also added to the former one to complete it. Par., Didot, 1818-20. 8°. 25 vols. (each vol. 5 fr., on vellum paper 10 fr. subscription price) is finer printed than the last, but not so fine as that of 1783.

17494 — œuvres morales, trad. en franç. par Dm. Ricard. Par., 1783-94. 12°. 17 voll. (42 fr.) Les vies des hommes illustres, trad. par Ricard. Par., an 7 (1798)-1803. 12°. 13 vols. (36 fr. 50 c.)

A successful translation, which should be recommended to those who do not approve of the old French style of Amyot.

17495 — les vies des hommes illustres grecs et romains, comparées l'une avec l'autre, translâtées de grec en franç. par Jac. Amyot. Par., Mch. de Vascosan, 1559. fol. 2 voll.

A copy on vellum, a real typographical masterpiece, 900 fr. Vallière and 1000 fr. M'Carthy.—Vies de huit excellens et renommés personnaiges Grecs et Romains, transl. en franç. par G. de Selue. Par., Vascosan, 1543. fol. Par., le Preux, 1547. 8°. The edition, Lyon, de Tournes, 1548. 16°. is an earlier translation.

17496 — les vies des hommes illustres, revues sur les MSS. et trad. en franç., avec des remarq. hist. et crit. et le supplément des comparaisons, qui ont été perdues. Par And. Dacier. Par., Clousier, 1721–34. 4°. 9 vols. Also on large paper, and on very large paper in small fol.

Copies without the 9th vol. (Vies omises par Plut. trad. de l'angl. de Th. Rowe par Fr. Bellanger) lose a third of their value. Of the 9th vol. indeed there are copies on large paper, but none on very large paper. Amst. 1724–34. or ib. 1735. 12°. 10 vols. are also prized. Par., Duprat-Duverger, 1811. 18°. 15 vols. with 63 engraved medallions (37 fr. 50 c., in 12°. 48 fr., on vellum paper in 12°. 120 fr.), is enlarged with the lives of Augustus and Tiberius by Delaroche.

17497 — dialogue de Plutarque sur la musique, trad. du grec par J. Pt. Burette, avec des remarques. Par., impr. roy., 1735. 4°.

There are said to be 12 copies of this separate impression. The treatises, of which this work consists, are in the Mém. de l'ac. des inscr. T. 8, 10, 13, 15, 17.

17498 — Plutarchus Teutsch. Von dem Leben vnd Ritterlichen geschichten, der aller Durchleuchtigsten Griechen vnd Römern, Alexandri M., Julii Cæs., C. Marii, Pyrrhi, Demetrii, M. Antonii, Photionis vnd Catonis Utic. Augsp., H. Steiner, 1534. fol.

This scarce first German translation is by Hi. Boner, but it contains only 8 lives, which form the last book of the following edition.

17509 PLUVINEL, Ant. Maneige royal, où l'on peut remarquer le défaut et la perfection du chevalier en tous les exercices de cet art (publié par J. D. Peyrol). Le tout gravé et représenté en grandes figures en taille-douce par Crispian de Pas. Par., Cl. Cramoisy, (1623). oblong fol.

The original edition with the text in 2 columns, and with 63 large plates, a title-plate, and the portraits of Louis XIII. and Pluvinel. The printed title is sometimes wanting. The names of the persons represented are commonly mentioned in some of the plates, yet there are also impressions avant la lettre. Peyrot, who superintended this edition after Pluvinel's death, arbitrarily mutilated it: yet it is sought after on account of the plates.

17510 — maneige royal, où l'on peut remarquer le défaut et la perfection du chevalier en tous les exercices de cet art (publié par J. D. Peyrol). Le tout gravé et représenté en grandes figures en taille-douce par Crispian de Pas. Par., aux frais de Crispian de Pas et se vend chez Gu. le Noir, 1624. fol.

The text is in lines running all across the page, and the plates are all put together. The last I of the date is added with the pen. This edition is cheaper than the preceding. The French and German edition, Brunsvic, Müller (1626). fol. has bad copies of these plates.

17511 — instruction du roy en l'exercice de monter à cheval (publ. par René de Menou). Par., Nivelle, 1625. fol. with plates, by Crisp. de Pas the younger.

This edition is to be considered as properly the first, because it is the first made after the author's MS. The original plates by Crispin de Pas, with the title-plate, and the 2 portraits of the Maneige roy., are added. The portraits of Roger de Bellegarde and René Menou are also to be found in addition. There are copies on strong paper. This edition however does not contain the first impressions of the plates, as some say, because the plates had already been used in the Maneige roy.

The edition, Par., Rocolet, 1627 (with a title-plate of 1629), large fol. is cheaper; its preliminary matter is sometimes differently arranged in the copies. Par., Macé Ruelle, 1629, large fol. with plates, is enlarged with a German translation. That of Amst., 1666. fol. with plates, is far below the original.

17512 — — (en franç. et en allem.) Ff. a. M., Erasm. Kempffer, 1628. small fol. with plates.

The plates of this edition are engraved by Mth. Merian, after those of Crispin de Pas, and are not less fine than the originals. The same plates were also used in the French and German edition, Ff. a. M., Merians Erben, 1670. fol.

17515 POCOCKE, Rch. A description of the East and some other countries. Lond., Bowyer, 1743-45. large fol. 3 parts in 2 vols. with 76 and 103 plates.

A very learned work, and sought after. The French translation (by la Flotte), Par., Costard, 1772-73. 12°. 6 voll. is of little value, and without plates. The German translation by J. F. Breyer, with observations by J. Ch. Dn. Schreber, Erl., Walther, 1771-5 or 91. 4°. 3 voll. with plates (12 d.), is better.

17519 POELLNITZ, Charl. L. de. Lettres et mémoires. Amst., Changuion, 1737. 12°. 5 voll.

Interesting. Pöllnitz himself declared in the Hamburger freyen Urtheilen und Nachrichten, 1744, p. 735, that he acknowledged that alone as the genuine edition which appeared at Amsterdam in 1735 by Changuion, but that the edition which had lately been published by Lehdert at Amsterdam was disfigured by additions of some other person.

17536 POETÆ. 1. Græci veteres. Poetæ græci principes heroici carminis, et alii nonnulli. Fragmenta aliorum. Excud. H. Stephanus, 1566. fol.

A very important collection, sought after, and well printed; it contains a new recension of most of the poets. 20 pages, preface, LXX pages, Herodoti vita Homeri etc.; 781 pages, Homer; 1 blank leaf, LVII pages, notes; 489 pages, the other poets. Good copies are scarce, and copies on large paper extremely so. Of this last sort de Thou's copy is celebrated (14 French inches, 2 lines high, and 8 inch. 10 lines broad), (bought at de Cotte's sale for 845 fr., and at Caillard's for 1000 fr., and now in the Royal library at Paris), yet lord Spencer's copy is about the eighth of an inch taller. Didot's copy, which sold for 723 fr., was half an inch less than lord Spencer's.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, 1022 and 753 pages. These two collections, appertaining to each other, are neither finely printed, nor of peculiar intrinsic importance. Good copies are scarce.

17539 — poetæ minores græci (XXIV). A Radulpho Wintertono recogniti. Cbr., Buck, 1635. 8°.

Of this often printed collection the edition, Cbr., Buck, 1652. 8°. is sought after as the finest and the most correct; and, ib. 1684. 8°. for the older series of editions cum notis variorum.

17540 — poetæ minores græci. Præcipua lectionis varietate et indd. locupletissimis instruxit Th. Gaisford. Ox., typ. Clarend., 1814-21. 8°. 4 vols. (21. 78.)

An esteemed collection. It contains two poets (Seren. Sammonicus and Vindicianus), which are not in Wernsdorf's collection.

17546 — poetæ latini minores, ex edit. Pt. Burmanni fideliter expressi. Glasg., Rb. et And. Foulis, 1752. 8°.

17547 — poetæ latini minores, curante J. Ch. Wernsdorf. Altenb., Richter, 1780-98. 8°. 6 parts in 10 vols. (12 d.) Also on writing paper.

A very interesting collection, superintended with great industry and learning, in which the literary and bibliographical introductions are of distinguished value. Besides the poets in Burmann's collection (with the exception of Sammonicus and Vindicianus), many others are to be found here, which are all newly and critically edited. In all the copies on writing paper, the first sheets of T.V. P. II. are on common printing paper.

6 leaves of preliminary matter, and 47 numbered leaves (in which however No. 11 is skipped over). This scarce edition, in which Gratianus, Nemesianus, and the fragment of Ovid appeared for the first time, was superintended by G. Logus. Lord Spencer possesses a copy on vellum (16l. 5s. at Pinelli's sale), probably the same which was sold at Heinsius's sale, p. 90, No. 253, for only 2 Dutch fl. 15 st. (AV.), H. Steyner, 1534. 8°. is an incorrect reprint; and, Lugd., Sb. Gryph., 1537. 8°. is tolerably neat.

17552 — venatici et bucolici poetæ latini, Gratius, Nemesianus, Calpurnius, commentariis luculentis explanati. Addita fragmenta Vestricii Spurinnæ scriptoris nunquam hactenus publicati (edente Csp. Barthio). Hanov., in bibliopolio Willeriano, 1613. 8°.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, 491 pages, 6 leaves index and errata, and 48 pages cursæ secundæ. The 491 pages of the book itself are of the same printing in this and in the preceding edition, the preliminary and supplementary matter only of the two editions being different. The cursæ secundæ give the precedence to the edition of 1653.

17555 — poetæ latini rei venaticæ scriptores et bucolici antiqui. Videlicet Gratii atque Nemesiani cynegeticon, halieuticon et de aucupio. Cum notis integris Csp. Barthii, Jani Vlitii, Th. Scarce on large paper.

This edition, superintended by Rb. Bruce and Sigeb. Havercamp, has been almost dispensed with by Burmann's collection, mentioned above, which however does not contain all the notes of this edition of 1728.

Yet is this edition still sought after by collectors.

Opusculum ad annuntiationem b. virg. Lactantii de resurrectione elegia etc. Ven., Aldus, m. Jan. 1501. 4°. 2 voll.

A very scarce and precious collection. The 1st vol. has 8 leaves of preliminary matter; then Prudentius, with the signatures ff-yy (each of 8 leaves, yet hh and yy have ten leaves each); Prosperi Aquil. epigrammata, on 22 leaves (the 22nd blank), with the signatures hh-kk; last of all, the Greek poems of J. Damascenus etc. 30 leaves of Greek text, with the signatures 1-4, and 34 leaves of Latin translation, with the signatures a-d. (The Latin translation is printed so that it may be inserted in the Greek text, and consequently in many copies the translation is wanting, in others the Greek text.) The colophon is at the end of Prudentius.

The 2nd vol. contains 8 leaves of preliminary matter (Aldus's preface is dated, June 1502); Sedulius, 28 leaves, with the signatures a-d; Juvencus, 50 leaves, with the signatures e-k; Arator etc., 60 leaves, with the signatures aa-hh (leaf 60<sup>a</sup> is the colophon), Vita Martini et Nicolai, 72 leaves, with the signatures A-K; Homero-centra etc., 36 leaves of Greek text, with the signatures aa-ee, and 40 leaves of Latin translation, with the signatures aaaa-eeee (likewise printed, so that it may be inserted in the Greek text).

The Gregorii Nas. carmina of 1504 (see GREGORIUS) are also joined to these 2 vols.

There are copies of the entire 10 vols. on vellum. Lenglet Dufresnoy mentions in his edition of the Arrêts of Martial (Amst. 1731. 8°. p. XXV.), an edition of Martial's poems, "publiée par un petit étourdi, qui suivoit toujours mauvais conseil, c'est-à-dire ses propres lumières, dans les belles, mais très-mauvaises et très-fautives éditions, qu'il donnoit de nos anciens poëtes, dont il prétendoit sans doute augmenter plutôt les fautes que renouveler les impressions."

The 2 vols. by Racan are scarce.

To these may be joined, Poesies ou chansons du roi de Navarre (Thibault). Par., Guerin, 1742. 8°. 2 voll.; and, La danse aux aveugles (par Pt. Michault) Lille, 1748. 8°.

Opera recognita. Bas., H. Petrus,
1538. fol.

Earlier collections of his works, Arg.,
Knobloch, 1510, or 11, or 13. fol.

17571 — facetiarum liber. Without place or date. (Romæ, about 1470).
4°.

The first edition, very scarce. 109 leaves, with 23 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. First are 7 leaves, tabula; leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank; and the first words of leaf 1<sup>b</sup> are, E abbate septimi. The book ends after the 9th line of leaf 109<sup>a</sup> with this colophon, in 3 lines:
Poggii Florētini Secretarii Apostolici Facetiarum liber absolutus est feliciter. The types are the same as in the Chrysostomus,
No. 4218.

17572 — — Without place or date.
(Ven., Vindelin. de Spira, about 1470). small fol.

76 leaves, with 30 lines in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pag-ination. At first are 5 leaves, tabula, and the colophon is as in the preceding.

17573 — — Without place or date.
(Nrb., F. Creussner). small fol.
Gothic letter.

62 leaves, with 33 lines (not 32) in a full page, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1 is blank, leaves 2-6 are a tabula, and leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, E ami-corum paucitate faccia charta vij. Leaf 7<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself, and the 1st line is, Poggy florentini Oratoris eloquentissimi uo secretarij apo—. It ends on leaf 62<sup>a</sup>, Poggij florētini secretarij apl'ici faccia4 liber explicit felicif.

17574 — Facecie poggij. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

83 leaves, with 31 lines (sometimes 33), and the signatures a-l. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is the above title. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Poggij flo-rentini Oratoris eloquentissimi. Leaf 77<sup>a</sup> terminates the work, and leaves 78-83 are a tabula.—With this description (with the exception of the number of leaves), that which Panzer gives, I. 392, of Reyser's undated edition, pretty nearly accords.
There is also an edition, without place or date, about 1480. 4°. Gothic letter, 71 leaves with 26 lines, which begins with 7 leaves, tabula. Also (Lovan.), J. de Westfalia, without date. 4°.

45 leaves with 33 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

17576 — — Ferrariæ (without the printer's name), 5 Aug. 1471. 4°.

This edition, which may be the first with a date, is not yet accurately known.

17577 — — (Nrb.), F. Creussner, 1475. fol. Gothic letter.

Very scarce. 61 leaves (the first 5 of which contain a tabula). Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Amicorum dei (instead of de) paucitate facetia chartha VIII. Leaf 6<sup>a</sup> is the præfatio, leaf 6<sup>b</sup> begins the facetia, and in leaf 61<sup>b</sup> is the colophon.

17583 — Pogij florentini oratoris clarissimi facetiarum. Without place (Ven.), 15 Oct. 1488. 4°.

66 leaves with 30 lines, and the signatures a-i. It is worthy of notice, that there really is a different edition, without place, 15 Oct. 1498. 4°. to which the same collation is suited.—Bas., N. K(esler), 14 Mart. 1488. 4°. Gothic letter.

17584 — facetiar. libellus unicus, notulis imitatores indicantibus et non- nullis sive latinis sive gallicis imitationibus illustratus (a Fr. Jos. Noel). Lond. (Ultraj.), 1798. 18°. 2 voll. (2 fl. 10 st.)

Not fine, and very incorrectly printed. Scarce on Dutch paper.

17585 — facecie de pogio florentino Traducte de latino in uulgare ornatissimo. Without place or date. small 4°. Gothic letter.

48 unnumbered leaves without signatures. Printed in Italy towards the close of the 15th century.

Ven., Bindoni, 1553. 8°. with woodcuts, 48 leaves, has the same title. The editions, Ven. 1527 and 31. 8°. are not sufficiently accredited.

17588 — les facéties de Pogge florentin (trad. en franç.). Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

An old edition. 46 leaves, without catchwords and pagination. Probably the same translation which la Croix du Maine attributed to Julian Macho.

17589 — SEnsuyuent les facecies de Poge: translatees de latin en françois qui traictët de plusieurs nouvelles choses moralles. Par., pour Jehan Trepperel, without date. fol. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

58 leaves in 2 columns, with the signatures A-M. The number XII. stands in the title, which denotes not the year but the number of layers. D. Hain of Munich possesses this heretofore unknown edition.

17590 — Sen suyvent les faceties de Poge translatees de latin en françois qui traicte de plusieurs nouvelles choses morales. Imprime a Paris par la veufve Jehan Trepperel à l'écu de France. Without date. small 4°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

Likewise 58 leaves in 2 columns, with the signatures a-m iij.

17591 — les facécies de Pogge, traduites de latin en françois. Par., J. Bonnefons, 1549. 4°.

There are several editions of this translation printed at Paris, Lyons, and Rouen, in 16°. But, Les contes de Pogge Florentin, Amst. 1712. 12°. is unfaithfully and incompletely translated.

17592 — historia Fiorentina tradocta di lingua lat. in lingua Toscana da Jacopo suo figliuolo. Ven., Jac. de Rossi, 8 Marzo 1476. fol.

The first edition. 120 leaves with 41 lines, and the signatures a-n. The first 2 leaves contain a proemio, and leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the work itself. A copy on vellum in 2 vols. in the Riccardi library at Florence (see its Inventario, p. 69, No. 480-481), and in the paper copy of the Imperial library at Vienna the entire 8th book is printed on vellum.—Also, Fir., Bm. P. (Pio) Fiorentino, 3 Sept. 1492. fol.; and, corrected after a MS. of the Latin original by Fr. Serdonati, Fir., Fil. Giunti, 1598. 4°.

17596 POGIANUS, Jul. Epistolæ et oratt. ab Ant. Mar. Gratiano collectæ et ab Hi. Lagomarsino adnotationibus illustratæ. Romæ, 1762. 4°. 4 voll.

Lagomarsinus's annotations, which principally relate to the purer Latinity, and to which Ruhnkenius in particular paid attention, give an especial value to this work.

17597 POIRET, Pt. De eruditione triplici, solida, superficiali et falsa, libri III. Amst., Wetstein, 1707. 4°. 2 voll.—Cogitatt. rationales de deo, anima et malo. Ed. III. 17598 POIS, Ant. le. Discours sur les medalles et graveures antiques, principalement romaines. Par., Patisson, 1579. 4°. with plates.

Interesting, and greatly sought after. The representation of Priapus on the reverse of p. 146 is often torn or damaged. At the end are 20 leaves of coins.

17603 POLEMO-Middinia inter Vitarvam et Nebernarn. Glasgow, 1757. 4°.

An English-Latin macaronic poem.

POLENDO, see POLINDO.

POLENUS, see GRONOVIVS, No. 8958.

17604 POLENTONVS, Sicco. Catinia a Giacomo Badoaro Perugino, comedia scritta in prosa volgare. Trento, 28 Marcii, 1482. 4°.

The first comedy in Latin prose, which Siccone Polentone composed about the middle of the 15th century in Latin prose under the title, Lusus Ebriorum, and which some unknown person (probably his son Modesto Polentone) translated into Italian prose. This edition is without any division into acts and scenes, and is very scarce; see Zeno's Fontanini, I. 358.

17605 POLIGNAC, Mlch. de. Anti-Lucretius s. de deo et natura opus posthumum (edid. C. d'Orléans de Rothelin). Par., Coignard, 1747. 8°. 2 voll.

Also, Lond. 1748. 8°. 2 voll. Cura J. Cp. Gottschedii, Lps. 1748. 8°. Translated into Italian verse by Fr. Mar. Ricci, Verona, 1751. 8°. 2 vols.; and along with the Latin original, ib. 1767. 4°. 3 voll. In French by Bougainville, Par. 1749. 8°. 2 voll. (also on large paper). ib. 1750. 12°. 2 voll. L'Antilucrèce, trad. en vers fr. par Fr. Jos. Bérardier. Par. 1786. 12°. 2 voll. The following translation, L'Antilucrèce en vers franç. avec le 9e et le dernier chant ajouté à l'original par Jeanty-Laurans, also 1813. 8°. is not so good.

ib. 1610. large 4°. is only an older title.

17607 POLINDO. Historia del in- vencible cavallero Don Polindo, hijo del rey Paciano, rey de Numidia, y de la princesa Belisia, hija del rey Naupilio, rey de Macedonia. Toledo, 1526. fol. Gothic letter.

This very scarce romance was sold at the duke of Marlborough's sale in 1819 for 37l. 10s.

17608 — historia delle gloriose imprese di Polendo, figliuolo di Palmerino d'Oliva, et di Pompide, figliuolo di Don Duaro re d'Inghilterra, trad. del spagnuolo in lingua ital. per Pt. Lauro. Ven., Giglio fratelli, 1566. 8°.

See also PRIMALEONE.

17609 POLIPHILVS. Hypnerotomachia Poliphili, ubi humana omnia non nisi somnium esse docet, atque obiter plurima scitu sane quam digna commemorat (auct. Fr. Colonna, edente Ln. Crasso). Ven., Aldus, m. Dec. 1499. fol. with woodcuts.

The first, though not very scarce, edition of this extremely singular book, which, whatever may otherwise be maintained concerning it, (see Monnoye in the Ménagiana, IV. 69 sq. Mélanges tir. d'une gr. Bibl. XXXI. 133 sq. Fiorillo Artist. Schrr. I. 153 sq.) is still valuable to the collector on account of its costly woodcuts, and of its fine execution in other respects. The woodcuts are according to some by Gi. or Gentile Bellino, according to others by Buonconsigli; it is certain that the designs, which may possibly be by Mantegna or Montagna, belong to the Venetian school. The work is written in Italian notwithstanding the Latin title.

The book contains 234 leaves in all, with the signatures a-s and A-F. At first are 4 leaves of preliminary matter, then the work itself begins with a separate title. A colophon of the year 1467 is to be found in the last leaf but one, which refers to the execution of the work itself. The last leaf contains the errata and the printer's colophon. The representation of the sacrifice of Priapus in leaf m 6 is sometimes mutilated.

The duke of Devonshire possesses a fine copy on vellum, Trivulzio of Milan an imperfect one, and one, in which the last leaf was made good, was sold at Pinelli's sale for 27l. 7s. and at M'Carthy's for 900 fr. Vallière's copy produced 315 fr. A copy on vellum in Remondini's library at Bassano is only of the 2nd part, or signatures A-F.

- 17610 — la hypnerotomachia di Poliphilo, cioè pugna d'amore in sogno. Ristampato di novo et ricorretto. Ven., figlivoli di Aldo, 1545. fol. with woodcuts.

234 unnumbered leaves. This unaltered edition, which has the same woodcuts, is not so fine as the first, but is nevertheless tolerably sought after.

- 17611 — hypnerotomachie ou discours du songe de Poliphile, deduisant comme amour le combat à l'occasion de Polia, trad. de langage italien en franç. Par., Kerver, 1546, or 54, or 61. fol. with woodcuts.

More an abridgment or an imitation than a translation, and little valued: with neat woodcuts, of which that in p. 69 is often mutilated. The translator, who was a Maltese knight, is unknown; J. Martin was only the editor. The editions of 1554 and 61 are really different impressions.

- 17612 — le tableau des riches inventions, qui sont représentées dans le songe de Poliphile, dévoilées et exposées par (Fr.) Beroalde de Verville. Par., Guillemot, 1600 (new title, 1657). 4°. with woodcuts.

This edition is still less prized. The sacrifice of Priapus, p. 68, is sometimes mutilated.

- 17613 — songe de Poliphile, traduction libre de l'italien, par J. G. le Grand. Par., Leblanc, 1804. gr. 18°. 2 voll. on vellum paper (12 fr.) Also, Parma, Bodoni, 1811. large 4°. 2 voll.

There are 200 copies of Bodoni's fine edition on carta reale, and 100 copies on vellum paper.—Les amours de Polia ou le songe de Poliphile, trad. de l'ital. Par. 1772. 12°. is only a poor abridgment.

- 17614 — hypnerotomachia. The strife of love in a dreame. Lond., Waterson, 1592. 4°. with woodcuts.

104 leaves. Concerning this translation, see Brydges's Bibliographer, IV. 285.—Aless. Barca Memoria della geometria di Polifilo. Brescia, 1808. fol. (also in the Memorie of the society at Brescia.)

- 17615 POLISMAN. Historia del valoroso cavallier Polisman, nuo-vam. trad. di lingua spagnuola in italiana da Gi. Miranda. Ven., Zanetti, 1573. 8°.

- 17616 POLITIANUS, Ang. Omnia opera et alia quædam lectu digna. Ven., Aldus, m. Jul. 1498. fol.

452 unnumbered leaves with 38 lines. After the colophon there ought to be 2 leaves (a register, and a poem on Lr. Medici's death). The last leaf of signature K is blank. In this fine edition, the piece De Pactiana conjuratione, is wanting, which Aldus probably omitted with a view to the court of Rome.

- 17617 — opera et alia quædam lectu digna. Flor., Ln. de Arrigis de Gesoriaco, 10 Aug. 1499. small fol.

208 leaves with 46 lines. More scarce than the preceding, of which it is a reprint; not only the piece however De Pactiana conjuratione, is wanting in this edition, but also the Miscellanea, and translation of Herodian, already to be met with in the Aldine. The edition, Par., Ascens., 1519. fol., is not esteemed.

- 17618 — opera omnia, longe emendatius, quam usquam antehac, expressa, quibus accessit historia de conjuratione Pactiana in familiam Mediceam, cum ind. locupletiss. Bas., N. Episcopus, 1553. fol.

A complete edition of his Latin works. The Italian poems are in none of these editions.

- 17619 — miscellaneor. centuria prima. Flor., Ant. Miscominus, 13 cal. Oct. 1489. small fol.

92 leaves with 32 lines, and the signatures a-p. The first leaf begins with a letter to Lr. Medici, and the last is a register. According to Bibl. Spenc. III. 465, there ought to be found besides at the beginning, 2 leaves, without signatures, emendationes, of which leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank. As no other copy with these leaves is known, it is certainly still a question, whether they really belong to this work. In leaf m 1<sup>a</sup> is to be found the first impression of Callimachus's poem in lavacro Palladis, in the same type in which the editio princeps of Callimachus appeared, yet with some various readings: see Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. I. 292. III. 466.

- 17620 — Pactianæ conjurationis commentariolum. Without place (Flor.). 1478. small 4°.

10 leaves (the last blank), with 27 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first edition, and very scarce.

- 17621 — conjuratōnis Pactianæ commentarius anni 1478 cum notis, cura J. Adimari. Neap., 1769. 4°. with plates. Also on large paper.

Also, Pisis, 1799. 8°. and Pisis, 1800. 4°.

- 17622 — elegia de exilio et morte Ovidii per N. Barberium italico carmine reddita. Ticini Regii, 1819. 4°.

- 17623 — poemata. Salmanticæ, 1596. 8°.

- 17624 — Politiani et alior. viror. illustrium epistolæ ll. XII. Acc. Politiani præfatio in Suetonii expositionem. Amst., Janssonius, 1644. 12°.

- 17625 — stanze composte de messer Ang. Politiano, fatte per la giostra de Giuliano fratello del magnifico Lr. di Medici insieme con la festa de Orpheo et altre gentileze. Bol., Platone delli Benedicti, 9 Agosto 1494. 4°.

42 leaves, with the signatures A-F. The first edition, very scarce. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with a superscription printed in red in 5 lines of small capitals, and the first line is, STANZE DE MESSER ANGELO PO.

- 17626 — stanze ed Orfeo. Without place or date. 4°.

This edition, printed at Florence about the end of the 15th century, is considered by some to be older, and by others to be more recent than the preceding (Fossi, II. 393. Gamba Series, I. 345). Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with the same superscription, printed in red, in 5 lines, and resembles the preceding in every other respect. According to Brunet it also contains 42 leaves, with the signatures a-f.

- 17627 — la giostra di Giuliano de Medici. Stanze di Ang. Poliziano, e la favola d' Orfeo del medesimo. Fir., Pacini, 15 Oct. 1513. 4°. with woodcuts.

Correct, and carefully superintended.

- 17628 — stanze con la festa d' Orfeo et altre gentilezze. Ven., Zorzi di Rusconi, 1513. 8°.

Molini's catalogue of 1807 has an edition, Ven. 1516. 8°. not noticed by Panzer.

- 17629 — stanze cominciate per la giostra del magnifico Giuliano di Piero de' Medici. Fir., Bn. di Giunta, m. Sept. 1518. 8°. 35 leaves.

- 17630 — — (the same title). Bol., Hi. di Beneditti, 1520. 8°.

- 17631 — — (the same title). (Ven.), N. Zopino, 30 Agosto, 1521. 8°. Also ib., id., 1524 and 37. 8°.

- 17632 — le stanze bellissime di Ang. Poliziano, da Tizzone Gaetano di Pofi diligentemente reviste. Ven., Giac. da Lecco, 1526. 8°.

- 17633 — stanze cominciate per la giostra del magnif. Giuliano di Piero de Medici. Ven., figlivoli di Aldo, 1541. 8°.

32 leaves in all. A very scarce, neat, and correct edition.—L. Dolce in 1556 arbitrarily interpolated the text in the Stanse di diversi poeti and for the most part unhappily, and his readings are passed over in most of the following editions.

- 17634 — — (the same title). Fir., Sermartelli, 1568 or 77. 8°.

- 17635 — stanze, ridotte alla loro vera lezione, ed accresciute d' una canzone e di varie notizie. Padova, Comino, 1728. large 8°.

This edition is cited by the academy della Crusca. Also copies on better paper.

- 17636 — le elegantissime stanze di Ang. Poliziano, e la ninfa Tiberina del Molza, colla vita del Poliziano, scritta da Pierant. Serassi. Bergamo, Lancellotti, 1747. 4°. Also on large paper.

There is also an edition, without place or date (Bergamo, Lancellotti, about 1750). 8°. 100 pages, with only a half-title, which besides the stanse, contains many other previously unprinted poems of Politian; but it was suppressed before its completion on account of several too free pieces, by the editor himself, the abate Calisto, and consequently it is very scarce.

- 17637 — l' elegantissime stanze di Ang. Poliziano. Ediz. II. Padovana, adornata della vita dell' autore scritta da Pt. Ant. Serassi. Padova, Comino, 1751. large 8°.

Of this good edition, furnished with various readings, there is a copy on vellum

(in Trivulzio's library at Milan), 25 copies on blue paper, 100 copies on carta Romana, and 200 on large paper (carta dal sole). The Florence edition of 1513 forms the basis (the editors erroneously say 1510).

17638 — l' elegantissime stanze di Ang. Poliziano, ridotte ora col riscontro di varie antiche edizioni alla loro vera lezione, colla giunta dell' Orfeo e di altre cose volgari del medesimo autore, non più stampate. Padova, Comino, 1765. 8°.

17639 — le stanze di nuovo pubblicate. Parma, Bodoni, 1792. 4°.
(10 fr.)

Only 162 copies were struck off, 12 of which were on vellum paper. Some copies besides on vellum. At the same time an edition appeared, ib., id., 1792. large 8°. Neither of them is prized.

17640 — stanze. Fir., stamperia granducale, 1794. 4°.

17641 — stanze. Brescia, Bettoni, 1806. 4°.

17642 — stanze. Pisa, società tipogr., 1806. fol.

Only 250 copies (30 fr., on vellum paper 40 fr.), and one copy on vellum.

17643 — le stanze, l' Orfeo ed altre poesie. Mil., 1808. 8°. (Classici Ital.) 17644 — rime di Ang. Poliziano, con illustrazioni di Vinc. Nannucci e di L. Ciampolini. Fir., Carli, 1814. 12°. 2 voll. with Politian's portrait (3 fr.).

With several inedited pieces and a useful commentary by Nannucci, but without any new critical revision of the text. Nannucci had already published at Florence in 1812 the stanze with a commentary, which is worked up afresh in this edition.

17645 — rime. Fir. 1816. 16°. 2 voll. (4½ paoli.)

The 2nd vol. contains inedited poems.

17646 — opere volgari, contenenti le elegantissime stanze, alcune rime e l' Orfeo colle illustrazioni de P. Affò. Ven. 1819. 18°. 2 parts in 1 vol. with Politian's portrait.

17647 — l' Orfeo. Siena, Sim. di Niccolò, 1512. 8°.

17648 — l' Orfeo. Fir., Bn. Zucchetto. Without date. 8°.

17649 — la favola di Orfeo. Padova, Comino, 1749. 8°. 24 pages. Also on large paper.

Cited by the academy della Crusca. There are two editions of this year, the earlier of which has only the signature A; the later A and B. Of this last there are copies on blue paper (9 fr. 50 c. M'Carthy), and a single copy on vellum. This edition is also sometimes annexed to the Ciclope di Euripide, ib. 1749. 8°.

17650 — l' Orfeo tragedia, illustrata da Ireneo Affò. Ven., Vitto, 1776. 4°.

A new critical edition. The piece appears here complete from a MS. for the first time, and Affò seeks to prove in the preface that the Orfeo is the first regular Italian play.

POLLICARIUS, see SYMBOLUM.

POLLIO, Trebell, see HISTORIÆ Aug. scriptores.

17651 POLLUX, Jul. Vocabularium (gr.) Ven., Aldus, m. April. 1502. fol.

The first edition, but rather faulty. 9 leaves of preliminary matter, 408 columns, and 1 leaf colophon.

17652 — vocabularium (gr.) Flor., Bn. Junta, m. Nov. 1520. fol.

Merely a reprint of the preceding. 7 leaves, table of contents, 342 columns, and 1 leaf colophon.

17653 — onomasticon, summa studio et cura emendatum, et tribus indicibus auctum. Cum præf. Sim. Grynæi. Bas., Lascius et Platter, 1536. 4°.

Likewise the Aldine text almost throughout. 9 leaves of preliminary matter, 562 columns, and 40 leaves indices, colophon, and printer's symbol.

17654 — onomasticon, e MSS. codd. bibliothecar. Palatinæ atque Augustanæ, variis item doctor. viror. lucubrationibus emendatum, suppletum et illustratum. Adjecta interpretatio lat. Rdf. Gualtherii melior facta, indices item novi et notæ. Studio atque op. Wfg. Seberi. Ff., Marnius, 1608. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, then 530 pages Greek text, 61 pages index, 1 leaf and 184 pages notes, and 3 leaves index to the notes. A new and good recension from MSS. What however Seber gives as Sylburgius's notes, was in fact H. Stephens's production; see Burmanni Sylloge Ep. II. 515.

17655 — onomasticum, gr. et lat. Post Seberi editionem denuo emendatum, suppletum et illustratum. Præter Seberi notas acced. commentarius Gf. Jungermanni, itemque alius Jo. Kühnii. Amst., Wetstein, 1706. fol. 2 voll.

The best edition as yet. Scarce, and greatly sought after on large paper.

17656 — onomasticon nunc prim. latinitate donatum. Rodolpho Gualthero interprete. Una cum ind. Bas., Rb. Winter, 1541. 4°. There ought to be included, Rod. Gualtheri in Pollucis dictionarium annotatt. una cum ind. auctorum. ib., id., 1542. 4°.—Jo. Kühnii animadvv. in Pollucem. Arg., Zetzner, 1675. 12°.

17657 (POLLUY, Jul.) Anonymi scriptoris historia sacra ab O. C. ad Valentinianum et Valentem, e vetere cod. græco descripta. J. Bt. Bianconi latine vertit, nonnulla annotavit. Bon. 1779. fol.

From a Milan MS. in which the proemium and the beginning of the 2nd chapter, and consequently the name of the author also, are wanting. This edition is added to the Corpus hist. Bys.

17658 — historia physica s. chronicon ab orig. mundi usque ad Valentis tempora, nunc prim. gr. et lat. editum cum lectt. variis et notis ab Ign. Hardt. Monach., Lindauer, 1792. 8°. (20 gr.)

From a Munich MS. complete in the parts above mentioned. Hardt was not acquainted with the preceding edition.

POLO, Gil, see MONTEMAYOR.

17659 POLO, Marco. Marco Polo Veneziano delle meraviglie del mondo da lui vedute. Ven., Sessa, 13 Jun. 1496. 8°.

The oldest Italian edition, and very scarce; but it only contains an abridgment.

17660 — libro, in cui si trattano le maravigliose cose del mondo da lui vedute. Ven., Matteo Pagano. Without date. 8°.

17661 — delle cose maravigliose del mondo da lui vedute. Ven. 1533. 8°.

This edition is to be found in Molini's catalogue of 1807, where it is remarked, that it is not noticed by Panzer.

17662 — Marco Polo Venetiano delle meraviglie del mondo per lui vidute, del costume di varij paesi etc. Di novo ristampato et asservato l'ordine suo vero nel dire. Trevigi, Reghettini, 1590. 8°. 57 leaves.

17663 — Marco Polo Venetiano delle meraviglie del mondo per lui vedute; del costume di varii paesi, et dello stranio viver di quelli; della descrizione de diversi animali; del trovar dell'oro et dell'argento; delle pietre pretiose. Ven., Imbetti, 1626. 8°.

In the year 1553 Ramusio gave a new Italian translation in the 2nd vol. of his collection, which he had prepared by a careful collation and reciprocal correction and completion of the oldest and best MSS. According to him the work was first composed in Latin about 1298, and translated therefrom into the Italian lingua volgare, and translated in the year 1320 back again into Latin by Fr. Pipinus of Bologna, who could not have met with any copy of the Latin original. Marsden, on the contrary, seeks to prove, that the work was first composed in an Italian provincial dialect, probably the Venetian. Thus much is certain, that there are two different Latin texts, one by Pipinus, and the other by some person unnamed, which is more of an abridgment, or rather the first sketch; consult Lessing sur Gesch. und Lit. II. 261 sq.

17664 — incipit prologus in libro domini Marci Pauli de Veneciis de consuetudinibus et condicionibus orientalium regionum. At the end, Explicit liber domini de Veneciis Deo gracias. Without place or date (15th century). 4°.

This text is repeated in (Sim. Grynei novus orbis. Bas. 1555. fol. p. 338 sq. and in Reineccii chron. Hierosol. P. II. Hlmst., 1585. 4°.

- 17665 — de regionibus orientalibus libri III. Cum cod. MS. collati, exque eo adjectis notis plurimum tum suppleti tum illustrati. Acc. Haithoni Armeni historia orientalis, item And. Mülleri de Chataja dissertatio, inque ipsum M. Paulum præfatio et indd. Col. Brandenb., Schulz, 1671. 4°.

The text of the preceding forms the basis, rather insufficiently corrected from a MS. of Pipinus's translation, without making use of Ramusio.

- 17666 — Marco Paulo de Veneza das condiçooes e custumes das gentes e das terras e provincias orientaes. Ho livro de Nycolao Veneto. O trallado da carta de huū genoves das ditas terras. Lyxboa, Valentym Fernandez Alemaaõ, 4 Feureyro, 1502. fol. Gothic letter.

This very scarce translation is cited by the academy of Lisbon.

- 17667 — libro del famoso Marco Paulo Venetiano de las cosas maravillosas, que vido en las partes orientales. Con otro tratado de Micer Poggio Florentino e trata de las mesmas tierras y islas (traduc. por Rodriguez, canonigo de Sevilla). Sevilla, Cromberger, 1520. fol.

- 17668 — — (the same title). Logrono, Mig. de Eguia, 13 Jun. 1529. fol.

- 17669 — historia de las grandezas y cosas maravillosas de las provincias orientales, sacada de Marco Polo, y traducida de latin en romance por Martin de Bolea y Castro. Zaragoza, 1601. 8°.

Another bad and faulty translation is in Pl. Bergeron Recueil de voyages. Haye, 1735. 4°. Concerning a MS. of an old French translation of the 14th century, see Sinneri Catal. codd. Bibl. Bern. I. 419 sq.

- 17671 — Hie hebt sich an das puch des edeln Ritters vñ landtfarers Marcho Polo. In dem er schreibt die grossen wunderlichen ding dieser welt. Sunderlichen von den grossen Künigen vnd Keysern die da herschen in den selbigen landen vnd von irem volck vnd seiner gewonheit da selbs. Nrb., Fricz Creuszner, 1477. fol.

The first edition of this translation made from an Italian MS., very scarce, and very complete. 58 leaves with 34 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The 1st leaf, which is blank on the folio recto, and contains a woodcut-likeness of M. Polo on the reverse, is sometimes wanting. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the work with the above title, after which 28 lines of text follow. Leaf 58<sup>b</sup> is the colophon — A reprint of this translation appeared as an appendage to the Hystori von herczog Leupold. Augsp., Sorg, 1481. fol. (see LEUPOLD.) Also in German, in (Sim. Grynæi) neuer Welt. Strb., 1534. fol. or Bas. 1555. fol.

- 17672 — chorographia Tartariæ od. Beschreibung der wunderbarl. Reise, welche M. Polus in die Oriental u. Morgenländer verrichtet, aus dem Ital. verteutscht durch Hi. Megiserum. Lpz., Grosse, 1611. 8°. with plates.

- 17674 — the travels of M. Polo, a Venetian, in the 13th century. Being a description by that early traveller of remarkable places and things in the eastern parts of the world. Translated from the Italian, with notes, by W. Marsden. Lond., Longman, 1818. 4°. with 1 map (2l. 12s. 6d., on large paper 4l. 4s.).

The translation is made after the Italian text of Ramusio, yet with collation of the Latin text, and of the different more modern translations. Purchas had also already made use of Ramusio in his Pilgrims.

17675 — Reisen en Beschryving der Oostersche Lantschappen. Benefens de Historie der Oostersche Lantschappen door Haithon. Beide door J. H. Glazemaker vertaalt. Amst., Wolfgang, 1664. 4°. with plates.

This fine work was to have consisted of 3 vols., but the 3rd never appeared.

17680 POLYÆNUS. Stratagematum libri VIII. Is. Casaubonus græce nunc prim. edid., emendav. et notis illustrav. Adjecta est Justi Vulteji latina versio. Cum indd. necessariis. Lugd., J. Tornæsius, 1589. 12°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 754 pages, and 15 leaves index. The first edition, made from a not particularly good MS. Vultejus's translation is frequently and somewhat arbitrarily altered by Tornæsius.

17681 — stratagematum libri VIII. (gr. lat.) Justo Vultejo interprete. Pancrat. Maasvicius recens., Is. Casauboni nec non suas notas adjecit. LB., Vivie et Luchtmans, 1691. 8°.

There are copies with the year 1690. A new recension from MSS. retaining Vul-tejus's interpolated translation. One of the rarer editions in the series cum notis variorum.

17682 — stratagematum libri VIII. Recens., Justi Vulteji versionem lat. emendav. et ind. græcum adjecit Sm. Mursinna. Berol., Haude et Spener, 1756. 8°. (1 d. 16 gr.)

Scarce on writing paper. The text of the preceding without its notes, with some unhappy conjectures of the editor's own. Vultejus's translation is here still more arbitrarily altered.

17683 — στρατηγημάτων βιβλοι ὀκτώ (ed. Diam. Coray). Par., Eberhart, 1809. 8°. (9 fr.)

Coray, for want of time, only cursorily corrected some part.

17684 — stratagematum libri VIII. (lat.) nunquam antea in lucem editi, ac nuper adeo e gr. sermone in lat. conversi, Justo Vultejo interprete. Bas., Oporinus, (1549). 8°.

The first edition of this translation, from a MS., and not yet critically made use of. Also, Ff., e collegio Paltheniano, 1601. 12°. Lubeca, Alberti, 1601. 4°. To which last edition, Thesaurus bellicus ex latissimo historiar. campo, labore Herculeo, a Polyæno erutus. Nunc prim. a Justo Vultejo latin. donatus. Rost., Hallervord, 1616. 4°. is only a new title.—Concerning the unprinted Latin translation of Pt. Angelius, see Bandini Codd. lat. bibl. Laur. II. 397.

The notes are partly critical.

17690 POLYBIUS. Historiar. libri V. opera Vinc. Obsopœi in lucem editi. Idem lat., N. Perotto interprete. Hagan., J. Secerius, m. Mart. 1530. fol.

The first edition, carefully superintended from a not altogether bad MS., and scarce.

17691 — historiar. libri priores V. (gr. lat.) N. Perotto interprete. Item epitome sequentium libror. usque ad XVII. Wfg. Musculo interprete. Bas., J. Hervag., 1549. fol.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 282 pages Greek text, 4 leaves and 323 pages Latin translation, and 5 leaves index. Somewhat arbitrarily superintended by Arlenius, who made but a careless use of an Augsburg MS. from which a large hiatus in the 1st book of the preceding edition is supplied.

17692 — historiar. libri qui supersunt. Is. Casaubonus ex antiquis libris emendav., lat. vertit et commentariis illustrav. Æneæ Tactici commentarius de toleranda obsidione. Is. Casaubonus primus vulgavit, lat. interpr. ac notas adjecit. Par., Drouard, 1609. fol.

(Ff.) typis Wechel., 1609 or 19. fol. are only different titles. 30 leaves of preliminary matter, 1080 pages text, 16 leaves index, 151 pages Æneas Tacticus. Copies on large paper, which however are usually stained, are scarce, and greatly sought after. A new recension from MSS. for the most part of modern date, and still more from conjecture. The editor has not made use of the editio princeps. The commentary, promised in the title, is not to be found with it, and after his death there appeared, for the first time, only Is. Casauboni ad Polybii historiar. librum I. commentarii. Par., Ant. Stephan., 1617. 8°. A separate reprint of his Latin translation, (Ff.), typis Wechel., 1610. 8°.

17693 — historiar. libri qui super-

Containing good exegetical apparatus, but in other respects it is only Casaubon's text, in which the typographical errors are even repeated.

17694 — — (the same title). Præfat. et glossarium adjec. J. A. Ernesti. Lps. et Vindob., Kraus, 1763-64. 8°. 3 voll. (12 d.)

The first edition of this translation, and uncommonly scarce. 154 leaves (according to Dibdin 153), with 38 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. The first 2 leaves contain Perottus's prohemium ad Nicolaum V. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the first book. It ends on the folio recto of the last leaf with the verses, Aspicis illustris etc., under which is the date.—Also, Ven., Bernardin. Venetus, 1498. fol. 102 leaves, with the signatures *a-s. 17712 — histoire de Polybe, trad. du grec par Vinc. Thuillier, avec les commentaires du chev. Folard. Par., Gandouin, 1727-30. 4°. 6 vols. with plates. Also on large paper.

This valuable work was designed to be in 8 vols.; but as Folard's military frankness was ill received by the government, and the continuation of the work after the appearance of the 5th vol. was only allowed under very limited conditions, he in consequence terminated the work with the 6th vol., to which he added no commentary.

There are copies on large paper of the reprint, Amst. 1729. 4°. 6 vols. The editions, Amst., Chatelain, 1753 or 74. 4°. 7 vols. contain a supplement, which is also added to the more prized Paris edition. An abridgment from Folard's commentary appeared, Par. 1754. 4°. 3 vols. with plates.

diverses qui sont mémorables, tou-chant les guerres, massacres et troubles advenus en France en ces der-nières années (de 1559–70). Without place or date (1570). fol.

This collection, scarce in good condition, of which the 1st part only appeared, contains 40 leaves engraved in wood, by J. Perissin and J. Tortorel. A list of these leaves in Vallierè's catalogue, III. 218 sq.
The copies have after the title sometimes a Latin, sometimes a French, advertisement.
—There is also a German re-engraving of these 40 leaves in small 4°. equally scarce and better executed.

A series different from this, but also containing 40 leaves engraved in wood in large 4°. is less sought after.

17912 PREVOST d'Exiles, Ant. Fr.
Histoire générale des voyages, ou nouvelle collection de toutes les rélations de voyages par mer et par terre, qui ont été publiées jusqu'à présent dans les différentes langues de toutes les nations connues. Par., Didot, 1746–89. 4°. 20 voll. with plates and maps. Also on large paper.

Although hastily prepared and without much arrangement, yet is it not without merit, and far preferable to La Harpe's abridgment. Yet is this latter more sought after. The 20th vol. which is often wanting, may still be had separately for 30 fr.
—At the same time also appeared an edition, ib., id., 1746–89. 12°. 80 vols. with plates.

17913 — — Haye, Hondt, 1747–80.
4°. 25 vols. with plates and maps.
Also on large paper.

This edition, to which the 20th vol. of the Paris edition should be added, is to be preferred on account of its important augmentations. Amongst other things, the history of the Dutch possessions in Asia is added, which fills the entire 17th vol. and contains a great many new plates of natural history.

17914 — historia general de los viages, traducida del inglés al francés por Ant. Fr. Prevost, y al castellano por Miguel Terracina. Madr.,
Lozano, 1763–91. small 4°. 2 vols.

This translation contains some augmen-tations of its own, but neither plates nor maps. See also HISTORIE, No. 9851.

17915 — œuvres choisies. Par., 1783–85. 8°. 39 voll. with plates.

25 copies on Dutch paper. There is usually added thereto, Œuvres choisies de le Sage. Amst. (Par.) 1783. 8°. 15 voll. (50 copies on Dutch paper.) The new edition of the works of both these authors, Par. Leblanc, 1811–16. 8°. 55 voll. with plates (all 55 voll. 273 fr. and on vellum paper 550 fr. Le Sage's works in 16 voll. by themselves 96 fr.) is better in every point of view, except that the plates are worn impressions of the plates of 1783.

17916 — histoire de Manon Lescaut et du chevalier des Grieux. Par., Didot, 1797. 18°. 2 voll. with plates. Also on vellum paper and on large vellum paper.

A copy on vellum with illuminated plates, 220 fr. Delcro (Par., 1802).

The 287th leaf ends the translation of Dionysius Afer with the word Finis, the 288th leaf is blank, and the 289th contains a register. The edition is certainly the same, as in Crévénna's second catalogue, T. III. No. 3057 is erroneously attributed to Vindelinus de Spira.

6 leaves of preliminary matter and 27 leaves. Very scarce, although the impression was 825 copies. It appeared a work of antiquity to J. Ricius, the editor, to whom the author was unknown, at least he calls it antiquis quæ maxime laudantur, certe parem. A new edition, Rom. Mascardus, 1638. 4°. has also become so scarce that Heerkens took this piece, which he found in a copy, for the Tereus of the old Roman poet, L. 18020 PROMTUARIUM iconum insigniorum a seculo hominum, subjectis eorum vitis per compendium, ex probatissimis auctoribus desumptis. Partes II. Lugd., Gu. Rouillius, 1553. 4°. with woodcuts.

18021 — — Ed. II. illustrium virorum, qui a prima successerunt, imaginibus aucta atque locupletata. Partes II. Lugd., Gu. Rouillius, 1581. 4°. with woodcuts.

The portraits, cut on wood en médaillon, are uncommonly neat, and celebrated on that account in Dibdin's Decam. I. 276-78, but the older ones are all fabrications, and only the more modern authentic. Also with Italian text ib. 1553 or 77-78 or 81-82. 4°. and with a French text ib., 1581 or 98. 4°.

PROPAGANDA, see ELENCHUS.

18023 PROPERTIUS, Sext. Aurel. Liber elegiarum. Without place, m. Febr. 1472. small 4°.

74 leaves with 28 lines, without signatures, catchwords and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is SEXTI. AVRELII. PROPERTII. NAV. The colophon is leaf 74<sup>a</sup>. Several bibliographers think, that Catullus and Tibullus also belong to this edition, but no Catullus is yet known adapted to it, and the Tibullus which Audiffredi found bound up with a copy of this Propertius, appears to belong to another press.

18024 — monobiblos ad Tullum. Without place or date (Brix., Th. Ferrandus, about 1473). 4°.

A very scarce and precious edition, which appears to be the first typographical production of Ferrandus. 82 leaves with 25 lines (the last page has 27) without signatures, catchwords and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, MONOBIBLOS PROPERTII AV. The last line of the last page is Quoius honoratis ossa uehāt aq̄s FINIS.

18025 — elegiarum libri, Ant. Volscus recognovit. Romæ, Euchar. Silber, ante id. Januar. 1482. small 4°.

94 leaves with 22 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination.

18026 — elegiar. libri cum commentario Ph. Beroaldi. Bon., Bd. Hectoris et Plato de Benedictis, 1487. fol.

136 leaves (the 1st blank) with the signatures a-s.

18027 — elegiar. libri IV. ad fidem vett. membranar. castigati. Acced. notæ et terni indices (cura Jani Broukhusii). Amst., Wetstein, 1702. 4°. Also on large paper.

Broukhusius retains Scaliger's violent alterations, and received new conjectures too readily into the text, often even without notice, and has not given the various readings of the MSS. he made use of, with sufficient fulness.

18028 — elegiar. libri IV. ad fidem vett. membranar. curis secundis Jani Broukhusii sedulo castigati.

Accedunt terni indices. Amst., Wetstenii, 1727. 4°. Also on large paper.

This edition, superintended by Pt. Vlamming, was prepared from a copy of the preceding, corrected and enlarged in Broukhusius's handwriting. Both stand nearly at the same price.

18029 — Propertius, varietate lectionis et perpetua adnotatione illustratus a F. Thph. Barthio. Acc. indd. rer. ac verbor. Lps., Schwickert, 1777. 8°. (1 d. 12 gr.) Also on writing paper.

The usual text, with exclusion of Scalliger's alterations, and with the various readings of the earlier editions, and of a Dresden MS.

18030 — elegiar. libri IV. Cum commentario perpetuo Pt. Burmanni secundi et multis doctor. notis ineditis. Opus Burmanni morte interruptum Lr. Santenius absolvit. Traj. ad Rh., Wild, 1780. 4°.

A greatly prized edition, which has already become scarce. Only 15 copies were struck off on large paper.

18031 — carmina. Recensuit, illustr. Ch. Thph. Kuinoel. Lps., Fritsch, 1805. 8°. 2 voll. (5 d.)

Only 6 copies were struck off on vellum paper, one of which sold at the duke of Marlborough's sale at London in 1819 for 8l. 10s. 6d. Reprinted, Aug. Taurin., Pomba, 1822. 8°. 2 voll.

18039 PROPHETÆ priores, scil. Josua, Judices, libri Samuelis ac regum, cum commentario Kimchii (hebr.). Soncini, 6 Marchesvan 5046 (m. Oct. 1485). fol.

The first Hebrew edition of this book, which is erroneously set down by most bibliographers in the year 1486. 166 leaves with 44 lines (but often only 42 and 40). The first leaf is blank on the folio recto, and contains on the reverse a preface by Kimchi. The colophon of 21 lines is on the folio recto of the last leaf. What was formerly Reuchlin's copy is now in the Court library at Carlsruhe.

18040 PROPHETÆ posteriores, scil. Isaias, Jeremias, Ezechiel et XII. minores prophetæ, cum commentario Kimchii (hebr.). Without place or date (Soncini, 1486). fol.

Likewise the first Hebrew edition of these books, which forms the 2nd vol. to the preceding article, and is printed with the same types. Still more scarce than the preceding vol. Finitus est et perfectus laus Deo mundi. A description of this edition by Tychsen in Eichhorn's Reper-tor. VII. 165-182. VIII. 52-85.

18041 PROPHETÆ priores s. Josuæ, Judices, libri Samuelis ac regum, cum chaldaica Jonathanis paraphrasi ac commentariis D. Kimchii et Levi Gersonidis. Leirise, 254 (1494). fol.

This edition has points (the preceding is without). The Hebrew text and the Targum stand in the middle in 2 columns side by side.

18042 PROPHETÆ priores cum comm. Kimchii (hebr.) Pisauri, per Gersonem Soncinatem, 271 (1511). fol. Prophetæ posteriores cum comm. Kimchii (hebr.) ib., id., m. Chislev 276 (m. Nov. 1515). fol. 2 voll.

The 2nd vol. of this likewise very scarce edition with points, is sometimes erroneously set down in the year 1516.

18043 PROPHETEN (die) alle Deutsch. D. Marth. (sic) Luth. (sic) MDXXXV. fol. 4 unnumbered and 124 numbered leaves. Apocrypha. D. Mart. Luth. MDXXXV. fol. 75 leaves.

A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Munich. Probably a fragment of the Bible, Witt. Luft, 1535. fol.

18044 PROSA cleri Parisiensis ad ducem de Mena (Mayenne) post cædem Henrici III. cum versione versibus gallicis expressa per Pt. Pighenat. Lutet., Sb. Nivellius, 1559 (Par., Didot, 1786). 8°.

Of this reprint, prepared under the date of the extremely scarce original, which was sold for 361 fr., only 50 copies were struck off on paper and 6 on vellum, one of the latter 72 fr. M'Carthy.

18045 PROSE Fiorentine raccolte dallo Smarrito (C. Dati) e da altri accademici della Crusca. Fir., Santi Franchi, 1716-45. 8°. 17 voll.

This esteemed collection consists of 4 divisions: Orasioni, 6 voll.; Lexioni, 5 voll.; Cose giocose, 2 voll.; and Lettere, 4 voll. The 1st vol. first appeared, Fir. 1661. 8°. Fir. 1760. 8°. 17 vols. is only a new title. There is a reprint of the first 6 vols. made at Florence, of which the 2nd, 4th, 5th, and 6th vols. are preferable to the original edition. The 2nd vol. of the reprint is distinguished by its having in the title, Parte prima, Volume secondo (in the original edition, Parte seconda del volume primo). The reprints of vols. 4-6 may be recognised by the years 1731, 38, and 22 (instead of 1720 in the 4th and 5th vols., and 1723 in the 6th, of the original edition). The year 1722 in the 6th vol. of the reprint is probably a misprint for 1731.

The reprints, Ven., Occhi, 1735. 4°. 5 vols. and another different therefrom, Ven., Remondini, 1734-43. 4°. 6 vols. are not prized.

22 leaves, with the signatures a-d. At the end is, Finis optatus adest.

18052 — liber Prosperi. Without place or date.

In Roman characters. Very scarce, and it appears, to judge from the Gothic letter d in the middle of Roman type, to have been printed by Hans Glim. See Dibdin's Tour, III. 293.

18058 PRUDENTIUS, Aurel. Clem. Opera. Without place or date. (Daventr., Rich. Paffroed, about 1492). 4°. Gothic letter.

The first edition, but not very scarce. 166 leaves, with the signatures a-D, and 31 lines. Leaf 1 contains the title, and leaf 2 some verses of Rdf. Lange (probably the editor) with a notice of Gennadius relative to Prudentius. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the text. A copy lately offered for sale in Munster has the following inscription in a contemporaneous hand: Hunc librum dedit mihi Richardus Daventriæ, pro sollicitationibus meis et pro exemplari, quod sibi misi, which enables us to know the printer with certainty. In this copy there is moreover bound up, Bt. Mantuani parthenice, ib., id., 1492 (this is also to be found in the copy in the Royal library at Paris), and the Carmina in d. Mariam, ib., id., 1490, of Sabellicus and Vegius. Such a copy with the Mantuanus of 1492 probably occasioned the mistake, that there existed an edition of Prudentius of 1472, which there does not. — Consult also JUVENCUS and SEDULIUS.

18059 — Prudentius. Prosper. J. Damascenus. Cosmus Hierosolymitanus. Marcus episcopus Taluontis. Theophanes. Without place or date (Lugd. 1502). 8°.

A reprint of a part of the Poetæ christiani of Aldus with his preface, and often erroneously considered as an Aldine. Consult Nova miscell. Lips. VI. 138. — The Milan edition of 1501, see under SEDULIUS.

18060 — opera, iterum commentariis Ant. Ælii Nebrissensis illustrata. Lucronii, Arn. Gu. de Brocario, 1512. 4°.

Very scarce, and not noticed in Panzer.

18061 — Prudentii, Prosperi et Damasceni carmina. Ven., Aldus, 1518. 8°.

This edition is mentioned in the Catal. della biblioteca Foscari with the following note: Editio adhuc bibliographis ignota. Pagina extrema, in qua Aldi signum et nota anni apparent, genuina est, non annexa glutine, non recenter impressa nec calamo scripta. Notwithstanding this assertion, the existence of a real Aldine of this date is more than suspected, as it has remained unknown to Renouard even up to the present day.

18062 — opera, Ælii Ant. Nebrissensis commentariis et J. Sichardi scholiis illustrata. Antw., Mt. Cassar, 1537. 8°.

Repeated, Antw., Æg. Dieth, 1546. 8°. J. Sichard's earlier edition, Bas., Cratander, 1527. 8°. Also, ib. 1540. 8°.

18063 — opera. Lugd., J. Tornæsius et Gu. Gazeius, 1553. C. Juvenci, Coel. Sedulii, Aratoris sacra poesis. Summa cura et diligentia recognita et collata. ib., iid., 1553. 16°. 2 voll.

The two vols. may easily be joined together.

18064 — sacra quæ extant poemata omnia, acc. J. Sichardi, Erasmi, Jac. Spigellii commentaria. Bas., Henricpetri, 1562. 8°.

18065 — opera emendata a Thdr. Pulmanno, cum commentariis Vict. Gisellini. Antw., Plantinus, 1564. 8°.

LB. 1596 or 1610. 16°. are reprints of this text.

18066 — opera, noviter ad MSS. fidem recensita, interpolata, purgata, notisque et indice illustrata a J. Weitzio. Accesserunt omnium doctor. viror. notæ, scholia atque observatt. cum glossis vett. Hanov., typis Wechel., 1613. 8°.

The editor used 8 MSS. and 6 older editions.

18067 — quæ extant. N. Heinsius ex vetustissimis exemplaribus recensuit et animadvv. adjecit. Amst., Dn. Elzevir, 1667. 12°. 2 parts in 1 vol.

12 leaves of preliminary matter, and 327 pages, then 167 pages notes, and 17 pages index. A new and valuable recension, neatly printed, and sought after. Col. 1701. 8°. is a bad reprint.

18068 — opera. Interpretatione et notis illustrav. St. Chamillard ad usum Delphini. Par., Thiboust, 1687. 4°.

One of the rarest editions of this series, 12 leaves of preliminary matter, 687 pages, and an index with the signatures Sss-Mmmmm.

18069 — quæ exstant. Recens. et adnotatt. illustrav. Cp. Cellarius. Hal. 1703 or 39. 8°.

18070 — opera omnia nunc prim. cum codd. Vaticanis collata, præfatione, variantibus lectionibus, notis ac rerum verborumque indice locupletissimo aucta et illustrata (stud. Jos. Teolii). Parmæ, reg. typogr. (Bodoni). 1788. 4°. 2 voll.

Very splendidly printed, but the notes are uncommonly poor, and the intrinsic value of the edition is small. There are only 4 copies on vellum paper. This edition is often erroneously specified with the date of 1789.

18071 — carmina, ad optimas quasque editt. et MSS. codd. Romanos aliosque recognita et correcta, glossis Isonis magistri et aliis veterum nunc prim. e MSS. depromptis, prolegomenis, commentariis et lectionibus variantibus illustrata a Faustino Arevalo. Romæ, 1788. 4°. 2 voll.

The best edition.

18072 — liber hymnorum. Viennæ, J. Winterburg, without date. 4°. Gothic letter.

28 leaves with 24 lines, and the signatures a-d.

18073 — hymnos traduc. por L. Diez de Aux. Zarag. 1619. 8°. I due libri contro Simmaco, trad. in versi ital. da C. Agst. Ansaldi. Ven., Valvasense, 1754. 8°. Feiergesänge, heil. Kämpfe u. A copy on vellum 172 fr. M'Carthy, from which the copy that lord Spencer possesses seems to be different (Dibdin's Decam. II. 360. III. 398).

18077 PRYNNE. W. Exact chronological vindication and historical demonstration of our British, Roman, Saxon, Danish, Norman, English kings supreme ecclesiastical jurisdiction in and over all spiritual or religious affairs, causes, persons, as well as temporal. Lond. 1666–68. fol. 3 voll.

This work, known under the name of Prynne's Records, was destroyed in the fire of London in 1666, and not more than 70 complete copies are said to exist (according to Dibdin only 30); and it has been sold as high as 152l. Consult British Librarian, p. 11 sq. 15 sq. According to Dibdin's Ædes Althorp. I. 192, all the copies have a somewhat wide margin, and there is properly no copy on large paper. A 4th vol. was also begun to be printed, the only known copy of which is to be found in the library of the duke of Buckingham at Stowe. It consists of 400 pages, and begins on signature B1, with the following superscription, An exact chronological History and full display of Popes Intollerable Usurpations upon the antient just Rights, Liberties, of the Kings, Kingdoms, Clergy, Nobility, Commons of England and Ireland. The fragment thus ends in p. 400, book I. cap. 5, Discant a te Coepiscopi tui et coma —. Consult Dibdin's Decam. III. 400 n.

18078 — antiquæ constitutiones regni Angliæ, sub Joanne, Henrico III. et Eduardo I. circa jurisdictionem et potestatem ecclesiasticam. Lond. 1672. fol.

18079 — histriomastix, the players scourge or actor's tragedy, wherein it is largely evidenced by divers arguments, that popular stage-plays are sinful, heathenish, lewde, ungodly spectacles. Lond. 1633. 4°.

This fanatical condemnation of plays was burnt by the common hangman; it is extremely scarce, and is sold in England for 2 guineas.

18080 PSALMI s. PSALTERIUM.

1. Polyglottum. Psalterium (lat.) quincuplex, videlicet gallicum, romanum, hebraicum, vetus, conciliatum, cum commentariis a Jac. Fabricio. Par., H. Stephanus, 1508 (at the end 1509). small fol.

A copy on vellum 400 fr. M'Carthy. I have placed this Latin edition under the polyglots, only because most people might search for it here.

18081 — — Secunda editio castigatior. Par., H. Steph. 1513. small fol.

A copy on vellum 272 fr. Vallière, and 301 fr. M'Carthy.

18082 — psalterium hebræum, græcum, arabicum et chaldaicum cum tribus latinis interpretationibus et glossis (curav. Agst. Justinianus). Genuæ, Pt. P. Porrus, 16 Nov. 1516. fol.

Remarkable as being the first polyglot in which each language is printed in its proper characters; yet not the first Arabic typographical production (the Septem horas canonicæ. Fani, 1514, is earlier). The editor has given much in his commentary, which would not have been expected: for instance, a biography of Cp. Columbus in a note to Psalm xix. The book is not very scarce considering its antiquity, because (as the editor himself informs us in his Annali della republ. di Genova, p. 224) the impression was 2000 copies, 50 of which were struck off on vellum. Of these vellum copies the following are known: in the Casanata library at Rome, in the Laurentian, in the library of St. John's college at Oxford, in lord Spencer's, and that copy which was sold at Vallière's sale for 192 fr., and at M'Carthy's for 267 fr.

The first Æthiopic typographical production, and exceedingly scarce. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup>, instead of a title, is a woodcut struck off in red, representing king David with the harp. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> is a preface of J. Potken. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> begins the Æthiopic text. At the end of the psalter is a colophon, dis ult. Junii, 1513. Then the alphabetum s. syllabarium on 8 leaves, with a colophon of the 10th of September.

This very scarce work is from the press which is distinguished by the peculiar form of the S. 403 leaves in all, with 36 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. There are at the beginning 2 leaves of introduction; and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, De cōmendatione libri psalterij et utilitate legendi et. Leaf 3<sup>a</sup> begins the psalter; and line 1 is, Ropheta magnus surrexit in no—. Leaf 394<sup>b</sup> ends the psalter with an Expositio terminorū rarorum psalterij. Then follow 9 leaves of collects on each psalm, and leaf 395<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Beatus vir qui non abiit. Collecta. They end in leaf 403<sup>a</sup>, and the reverse is blank. This collation is after the complete Dresden copy (previously in Cat. Bunav. T. I. p. 26), and other specifications of 394 or 398 leaves are incorrect.—In the 22nd Psalm it is read according to this translation: Herr deyn Besen vñ deyn knottel haben mich getrostet.

Spenc.* I. 129 sq., where it is ascribed to St. Arndes at Lübeck about 1494; and it is asserted to be the same copy which is described in Saalen's Meditatt. exeget. P. I. p. 29, 68, and 91. It is uncertain how far this edition differs from the preceding.

Both editions are without points.

18133 — psalterium hebr. cum comm. D. Kimchii. Without place. Joseph et filius ejus Chajim Mordachai et Ezechias Montro, 20 Elul (Sept.) 237 (1477). small fol.

153 leaves with 40 lines. The signatures commence in leaf 68. This extremely rare edition begins in leaf 1<sup>b</sup> with Kimchi's preface, which contains 35 lines. Described by Tychsen in Eichhorn's Repertorium, V. 134-158, who however erroneously supposes it to have been printed in Germany, as it belongs to an Italian press. In a critical point of view it has indeed but very little value, on account of its great incorrectness, but Kimchi's commentary contains entire all the calumnies against the Christian religion, which in the later editions have been either wholly or in part omitted.—The edition of 1487, see under HIOB.

Et Petrū Schoffer de Gernszheim, Anno dñi Millesiō. cccc. lvij. In vigl'ia Assūpcōis. (Mogunt., 1457). large fol. Gothic letter.

This valuable document for the history of the invention of the art of printing, as is well known, is properly not so much a psalter as a breviary, and contains neither all the psalms, nor in their usual order, but is mixed up with antiphons, responses, collects, and so forth, and is arranged according to the order of the Sundays and festivals on which it was used. All the copies that are known have great differences from each other, which makes it evident, that probably each church and convent which procured it only as a work designed for the use of the choir, had it arranged according to its own ritual of worship. The most complete copy known (in the Imperial library at Vienna) has 175 leaves. The layers are usually of 5 sheets (de Boze, p. 255, erroneously states them at 6 and 7 sheets, which is only the case with some). The book contains two sorts of types, a large missal type, with which the text of the psalms is printed (20 lines in a full page), and a smaller type, with which the prayers scattered through the psalms, and the hymns appended to them (23 or 24 lines in a full page), are printed. Signatures, catchwords, and numbering of the leaves, are wanting. The types have often been thought to have been cut in wood, on account of their unevenness, which is very improbable. I consider them to be metal types, but cut, not cast, as is maintained by Fischer and in Arctin's Beiträgen, IV. 62 n. (see B. III. St. 6. p. 63.) It is uncertain whether the initials were engraved in wood, as Heineken thinks. At least they were evidently added afterwards, and indeed with a stronger printing machinery than the border, which seems only to have been printed with a hand-stamp. These borders are red, when the letters are blue, and blue when the letters are red. On the reverse of the last leaf is the colophon, printed in red in 7 lines, and in all the copies the misprint spalmorum is to be found.

General notices respecting this edition, see in Heineken Nachrichten, II. 28. His Idée génér. p. 262 sq. Masch Bibl. sacra, P. II. vol. III. p. 262 sq. Santander Dictionn. III. 300 sq. Lambinet Origine de l'imprim. I. 153 sq. Otto Beitrag zur Gesch. der Psalmsausg. von 1457, in the Dresdner gel. Ans. 1794, St. 44. (Descriptions of single copies, see further below). The colophon is engraved (but insufficiently) in Hist. de l'ac. des inscrr. XIV. 255. Würdtwein bibl. Mogunt. p. 58. Zapf Buchdruckergesch. von Mainz, p. 42 (copied from Würdtwein), very bad in Koninck Verhandelng over den Oorsprong der Boekdrukkunst, p. 198, and reduced in Heineken Nachrr. II. 28, and his Idée génér. p. 266. The initial B in the first page in its real size in Heineken Nachrr. II. 28, and Idée génér. p. 264.

As yet the following copies are known, all on vellum, which I here mention in the order in which they were gradually discovered and made known.

1. In the Royal library at Dresden. This was discovered in 1643 in the choir of the cathedral church at Freyberg, and was placed in the school library there, from whence it was obtained for duplicates of the value of 304 d. 4 gr. It was first mentioned in 1653 in Molleri theatr. Freyberg. I. 129, and then described in Schwarzii primaria docum. de orig. typogr. P. II. p. 7. Wilisch Freyberg Kirchengesch. p. 376. Bernoulli Samml. kurzer Reisebeschr. V. 32 sq. Heineken Nachrr. II. 28 sq. His Idée génér. p. 268 sq. Hecht von der Schulbibl. zu Freyb. Progr. II. p. 6, and Progr. III. p. 5 sq.

This copy, which is defective, and much disfigured by its great use in the choir, contains 121 leaves in all (not 137, as Lambinet says, I. 160), the first 89 of which are numbered, but rather incorrectly, from II. up to CXVI. by a nearly contemporaneous hand, in red. The singing notes are added in writing, but not completely, and other MS. additions are frequently made (even in the text on account of erasures). The number of ornamented initials extends to 195 (including the P in the colophon). Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Dñicis dieb3 post festū trinitatis. Inuitatorium. Underneath are 3 other printed lines; and below the 1st and 3rd, which are printed in red, are the singing notes in writing; then the text itself begins,

B Eatus vir q
nō abiit in consilio impiorū et in via peccō4 nō stetit: 1 i

Leaf 108<sup>a</sup> (in the complete copies 136<sup>a</sup>) ends the psalter, and on the reverse begins a prayer: Oremus p omī gradu eccl'ie. Leaf 109<sup>a</sup> the last or 23rd line is, gradib3 fidelit' s'uiat. P. In unitate ejusdē. Leaf 109<sup>b</sup> is entirely blank. (Consequently in the Dresden copy the litany, prayers, responsions, etc. which in the Vienna copy commence on the page here left blank, do not go on immediately from the beginning.) Then follow 12 hymns, and leaf 110<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Conditor alme syde4. Immediately by the side of these words towards the margin are 2 lines printed in red, In aduentu dñi ad vespas ynus. Leaf 121<sup>a</sup> the last or 21st line is, poris sexū domuit cruentū corpe scl'm. Dora sb'limi, and on the reverse of this leaf is the colophon without the armorial bearings.

2. In the Imperial library at Vienna. It was previously found in the collection in the castle at Ambras, where Lambecius discovered it in 1665, and described it in Comm. de bibl. Vind. Lib. II. p. 989 (ed. vet.). A later description of the same in Heineken Idée génér. p. 264.

It is the finest and most complete copy that is known, as it contains 175 leaves (not 174), and was never actually employed for the use of a choir, and is consequently without singing notes and MS. alterations. The 1st line is, Beatus vir qui, without any abbreviation. The psalter ends in leaf 136<sup>a</sup>. On the reverse of this leaf the Litany begins, which is followed by other prayers, responsions, vigils, vespers, and so forth. An appendix of hymns follows in leaf 153<sup>a</sup>, which ends in leaf 175<sup>a</sup>. Leaf 175<sup>b</sup> is the colophon, and underneath it the armorial bearings of the printers. From the existence of these armorial bearings it may be determined, that this copy was one of the last that left the warehouse of the printers, since it was not until a later period that Faust and Schöffner placed their arms in their typographical productions. This at the same time explains why it is the most complete copy.

3. In the Royal library at Paris. Previously in the collegiate church of S. Victor at Mentz, from whence de Boze acquired it in 1739. After his death the president de Cotte bought it in 1753 for 2000 fr., from whom it came to Gaignat; and Girardot de Préfond purchased it at his sale for 1340 fr., who transferred it to M'Carthy. In February 1817 it was bought for 12,000 fr. at his sale for the Royal library. Described in Hist. de l'acad. des inserr. T. XIV. Hist. p. 254-56, Debure, No. 49, Heineken Idée génér. p. 267 sq.

It contains 169 leaves and 288 initials, it is much cut, and according to Heineken's conjecture is made up of 2 copies at least, one of which was very clean, and the other had been greatly used. The commencement of the 1st psalm is without abbreviation, as in the Vienna copy, Beatus vir qui non abiit. The singing notes are added in writing, and other MS. alterations are to be met with. With the exception of some deviations it agrees with the Vienna copy, but 6 leaves are wanting at the beginning of the hymns (leaves 166-172 of the Vienna copy). The colophon is without armorial bearings.

4. In the year 1738 Bagger, a Dane at Luneville, is said to have sold a copy to count Zaluski, then grand almoner to king Stanislaus, and afterwards bishop of Kiow (Mercier Supplém. à l'hist. de l'impr. de Marchand, Ed. II. p. 18). If this be true, this copy should now be sought for in the Zaluski library at Petersburg.

5. In the library of the king of England at Windsor. Previously in the convent of Ursuline nuns at Hildesheim, then in the possession of counsellor Duve of Hannover, after whose death it came into the Göttingen library, from whence it was afterwards transferred to the king of England. Described in Heineken Idée génér. p. 271, and in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. I. 113, 117. Meerman caused the first page of this copy to be engraved (according to Heineken's account, II. 29), but very unsatisfactorily.

This very neat copy, and the finest after that at Vienna, contains 138 leaves in all. The 1st psalm begins, Beatus vir q non abiit (therefore with abbreviations as in the Dresden copy). The entire book ends in leaf 138<sup>a</sup>, and on the reverse (therefore on that page which in the Dresden copy is 109<sup>b</sup> and blank) is the colophon, without any armorial bearings, so that the Litany, prayers, vigils, and hymns were never to be met with in this copy, as Heineken maintains. But Dibdin says, p. 117, that a leaf is wanting in the supplemental part, or the prayers, and according to that statement more appears to be found in this copy than merely the psalter.

6. In Lord Spencer's library. Previously in the Præmonstratensian monastery of Roth near Memmingen, where Schelhorn discovered it about 1768, and described it in Reiderers Abhandlungen aus der Kirchen-, Bücher- und Gelehrte. Gesch. T. I. p. 1 sq. Other descriptions are in Heineken's Idée génér. p. 270, and in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. I. 107 sq., in which last book a good facsimile of the first 6 lines of the 1st page is to be found. Lord Spencer bought it in 1798 for 3000 Rhenish guilders.

According to Heineken it contains 134 leaves, after which the vespers, vigils, offices of the saints follow in hand-writing. Dibdin however, who makes no mention of any MS. leaves, reckons 142 leaves in all. The leaves are numbered in an antique hand, as in the Dresden copy. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> begins with 2 lines furnished with singing-notes. These lines and notes, as well as the words Venite exulte etc., are written. About 3 inches lower the printed text begins, the 1st line of which is, Beatus vir qui non (without abbreviation). Leaf 134<sup>a</sup> (according to Heineken) is the last prayer, Omnipotens etc., and on the reverse is the colophon without any armorial bearings.

7. Another copy was discovered in the Cathedral church at Mentz in 1787, by Würdtwein, which was afterwards in the library of the Prince Elector of Mentz at Aschaffenburg, but during the revolutionary war it entirely disappeared. Described in Würdtwein's Bibl. Mogunt. p. 55-57 (with a facsimile of the colophon), and in Zapf's ältester Buchdruckergesch. von Mainz, p. 7 sq. (with a copy of that facsimile).

175 leaves, without any armorial bearings after the colophon.

8. In the University library at Mentz, but obliged to be delivered to general Custine in 1793, and having since then likewise disappeared. Fischer's Beschreib. typogr. Seltenheiten, I. 41, expressly distinguishes it from the preceding copy.

18153 — psalterium latinum. At the end, Presens Psalmorum codex: Venustate capitalium decoratus. rubricationibusque sufficienter distinctus. adinuencione artificiosa imprimendi ac caracterizandi: absque ulla calami exaracione sic effigiatus. et ad laudem Dei ac honorem sancti yacobi est consumatus, per Johannem Fust civem Maguntinum. et Petrum Schoifher de Gernszheym clericum. Anno dni Millesimo cccc. LIX. XXIX. die. mensis Augusti. (Mogunt. 1459). large fol. Gothic letter.

This second edition is not less scarce and precious than the first, from which it essentially differs with respect to its contents, since it does not contain the same number of prayers and hymns. The types appear to be the same, excepting that the contractions are different from those of the first edition. 136 leaves (163 in Heineken is a misprint), of which leaves 1-118 are printed in a large missal-type (yet with smaller types intermixed), but leaves 119-136 in a smaller type solely. Thus Dibdin himself describes the Paris copy in his Tour, II. 251, and Lambinet also knew only of 136 leaves. In the Bibl. Spencer. I. 118, 119, on the contrary, the Spencer copy is stated at 151 leaves. Without signatures, catchwords, and pagination, with 23 lines in a full page, as the size is somewhat broader. In the entire book there are 286 ornamented initials, of which the B at the beginning is the same as in the first edition. An empty space is left for the singing notes, which are annexed in writing. The first 3 lines of leaf 1<sup>a</sup> in the Spencer copy are thus:

B atus
qui nō abiit in cōsilio im-

At the side of the 1st and 2nd line towards the margin there is printed in a smaller character fiā scda ad primam and so forth. In leaf 136<sup>b</sup> (in lord Spencer's copy, leaf 151<sup>b</sup>) is the colophon printed in red.

Descriptions of this edition see in Debure, No. 49. Heineken's Idée génér. p. 273 sq. Würdtwein's Bibl. Mogunt. p. 61 sq. Lambinet, I. 162 sq. Santander's Dictionn. III. 302. Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. I. 117-119. All the known copies, which are on vellum, are: 1. In the University library at Mentz. 2, 3. Two copies in the Royal library at Paris, one of which was bought at Mentz in 1788, but the other is defective. 4. Lord Spencer's. Formerly at Mentz, then in the library of Cardinal Loménie de Brienne, from whence lord Spencer purchased it for 2501 fr. in assignats. 5. A private individual's in Edinburgh, who bought the less fine copy which lord Spencer had before. 6. In the library of the king of England. 7. Mr. Hibbert's at Clapham; near London, previously in the possession of de Boze (1200 fr.), de Cotte, Préfond, and Gaignat. At that time 11 leaves were wanting in it, Debure bought it at Gaignat's sale, and transferred it in 1770 to M'Carthy, who in 1806 was fortunately able to complete it from another defective copy. Hibbert purchased it at M'Carthy's sale for 3350 fr. 8. Sir Mark Masterman Sykes at London. 9. Mr. Willett of Merly in Dorsetshire possessed a defective copy, which was sold at his sale in 1813 for 63l.—According to Gereken's Reisen, III. 53, there were two copies at Mentz in the monasteries of St. Alban and St. Victor, in the first of which there was in the colophon, ad laudem dei ac honorem S. Albani (instead of Jacobi), and in the other, ac honorem S. Victoris; but Lambinet, I. 165, declares both these copies to be chimerical, without stating his reasons for so doing.

In the London bookseller Edward's catalogue of 1796 the following edition was offered for sale at 40l. Psalmorum codex Edit. antiq., Mogunt. per Schoeffer, without date. fol. 158 leaves, on vellum. This edition coincided page for page with that of 1459, and ended with the Canticum Ysaie, but the following page was entirely blank. It was printed with the large missal types of the psalter of 1459, excepting the rubrics of the psalms and the text to the singing notes, which were printed with the smaller type of the psalter of 1457.

18154 — psalterium latinum. Mog., Pt. Schoffer de Gernsheym, ult. die m. Aug. 1490. large fol. Gothic letter.

The third edition, still more scarce, but not so valuable, of which only two copies on paper, besides that on vellum in the Royal library at Paris, are known (Lord Spencer's and that in the library at Eisenach). The types are those of the 2nd edition, but greatly worn, and the notes are printed in this edition. The total number of leaves Dibdin, in the Bibl. Spenc. I. 120, gives at 181, but in his Tour, II. 251, at 182. The large missal type goes as far as leaf 158<sup>a</sup> (according to the Tour 159<sup>a</sup>), the remaining 23 leaves are printed in smaller type. The page has 20 lines, and the red printed colophon is on the folio recto of the last leaf.

18155 — psalterium latinum. Mog., Pt. Schoffer de Gernszheym, in vigilia S. Thome 1502. fol. Gothic letter.

The 4th edition, also very scarce, printed in red and black, and the types resemble those of 1457. There are no printed notes, and the fine initials of the earlier editions are also wanting. 175 leaves (or 176 if the blank leaf after the 154th be included), the first 136 of which are numbered I-CXXXVII, as the numbering skips from 124 to 126. Dibdin, in his Tour, II. 252, appears not to have observed this error in the numbering, consequently according to his reckoning there are 177 leaves. The large type goes as far as leaf 154, the remaining 21 leaves are printed with the smaller type.

18156 — psalterium ordinis S. Benedicti de observantia Bursfeldensi. Mog., J. Schöffer, 1516. fol. Gothic letter.

The 5th edition. 177 leaves with the title and colophon, and the signatures a-v and A-C. The types appear to be those of the edition of 1457. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris.

- 18157 — psalterium latinum. Without place or date (Bamb., Pfister). fol. Gothic letter.

With 29 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Eatus vir qui non abiit in cōsilio. The last leaf contains the Athanasian Creed, and the last line of the last page is, uus esse non poterit. Finit foeliciter.

- 18158 — psalterium latinum. Without place or date. fol. Gothic letter.

144 numbered leaves with 20 lines. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, Beatus vir qui nō abiit. The first page has 15 lines.

- 18159 — psalterium latinum. Neap., H. Alding et Peregrin. Bermentlo, 5 Jul. 1476. small 4°.

Very scarce, as is also the following.

- 18160 — psalterium lat. Messanæ, H. Alding, 1478. 4°.

- 18161 — psalterium lat. cum commentariis Gbr. Brebia. Mediol. (Ph. Lavagna), nonis Quintil. 1477. small 4°. Gothic letter.

340 leaves with 30 lines, without signatures, catchwords, and pagination. A copy on vellum is specified in Ayala's catalogue (Vien. 1806. 8°.).

- 18162 — psalterium Romanum. Ven., Jenson, 1478. fol.

An incomplete copy on vellum, 21 fr. M'Carthy (No. 256). But might not this edition be one and the same with the Breviar. Rom. of 1478, of the same printer's (see above, No. 2966, and No. 250 in M'Carthy's catalogue)?

- 18163 — psalterium lat. (Lubecæ), Bm. Ghotan, 1481. fol. Gothic letter.

With 25 lines. This very scarce edition is not noticed in Panzer. The Dresden copy is defective at the beginning.

- 18164 — psalterium lat. Lipczigk, Cr. Kacheloven, 1485. 4°. Gothic letter.

167 leaves with 18 lines. The fine Gothic letter type is very like the smaller type in the Mentz psalter of 1457.

- 18165 — psalterium ad usum ecclesiæ Argentinensis. (Arg.), J. Reynard alias Grunynger, 1489. 8°. 2 voll.

A copy on vellum, 37 fr. Lauraguais.

- 18166 — psalterium et breviarium

juxta chorum ecclesiæ Pataviensis. AV., Erh. Ratdolt, 1490. 8°. 2 vols. Gothic letter.

A copy on vellum, 20 fr. M'Carthy.

- 18168 — psalterium. Ven., Gbr. Petri, without date 16°.

A copy on vellum, 21. 2s. Pinelli, and 15 fr. M'Carthy. A second copy on vellum, but defective, 30 paoli in Molini's catalogue of 1807.

- 18169 — psalterium secundum consuetudinem curiæ Romanæ. Without place or date. 8°. 2 vols. Gothic letter.

A copy on vellum 38 fr. Vallière, and 100 fr. M'Carthy.

- 18170 — psalterium feriatum, hymni etc. secundum usum Cisterciensis ordinis. Without place or date. 4°.

A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris.

- 18171 — psalterium et liber hymnorum. Without place or date. 4°. Gothic letter.

8 and 64 leaves in 2 columns, printed in red and black. Lord Spencer has a copy on vellum. It does not follow from the words in leaf 7<sup>a</sup> (of the preliminary matter) column 2, prout definitum fuit anno MCCCC, that the book also was printed in 1500, as it might seem to do according to Bibl. Speno. I. 124.

- 18172 — psalterium nuper translatum ex hebræo, chaldæo et græco per Sanctum Pagninum cum commentariis Hebræor. per eundem translatis et scholiis ejusd. cum orthodoxa atque catholica expositione. Without place or date (Romæ, 1521). fol.

186 numbered leaves of text, and 6 unnumbered leaves of dedication to Leo X. and other prolegomena. The work was printed at the cost of Leo X., and remained unfinished on account of his death, and the copies in store were probably used as waste paper; hence only one copy on vellum (formerly in the library of the Theatines at Venice, then 14l. 14s. Pinelli, and 306 fr. M'Carthy, and now in the Royal library at Paris) and one copy on paper (in the Casanata library at Rome) are known. Consult Nuova raccolta d'opusc. scientif. e filol. T. 31. No. 1. and T. 35. No. 7.

18173 — psalterium lat. Par., Sim. Colinæus, 1524. 12°.

Lord Spencer has a copy on vellum.

18174 — psalterium Davidis. Lps. 1527. 8°.

A copy on vellum in the Cathedral library at Magdeburg.

18175 — psalterium Davidis juxta translationem veterem, alicubi tamen emendatam et declaratam et accuratius distinctam juxta Ebraicam veritatem, additis etiam singulor. psalmor. brevibus argumentis (cum præf. P. Eberi). (Will., Lr. Schwenck), 1565. — Psalmi s. cantica ex sacris literis, in ecclesia cantari solita, cum hymnis et collectis s. orationibus piis. ib., id., 1565. large fol. Gothic letter, 2 parts in 1 vol. with woodcuts and singing notes.

There is a copy on vellum of this finely printed edition in the Royal library at Dresden. The psalter has 8 leaves of preliminary matter, 213 numbered and 3 unnumbered leaves; the cantica have 101 numbered and 2 unnumbered leaves. After the title of the psalter there is a large and fine woodcut representing Maximilian II. The cantica contain 16 fine woodcuts, of which one in leaf 69<sup>b</sup> is marked with HB 1550.

18212 PTOLEMÆUS, Cl. Μαθηματικῇ συντάξις. Composition mathématique, trad. du grec en franç. (avec le texte grec en regard) sur les MSS. originaux de la biblioth. impér. de Paris, par M. Halma, et suivie des notes de M. Delambre. Par., Grand et Eberhart, 1813-16. large 4°. 2 vols. with plates (100 fr., 35 copies on vellum paper 200 fr., 5 copies on very large vellum paper 500 fr. also 5 copies on very large fine paper).—Κανὼν βασιλειῶν καὶ φασεὶς ἀπλανῶν. If all be not afforded that could have been wished, particularly in a critical point of view, in this new edition, yet is it at any rate equally important and deserving of approbation. It is a pity that its price is so high. A reprint of its text with a corrected Latin translation and a selection of the most important notes would not be without merit.

These 2 vols. belong to each other. The 2nd vol., or the mathematical works (especially of the edition of 1551), is greatly sought after.

18216 — geographiæ libri VIII. græco-latini. Latine primum re.

cogniti et emendati, cum tabulis geographicis ad mentem auctoris restitutis per Ger. Mercatorem. Jam vero ad græca et latina exemplaria a Pt. Montano iterum recogniti et castigati. Amst. et Ff., Jod. Hondius et Corn. Nicolai, 1605. large fol. with maps.

1 title-plate, 5 leaves preface, &c., 28 maps, 15 leaves index, 1 blank leaf, 215 pages Greek and Latin text, 16 leaves index. Differences are sometimes found in the copies; see Arctin's Beitr. V. 539 n. The Greek text is merely a repetition of the text of the preceding edition.

18217 — theatri geographiæ veteris Tom. prior, in quo Ptolemæi geographiæ libri VIII. gr. et lat. Græca ad codd. Palatinos collata, aucta et emendata sunt, latina infinitis locis correcta op. Pt. Bertii. Amst., Jod. Hond, 1618.—Theatri geographiæ veteris Tomus posterior, in quo itinerarium Antonini, provinciar. Romanar. libellus, civitates provinciar. gallicar., itinerarium a Burdigala Hierosolymam usque, tabula Peutingeriana, parergi Orteliani tabulæ aliquot. Amst., Jod. Hond, 1619. large fol. 2 parts in 1 vol. with maps.

A scarce, greatly prized, and costly work, although the Greek text, particularly in the numbers, is often incorrect. The copies are usually stained and spotted, and are also often disfigured by bad illuminations. It ought to be very carefully collated, as it is very seldom complete.

Tom. I. 1 printed half-title, 1 title-plate, 1 leaf dedication, 5 leaves preface, 253 pages Greek and Latin text in 2 columns, then 1 half-title (tabularum Ptolemaicarum delineatio), 27 maps on entire sheets, and one (appendix III. tabulæ Africæ) on a half-sheet [namely, 1 general map, 10 for Europe, 5 for Africa, including the appendix III. tabulæ, which is commonly wanting, and 12 for Asia], then 28 pages Ger. Mercatoris annotatt., and 20 leaves index locorum, populorum &c.

Tom. II. 1 title-plate, 1 half-title, and 46 pages itineraria Antonini, 8 maps on 4 sheets tabula Peutinger., 20 pages of explanation belonging thereto (between p. 4 and 5 a single map ought to be found, Scheda prior), then Ortelii geographiæ vet. tabulæ aliquot, containing 1 half-title, and 14 maps with text, and the signatures

PP-KKK (35 leaves in all), last of all a single leaf, containing on the folio recto a notice ad lectorem, and on the reverse the following date, LB., excudeb. typis suis Is. Elsevirius, 1618.

That all these foregoing pieces really and essentially belong to a quite complete copy, has been proved by Brunet's and my own collation. Deviations however are frequently found in the copies. In one Dresden copy of the year 1618, which in other respects is quite complete, and where in Pt. Kaerii Germania inferior. Amst. 1617, is bound up besides, the 5th map of Africa (appendix tabulæ III.) is wanting in the 1st part. In the other copy, which is fine and illuminated, and has no date of year in the title of the 1st part this map is indeed to be found, but instead of it there is wanting at the end of the 2nd part the entire tabulæ Ortelii, and in place thereof his Parergon theatri orbis terrarum. Amst. 1624. is bound up. As the binding is contemporaneous and of the same kind as that used by the Dutch publishers of maps of that period (vellum binding stamped with gold), it appears that to the later sold copies instead of single maps of Ortelius his entire Parergon was really annexed.

18218 — cosmographia latine reddita a Jac. Angelo, cum castigationibus Hi. Manfredi, Pt. Boni etc. Bonon., Dm. de Lapis, 23 Jun. M.CCCC.LXII. (1462). large fol.

A very scarce edition, and celebrated for its manifestly false date (the correctness of which is unhappily defended in Hager's Geogr. Büchersaal, II. 307). That instead of 1462 ought to be read 1472, think Debure, (Bibliogr., No. 4192), Brn. Gamba (in his separate tract), Osservazioni su la edizione della geografia di Tolomeo fatta in Bologna colla data del 1462. Bassano, 1796. large 8°. and Alter (in the Allg. literar. Anzeiger, 1800, p. 993 sq.) J. Bt. Bernhart (Arctin's Beitr. V. 497 sq. 609 sq.) is in favour of 1480. Heineken (Idée Génér. p. 145), Audiffredi (editt. ital. p. 12), Dibdin (Bibl. Spenc. II. 297), and others are in favour of 1482. Breitkopf is for 1491, so that it might be read MCCCCLXLI. (über den Druck der geogr. Karten, p. 6.) The most probable date may perhaps be 1482. Consult also concerning this edition, Heineken Nachrr. von Künstlern, P. I. p. 282, and P. II. Vorr. p. XXVIII. Muccioli Catal. Bibl. Malatest. II. 205. Santander Dictionn. I. 250. III. 304.

58 printed leaves in 2 columns, with the signatures A-D, a-c, and E. (Leaf 1st column 1 line 1 is, BEATISSIMO PA.

TRI ALEXAN), then 1 leaf, list of maps (with an advertisement, Tabulas cosmographias secundum dimensiones etc.) next 26 (not 27) maps engraved on copper or rather on tin (a facsimile of which is in Bibl. Spenc. II. 300). Also 1 blank leaf at the beginning and the same at the end. The maps consist of a general map, 10 of Europe, 4 of Africa, 10 of Asia, and 1 of the Indian islands. They are quite different from those of the Roman editions of 1478 and 90.

18219 — cosmographia lat. reddita a Jac. Angelo, edita ab Ang. Vadio et Barnabo Picardo. Vicentiæ, Hm. Levilapis, id. Sept. 1475. fol. with woodcuts.

Properly the first edition of this translation, but less prized than the following, because it is without maps. 144 leaves (the 1st blank) with 39 lines in a full page, running all across, and the signatures aa, bb, a-h, and A-G. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> line 1 is, BEATISSIMO PATRI ALEXANDRO. In lord Spencer's copy 5 other leaves follow after the colophon, superscribed Ymago Mundi Incipit, with geographical woodcuts, and an explanation printed in Gothic letter. But it by no means belongs to this edition.

18220 — geographia lat. reddita a Jac. Angelo, emendata per Domitium Calderinum. Romæ, Arn. Buckinck, 6. id. Oct. 1478. large fol.

This very scarce edition is very precious and sought after as the second book with copper-plate engravings; (see ANTONIO). 70 leaves (the last blank) in 2 columns with 50 lines, without signatures, catch-words, and pagination. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank, and leaf 1<sup>b</sup> contains a dedication to Sixtus IV. Leaf 2<sup>a</sup> column 1 line 1 is, Claudii Ptolomæi Cosmographie. Leaf 69<sup>b</sup> column 1 is the colophon, and column 2 the register. Then follows 1 blank leaf, and after it 27 maps engraved in copper (1 general map, 10 for Europe, 4 for Africa, 12 for Asia.) These maps, a facsimile of which is in Dibdin's Bibl. Spenc. IV. 538, were begun by Cr. Sweynheym, and finished by Arn. Buckinck.

18221 — Cosmographia, lat. reddita a Jac. Angelo, curam mapparum gerente Nicolao Donis Germano. Ulmæ, Ln. Hol, 17 cal. Aug. 1482. large fol.

69 leaves in 2 columns with 44 lines, and the signatures a-h, then 32 maps engraved in wood. The colophon is on the reverse of the last map. It begins with a dedication to Paul II., and leaf 1<sup>a</sup> column 1 line 1 is BEATISSIMO PATRI PAVLO SE. The text of Ptolemy begins in leaf 2<sup>a</sup> column 1, and the 1st line is, COSMOGRA. Leaf 69<sup>a</sup> column 1 ends the text, and the last, or 23rd line is, HINC SEQVNTVR TABVLE. On the upper margin of the 1st map is, Insculptum est per J. Schnitzer de Armsheim, and at the end is the colophon of 12 lines in small capitals. The farther appendages, which Panzer, III. 535, adjudges to this edition, belong not to it but to the edition of 1486. Concerning the differences in the copies see Arétin's Beitr. V. 531 n. 5 copies on vellum are known: the 1st at M'Carthy's sale, 800 fr. (previously 400 fr. Gaignat and 412 fr. Brienne) the 2nd lord Spencer's, the 3rd the duke of Devonshire's, the 4th in the British museum, and the 5th in the Rhedigerian library at Breslau.

This last copy is remarkable for having given occasion to an edition which does not exist, Romæ, N. Gallus, 1482. fol. (Krans Memorabil. bibl. Elisabeth, p. 74. Audifredi Catal. edd. Rom. p. 252. Panzer, II. 480.) The very accurate description of it for which I am indebted to the kindness of the librarian of that library, the prorektor Menzel, places me in a situation to assert with certainty that this copy, in very fine condition, undoubtedly belongs to the Ulm edition of 1482. In the colophon indeed the last 3 lines are omitted, so that it ends with the words Calendas XVII., and the statement of the place of printing and of the printer is deficient. In consequence, under the last line is written by some ill-conjecturing hand, ROMÆ. The maps are illuminated, and the before-mentioned statement of the wood-engraver is wanting in the margin of the 1st map. The lines stand on red marks, yet only slightly transparent. In signature a 5 the figure 5 is added in writing.

18222 — cosmographia lat. reddita a Jac. Angelo, curam mapparum gerente N. Donis. Ulmæ, opera et expensis Justi de Albano de Venetiis per provisorem suum Joh. Reger, 12 cal. Aug. 1486. large fol.

140 printed leaves in 2 columns, with 44 lines and the signatures, a-e, and a-i, and a-c, and 32 maps engraved on wood, which are the same as in the preceding edition. Leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is blank. Leaf 1<sup>b</sup> is a direction how to use the index, and the 1st line is, Nota ad inueniendum igitur regiones pro. An alphabetical index follows in leaves 2-42. Then 74 leaves, text of Ptolemy (leaf 1<sup>a</sup> is Donis's dedication to Paul II,) with the signatures a-i. Next 32 maps.

Last of all 24 leaves de locis ac mirabilibus mundi with the signatures a-c. A copy on vellum in the Magliabechian library at Florence.

18223 — cosmographia lat. reddita a Jac. Angelo. Romæ, Pt. de Turre, 4 Nov. 1490. large fol.

119 printed leaves (4 of which are blank) in 2 columns with 53 lines and the signatures a-e, a-h and a-o, and 27 maps engraved on copper, which are impressions of the same plates that had been already used for the edition of 1478. The work begins with 36 leaves, an alphabetical index (the first and last leaves blank) with the signatures a-e; then follow 62 leaves, the text of Ptolemy (the first and last leaves likewise blank) with the signatures a-h; next the 27 maps, and last of all 21 leaves, de locis ac mirabilibus mundi, with the signatures a-o.

18224 — geographiæ (sic) Cl. Ptolemæi a plurimis uiris emendata et cum archetypo græco ab ipsis collata. Schemata cum demonstrationibus suis correctâ a M. Beneventano et J. Cotta. Romæ, Bernardin. Venetus de Vitalibus, 8 Sept. 1507 (in the title 1508). large fol.

106 leaves with the signatures a-o, 1 blank leaf, 34 maps (not 33) engraved on copper and 20 leaves Tractatus de tribus orbis partibus, with the signatures Aa-Cc. 7 new maps, but not so well engraved, are here added to the 27 old maps of the editions of 1478 and 90.

18225 — liber geographiæ cum tabulis et universali figura et cum additione locor., quæ a recentioribus reperta sunt, diligenti cura emendatus et impressus (cum annotatt. Bn. Sylvani Eboliensis). Ven., Jac. Pentius de Leucho, 20 Mart. 1511. large fol.

62 leaves with the signatures A-I, and 30 leaves of maps engraved on wood. A copy on vellum 770 fr. Brienne; a second, 381 fr. Santander, 400 fr. d'Ourches; a third (defective) 162 fr. M'Carthy.

18226 — geographie opus nouissima traductione e Grecorum archetypis castigatissime pressum. Arg., J. Schott, 12 Mart. 1513. fol.

60 numbered and 14 unnumbered leaves, 46 maps engraved on wood, and 15 leaves, tractatus de locis mundi. The translation is that of J. Angelus, but corrected from a Greek MS.

18227 — nova translatio primi libri geographiæ, J. Vernerio interprete. Nrb., J. Stuchs, 1514. fol.

18228 — Ptolemæus auctus, restitutus, emaculatus, cum tabulis vett. ac novis. Arg. J. Scotus, 1520. fol.
With 47 maps engraved on wood.

18229 — cosmographia latine cum neotericor. perlustrationibus (edid. Lr. Phrisius). Arg., J. Grieninger, 1522. fol.

With 49 maps engraved on wood. The notorious passage respecting Palestine, which was subsequently laid to the charge of Servetus as a crime, already exists in this edition on the 3rd map of Africa.

18230 — geographiæ enarrationis libri VIII. Bilib. Pirckheymero interprete. Annotatt. J. de Regiomonte in errores commissos a Jac. Angelo in translatione sua. Arg., J. Grieninger, 1525. fol.

82 numbered and 14 unnumbered leaves, and 50 maps engraved on wood. J. Huttichius appears to have superintended the edition. In the Royal library at Dresden there is a copy of this edition, (previously in the library of chancellor Louis, and then in Bunau's, see Cat. Bunav. T. I. vol. III. p. 2130.) in which an ancient hand has added additions in writing, which are exactly the same as those afterwards added in Servetus's edition. The Bünaue Catalogue thinks it is Servetus's own handwriting, but I have not yet discovered a certain ground for such an opinion.

18231 — geographiæ enarrationis libri VIII. Ex Bil. Pirckeymeri translatione, sed ad græca et prisca exemplaria a Mch. Villanouano (Serveto) jam primum recogniti. Adjecta insuper ab eodem scholia. Lugd., Melch. et Gasp. Trechsel, 1535. fol.

149 pages and 1 leaf, 38 leaves of index, and 50 maps engraved on wood. This scarce edition is remarkable, and sought after on account of its having afforded one of the pretexts for the condemnation of Servetus. With what injustice, as he has given very little of his own in it, is evident from the note to the edition of 1522. Respecting this point, consult Mosheim Gesch. des Servet, p. 260. Vogt Catal. libr. rar p. 700 sq. Artigny Mémoires, II. 63 sq. Kneschke Gesch. der Rathsbibl. zu Zittau, p. 50 sq. *Will Nürnberg. 18232 — libri VIII. de geographia e græco denuo traducti J. Noviomagi opera. Nunc prim. in lucem editi. Col., J. Ruremundanus, 1540. 8°.

18233 — geographicæ enarrationis libri VIII. . . . (as in No. 18231) a Mch. Villanovano (Serveto) secundo recogniti. Lugd., Hugo a Porta, 1541. fol.

149 pages and 48 leaves, with the signatures a–h, and 50 maps engraved on wood. This edition is enlarged, but much of the edition of 1535 is also omitted, so that both ought to be had.

18234 — geographia olim a Bil. Pirckheimerio translata, at nunc multis codd. græcis collata et ad pristinam veritatem reducta a Jos. Moletio. Ven., Valgrisius, 1562. 4°.

With 64 maps engraved on copper.

18235 — geographiæ libri VIII. recogniti jam et diligenter emendati, cum tabulis geograph. ad mentem auctoris restitutis ac emendatis per Ger. Mercatorem. Col. Agr., Gf. Kempensis, 1584. large fol. with 27 maps.

18236 — geographiæ universæ tum vet. tum novæ opus. Ptolemæi geographicæ enarrationis libri VIII. commentariis illustrati a J. Ant. Mangino etc. Col. Agr. Keschedt, 1597. 4°. With maps engraved on copper.

18239 — la geografia nuovam. trad. di greco in italiano da Girol. Ruscelli. Ven., Valgrisi, 1561. 4°. Also Ven., Ziletti, 1564 or 74. 4°. Ven., Sessa, 1598. (new title 1599). 4°.

With 63 maps engraved on copper.

18240 — geografia cioè descrizione universale della terra . . . dal lat. nell' italiano tradotta da Ln. Cernoti. Ven., Galignani, 1598 or 1621. fol.

With 64 maps engraved on copper. The translation is properly that of Ruscelli.

18242 — magnæ constructionis i. e. perfectæ coelestium motuum pertractationis libri XIII. Theonis Alexandrini in eosdem commentarior. libri XI. (gr.) Bas., J. Walder, 1538. fol. 2 parts in 1 vol.

8 leaves of preliminary matter and 327 pages. Then Theon with 4 leaves, 425 pages and 1 leaf with the printer's symbol. The first edition, fine and very scarce, and the only one previous to that by Halma, consequently its price has hitherto been very high. Theon is sometimes wanting in the copies. A copy on vellum in the Royal library at Paris (previously in St. Mark's library at Venice). Sim. Gryneus superintended the publication of Ptolemy and J. Camerarius that of Theon.

18243 — mathematicæ constructionis liber primus, gr. et lat. editus. Additæ explicatt. aliquot locor. ab Erasmo Reinholt. Witt., J. Luft, 1549. 8°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 123 numbered leaves, 1 leaf of errata, and 1 tablelle.

thone interprete. Ejusd. fructus libror. suor. s. centum dieta ex con-versione Joviani Pontani. Bas.,
Oporinus, 1553. 8°.

269 pages, Latin translation, 8 leaves and 229 pages of Greek text, with a separate title. PROCLUS, No. 17985 belongs here.

Al-Hacer, son of Juzef, made an Arabic translation of the Almagestum in the year of the Hegira 212 (A. D. 827.) This translation Isaac, the son of Sid, of the surname of Haza translated into Spanish, and from this Spanish translation is the barbarous Latin translation of Ægidius Tebaldinus derived, see Gasp. Ibañez Memorias histor. sobre el rei D. Alonso el Sabio. Madr.
1777. fol. p. 453. The translations of Ger.
Cremonensis (from the Arabic) and of
G. Trapezuntius (from the Greek) are different from this.

66 leaves (the first and last blank) with 31 lines, and the signatures a–e and a–d. The book is interesting on account of the appended mnemonics with mnemonical woodcuts. Also, Ven., Erh. Ratdolt, prid. cal. Febr. 1485. 4°, with the same woodcuts, 66 leaves (the first blank) with 32 lines, the signatures A–H, and in Roman characters. From this last edition, which lord Spencer bought for 8l. 18s. 6d., Dibdin has given a fac-simile of the woodcuts in Bibl. Spenc. III. 475; but in p. 472. he incorrectly doubts the existence of an edition of 1482, which Fossi had nevertheless already described, II. 420. The first known edition of these 3 small poems, which Audiffredi attributed to Pulci, incorrectly however according to Molini's catalogue of 1807, (ediz. del sec. 15), p. 10. The author is said to be rather a certain Ant. Acquetini. It begins without any superscription, and ends with a colophon of 22 lines, Finisse la passione del nostro signore etc.

18286 — la passione del nostro signore Jesu Christo. Fir., Fr. Bonaccorsi, 3 Nov. 1490. 4°.

18289 PULCI, Luca. Cyriffo Calvaneo composto per Luca de Pulci ad petitione del magnifico Lr. de Medici. Without place or date, (Flor., Miscomini, before 1490). 4°.

112 leaves with the signatures a-o, and 24 lines. The book begins in leaf 1<sup>a</sup> with the above title in 4 lines, and the 1st line is, CYRIFFO CALVANEIO COMPO. The last line of leaf 112<sup>b</sup> is, Et così decto se chiamare il boia. This first edition of one of the oldest Italian epic poems of chivalry contains only the 1st canto, which alone Pulci finished. Bn. Giumbullari composed the remaining three.

18290 — Ciriffo Calvaneo, composto per Luca de Pulci et parte per Luigi suo fratello. Fir., Ant. Tubini et And. da Pistoja, 1509. 4° with woodcuts.

This edition also only contains the 1st book, and after the 138th stanza, 5 stanzas are repeated by mistake, which had already appeared before. At the end of the poem, which closes with the verse, Et così detto se chiamare il boia, 29 other stanzas follow, which have not been reprinted in any subsequent edition.

18291 — Ciriffo Calvaneo et il povero adveduto composto per Luca de Pulci et parte per Luigi suo fratello ad petitione del magnif. Lr. de Medici. Nuovamente stampato et correpto. Mil., Scinzenzeler, 1518. 4°.

primo libro per Luca Pulci, il resto per Bn. Giambullari. Ven., Niccolini da Sabio, 1535. 4°. with woodcuts.

139 unnumbered leaves and 1 blank leaf. In this very scarce and cited edition, which also contains Giambullari's completion of the poem, it is said to be di nuovo riformato, which leads to the conclusion of its being a revised edition.

18295 — Ciriffo Calvaneo, con la giostra del magnif. Lr. de' Medici. Insieme con le epistole composte dal medesimo Pulci, nuovamente ristampate. Fir., Giunti, 1572. 4°.

18296 — — Fir., Giunti, 1618. 4°.

2 leaves and 122 pages. A repetition of the preceding.

18297 — la giostra di Lr. de Medici messa in rima da Luigi de Pulci anno M.CCCC.LXVIII. Without place or date.

Sometimes bound up with the Giostra di Giul. de Medici. Fir. Gi. St. di Carlo, 1513. 4°. and it seems to be of the same printing. There is also an earlier undated edition, which is sometimes found with Pistole, Fir. 1481. As to the rest, the poem is not by Luigi but by Luca Pulci.

18298 — la giostra di Lr. de Medici messa in rima da Luigi Pulci. Fir., Bn. di Giunta, 1518. 8°.

With 33 lines and the signatures a-e.

18305 — — Fir., ad petitione di Ser Piero Pacini, 1513. 4°.

At the end there is also on 6 leaves, Epistola consolatoria de caldi, freddi et tiepidi et una frottola insieme.

18306 — Ven., Rusconi, 1518. 8°.

Haym mentions also an edition Fir., Giunta, 1518. 8°.

18307 — il Driadeo, composto in rima octava per Lucio Pulcro (sic). Flor., without the printer's name. 3 Apr. 1479. 4°.

A very scarce edition of this poem, and probably the first; it is sometimes in the editions ascribed to Luigi Pulci, but probably belongs to the last mentioned. 58 leaves with 32 lines and the signatures a-g. Leaf 1b begins with a letter to Lr. Medici which ends leaf 2a. These first 2 leaves are without signatures. A metrical prologue fills leaves 3 and 4, and the poem itself begins on leaf 5a, and ends in the 24th line of leaf 58b.

18308 — il Driadeo, compilato per Luigi Pulci. Flor., Ant. Miscomini, 1 Febr. 1481. 4°.

63 leaves with the signatures a-h.

18309 — la rima parte del Driadeo compilato per Lucio Pulcro. Without place or date, 4°.

With 30 lines and the signatures a-h. Leaf 1b begins with a letter to Lr. Medici, which ends in the 19th line of leaf 1a. The metrical prologue follows in leaf 3a, and ends in the 18th line of leaf 3b, after which a statement of the contents of the poem follows. The poem itself begins in the 8th line of leaf 4a and ends in the 14th line of the reverse of the last leaf, under which there is only FINIS.—The Driadeo was printed in the year 1483 at the monastery of S. Jacopo di Ripoli at Florence, according to the account of the printing of this monastery (Fossi Bibl. Magliab. T. III. p. XXIII.); of which edition however no copy has yet really been seen, although Brunet quotes it without comment. May not this article be identically the edition of 1483?

18310 — il Driadeo compilato per Luigi Pulci. Fir., Ant. di Francescho, 14 Luglio, 1487. 4°.

67 leaves with 28 lines, and the signatures a-i. Leaf 1b begins with a letter to Lr. Medici, and the prologue follows in leaf 3a.

18314 — il Driadeo d' amore di Luca Pulci. Fir., Gi. St. di Karlo da Pavia, 1519. 4°.

18315 PULCI, Luigi. Il Morgante. (Ven.), Luca Venetiano, 26 Febr. 1481. fol.

The first edition, extremely scarce, and only containing 23 cantos. In 2 columns, with the signatures A-T. The first page is blank, and leaf 1<sup>b</sup> line 1 is, In principio era il verbo apresso adio. The work ends in T 5<sup>b</sup> with a register. This edition is incorrectly mentioned in the Paris catalogue, by Debure, Panzer, and others, as Li fatti di Carlo Magno etc.—The editions of this poem of chivalry printed in the 15th century are very scarce, and the more sought after in proportion as they vary from the text of the later editions.

In Pinelli's Catal., IV. 291, there was a copy of an edition in small fol. wanting the last 2 leaves, which was printed without any division into cantos in Roman characters in 2 columns, each of 4 ottave; it had signatures, but no catchwords and pagination. It was probably of the impression prepared in 1481 and 82 in the monastery of S. Jacopo di Ripoli at Florence (Fossi, T. III. p. xx.), of which no copy is known.

18316 — il Morgante maggiore. Ven., Bm. de Zanis de Portesio, 1488. 4°.

18317 — il Morgante maggiore. Ven., Manfredo di Borsello, 1493. 4°.

18318 — il Morgante maggiore. Fir., ad petitione et instantia di Piero Pacini, 1500. 4°. with woodcuts.

18319 — il Morgante maggiore, corretto da N. Massetti. Ven., Sessa, 1502. 8°.

18323 — il Morgante maggiore di Aluigi Pulci. Ven., Gu. da Fontaneto, 1534. 8°. Gothic letter.

18324 — il Morgante maggiore, corretto per L. Domenichi. Ven., Girol. Scotto, 1545. 4°. with woodcuts.

4 leaves of preliminary matter, 199 numbered leaves, and 1 leaf with the printer's symbol. Tolerably scarce, cited by the academy della Crusca, and greatly sought after. The explanations of the words are by Gi. Pulci, a nephew of the poet.

18326 — il Morgante maggiore di Aluigi Pulci. Ven., Bm. detto l' Imperadore, 1549. 8°. Gothic letter, with woodcuts.

18327 — Morgante maggiore, nouamente stampato et con ogni diligenza corretto. Ven., Comin da Trino, 1550. 4°. with woodcuts.

16 leaves of preliminary matter, and 197 numbered leaves. Almost as much sought after as the edition of 1546, and with the same explanation. According to Brunet, there are copies which have the year 1551 in the title and 1550 at the end, but in the Dresden copy 1550 is in the title also.—The catalogue of the Royal library at Paris has an edition, Ven., Girol. Scotto, 1550. 4°.

18328 — il Morgante, nuouamente corretto e ristampato con licenza de' superiori. Fir., Bm. Sermartelli, 1574. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 390 pages and 1 leaf. A very good and correct edition, in which however all the offensive passages are omitted.

18329 — — (the same title). Fir., Sermartelli, 1606. 4°.

8 leaves of preliminary matter, 390 pages and 1 leaf. Only a repetition of the preceding, and likewise mutilated. Cited by the academy della Crusca.

16 leaves, with the signatures a 2, b and b 2. In leaf 1<sup>a</sup> are 2 figures engraved in wood with the subscription, Morgante Margucte; and at the end is, Finito il Margucte piccolo. It is 245 stanzas from the 1st, 18th, and 19th cantos of the Morgante.

18358 PUTTANA errante. — La Zaffetta. Without place or date. (Ven. 1531). 8°.

This small, very scarce, and indecent work, is not by Aretino, but by Lr. Veniero, who by means of it sought to revenge himself on a Venetian courtesan of the name of Angela, whom he here designates by the Venetian insulting word Zaffetta (daughter of a sbirro). In the first poem he describes her life; in the second, the cruel and brutal revenge which he inflicted on her. This edition, printed in tolerably large Roman characters, has no other title than the words La Puttana errante on the reverse of the first leaf. Then follow an advertisement to the reader and two sonnets (one of them by Lr. Veniero to Aretino). Leaf 4, or signature Aiiiij, begins the poem of the Puttana errante in 185 ottave, which ends in leaf E 2. On the reverse of E 3 is, La Zaffetta, which second poem of 114 ottave begins in leaf E 4 and ends in G 6. G 7 and 8 are blank.

In the collection of letters to Aretino (Ven. 1551-52. II. 8), a certain Bn. Arellio writes (T. I. p. 104) under the date of 17 Oct. 1531 to Aretino, Ho veduto di nuovo una Puttana errante condotta insinò qui a Torino etc. Veniero's poem therefore really appeared in 1531. And the above edition may very probably be the original, judging from the form of the types and certain abbreviations. This edition at least appears to be different from that, of which Apost. Zeno has made mention in his lettere (1751. T. II. p. 296), and of which he only saw a copy without a title, for which reason he could not state with certainty the title of the first poem. But he says that the second poem is entitled, Il Trent-uno, and that the edition is dedicated to Aretino. But in the above edition the second poem is styled, la Zaffetta, and it has no dedication to Aretino, unless the above-mentioned sonnet be considered as such. An edition, Ven. 1538, 8°. is also mentioned in Haym's Bibl. Ital., and probably that is the one of which Zeno speaks.

Brunet saw another old edition of the first poem in 8°. of 36 leaves with this title, La Putana errante di Maf. Ven. The Zaffetta of 36 numbered pages, and the Cassaria in verse (a poem of a similar nature, and different from the prosaic Cassaria, see that article) of 8 leaves had been appended. These 3 pieces sold in 1805 for 48 fr.

Zeno on Fontanini, II. 82. mentions an edition of the Puttana errante and of the Zaffetta, 1651. 8°. under the name and with the portrait of Maffeo Veniero arcivescovo. It is probably the same edition which Debure, No. 3955, mentions under the title, Poesie da fuoco di diversi autori. Lucerna, 1651. 12°. As to the rest, both the last mentioned editions were incorrectly attributed to Maffeo Veniero, Lorenzo's son, who was not yet born when the original edition appeared.

The original edition, very scarce; it sold at the Roxburgh sale for 16l. Its price has greatly fallen in consequence of a new edition, superintended by Jos. Haslewood, Lond. 1811. 4°. of which only 250 copies were printed, yet was it sold at the duke of Marlborough's sale in 1819 for 5 guineas.

This voyage is remarkable, as being the first which the French ventured on to the East Indies; it is well written and much to be depended upon. According to Huet's MS. note in his copy (now in the Royal library at Paris), Pt. Bergeron composed it from Pyrard's information; but Pérau (Vie de Jérôme Bignon. Par. 1756. 12°. p. 88), attributes it to Hi. Bignon. Consult Beckmann's Litt. der Reisebeschrr. II. 115 sq. The first, very imperfect edition, has the title, Discours du voyage des Français aux Indes orientales. Par. 1611. 8°. The editions, Par. 1615 or 19. 8°. 2 parts in 1 vol., are enlarged; but the best edition is the above on account of Duval's geographical observations.
